PREFACE.

IS well known, one of the sources from which Spenser drew largely in his "Faerie Queene" was the rifacimento of Arthurian romances compiled by Sir Thomas Malory, and first published by William Caxton in 1485 under the title of "Le Morte Darthur." In the course of my Spenser studies I was thus led to pay special attention to this romance, and I soon felt the need of an edition answering in accuracy of text and in other respects to the requirements of modern scholarship.

The original edition is of such scarcity that only two copies are known. The second and third (Wynkyn de Worde's of 1498 and 1529) are equally scarce, and the latter differs from Caxton's to no inconsiderable extent. The later black-letter editions reprint Wynkyn de Worde's of 1529 with additional errors, omissions, and corruptions, that culminate in the edition of Thomas Stansby (1634), which is nevertheless the one chosen by Thomas Wright for his reprint (1856) of the work. Of other modern editions, Southey's (1817), which professes to reprint Caxton's edition, is inaccurate, interpolated, and difficult of reference; moreover, it has become very scarce. The Globe edition is modernised and abridged. The promise, dating back to 1868, of the Early-English Text Society¹ to issue a standard edition of Malory has not been fulfilled, nor have I been able to learn that there was any likelihood of its being fulfilled.

The field was therefore open for a new edition, which, after some consideration, I made up my mind to undertake. I communicated my intention to his Excellency the Royal Prussian Minister of Public Instruction, Herr Dr. von Gossler, requesting leave of absence for six months. My request was readily complied with, and for the prosecution of my labours I received a grant from public funds.

Through Earl Spencer's kind permission I was allowed the use, at the British Museum, of the Althorp copy. To ensure accuracy I copied it myself for the press, and I have read the proofs and revised with the original. Any one who has undertaken editorial work of this kind will appreciate the labour involved and the difficulties surmounted, and will be indulgent if here and there slight errors have been allowed to creep in. I soon found that the time at my disposal would only permit me to pass the text through the press, and I determined to devote myself entirely to this during my stay in England, and to leave the working up of the results of my study of the romance until later. I was strengthened in this determination by thinking that scholars would find it more convenient to have the text in one volume, as Caxton indeed gives it, and the whole of the editorial, index, and glossarial matter in another.

The present edition will consist of two parts of unequal size—the first to appear will contain the Text only; the second, the Introduction, a Treatise on the Sources, a complete List of the Various Readings, the Index, &c. The principles upon which this edition is based will be fully set forth in the Introduction; here it may suffice to say that Caxton is reprinted page for page, line for line, word for word, and, with a few exceptions, which will be discussed, letter for letter. The twenty-one pages¹ which, originally lacking in Earl Spencer's copy, were skilfully facsimiled by Mr. Whittaker from the Osterley Park copy, have, through the courtesy of Mr. B. F. Stevens, been submitted to the present owner of that copy, Mrs. Abby E. Pope, of Brooklyn, N.Y., U.S.A., who kindly had them collated for me. I intended to give the result of this collation at the end of the text-volume, but had to alter my mind for the following reason: Having worked through two-thirds of the text, I discovered that the statement about the facsimiles in Earl Spencer's copy, given by the existing authorities,² was not entirely correct. Two of the pages stated to be facsimiles are originals, whereas two so-called originals are facsimiles. I had therefore to send four more pages to America for collation. My supposition that these facsimiles were almost perfect as regards the text, has been confirmed; the errors are of the most trifling nature.

The Introduction will deal fully with the bibliographical peculiarities of Caxton's and of the later editions, as well as with their relation one to the other. The last chapter of the Introduction will be devoted to the peculiarities of the language of Malory, and here the result of the collation, as well as a list of the misprints and irregularities of spelling reproduced in the present edition, will be inserted. A full list will be given of the readings in which Wynkyn de Worde's second edition (1529) differs from Caxton's. This is necessary, not only because the period which lies between the two editions was one of noticeable change in the language, but also because, as already stated, the later black-letter editions go back to Wynkyn de Worde's second edition. The critical apparatus attached to the present edition will thus place the philologist and literary antiquary in possession of the two chief early forms of this English classic.

The Treatise on the Sources will endeavour to state concisely, yet exhaustively, the relation, so far as at present determinable, of Malory to the earlier Arthurian romances, whether French or English. The extensive mass of recent research (foremost among it the studies of M. Gaston Paris) has been sifted and tested. My task as regards one portion of the romance has been greatly lightened by the opportune publication of the Huth MS. of "Merlin," due to MM. Gaston Paris and Jacob Ulrich.¹

The Index will be both glossarial and explanatory, and will afford every possible means of reference. It will contain: Firstly, all names of persons and places occurring in the romance, with references and explanations. The names of the principal heroes will be accompanied by a concise analysis of their lives. Secondly, all obsolete and difficult words.

Malory is interesting not alone to the archaeologist of words and manners: he has exercised an abiding influence over the subject-matter of English literature and over the technical form of English prose. This aspect of his work lay outside the lines, as I had planned them, of the present edition, and I gladly acceded to my publisher's suggestion that it should be dealt with by the distinguished man of letters whose "Study of Malory as a Prose Writer" will be issued with the second volume.

It is with great pleasure that I express my warmest thanks to the Right Honourable the Earl Spencer; to His Excellency Herr Dr. von Gossler; to Mrs. Abby E. Pope; and to George Bullen, Esq., Keeper of the Printed Books at the British Museum, for kindly taking charge of the Althorp copy while in the Museum. My publisher, in his anxiety to make the volume in every way worthy of its contents, has liberally and readily carried out all my wishes. Last, but not least, I must thank Mr. McCall, of Messrs. Ballantyne, Hanson & Co.'s Printing Works, for the valuable assistance that he rendered me while the volume was passing through the press.

¶ Capítulum primum

It befel in the dayes of Vther pendragon when he was kynge of all Englonde / and fo reigned that there was a myȝty duke in Cornewail that helde warre ageynſt hym long tyme / And the duke was called the duke of Tyntagil / and fo by meanes kynge Vther ſend for this duk / charging hym to brynge his wyf with hym / for ſhe was called a fair lady / and a paſſyng wyfe / and her name was called Igrayne / So whan the duke and his wyf were comyn vnto the kynge by the meanes of grete lordes they were accorded bothe / the kynge lyked and loued this lady wel / and he made them grete chere out of meſure / and deſyred to haue lyen by her / But ſhe was a paſſyng good woman / and wold not aſſente vnto the kynge / And thenne ſhe told the duke her huſband and ſaid I ſuppoſe that we were ſente for that I ſhold be diſhonoured Wherfor huſband I counceille yow that we departe from hens fodenly that we maye ryde all nyghte vnto oure owne caſtell / and in lyke wyfe as ſhe faide ſo they departed / that neyther the kynge nor none of his counceill were ware of their departyng Alſo ſoone as kyng Vther knewe of their departyng ſoo fodenly / he was wonderly wrothe / Thenne he called to hym his pryuy counceille / and told them of the ſodeyne departyng of the duke and his wyf /

¶ Thenne they auyſed the kynge to ſend for the duke and his wyf by a grete charge / And yf he wille not come at your ſomōs / thenne may ye do your beſt / thenne haue ye cauſe to make myghty werre vpon hym / Soo that was done and the meſſagers hadde their anſuers / And that was thys ſhortly / that neyther he nor his wyf wold not come at hym /

Thenne was the kyng wonderly wroth / And thenne the kyng ſente hym playne word ageyne / and badde hym be redy and ſtuffe hym and garnyſſhe hym / for within xl dayes he wold fetch hym oute of the byggeſt caſtell that he hath / ¶ Whanne the duke hadde thys warnyng / anone he wente and furnyſſhed and garnyſſhed two ſtronge Caſtels of his of the whiche the one hyght Tyntagil / & the other caſtel hyȝt Terrabyll / So his wyf Dame Igrayne he putte in the castell of Tyntagil / And hym self he putte in the castel of Terrabyll the whiche had many yffues and pofternes oute / Thenne in alle hafte came Vther with a grete hooff / and leyde a fyege a-5 boutte the castel of Terrabil / And ther he pyght many pael-yons / and there was grete warre made on bothe parties / and moche peple flayne / Thenne for pure angre and for grete loue of fayr Irayne the kyng Vther felle feke / So came to the kyng Vther Syre Vlfius a noble knyght / and asked the 10 kyng why he was feke / I fhall telle the faid the kyng / I am feke for angre and for loue of fayre Igrayne that I may not be hool / wel my lord faid Syre Vlfius / I fhall feke Merlyn / and he fhalle do yow remedy that youre herte fhall be pleasyd / So Vlfius departed / and by aduenture he mette Mer-15 lyn in a beggars aray / and ther Merlyn asked Vlfius who-me he foughte / and he faid he had lytyl ado to telle hym / Well faide Merlyn / I knowe whome thou fekeft / for thou fekeft Merlyn / therfore feke no ferther / for I am he / and yf kyng Vther wille wel rewarde me / and be fworne vnto me to ful-20 fille my defyre that fhall be his honour & profite more thā myn for I fhalle caufe hym to haue alle his defyre / Alle this wyll I vndertake faid Vlfius that ther fhalle be nothyng refona-ble / but thow fhalt haue thy defyre / well faid Merlyn / he fhall haue his entente and defyre / And therfore faide Merlyn / ryde 25 on your way / for I wille not be long behynde

Capitulum Secundum

Thenne Vlfius was glad and rode on more than a paas tyll that he came to kyng Vtherpendragon / and told hym he had met with Merlyn / where is he faid the kyng fir faid Vlfius he wille not dwelle long / ther with al Vlfius 30 was ware where Merlyn stood at the porche of the paelions dore / And thenne Merlyn was bounde to come to the kyng Whan kyng Vther fawe hym he faid he was welcome / fyr faid Merlyn I knowe al your hert euery dele / fo ye wil be sworn vnto me as ye be a true kyng enoynted to fulfillle my defyre 35 ye fhall haue your defyre / thenne the kyng was fworne vpon the iiij euuāgeliftes / Syre faid Merlyn this is my defyre / the first nyȝt þ^t ye fhall lye by Igrayne ye fhall gete a child on her & whan that is borne that it shal be delyuerd to me for to nou-rishhe there as I wille haue it / for it shal be your worship / & the childis auaille as mykel as the child is worth / I wyll wel faid the kynge as thou wilt haue it / Now make you redy faid Merlyn this nyght ye shalle lye with Igrayne in the 5 castel of Tyntigayll / & ye shalle be lyke the duke her husband Vlſyus shal be lyke Syre Braſtias / a knyghte of the dukes And I will be lyke a knyghte that hyghte Syr Iordanus a knyghte of the dukes / But wayte ye make not many questions with her nor her men / but faye ye are diseased and foo hye 10 yow to bedde / and ryſe not on the morne tyll I come to yow / for the castel of Tyntygaill is but x myle hens / foo this was done as they deuyſed / But the duke of Tyntigail aſpyed hou the kyng rode fro the ſyege of tarabil / & therfor that nyghte he yſſued oute of the caſtel at a poſterne for to haue diſtreſſid the 15 kynges hooſte / And ſo thorowe his owne yſſue the duke hym ſelf was ſlayne or euer the kyng cam at the caſtel of Tyntigail / ſo after the deth of the duke kyng Vther lay with Igrayne more than thre houres after his deth / and begat on her that nyg³ arthur / & on day cam Merlyn cā to the kyng / & bad hym 20 make hym redy / & ſo he kiſt the lady Igrayne and departed in all haſt / But whan the lady herd telle of the duke her huſbād and by all record he was dede or euer kyng Vther came to her thenne ſhe merueilled who that myghte be that laye with her in lykenes of her lord / ſo ſhe mourned pryuely and held hir 25 pees / Thenne alle the barons by one aſſent prayd the Kyng of accord betwixe the lady Igrayne and hym / the kyng gaf hem leue / for fayne wold he haue ben accorded with her / Soo the kyng put alle the truſt in Vlſyus to entrete bitwene them ſo by the entrete at the laſt the kyng & ſhe met to gyder / Now 30 wille we doo well faid Vlſyus / our kyng is a luſty knyghte and wyueles / & my lady Igrayne is a paſſyng fair lady / it were grete ioye vnto vs all and hit myghte pleaſe the kyng to make her his quene / vnto that they all well accordyd and meued it to the kyng / And anone lyke a luſty knyghte / he 35 aſſentid therto with good wille / and ſo in alle haſte they were maryed in a mornynge with grete myrthe and loye / And Kyng Lott of Lowthean and of Orkenay thenne wedded Margawfe that was Gaweyns moder / And kyng Nentres of the land of Garlot wedded Elayne / Al this was done at the request of kyng Vther / And the thyrd fyfter morgan lesey was put to feole in a nonnery / And ther she lerned 5 fo moche that she was a grete Clerke of Nygromancye / And after she was wedded to kyng Vryens of the lond of Gore that was Syre Ewayns le blaunche maynys fader /

Capitulum tercium

THeñe quene Igrayne waxid dayly gretter & gretter / fo it befel after within half a yere as kyng Vther lay by 10 his quene he asked hir by the feith she ouȝt to hym whos was the child within her body / thēne she fore abashed to yeue anfuer / Defmaye you not faid the kyng but telle me the tro-uthe / and I shall loue you the better by the feythe of my body Syre faide she I shalle telle you the trouthe / the fame nyght 15 þ^e my lord was dede the houre of his deth as his knyghtes record ther came in to my castel of Tyntigaiill a man lyke my lord in speche and in countenaunce / and two knyghtes with hym in lykenes of his two knyghtes barcias and Iordans / & foo I went vnto bed with hym as I ouȝt to do with my lord / & the fa-20 me nyght as I shal answer vnto god this child was begoten vpon me / that is trouthe faide the kyng as ye fay / for it was I my self that cam in the lykenesse / & therfor defmay you not for I am fader to the child / & ther he told her alle the caufe / how it was by Merlyns counceil / thenne the quene made gre-25 te ioye whan she knewe who was the fader of her child / Sone come merlyn vnto the kyng / & faid fyr ye must puruey yow / for the nourisshyng of your child / as thou wolt faid the kyng be it / wel faid Merlyn I knowe a lord of yours in this land that is a passyng true man & a feithful / & he shal haue the 30 nourisshyng of your child / & his name is sir Ector / & he is a lord of fair lyuelode in many partyes in Englund & walys / & this lord sir ector lete hym be sent for / for to come & speke with you / & defyre hym your self as he loueth you that he will put his owne child to nourisshyng to another woman / and that 35 his wyf nourissh the yours / And whan the child is borne lete it be delyuerd to me at yöder pryuy posterne vncrystned / So like as Merlyn deuysed it was done / And whan fyre Ector was come / he made fyaūce to the kyng for to nourishe the child ly-ke as the Kyng desired / and there the kyng graunted fyr ector grete rewardys / Thenne when the lady was delyuerd the kyng commaunded ij knyghtes & ij ladyes to take the child 5 bound in a cloth of gold / & that ye delyuer hym to what pou-re man ye mete at the pofterne yate of the castel / So the child was delyuerd vnto Merlyn / and so he bare it forth vnto Syre Ector / and made an holy man to crysten hym / and named hym Arthur / and so fir Ectors wyf nourysshed hym with her 10 owne pappe / Thenne within two yeres kyng Vther felle feke of a grete maladye / And in the meane whyle hys enemyes Vsurpped vpon hym / and dyd a grete bataylle vpon his men / and slewe many of his peple / Sir said Merlyn ye may not lye so as ye doo / for ye muft to the feld though ye ryde on an hors 15 lyttar / for ye shall neuer haue the better of your enemyes / but yf your perfone be there / and thenne shall ye haue the vitory So it was done as Merlyn had deuysed / and they caryed the kyng forth in an hors lyttar wth a grete hooft towarde his enemyes / And at faynt Albons ther mette with the kyng a 20 grete hooft of the north / And that day Syre Vlſyus and fir Bracias dyd grete dedes of armes / and kyng Vthers men o-uercome the northeryn bataylle and slewe many peple & putt the remenaunt to flight / And thenne the kyng retorned vnto london and made grete ioye of his vitory / And thēne he fyll 25 paſſyng fore feke / ſo that thre dayes & thre nyghtes he was ſpecheles / wherfore alle the barons made grete ſorow and asked Merlyn what counceill were beſt / There nys none other reme-dye ſaid Merlyn but god wil haue his wille / But loke ye al Barons be bifore kyng Vther to morne / and god and I 30 ſhalle make hym to ſpeke / So on the morne alle the Barons with merlyn came to fore the kyng / thēne Merlyn ſaid aloud vnto kyng Vther / Syre ſhall your ſone Arthur be kyng after your dayes of this realme with all the appertenaunce / thenne Vtherpendragon torned hym and ſaid in herynge of them alle 35 I gyue hym gods bliſſing & myne / & byd hym pray for my ſoule / & righteuouſly & worſhipfully that he clayme þ^e croune vpon forfeiture of my bleſſyng / & therwith he yelde vp the ghof & thenne was he enterid as longed to a kyng / wherfor the que-ne fayre Igrayne made grete forowe and alle the Barons / Thenne stood the reame in grete icopardy long whyle / for eue-ry lord that was myghty of men maade hym stronge / and many wende to haue ben kyng / Thenne Merlyn wente to the archebiffhop of Caunterbury / and counceilled hym for to fende for alle the lordes of the reame / and alle the gentilmen of armes that they shold to london come by Cristmas vpon payne of curfyng / And for this cause þⁱ Ihū that was borne on that 10 nyghte that he wold of his grete mercy shewe some myracle / as he was come to be kyng of mankynde for to shewe somme myracle who shold be rightwys kyng of this reame / So the Archebiffhop by the aduys of Merlyn fend for alle the lordes and gentilmen of armes that they shold come by cryftmasse 15 euen vnto london / And many of hem made hem clene of her lyf that her prayer myghte be the more acceptable vnto god / Soo in the gretteſt chirch of london whether it were Powlis or not the Frenſhe booke maketh no mencyon / alle the eſtates were longe or day in the chirche for to praye / And whan matyns & 20 the firſt maſſe was done / there was ſene in the chircyard ayēſt the hyghe aulter a grete ſtone four ſquare lyke vnto a mar-bel ſtone / And in myddes therof was lyke an Anuyld of ſtele a foot on hyghe / & theryn ſtack a fayre ſwerd naked by the poynt / and letters there were wryten in gold aboute 25 the ſwerd that ſaiden thus / who ſo pulleth oute this ſwerd of this ſtone and anuyld / is rightwys kyng borne of all En-lond / Thenne the peple merueilled & told it to the Archebiffhop I commande ſaid tharchebiffhop that ye kepe yow within your chirche / and pray vnto god ſtill that no man touche the ſwerd 30 tyll the hyghe maſſe be all done / So whan all maſſes were done all the lordes wente to beholde the ſtone and the ſwerd / And whan they ſawe the ſcripture / ſom aſſayed ſuche as wold haue ben kyng / But none myght ſtere the ſwerd nor meue hit He is not here ſaid the Archebiffhop that ſhall encheue the ſwerd 35 but doubte not god will make hym knownen / But this is my counceill ſaid the archebiffhop / that we lete puruey x knyȝtes men of good fame / & they to kepe this ſwerd / ſo it was ordeydeyned / & thēne ther was made a crye / þⁱ euey mā ſhold aſſay þⁱ wold for to wynne the fwerd / And vpon newe yeerfday the barons lete maake a Iuftes and a tournament / that alle kny3-tes fhāt wold Iufte or tourneye / there my3t playe / & all this was ordeyned for to kepe the lordes to gyders & the comyns / for the Archebiffhop trusted / that god wold make hym knowe 5 that fhould wynne the fwerd / So vpon newe yerefday whan the feruyce was done / the barons rode vnto the feld / fome to Iufte / & fom to torney / & fo it happed that fyre Ector that had grete lyuelode aboute london rode vnto the Iuftes / & with hym rode fyr kaynus his fone & yong Arthur that was hys nourif- 10 fhed broder / & fyr kay was made kny3t at al halowmas afore So as they rode to y^e Iuftes ward / fir kay loſt his fwerd for he had lefte it at his faders lodgyng / & fo he prayd yong Arthur for to ryde for his fwerd / I wyll wel faid Arthur / & rode faſt after y^e fwerd / & whan he cam home / the lady & al were 15 out to fee the Iouſtyng / thenne was Arthur wroth & faide to hym ſelf / I will ryde to the chircheyrd / & take the fwerd with me that ſtycketh in the ſtone / for my broder fir kay ſhal not be without a fwerd this day / fo whan he cam to the chircheyrd fir Arthur ali3t & tayed his hors to the ſtyle / & fo he wente to 20 the tent / & found no kny3tes there / for they were atte Iuſtyng & fo he handled the fwerd by the handels / and li3tly & fierfly pulled it out of the ſtone / & took his hors & rode his way vntyll he came to his broder fir kay / & delyuerd hym the fwerd / & as fone as fir kay ſaw the fwerd he wiſt wel it was the fwerd 25 of the ſtone / & fo he rode to his fader fyr Ector / & faid / ſire / loo here is the fwerd of the ſtone / wherfor I muſt be kyng of thys land / when fyre Ector beheld the fwerd / he retorned ageyne & cam to the chirche / & there they ali3te al thre / & wente in to the chirche / And anon he made fir kay ſwere vpon a book / how 30 he came to that fwerd / Syr faid fir kay by my broder Arthur for he brought it to me / how gate ye this fwerd faid fir Ector to Arthur / fir I will telle you when I cam home for my broders fwerd / I fond no body at home to delyuer me his fwerd And ſo I thought my broder fyr kay fhould not be ſwerdles 35 & ſo I cam hyder egerly & pulled it out of the ſtone withoute ony payn / found ye ony kny3tes about this fwerd ſeid fir ector Nay faid Arthur / Now faid fir Ector to Arthur I vnderſtāde ye must be kyng of this land / wherfore I / fayd Arthur and for what cause / Sire faide Ector / for god wille haue hit foo for ther shold neuer man haue drawen oute this swerde / but he that shal be rightwys kyng of this land / Now lete me see 5 whether ye can putte the swerd ther as it was / and pulle hit oute ageyne / that is no maystry faid Arthur / and foo he put it in the stone / wherwith alle Sir Ector assayed to pulle oute the swerd and faylled

¶ Capitulum sextum

10 Now assay faid Syre Ector vnto Syre kay / And anon he pulled at the swerd with alle his myghte / but it wold not be / Now shal ye assay faid Syre Ector to Arthur I wyll wel faid Arthur and pulled it out easly / And ther-with alle Syre Ector knelyd doune to the erthe and Syre Kay / Allas faid Arthur myne own dere fader and broder why 15 knele ye to me / Nay nay my lord Arthur / it is not fo I was neuer your fader nor of your blood / but I wote wel ye are of an hygher blood than I wende ye were / And thenne Syre Ector told hym all how he was bitaken hym for to nourishe hym And by whoos commandement / and by Merlyns delyueraunce 20 ¶ Thenne Arthur made grete doole whan he vnderstood that Syre Ector was not his fader / Sir faid Ector vnto Arthur woll ye be my good & gracious lord when ye are kyng / els were I to blame faid arthur for ye are the man in the world that I am most be holdyng to / & my good lady and moder your wyf 25 that as wel as her owne hath fostred me and kepte / And yf euer hit be goddes will that I be kyng as ye fay / ye shall de-fyre of me what I may doo / and I shalle not faille yow / god forbede I shold faille yow / Sir faid Sire Ector / I will aske no more of yow / but that ye wille make my sone your foster 30 broder Syre Kay Senceall of alle your landes / That shalle be done faid Arthur / and more by the feith of my body that neuer man shalle haue that office but he whyle he and I lyue / There with all they wente vnto the Archebisshop / and told hym how the swerd was encheued / and by whome / and on twelfth day 35 alle the barons cam thyder / and to assay to take the swerd who that wold assay / But there afore hem alle ther myghte none take it out but Arthur / wherfor ther were many lordes wroth

And faide it was grete shame vnto them all and the reame to be ouer gouernyd with a boye of no hyghe blood borne / And fo they fell oute at that tyme that it was put of tyll Candelmas / And thenne alle the barons shold mete there ageyne / but alwey the x knyghtes were ordeyned to watche the fwerd day 5 & nyȝt / & fo they fette a paelione ouer the stone & þ^s fwerd & fyue alwayes watched / Soo at Candelmaffe many moo grete lordes came thyder for to haue wonne the fwerde / but there myghte none preuaille / And right as Arthur dyd at Crift-maffe / he dyd at Candelmaffe and pulled oute the fwerde e- 10 afely wherof the Barons were fore agreued and put it of in delay till the hyghe feſte of Eeſter / And as Arthur ſped afore / fo dyd he at Eeſter / yet there were ſome of the grete lordes had indignacion that Arthur ſhold be kyng / and put it of in a delay tyll the feſt of Pentecoſte / Thenne the Archebiſſhop 15 of Caunterbury by Merlyns prouydence lete purueye thenne of the beſt knyghtes that they myghte gete / And fuche knyghtes as Vtherpendragon loued beſt and mooſt truſted in his dayes / And fuche knyghtes were put aboute Arthur as fyr Bawdewyn of Bretayn / fyre kaynes / fyre Vlſyus / fyre bar- 20 ſias / All theſe with many other were alweyes about Arthur day and nyghte till the feſte of Pentecoſt

¶ Capitulum ſeptimum

ANd at the feſte of pentecoſt alle maner of men affayed to pulle at the fwerde that wold aſſay / but none myghte preuaille but Arthur / and pulled it oute afore 25 all the lordes and comyns that were there / wherfore alle the comyns cryed at ones we wille haue Arthur vnto our kyng we wille put hym nomore in delay / for we alle ſee that it is goddes wille that he ſhalle be our kyng / And who that holdeth ageynſt it we wille ſlee hym / And therwith all they kne- 30 lyd at ones both ryche and poure / and cryed Arthur mercy by cauſe they had delayed hym ſoo longe / and Arthur foryaf hem / and took the fwerd bitwene both his handes / and offred it vpon the aulter where the Archebiſſhop was / and ſo was he made knyghte of the beſt man that was there / And ſo anon 35 was the coronacyon made / And ther was he fworne vnto his lordes & the comyns for to be a true kyng to stand with true lufte fro thens forth the dayes of this lyf / Also theñe he made alle lordes that helde of the crowne to come in / and to do fer-5 uyce as they oughte to doo / And many complayntes were made vnto sir Arthur of grete wronges that were done syn the dethe of kyng Vther / of many londes that were bereued lordes

 Arthur was glad of their comynge / for he wende that al the 35 kynges & knyghtes had come for grete loue / and to haue done hym worſhip at his feſte / wherfor the kyng made grete io-ye / and ſente the kynges and knyghtes grete preſentes / But the kynges wold none receyue / but rebuked the meffagers shamefully / and faid they had no ioye to receyue no yestes of a berdles boye that was come of lowe blood / and fente hym word / they wold none of his yestes / But that they were come to gyue hym yestes with hard fwerdys betwixt the neck 5 and the fholders / And therfore they came thyder / so they told to the meffagers playnly / for it was grete fhame to all them to fee fuche a boye to haue a rule of soo noble a reaume as this land was / With this anfuer the meffagers departed & told 10 to kyng Arthur this anfuer / wherfor by the aduys of his ba-

¶ Capitulum ix

Thenne kynge Arthur came oute of his tour / and had vnder his gowne a Iefferaunte of double maylle / and ther wente with hym the Archebiffhop of Caunterbu-5 Braftias / thefe were the men of mooft worfhip that were with hym / And whan they were mette / there was no mekenes but foute wordes on bothe fydes / but alweyes kynge Arthur an-fuerd them and faid / he wold make them to bowe and he lyued wherfore they departed with wrath / and kynge Arthur badde 10 kepe hem wel / and they bad the kynge kepe hym wel / Soo the kynge retorned hym to the toure ageyne and armed hym and alle his knyghtes / what will ye do faid Merlyn to the kynges ye were better for to flynte / for ye fhalle not here preuaille though ye were x fo many / be we wel auyfed to be aferd of a dre-15 me reder faid kyng Lot / with that Merlyn vanyffhed aweye / and came to Kynge Arthur / and bad hym fet on hem fierfly / & in the mene whyle there were thre honderd good men of the beft that were with the kynges / that wente ftreyghte vnto kynge Arthur / and that comforted hym gretely / Syr faid Merlyn to 20 Arthur / fyghte not with the fwerde ye had by myracle / til that ye fee ye go vnto the wers / thenne drawe it out and do your beft / So forth with alle kynge Arthur fette vpon hem in

And thenne the comyns of Carlyon aroos with clubbis and stauns and flewe many knyghtes / but alle the kynges helde them to gyders with her knyghtes that were leste on lyue / and so fled and departed / And Merlyn come vnto Arthur / and counceilled hym to folowe hem no further ¶ Ca / r

SO after the feste and iourneye kyng Arthur drewe 5 hym vnto london / and soo by the counceil of Merlyn the kyng lete calle his barons to couceil / for Merlyn had told the kyng that the fixe kynges that made warre vpon hym wold in al haste be awroke on hym & on his landys wherfor the kyng asked counceil at hem al / they coude no coun- 10 ceil gyue but said they were bygge ynough / ye faye wel said Arthur / I thanke you for your good courage / but wil ye al that loveth me speke with Merlyn ye knowe wel that he hath done moche for me / and he knoweth many thynges / & whan he is afore you / I wold that ye prayd hym hertely of his best 15 aunse / Alle the barons sayd they wold pray hym and desyre hym / Soo Merlyn was fente for & fair desyred of al the barons to gyue them best counceil / I shall fay you said Merlyn I warne yow al / your enemyes are passyng strong for yow / and they are good men of armes as ben on lyue / & by thys 20 tyme they haue gotten to them four kynges mo / and a myghty duke / and onlesse that our kyng haue more chyualry with hym than he may make within þ^e boundys of his own reame and he fyghte with hem in batail / he shal be ouercome & slayn what were best to doo in this cause said al the barons / I shal 25 telle you said Merlyn myne aduys / there ar two bretheren beyond the see / & they be kynges bothe and merueillous good men of her handes / And that one hyghte Kyng Ban of Benwic And that other hyght Kyng Bors of gaule that is Fraunce And on these two Kynges warrith a myghty man of men 30 the Kyng Claudas / and stryeth with hem for a castel / and grete werre is betwixt them / But this Claudas is so myghty of goodes wherof he geteth good knyghtes that he putteth thefe two kynges moost parte do the werse / wherfor this is my counceil that our kyng and fouerayne lord sende vnto the kynges 35 Ban and Bors by two trusty knyghtes with letters wel deuyfed / that and they wil come and see kyng Arthur and his courte / & so helpe hym in his warrys that he wil be sworne vnto them to helpe them in their warrys ageynft kynge Claudas / Now what faye ye vnto this counceill faid Merlyn / thys is wel counceilled faid the kynge & alle the Barons / right fo in alle hafte ther were ordeyned to goo two knyghtes on the 15 meffage vnto the two kynges / Soo were there made letters in the plefaunt wyfe accordyng vnto kyng Arthurs defyre / Vl-fyus and Braftias were made the meffagers / & fo rode forth wel horfed and wel armed / and as the gyfe was that tyme & fo paffed the see & rode toward the cyte of Benwyck / and 10 there byfydes were viij knyghtes that afpyed them / And at a ftrayt paffage they mette with Vlfyus & Braftias / & wold haue taken hem pryfoners / fo they prayd hem that they myght paffe / for they were meffagers vnto kyng Ban & Bors fent from kynge Arthur / therfor faid the viij knyghtes ye fhalle 15 dye or be pryfoners / for we ben knyghtes of kyng Claudas And therwith two of them drefsid their fperys / and Vlfyus and Braftias drefsid theire fperes and ranne to gyder with grete raundon / And Claudas knyghtes brack their fperes / and ther to hylde and bare the two knyghtes out of her fadels 20 to the erthe / and fo lefte hem lyeng and rode her wayes / And the other fixe knyghtes rode afore to a paffage to mete wyth hem ageyne / and fo Vlfyus & Braftias fmote other two down And fo pafft on her wayes / And at the fourth paffage there mette two for two / and bothe were leid vnto the erthe / fo ther 25 was none of the viij knyghtes but he was fore hurte or bryfed And whan they come to Benwick it fortunod ther were both kynges Ban and Bors / And whan it was told the kynges that there were come meffagers / there were fente vnto them ij knyghtes of worship / the one hyghte Lyonfes lord of the co-30 untry of payarne and Sir phariaunce a worshipful knyght Anone they asked from whens they came / and they faid from kynge Arthur kyng of Englund / fo they took them in theyre armes and made grete ioye eche of other / But anon as the ij kynges wift they were meffagers of Arthurs / ther was ma-35 de no taryenge / but forthwith they fpak with the knyghtes / & welcomed hem in the feythfulleſt wyfe / & faid / they were moſt welcome vnto them before alle the kynges lyuynge / and ther with they kyft the letters & delyuerd hem / And whan Ban and Bors vnderstood the letters / thenne were they more wel come than they were before / And after the haſt of the letters / they gaf hem this anſuer that they wold fulfille the deſyre of kyng Arthurs wrytyng & Vlſyus & Braſtias tary there as longe as they wold / they ſhold haue ſuche chere as myghte be 5 made them in tho marchys / Thenne Vlſyus & Braſtias told the kyng of the aduēture at their paſſages of the eyghte knytes / Ha A ſaid Ban and Bors they were my good frendes I wold I had wyſt of hem they ſhold not haue eſcaped ſo So Vlſyus & Braſtias had good chere and grete yeſtes as 10 moche as they myghte bere away / and hadde their anſuere by mouthe and by wrytyng that tho two Kynges wold come vnto Arthur in all the haſt that they myzte / So the two Knytes rode on a fore / and paſſed the ſee / and come to their lord and told hym how they had ſpedde / wherof Kyng Arthur 15 was paſſyng gladde / At what tyme ſuppoſe ye / the ij Kynges wol be here / Syr ſaid they afore all halowmaſſe / Thenne the kyng lete puruey for a grete feeſte / and lete crye a grete luſtes / And by all halowmaſſe the two kynges were come ouer the ſee with thre honderd knyžtes wel arayed both for the pees 20 and for the werre / And kyng Arthur mette with hem x my-le oute of london / and ther was grete ioye as coude be thoužt or made / And on al halowmaſſe / at the grete feeſte ſate in the halle the thre kynges / and fyre kay ſencial ſerued in the halle And Syr lucas the bottelere that was duke Corneus ſone / & 25 ſir gryſlet that was the ſone of Cardol / theſe iij knyžtes had the rule of alle the ſeruyſe that ſerued the kynges / And anon as they had waſſhen & ryſen / al knyžtes that wold luſte made hem redy / by than they were redy on horſbak there were vij C knyghtes / And Arthur Ban and Bors with the Archebiſ- 30 ſhop of Caunterbury / and fyre Ector kays fader they were in a place couerd with clothe of gold lyke an halle with ladyes and gentilwymmen for to behold who dyd beſt and theron to giue Iugement

¶ Capitulum xi

ANd kyng Arthur and the two Kynges lete departe 35 the vij C knyghtes in two partyes And there were iij C knyghtes of the reame of Benwick and of gaule torned on the other ſyde than they dreſſid her ſheldes / and beganne to couche her speres many good knyghtes / So Gryflet was the first that mette with a knyghte one ladynas and they mett so egerly that al men hadde wonder / And they soo faughte that her sheldes felle to pyeces / and hors and man 5 felle to the erthe / And bothe the frensishe knyghte and the En-glysshe knyghte lay so longe that alle men wend they had ben dede / Whan lucas the botteler sawe Gryflet soo lye / he horsed hym ageyne anon / and they two dyd merucillous dedes of armes with many bachelers / Also fyre kay came oute of an en-10 bufflement with fyue knyghtes with hym / and they fixe smote other fixe doune / But fyr kay dyd that day merueillous dedes of armes / that ther was none dyd so wel as he that day Thenne ther come ladynas & Graftian two knyghtes of fraunce / and dyd passynge wel that all men preyed them / 15 Thenne come there Syre placidas a good knyghte and mette with fyr kay and smote hym doune hors and man / wherfore Syre gryflet was wrothe and mette with Syre placidas soo harde that hors and man felle to the erthe / But whan the / v / knyghtes wyf that fyr kay had a falle they were wrothe out 20 of wyt / And therwith eche of them / v / bare doune a knyghte / Whanne kyng Arthur and the two kynges sawe hem begyn waxe wrothe on bothe partyes / they lepte on smale hakeneis / and lete crye that all men shold departe vnto their lodgyng And so they wente home and vnarmed them and so to euen-25 songe and souper / And after the thre kynges wente in to a gardyn / and gaf the pryce vnto fyre kay and to lucas the bot-telere / and vnto Syre Gryflet / And thenne they wente vnto counceil / and with hem gwenbaus the brother vnto fyr Ban & Bors a wyfe Clerk / and thyder went Vlffys and Braf-30 tias and Merlyn / And after they had ben in counceill / they wente vn to bedde / And on the morne they herde masse and to dyner / and so to their counceille and made many argumentis what were best to doo / At the last they were concluded / that Merlyn shold goo with a token of kyng Ban and that was 35 a rynge vnto his men and kyng Bors and Gracian & placididas sholde goo ageyne and kepe theire castels and her countreyes / as for kyng Ban of Benwick and kyng Bors of Gaules had ordeyned hem / and so passed the see and came to Benwyck / And whan the peple sawe kyng Bans ryng & gracion and placidas they were glad / and asked how the kynges ferd / and made grete ioye of their welfare and cordyng / and accordyng vnto the fouerayne lordes desyre / the men of warre made hem redy in al hast possyble / soo that they were xv 5 M on hors and foot / and they had grete plente of vytaille with hem by Merlyns prouysyon / But gracion and placidas were leste to furnyshe and garnyshe the castels for drede of kyng Claudas / ryght so Merlyn passed the see wel vytailled bothe by water and by land / And whan he came to the see / he 10 sente home the foote men ageyne and took no mo with hym / but x M men on horsbak the moost parte men of armes and so shpypped and passed the see in to Englund / and loded at Do-uer / and thorow the wytte of Merlyn he had the hooft Northward the pryuyest wey that coude be thoughte vnto the foreist 15 of Bedegrayne / and there in a valey he lodged hem secretely / ¶ Thenne rode Merlyn vnto Arthur and the two kynges & told hem how he had sped / wherof they had grete merueille / that man on erthe myghte spede so soone / and goo and come So Merlyn told them x M were in the forest of Bedegrayne 20 wel armed at al poyntes / thenne was there no more to saye / but to horsbak wente all the hooft as Arthur had afore pur-ueyed / So with xx M he passed by nyghte and day / but ther was made suche an ordenaunce afore by Merlyn that ther shold no man of werre ryde nor go in no countrey on this syde trent 25 water / but yf he had a token from kyng Arthur / where tho-row the kynges enemyes durste not ryde as they dyd to fore to aspye

¶ Capitulum xij

ANd soo within a lytel space the thre kynges came vnto the Castel of Bedegrayne / and fond there a pas- 30 syng fayr selauship and wel be sene / wherof they had grete ioye / and vytaille they wanted none / This was the cause of the northeren hooft that they were rered for the despyte and rebuke the fyx kynges had at Carlyon / And tho vj kynges by her meanes gate vnto hem fyue other kynges / And 35 thus they beganne to gadre theyr peple ¶ And how they sware that for wele nor woo they shold not leue other / tyl they had destroyed Arthur / and thenne they made an oth The fyrst that beganne the othe was the duke of Candebenet / that he wold brynge with hym v M men of armes the which were redy on horfbak / Thenne sware kynge Brandegoris of 5 stranggore that he wold brynge v M men of armes on horfbak / Thenne sware kynge Claryuaus of Northumberland he wold brynge thre thousand men of armes / thenne sware the kyng of the C knyghtes that was a passyng good man and 10 horfbak / thenne ther swore kynge Lott a passyng good knyzt and fyre Gawayns fader that he wold brynge v M men of brynge v M men of armes on horfbak / Also ther swore kyng Nentres to brynge v M men of armes on horfbak / Also ther 20 swore kynge Carados to brynge v M of armes on horfbak / Soo her hool hooft was of clene men of armes on horfbak fyfty thousand and a foot x thousand of good mennes body-es / thenne were they soone redy and mounted vpon hors and sente forth their fore rydars / for these xj kynges in her wayes 25 leyde a fyege unto the castel of Bedegrayne / and so they departed and drewe toward Arthur and leste fewe to abyde at the fyege for the castel of Bedegrayne was holden of kynge Arthur / and the men that were theryn were Arthurs

¶ Capitulum xiiij

30 Soo by Merlyns aduys ther were sente fore rydars to skumme the Countreie / & they mette with the fore rydars of the north / and made hem to telle whiche wey the hooft cam / and thenne they told it to Arthur / and by kyng Ban and Bors counceill they lete brenne and destroye alle the con-trey afore them there they shold ryde / ¶ The kynge with the 35 honderd knyghtes mette a wonder dreme two nyghtes a fore the bataille / that ther blewe a grete wynde & blewe down her castels and her townes / and after that cam a water and bare hit all away / Alle that herd of the sweuen said / it was a token of grete batayll / Thenne by counceill of Merlyn whan they wist whiche wey the xj kynges wold ryde and lodge that nyghte At mydnyght they sette vpon them as they were in theyr pauelyons / But the scoute watche by her hooft cryed lordes att 5

¶ Capitulum xiiij

THenne kyng Arthur and kyng Ban and Kyng Bors with her good and trusty knyghtes fet on hem so fyrerly that he made them ouer throwe her pauelions on her hedys / but the xj kynges by manly prowesse of armes tooke 10 a fayre champayne / but there was slayne that morowe tyde x M good mennys bodyes / And so they had afore hem a strong passaye yet were they fyfty M of hardy men / Thenne it drewe toward day / now shalle ye doo by myne aduys said Merlyn vnto the thre kynges I wold that kyng Ban and kyng 15 Bors with her selauship of x M men were put in a wood here besyde in an enbuffement and kepe them preuy / and that they be leid or the lyght of the daye come / and that they stere not tyll ye and your knyghtes haue foughte with hem longe And whanne hit is daye lyght dresse your bataille euen afore 20 thenne wyl they be the more hardy when they see yow but about xx M / and cause hem to be the gladder to suffre yow and youre hooft to come ouer the passaye / All the thre kynges and the hoole barons sayde that Merlyn said passyngly wel / and 25 it was done anone as Merlyn had deuysed / Soo on the morn whan eyther hooft sawe other / the hooft of the north was well comforted / Thenne to Vlkyus and Brastias were delyuerd thre thousand men of armes / and they sette on them fyrerly in the passaye / and slewe on the ryght hand and on the lyft 30 hand that it was wonder to telle / ¶ Whanne that the enleuen kynges sawe that there was so fe-we a selauship dyd suche dedes of armes they were ashamed and sette on hem agayne fyrerly / and ther was fyr Vlkyus hors slayne vnder hym / but he dyd merueylously well on 35

THenne lucas ſawe kyng Agwyfaunce that late hadde ſlayne Morys de la roche / and lucas ran to hym with a ſhort ſpere that was grete / that he gaf hym ſuche a falle that the hors felle doun to the erthe / Alſo lucas found there on fo-te bloyas de la flaundres and ſyr Gwynas ij hardy knyghtes 35 & in that woodenes that lucas was in / he ſlewe ij bachelers & horſed hem ageyn / thēne waxid the batail poſſyng hard on both partyes / but arthur was glad þ^t his knyghtes were horſed ayene & thēne they foughte to gyders that the noyfe and fowne rang by the water & the wood / wherfor kyng Ban and kyng bors made them redy and dresyd theyr sheldes and harneys / and they were so couragous that many Knyghtes shoke & beuerd 5 for egrenes / All this whyle lucas and Gwynas & bryaunte & Bellyas of Flaundrys helde strong medle ayenst vj kynges / that was Kyng Lott / kyng Nentres / kyng Brandegorys / Kyng Idres / kyng Vryens & kyng Agwyfaunce / Soo with the helpe of fyre kay & of fyr gryflet / they helde these vj 10 kynges hard that vnnethe they had ony power to defend them But whan fyr Arthur sawe the batail wold not be endyd by no maner / he ferd wood as a lyon / & ftered his hors here & there on the right hand & on the lyft hand . that he flynte not tyl he had slayne xx knyghtes / Also he wounded kyng Lot fo-15 re on the sholder and made hym to leue that ground / for fyre kay & gryflet dyd with kyng Arthur there grete dedes of armes / Thenne Vlffus and Braffias & fir Ector encountred ageynst the duke Eustace & kyng Cradelment & kyng Cradelmāt and kyng Claryaunce of Northumberland & kyng Ca-20 rados & ageynst the kyng with the C knyghtes / So these knyges encountred with these kynges that they made them to auoy-de the grounde / thēne Kyng Lott made grete dool for his dom-magis & his felawes / & said vnto the x kynges but yf ye wil do as I deuyse we shalle be slayn & destroyed / lete me haue the 25 kyng with the C Knyghtes & kyng Agwyfaunce & kyng I-dres and the duke of Canbence / & we v Kynges wol haue vj Kynges holde medle with xij M / & we see that ye haue fouzten with hem long thēne will we come on fyerfly / & ellys 30 shall we neuer matche hem said kyng Lot but by this meane So they departed as they here deuyfed / & vj kynges made her party strong ageynst Arthur and made grete warre longe / In the meane whyle brake the enbushment of Kyng Ban and kyng bors and Lyonfes and Pharyaunce had the ad-35 uant garde / and they two knyghtes mette with kyng Idres and his felawship / and there began a grete medele of brekyng of speres and smytyng of swerdys with fleyng of men and horses / And kyng Idres was nere at difcomforture

That fawe Agwyfaunce the kynge and put lyonfes and pharyaunce in poynte of dethe / for the duke of Canbenek came on with all with a grete felaufhip / foo thefe two knyghtes were in grete daunger of their lyues that they were fayn to retorne but alweyes they refcowed hem felf and their felaufhip mer- 5 ueilloufly / Whan kynge Bors fawe tho knyghtes put on bak it greued hym fore / thēne he cam on fo faft that his felaufhip femed as blak as Inde / whan kyng Lot had afpyed kynge bors / he knewe hym wel / thenne he faid O Ihefu defende vs frō deth & horryble maymes / for I fee wel we ben in grete perylle 10 of dethe / for I fee yonder a kynge one of the moft worfhipful-left men & one of the beft knyghtes of the world ben enclyned vnto his felaufhip / what is he faid the kynge with the C knytes / it is faid kyng Lot kyng bors of gaule / I merueile how they come in to this countreye without wetyng of vs all 15

It was by Merlyns anyfe faid the knyghte / As for hym fayd kyng Carados / I wylle encountre with kynge bors / and ye wil refcowe me whan myfter is / go on faid they al / we wil do all that we may / thenne kyng Carados & his hooft rode on a foſte pace tyl that they come as nyghe kynge Bors as bowe 20 draughte / thenne eyther bataill lete their hors renne as faft as they myghte / And Bleoberys that was godfon vnto kynge Bors he bare his chyef ſtandard / that was a paſſyng good knyghte / Now ſhall we ſee faid kyng Bors hou thefe northeren bretons can bere the armes / & kyng Bors encountred with 25 a knyght / and fmote hym thorow out with a ſpere that he ſel dede vnto the erthe / and after drewe his ſwerd & dyd merueillous dedes of armes that all partyes had grete wōder ther-of / & his knyghtes failled not but dyd their part / & kyng Ca-rados was ſmyten to the erthe / With that came the kyng with 30 the C knyghtes & refcued kyng Carados myztely by force of ar-Y than come in to the feld kyng Ban as fyers as a lyon with bandys of grene / & therupon gold / Ha a fa- 35 id kyng Lot we muſt be diſcomfyte / for yonder I ſee the moſte valyaunt knyght of the world / and the man of the moſt renoume / for ſuche ij bretheren as is kyng Ban & kyng bors ar not lyuynge / wherfore we must nedes voyde or deye / And but yf we auoyde manly and wysely / ther is but dethe / whanne kynge Ban came in to the bataill / he cam in so fierfly / that the strokes redounded ageyne fro the woode and the water / wher-5 for kynge Lott wepte for pyte and doole that he sawe so many good knyghtes take theyr ende / But thorowe the grete force of kyng Ban they made both the Northernen bataylles that were departed / hurtled to gyders for grete drede / and the three kynges & their knyghtes slewe on euer that it was pyte on to 10 behold that multitude of the people that fledde / But kynge Lott and Kynge of the honderd knyghtes & kynge Morganore gadred the peple to gyders passyng knyghtly / and dyd grete prowesse of armes / and helde the bataill all that daye lyke hard / ¶ Whanne the kynge of the honderd knyghtes beheld the 15 grete damage that kynge Ban dyd / he threst vnto hym wyth his hors and smote hym on hye vpon the helme a grete stroke and stonyed hym fore / Thenne kynge Ban was wroth with hym / and folowed on hym fyersly / the other sawe that / and cast vp his sheld & spored his hors forward / But the stro-20 ke of kynge Ban felle doune and carfe a cantel of the sheld / and the swerd flode doune by the hauberk behynde his back / & cut thorow the trappere of stele / and the hors euen in two pye-ces that the swerd felte the erthe / Thenne the kynge of the C knyghtes voyded the hors lyghtly and with his swerd he bro-25 ched the hors of kyng Ban thorow and thorow / with that kynge Ban voyded lyghtly from the deede hors / and thenne kynge Ban smote at the other so egrely / and smote hym on the helme that he felle to the erth / Also in that yre he feld kyng Morganore and there was grete slaughter of good knyghtes 30 and moche peple / by than come in to the prees kynge Arthur / and fond Kynge Ban stondynge among dede men and dede hors fyghtynge on foote as a wood lyon / that ther came none nyghe hym as fer as he myght reche with his swerd / but he caughte a greuous buffet wherof Kynge Arthur had grete py-35 te / And Arthur was so bloody that by his shelde ther myght no man knowe hym / for all was blood and braynes on his swerd / And as Arthur lokod by hym he sawe a knyght that was passyngly wel horfed / and therwith fyre Arthur ranne to hym / and smote hym on the helme that his swerd wente vnto his teeth / and the knyght fanke doune to the erthe dede / & anon Arthur tooke the hors by the rayne and ladde hym vnto kynge Ban & said fair broder / haue this hors / for ye haue grete myfter thereof & me repenteth fore of your grete dammage 5 Hit shall be soone reuengid said Kyng Ban / for I truste in god myn eure is not fuche but some of them may fore repente thys / I wol wel said Arthur / for I see your dedes full actual Neuertheles I myghte not come at yow at that tyme / But whanne Kyng Ban was mounted on horsbak / thenne there 10 beganne newe bataill the whyche was fore and hard / and passyng grete slaughter / And so thurgh grete force Kyng Arthur / Kyng Ban and Kyng Bors made her knyghtes a li-tel to with drawe them / But alwey the xj Kynges with her chyualrye neuer torned bak / and so withdrewe hem to a lytil 15 woode / and so ouer a lytil ryuer / & there they rested hem / for on the nyghte they myghte haue no rest on the feld / And the-ne the xj kynges and knyghtes put hem on a hepe all to gyders as men adrad and out of alle comforte / but ther was no man myghte passe them / they helde hem so hard to gyders bothe 20 behynde and before that kyng Arthur had merueille of their dedes of armes and was passyng wrothe / A fyr Arthur faid kyng Ban and kyng Bors blame hem noughte / For they doo as good men ouzt to doo / For by my feith said kyng Ban / they are the best fyghtyng men and knyghtes of moost 25 prowesse that euer I sawe or herd speke of / And tho xj kynges are men of grete worship / And yf they were longyng vnto yow / there were no kyng vnder the heuen hadde fuche xj knyghtes and of fuche worship / I may not loue hem said Arthur / they wold destroye me / that wote we wel said kyng 30 Ban and Kyng Bors / for they are your mortal enemyes / and that hath ben preued afore hand / And this day they haue done their parte / and that is grete pyte of their wilfulnes Thenne alle the xj kynges drewe hem to gyder / And thenne faid kyng Lott / lordes ye must other wayes than ye do / or els 35 the grete losse is behynde / ye may see what peple we haue lost / and what good men we lese / by cause we waytte alweyes on these foote men / and euer in sauynge of one of the foote men we lese x horsmen for hym / therfore this is myne aduys / lete vs put our foote men from vs / for it is nere nyghte / For the noble Arthur wille not tary on the foote men / for they maye faue hym self / the woode is nerehand / And whan we horsmen 5 be to gyders / loke eueryche of yow kynges lete make fuche ordinaunce that none breke vpon payne of dethe / And who that seeth ony man dresse hym to flee / lightly that he be slayne / for it is better that we flee a coward than thorow a coward alle we to be slayne / How saye ye said kynge Lott / anfuere me all 10 ye kynges / it is wel said quod kynge Nentres / so said the kynge of the honderd knyghtes / the same faide the kynge Cara-dos and kyng Vryence / so dyd kynge Idres and kyng brandegorys / and so dyd kyng Cradulmas and the duke of Cā-debenet / the same said kyng Claryaunce & kyng Agwyfaunce 15 and sware they wold neuer faille other neyther for lys nor for dethe / And who so that fledde but did as they dyd shold be slayne / Thenne they amended their harneys and ryghted theire sheldes and tooke newe sperys and sette hem on their thyes and stode stille as hit had ben a plombe of wood / ij kynges for to go and ſee his mayſter Bleyſe that dwelde in Northumberland / and so he departed and cam to his maister that was passyng glad of his comynge / & there he tolde / how Arthure and the two kynges had sped at the grete batayll / and how it was ended / and told the names of euery kyng and knyght of worship that was there / And soo Bleyse wrote the bataill word by word as Merlyn told hym how it began / & by whome / and in lyke wyse how it was endyd / And who had the werre / All the bataills that were done in arthurs dayes / merlyn dyd his maister Bleyse do wryte / Also he did do wryte all the bataills that euery worthy knyght dyd of arthurs Courte / After this Merlyn departed from his mayster and came to kyng Arthure that was in the castel of Bedegrayne / that was one of the castels that stondyn in the forest of Sherewood / And Merlyn was so disguyfed that kyng Arthur knewe hym not for he was al be furred in black shepe skynnes and a grete payre of bootes / and a bowe and arrowes in a ruffet gowne / and broughte wild gyfe in his hand and it was on the morne after candelmas day / but kyng Arthure knewe hym not / Syre said Merlyn vnto the kyng / Wil ye gyue me a yeste / wherfor said kyng Arthure shold I gyue the a yeste chorle / Sir said Merlyn ye were better to gyue me a yeste that is not in your hand than to lese grete rycheffe / for here in the same place there the grete bataill was is grete tresour hyd in the erthe / who told the so chorle said Arthure / Merlyn told me so said he / thenne Vlkyus and Braftias knew hym wel ynough and smyled / Syre said these two knyghtes It is Merlyn that so speketh vnto yow / thenne kyng Arthure was gretely abasshed and had merueyll of Merlyn / & so had kyng Ban and kyng Bors / and soo they had grete dysport at hym / Soo in the meane whyle there cam a damoyfel that was an erlys daughter his name was Sanam / and her name was Lyonors a passyng fair damoyfel / and so she cam thyder for to dohomage as other lordes dyd after the grete bataill / And kyng Arthure fette his loue gretely vpon her and so dyd she vpon hym / and the kyng had adoo with her / and gat on her a child / his name was Borre that was after a good knyghte and of the table round / thenne ther cam word that the kyng Ryence of Northen walys maade grete werre on med a merueillous dreame wherof he was fore adrad / But al this tyme kyng Arthur knewe not that kyng Lots wyf was his fyfter / Thus was the dreame of Arthur / hym thought ther hym thoughte they brente and slough alle the peple in the lād And thenne hym thoughte / he faughte with hem / and they dyd he made hym redy with many knyghtes to ryde on huntynge / As foone as he was in the foreste / the kyng sawe a grete hert grete thoughtes / And as he satte so hym thoughte he herd a 25 noyse of houndes to the somme of xxx / And with that the ky-no noyse in the bestes bely / and therwith the best departed with a grete noyse / wherof the kyng had grete merueyll / And so he was in a grete thoughte / and therwith he fell on slepe / Ryght so ther came a knyght a foote vnto Arthur / and sayd knyght 15 but and I myȝte preue the whether thow were better on horfbak or I / wel said the knyght seke me here whan thow wolt and here nygh this wel thow shalt fynde me / and soo passyd on his weye / thenne the kyng sat in a study and bad his men fetch his hors as faste as euer they myghte / Ryght soo came 20 by hym Merlyn lyke a child of xiiij yere of age and salewed the kyng / and asked hym why he was so penyf / I may wel be penyf sayd the kyng / for I haue sene the merueyllest fyȝt that euer I sawe / that knowe I wel said Merlyn as wel as thy self and of all thy thoughtes / but thow art but a foole to 25 take thought / for it wyll not amend the / Also I knowe what thow arte / and who was thy fader / and of whome thow were begoten / kyng Vtherpendragon was thy fader / and begat the on Igrayne / that is fals said kyng Arthur / how sholdest thou knowe it / for thow arte not so old of yeres to knowe my fa-30 der / yes sayd Merlyn I knowe it better than ye or ony man lyuyng / I wille not bileue the said Arthur and was wroth with the child / Soo departed Merlyn and came ageyne in the lykenes of an old man of iiij score yere of age / wherof the kyng was ryght glad / for he femed to be ryghte wyfe 35 Thenne saide the old man why are ye so fad / I maye wel be heuy said Arthur for many thynges / Also here was a chyld and told me many thynges that me semeth / he shold not knowe / for he was not of age to knowe my fader / yes said the old man / the child told yow trouthe / and more wold he haue tolde yow and ye wolde haue suffred hym / But ye haue done a thyng late that god is displeafyd with yow / for ye haue layne by your fyfter / and on her ye haue gotten a chyld / that shalle destroye yow and all the knyghtes of your realme 5 What are ye said Arthur that telle me thefe tydynges / I am Merlyn / and I was he in the childe lykenes / A fayd kyng Arthur ye are a merueillous man / but I merueille moche / of thy wordes that I mote dye in bataille / Merueille not faid Merlyn / for it is gods wyll youre body to be punysshed for 10 your fowle dedes / but I may wel be fory said Merlyn / for I shalle dye a shameful deth / to be put in the erthe quyck / and ye shall dye a worshipful deth / And as they talked this / cam one with the kynges hors / and so the kyng mounted on his hors and Merlyn on another and so rode vnto Carlyon / & anone 15 the kyng asked Ector and Vlfyus how he was bigoten / & they told hym Vtherpendragon was his fader & quene Igra-yn his moder / thenne he fayd to Merlyn I wyll that my moder be sente for that I may speke with her / And yf she saye so her self / thēne wyll I byleue hit / In all hast the quene was 20 sente for / and she cam & broughte with her Morgan le fay her doughter that was as fayre a lady as ony myghte be / & the kyng welcomed Igrayne in the best maner /

RYght soo cam Vlfyus & faide ¶ Capitulum xxi openly that the kyng and all myȝt here that were fe- 25 sted that day / ye are the falsest lady of the world and the most traitresse vnto the kynges person / Beware faide Arthur what thou saist / thou spekest a grete word / I am wel ware said Vlfyus what I speke / & here is my gloue to preue hit vpon ony man that will feye the contrary / that this quene I- 30 grayne is caufar af your grete damage / & of your grete werre For and she wold haue vtterd it in the lyf of kyng Vtherpē-dragon of the byrthe of yow / and how ye were begoten ye had neuer had the mortal werryys that ye haue had for the mooft party of your barons of your realme knewe neuer whos sone 35 ye were / nor of whome ye were begoten / & she that bare yow of her body shold haue made it knowen openly in excusyng of her worship & yours / & in lyke wyfe to alle the reame / wherfor I preue her fals to god and to yow and to al your realme and who wyll saye the contrary I wyll preue it on his body Thenne spak Igrayne and sayd I am a woman and I may not fyghte / but rather than I shold be dishonoured / ther wold 5 some good man take my quarel // More she sayd / Merlyn knoweth wel and ye syr Vlſyus how kynge Vther cam to me in the Castel of Tyntagaill in the lykenes of my lord that was dede thre houres to fore / and therby gat a child that nyght vp-on me / And after the xiiij day kynge Vther wedded me / and 10 by his commaundement whan the child was borne it was delyuerd vnto Merlyn and nourysshed by hym / and so I sawe the child neuer after / nor wote not what is his name / for I knewe hym neuer yet / And there Vlſyus saide to the quene Merlyn is more to blame than ye / wel I wote said the quene 15 I bare a child by my lord kyng Vther / but I wote not where he is become / thenne Merlyn toke the kynge by the hand fa-yeng / this is your moder / and therwith syr Ector bare wytnes how he nourysshed hym by Vthers commaundement / And ther-with kynge Arthur toke his moder quene Igrayne in his ar-20 mes and kyft her / and eyther wepte vpon other / And thenne the kyng lete make a feest that lasted eyght dayes / Thenne on a day ther come in the courte a squyer on hors back ledynge a knyght before hym wounded to the dethe / and told hym how ther was a knyght in the forest had rered vp a paucione by 25 a well and hath slayne my mayster a good knyght / his name was mylis / wherfor I byſeche yow that my mayster maye be buryed / and that somme knyzt maye reuenge my maysters deth / thenne the noyse was grete of that knyghtes dethe in the Court / and euery man said his aduys / thenne came Gryflet 30 that was but a squyer / and he was but yonge of the age of the kyng Arthur / soo he befoughte the kyng for alle his feruys that he had done hym to gyue the ordre of knyghthode

¶ Capitulum xxij

THou arte full yong and tendyr of age sayd Arthur for to take so hyghe an ordre on the / Sir said gryflet 35 I byſeche yow make me knyzt / Syr said Merlyn it were grete pyte to leſe Gryflet / for he wille be a paſſynge good man / whanne he is of age / abydynge with yow the terme me of his lyf / And yf he auenture his body with yonder knyght at the fontayne it is in grete peryll yf euer he come ageyne / for he is one of the best knyghtes of the world / and the strengyst man of armes / wel said Arthur / so at the desyre of gryflet the kynge made hym knyght / Now said Arthur vnto fyre 5 Gryflet / Sythen I haue made yow knyghte thou must yeue me a gyfte / what ye will said Gryflet / thou shalt promyse me by the feythe of thy body whan thou hast lusted with the knyght at the fontayne / whether it falle ye be on foote or on horbak / that ryght so ye shal come ageyne vnto me withoute ma- 10 kynges ony more debate / I wyll promyse yow said Gryflet as yow desyre / Thenne toke Gryflet his hors in grete haste / & dresyd his sheld and toke a spere in his hand / and so he rode a grete wallop tyll he cam to the fontayne / and ther by he sawe a ryche paelion / and ther by vnder a clothe stode a fayr hors 15 wel fadeled and brydeled / and on a tree a shelde of dyuerse colours and a grete spere / Thenne Gryflet smote on the sheld with the bott of his spere that the shylde felle doune to the ground / with that the knyght cam oute of the paelione / & sayd fair knyght why smote ye doune my sheld / for I wil luste 20 with yow said gryflet / it is better ye doo not sayd the knyghte for ye are but yong and late made knyght / and your myghte is nothyng to myn / as for that saide Gryflet I wyll luste with yow / that is me loth said the knyght / but sythen I muste nedes I wille dresse me therto / of whens be ye sayd the knyghte 25 fyre I am of Arthurs courte / So the two knyghtes ranne to gyder that gryflets spere al to sheuered / and ther with all he smote Gryflet thorowe the shelde & the lyfte syde / and brake the spere that the troncheon stak in his body / that hors and knyghte fylle doune

THan the knyght sawe hym lye foo on the ground / he alyght and was passyng heuy / for he wende he had slayne hym / and thenne he vnaced his helme and gate hym wynde / and so with the troncheon he set hym on his hors and gate him wynde / and so bytoke hym to god / and seid he had a 35 myghty hert and yf he myght lyue he wold preue a passyng good knygt / & so fyr Gryflet rode to the court where grete doole was made for hym / But thorowe good leches he was heled / and faued / Ryght so cam in to the Courte xij knyȝtes & were aged men / and they cam from themperour of Rome / & they asked of Arthur truage for this realme / other els themperour 5 wold destroye hym & his land / wel said kyng Arthur ye are meffagers / therfor ye may say what ye wil other els ye shold dye therefore / But this is myn ansuer I owe themperour noo truage nor none will I hold hym / but on a fayr felde I shall yeue hym my truage that shal be with a sharp spere / or els 10 with a sharp swerd / & that shal not be long by my faders fou-le Vtherpendragon / & therwith the meffagers departed passyn-gly wroth / & kyng arthur as wroth / for in euyl tyme cam they thenne / for the kyng was passyngly wroth for the hurte of sir Gryflet / & soo he commaunded a pryuy man of his chambre / 15 that or hit be day his best hors and armour with all that longeth vnto his persone be withoute the cyte or to morowe daye Ryght so or to morow day he met with his man and his hors and so mounted vp and dresfid his sheld / & toke his spere and bad his chamberlayne tary there tyll he came ageyne / 20 And so Arthur roode a foste paas tyll it was day / & thenne was he ware of thre chorles chacynge Merlyn / and wold haue flayne hym / thenne the kyng rode vnto them / and bad them flee chorles / thenne were they aserd whan they sawe a knyght and fled / O Merlyn said Arthur / here haddest thou be flayne 25 for all thy craftes had I not byn / Nay said Merlyn not soo for I coude saue my self and I wold / and thou arte more nere thy deth than I am for thow goft to the deth ward & god be not thy frend / So as they wente thus talkyng / they came to the fontayne / and the ryche paelione there by hit / thenne 30 kyng Arthur was ware where sat a knyght armed in a chayer / Syr knyght said Arthur / for what cause abydest thou here that ther maye no knyght ryde this wey but yf he Iuste wyth the said the kyng / I rede the leue that custome said Arthur This customme saide the knyght haue I vfed and wille vfe 35 magre who saith nay / & who is greued with my custome / lete hym amende hit that wol / I wil amende it said Arthur / I shal defende the said the knyȝt / anon he toke his hors & dresfid his shyld & toke a spere & they met so hard either in others sheldes that al to sheuered their sperys / ther with anone Arthur pulled oute his swerd / nay not so said the knyght / it is fayrer sayd the knyght that we tweyne renne more to gyders with sharp sperys / I wille wel said Arthur and I had ony mo sperys 5 I haue ynow said the knyght / so ther cam a squyer and brougt in good sperys / and Arthur chose one & he another / so they spo-red their horses & cam to gyders with al the myghtes / that ey-ther brak her spere to her handes / thenne Arthur fette hand on his swerd / nay seid the knyght / ye shal do better / ye are a pas- 10 syng good Iuster as euer I mette with al / & ones for the loue of the hyghe ordre of knyghthode lete vs Iuste ones ageyn / I af-sente me said Arthur / anone there were brought two grete sperys / and euery knyght gat a spere / and therwith they ranne to gyders that Arthurs spere al to sheuered / But the other 15 knyghte hyt hym so hard in myddes of the shelde / that horse & man felle to the erthe / and ther with Arthur was egre & pulled oute his swerd / and said I will assay the fyr knyghte on foote / for I haue lost the honour on horsbak / I will be on horsbak said the knyght / thenne was Arthur wrothe and dresid 20 his sheld toward hym with his swerd drawen / whan the kny-ght sawe that / he a lyghte / for hym thought no worship to haue a knyght at suche auaille he to be on horsbak and he on foot and so he alyght & dresid his sheld vnto Arthur & ther begā a strong bataille with many grete strokes / & soo hewe with her 25 swerdes that the cantels flewe in the felde / and moche blood they bledde bothe / that al the place there as they faught was ouer bledde with blood / and thus they fought long and rested hem / and thenne they wente to the batayl ageyne / and so hurtled to gyders lyke two rammes that eyther felle to the erthe 30 So at the last they smote to gyders that both her swerdys met euen to gyders / But the swerd of the knyght smote kyng ar-thurs swerd in two pyeces / wherfor he was heuy / thenne said the knyghte vnto Arthur / thou arte in my daunger whether me lyst to saue the or flee the / and but thou yelde the as ouer- 35 come and recreaunt / thou shalt deye / as for deth said kyng arthur welcome be it whan it cometh / But to yelde me vnto the as recreaunt I had leuer dye than to be soo shamed / And ther with al the kyng lepte vnto Pellinore & tooke hym by the myddel and threwe hym doune and raced of his helme / Whan the knyght felt that / he was adrad / for he was passyng bygge man of myghte / and anone he broughte Arthur vnder hym / and reaced of his helme and wold haue fmyten of 5 his hede /

¶ Capitulum xxiii

THer with all came Merlyn and fayd knyghte / hold thy hand / For and thou slee that knyghte thou put-test this reame in the gretteft dammage that euer was reame / For this knyght is a man of more worship than thou 10 wotest of / Why / who is he said the knyghte / it is kyng Arthur Thenne wold he haue slayn hym for drede of his wrathe / and heue vp his fwerd / and therwith Merlyn cast an enchaunte-ment to the knyghte that he felle to the erthe in a grete slepe / Thenne Merlyn tooke vp kyng Arthur and rode forth on the 15 knyghtes hors / Allas said Arthur what hast thou done merlyn hast thou slayne this good knyghte by thy craftes / there lyueth not soo worshipful a knyghte as he was / I had leuer than the stynte of my land a yere that he were on lyue / care ye not fayd Merlyn / for he is holer than ye / for he is but on slepe 20 and will awake within thre houres / I told you said Merlyn what a knyghte he was / Here had ye be slayn had I not ben Also ther lyueth not a bygger knyght than he is one / and he shal here after do yow ryght good feruyse & his name is Pel-linore / and he shal haue two fones that shal be passyng good 25 men fauf one / they shalle haue no felawe or prowesse and of good lyuyng / and her names shal be Persyual of walys / & Lamerak of walis / & he shal telle yow the name of your own fone bygoten of your syfter that shal be the destruction of alle this royaume

¶ Capitulum xxv

RYghte so the kyng and he departed & wente vn tyl an 30 ermyte that was a good man and a grete leche / Soo the heremyte ferched all his woundys & gaf hym good salues fo the kyng was there thre dayes & thenne were his woundes wel amendyd that he myght ryde and goo / & so departed / & as 35 they rode Arthur said I haue no fwerd / no force said Merlyn here by is a fwerd that shalle be yours and I may / Soo they rode tyl they came to a lake the whiche was a fayr water / and brood / And in the myddes of the lake Arthur was ware of an arme clothed in whyte famyte / that held a fayr fwerd in that hand / loo faid Merlyn yonder is that fwerd that I spak of / with that they sawe a damoifel goyng vpon the lake / what damoyfel is that faid Arthur / that is the lady of the lake faid Merlyn / And within that lake is a roche / and theryn is as fayr a place as ony on erthe and rychely befene / and this da- 5 moyfell wyll come to yow anone / and thenne speke ye fayre to her that she will gyue yow that fwerd / Anone with all came the damoyfel vnto Arthur / and falewed hym / and he her a-geyne / Damoyfel faid Arthur / what fwerd is that / that yon- 10 der the arme holdeth aboue the water / I wold it were myne / for I haue no fwerd / Syr Arthur kyng faid the damoyfell / that fwerd is myn / And yf ye will gyue me a yeste whan I aske it yow / ye shal haue it by my feyth faid Arthur / I will yeue yow what yeste ye will aske / wel faid the damoifel 15 go ye into yonder barge / & rowe your self to the fwerd / and take it / and scaubart with yow / & I will aske my yeste whan I see my tyme / So fyr Arthur & merlyn alyght & tayed their horses to two trees / & so they went in to the ship / & whanne they came to the fwerd that the hand held / fyre Arthur toke 20 it vp by the handels / & toke it with hym / & the arme & the hād went vnder the water / & so come vnto the lond & rode forth / & thēne fyr Arthur sawe a ryche paelion / what fygnifyeth yōder paelion / þ^t is þ^e knyȝtes paelion feid merlyn þ^t ye fouȝt 25 with laȝt / fyr Pellinore / but he is out / he is not there / he hath adoo with a knyght of yours that hyght Egglame / & they haue fouȝten to gyder / but al the laȝt Egglame fledde and els he had ben dede / & he hath chaced hym euen to Carlyon / and we shal mete with hym anon in the hygh wey / that is wel fayd / faid Arthur / now haue I a fwerd / now wille I wage bata- 30 ill with hym & be auenged on hym / fir ye shal not so faid Merlyn / for the knyght is wery of fyghtyng & chacyng so that ye shal haue no worship to haue a do with hym / Also he will not be lyȝtly matched of one knyȝt lyuyng / & therfor it is my co-unceil / lete hym passe / for he shal do you good feruyse in shorte 35 tyme & his fones after his dayes / Also ye shal see that day in short space ye shal be riȝt glad to yeue him your sifter to wedde Whan I see hym I wil doo as ye aduyse fayd Arthur Thenne fyre Arthur loked on the fwerd / and lyked it paffyng wel / whether lyketh yow better fayd Merlyn the fuerd or the fcaubard / Me lyketh better the fwerd fayd Arthur / ye are more vnwyfe fayd Merlyn / for the fcaubard is worth x 5 of the fwerdys / for whyles ye haue the fcaubard vpon yow ye shalle neuer lese no blood / be ye neuer fo fore wounded ther-for kepe wel the fcaubard alweyes with yow / fo they rode vnto Carlyon / and by the way they met with fyr Pellinore / but Merlyn had done fuche a crafte / that pellinore fawe not Ar-10 thur / and he pafte by withoute ony wordes / I merueylle fayd Arthur that the knyght wold not fpeke / fyr faid Merlyn / he fawe yow not / for and he had fene yow ye had not lyghtly departed / Soo they come vnto Carlyon / wherof his knyghtes were paffyng glad / And whanne they herd of his auen-15 tures / they merueilled that he wold ieoparde his perfone foo al one / But alle men of worship faid it was mery to be vnder fuche a chyuetayne that wolde put his perfone in auenture as other poure knyghtes dyd /

¶ Capitulum xxvij

THis meane whyle came a meffager from kyng Ry-tyng wel kyng Arthur in this manere wyfe fayenge / that kyng Ryons had difcomfyte and ouercome xj kynges / and eueryche of hem did hym homage / and that was this / they gaf 25 hym their berdys clene flayne of / as moche as ther was / wher for the meffager came for kyng Arthurs berd / For kyng Ry-ons had purfyled a mantel with kynges berdes / and there lacked one place of the mantel / wherfor he fente for his berd or els he wold entre in to his landes / and brenne and flee / & 30 neuer leue tyl he haue the hede and the berd / wel fayd Arthur thow haft faid thy meffage / the whiche is the moft vylaynous and lewdest meffage that euer man herd fente vnto a kyng / Also thow mayft fee / my berd is ful yong yet to make a pur-fyl of hit / But telle thow thy kyng this / I owe hym none 35 homage / ne none of myn elders / but or it be longe to / he shall do me homage on bothe his kneys / or els he shall lese his hede by the feith of my body / for this is the moft shamefullest meffage that euer I herd speke of / I haue aspyed / thy kyng met neuer yet with worshipful man / but telle hym / I wyll haue his hede withoute he doo me homage / thenne the messager departed ¶ Now is there ony here said Arthur that knoweth kyng Ryons thenne anfuerd a knyght that hyght Naram / Syre I knowe the kyng wel / he is a passyng good man of his body / as fewe ben lyuynge / and a passyng prowde man / and fir doubt ye not / he wille make warre on yow with a myghty payffaunce / wel said Arthur I shall ordeyne for hym in short tyme

THēne kyng arthur lete sende for al the childrē born on may day begotē of lordes & born of ladyes / for Merlyn told kyng Arthur that he that shold destroye hym / shold be borne in may day / wherfor he sent for hem all vpon payn of deth and so ther were founde many lordes sones / and all were sente vnto the kyng / and soo was Mordred sente by kyng Lotts wyf / and all were put in a ship to the see / and some were iiij wekes old and some lasse / And so by fortune the ship drofe vnto a castel and was al to ryuen and destroyed the most part sauf that Mordred was cast vp and a good man fonde hym / and nourysshed hym tyl he was xiiij yere olde / & thenne he brought hym to the Court / as it reherceth afterward toward the ende of the deth of Arthur / So many lordes and barons of this reame were displeasyd / for her children were so lost / and many put the wyte on Merlyn more than on Arthur / so what for drede and for loue they helde their pees / But whanne the messager came to kyng Ryons / thenne was he woode oute of mesure and purueyed hym for a grete hoost as it rehercyth after in the book of Balyn le faueage that foloweth next after / how by aduventure Balyn gat the fwerd

¶ Explicit liber primus

¶ Incipit liber secundus

After the dethe of Vtherpendragon reigned Arthur his sone / the whiche had grete werre in his dayes for to gete al Englonde in to his hand / For there were many kynges within the realme of Englonde and in wals / Scotland and Cornewaille / Soo it befelle on a tyme / whanne kyng Arthur was at London ther came a knyght and tolde the kynge tydynges how that the kynge Ryons of Northwalys had rered a grete nombre of peple / and were entryd in to the land and brente and flewe the kynges true liege peple / yf this be true faid Arthur / it were grete shame vnto myn estate / but that he were myghtely withstand / it is trouthe sayd the knyghte / for I fawe the hooft my self / wel faide the kynge / lete make a crye / that all the lordes knyghtes and gentylmen of armes shold drawe vnto a castel called Camelot in tho dayes / and ther the 10 kynge wold lete make a counceil general and a grete Iustes So whan the kynge was come thyder with all his baronage and lodged as they femed best / ther was come a damoifel the whiche was sente on meffage from the grete lady lylle of aue-lyon / And whan she came bifore kynge Arthur / she told from 15 whome she came / and how she was sent on meffage vnto hym for these caufes Thenne she lete her mantel falle that was rychely furred / And thenne was she gyrd with a noble fwerd wherof the kynge had merueill / and said Damoyfel for what cause are ye gyrd with that fwerd / it bifemeth yow not / 20 Now shall I telle yow said the damoyfel / This fwerd that I am gyrd with al doth me grete forowe and comberaunce / for I may not be delyuerd of this fwerd / but by a knyghte / but he must be a passyng good man of his handes and of his dedes and withoute vylonye or trecherye and withoute treason / And 25 yf I maye fynde suche a knyghte that hath all these vertues / he may drawe oute this fwerd oute of the shethe / for I haue ben at kyng Ryons / it was told me ther were passyng good knyghtes / and he and alle his knyghtes haue assayed it and none can spede / This is a grete merueill said Arthur / yf this 30 be sothe / I wille my self assaye to drawe oute the fwerd / not presumynge vpon my self that I am the best knyghte / but that I will begynne to drawe at your fwerd in gyuyng example to alle the Barons that they shall assay euerychone after other whan I haue assayed it / Thenne Arthur toke the fwerd 35 by the shethe and by the gyrdel and pulled at it egrely / but the fwerd wold not oute / ¶ Sire seid the damoyfell ye nede not to pulle half so hard / for he that shall pulle it out shal do it with lytel myghte / ye fay wel said Arthur / Now assaye ye al my barons / but beware ye be not defoyled with shame tre-chery ne gyle / thenne it wille not auaylle fayd the damoyfell / for he muſt be a clene knyght withoute vylony and of a gentil ſtrene of fader fyde and moder fyde / Mooft of all the barons of the round table that were there at that tyme affayed alle by 5 rewe / but ther myght non ſpede / wherfor the damoyfel made grete ſorow oute of meſure and fayd Allas I wende in this Courte had ben the beſt knyghtes withoute trechery or trefon / By my ſeythe ſayth Arthur here are good knyghtes as I de-me as ony ben in the world / but theyr grace is not to helpe 10 yow / wherfor I am displeafyd

¶ Capitulum ij

THenne ſelle hit ſoo that tyme / ther was a poure kny-ght with kynge Arthur / that had byn pryſoner with hym half a yere & more for ſleyng of a knyghte / the whiche was cofyn vnto kynge Arthur / the name of this kny- 15 ght was called Balen / and by good meanes of the barons he was delyuerd oute of pryſon / for he was a good man named of his body / and he was borne in northumberland / and ſoo he wente pryuely in to the Courte / and ſawe this aduenture / weroſ hit reyfed his herte / and wolde affaye it as other 20 knyghtes dyd / but for he was poure and pourely arayed he put hym not ferre in prees / But in his herte he was fully afſured to doo as wel yf his grace happed hym as ony knyght that there was / And as the damoyfel toke her leue of Arthur and of alle the barons ſo departyng / this knyght Balen cal- 25 led vnto her and fayd Damoyfel I praye yow of your curtoſy / ſuffre me as wel to affay as theſe lordes though that I be ſo pourely clothed / in my herte me ſemeth I am fully afſured as ſomme of theſe other / And me ſemeth in my herte to ſpede ryght wel / The damoyfel beheld the poure knyght / and 30 ſawe he was a lykely man / but for his poure arrayment ſhe thoughte he ſhold be of no worſhip withoute vylonye or tre-chery / And thēne ſhe ſayd vnto the knyght / ſir it nedeth not to put me to more payn or labour / for it ſemeth not yow to ſpede there as other haue failled / A fayr Damoyfel ſaid Balen 35 worthynes and good tatches and good dedes are not only in arrayment / but manhood and worſhip is hyd within mans perſone and many a worſhipful knyghte is not knowen vnto alle people / and therfore worship and hardyneffe is not in arayment / By god sayd the damoyfel ye fay sothe / therfor ye shal affaye to do what ye may / Thenne Balen took the swerd by the gyrdel and shethe / and drewe it out eafyly / and when 5 he loked on the swerd hit pleafyd hym moche / thenne had the kynge and alle the barons grete merucille that Balen hadde done that auenture / many knyghtes had grete despyte af Ba-len / Certes said the damoyfel / this is a passyng good knyght and the best that cuer I found and moost of worship with-10 oute trefon / trechery or vylony / and many merucylles shalle he do / Now gentyl and curtois knyght yeue me the swerd ayene nay said Balen / for this swerd wyll I kepe but it be taken from me with force / wel faide the damoyfel ye are not wyfe to kepe the swerd from me / for ye shalle flee with the swerd the 15 best frende that ye haue and the man that ye mooste loue in the world / and the swerd shalle be your destruction / I shal take the aduenture sayd Balen that god wille ordeyne me / but the swerd ye shalle not haue at this tyme by the feythe of my body / ye shalle repente hit within short tyme sayd the damoyfel / 20 For I wold haue the swerd more for your auaylle than for myne / for I am passyng heuy for your sake / For ye wil not byleue that swerd shal be youre destruction / and that is grete pyte / with that the damoyfel departed makynge grete forowe / Anone after Balen sente for his hors and armour / and soo 25 wold departe fro the Courte and toke his leue of kyng Arthur / nay sayd the kyng I suppose ye wyll not departe so litely fro this felaufship / I suppose ye are displeased that I haue shewed yow vnkyndenes / Blame me the lasse / for I was mys fenformed ageynst yow / but I wende ye had not ben fuche 30 a knyght as ye are of worship and prowesse / and yf ye wyll abyde in this courte among my felaufship / I shalle so auaun-ce yow as ye shalle be pleased / god thanke your hyhenes said Balen / your bounte and hyhenes may no man preysse hali to the valewe / but at this tyme I must nedes departe / byfchyng 35 yow alwey of your good grace / Truly said the kyng I am ryght wrothe for your departyng / I pray yow faire knyghte / that ye tary not long / and ye shal be ryght welcome to me / & to my barons / and I shalle amende all myffe that I haue done ageynst yow / god thanke your grete lordship said Balen / and therwith made hym redy to departe / Thenne the moost party of the knyghtes of the round table sayd that Balen did not this auenture al only by myghte but by wytchecraft

¶ Capitulum Tercium

THe meane whyle that this knyght was making hym redy to departe / there came in to the Court a lady that hyght the lady of the lake / And she came on horsback rychely byfene / and salewed kyng Arthur / and there asked hym a yefte that he promysed her whan she gaf hym the swerd / that is sothe said Arthur / a gyfte I promysed yow / but I haue forgotten the name of my swerd that ye gaue me / The name of it said the lady is Excalibur that is as moche to say as cut stele / ye saye wel said the kyng / Aske what ye wil and ye shall haue it / and hit lye in my power to yeue hit / wel sayd the lady / I aske the heede of the knyghte that hath wonne the swerd / or els the damoyfels heede that broughte hit / I take no force though I haue bothe their hedes / for he slewe my broder a good knyghte and a true / and that gentilwoman was causer of my faders deth / Truly said kyng Arthur I maye not graunte neyther of her hedes with my worship / therfor aske what ye wille els / and I shall fulfille your desyre / I wil aske none other thyng said the lady / whan Balyn was redy to departe he sawe the lady of the lake that by her menes had slayne Balyns moder and he had foughte her thre yeres / and whan it was told hym that she asked his hede of kyng Arthur he went to her streyte and said euyl be you soude / ye wold haue my hede / and therefore ye shall lese yours / and with hys swerd lyghtly he smote of hir hede before kyng Arthur / alas for shame sayd Arthur why haue ye done so / ye haue shamed me and al my Courte / for this was a lady that I was be holden to / and hyther she came vnder my sauf conduyte / I shalle neuer foryeue you that trespas / Sir said Balen me forthynketh of your displeasyr / for this same lady was the vntruest lady lyuyng / and by enchauntement and forfery she hath ben the destroyer of many good knyghtes / and she was causer that my moder was brente thorow her falskede and trechery / what cause soo euer ye had said Arthur ye shold haue forborne her in my prefence / therfor thynke not the contrary ye shalle repente it / for fuche another despyte had I neuer in my Courte / therfor withdrawe yow oute of my Courte in al hast that ye may / Thenne Balen toke vp the heed of the lady and 5 bare it with hym to his hoftry / and there he met with his squy-er that was fory he had displeasyd kyng Arthur / and so they rode forth oute of the town / Now said Balen we must departe / take thow this hede and bere it to my frendys / and telle hem how I haue sped / and telle my frendys in Northumberland 10 that my most foo is deed / Also telle hem how I am oute of pry-son / and what aucture befelle me at the getyng of this swerd Allas said the squyer ye are gretely to blame for to displease kyng Arthur / as for that said Balen I wylle hyhe me in al the hast that I may to mete with kyng Ryons and destroye 15 hym eyther els or dye therfor / and yf it may happe me to wynne hym / thenne wille kyng Arthur be my good and gracious lord / where shall I mete with yow faide the squyer / in kyng Arthurs Court said Balen / so his squyer and he departed at that tyme / thenne kyng Arthur and alle the Court made 20 grete doole and had shame of the deth of the lady of the lake

A thenne the kyng buryed her rychely ¶ Capitulum iiii T that tyme ther was a knyghte / the whiche was the kynges sone of Ireland and his name was Launce-or / the whiche was an orgulous knyzt / and counted hym self 25 one of the best of the Courte / and he had grete despyte at Ba-len for the encheuynge of the swerd that ony shold be acounted more hardy or more of prowesse / and he asked kyng Arthur yf he wold gyue hym leue to ryde after Balen and to reuenge the despyte that he had done / Doo your best said Arthur 30 I am right wroth said Balen I wold he were quyte of the despyte that he hath done to me and to my Courte / Thenne this Launceor wente to his hoftry to make hym redy / In the meane whyle cam Merlyn vnto the Court of kyng Arthur and there was told hym the aduenture of the swerd and the deth of the 35 lady of the lake / Now shall I saye yow said Merlyn / this fame damoyfel that here standeth that broughte the swerde vnto your Court / I shalle telle yow the cause of her comynge / she was the falsest damoyfel that lyueth / say not so said they / She hath a broder a passyng good knyght of prowesse and a ful true man / and this damoyfel loued another knyght that helde her to peramour / and this good knyght her broder mett with the knyght that held her to peramour and slewe hym by force of his handes / whan this fals damoyfel vnderstood thys / she 5 wente to the lady lyle of Auelione / and befought her of help / to be auengyd on her owne broder

ANd so this lady lyle of Auelion toke her this swerd that she broughte with her / and told there shold noo man pulle it oute of the sheathe but yf he be one of the 10 best knyghtes of this reame / and he shold be hard and ful of prowesse / and with that swerd he shold flee her broder / this was the cause that the damoyfel came in to this Courte / I knowe it as wel as ye / wolde god she had nat comen in to thys Courte / but she came neuer in selauship of worship to do go- 15 od but alweyes grete harme / and that knyght that hath encheued the fuerd shal be destroyed by that fuerd / for the whiche will be grete damage / for ther lyueth not a knygt of more prowesse than he is / and he shalle do vnto yow my lord Arthur grete honour and kyndenesse / and it is grete pyte he shall not endure 20 but a whyle / for of his strengthe and hardynesse I knowe not his matche lyuynge / Soo the knyght of Irelande armed hym at al poyntes / and dresid his shelde on his sholder and mounted vpon horsback and toke his spere in his hand / and rode after a grete paas as moche as his hors myght goo / and 25 within a lytel space on a montayne he had a syghte of Balyn / and with a lowde voys he cryed abyde knyght / for ye shal abyde whether ye will or nyll / and the sheld that is to fore you shalle not helpe / whan Balyn herd the noyse / he tourned his hors fyerfly / and faide faire knyghte what wille ye with me / 30 wille ye Iuste with me / ye faid the Iryshe knyghte / therfor come I after yow / paraenture faid Balyn it had ben better to haue hold yow at home / for many a man weneth to putte his enemy to a rebuke / and ofte it falleth to hym self / of what courte be ye sente fro faid Balyn / I am come fro the Courte of 35 kyng Arthur sayd the knyghte of Irland / that come hyder for to reuenge the despyte ye dyd this day to kyng arthur and to his courte / wel said Balyn / I fee wel I muſt haue adoo with yow that me forthynketh for to greue kyng arthur or ony of his courte / and your quarel is ful ſymple ſaid Ba-lyn vnto me / for the lady that is dede / dyd me grete domma-5 ge or els wold I haue ben lothe as ony knyghte that lyueth for to ſlee a lady / Make yow redy ſayd the knyght launceor / and dreſſe yow vnto me / for that one ſhalle abyde in the ſeld thenne they toke their ſperes / and cam to gyders as moche as their horſes myght dryue / and the Iryſſhe knyght fmote Ba-10 lyn on the ſheld that alle wente ſheuers of his ſpere / & Ba-lyn hyt hym thorough the ſheld / and the hauberk peryſhed / & ſo percyd thurgh his body and the hors croppē / and anon tor-ned his hors ſyerfly and drewe oute his ſwerd and wyſte not that he had ſlayn hym / and thenne he ſawe hym lye as a 15 dede corps

¶ Capitulum vi

THenne he loked by hym and was ware of a damoyfel that came ryde ful faſt as the hors myghte ryde on a fayr palfroy / and whan ſhe aſpyed that launceor was ſlayne / ſhe made ſorowe oute of meſure and ſayd O Balyn 20 two bodyes thou haſt ſlayne and one herte and two hertes in one body / and two ſoules thou haſt loſt / And therwith ſhe toke the ſwerd from her loue that lay ded and fylle to the ground in a ſwowne / And whan ſhe aroos ſhe made grete dole out of meſure / the whiche ſorowe greued Balyn paſſyngly fore / and 25 he wente vnto her for to haue taken the ſwerd oute of her hād but ſhe helde it ſo faſt / he myghte not take it oute of her hand onles he ſhold haue hurte her / and ſodenly ſhe fette the pomell to the ground / and roſe her ſelf thorow the body / whan balyn aſpyed her dedes he was paſſyng heuy in his herte and aſha-30 med that ſo fair a damoyfell had deſtroyed her ſelf for the loue of his deth / Allas ſaid Balyn me repēteth fore the deth of this knyght for the loue of this damoyfel / for ther was moche true loue betwixe them bothe / and for ſorowe myght not lenger behold hym but torned his hors and loked toward a grete foreſt 35 and ther he was ware by the armes of his broder Balan / and whan they were mette they putte of her helmes and kyſſed to gyders and wepte for ioye and pyte / Thenne Balan ſayd / I lytel wende to haue met with yow at this fodayne auenture / I am ryght glad of your delyueraunce and of youre dolorous prysonement / for a mā told me in the castel of four stones that ye were delyuerd / & that man had sene you in the court of kynge Arthur / & therfor I cam hyder in to this cuntry / for he- 5 re I supposyd to fynde you / anon the knyzt balyn told his broder of his aduenture of the fwerd & of the deth of the lady of the lake / & how kyng arthur was displeasyd with hym wherfor he sente this knyzt after me that lyeth here dede / & the dethe of this damoyfel greueth me fore / so doth it me said Balan / but 10 ye must take the aduenture that god will ordeyne yow / Truly said Balyn I am ryght heuy that my lord Arthur is dis-pleasyd with me / for he is the moost worshipful knyght that regneth now on erthe / & his loue will I gete or els I wil put my lyf in auenture / for the kyng Ryons lyeth at a syege atte 15 castel Tarabil & thyder will we drawe in all hast to preue our worship & prowesse vpon hym / I wil wel said Balan that we do & we wil helpe eche other as bretheren ouzt to do / ¶ Ca vij

M Ow go we hens said balyn & wel be we met / the mene while as they talked ther cam a dwarf from the cy- 20 te of camelot on horsbak as moche as he myght & foud the dede bodies / wherfor he made grete dole & pulled out his here for forou & saide which of you knyghtes haue done this dede / where by askest thou it said balan / for I wold wete it said the dwarfe / it was I said balyn that slewe this knyght in my de- 25 fendaūt for hyder he cam to chaace me & other I must slee hym or he me / & this damoyfel slewe her self for his loue whiche repenteth me / & for her sake I shal owe al wymmen the better loue / Allas said the dwarf thow hast done grete damage vnto thy self / for this knyght that is here dede was one of the most 30 valyaunts men that lyued / and trust wel balyn the kynne of this knyght wille chace yow thorowe the world tyl they haue slayne yow / As for that sayd Balyn I fere not gretely / but I am ryght heuy that I haue displeasyd my lord kyng arthur for the deth of this knyght / Soo as they talked to gy- 35 ders there came a kynge of Cornewaille rydyng / the whiche hyghte kynge Mark / ¶ And whanne he sawe these two body-es dede and vnderstood hou they were dede by the ij knyghtes about faide / thenne maade the kyng grete sorowe for the true loue that was betwix them / & said I wil not departe tyl I haue on this erthe made a tombe / and there he pyght his pauclions and foughte thurgh alle the countrey to fynde a tombe / and in 5 a chirche they found one was fair and ryche / & thenne the kynge lete put hem bothe in the erthe & put the tombe vpon hem / and wrote the names of them bothe on the tombe / How here lyeth launceor the kynges sone of Irlond that at his owne request was slayne by the handes of balyn / & how his lady co-10 lombe and peramoure slewe her self with her loues swerd for dole and sorowe

 30 Me repenteth faide Merlyn by cause of the dethe of that lady thou shalt sryke a stroke most dolorous that euer man stroke

¶ Capitulum ix

THenne Merlyn lodged them in a wode amonge leuys besyde the hyhe way & toke of the brydels of their horses & put hem to gras & leid hem doun to reste hem tyll it was nyhe mydnyzt / Thenne Merlyn badde hem ryse / & make hem redy / for the the kyng was nygh them that was stolen away from his hooft with a iij score horses of his best knyghtes & xx of hem rode to fore to warne the lady de Vance that the kyng was comyng / for that nyzt kyng Ryons shold haue layn with her / whiche is the kyng said Balyn / abyde said Merlyn here in a streyte wey ye shal mete with hym & therwith he shewed Balyn & his broder where he rode / anon balyn & his broder mette with the kyng & smote hym doune & wounded hym 30 fyrstly & leid hym to the ground / & there they slewe on the ryght hand & the lyfte hand & slewe moo than xl of his men / & the remenaunt fled / thenne went they ageyne to kyng Ryons & wold haue slayn hym had he not yelded hym vnto her grace Thenne said he thus knyghtes ful of prowesse flee me not / for 35 by my lyf ye may wyne / & by my dethe ye shalle wyne noo thyng / Thenne sayd these two knyghtes ye fay sothe & trouth and fo leyd hym on on hors lyttar / with that Merlyn was vanyfshed and came to kyng Arthur afore hand & told hym how his moft enemy was taken and difcomfyted / by whome faid kyng Arthur / by two knyghtes faid Merlyn that wold 5 pleafe your lordfhip / and to morowe ye fhalle knowe what knyghtes they are / Anone after cam the knyght with the two fwerdes and balan his broder / and brought with hem kyng Ryons of Northwalys and there delyuerd hym to the porters and charged hem with hym / & foo they two retorned ageyne 10 in the daunying of the day / kyng Arthur cam thenne to kyng Ryons and faid Syr kyng ye are welcome / by what auen-ture come ye hyder / fyr faid kyng Ryons I cam hyther by an hard auenture / who wanne yow faid kyng Arthur / fyre faid the kyng the knyght with the two fwerdes & his broder whilyn I fhall telle yow it is balen that encheued the fwerd & his broder balan a good knyght / ther lyueth not a better of pro-wefse & of worthynesse / and it fhall be the gretteft dole of hym 20 that euer I knewe of knyght / for he fhalle not long endure / Allas faide kyng Arthur that is grete pyte for I am moche beholdyng vnto hym / & I haue yll deferued it vnto hym for his kyndenes / nay faid Merlyn he fhall do moche more for yow / and that fhall ye knowe in haft / but fyr are ye purueyed faid 25 Merlyn for to morne the hooft of Nero kyng Ryons broder wille fette on yow or none with a grete hooft and therfor make yow redy for I wyl departe from yow

¶ Capitulum x

THenne kyng Arthur made redy his hooft in x batails and Nero was redy in the felde afore the caftel Ta-30 rabil with a grete hooft / & he had x batails with many mo peple than Arthur had / Thenne Nero had the vaward with the mooft party of his peple / & merlyn cam to kyng lot of the yle of Orkeney / and helde hym with a tale of prophecye til Nero and his peple were deftroyed / & ther fyr kay the fencyal dyd 35 paffyngly wel that the dayes of his lyf the worfhip went neuer frō hym & fir heruys de reuel did merueillous dedes with with kynge Arthur / and kynge Arthur flewe that daye xx knyghtes & maymed xl / At that tyme cam in the knyghte with the two swerdys and his broder Balan / But they two did so merueillously that the kynge and alle the knyghtes mer-ueilled of them / and alle they that behelde them said they we- 5 re sente from heuen as aungels or deuyls from helle / & kynge Arthur said hym self they were the best knyghtes that euer he sawe / for they gaf fuche strokes that all men had wōder of hem In the meane whyle came one to kynge Lott and told hym / whyle he taryed there nero was destroyed and slayne with al 10 his peple / Allas sayd kynge Lot I am ashamed / for by my defaute ther is many a worshipful man slayne / for and we had ben to gyders there hadde ben none hooſte vnder the heuen that had ben abel for to haue matched with vs / This fayer with his propheeye hath mocked me / Al that dyd Merlyn for 15 he knewe wel that and kyng Lot had ben with his body there at the fyrſt bataille / kynge Arthur had be slayne / and alle his peple destroyed / & wel Merlyn knewe the one of the kynges ſhold be dede that day / & loth was Merlyn that ony of them both ſholde be slayne / But of the tweyne / he had leuer kyng Lotte 20 had be slayne than kynge Arthur / Now what is beſt to doo ſayd kyng Lot of Orkeney whether is me better to treathe with kynge Arthur or to fyghte / for the gretter party of oure peple are slayne / and destroyed / Syr ſaid a knyght ſet on arthur for they are wery and forfoughten and we be freſſhe / As for 25 me ſayd kyng Lot I wolde euery knyght wolde do his parte as I wold do myn / And thenne they auauaced baners and ſmoten to gyders and al to ſheuered their ſperes / and arthurs knyghtes with the helpe of the knyght with two ſwerdes & his broder balan put kyng lot & his hooſt to the werre / But 30 alweyes kyng Lot helde hym in the formeſt frunte & dyd merueillous dedes of armes / for aile his hooſte was borne vp by his handes for he abode al knyghtes / allas he myght not endure the whiche was grete pyte that ſo worthy a knygt as he was one ſhold be ouermatched that of late tyme afore hadde ben a 35 knyght of kyng Arthurs & wedded the ſiſter of kyng arthur & for kyng Arthur lay by kyng lots wyf the whiche was ar-thurs ſyſter & gat on her Mordred / therfor kyng lot held ayēſt

Arthur / So ther was a knyght that was called the knyghte with the straunge beeste / and at that tyme his ryght name was called Pellinore / the whiche was a good man of pro-weffe / and he smote a myghty stroke att kynge Lot as he fo-5 ught with all his enemyes / and he fayled of his stroke / and smote the hors neck that he fylle to the grounde with kyng lot And therwith anon Pellinore smote hym a grete stroke tho-row the helme & hede vnto the browes & thenne alle the hooft of Orkeney fled for the deth of kynge Lott / and there were 10 slayn many moders fones / But kynge Pellinore bare the wytte of the deth of kynge Lot / wherfore fyr Gawayne reuenged the deth of his fader the x yere after he was made knyght and flewe kynge Pellinore with his owne handes / Also there were slayne at that bataille xij kynges on the fyde of kyng Lot 15 with Nero / and alle were buried in the chirche of saynt Steuyns in Camelot / and the remenaunt of knyghtes and of other were buried in a grete roche

¶ Capitulum xj

SO at the enterement cam kynge Lots wyf Morgause with her foure fones Gawayne / Agrauayne / Gaherys 20 and Gareth / Also ther came thyder kyng Vryens fyr Ewayns fader and Morgan le fay his wyf that was kyng Arthurs fyfter / Alle these cam to the enterement / but of alle these xij kynges kyng Arthur lete make the tombe of kynge Lot passyng rychely / and made his tombe by his owne / and 25 thenne Arthur lete make xij ymages of laton and couper / & ouer gylt hit with gold in the fygne of xij kynges / & echon of hem helde a tapyr of wax that brent day and nyȝt / & kyng Arthur was made in fygne of a fygure standyng aboue hem with a fwerd drawen in his hand / and alle the xij fygures had 30 countenance lyke vnto men that were ouercome / All this made Merlyn by his subtyl crafte and ther he told the kyng whā I am dede / these tapers shalle brenne no lenger / and soone after the aduentures of the Sangrayll shalle come among yow and be encheued / Also he told Arthur how Balyn the wor-35 shipful knyght shal gyue the dolourous stroke / wherof shalle falle grete vengeance / O where is Balen & Balan & Pelli-nore faide kyng Arthur / as for Pellinore sayd Merlyn / he wyl mete with yow soone /

¶ And as for Balyn

he wille not be longe from yow / but the other broder wil departe ye shalle see hym no more / By my feyth said Arthur they are two merueyllous knyghtes / and namely Balyn passeth of prowesse of ony knyghte that euer I found / for moche be holden I am vnto hym / wold god he wold abyde with me / 5 Syr sayd Merlyn loke ye kepe wel the scaubard of Excalibur / for ye shalle lese no blood whyle ye haue the scauberd vp-on yow though ye haue as many woundes vpon yow as ye may haue / Soo after for grete trust Arthur betoke the scau-berd to Morgan le fay his syfter / and she loued another kny- 10 ght better than her husband kyng Vryens or kyng Arthur And she wold haue had Arthur her broder slayne / And ther for she lete make another scauberd lyke it by enchauntement and gaf the scauberd Excalibur to her loue / and the knyghtes name was called Accolon that after had nere slayne kyng ar- 15 thur / After this Merlyn told vnto kyng Arthur of the prophecye / that there shold be a grete batail besyde Salysbury and Mordred his owne sone sholde be ageynste hym / Also he tolde hym that Baïdemegus was his cosyn and germayn vnto kynge Vryence

¶ Capitulum xij. 20

Wythyn a daye or two kyng Arthur was somewhat seke / and he lete pytche his paelione in a medowe / & there he leyd hym doune on a paylet to slepe / but he my-ght haue no rest / Ryght so he herd a grete noyse of an hors and therwith the kyng looked oute at the porche of the paelione / 25 and sawe a knyght comynge euen by hym makynge grete dole Abyde fair syr said Arthur / & telle me wherfor thou makest this sorowe / ye maye lytel amend me said the knyghte and foo passed forth to the castel of Melyot / Anone after ther cam ba-len / and whan he sawe kyng Arthur / he alyght of his hors / 30 and cam to the kyng on foote / and salewed hym / by my hede saide Arthur ye be welcome / Sire ryght now cam rydynge this way a knyght makynge grete moorne / for what cause I can not telle / wherfor I wold desyre of yow of your curtosye and of your gentylnesse to fetche ageyne that knyght / eyther 35 by force or els by his good wil / I wil do more for your lordship than that said balyn / and so he rode more than a paas and found the knyght with a damoyfel in a forest & said sir knyght ye must come with me vnto kynge Arthur for to telle hym of your forow / that wille I not / fayd the knyghte / for hit wylle scathe me gretely / and now do yow none auaylle / fyr fayd Balyn I pray yow make yow redy for ye must goo with me / or els 5 I must fyghte with yow and brynge yow by force / and that were me loth to doo / wylle ye be my waraunt faid the knyght and I goo with yow / ye faide Balyn or els I wylle deye therfore / And so he made hym redy to go with Balyn / and lefte the damoyfel styll / And as they were euen afore kynge 10 Arthurs pauclione / there came one inuyfybel and smote thys knyghte that wente with Balyn thorow oute the body wyth a spere / Allas fayd the knyght I am slayne vnder youre cōduyt with a knyght called Garlon / therfor take my hors that is better than yours and ryde to the damoyfel and folowe the 15 quest that I was in / as she wylle lede yow and reuenge my deth whan ye may / That shalle I doo fayd Balyn / and that I make vowe vnto knyghthode / and so he departed from thys knyghte with grete forowe / Soo kyng Arthur lete berye thys knyght rychely / and made a menfyon on his tombe / how there 20 was slayne Herlews le berbeus / and by whome the trechery was done the knyght garlon / But euer the damoyfel bare the truncheon of the spere with her that fyr Harlews was sla-yn with al

¶ Capitulum xiiij

SO Balyn and the damoyfel rode in to a forest / & ther 25 met with a knyght that had ben on huntynge / and that knyght asked Balyn for what cause he made so grete so-rowe / me lyft not to telle yow faide Balyn / Now faide the knyghte and I were armed as ye be I wolde fyghte wyth yow / that shold lytel nede fayd Balyn / I am not asferd to 30 telle yow / and told hym alle the cause how it was A fayd the knyght is this al / Here I enfore yow by the feithe of my body neuer to departe from yow whyle my lyf lasteth / & soo they wente to the hoftry and armed hem / and so rode forth with ba-lyn / And as they came by an heremytage euen by a Chyrche 35 yerd / ther cam the knyghte garlon inuyfybel and smote thys knyghte Peryn de mountebeliard thurgh the body with a spere / Allas faide the knyghte I am slayne by this traytoure knyghte that rydeth Inuyfyble / Allas faid balyn it is not the fyrst despyte he hath done me / and there the heremyte and Ba-lyn beryed the knyght vnder a ryche stone and a tombe royal And on the morne they sond letters of gold wryten / how fyr Gaweyn shalle reuenge his faders deth kyng Lot / on the 5 kyng Pellinore / Anone after this balyn and the damoyfel rode tyl they came to a castel and there balyn alyghte / and he and the damoyfel wende to goo in to the castel / and anone as balyn came within the castels yate the portecolys fylle doun at his bak / and there felle many men about the damoyfel / and 10 wold haue slayne her / whan balyn sawe that / he was fore a-greued / for he myghte not helpe the damoyfel / thanne he wente vp in to the toure and lepte ouer wallys in to the dyche / and hurte hym not / and anone he pulled oute his fuerd and wold haue fouzten with hem / and they all sayd nay they 15 wold not fyghte with hym / for they dyd no thyng but thold custome of the castel / and told hym how her lady was feke / & had layne many yeres / and she myghte not be hole but yf she had a dyshe of syluer ful of blood of a clene mayde & a kynges doughter / and therefore the custome of this castel is / there 20 shalle no damoyfel passe this way but she shal blede of her blood in a syluer dyshe ful / wel faid Balyn she shal blede as mo-che as she may blede / but I wille not lese the lyf of her why-les my lyf lasteth / & foo balyn made her to blede by her good will / but her blood halpe not the lady / and so he & she rested 25 there al nyght / & had there ryght good chere / and on the morn they passed on their wayes / And as it telleth after in the fan-graylle that fyre Percyualis fyfter halpe that lady with her blood wherof she was dede

THenne they rode thre or foure dayes and neuer mette 30 with aduenture / and by happe they were lodged with a gentyll man that was a ryche man and well at case / And as they sat at her souper balyn herd ouer complayne greuoufly by hym in a chayer / what is this noyse faid balen / forsothe faid his hooft I wylle telle yow / I was but late att a Iust- 35 ynge / and there I Iusted with a knyghte that is broder vnto kyng Pellam / and twyes smote I hym doun / & thenne he promysed to quyte me on my best frynde / and so he woundded my sone that can not be hole tyll I haue of that knyghtes blood / and he rydeth alwey Inuyfyble / but I knowe not his name / A sayd Balyn / I knowe that knyght / his name is 5 Garlon / he hath slayne two knyghtes of myn in the same manner / therfor I had leuer mete with that knyght than alle the gold in this realme / for the despyte he hath done me / wel said his ooste I shalle telle yow kyng Pellam of lyftyneyse hath made do crye in all this countrey a grete feest that shal be with-10 in these xx dayes / & no knyght may come ther but yf he bryn-ge his wyf wyth hym / or his peramour / & that knyghte youre enemy and myn ye shalle see that daye / Thenne I behote yow sayd Balyn parte of his blood to hele youre sone with alle / we wille be forward to morne sayd his oost / So on the morne 15 they rode all thre toward Pellam / and they had xv dayes Iourney or they cam thyder / and that same day began the greete feeste / and soo they alyght and stabled theyr hores / and went in to the Castel / but balyns oost myght not be lete in by cause he had no lady / thenne Balyn was wel receyued & brought 20 vnto a chamber and vnarmed hym / and there were brought hym robes to his pleasyr / and wold haue had Balen leue his swerd behynde hym / Nay sayd Balen that doo I not for it is the customme of my Countrey a knyghte alweyes to ke-pe his wepen with hym and that customme wylle I kepe / or 25 els I wyll departe as I cam / thenne they gaf hym leue to were his swerd / and so he wente vnto the castel / and was sette amonge knyghtes of worship and his lady afore hym / Soone balyn asked a knyght / is ther not a knyghte in this court whos name is Garlon / yonder he goth sayd a knyght / he with 30 the blak face / he is the merueyllest knyght that is now lyuyng for he destroyeth many good knyghtes / for he goth Inuyfyble A wel said Balen is that he / thēne balyn auysed hym long yf I see hym here I shall not scape / And yf I leue hym now perauentur I shalle neuer mete with hym ageyne at fuche a 35 steuen / and moche harme he wille doo and he lyue / Ther with this Garlon aspyed that this Balen behelde hym / and thenne he came and smote Balyn on the face with the bak of his hand / and sayd knyght why beholdest thou me so for shame therfor ete thy mete and doo that thou cam for / Thou sayst for-the said Balyn / this is not the fyrst despyte that thou hast done me / and therfor I will doo that I cam for and rose vp fyrersly and claue his hede to the sholders / gyue me the truncheon sayd Balyn to his lady where with he slewe your knyghte / 5 anone she gaf it hym / for alwey she bare the troncheon with her And therwith Balyn smote hym thurgh the body / and sayd openly with that truncheon thou hast slayn a good knyghte / and now it stycketh in thy body / And thenne Balyn called vnto hym his hooft / sayenge / now may ye fetch blood ynough 10 to hele your sone with all /

Capitulum xv

A None all the knyghtes aroos from the tabyl for to set on Balyn / and kyng Pellam hym self aroos vp fyrersly / & sayd knyzt hast thou slayn my broder / thou shalt dye therfor or thou departe / wel said balen do it your self 15 yis sayde kyng pellā / ther shall no mā haue ado with the / but my self for the loue of my broder / Thenne kyng Pellam cauȝt in his hand a grym wepen and smote egrely at balyn / but ba-lyn put his swerd betwixe his hede and the stroke / and ther-with his swerd brest in sonder / And whan balyn was wepen- 20 les he ranne in to a chamber for to seke somme wepen / and foo fro chamber to chamber / and no wepen he coude fynde / and alweyes kyng Pellam after hym / And at the last he entryd in to a chambyr that was merueillously wel dyȝte and rychely / and a bedde arayed with clothe of gold the rycheft that my- 25 ghte be thought / and one lyenge theryn / and therby stode a table of clene gold with four pelours of syluer / that bare vp the table / and vpon the table stood a merueillous spere straungely wrought / And whan balyn sawe that spere / he gat it in his hand and torned hym to kyng Pellam / and smote hym 30 passyngly fore with that spere that kyng Pellam felle doune in a swoune / and therwith the castel roose and wallys brake and fylle to the erthe / and balyn felle doune so that he myghte not stere foote nor hand / And so the moost parte of the castel that was falle doune thorough that dolorous stroke laye vpon 35 Pellam and balyn thre dayes

¶ Capitulum xvi

Thenne Merlyn cam thyder and toke vp Balyn and gat hym a good hors for his was dede / and bad hym ryde oute of that countrey / I wold haue my damoyfel fayd balyn / Loo fayd Merlyn where she lyeth dede & kyng 5 Pellam lay so many yeres fore wounded / and myght neuer be hole tyl Galahad / the haute prynce heled hym in the queft of the Sangraille / for in that place was part of the blood of our lord Ihefu cryft that Ioseph of Armathe broughte in to this lond / and ther hym self lay in that ryche bed / And that was 10 the fame spere that Longeus smote oure lorde to the herte / and kyng Pellam was nyghe of Ioseph kynne / and that was the moost worshipful man that lyued in tho dayes / and grete pyte it was of his hurte / for thorow that stroke torned to grete dole tray and tene / Thenne departed Balyn from Mer-15 lyn and fayd in this world we mete neuer nomore / Soo he rode forth thorowe the fayr countreyes and Cytees & fond the peple dede slayne on euery fyde / and alle that were on ly-ue cryed O balyn thow hast caused grete dommage in these cō-trayes for the dolorous stroke thow gauest vnto kyng Pellā 20 thre countreyes are destroyed / and doute not but the vengeaunce wil falle on the at the last / whanne Balyn was past tho contrayes he was passyng fayne / so he rode eyt dayes or he met with auenture / And at the last he came in to a fayr forest in a valey and was ware of a Toure / And there befyde he sawe 25 a grete hors of werre tayed to a tree / and ther befyde satte a fayr knyght on the ground and made grete mornynge and he was a lykely man and a wel made / Balyn fayd God faue yow why be ye so heuy / telle me and I wyll amende it and I may to my power / Syr knyghte said he ageyne thow doest 30 me grete gryef / for I was in mery thoughtes and now thou puttest me to more payne / Balyn wente a lytel from hym / & loked on his hors / thenne herd Balyn hym faye thus / a fair lady why haue ye broken my promyse / for thow promydest me to mete me here by none / and I maye curse the that euer ye 35 gaf me this swerd / for with this swerd I slee my self / and pulled it oute / and therwith Balyn sterte vnto hym & took hym by the hand / lete goo my hand fayd the knyght or els I shal slee the / that shal not nede said balyn / for I shal promyse yow my helpe to gete yow your lady / and ye wille telle me where she is / what is your name sayd the knyght / myn name is Balyn le fauceage / A fyr I knowe yow wel ynough ye are the knyght with the two swerdys and the man of moost prowesse of your handes lyuyng / what is your name sayd ba- 5 len / my name is garnyshe of the mount a poure mans sone / But by my prowesse and hardynesse a duke hath maade me knyght / and gaf me landes / his name is duke Hermel / and his doughter is she that I loue and she me as I demed / hou fer is she hens sayd Balyn / but xj myle faid the knyghte 10 Now ryde we hens fayde these two knyghtes / so they rode more than a paas tyll that they cam to a fayr castel wel wallyd and dyched / I wyll in to the castel sayd Balen / and loke yf she be ther / Soo he wente in and ferched fro chamber to chābir / and fond her bedde but she was not there / Thenne Balen 15 loked in to a fayr litil gardyn / and vnder a laurel tre he sawe her lye vpon a quylt of grene famyte and a knyght in her armes fast halfynge eyther other and vnder their hedes grasse & herbes / whan Balen sawe her lye so with the fowlest knyghte that euer he sawe and she a fair lady / thenne Balyn wente 20 thurgh alle the chambers ageyne and told the knyghte how he fond her as she had slepte fast / and so brought hym in the place there she lay fast slepyng

¶ Capitulum xvij

ANd whan Garnyshe beheld hir so lyeng for pure sorow his mouth and nose brast oute on bledynge and with 25 his swerd he smote of bothe their hedes / and thenne he maade sorowe oute of mesure and sayd O Balyn / Moche sorow hast thou brought vnto me / for haddest thou not shewed me that fyght I shold haue passed my sorow / forsoth said balyn I did it to this entent that it sholde better thy courage / and that ye 30 myght see and knowe her falshe / and to cause yow to leue loue of fuche a lady / god knoweth I dyd none other but as I wold ye dyd to me / Allas said garnyshe now is my sorow doubel that I may not endure / Now haue I slayne that I moost loued in al my lyf / and therwith fodenly he rooffe hym 35 self on his own swerd vnto the hyltys / when balen sawe that he dresſid hym thens ward / left folke wold ſay he had ſlayne them / and ſo he rode forth / and within thre dayes he cam by a croſſe / & theron were letters of gold wrytē that ſaid / it is not for no knyght alone to ryde toward this Caſtel / thēne ſawe he 5 an old hore gentylman comyng toward hym that ſayd Ba-lyn le Saueage thow paſſyſt thy bandes to come this waye / therfor torne ageyne and it will auaille the / and he vanyſhed away anone / and ſoo he herd an horne blowe as it had ben the dethe of a beſt / That blaſt ſaid Balyn is blowen for me / For 10 I am the pryſe and yet am I not dede / anone with al he ſawe an hondred ladyes and many knyghtes that welcommed hym with fayr ſemblaunt and made hym paſſyng good chere / vnto his fyght and ledde hym in to the caſtel / and ther was daunſyng and mynſtralsye and alle maner of Ioye / Then-15 ne the chyef lady of the caſtel ſaid / knyghte with the two ſuerdys ye muſt haue adoo and Iuſte with a knyght hereby that kepeth an Iland / for ther may no man paſſe this way but he muſt Iuſte or he paſſe / that is an vnhappy cuſtomme ſaid Ba-lyn that a knyght may not paſſe this wey / but yf he Iuſte / ye 20 ſhalle not haue adoo but with one knyghte ſayd the lady / Wel ſayd Balyn ſyn I ſhalle therto I am redy but traueil-lynge men are ofte wery and their horſes to / but though my hors be wery / my hert is not wery / I wold be fayne ther my deth ſhold be / Syr ſaid a knyght to Balyn / me thynketh your 25 ſheld is not good / I wille lene yew a byggar / therof I pray yow / and ſo he tooke the ſheld that was vnknownen and leſte his owne and ſo rode vnto the Iland / and put hym and his hors in a grete boote / and whan he came on the other fyde / he met with a damoyſel / and ſhe ſaid / O knyght balyn why haue 30 ye leſte your owne ſheld / allas ye haue put your ſelf in grete daunger / for by your ſheld ye ſhold haue ben knownen / it is grete pyte of yow as euer was of knyght / for of thy prowefſe & hardynes thou haſt no felawe lyuyng / Me repenteth ſaid ba-lyn that euer I cam within this Countrey / but I maye not 35 torne now ageyne for ſhame and what auenture ſhalle falle to me be it lyf or dethe I wille take the aduenture that ſhalle come to me & / thenne he loked on his armour / & vnderſtood he was wel armed / and therwith bleſſid hym and mounted vpon his hors

THenne afore hym he sawe come rydyng oute of a castel a knyght and his hors trapped all reed and hym self in the same colour / whan this knyghte in the reed beheld Balyn hym thought it shold bee his broder Balen by 5 cause of his two swerdys / but by cause he knewe not his sheld he demed it was not he / And so they auctryd theyr speres & came merueillously fast to gyders / and they smote other in the sheldes / but theire speres and theire cours were soo bygge that it bare doune hors & man that they lay bothe in a swoun 10 But balyn was bryfed fore with the falle of his hors / for he was wery of trauaille / And Balan was the fyrst that rose on foote and drewe his swerd and wente toward Balyn / and he aroos and wente ageynst hym / But balan smote balyn fyrste / and he put vp his shelde and smote hym thorow 15 the shelde and tamed his helme / thenne Balyn smote hym ageyne with that vnhappy swerd and wel nyghe had felld his broder Balan / and so they fought ther to gyders tyl theyr brethes faylled / thenne Balyn loked vp to the castel and sawe the Towres stand ful of ladyes / Soo they went vnto 20 bataille ageyne and wounded eueryche other dolefully / and thenne they brethed oftymes / and so wente vnto bataille that alle the place there as they fought was blood reed / And att that tyme ther was none of them bothe but they hadde cyther smyten other feuen grete woundes so that the left of them myȝt 25 haue ben the dethe of the myghtyest gyaunt in this world / Thenne they wente to batail ageyn so merueillously that doubte it was to here of that bataille for the grete blood shedyng
And their hawberkes vnnailled that naked they were on euery fyde / Atte last balan the yonger broder withdrewe hym a 30 lytel & leid hym doune / Thenne said balyn le Sauceage what knyghte arte thou / for or now I found neuer no knyȝt that matched me / my name is said he balan broder vnto the good knyght balyn / Allas sayd balyn that euer I shold see this day / and therwith he felle backward in a swoun / Thenne ba- 35 lan yede on al four feet and handes and put of the helme of his broder and myght not knowe hym by the vyfage / it was so ful hewen and bledde / but whan he awoke he sayd O balan my broder thow halt slayne me and I the / wherfore alle the wyde world shalle speke of vs bothe / ¶ Allas sayd Balan that euer I sawe this day that thorow myshap I myght not knowe yow / for I aspyed wel your two swerdys / but by cau-5 se ye had another shild I demed ye had ben another knygt Allas faide Balyn all that maade an vnhappy knyght in the castel / for he caused me to leue myn owne shelde to our bothes destruction / and yf I mygt lyue I wold destroye that cast-tel for ylle customes / that were wel done said Balan / For I 10 had neuer grace to departe fro hem syn that I cam hyther / for here it happed me to flee a knyght that kepte this Iland / & syn myght I neuer departe / and nomore shold ye broder & ye myght haue slayne me as ye haue and escaped your self with the lyf / Ryght so cam the lady of the Toure with iiij knygh-15 tes and vj ladyes and vj yomen vnto them and there she herd how they made her mone eyther to other and sayd we came bothe oute of one tombe that is to say one moders bely / And so shalle we lye bothe in one pytte / So Balan prayd the lady of her gentylneffe for his true seruyse / that she wold burye 20 them bothe in that same place there the bataille was done / and she graunted hem with wepyng it shold be done rychely in the best maner / Now wille ye sende for a preeft that we may recey-ue our sacrament and receyue the blessid body of our lord Ihesu cryst / ye said the lady it shalle be done / and so she sente for a 25 preeft and gaf hem her ryghtes / Now sayd balen whan we are buried in one tombe and the menfyon made ouer vs / how ij bretheren flewe eche other / there wille neuer good knyght nor good man see our tombe but they wille pray for our soules / & so alle the ladyes and gentylwymen wepte for pyte / Thenne 30 anone Balan dyed but Balyn dyed not tyl the mydnyghte after / and so were they buried bothe / and the lady lete make a menfyon of Balan how he was ther slayne by his broders handes / but she knewe not balyns name /

¶ Capitulum xiv

3 N the morne cam Merlyn and lete wryte balyns na-35 me on the tombe with letters of gold / that here lyeth balyn le Saucage that was the knygt with the two swerdes and he that smote the dolorous stroke / Also Merlyn lete make there a bedde / that ther shold neuer man lye therein / but he wente oute of his wytte / yet Launcelot de lake fordyd that bed thorow his nobleffe / and anone after Balyn was dede / merlyn toke his swerd / and toke of the pomel and set on an other pomel / so merlyn bad a knyght that stode afore hym handeld that swerd / and he assayed / and he myght not handle hit 5 Thenne Merlyn lough / why laugh ye said the knyghte / this is the cause said Merlyn / ther shalle neuer man handle this fuerd but the best knyght of the world / and that shalle be syr Launcelot or els Galahad his sone / and Launcelot with this fuerd shalle flee the man that in the world he loued best that shalle be syr Gawayne / Alle this he lete wryte in the pomel of the swerd / Thenne Merlyn lete make a brydge of yron & of stele in to that Iland / and it was but half a foote brode / & there 15 shalle neuer man passe that brydge nor haue hardynes to goo ouer / but yf he were a passyng good man and a good knyght withoute trechery or vylonye / Also the scaubard of Balyns swerd Merlyn leste it on this syde of the Iland that galahad shold fynde it / Also merlyn lete make by his subtyl- 20 te that Balyns swerd was put in a marbel stone standyng vp ryght as grete as a mylle stone / and the stone houed al weyes aboue the water and dyd many yeres / and so by aduēture it swam down the streme to the Cyte of Camelot that is in englysshe wynchestre / & that same day galahad the haute prynce came with kyng Arthur / and soo galahad broughte wyth hym the scaubard and encheued the swerde / that was there in the marbel stone / houynge vpon the water / And on whytsonday he encheued the swerd as it is reherced in the book of Sāc grayll / Soone after this was done Merlyn came to kyng Ar- 30 thur and told hym of the dolorous stroke that Balyn gaf to kyng Pellam / and how Balyn and Balan soughte to gyders the merueillous batail that euer was herd of / and how they were buryed bothe in one Tombe / Allas said kyng Arthur / this is the grettest pyte that ouer I herd telle of two 35 knyghtes / for in the world I knowe not suche two knyghtes /

¶ Thus endeth the tale of Balyn and of Balan two bretheren born in northüberlād good kniȝtes / ¶ Sequitur iij liber

¶ Capitulum primum

I

 N the begynnyng of Arthur after he was chosen kyng by aduēture and by grace for the most party of the barons knewe not that he was V-ther pendragons sene / But as Merlyn made it 5 openly knowen / But yet many kynges & lordes helde grete werre ayenst hym for that cause / But wel Arthur ouercame hem alle / for the mooste party the dayes of his lyf he was ruled moche by the counceill of Merlyn / Soo it fell on a tyme kyng Arthur sayd vnto Merlyn / my barons wille lete 10 me haue no rest but nedes I muste take a wyf / and I wyll that ye loue more than another / ye said kyng Arthur / I loue 15 gweneuer the kynges doughter Lodegrean of the land of Ca-

 Gweneuer his doughter / that is to me sayd kyng Lodegreans the best tydynge that euer I herd that so worthy a kyng of 35 prowesse and nobleffe wille wedde my doughter / And os for te royalte / what by water and what by land / tyl that they came nyghe vnto london 10

¶ Capitulum Secundum

WHanne kyng Arthur herd of the comyng of gweneand she shalle not say nay / anon the wyf was fet which was a fair houswyf / and there she answerd Merlyn ful womanly / and there she told the kyng and Merlyn that whan she was 15 a maide & went to mylke kyen / ther met with her a sterne kny-ght / & half by force he had my maidenhede / & at that tyme he bi-gat my sone Tor / & he toke away from me my greyhound that I had that tyme with me / & faide that he wold kepe the greyhound for my loue / A said the Cowherd I wende not thys / 20

¶ Capitulum Octauum

ANd fyr gauayne went in to the castel and made hym redy to lye there al nyght / and wold haue vnarmed hym / what wylle ye doo sayd gaheryfe / wylle ye vnarme yow in this Countrey / ye may thynke ye haue many e-5 nemyes here / they had not fooner sayd that word but ther cā four knyghtes wel armed and affayled fyr gauayne hard and faid vnto hym thou newe made knyght thou hast shamed thy knyghthode / for a knyght withoute mercy is dishonoured Also thou hast slayne a fayr lady to thy grete shame to the 10 worldes ende / and doubte thou not thou shalt haue grete ne-hem smote fyr gauayne a grete stroke that nygh he felle to the four fair ladyes / and besought the knyghtes of grace for fyre gauayne / and goodely atte request of the ladyes they gaf fyr 20 gauayne and gaheryfe their lyues / & made hem to yelde them as prysoners / thenne gauayne and gaheryfe made grete dole / Allas sayd fyre gauayne myn arme greueth me fore / I am lyke to be maymed and so made his complaynt pytoufly / erly on the morow ther cam to fyr gauayne one of the four la-this promyse that he shold bere the dede lady with hym in this maner / The hede of her was hanged aboute his neck and the hole body of hyr lay before hym on his hors mane / Ryght soo rode he forth vnto Camelot / And anone as he was come mer- 5 lyn defyred of kyng Arthur þ^t Syre Gauayne shold be sworne to telle of alle his auentures / and how he slewe the lady / and how he wold gyue no mercy vnto the knyght / where thurgh the lady was slayne / Thenne the kyng and the quene were gretely displeasyd with fyr gauayn for the sleynge of the la- 10 dy / And ther by ordenaunce of the quene ther was set a quest of ladyes on fyr gauayn / and they Iuged hym for euer why-le he lyued to be with all ladyes & to fyzte for her quarels / & that euer he shold be curteys / & neuer to refuse mercy to hym / that asketh mercy / Thus was gauayne sworne vpon the four 15 euuangelystes that he shold neuer be ageynst lady ne gentilwoman / but yf he fought for a lady / and his aduerfary fouzt for another / And thus endeth the auenture of fyr gauayn that he dyd at the maryage of kyng Arthur Amen

 Also they tamyd their helmes that the hote blood ranne oute /

¶ Capitulum xi

Wyth that cam a damoyfel rydyng on a palfrey as fast as she myȝt dryue and cryed with a lowde voys vnto 35 Syre Tor / what wille ye with me sayd fyr Tor / I byseche the faid the damoyfel for kyng Arthurs loue / gyue me a yefte / I requyre the gentyl knyght as thow arte a gentilman / Now faid Tor Aske a yefte and I wille gyue it yow / gramercy faid the damoyfel / Now I aske the hede of the fals knyght A-5 belleus / for he is the mooste outragious knyght that lyueth & the gretteft murtherer / I am loth feid fyr Tor of that gyfte I haue gyuen yow / lete hym make amendys in that he hath trespaced vnto yow / now faid the damoyfel he may not / for he fle-we myn owne broder afore myn owne eyen that was a better 10 knyght than he / and he hadde had grace / and I kneled half an houre afore hym in the myre for to saue my broders lyf that had done hym no dammage but fought with hym by auenture of armes / and so for al that I coude do / he stroke of his hede wherfore I requyre the as thow arte a true knyght to gyue 15 me my yefte or els I shal thame the in al the Court of kyng Arthur / for he is the falseft knyght lyuyng and a grete deftroyer of good knyghtes / Thenne whan Abelleus herd this / he was more aferd / and yelded hym and asked mercy / I maye not now saide fyr Tor / but yf I shold be founde fals of my 20 promesse / for whyle I wold haue taken you to mercy / ye wold none aske but yf ye had the brachet ageyn that was my quest And therwith he tooke of his helme / and he aroos and fled / and fyr Tor after hym and smote of his hede quyte / ¶ Now fyr faid the damoyfel / it is nere nyght / I pray yow come & lod-25 ge with me here at my place / it is here fast by / I will wel faid fyr Tor / for his hors and he had serd euyll fyn they departed from Camelot / and soo he rode with her and had passyng good chere with her / and she hadde a passyng fair old knyght to her husband that made hym passyng good chere and wel ea-and brake his fast and tooke his leue of the knyghte and of the lady that besought hym to telle hym his name / Truly he fa-was the fyrst queste of armes that cuer I dyd to bryng a-35 geyn that this knyght Abelleus toke away fro kyng arthurs courte / O fayr knyght faid the lady and her husband / and ye come here in oure marches / come and see oure poure lodgyng / and it shalle be alweyes at your commaundement / Soo fyre

Tor departed and came to Camelot on the thyrdde day by none / and the kyng & the quene & alle the Courte was passyng fayne of his comyng and made grete ioye that he was come ageyne / for he wente from the Court with lytel focour / but as kyng Pellinore his fader gaf hym an old courser / and kyng 5 Arthur gaf hym armour and a swerd / and els had he none other focour / but rode so forthe hym self alone / And thenne the kyng and the quene by merlyns aduys made hym to swere to telle of his auentures / and soo he told and made pryuees of his dedes as it is afore reherced / wherfor the kyng and the que- 10 ne made hym grete ioye / nay nay faide Merlyn thes ben but Iapes to that he shalle doo / for he shalle preue a noble knyght of proweesse as good as ony is lyuyng and gentyl and curteis & of good tatches and passyng true of his promesse / and neuer shalle outrage where thorow Merlyns wordes kyng Arthur 15 gaf hym an erldome of londes that felle vnto hym / and here endeth the quest of Syr Tor kyng Pellinors sone

THenne kyng Pellinore armed hym and mounted vp- on his hors and rode more than a paas after the lady that the knyght ladde away / And as he rode in a forest 20 he sawe in a valey a damoyfel sitte by a welle and a wounded knyght in her armes / and Pellinore sawed her / And whan she was ware of hym she cryed ouer lowde / helpe me knyghte for crystes sake kyng Pellinore & he wold not tarye he was so eger in his quest / and euer she cryed an C tymes after help 25 Whanne she sawe he wold not abyde / she prayd vnto god to sende hym as moche nede of help as she had / and that he myght fele it or he dyed / Soo as the book telleth the knyght there dyed that there was wounded / wherfor the lady for pure sorowe flewe her self with his swerd / As kyng Pellinore rode in 30 that valey he met with a poure man a labourer / Sawest thou not faide Pellinore a knyghte rydyng and ledyng awaye a lady / ye said the man / I sawe that knyght and the lady that made grete dole / And yonder bynethe in a valey ther shal ye see two paelions and one of the knyghtes of the paelions 35 chalengyd that lady of that knyght and fayd she was his cofyn nere / wherfor he shold lede her no ferther / And soo they waged bataill in that quarel / the one faide he wold haue her by force / and the other faid he wold haue the rule of her by 5 caufe he was her kynnesman and wold lede her to her kyn / for this quarel he lefte them fyghtyng / And yf ye wille ryde a paas ye shalle fynde them fyghtyng / and the lady was beleft with the two squyers in the paelions / god thanke the fayd kyng Pellennore / Thenne he rode a wallop tyll he had a fyght 10 of the two paelions and the two knyghtes fyghtyng / anon he rode vnto the paelions / and sawe the lady that was his quest / and fayd fayre lady ye muft goo with me vnto the court of kyng Arthur / Syr knyght faid the two squyers that were with her yonder are two knyghtes that fyghte for thys 15 lady / goo thyder and departe them / and be agreed with hem / & thenne may ye haue her at your pleasyr / ye say wel fayd kyng Pellennore / And anone he rode betwixt them and departed hem and asked hem the causes why that they fought / Sir knyght faid the one / I shalle telle yow / this lady is my kynneswo-20 man nygh myn aunes doughter / And whan I herd her complayne that she was with hym maulgre her hede / I waged babryng her ageyne and yow bothe / or els the one of vs to abyde in the felde / therfor the lady shalle goo with me / or I wille for fyghte ye no more / for none of yow shalle haue no parte of her at this tyme / And yf ye lyst to fyzte for her / fyzte with me / and I wille defende her / wel faid the knyghtes make you redy / and we shalle affaile yow with al our power / And as 35 kyng Pellennore wold haue put his hors fro them fyr Hontzlake rooffe his hors thorow with a fwerd and faid / Now art thow on foote as wel as we are / whan kyng Pellennore af-peyed that his hors was slayne / lyztely he lepte from his hors / and pulled oute his swerd / and put his shield afore hym / and sayde knyghte kepe wel thy heede / for thou shalt haue a buffet for the sleynge of my hors / So kyng Pellenore gaf hym fuche a stroke vpon the helme that he clafe the hede doune to the chynne that he fylle to the erthe dede 5

¶ Capitulum xiii

ANd thenne he torned hym to the other knyghte that was fore wounded / but whan he sawe the others buffet / he wold not fyghte / but kneled doune and sayd take my cofyn the lady with yow at youre request / and I requyre yow as ye be a true knyghte / put her to no shame nor vylony / 10 What sayd kyng Pellenore wylle ye not fyghte for her / no fyr sayd the knyghte I wylle not fyghte with fuche a knyghte of prowesse as ye be / wel said Pellenore / ye say wel / I prohaue hontzlates hors / ye shalle not neede sayd the knyght / for I shalle gyue yow fuche an hors as shalle please yow / so that ye wille lodge with me / for it is nere nyghte / I wille wel fa-

 Syr I shalle telle yow my name is kyng Pellenore of the I-other paucione is my sworne broder a passynge good knyghte and his name is Bryan of the Ilys / and he is ful loth to do said Pellinore that he wille not haue adoo with me / fyr he wil not haue adoo with no man but yf it be at his request / Bryn-and ſlepte tyl it was nyghe nyght / And whan he awoke / he And ther is ſuche a ſelaufhip they may neuer be broken / and wel nyghe al the world holdeth with Arthur / for there is the flour of chyualrye / Now for this cauſe I am rydyng in to the north to telle our chyuetayns of the ſelaufhip that is withholue brought a remedy with me that is the gretteſt poyſon that cuer ye herd ſpeke of & to Camelot wyll I with it / for we haue a frend ryght nyghe kyng Arthur and wel cheryſhed that ſhal poyfone kynge Arthur / for ſo he hath promyſed oure chyother knyght of Merlyn / for he knoweth all thynges by the deuyls craſte / therfore wille I not lete it ſaid the knyghte / & ſo they departed in ſonder / Anone after Pellenore maade hym redy and his lady rode toward Camelot / And as they cam by the wel there as the wounded knyght was and the la-or wylde beestes al fauf the hede / wherfor he made grete forowe and wepte passyng fore and said Allas her lyf myghte I haue faued / but I was so fyers in my quest therfore I wold not abyde / wherfore make ye suche doole said the lady / I wote not said Pellinore / but my herte morneth fore of the deth of her for she was a passyng fayr lady and a yonge / Now wylle ye doo by myne aduys said the lady / take this knyghte and lete hym be buryed in an heremytage / and thenne take the ladyes hede and bere it with yow vnto Arthur / Soo kyng Pellinore took this dede knyght on his sholders / and broughte hym to the heremytage and charged the heremyte with the corps / that feruysf shold be done for the soule / and take his liarneys for your payne / it shalle be done said the heremyte as I wille an-

¶ Capitulum xv

ANd ther with they departed and cam there as the he-de of the lady lay with a fair yelow here that greued kyng Pellinore passyngly fore whan le loked on hit / for mo-che he cast his herte on the vyfage / And soo by none they came to Camelot / and the kyng and the quene were passyng fayn of his comyng to the Courte / And there he was made to swere vpon the four euuangelystes to telle the trowth of his quest from the one to the other / A fyr Pellinore sayd quene Gwe-neuer ye were gretely to blame that ye faued not this ladyes lyf / Madame said Pellinore ye were gretely to blame and ye wold not faue your owne lyf & ye myzt / but fauf your plea-sir I was so furyous in my quest that I wold not abyde / & that repenteth me & shal the dayes of my lyf / Truly faide Merlyn ye ouzt fore to repente it / for that lady was your own douzter begoten on the lady of the rule / & that knyght that was dede was her loue / and shold haue wedded her / and he was a ryght good knyght of a yonge man and wold haue preued a good man / & to this court was he comyng & his name was sir Myles of the laūdis / & a knyzt cam behynde hym / & slewe him with a spere & his name is Lorayne le faueage a fals knyzt & a coward / & she for grete forow & dole slewe her self with his fwerd / and her name was Eleyne / And by caufe ye wold not abyde and helpe her / ye fhalle fee youre beft frende faylle fhalle be / And that penaunce god hath ordeyned yow for that 5 dede / that he that ye fhalle moft trufte to of ony man alyue / he fhalle leue yow ther ye fhalle be flayne / Me forthynketh faid kyng Pellinore that this fhalle me betyde but god may for-doo wel defteny / Thus whan the queft was done of the whyte herte / the whiche folowed fyr gawayne and the queft of the 10 brachet folowed of fyr Tor Pellenors fone / & the queft of the lady that the knyghte tooke aweye / the whiche kyng Pellinore at that tyme folowed / Thenne the kyng ftablyffhed all his kny-ghtes and gaf them that were of londes not ryche / he gaf them londes / and charged hem neuer to doo outragyoufite nor morof forfeiture of their worfhip and lordfhip of kyng Arthur for euermore / and alweyes to doo ladyes / damoyfels / and gen-tylwymmen focour vpon payne of dethe / Alfo that no man ta-the table round both old and yong / And euery yere were they fworne at the hyghe feeft of Pentecoft

25  Oo after thefe queftys of Syr Gawyne / Syre Tor / and kyng Pellinore / It felle fo that Merlyn felle in a dottage on the damoifel that kyng Pellinore broughte to the Courte / and fhe was one of the damoyfels of the lake that hyzte Ny-30 wold be with her / And euer fhe maade Merlyn good chere tyl fhe had lerned of hym al maner thyng that fhe defyred and he was affoted vpon her that he myghte not be from her / Soo on a tyme he told kyng Arthur that he fhoulde not dure longe but for al his craftes he fhould be put in the erthe quyck and so he told the kynge many thynges that shold befall / but alle wayes he warned the kynge to kepe wel his swerd and the scaubard / for he told hym how the swerd and the scaubard shold be stolen by a woman from hym that he most trusted / Also he told kynge Arthur that he shold mysse hym / yet had 5 ye leuer than al your landes to haue me ageyne / A fayd the kynge / fyn ye knowe of your aduenture puruey for hit / and put away by your craftes that myfauenture / Nay said Merlyn it wylle not be / soo he departed from the kynge / And within a whyle the damoyfel of the lake departed / and Merlyn wente 10 with her euermore where some euer she wente / And oftymes merlyn wold haue had her pryuely away by his subtyl craftes / thenne she made hym to swere that he shold neuer do none enchauntement vpon her yf he wold haue his wylle / And so he sware / so she and Merlyn wente ouer the see vnto the land 15 of Benwyck there as kynge Ban was kynge that had grete warre ageynst kynge Claudas / and there Merlyn spake with kynge Bans wyf a fair lady and a good / and her name was Elayne / and there he sawe yonge Launcelot / there the quene made grete sorowe for the mortal werre þ^t kyng claudas 20 made on her lord and on her landes / Take none heuynesse said Merlyn / for this fame child within this xx yere shall reuenge yow on kynge Claudas that all Crystendom shalle speke of it And this fame child shalle be the moost man of worship of the world / and his fyrst name is galahad / that knowe I 25 wel said Merlyn / And fyn ye haue confermed hym Launcelot / that is trouthe said the quene / his fyrst name was Galahad / O Merlyn said the quene shalle I lyue to see my sone suche a man of prowesse / ye lady on my parel ye shal see hit / and lyue many wynters after / And soo sone after the lady 30 and Merlyn departed / and by the waye Merlyn shewed her many wondres / and cam in to Cornewaille / And alweyes Merlyn lay aboute the lady to haue her maydenhode / and she was euer passyng wery of hym / and sayne wold haue ben delyuerd of hym / for she was aferd of hym by cause he was a 35 deuyls sone / and she coude not beskyfte hym by no meane / ¶ And soo on a tyme it happed that Merlyn shewed to her in a roche where as was a greet wonder / and wroughte by enchantement that wente vnder a grete stone / So by her sub-tyle wyrchynge she maade Merlyn to goo vnder that stone to lete her wete of the merueilles there / but she wroughte so ther for hym that he came neuer oute for alle the crafte he coude doo / 5 And so she departed and lefte Merlyn / WN to this counceille these fyue kynges assented / and so they passed forth with her hoost thorow Northwalis and came vpon Arthur by nyghte and sett vpon his kyng and the quene and the thre knyghtes took her horses & rode toward humber to passe ouer it / and the water was so ro-kyng Arthur whether ye wille abyde and take the aduentur and she loue yow not ageyne she were gretely to blame / and amonge ladyes said the Quene I shalle bere youre noble fa-20 and therwith the quene departed / Thenne the kyng and the thre knyghtes rode in to the forest / for there they supposyd to hefonde the fyue kynges dede / they made suche dole that they fell fro their horses / Ther with all cam kyng Arthur but with a fe-30 we peple and slewe on the lyfte hand and on the ryght hand that wel nyhe ther escaped no man / but alle were slayne to the nombre of xxx M / And whan the bataille was all ended the kynge kneled doune and thanked god mekely / and thenne he sente for the quene and soone she was come / and she maade 35 grete Ioye of the ouercomynge of that bataille

¶ Capitulum iiij

THere with alle came one to kyng Arthur / and told hym that kyng Pellinore was within thre myle with a grete hooft / and he said / go vnto hym and lete hym vnderstande how we haue spedde / Soo within a while kyng Pellinore cam with a grete hooft / and falewed the peple and the kyng / and ther was grete ioie made on euery fyde / Thenne the kyng lete ferche how moche people of his party ther was slayne / And ther were founde but lytel past two honderd men slayne and viij knyghtes of the table round in their pavelions Thenne the kyng lete rere and deuyse in the same place there as the batail was done a faire abbeye and endowed it wyth grete lyuelode and lete it calle the Abbey of la beale aduenture / but whanne somme of them cam in to their Countreyes ther of the fyue kynges were kynges and told hem how they were slayne / ther was made grete dole / And alle kyng Arthurs enemyes as the kyng of Northwales and the kynges of the North wyfte of the bataille they were passynge heuy / and foo the kyng retorned vnto Camelot in hast / And whan he was come to Camelot / he called kyng Pellinore vnto hym & fayd ye vnderstand wel that we haue losse viij knyghtes of the best of the table round / and by your aduys we wille chese viij a-geyne of the best we may fynde in this Courte / Syr said Pel-linore / I shal counceille yow after my conceyte the best / there are in your Courte ful noble knyghtes bothe of old & yonge And therfor by myn aduys ye shal chese half of the old and half of the yonge / whiche be the old said kyng Arthur / Syre said kyng Pellinore me semeth that kyng Vryence that hath wedded your syfter Morgan le fay and the kyng of the lake and fyr Heruyse de reuel a noble knyght / and fyr galagars the iiij / this is wel deuysed said kyng Arthur and right foo shal it be / Now whiche are the four yong knyghtes said Arthur Syre faide Pellinore the fyrst is fyr Gawayne your neuewe that is as good a knyght of his tyme / as ony is in this lād And the second as me semeth best is fyre Gryflet le fyfe the dene that is a good knyght and ful desyrous in armes / and who may see hym lyue he shal preue a good knyghte / And the thyrd as me semeth is wel to be one of the knyghtes of the round table fyr kay the seneschaw for many tymes he hath done ful worshipfully / And now at your last bataille he dyd full honourably for to vndertake to flee two kynges / By my hede said Arthur he is best worthy to be a knyght of the rounde table of ony that ye haue reherced / and he had done no more pro-5 wesse in his lyf dayes

¶ Capitulum Quintum

M Ow said kyng Pellenore I shalle putte to yow two knyghtes / and ye shalle chese whiche is mooft worthy / that is Syr Bagdemagus and fyr Tor my sone /
But by cause Syre Tor is my sone I may not prayse hym / 10 but els and he were not my sone / I durst saye that of his age ther is not in this land a better knyghte than he is nor of better condycions and lothe to doo any wronge / and loth to take ony wronge / By my hede said Arthur he is a passyng good knyght / as ony ye spak of this day that wote I wel said the kyng / for I haue sene hym preued but he seyth lytyll
15 and he doth moche more / for I knowe none in al this courte & he were as wel borne on his moder syde as he is on your syde that is lyke hym of prowesse and of myghte / And therfor I wille haue hym at this tyme and leue fyr Bagdemagus tyll 20 another tyme / Soo whan they were so chosen by the assente of alle the barons / Soo were there founden in her fyeges euery knyghtes names that here are reherced / and so were they set in their fyeges / wherof fyr Bagdemagus was wonderly wrothe that fyr Tor was auanced afore hym / and therefore sodenly 25 he departed from the Courte and toke his squyer with hym / & rode longe in a forest tyll they came to a crosse and there alygt and fayd his prayers deuoutely / The meane while his squyer founde wryten vpon the crosse that Bagdemagus shold neuer retorne vnto the Courte ageyne / tyll he had wonne a kny-30 tes body of the round table body for body / lo fyr said his squyer / here I fynde wrytyng of yow / therfor I rede yow retorne ageyne to the Courte / that shalle I neuer said Bagdemagus by men speke of me grete worship / and that I be worthy to be a knyghte of the round table / and soo he rode forthe / And 35 ther by the way he founde a braūche of an holy herbe that was the sygne of the Sancgraill / and no knyght founde suche tokens but he were a good lyuer / So as fir Bagdemagus rode to see many aduentures / it happed hym to come to the roche / ther as the lady of the lake had put Merlyn vnder the stone / and there he herde hym make grete dole / wherof fyre Bagdemagus wold haue holpen hym and wente vnto the grete stone / and he was so heuy that an C men myght not lyfte hyt vp / whan 5 Merlyn wyfte he was there he bad leue his labour / for al was in vayne / for he myght neuer be holpen but by her that put hym ther / and so Bagdemagus departed and dyd many auentures and preued after a full good knyght / and came ageyne to the Courte and was made knyght of the round table / So 10 on the morne ther felle newe tydynges and other auentures

¶ Capitulum Sextum

THenne it befelle that Arthur and many of his knyghtes rode on huntynge in to a grete forest / and it happed kyng Arthur / kyng Vryens and fyr Accolon of gaulle folowed a grete herte for they thre were wel horfed / and foo 15 they chaced so fast that within a whyle they thre were thenne x myle from her selauship / And at the last they chaced so fore that they slewe theyr hores vndernethe them / thenne were they al thre on foote / and euer they sawe the herte afore them passyng wery and enbusshed / What wille we doo said kyng ar- 20 thur we are hard bestad / lete vs goo on foote said kyng Vry-ens tyl we may mete with some lodgyng / Thenne were they ware of the herte that lay on a grete water banke / and a brach-et bytynge on his throte and mo other houndes cam after / Thenne kyng Arthur blewe the pryfe and dyghte the herte / 25 Thenne the kyng loked aboute the world / and sawe afore hym in a grete water a lytel ship al apparailled with fylke doune to the water / and the ship cam ryghte vnto hem and lāded on the sandes / Thenne Arthur wente to the banke & loked in / and sawe none erthely creature therin / Sirs said the kyng 30 come thens / and lete vs see what is in this ship / Soo they wente in al thre and founde hit rychely behanged with clothe of fylke / By thenne it was derke nyghte / and there sodenly were aboute them an C torches sette vpon alle the fydes of the ship bordes and it gaf grete lyghte / And ther with all there 35 cam out twelue fayr damoyfels and falcwed kyng Arthur ou her knees and called hym by his name / and fayd he was ryght welcome / and fuche chere as they had he shold haue of the best / the kyng thanked hem fayre / There with all they lad 5 the kyng and his two felawes in to a faire chambre / and ther was a clothe leyd rychely byfene of al that longed vnto a ta-bel / and there were they serued of al wyne and metes that they coude thynke / of that the kyng had grete merueille / for he ferd neuer better in his lyf as for one souper / And so when 10 they had souped at her leyser / kyng Arthur was ledde vnto a chamber / a rycher befene chamber sawe he neuer none / and soo was kyng Vryens serued / and ledde in to fuche another chā-byr / and fyr Accolon was ledde in to the thyrd chamber passyng rychely and wel byfene / and so were they layde in the-15 ire beddes casly / And anone they felle on slepe / and slepte merueilloufly fore all the nyght / And on the morowe kyng Vryens was in Camelott abed in his wyues armes Morgan le fay / And whan he awoke / he had grete merueylle / how he cam there / for on the euen afore he was two dayes Iourney frō 20 Camelot / And whan kyng Arthur awoke he found hym self in a derke pryfon herynge aboute hym many complayntes of woful knyghtes

¶ Capitulum Septimum

WHat are ye that foo complayne said kyng Arthur / we ben here xx knyghtes prysoners sayd they / & some 25 of vs haue layne here feuen yere and somme more and somme lasse / for what cause sayd Arthur / we shalle telle yow said the knyghtes / this lord of this castel his name is fyr Damas / & he is the falsest knyght that lyueth / and ful of treason / and a very coward as ony lyueth / and he hath a yonger broder a 30 good knyghte of prowesse / his name is fyr Ontlake / and this traytour Damas the elder broder wylle gyue hym noo parte of his lyuelode / But as fyre Ontlake kepeth thorow prowesse of his handes / and so he kepeth from hym a ful fair maner and a ryche and therein fyre Ontlake dwelleth wor-35 shipfully / and is wel biloued of al peple / & this fyre Damas our maister is as cuyll beloued for he is without mercy / and he is acoward / and grete werre hath ben betwyxe them bothe / but Ontzlake hath euer the better / and euer he profereth fyre Damas to fyghte for the lyuelode body for body / but he wylle not doo / other els to fynde a knyghte to fyghte for hym / Vnto that fyr Damas hath graunted to fynde a knyghte / but he is 5 so euill byloued and hated / that there nys neuer a knyghte wylle fyghte for hym / And whan Damas sawe this that ther was neuer a knyght / wold fyghte for hym / he hath daily layn a wayte with many knyghtes with hym / and taken alle the knyghtes in this countrey to see and aspye her auentures / he 10 hath taken hem by force and broughte hem to his pryfon / and so he tooke vs feueratly as we rode on oure auentures / & many good knyghtes haue dyed in this pryfon for hongre to the nombre of xviij knyghtes / And yf ony of vs alle that here is or hath ben wold haue foughten with his broder Ontzlake / he 15 wold haue delyuerd vs / but for by cause this Damas is so fals and so ful of treafon we wold neuer fyghte for hym to dye for it / And we be foo lene for hongre that vnnethe we may stande on oure fecte / god delyuer yow for his mercy fa-yd Arthur / Anone there with alle ther cam a damoyfel vnto 20 Arthur / and asked hym what chere / I can not say sayd he / fir sayd she and ye wylle fyghte for my lord ye shall be delyuerd oute of pryfon / and els ye escape neuer the lyf / Now sayd Arthur that is hard / yet had I leuer to fyghte with a kny-ght than to dye in pryfon / With this said Arthur I may be de- 25 lyuerd and alle these pryfoners I wylle doo the batail / yes said the damoyfel / I am redy sayd Arthur and I had hors and armour / ye shalle lacke none said the damoyfel / Me semeth damoyfel I shold haue fene yow in the Courte of Arthur / Nay said the damoyfel I cam neuer there / I am the lordes do- 30 ughter of this castel / yet was she fals for she was one of the damoyfels of Morgan le fay / Anone she wente vnto fyr Damas and told hym how he wold doo bataille for hym / and so he fente for Arthur / And whan he cam he was wel coloured and wel made of his lymmes / that al knyghtes that sawe hym 35 said it were pyte that suche a knyghte shold dye in pryfon / foo fyr Damas and he were agreed that he shold fyghte for hym vpon this couenaunt that all other knyghtes shold be delyuerd

And vnto that was fyr Damas sworne vnto Arthur / and also to doo the bataille to the vttermest / And with that all the xx knyghtes were brought oute of the derke pryfon in to the halle and delyuerd / and so they all abode to see the bataille

¶ Capitulum Octauum

5 Mow torne we vnto Accolon of Gaulle that whanne he awoke / he found hym self by a depe welle syde within half a foote in grete perylle of dethe / And there cam oute of that fontayne a pype of syluer / and oute of that pype ranne water all on hyhe in a stone of marbel / whan fyre Accolon fa-10 we this / he bleffyd hym and sayd Ihesu saue my lorde kyng Arthur and kynge Vryens / for these damoyfels in this ship haue bitrayed vs / they were deuyls and noo wymmen / And yf I may escape this misaventure / I shalle destroye all where I may fynde these fals damoyfels that vfen enchaütementys / 15 ¶ Ryght with that ther cam a dwarf with a grete mouthe & a flat nose and falewed fyre Accolon and said how he came from Quene Morgan le fay / and she greteth yow wel / and byddeth yow be of strong herte / for ye shal fyzte to morne with a knyghte at the houre of pryme / And therfore she hath sente 20 yow here Excalibur Arthurs swerd and the scaubard / and she byddeth yow as ye loue her that ye doo batail to the vt-termest without ony mercy lyke as ye had promyfed her whā ye spake to gyder in pryete / And what damoyfel that bryn-geth her the knyghtes hede whiche ye shal fyghte with al / she 25 wille make her a quene / Now I vnderstand yow wel sayd Accolon / I shalle holde that I haue promyfed her now I haue the swerd / whan sawe ye my lady Quene Morgan le fay Ryghte late sayd the dwarf / thenne Accolon tooke hym in his armes / and said recommaunde me vnto my lady Quene / 30 and telle her all shal be done that I haue promyfed her / and els I wille dye for hit / Now I suppose said Accolon she hath made alle these craftes and enchauntement for this bataille / ye may wel bileue it said the dwarf / Ryzt so there cam a knyghte and a lady with fyxe squyers / and falewed Accolon / 35 and prayd hym for to aryse and come and reffe hym at his maner / and so Accolon mounted vpon a voyde hors / & wente with the knyghte vnto a fayre maner by a pryory / and there he had passyng good chere / Thenne sir Damas sente vnto his broder fyr Ontzelake / and badde make hym redy by to morne at the houre of pryme / and to be in the felde to fyghte wyth a 5 a good knyght / for he had founden a good knyght that was redy to doo bataill at all poyntes / whan this word cam vnto sir Ontzelake / he was passyng heuy / for he was wounded a ly-tel to fore thorow bothe his thyes with a spere / and made grete dole / But as he was wounded he wold haue taken the ba- 10 taille on hand / Soo it happed at that tyme by the meanes of Morgan le fay Accolon was with fyr Ontzelake lodged / and whan he herd of that bataille and how Ontzelake was wou-ded / he sayd that he wold fyghte for hym by cause Morgan le fey had sente hym Excalibur and the shethe for to fyȝte with 15 the knyght on the morne / This was the cause fyr Accolon to-ke the bataille on hand / thenne fyre Ontzelake was passyng glad / and thāked fyr Accolon with alle his herte that he wold do so moche for hym / & ther with al fyr Ontzelake sente word vnto his broder fyre Damas / that he had a knyȝte þ^t for hym 20 shold be redy in the felde by the houre of pryme / Soo on the morne fyr Arthur was armed and wel horfed / and asked fyr Damas whan shalle we to the felde / fyr said fyr Damas ye shalle here masse / and so Arthur herd a masse / And whan masse was done / there cam a squyer on a grete hors & asked 25 fyr Damas yf his knyght were redy / for oure knyght is redy in the felde / Thenne fyre Arthur mounted vpon horfbak / & there were alle the knyghtes and comyns of that countrey / & so by alle aduyfes ther were chofen xij good men of the countrey for to wayte vpon the two knyghtes / And ryght as Ar- 30 thur was on horfbak / ther cam a damoifel from Morgan le fey and broughte vnto fyr Arthur a swerd lyke vnto Excalibur / and the scaubard / and sayd vnto Arthur Morgan le fey sendeth here your swerd for grete loue / and he thanked her / & wende it had ben so / but she was fals / for the swerd and the scau- 35 bard was counterfēt & brutyll and fals

¶ Capitulum ix

And thenne they dresyd hem on bothe partyes of the felde / & lete their horses renne so fast that eyther smote other in the myddes of the shelde / with their speres he-de / that bothe hors and man wente to the erthe / And thenne 5 they sterce vp bothe / and pulled oute their swerdys / the mea-ne while that they were thus at the bataille cam the damoyfel of the lake in to the felde / that put Merlyn vnder the stone / & the cam thydder for loue of kynge Arthur / for she knewe how Morgan le fay had soo ordeyned / that kynge Arthur shold 10 haue ben slayne that daye / and therfor she cam to saue his lyf And so they went egrely to the bataille / and gaf many grete strokes / but alweyes Arthurs swerd bote not lyke Accolon swerd / But for the most party euery stroke that Accolon gaf he wounded fore Arthur / that it was merueylle he stode / And 15 alweyes his blood fylle from hym fast / whan Arthur beheld the ground so fore bebledde he was desmayed / and thenne he de-med treason that his swerd was chaunged / for his swerd boote not styl as it was wonte to do / therfor he dredde hym so re to be dede / for euer hym femed that the swerd in Accolons 20 hand was Excalibur / for at euery stroke that Accolon stroke he drewe blood on Arthur / Now knyghte said Accolon vnto Arthur kepe the wel from me / but Arthur ansuerd not ageyne / and gaf hym fuche a buffet on the helme that he made hym to stoupe nygh fallynge doune to the erthe / Thenne fyr Acco-25 lon withdrew e hym a lytel / and cam on with Excalibur on hyghe / and smote fyr Arthur fuche a buffet that he felle nyhe to the erthe / Thenne were they wroth bothe / and gaf eche other many fore strokes / but alweyes fyr Arthur lost so moche blood that it was merueille he stode on his feet / but he was soo 30 ful of knyghthode that knyghtly he endured the payne / And fyr Accolon lost not a dele of blood / therfor he waxt passyng lyghte / and fyr Arthur was passyng feble / and wende very-ly to haue dyed / but for al that he made countenaunce as though he myghte endure / and helde Accolon as shorte as he my-35 ght / But Accolon was so bolde by cause of Excalibur that he waxed passyng hardy / But alle men that beheld hym sayd they sawe neuer knyghte fyghte so wel as Arthur dyd confyderyng the blood that he bled / Soo was all the peple fory for hym / but the two bretheren wold not accorde / thenne alweyes they fought to gyders as fyers knyghtes / and fyre Arthur withdrew he a lytel for to reſte hym / and fyre Accolon called hym to bataille and ſaid it is no tyme for me to ſuffre the to reſte / And therwith he cam fyerfly vpon Arthur / and fyre Arthur was wrothe for the blood that he had loſt / and ſmote Accolon on hye vpon the helme ſoo myztely that he made hym nyhe to falle to the erthe / And therwith Arthurs ſwerd braſt at the croſſe and felle in the graſſe amonge the blood and the pomel and the fure handels he holde in his handes / When fyr arthur ſawe that / he was in grete fere to dye / but alweyes he helde vp his ſhelde and loſt no ground nor bated no chere /

¶ Capitulum x

T Henne fyre Accolon beganne with wordes of treaſon and ſayd knyghte thow arte ouercome / and maxſte not endure and alſo thow arte wepenles / and thow haſt loſte moche of thy blood / and I am ful lothe to ſlee the / therfor yelde the to me as recreaunt / Nay ſaide fyre Arthur I maye not ſe / for I haue promyſed to doo the bataille to the vttermoſt by the ſeythe of my body whyle me laſteth the lyf / and therfor I had leuer to dye with honour than to lyue with ſhame / And yf it were poſſyble for me to dye an C tymes I had leuer to dye ſo ofte / than yelde me to the / for though I lacke wepen / I ſhalle lacke no worſhip / And yf thow ſlee me wepenles that ſhalle be thy ſhame / wel ſayd Accolon as for the ſhame I wyl not ſpare / Now kepe the from me for thow arte but a dede mā And therwith Accolon gaf hym ſuche a ſtroke that he felle ny-ghe to the erthe / and wolde haue had Arthur to haue cryed hym mercy / But fyre Arthur preſſed vnto Accolon with his ſheld / and gaf hym with the pomel in his hand ſuche a buſ-ſet that he went thre ſtrydes abak / whan the damoiſel of the lake beheld arthur / how ful of prowefſe his body was & the fals trefon that was wrouzt for hym to haue had hym ſlayn ſhe had grete pyte that ſo good a knyzt & ſuche a mā of worſhip ſhould ſo be deſtroyed / And at the next ſtroke fyr Accolon ſtroke hym ſuche a ſtroke that by the damoyſels enchaument the ſwerd Excalibur felle oute of Accolons hande to the erthe / And therwith alle Syre Arthur lyghtely lepte to hit / and gate hit in his hand / and forthwith al he knewe that it was his fuerd Excalibur / & fayd thow haft ben from me al to long / & moche dommage haft thow done me / & ther with he aspyed the scau-bard hangynge by his fyde / and fodenly he sterte to hym and 5 pulled the scaubard from hym and threwe hit fro hym as fer as he myghte throwe hit / O knyghte faide Arthur this daye haft thow done me grete dommage with this fwerd / Now are ye come vnto your dethe / for I shalle not waraunt yow but ye shalle as wel be rewarded with this fwerde or euer we de-10 parte as thow haft rewarded me / for moche payne haue ye made me to endure / and moche blood haue I lost / And therwith fyr Arthur ruffhed on hym with alle his myghte and pulled hym to the erthe / and thēne ruffhed of his helme / and gaf hym suche a buffet on the hede that the blood cam oute at his eres / 15 his nose & his mouthe / Now wylle I flee the faid Arthur / Slee me ye may wel faid Accolon and it please yow / for ye ar the best knyghte that euer I fonde / and I fee wel that god is with yow / But for I promysed to do this batail faid Accolon to the vttermest and neuer to be recreaunt whyle I lyued 20 therfore shal I neuer yelde me with my mouthe / but god doo with my body what he wyll / ¶ Thenne fyr Arthur remembrid hym and thoughte he shold haue fene this knyghte / Now telle me faid Arthur or I wylle flee the / of what cōtrey art thou and of what courte / Syre knyghte fayd fyr Accolon I am of 25 the courte of kynge Arthur / & my name is Accolon of gaulle Thenne was Arthur more defmayed than he was before hand For thenne he remembryd hym of his fyfter Morgan le fay / and of the enchauntement of the ship / O fyre knyghte fayd he I pray yow telle me who gaf yow this fwerd and by whom 30 ye had it /

¶ Capitulum xi

T Henne fyre Accolon bethouzte hym and faid wo worth this fwerd / for by hit haue I geten my dethe / it may wel be / faid the kynge / Now fyre faid Accolon I wil telle yow this fwerd hath ben in my keypyng the moost party 35 of this twelue moneth / And Morgan le fay kynge Vryens wyf sente it me yester daye by a dwerf to this entente that I shold flee kynge Arthur her broder / For ye shall vnderstand entente to flee kyng Arthur her broder / for ye shal vnderstand kyng Arthur is the man in the world that she mooft hateth by cause he is mooft of worship and of prowesse of ony of her blood / Also she loueth me oute of mesure as paramour / and I her ageyne / And yf she myghte brynge aboute to flee Arthur 5 by her craftes / she wold flee her husband kyng Vryens lyghtely / And thenne hadde she me deuysed to be kyng in this land / and soo to regne / and she to be my quene / but that is now done faide Accolon / for I am sure of my dethe wel sayd fyre Arthur / I fele by yow ye wold haue ben kyng in this 10 land / It had ben grete damage to haue destroyed your lord sayd Arthur / it is trouthe said Accolon / but now I haue told yow trouthe / wherfore I praye yow telle me of whens ye are and of what courte / O Accolon sayd kyng Arthur now I lete the wete / that I am kyng Arthur to whome thou haste 15 done grete damage / Whanne Accolon herd that / he cryed on lowde fayre swete lord haue mercy on me / for I knewe not yow / O fyr Accolon sayd kyng Arthur mercy shalt thou haue / by cause I fele by thy wordes at this tyme / thou kno-west not my persone / But I vnderstand wel by thy wordes 20 that thou hast agreed to the dethe of my persone / and therefore thou arte a traytour / but I wyte the the lasse / for my syster Morgan le fay by her fals craftes made the to agree and consente to her fals lustes / but I shalle be fore auengyd vpon her and I lyue that alle Crystendome shalle speke of it / god 25 knoweth / I haue honoured her and worshipped her more than alle my kynne / and more haue I trusted her than myn owne wyf and alle my kynne after /

¶ Thenne fyr Arthur called the keepars of the felde and said Syr cometh hyder / for here are we two knyghtes that haue 30 foughten vnto a grete damage vnto us both / and lyke echone of vs to haue slayne other / yf it had happed soo / And hadde ony of vs knowen other / here had ben no bataille / nor stroke stryken

¶ Thenne al a lowde cryed Accolon vnto alle the knyghtes and men that were thene there gadred 35 to gyder / and sayd to them in this manere / O lordes this noble knyghte that I haue foughten with all / the whiche me fore repenteth is the mooft man of prowesse of manhode and of worship in the world / for it is hym self kynge Arthur our al ther liege lord & with myshap and with myfaüeture have I done this bataill with the kyng and lord that I am holden with all

¶ Capitulum xij

- 5 T Henne alle the peple felle doune on her knees and cry-

Arthur / here maye ye see what auctures befallen oftyme of erraunte knyghtes how that I haue foughten with a knyght betwixe yow two bretheren as to the fyre Damas / for whom I haue ben champion and wonne the feld of this knyghte / yet wylle I Iuge by cause ye fyre Damas are called an orgu-15 lous knyghte and full of vylony and not worthe of prowesse of youre dedes / therfor I wylle that ye gyue vnto your broder alle the holt manoir with the appertenaunce vnder thys for-me / that sir Ontzelake hold the manoir of yow / and yerely to gyue yow a palfrey to ryde vpon / for that wylle become yow 20 better to ryde on than vpon a courser / Also I charge the fyre Damas vpon payne of deth / that thow neuer destresse no knytes erraunte that ryde on their aduenture / And also that thow restore these xx knyghtes that thow hast longe kepte prysoners of all their harneis that they be content for / and yf ony of hem 25 come to my court and complayne of the / by my hede thou shalt dye therfore / Also fyre Ontzelake as to yow by cause ye are named a good knyghte and ful of prowesse and true and gentyl in all your dedes this shalle be youre charge I wylle gyue yow that in al goodely haste ye come vnto me and my 30 courte and ye shalle be a knyghte of myne / and yf your dedes be there after I shall so profferre yow by the grace of god that ye shalle in shorte tyme be in case for to lyue as worshipfully as your broder fyre Damas / God thanke your largeness of your goodenes & of your bounte / I shall be from hens forward 35 at all tymes at your commaundement / For fyr said fyr Ontze-lake as god wold as I was hurte but late with an aduentures knyght thurgh both my thyes that greued me fore / & els had I done this bataille with yow / god wold sayd Arthur it had ben so / for thenne had not I ben hurte as I am / I shalle telle you the cause why / for I had not ben hurte as I am hadde not ben myne owne swerd / that was stolen from me by treason / And this bataille was ordeyned afore hand to 5 haue slayne me / and so it was brougte to the purpos by fals treason and by fals enchauntement / Allas said fyr Ontzela-ke that is greete pyte that cuer soo noble a man as ye are of your dedes and prowesse / that ony man or woman myzt synde in their hertes to worche ony treason ageynst yow / I shalle 10 reward them said Arthur in short tyme by the grace of god Now telle me said Arthur how fer am I from Camelot / fyr ye are two dayes iourney ther fro / I wold fayn be at some place of worship said fyr Arthur that I myghte rešte me / Syre said fyr Ontzelake / here by is a ryche abbey of your elders soū- 15 dacyon of Nonnes but thre myle hens / So the kynge took his leue of alle the peple / and mounted vpon horsbak / and fir Ac-colon with hym / And whan they were come to the Abbaye / he lete fetche leches and ferche his woundes and Accolons bothe / but fyr Accolon dyed within four dayes / for he had bled soo 20 moche blood that he myghte not lyue / but kyng Arthur was wel recouerd / Soo whan Accolon was dede / he lete sende hym on a horfbere with fyxe knyghtes vnto Camelot / and said / be-re hym to my fyfter Morgan le fay / and say that I sende her hym to a prefente / and telle her I haue my swerd Excalibur 25 and the scaubard / soo they departed with the body

¶ Capitulum xiiij

THe meane whyle Morgan le fay hadde wend kynge Arthur had been dede / soo on a day she aspyed kynge Vryens lay in his bedde slepyng / thenne she called vnto her a mayden of her counceyll / & said go fetche me my lordes swerd 30 for I fawe neuer better tyme to flee hym than now /

¶ O Madame sayd the damoyfel / and ye flee my lord ye can neuer escape / Care not yow said Morgan le fay / for now I see my tyme in the whiche it is best to doo hit / And therfor hye the fast and fetche me the fuerd / Theñe the damoisel departed 35 fonde fyre Vwayne flepynge vpon a bedde in another chamber foo she wente vnto sire Vwayne and awaked hym / and badde hym aryfe and wayte on my lady youre moder / for she wille flee the kynge your fader flepynge in his bedde / for I goo to 5 fetche his fwerd / wel said fyr Vwayne go on your waye / and lete me dele / Anone the damoyfel brought Morgan the fwerd with quakyng handes / and lyghtely took the fwerd / & pulled it out / and wente boldely vnto the beddes fyde / and away-ted how and where she myght fle hym best / And as she lyfte 10 vp the fwerd to smyte / sir Vwayne lepte vnto his moder and caughte her by the hand and sayd A fende what wilt thou do And thou were not my moder with this fwerd I shold smyte of thy hede / A sayd fyr Vwayn men faith that Merlyn was begoten of a deuylle / but I may faye an erthely deuylle bare 15 me / O fayre fone Vwayne haue mercy vpon me / I was tempted with a deuylle / wherfore I crye the mercy / I wylle neuer more doo foo and faue my worship and discouer me not / On this couenaunt said fyr Vwayne I wille forgyue it yow / foo ye wille neuer be aboute to doo fuche dedes / Nay fone said she / & 20 that I make yow affurance /

¶ Capitulum xiiii

THenne came tydynges vnto Morgan le fay that Ac-colon was dede / and his body brought vnto the chirche And how kynge Arthur had his fwerd ageyne / But whanne Quene Morgan wyfte that Accolon was dede / 25 she was foo forouful that nere hir herte to braft / But by cause she wold not it were knowen / oute ward she kepte her counte-ce naun / & maade no femblaunt of forowe / But wel she wyfte and she abode tyll her broder Arthur cam thyder / there shold no gold goo for her lyf 30 ¶ Thenne she wente vnto Quene Gweneuer / and asked her leue to ryde in to the countreye / ye maye abyde fayde Quene Gweneuer tyll youre brother the kynge come home / I maye not fayde Morgan le fay / for I haue fuche hasty tydynges / that I may not tary / wel faide Gueneuer ye maye departe whanne ye wille / Soo erly on the morne or hit was daye she tooke her hors and rode alle that daye and mooste parte of the nyghte / And on the morn by none she cam to the same Abbay of Nonnes / where as lay kyng arthur / & she knowyng he was there she asked where he was / And they answerd how he had 5 leyd hym in his bed to slepe / for he had had but lytel reſte theſe thre nyghtes / Wel ſaid ſhe I charge yow that none of yow awake hym tyl I doo / and thenne ſhe alyghte of her hors / & thoughte for to ſtele away Excalibur his ſwerd / and ſoo ſhe wente ſtreight vnto his chamber / And noo man durſte dyſ- 10 obeye her commaundement / and there ſhe fond Arthur a ſlepe in his bedde and Excalibur in his ryght hand naked / Whan ſhe ſawe that ſhe was paſſyng heuy that ſhe myghte not come by the ſwerd withoute ſhe had awaked hym / and thenne ſhe wyſt wel ſhe had ben dede / Thenne ſhe tooke the ſcaubard 15 and wente her wey on horſbak / whan the kyng awoke and myſſed his ſcaubard / he was wrothe / and he asked who had ben there / and they ſaid his ſyſter queene Morgan had ben ther and had put the ſcaubard vnder her mantel and was gone / Allas ſayd Arthur falſly ye haue watched me / Syre ſayd 20 they alle we durſte not diſobeye your ſyſters commaundement A ſaid the kyng lete ſetche the beſt hors maye be founde / And byd fyre Ontlake arme hym in al haſt / and take another good hors and ryde with me / Soo anone the kyng and Ontze-lake were wel armed / and rode after this lady / and ſoo they 25 cam by a croſſe and found a Cowherd / and they asked the poure man yf ther cam ony lady rydyng that way / Syre ſaid this poure man / ryght late cam a lady rydyng with a xl horſes / and to yonder foreſt ſhe rode / Thenne they ſpored their horſes / and folowed faſt / And within a whyle Arthur had 30 a ſyghte of Morgan le fay / thenne he chaced as faſt as he myghte / whanne ſhe aſpyed hym folowyng her / ſhe rode a gretter paas thorowe the foreſt tyl ſhe cam to a playne / And whanne ſhe ſawe ſhe myghte not eſcape ſhe rode vnto a lake ther by / & ſayd what ſoo euer come of me / my broder ſhall not haue this 35 ſcaubard / And thenne ſhe lete throwe the ſcaubard in the depeſt of the water ſoo it ſanke / for it was heuy of gold and pre-ciouſ ſtones

¶ Thenne ſhe rode in to a valeye where many grete stones were / And whan she sawe she muste be ouertake the shope her self hors and man by enchauntemēt vnto a grete marbyl stone / Anone with al cam Syr Arthur / and fyr Ontzelake where as the kyng myght knowe his syf-5 ter and her men / and one knyght from another / A sayd the kyng here may ye see the vengeaunce of god / & now am I fory that this myfaunture is befallē / & thenne he loked for the scaubard / but it wold not be founde / so he retorned to the Ab-beye there he came fro / So whan Arthur was gone / she torned 10 alle in to the lykenesse as she and they were before / and sayd fyrs now may we goo where we wylle /

¶ Capitulūm xv

THenne said Morgan sawe ye Arthur my broder / ye said her knyghtes ryght wel / and that ye shold haue founde and we myghte haue stered from one stede / for by his 15 armyuestal contenaunce he wold haue caused vs to have fled I byleue yow said Morgan / Anone after as she rode she met a knyght ledyng another knyght on his hors before hym bounde hand and foote blyndfeld to haue drowned hym in a fontayne / whan she sawe this knyght so boude / she asked hym what 20 wylle ye doo with that knyght / lady said he I wylle drowne hym / for what cause she asked / for I sonde hym with my wyf and she shalle haue the same dethe anone / that were pyte sayd Morgan le fay / Now what saye ye knyght is it trouthe þat he saith of yow she said to the knyght that shold be drowned / nay 25 truly madame he seith not ryght on me / Of whens be ye sayd Morgan le fay and of what cowntre / I am of the Courte of kyng Arthur / and my name is Manassen cosyn vnto Accolon of gaulle / ye fay wel said she / and for the loue of hym ye shalle be delyuerd / and ye shalle haue your aduersary in the 30 fame caas ye be in / So Manessen was lofed & the other knyght bounde / And anone Manessen vnarmed hym and armed hym self in his harneis / and soo mounted on horsbak / and the knyght afore hym and soo threwe hym in to the fontayne and drowned hym / And thenne he rode vnto Morgan ageyne / & 35 asked yf she wold ony thyng vnto kyng Arthur / Telle hym that I rescued the / not for the loue of hym but for the loue of Accolon / and telle hym I fere hym not whyle I can make me and them that ben with me in lykenes of stones / And lete hym wete I can doo more whan I see my tyme / And so she departed in to the countrey of Gorre / and there was she rychely receyued / and maade her castels and townes passynge stronge / for alweyes she drad moche kynge Arthur / Whanne 5 the kynge had wel rested hym at the Abbey he rode vnto Camelot / and fonde his quene and his barons ryght glad of his comynge / And whan they herd of his straunge auentures as is afore reherced / they alle hadde merueille of the falsheede of Morgan le fay / many knyghtes wyffhed her brent / thenne cam 10 Maneffen to courte and told the kyng of his auenture / well said the kynge she is a kynde syster / I shalle soo be auengid on her and I lyue / that alle Crystendome shalle speke of hit / So on the morne ther cam a damoifel from Morgan to the kynge and she brought with her the rychest mantel that euer was 15 fene in that Courte / for it was sette as ful of precious stones as one myght stand by another / and there were the rychest stones that euer the kynge sawe / And the damoyfel saide youre syster sendeth yow this mantel / and desyareth that ye shold take this gyfte of her / And in what thyng she hath offended you 20 she wille amende it at youre owne pleasyr / whan the kyng beheld this mantel it pleasyd hym moche / but he said but lytel

¶ Capitulum xvi

WYth that came the damoyfel of the lake vnto the kyng and said syr I must speke with yow in pryuyte / say on said the kynge what ye wille / Syr sayd the damoyfel put 25 not on yow this mantel tyl ye haue fene more / and in no wyfe lete it not come on yow nor on no knyghte of yours tyl ye commaunde the brynger thereof to put it vpon her / wel said kynge Arthur / It shalle be done as ye counceille me / And thenne he said vnto the damoyfel that cam fro his sister / damoifel this 30 mantel that ye haue brought me I wille see it vpon yow / syr she said / it wille not bifeme me to were a kynges garment / by my hede said Arthur / ye shalle were it or it come on my bak or ony mans that here is / and so the kyng made it to be putt vp-on her / And forth with al she felle doune dede / and neuer more 35 fpake word after and brente to coles / Thenne was the kyng wonderly wrothe more than he was to fore hand / and fayd vnto kyng Vryens my syfter your wyf is alwey aboute to bytraye me / and wel I wote outhur ye or my neuewe youre 5 fone is of counceille with her to haue me destroyed / But as for yow said the kyng to kyng Vryens I deme not gretely that ye be of her counceill / For Accolon confeffyd to me by his own mouth that she wold haue destroyed yow as wel as me ther for I hold yow excused / But as for your fone Syr Vwa-10 yn I hold hym suspect / therfore I charge yow put hym oute of my courte / So fyr Vwayne was discharged / And whanne Syr Gawayne wyft that he made hym redy to go with hym / & said who so bannyffheth my cofyn germain / shal bannyffhe me Soo they two departed / and rode in to a grete forest / and foo 15 they came to an Abbay of Monkes / and ther were wel lodged But whanne the kyng wyft that fyr Gawayne was departed from the Courte / ther was made grete forowe amonge alle the estates / Now fayd Gaherys Gawayns broder we haue lost two good knyghtes for the loue of one / So on the morne they 20 herd their maffes in the abbay / and so they rode forth tyl that they came to a grete forest / thenne was fyr Gawayne ware in a valey by a turret xij fayre damoyfels / and two knyghtes armed on grete hofes / and the damoyfels wente to and fro by a tree / And thenne was fyr Gawayne ware how ther henge a 25 whyte shelde on that tree / And euer as the damoyfels cam by it / they fpytte vpon it / and some threwe myrc vpon the sheld /

¶ Capitulum xviij

Thenne fyr Gawayne and fyr Vwayne wente and fa-lewed them / and asked why they dyd that despyte to the shelde / Syrs faiden the damoyfels / we shalle telle yow / 30 There is a knyght in this cōtrey that oweth this whyte sheld and he is a passyng good man of his handes / but he hateth al ladyes and gentylwymmen / and therfor we doo alle this des-pyte to the shelde / I shal fay yow said fyr gawayne / hit byfemeth euylle a good knyghte to despyse all ladyes and gentil 35 wymmen / And parauentur though he hate yow he hath somme

[leaf 70 verso]

And paraenture he loueth in fomme other places ladyes and gentylwymmen / and to be loued ageyne / and he be fuche a mā of prowesse as ye speke of / Now what is his name / fyr fayd they / his name is Marhaus the kynges sone of Ireland I knowe hym wel fayd fyre Vwayne / he is a passyng good 5 knyght as ony is on lyue / for I sawe hym ones preued at a Iustes where many knyghtes were gadered / and that tyme ther myghte no man withstande hym / A fayd fyr Gawayne Damoyfels me thynketh ye are to blame / for hit is to suppose / he that henge that sheld ther / he wille not be longe ther fro / & 10 thenne may tho knyghtes matche hym on horsbak / and that is more your worship than thus / For I wille abyde no len-ger to see a knyghtes sheld dishonoured / And therwith fyre Vwayne and Gawayne departed a lytel fro them / And thenne were they ware where fyre Marhaus cam rydyng on a gre- 15 te hors streyghte toward them / And whanne the xij damoy-fels sawe fyr Marhaus they fled in to the turret as they were wylde so that fomme of them felle by the wey / Thenne the one of the knyghtes of the Toure drestid his shelde and said on hyghe fyr Marhaus defende the / and foo they ranne to gy- 20 ders that the knyzt brake his spere on Marhaus / & Marhaus smote hym so hard that he brake his neck and the hors back / That sawe the other knyght of the turret and drestyd hym toward Marhaus / and they mette so egrely to gyders that the knyght of the Turret was soone smyten dounc hors and man 25 stark dede /

¶ Capitulum xviii

ANd thenne fyre Marhaus rode vnto his shelde / and fa-we how it was defowled / and fayd of this despyte I am a parte auengyd / But for her loue that gaf me this whyte shelde I shalle were the / and hange myn where thow was 30 and foo he hanged it aboute his neck / Thenne he rode streyght vnto fyr Gawayn and to fyr Vwayne / and asked them what they dyd there / They anfuerd hym that they cam from kyng Arthurs courte for to see auentures / wel fayd fyre Marhaus here am I redy an auentures knyghte that wille fultylle ony 35 aduventure that ye wylle defyre / And soo departed fro them / to fetch his raunge / lete hym goo seid fyr Vwayn vnto fyre Gawayne / for he is a passyng good knyghte as ony is lyuynge / I wold not by my wille that ony of vs were matched 5 with hym / Nay said fir Gawayne not so / it were shame to vs were he not assayed were he neuer soo good a knyghte / wel said fyr Vwayne I wylle assaye hym afore yow / for I am more weyker than ye / And yf he smyte me doune / thenne may ye reunge me / soo these two knyghtes cam to gyders with gre-10 te raundon that fyr Vwayne smote fyr Marhaus that his spere brafte in pyeces on the shelde / and Syre Marhaus smote hym so fore that hors and man he bare to the erthe / and hurte fyre Vwayne on the lyfte syde / Thenne fyr Marhaus torned his hors and rode toward Gawayne with his spere / and when 15 fyr Gawayne sawe that / he dresyd his sheld / and they auen-tryd their speres / and they cam to gyders with alle the myzte of their horses / that eyther knyght smote other so hard in myd-des of theyr sheldes / but fyr Gawayns spere brak / but fir mar-haus spere helde / And therwith fyre Gawayne and his hors 20 ruffhed doune to the erthe / And lyghtly fyre Gawayne rose on his feet / and pulled out his sward / and dresyd hym toward fyr Marhaus on foote / and fyr marhaus sawe that / and pulled oute his sward / and beganne to come to fyr Gawayne on horsbak / Syre knyght said fyr gawayn alyzte on foote or els 25 I wylle flee thy hors / gramercy sayd fyr Marhaus of youre gentylnef ye teche me curtosye / for hit is not for one knyzt to be on foote / and the other on horsbak / & therwith fyr Mar-haus sette his spere ageyne a tree and alyghte and tayed his hors to a tree / and dresyd his shelde / and eyther cam vnto o-30 ther egerly / and smote to gyders with her swardes that her sheld-es flewe in cantels / and they bryfed their helmes and their hauberkes and wounded eyther other / but Syre gawayne fro it passed ix of the clok waxed euer stronger and stronger / for thenne hit cam to the houre of noone & thryes his myghte 35 was encreaced / Alle this aspyed fyr Marhaus and had grete wonder how his myghte encreaced / and so they wounded other passyng fore / And thenne whan it was past noone / and whan it drewe toward euenfonge fyre gawayns strengthe febled & waxt passyngge saynte that vnnethes he myght dure ony lenger / and fyr Marhaus was thenne bygger and bygger / fyre knyght said fyr Marhaus / I haue wel felt that ye are a passyngge good knyghte and a merueyllous man of myghte as euer I felt ony / whyle hit lasteth / And oure quarels are not grete / and therfor it were pyte to doo yow hurte / for I fele ye are passyngge feble / A said fyr Gawayn gentyl knyghte ye say the word that I shold say / And therwith they took of theire helmes / and eyther kyssed other / and there they swore to gyders eyther to loue other as bretheren / And fyr Marhaus prayd fyr gawayn to lodge with hym that nyghte / And so they toke theyr horses / and rode toward fyr Marhaus hous / And as they rode by the wey / fyr knyghte said fyr gawayne I haue merueylle that so valyaunt a man as ye be loue no ladies ne damoyfels / Syre sayd fyr marhaus they name me wrongfully tho that gyue me that name / but wel I wote it ben the damoyfeles of the Turret that so name me and other suche as they be / Now shalle I telle yow for what cause I hate them / For they be forcereffes and enchaunters many of them / & be a knyzt neuer so good of his body and ful of prowesse as man may be / they wille make hym a stark coward to haue the better of hym / and this is the pryncipal cause that I hate them & to al good ladies and gentyl wymmen I owe my feruysse as a knyght ouzte to do / As the book reherceth in frensishe ther were many knyghtes that ouermatched fyr gawayne for alle the thryes myghte that he had / Syr Launcelot de lake / fyr Trystrams / fyr Bors de ganys / fyr Percuualle / fyr Pellias & fyr Marhaus / these fixe knyghtes had the better of sir gawayn Thenne within a lytel whyle they cam to fyr Marhaus place / whiche was in a lytel pryory / and there they alyghte and ladedys and damoyfels vnarmed them / and hastely loked to theyr hurtes / for they were all thre hurte / and so they had all thre good lodgyngge with fyr Marhaus and good chere / for whan he wyft that they were kynge Arthurs syster fones / he maade them al the chere that lay in his power / and so they sojourned there a vij nyghte / and were wel easyd of their woundes and at the last departed / Now said fyre Marhaus we wyлле not departe soo lyztely / for I wyлле brynge you thorow the forest

And rode daye by day wel a feuen dayes or they fond ony a-uenture / At the last they cam in to a grete forest that was named the countreye and foreste of Arroy and the countrey of straunge auentures / In this countrey sayd fyr Marhaus cam 5 neuer knyghte syn it was crystened / but he fonde straunge auentures / and soo they rode / and cam in to a depe valey ful of stones / and ther by they sawe a sayr streame of water / aboue ther by was the hede of the streame a sayr fontayne / & thre damoyfels fyttynge therby / And thenne they rode to them / and 10 eyther fawed other / and the eldest had a garland of gold aboute her hede / and she was thre score wynter of age / or more and her here was whyte vnder the garland / The second damoyfel was of thyrty wynter of age with a ferkelet of gold aboute her hede / The thyrd damoyfel was but xv yere of age / 15 and a garland of floures aboute her hede / when these knyghtes had soo beholde them / they asked hem the cause why they sat at that fontayne / we be here sayd the damoyfels for thys cause / yf we may see ony erraunt knyghtes to teche hem vnto straunge auentures / and ye be thre knyghtes that seken auen-20 tures and we be thre damoyfels / and therefore eche one of yow must chese one of vs / And whan ye haue done soo / we wyll lede yow vnto thre hye wayes / and there eche of yow shal che-se a wey and his damoyfel with hym / And this day twelue monethe ye must mete here ageyn / and god fende yow your ly-25 ues / and there to ye must plyste your trouthe / this is wel said sayd fyr Marhaus

¶ Capitulum xx

Now shalle eueryche of vs chese a damoyfel / I shalle telle yow sayd fyre Vwayne I am the yongest and moost weykeft of yow bothe / therfor I wyl haue the eldest da-30 moyfel / for she hath sene moche and can best helpe me whan I haue nede / for I haue moost nede of helpe of yow bothe / Now said fyr Marhaus I wyll haue the damoyfel of thyrty wynter age for she falleth best to me / wel sayd fyre gawayne / I thanke yow for ye haue leste me the yongest and the fayrest / 35 and she is moost leuest to me / Thenne euery damoyfel tooke her knyght by the raynes of his brydel / and broughte him to the thre wayes / and there was their othe made to mete at the fontayne that day twelue moneth and they were lyuyng / and soo they kyft and departed / and eueryche knyghte sette his lady behynd hym / and fyr Vwayne took the wey that lay west 5 And fyr Marhaus took the wey that lay southe / and fyr ga-wayne took the weye that laye northe / Now wylle we begynne at fyr gawayne that helde that wey tyll that he cam vnto a fayre manoir where dwellyd an old knyghte & a good houf-holder / and there fyr Gawayn asked the knyght yf he knewe 10 any auentures in that countrey / I shalle shewe yow somme to morne sayd the old knyghte / and that merueyllous / Soo on the morne they rode in to the forest of aduentures tyl they cam to a launde / and ther by they fond a crosse / and as they stode and houed / ther cam by them the fayrest knyght and the fe- 15 melyest man that euer they sawe / makynge the grettest dole that euer man made / And thenne he was ware of fyr gawayn and sawed hym and praid god to fende hym moche worship / As to that said fyr gawayn gramercy / Also I praye to god that he fend yow honour and worship / A said the kny- 20 ghte I may laye that on fyde / for forowe and shame cometh to me after worship /

¶ Capitulum xxi

ANd ther with he passed vnto the one fyde of the launde / And on the other fyde sawe fyr Gawayne & knytes that houed styll and make hem redy with her sheldes and 25 speres ageynst that one knyght that cam by fyr gawayn / Thenne this one knyght auntryd a grete spere / and one of the x knyghtes encountred with hym / but this woful knyght smote hym so hard that he selle ouer his hors taylle / So this fame dolorous knygt serued hem al / that at the left way he smo- 30 te doune hors and man / and alle he dyd with one spere / and soo whan they were all x on fote / they wente to that one kny-ght / and he stode stonystyll / and suffred hem to pulle hym doune of his hors / and bound hym hande and foote / and tayed hym vnder the hors bely / and so ledde hym with hem / O Ihesu 35 sayd fyr gawayne this is a dooleful syghte / to see the yonder knyghte so to be entreted / and it semeth by the knyght that he suffreth hem to bynde hym foo / for he maketli no refystence / Noo said his hooft that is trouthe / for and he wold they al were to 5 weyke foo to doo hym / Syr said the damoyfel vnto fyr Gawayn / me semeth hit were your worship to helpe that dolorous knyghte / for me thynketh he is one of the best knyghtes that euer I sawe / I wold doo for hym sayd fyre gawayn but hit semeth he wyll haue no helpe / thenne sayd the damoyfel me 10 thynketh ye haue no luste to helpe hym / Thus as they talked they sawe a knyghte on the other syde of the launde al armed sauf the hede / And on the other syde ther cam a dwerf on horfbak all armed sauf the hede with a grete mouthe / and a shorte nose / And whan the dwerf came nyghe he said where is the la-15 dy shold mete vs here / and ther with all she came forth out of the wood / And thenne they began to stryue for the lady / For the knyghte sayd he wold haue her / & the dwerf said he wold haue her / Wylle we doo wel sayd the dwerf / yonder is a knyht at the croffe / lete vs put it bothe vpon hym / and as he de-20 meth so shalle it be / I wyll wel said the knyght / and so they wente all thre vnto fyre gawayn and told hym wherfor they strofe / wel fyrs said he wyll ye put the mater in my hand / ye they sayd both / Now damoyfel sayd fyr gawayn ye shal stande betwixe them both / and whether ye lyst better to go to / he shal 25 haue yow / And whan she was fette bitwene them both she left the knyghte and wente to the dwerf / and the dwerf took her and wente his waye syngynge / and the knyghte wente hys wey with grete mornyng / Thenne cam ther two knyghtes all armed and cryed on hyghe Syre gawayn / knyghte of kyng 30 Arthurs make the redy in al hast and Iuste with me / foo they ranne to gyders that eyther felle dounce / and thenne on foote they drewe their swardes and dyd ful actually / the mene why-le the other knyghte wente to the damoyfel / and asked her / why she abode with that knyghte / and yf ye wold abyde with 35 me / I wyll be your feythful knyghte and with yow wyll I be said the damoyfel / for with fyr Gawayn I may not synde in myn herte to be with hym / For now here was one knyght scomfyte x knyghtes / And at the laste he was cowardly led away / and therefore lete vs two goo whyleft they fyghte / and fyre Gawayne fought with that other knyght longe / but at the last they accorded both / And thenne the knyght prayd fyr ga-wayn to lodge with hym that nyghte / Soo as fyre Gawayn wente with this knyghte he asked hym what knyghte is he in 5 this countrey that smote doune the ten knyghtes / for whan he had done so manfully he suffred hem to bynde hym hand and foote / and soo ledde hym away / A fayd the knyghte that is the best knyght I trowe in the world / and the moost man of pro-weffe / and he hath be serued soo as he was ene more than x 10 tymes / and his name hyghte fyr Pelleas / and he loueth a grete lady in this countrey and her name is Ettard / and so when he loued her there was cryed in this country a greete Iustes thre dayes / And alle the knyghtes of this countrey were there and gentylwymmen / And who that preued hym the best kny- 15 ght shold haue a passyng good swerd and a Serklet of gold and the serklet the knyght shold gyue hit to the fayrest lady that was at the Iustes / And this knyghte fyre Pelleas was the best knyghte that was there / and there were fyue honderd knyghtes / but there was neuer man that euer fyre Pelleas 20 met with al / but he stroke hym doune or els from his hors / And euery day of thre dayes he strake doune twenty knyghtes / therfore they gaf hym the pryfe / & forthe with all he wente there as the lady Ettard was / and gaf her the serklet / & said openly / she was the fayrest lady that ther was / & that wold 25 he preue vpon any knyghte that wold fay nay / ¶ Ca xxij

ANd soo he chofe her for his fouerayne lady / & neuer to loue other but her / but she was so proude that she had scorne of hym and sayd that she wold neuer loue hym thou3 he wold dye for her / wherfor al ladyes and gentylwym- 30 men hadde scorne of her that she was so proude / for there were fayrer than she / & ther was none that was ther but & sir Pelleas wold haue proferd hem loue they wold haue loued hym for his noble prowesse / & so this kny3t promysed the lady et-tard to folowe her in to this cōtrei / & neuer to leue her tyl she 35 loued hym / & thus he is here the moost party nyghe her and lodged by a pryory / and euery weke she sendeth knyghtes to fyzte with hym / And whan he hath put hem to the wers than wylle he suffre hem wyllfully to take hym pryfoner by caufe he wold haue a fyghte of this lady / And alweyes she doth hym grete despyte / for some tyme she maketh her knyghtes to taye hym to his hors taylle and some to bynd hym vnder the hors bely 5 Thus in the moost shamefullest wyfe that she can thynke he is broughte to her / And alle she doth hyt for to caufe hym to leue this countreie and to leue his louynge / But all this can not make hym to leue / for and he wold haue foughte on foote he myghte haue had the better of the ten knyghtes as wel on 10 foote as on horfbak / Allas sayd fyr gawayn it is grete pyte of hym / And after this nyghte I wylle feke hym to morowe in this forest to doo hym alle the helpe I can / So on the morne fyr gawayne tooke his leue of his hooft fyre Carados and rode in to the forest / And at the last he mette with fyr Pelle-15 as makynge grete moone oute of mesure / so eche of hem fawed other / and asked hym why he made suche sorowe / And as it is aboue rehersed / fyre Pelleas told fyre Gawayne / but alweyes I suffre her knyghtes to fare foo with me as ye fawe yef-terdaye in truste at the last to wynne her loue / for she knoweth 20 wel alle her knyghtes shold not lyghtely wynne me / and me lyst to fyghte with them to the vttermost / Wherefore and I loued her not so fore I hadde leuer dye an honderd tymes / and I myght dye foo ofte rather than I wold suffre that des-pyte / but I truste she wylle haue pyte vpon me at the laste / 25 for loue causeth many a good knyght to suffre to haue his en-tent / but allas I am vnfortunate / And ther with he maade foo grete dole & sorowe that vnnethe he myghte holde hym on horfback ¶ Now sayd fyre gawayne leue your mornyng and I shalle promyse yow by the feythe of my body 30 to doo alle that lyeth in my power to gete yow the loue of your lady / and ther to I wylle plyte yow my treuthe / A sayd fyr Pelleas of what Courte are ye telle me I praye yow my good frend / And thenne fyr gawayne sayd I am of the courte of kynge Arthur / and his susters sone / and kynge Lott 35 of Orkeney was my fader / and my name is fyre Gawayne / And thenne he sayd my name is Syre Pelleas borne in the Iles / and of many Iles I am lord / and neuer haue I loued lady nor damoyfel tyl now in an vnhappy tyme / and fyr knyghte fyn ye are foo nyghe cofyn vnto kynge Arthur and a kynges sone / therfor bytraye me not but helpe me / for I may neuer come by her but by fomme good knyghte / for she is in a stronge castel here fast by within this four myle / and ouer all this countrey she is lady of / And so I may neuer come to her prefence / but as I suffre her knyghtes to take me / and but yf I dyd so that I myghte haue a fyghte of her I had ben dede long or this tyme / and yet fayre word had I neuer of her / but whā I am brought to fore her she rebuketh me in the fowlest manner / And thenne they take my hors and harneis and putten me oute of the yates / and she wylle not suffre me to ete nor drynke / and alweyes I offre me to be her prysoner / but that she wylle not suffre me / for I wold defyre no more what paynes so euer I had / soo that I myȝte haue a fyghte of her day-ly / wel sayd fyr gawayne / Al this shalle I amende and ye wylle do as I shal deuyse / I wylle haue your hors and your armour / and so wylle I ryde vnto her castel and telle her that I haue slayne yow / and soo shal I come withynne her to caufe her to cherysshe me / And thenne shalle I do my true parte that ye shalle not faylle to haue the loue of her

¶ Capitulum xxiij

ANd there with fyr Gawayne plyghte his trouthe vnto fyr Pelleas to be true and feythful vnto hym / soo eche one plyghte their trouthe to other / and soo they chaunged horses and harneis / and fire Gawayn departed / and came to the castel where as stoode the pavelions of this lady withoute the yate / And as soone as Ettard had aspyed fyr Gawayn she sledde in toward the castel / fyr Gawayn spak on hyghe / and badde her abyde / for he was not fyre Pelleas / I am another knyghte that haue slayne fyr Pelleas / doo of youre helme said the lady Ettard that I maye see your vyfage / And soo whan she sawe that it was not fyr Pelleas / she made hym alyghte / and ledde hym vnto her castel / and asked hym feyth-fully / whether he had slayne fyr Pelleas / and he sayd her ye / and told her his name was fyre gawayn of the courte of kynge Arthur and his fyfter sone / Truly sayd she that is grete pyte for he was a passyng good knyghte of his body / but of al men on lyue I hated hym moost / for I coude neuer be quite of hym / And for ye haue slayne hym / I shalle be your woman and to doo ony thyng that myghte please yow / Soo she made fyr Gawayne good chere / Thenne fyr gawayn sayd 5 that he loued a lady / and by no meane she wold loue hym / She is to blame sayd Ettard and she wylle not loue yow / for ye that be soo wel borne a man and suche a man of pro-wesse / there is no lady in the world to good for yow / wylle ye sayd fyre Gawayne promyse me to doo alle that ye maye 10 by the feythe of youre body to gete me the loue of my lady / ye fyre sayd she / and that I promyse yow by the feythe of my body / Now sayd fyre Gawayne it is your self that I loue so wel / therfore I praye yow hold your promyse / I maye not chese sayd the lady Ettard / but yf I shold be forsworne / and 15 soo she graunted hym to fulfille alle his desyre /

¶ Soo it was thenne in the moneth of May that she and fyre Gawayn wente oute of the castel and fouped in a paelione / and there was made a bedde / and there fyre gawayne and the lady Ettard wente to bedde to gyders / and in another pael-20 ione she layd her damoyfels / and in the thyrd paelione she leyd parte of her knyghtes / for thenne she had no drede of fyr Pelleas / And there fyre gawayn lay with her in that paelione two dayes and two nyghtes / And on the thyrd day in the mornyng erly fyr Pelleas armed hym / for he hadde neuer 25 slepte syn fyr Gawayn departed from hym / for fyr Gawayne had promysed hym by the feythe of hys body to come to hym vnto his paelione by that pryory within the space of a daye and a nyghte

¶ Thenne fyre Pelleas mounted vpon horsbak / and cam to the paelions that stode without 30 the castel / and fonde in the fyrst paelione thre knyghtes in thre beddes / and thre squyers lyggyng at their feet / thenne wente he to the seconde paelione & fond four gentyl wymmen lyenge in four beddes / & thenne he yede to the thyrd paelion & fond fyr gawayn lyggyng in bedde with his lady Ettard 35 & eyther clyppying other in armes / and whan he sawe that his herte wel nyghe braft for forou / & said Allas that euer a knyzt shold be founde so fals / and thēne he took his hors & myzt not abyde no lenger for pure forowe / And whanne he hadde ryden nyghe half a myle he torned ageyne and thoughte to flee hem bothe / And whanne he sawe hem bothe foo lye flepyng faste / vnnethe he myght holde hym on horsbak for sorowe / and sayd then to hym self / though this knyght be neuer foo fals I wyl neuer flee hym flepyng / For I wylle neuer destroye the hy- 5 gh ordre of knyghthode / and therwith he departed ageyne And or he hadde ryden half a myle he retorned ageyne / and thoughte thenne to flee hem bothe / makynge the grettest sorou that euer man made / And whanne he came to the paucions / he tayed his hors vnto a tree / and pulled oute his swerd na- 10 ked in his hand / and wente to them there as they lay / and yet he thought it were shame to flee them flepyng / and layd the naked swerd ouerthwart bothe their throtes / and foo tooke his hors and rode his awaye

¶ And whanne fyre Pelleas came to his paucions he told 15 his knyghtes and his squyers how he had sped / and sayd thus to them for your true and good seruyse ye haue done me I shall gyue you alle my goodes / for I wylle goo vnto my bedde and neuer aryse vntyl I am dede / And whan that I am dede / I charge yow that ye take the herte oute of my body 20 and bere it her betwyxe two syluer dysshes / and telle her how I sawe her lye with the fals knyght Syr Gawayne / Ryght foo fyr Pelleas vnarmed hym felfe and wente vnto his bedde makynge merueyllous dole and sorowe /

¶ Thenne fyre Gawayne and Ettard awoke of her slepe / & 25 fonde the naked swerd ouerthwart theire throtes / thenne she knewe wel it was fyr Pelleas swerd / Allas sayd she to sir Gawayne ye haue bitrayed me and fyr Pelleas bothe / for ye told me ye had slayne hym / and now I knowe wel it is not foo he is on lyue / And yf fyre Pelleas had ben as vncurteis 30 to yow as ye haue ben to hym ye hadde bene a dede knyghte / but ye haue deceyued me and bytrayd me falsly / that al la-dyes and damoyfels may beware by yow and me / And ther with fyr gawayn made hym redy / and wente in to the forest / Soo it happed thenne that the damoyfel of the lake Nymue 35 mette with a knyghte of fyr Pelleas that wente on his foote in the forest makynng grete dole / and she asked hym the cause And foo the woful knyghte told her how his mayster and lorde was bitrayed thurgh a knyghte and a lady / and how he wyll neuer aryse oute of his bed tyl he be dede / Brynge me to hym sayd she anone / and I wyl waraunt his lyf he shal not dye for loue / and she that hath caused hym so to loue / she 5 shalle be in as euyl plyte as he is or it be long to / for it is no Ioy of fuche a prowde lady that wyll haue no mercy of fuche a valyaunt knyght / anone that knyghte broughte her vnto hym And whan she sawe hym lye in his bedde / she thoughte she sa-we neuer so lykely a knyght / and ther with she threwe an en-10 chauntement vpon hym / and he felle on slepe / And ther why-le she rode vnto the lady Ettard / and charged no man to awake hym tyl she came ageyne / Soo within two houres she broughte the lady Ettard thydder / and both ladyes fonde hym on slepe / loo sayd the damoyfel of the lake ye oughte to be asha-15 med for to murdre fuche a knyght / And therwith she threwe fuche an enchauntement vpon her that she loued hym fore / that wel nyghe she was oute of her mynde / O lord Ihesu faide the lady Ettard / how is it befallen vnto me / that I loue now hym that I haue moost hated of ony man aloue / that is the ryght 20 wys Iugement of god sayd the damoyfel / And thenne anone fyr Pelleas awaked and loked vpon Ettard / And whan he sawe her / he knewe her / & thēne he hated her more than ony woman aloue / and said away traitresse come neuer in my fyzt And whan she herd hym say so / she wepte and made grete fo-25 rou oute of mesure

¶ Capitulum xxiij

Syre knyght Pelleas sayd the damoyfel of the lake / take your hors / and come forthe with me oute of this countrey / and ye shal loue a lady that shal loue yow / I wyll wel said fyr Pelleas / for this lady Ettard hath done me gre-30 te despyte and shame / and there he told her the begynnyng and endynge / And how he had purposed neuer to haue aryfen tyll that he hadde ben dede / And now fuche grace god hath sente me / that I hate her as moche as euer I loued her thanked be our lord Ihesus / Thanke me sayde the damoyfel of the lake anone fyre Pellas armed hym and tooke his hors and commaunded his men to brynge after his paelions and his stufte where the damoyfel of the lake wold assigne / foo the lady Ettard dyed for forowe / and the damoyfel of the lake re-ioyfed fyr Pellas and loued to gyders durynge their lyf da- 5 yes

¶ Capitulum lxxv

Now torne we vnto fyr Marhaus that rode with the damoyfel of xxx wynter of age fouthard / and foo they cam in to a depe forest / and by fortune they were nygted / and rode longe in a depe way / and at the last they came 10 vnto the courtelage / and there they asked herborow / but the mā of the courtelage wold not lodge them for no treatyce that they coude treate / but thus moche the good man fayd / and ye will take the aduenture of youre lodgyng / I shal brynge you there ye shalle be lodged / what auenture is that that I shal haue / 15 for my lodgyng fayd fyr Marhaus / ye shalle wete whan ye come there fayd the good man / fyr what auenture so it be bryng me thyder I pray the fayd fyr Marhaus / for I am wery / my damoyfel and my hors / So the good man wente and opened the gate / and within an houre he broughte hym vnto a fayre 20 castel / and thenne the poure man called the porter / and anon he was lete in to the castel / & foo he told the lord how he brouȝt hym a knyght erraunt and a damoyfel that wold be lodged with hym / lete hym in faid the lord / it may happen he shalle re-pente that they toke their lodgyng here / So fyr Marhaus was 25 lete in with torche lyghte / and there was a goodely fyghte of yonge men that welcomed hym / And thenne his hors was ledde in to the stable / and he and the damoyfel were broughte in to the halle / and there stode a myghty duke and many go-odely men about hym / thēne this lord asked hym what he hy- 30 ghite / and fro whens he cam / and with whome he dwelt / fyre he faid I am a knyghte of kynge Nrthurs and knyght of the table round / and my name is fyre Marhaus / and borne I am in Irland / And thenne fayd the duke to hym / that me fore repenteth / the cause is this / for I loue not thy lord / nor 35 none of thy felawes of the table round / And therfor ease thy self this nyghte as wel as thou mayst / for as to morne I & my fixe sonnes shal matche with yow / Is ther no remedy but that I must haue a doo with yow and your vj fones at ones 5 sayd fyr Marhaus / No sayd the duke for this cause I maade myn auowe / for fyr gawayne slewe my feuen sonnes in a re-counter / therfore I made myn auowe / there shold neuer knyzt of kyng Arthurs court lodge with me or come there as I my-ght haue adoo with hym / but that I wold haue a reuengyng 10 of my sonnes dethe / what is your name said fyr Marhaus I requyre yow telle me and it please yow / wete thou wel I am the duke of south marchys / A sayd fir Marhaus I haue herd saye that ye haue ben longe tyme a grete foo vnto my lord arthur and to his knyghtes / that shalle ye sele to morne said the 15 duke / Shalle I haue adoo with yow sayd fyr Marhaus / ye sayd the duke / therof shalt thou not chese / and therefore take yow to your chambre and ye shalle haue all that to yow longeth / So fyr Marhaus departed and was led to a chamber / and his damoyfel was led vnto her chamber / And on the morn 20 the duke sente vnto fyre Marhaus and bad make hym redy / And so fyr Marhaus arofe and armed hym / and thenne ther was a masse songe afore hym and brake his fast / and so mouted on horsback in the courte of the castel there they shold doo the batail / So ther was the duke al redy on horsbak clene ar-25 med and his fyxe sonnes by hym / and eueryche had a spere in his hand / and foo they encountred where as the duke and his two fones brak theyr speres vpon hym / but fir Marhaus helde vp his spere and touched none of them /

¶ Capitulum xxvi

30 THenne cam the foure fones by couple / and two of them brake their speres / and foo dyd the other two / And alle this whyle fyre marhaus touched hem not / Thenne fir mar-haus ranne to the duke / and smote hym with his spere that hors and man felle to the erthe / And so he serued his fones / And thenne fyr Marhaus alyghte doune and bad the duke yelde hym or els he wold flee hym / And thenne some of his fones recouerd / and wold haue fet vpon fyr Marhaus / thenne fyr Marhaus sayd to the duke seace thy fones or els I will doo the vttermost to yow all / Thenne the duke fawe he myghte not escape the deth he cryed to his fones and charged them to yelde them to fyr Marhaus / And they kneled al doune / and put the pomels of theire fwerdes to the knyght / and foo he re-ceyued them / And thenne they halp vp their fader / and foo by their comynal assente promysed to fyr Marhaus neuer to be foes vnto kyng Arthur / and therupon at whytfontyde after to come he and his fones and putte them in the kynges grace Thenne fyr Marhaus departed and within two dayes his damoyfel brought hym where as was a grete tounement that the lady de Vawse had cryed / And who that dyd best shold haue a ryche ferklet of gold worthe a thousand besautes / And there fyr Marhaus dyd so nobly that he was renommed / & had somtyme doune fourty knyghtes / and foo the ferklet of gold was rewarded hym / Thenne he departed fro them with grete worship / And foo within feuen nyghtes his damoyfel brought hym to an erles place / his name was the erle Fergus / that after was fyre Tryftrams knyghte / and this Erle was but a yonge man / and late come in to his landes / and there was a gyant fast by hym that hyzte Taulurd / and he had another broder in Cornewaille that hyghte Taulas that fyr Tryfram flewe whanne he was oute of hys mynde / So this Erle maade his complaynte vnto fyre Marhaus that there was a gyaunt by hym that destroyed al his londes / & how he durst nowhere ryde nor goo for hym / Syr sayd the knyghte whether vseth he to fyghte on horsbak or on foote / nay sayd the erle there maye no hors bere hym / Wel said fyr marhaus thenne wille I fyghte with hym on foote / Soo on the morne fyr Marhaus prayd the erle* that one of his men myghte brynge hym where as the gyaūt was / and so he was / for he fawe hym fytted vnder a tree of hoolly / and many clubbes of Iron and gyfarms about hym Soo thys knyghte dresseid hym to the gyant puttyng his sheld afore hym / and the gyant toke an Iron clubbe in his hande / & at the fyrste stroke he clafe fyre Marhaus shelde in ij pyeces / And there he was in grete peryl / for the gyant was a wyly fyghter / but atte laſt fyr Marhaus ſmote of his ryght arme aboute the elbowe / thēne the gyant fledde and the knyght after hym / and ſoo he drofe hym in to a water / but the gyant was ſoo hyghe that he myghte not wade after hym / And thenne ſir 15 Marhaus made the erle Fergus man to fetche hym ſtones / & with tho ſtones the knyghte gaf the gyaunt many fore knockes / tyl at the laſt he made hym falle doune in to the water / & ſo was he there dede / thēne fyr Marhaus wēte vnto the gyants caſtel / and there he delyuerd xxiiij ladyes and twelue kny-20 tes oute of the gyants pryſon / and there he had grete rycheſſe withoute nombre / ſoo that the dayes of his lyf he was neuer poure man / thenne he retorned to the erle Fergus / the whiche thanked hym gretely / and wold haue gyuen hym half his lā-des but he wold none take / Soo fyr Marhaus dwellyd with 15 the erle nyghe half a yere / for he was fore bryfed with the gyaunt / and at the laſte he took his leue / And as he rode by the way / he mette with fyr gawayne and fyr Vwayne / and ſo by aduenture he mette with foure knyghtes of Arthurs courte / the fyrſt was fyr Sagramore deſyrus / fyr Ozanna / fyr Do-20 dynas le faueage / and fyre felot of lyflynoyſe / and there fyr Marhaus with one ſpere ſmote doune theſe foure knyghtes / and hurte them fore / Soo he departed to mete at his day afore fette

¶ Capitulum xxviij

25 Now tourne we vnto fyr Vwayne that rode weſtwarde with his damoyſel of thre ſcore wynter of age / and ſhe broughte hym there as was a turnement nyghe the marche of walyſ / and at that tornement fyre Vwayne ſmote doune xxx knyghtes / therfore was gyuen hym the pryſe / and that was a gerfaukon / and a whyte ſtede trapped with clothe of 30 gold / Soo thenne fyr Vwayn dyd many ſtraunge auentures by the meanes of the old damoyſel / and ſo ſhe broughte hym to a lady that was called the lady of the roche / the which was moche curtois / So there were in the countrey two knyghtes that were bretheren / and they were called two peryllous knygh-35 tes / the one knyghte hyght fyre Edward of the reed caſtel / & the other fyr Hue of the reed castel / And these two bretheren had disheryted the lady of the roche of a Baronry of landes by their extorfion / And as this knyȝt was lodged with this lady she made her compleynt to hym of these two knyghtes / Madame sayd fyr Vwayne / they are to blame / for they doo a- 5 geynst the hyghe ordre of knyghthode & the othe that they made / And yf hit lyke yow I wille speke with hem by cause I am a knyghte of kyng Arthurs / and I wille entrete them with sayrenesse / And yf they wille not I shalle doo bataille with them and in the deffense of youre ryghte / gramercy sayd 10 the lady / and there as I maye not acyute yow / god shalle / Soo on the morne the two knyghtes were sente for / that they shold come thyder to speke with the lady of the roche / and we-te ye wel they sayled not / for they cam with an C hors / But whan this lady sawe them in this maner soo bygge / she wold 15 not suffre fyr Vwayne to goo oute to them vpon no surete ne for no fayr langage / but she made hym speke with them ouer a toure / but fynally these two bretheren wold not be entreated and anfuerd that they wold kepe that they had / wel said fyr Vwayne / thenne wille I fyghte with one of yow / and pre- 20 ue that ye doo this lady wronge / that wille we not said they For and we doo bataille we two wyl fyghte with one knyȝt at ones / and therefore yf ye wille fyghte soo we wille be redy at what houre ye wille assigne / And yf ye wyne vs in bata-ille the lady shal haue her landes ageyne / ye say wel sayd fir 25 Vwayne / therfor make yow redy so that ye be here to morne in the defence of the ladyes ryght

¶ Capitulum xxviii

SO was there fykerneffe made on both partyes that no treafon shold be wrought on neyther partye / soo thenne the knyghtes departed and made hem redy / and that nyghte 30 fyr Vwayn had grete chere / And on the morne he arose erly and herd masse and brake his fast / and soo he rode vnto the playn withoute the gates where houed the two bretheren abydyng hym / Soo they rode to gyders passyng fore that fyre Edward and fyr Hue brake their speres vpon fyr Vwayne 35

And fyr Vwayne smote fyre Edward that he felle ouer his hors and yet his spere braft not / And thenne he spored his hors and came vpon fyr Hue and ouerthrewe hym / but they soone recouerd and dresfid their sheldes and drewe their fuer-5 des and bad fyre Vwayne alyghte and doo his bataill to the vttermest / Thenne fyr Vwayn deuoyded his hors sodenly / & put his shelde afore hym and drewe his swerde / and foo they dressfid to gyders and eyther gaf other fuche strokes / & there these two bretheren wounded fyr Vwayne passyng greuously 10 that the lady of the roche wende he shold haue dyed / And thus they fought to gyders fyue houres as men raged oute of reason / And at the laste fyr Vwayne smote fyre Edward vpon the helme fuche a stroke that his sward kerued vnto his canelbone / and thenne fyr Hue abated his courage / but fyr Vwa-15 yn pressed fast to haue slayne hym / That sawe fyr Hue he kne-led doune and yelde hym to fyr Vwayne and he of his gentilnesse receyued his sward and took hym by the hand & went in to the castel to gyders / thenne the lady of the roche was pas-fyng glad and the other broder made grete sorowe for his bro-20 ders dethe / thenne the lady was restored of al her landes / and fyr Hue was commaunded to be at the Courte of kyng Arthur at the next feest of penthecost / So sir Vwayn dwelt with the lady nyghe half a yere / for it was longe or he myghte be hole of his grete hurtes / and foo whan it drewe nygh the terme 25 day that fyr gawayn fyr Marhaus and fyre Vwayne shold mete at the crosse way / thenne euery knyght drewe hym thy-der to holde his promyse that they had made / & fyr Marhaus and fyr Vwayne broughte their damoyfels with them / but sir Gawayn had lost his damoyfel as it is afore reherced

Capitulum xxi

30 RYght foo at the twelue monethes ende they mette alle thre knyghtes at the fontayne and their damoifels but the damoyfel that fyr gawayn had coude faye but lytel worship of hym / foo they departed from the damoyfels and roode thurgh a grete forest / and there they mette with a messager that cam fro kynge Arthur that foughte them wel nyhe a xij moneth thorou oute al Englonde / wyls and Scotland / and charged yf euer he myght fynde fyre Gawayn and fyre Vwayn to brynge hem to the courte ageyne / And thenne we- 5 re they al gladde / and soo prayd they fyre Marhaus to ryde with hem to the kynges courte / And soo within twelue dayes they cam to Camelot / and the kynge was passyng glad of their comynge and soo was alle the Courte / thenne the kyng made hem to fwere vpon a book to telle hym alle theire aduentures 10 that had befallē hem that twelue monethe and soo they dyd / And there was fir Marhaus wel knowen / for ther were kny-ghtes that he had matched afore tyme / and he was named one of the best knyghtes lyuyng / Ageyne the feest of pentecost cam the damoyfel of the lake and broughte with hir fyr Pelle- 15 as / and at that hyhe feest there was grete Iustyng of knyghtes / and of al knyghtes that were at that Iustes / fyr Pelleas had the pryse / and fyr Marhaus was named the next / but fyr Pelleas was soo stronge / there myght but fewe knyghtes fyte hym a buffet with a spere / And at that next feest fir pel- 20 leas and fyr marhaus were made knyghtes of the table rōd For there were two feges voyde / for two knyghtes were slayn that twelue moneth / and grete ioye had kynge Arthur of fir Pelleas and of fir Marhaus / but Pelleas loued neuer after fir Gawayne but as he spared hym for the loue of kyng ar- 25 thur / But oftymes at Iustes and turnementes fir Pelleas quyte fir Gawayn / for so it reherceth in the book of Frenshe / Soo fir Trystram many dayes after faughte with fir Mar-haus in an yland / and there they dyd a grete bataylle / but at the last fir Trystram slewe hym / soo fir Trystram was woū- 30 ded that vnnethe he myght recouer and lay at a nonnery halfe a yere / and fir Pelleas was a worshipful knyghte / & was one of the four that encheued the sancgreal / and the damoyfel of the lake made by her meanes that neuer he had adoo with fir launcelot de lake / for where fir launcelot was at ony Iustes / 35 or ony tornement / he wold not suffre hym be there that daye / but yf it were on the fyde of fir launcelot / dest and reteynest contrary to the statutes and decrees maade by the noble and worthy Iulius Cezar conquerour of this

 And said he shold take auyce of counceyll and gyue to them

¶ Capitulum Secundum

THenne anfuercd kynge Anguysshe of Scotland / Syr ye oughte of ryght to be aboue al other kynges / for vnto yow is none lyke ne pareylle in Crystendome / of knyght- 25 hode ne of dygnyte / & I councylleyou neuer to obey the Romayns / for whan they regned on vs / they destreffyd oure elders / and putte this land to grete extorcions & taylles / wherfore I make here myn auowe to auenge me on them / and for to strengthe youre quarel I shal furnyssh the xxyM good men 30 of warre and wage them on my costes / whiche shal awayte on yow with my self whan it shal please yow / and the kyng of lytel Bretayne graunted hym to the same xxxM / wherfor kynge Arthur thanked them / And thenne euery man agreed to make warre / and to ayde after their power / that is to wete the lord of westwalis promysed to brynge xxx M men And fyr Vwayne / fyre Ider his sone with their cosyns promysed to brynge xxx M / thenne fyre launcelot with alle other 5 promysed in lyke wyse euery man a grete multytude / ¶ And whan kyng Arthur vnderstood their courages and good wylles / he thanked them hertely / and after lete calle themba-fatours to here their answere / And in presence of alle his lor-des and knyghtes he sayd to them in this wyse / I wylle that 10 ye retorne vnto your lord and procurour of the comyn wele for the Romayns / and faye ye to hym Of his demaunde and commaundement I sette nothyng / And that I knowe of no truage ne trybute that I owe to hym / ne to none erthely prynce / Crysten ne hethen / but I pretende to haue and occupye the fo-15 ueraynte of thempyre / wherin I am entytled by the ryght of my predeceffours somtyme kynges of this lond / and faye to hym that I am delybered and fully concluded to goo wyth myn armye with strengthe and power vnto Rome by the grace of god to take possession in thempyre / and subdue them that 20 ben rebelle / wherfore I commaunde hym and alle them of Rome that incontynent they make to me their homage or to knou-leche me for their Emperour and gouernour vpon payne that shal ensue / And thenne he commaunded his tresorer to gyue to them grete and large yestes / and to paye alle their dif-25 pencys / and assygned fyre Cadour to conueye them oute of the land / and soo they took their leue and departed / and tooke their shyppe at Sandwyche / and passed forthe by flaundrys / Almayn / the montayns / and all ytalie vntyl they cam vnto Lucius / And after the reuerence made / they made relacy-30 on of their answer lyke as ye to fore haue herd / whan themperour Lucius had wel vnderstonde theyre credence / he was foremeued as he had ben al araged / & sayd / I had supposyd that Arthur wold haue obeyed to my commaundement / and haue serued yow hym self / as hym wel byfemed or any other kyng 35 to doo / O fyre sayd one of the senatours late be such vayne wor-des / for we late yow wete that I and my felawes were ful-fore aserd to beholde his countenance / I fere me ye haue made a rodde for your self / for he entendeth to be lord of this empyre whiche fore is to be doubted yf he come / for he is al another mā than ye were / and holdeth the most noble courte of the world alle other kynges ne prynces maye not compare vnto his noble mayntene / On newe yeres daye we sawe hym in his estate whiche was the ryallest that euer we sawe / for he was serued 5 at his table with ix kynges / and the noblest felawship of other prynces lordes and knyghtes that ben in the world / and eue-ry knyghte approued and lyke a lord and holdeth table rouēd And in his persone the moost manly man that lyueth / and is lyke to conquere alle the world / for vnto his courage it is to 10 lytel / wherfore I aduyse yow to kepe wel youre marches and straytes in the montayns / For certaynly he is a lord to be doubted / Wel sayd Lucius bifore Eester I suppose to passe the moūtayns and soo forth in to fraunce / and there byruee hym his londes with Ianeweyes and other myghty warryours of 15 Tuskane and lombardye / And I shall fende for them all that ben subgettys and alyed to thēpyre of Rome to come to myn ayde / and forthwith sente old wyse knyghtes vnto these countrayes solowynge / fyrste to ambage and arrage / to Alysaundrye / to ynde . to hermonye / where as the ryuer of Eufrates ren- 20 neth in to Asye / to Auffryke / and Europe the large / to ertayne and Elamyte to Arabye / Egypte and to damaske / to da-myete and Cayer / to Capadoce / to tarce / Turkye / pounce / and pampoylle / to Surrye and gallacye / And alle these were sub-gette to Rome and many moo / as Grece / Cypres / Macydone 25 Calabre / Cateland / portyngale with many thoufandes of spaynardys / Thus alle these kynges / dukes / and admyrals affembled aboute Rome with xvj kynges attones with grete multitude of peple / whan themperour vnderstood their comyng / he made redy his Romainys / and alle the people bytwene hym & 30 Flaundres

¶ Also he hadde gotten wyth hym fyfty. Geaunts whiche had ben engendred of fendys And they were ordeyned to garde his persone / and to breke the frounte of the bataylle of kynge Arthur / And thus departed fro Rome and came doune the montayns 35 for to destroye the londes that Arthur had conquerd and cam vnto Coleyne / and byfeged a Castel there by / and wanne it soone and stuffed hit with two honderd sarafyns or Infydeles and after destroyed many fayr countrees / whiche Arthur had wonne of kyng Claudas / And thus Lucius cam with alle his hooft whiche were disperplyd lx myle in brede / and commaunded them to mete with hym in Burgoyne / for he purpo-5 sed to destroye the Royame of lytyl Bretayne /

Capítulo tercio

Now leue we of Lucius the emperour and speke we of kyng Arthur / that commaunded alle them of his retenue to be redy atte vtas of hyllary for to holde a parlement at yorke / And at that parlement was concluded to areste alle 10 the nauye of the lond and to be redy within xv dayes at fand-wyche / and there he shewed to his armye how he purposed to conquere thempyre whiche he ought to haue of ryght / And there he ordeyned two gouernours of his Royame that is to say Syre Bawdewyn of Bretayne for to counceille to the best and 15 fyr Constantyn fone to fyre Cadour of Cornewaylle / whiche after the dethe of Arthur was kyng of this Royamme / And in the prefence of alle his lordes he refyned the rule of the roya-me and Gweneuer his quene to them / wherfore fyre launcelot was wrothe / for he lefte fyre Trystram with kynges marke for 20 the loue of beal Ifoulde / Thenne the quene Gweneuer made grete sorowe for the departyng of her lord and other / and swou-ned in fuche wyfe that the ladyes bare her in to her chambre Thus the kyng with his grete armye departed leuyng the que-ne and Royamme in the gouernaunce of fyre Bawduyn and 25 Constantyn / And whan he was on his hors / he sayd with an hyhe voys yf I dye in this iourney I wyl that fyre Constan-tyn be myn heyer and kyng crowned of this royaume as next of my blood / And after departed and entred in to the see atte Sandwyche with alle his armye with a grette multitude of 30 shyppes / galeyes / Cogges / and dromoundes / fayllynge on the see /

¶ Capitulum iiii

ANd as the kyng laye in his caban in the shyp / he fyll in a slomerynge and dremed a merueyllous dreame / hym semed that a dredeful dragon dyd drowne moche of his peple / and he cam fleyng oute of the west / and his hede was enameled with afure / and his sholders shone as gold / his be- 5 ly lyke maylles of a merueyllous hewe / his taylle ful of tatters / his feet ful of fyne fable / & his clawes lyke fyne gold And an hydous flamme of fyre flewe oute of his mouthe / lyke as the londe and water had flammed all of fyre / After hym semed there came oute of thoryent / a grymly bore al blak 10 in a clowde / and his pawes as bygge as a post / he was rugged lokyng roughly / he was the foulest beest that euer man sawe / he rored and romed foo hydously that it were merueill to here / Thenne the dredeful dragon auauaced hym and cam in the wynde lyke a fawcon gyuyng grete strokes on the bore / 15 and the bore hytte hym ageyne with his gryfly tuskes / that his brest was al bloody / and that the hote blood made alle the fee reed of his blood /

Thenne the dragon flewe away al on an hey3te / and come doune with fuche a swough and smote the bore on the rydge whi- 20 che was x foote large fro the hede to the taylle / and smote the bore all to powdre bothe fleshe and bonys / that it flutteryd al abrode on the fee / And therwith the kyng awoke anone / and was fore abasshed of this dreame / And fente anone for a wyfe filosofher / commaundyng to telle hym the fygnifycacion of 25 his dreame / Syre sayd the filosofher / the dragon that thow dremedest of / betokeneth thyn owne perfone that sayllest here / & the colour of his wynges ben thy Royames that thow haste wonne / And his taylle whiche is al to tattered fygnifyeth the noble knyghtes of the round table

¶ And the 30 bore that the dragon slough comyng fro the clowdes / betokeneth some tyraunt that tormenteth the peple / or else thow arte lyke to fyghte with somme Geaunt thy self / beyng horryble and ab-homynable whoos pere ye sawe neuer in your dayes / wherfore of this dredeful dreame doubte the no thyng / but as a Conquerour come forth thy self / Thenne after this foone they had fyghte of londe and faylled tyl they arryued atte Barfleite in Flaundres / and whanne they were there he fond many 5 of his grete lordes redy / as they had ben commaunded to awayte vpon hym

¶ Capitulum v

THenne came to hym an husbond man of the countrey / and told hym how there was in the countre of Constantyn beynde Bretayne a grete gyaunt whiche hadde 10 slayne murthered and deuoured moche peple of the countreie and had ben susteyned feuen yere with the children of the comyns of that land / in soo moche that alle the children ben alle slayne and destroyed / and now late he hath taken the duchesse of Bretayne as she rode by with her meyne / and hath ledde her 15 to his lodgyng whiche is in a montayne for to rauyshe and lye by her to her lyues ende / and many people folowed her moo than v C / but alle they myghte not rescowe her / but they lefte her shrykyng and cryenge lamentably / wherfore I suppose that he hath slayn her in fulfyllinge his fowle lust of le-20 chery / She was wyf vnto thy Cosyn fyre Howel / whome we calle ful nyhe of thy blood / Now as thow a ryghtful kyng haue pyte on this lady / and reuenge vs al as thow arte a noble conquerour / ¶ Alas sayd kyng Arthur / this is a grete meschyef / I had leuer than the best Royame that I haue / 25 that I hadde ben a forlonge way to fore hym for to haue rescowed that lady / ¶ Now felawe sayd kyng Arthur canst thou bryng me there as thys gyaunt haunteth / ye fyre sayd the good man / loo yonder where as thow seest the two grete fyres / there shalt thou fynde hym / and more tresour 30 than I suppose is in al Fraunce / whanne the kyng hadde vnderstanden this pyteous caas / he retorned in to his tente / ¶ Thenne he callyd to hym fyre kaye and fyre Bedewere / & commaunded them secretly to make redy hors and harneis for hym self and them tweyne / For after euenfonge he wold 35 ryde on pylgremage with them two only vnto saynt Mychels mounte / And thenne anone he maad hym redy / and armed hym at alle poyntes / and tooke his hors and his sheld / And soo they thre departed thens and rode forthe as faste as euer they myȝt tyl that they cam to the forlond of that mount And there they alyghted / and the kynge commaunded them 5 to tarye there / for he wold hym self goo vp in to that mounte And soo he ascended up in to that hylle tyl he came to a grete fyre / and there he fonde a careful wydowe wryngynge her han-des and makynge grete forowe fyttynge by a graue newe made / And thenne kynge Arthur fawed her / and demaunded 10 of her wherfore she made fuche lamentacion / to whome she an-fuerd and sayd Syre knyghte speke fofte / for yonder is a deuyll yf he here the speke / he wylle come and destroye the / I hold the vnhappy what doft thou here in this mountayne / For yf ye were fuche fyfty as ye be / ye were not able to ma- 15 ke refyftence ageynft this deuyl / here lyeth a duchesse deede the whiche was the fayrest of alle the world wyf to fyre Howel / duc of Bretayne / he hath murthred her in foreynge her / and has flytte her vnto the nauyl / ¶ Dame fayd the kynge / I came fro the noble Conqueroure kynge Arthur for to treate 20 with that tyraunt for his lyege peple / Fy on fuche treatys fa-yd she / he fetteth not by the kynge ne by no man els / But and yf thou haue broughte Arthurs wyf dame Gweneuer / he fhalle be gladder than thou haddeft gyuen to hym half fraunce / Beware approche hym not to nygh / for he hath vaynquyf- 25 shed xv kynges / and hath maade hym a cote ful of precious stones enbrowdred with theyre berdes / whiche they fente hym to haue his loue for fauacion of theyr peple at this lafte Crystemaffe / And yf thou wylt / speke with hym at yonder grete fyre at fouper / wel fayd Arthur I wyl accomplyfhe my mef- 30 fage for al your ferdful wordes / and wente forth by the craeft of that hylle / and fawe where he fatte atte fouper gnawynge on a lymme of a man / bekyng his brode lymmes by the fyre and brecheles / and thre fayr damoyfels tornynge thre broches wheron were broched twelue yonge children late borne lyke 35 yonge byrdes ¶ Whanne kynge Arthur beheld that pyteous fyȝte / he had grete compaffion on them fo that his hert bledde for forowe / and hayled hym fayeng in this wyfe he that alle the world weldeth gyue the shorte lyf & shameful dethe / And the deuyl haue thy foule / why hast thou murthred these yonge Innocent children / and murthred this duchesse / Ther-5 fore aryse and dresse the thou gloton / For this day shall thou dye of my hand / Thenne the gloton anone starte vp and tooke a grete clubbe in his hand / and smote at the kyng that his coronal fylle to the erthe / and the kyng hytte hym ageyn that he carf his bely and cutte of his genytours / that his guttes & 10 his entraylles fylle doune to the ground / thenne the gyaunt threwe away his clubbe / and caught the kyng in his armes that he cruffhyd his rybbes / Thenne the thre maydens knelyd doune and callyd to Cryft for helpe and comforte of Arthur And thenne Arthur weltred and wrong / that he was other 15 whyle vnder and another tyme aboue / And so weltryng and walowyng they rolled doune the hylle / tyl they came to the fee marke / and euer as they foo weltred / Arthur smote hym with his daggar / and it fortunied they came to the place / where as the two knyghtes were and kepte Arthurs hors / then-20 ne when they sawe the kyng fast in the gyaunts armes / they came and losed hym / And thenne the kyng commaunded fyr kaye to smyte of the gyaunts hede / and to sette it vpon a trun-cheon of a spere / and bere it to fyre howel / and telle hym that his enemy was slayne / and after late this hede be bounden to 25 a barbycan that alle the peple may see and behold hit / and go ye two up to the montayn / and fetch me my sheld / my fuerd and the clubbe of yron / And as for the trefour take ye it / for ye shalle fynde there good oute of nombre / So I haue the kertyl and the clubbe I defyre no more / This was the fyrst gy-30 aunt that euer I mette with / fauf one in the mount of Arabe / whiche I ouercame / but this was gretter and fyrfer / Thenne the knyghtes fette the clubbe and the kyrtyl / and some of the trefour they took to them self / and retorned ageyne to the host And anone this was knowen thurgh alle the countrey / wher 35 for the peple came and thanked the kyng / And he sayd a-geyne yeue the thanke to god / and departe the goodes among yow / And after that kyng Arthur sayd and commaunded his Cofyn howel that he shold ordeyne for a chirche to be bylded on the same hylle in the worship of faynte Mychel / ¶ And on the morne the kynge remeuyd with his grete bataylle / and came in to Champayne and in a valeye / and there they pyght their tentys / and the kynge beyng set at his dyner / ther cam in two messagers / of whome that one was Marchal of fraunce 5 and sayd to the kyng that themperour was entryd in to fraunce / and had destroyed a grete parte and was in Burgoyne and had destroyed and made grete slaughter of peple & brente townes and borowes / wherfor yf thou come not hastily / they must yelde vp their bodyes and goodes / 10

¶ Capítulum sextum

Thenne the kynge dyd doo calle fyre Gawayne / fyre Borce / fyr Lyonel and fyre Bedwere / and comma-unded them to goo straye to fyre Lucius / and saye ye to hym that hastily he remeue oute of my land / And yf he wil not / bydde hym make hym redy to bataylle and not distresse the 15 poure peple / Thenne anone these noble knyghtes dresyd them to horsbak / And whanne they came to the grene wood / they fa-we many paelions sette in a medowe of sylke of dyuerse colours befyde a ryuer / And themperours paelione was in the myddle with an egle displayed aboue / To the whiche tente 20 our knyghtes rode toward / and ordeyned fyr Gawayn and fyre Bors to doo the message / And leste in a buffement fyre Lyonel / and fyre Bedwere / And thenne fyre Gawayn and fyr Borce dyd their message / and commaunded Lucius in Ar-thurs name to auoyde his lond / or shortly to adresse hym to ba- 25 taylle / To whome Lucius anfuerte and sayd ye shalle retorne to your lord and saye ye to hym that I shall subdue hym and alle his londes / Thenne fyre Gawayn was wrothe and sayde I hadde leuer than alle Fraunce syghte ageynst the / and foo hadde I faide fyr Borce leuer than alle Bretayne or bur- 30 goyne

¶ Thenne a knyght named fyre Gaynus nyghe cofyn to the Emperour sayde / loo how these Bretons ben ful of pryde and boost / and they bragge as though they bare up alle the worlde / Thenne fyre Gawayne was fore greued with theſe wordes / and pulled oute his ſwerd and ſmote of his hede / And therewith torned theyr horſes and rode ouer waters and thurgh woodes tyl they came to theyre buſſhement / where as fyr Lyonel and fyr Bedeuer were houyng / The ro-5 mayns ſolowed faſt after on horſbak and on foote ouer a chā-payn vnto a wood / thenne fyre Boors torned his hors / and fawe a knyghte come faſt on / whome he ſmote thurgh the body with a ſpere that he fylle dede doune to the erthe / thenne cam Callyburne one of the ſtrengest of pauye and ſmote down ma-10 ny of Arthurs knyghtes / And whan fyr Bors ſawe hym do ſoo moche harme he adreſſyd toward hym & ſmote hym thur-gh the breſt that he fylle doune dede to the erthe / Thenne fyr Feldenak thought to reuenge the dethe of gaynus vpon fyr Ga-wayn / but fyre gawayn was ware therof and ſmote hym on 15 the hede / whiche ſtroke ſtynted not tyl it came to his breſte / And thenne he retorned and came to his felawes in the buſ-ſhement / And there was a recountre / for the buſſhement brake on the Romayns / and ſlewe and hewe doune the Romayns and forced the Romayns to flee and retourne / whome the no-20 ble knyghtes chaced vnto theyr tentes / Thenne the Romayns gadred more peple / and alſo foote men cam on / and ther was a newe bataille and ſoo moche peple that fyr Bors and fyr Berel were taken / but whan fyr gawayn ſawe that / he tooke with hym fyr Idrus the good knyght and ſayd he wold ne-25 uer ſee kyng Arthur but yf he reſcued them / and pulled out galatyn his good ſwerd / and ſolowed them that ledde tho ij knyghtes awaye / and he ſmote hym that lad fyr Bors / and took fyr Bors fro hym and delyuerd hym to his felawes / And fyr Idrus in lyke wyſe reſcowed fyr Berel / thenne 30 beganne the bataill to be grete that oure knyghtes were in grete Ieopardy / wherfore fyr Gawayn ſente to kyng Arthur for ſocour and that he hye hym for I am fore wounded / and that oure pryſoners may paye good oute of nombre / And the meſ-ſager came to the kyng and told hym his meſſage / And anon 35 the kyng dyd doo aſſemble his armye / but anone or he departed the pryſoners were comen / and fyr gawayn and his felawes gate the felde and put the Romayns to flyght / and after retorned and came with their ſelaſhip in ſuche wyſe / that no man of worship was lofte of them / fauf that fyr Gawayn was fore hurte / Thenne the kynge dyd do ranfacke his wound-des and comforted hym / And thus was the begynnynge of the fyrft iourney of the brytons and Romayns / and ther were flayne of the Romayns moo than ten thoufand / and grete 5 ioie and myrthe was made that nyghte in the hooft of kynge Arthur / And on the morne he fente alle the pryfoners in to pa-rys vnder the garde of fyre launcelot with many knyghtes & of fyr Cador

¶ Capitulum vii

Now torne we to the Emperour of Rome whiche aspy- 10 ed that thefe pryfoners shold be fente to Parys / and anone he fente to leye in a buffhement certayne knyghtes and prynces with fyxty thoufand men for to refcove his knyghtes and lordes that were pryfoners / And fo on the morne as Launcelot and fyre Cador chyuetayns and gouvernours of all 15 them that conueyed the pryfoners as they sholde paffe thurgh a wode fyr Launcelot fente certayne knyghtes tefpye yf ony were in the woodes to lette them / And whanne the faid knyghtes cam in to the wood / anone they aspyed and fawe the grete en-buffhement / and returned and told fyr Launcelot that ther lay 20 in a wayte for them thre fcore thoufand Romayns / And thenne fyr Launcelot with fuche knyghtes as he hadde and men of warre to the nombre of x M put them in araye and met wyth them and foughte with them manly / and flewe and dreten-chid many of the Romayns / and flewe many knyghtes & ad- 25 myrals of the party of the Romayns and farafyns / ther was flayne the kynge of lylve and thre grete lordes Aladuke / he-rawde and heryngdale / but fyr Launcelot fought foo nobly that no man myght endure a froke of his hande / but where he came he shewed his prowefse and myght / for he flewe doune ryght 30 on euery fyde / And the Romayns and farafyns fledde from hym as the fheep fro the wulf or fro the lyon / and putt them alle that abode alyue to flyght / And fo longe they fouzte that tydynges came to kynge Arthur / And anone he graythed hym and came to the bataille / and fawe his knyghtes how they had 35 vaynquysshed the bataylle / he enbraced them knyght by kny3te in his armes and faid ye be worthy to welde all your honour and worship / there was neuer kynge sauf my self that had so noble knyghtes / Syre sayd Cador there was none of vs fail-5 led other / but of the prowesse and manhode of fyre Launcelot were more than wonder to telle / and also of his cosyns whiche dyd that daye many noble feates of werre / And also fyre Cador tolde who of his knyghtes were slayne / as fyr beriel & other fyr Morys and fyr Maurel two good knyghtes / then-10 ne the kynge wepte and dryed his eyen with a keuerchyef / & sayd your courage had nere hand destroyed yow / For though ye had retorned ageyne / ye had lost no worship / For I calle hit foly / knyghtes to abyde whan they be ouermatched / Nay sayd Launcelot and the other / For ones shamed maye neuer 15 be recouerd

¶ Capitulum viiij

Now leue we kynge Arthur and his noble knyghtes whiche had wonne the felde / and had brought theyre prysoners to parys / and speke we of a senatour whiche escaped fro the bataille / and came to Lucius themperour & sayd to 20 hym / Syre emperour I aduyse the for to withdrawe the / what doost thou here / thou shalt wyne noo thyng in these marches but grete strokes oute of al mesure / For this day one of Ar-thurs knyghtes was worth in the batayll an honderd of ours Fy on the sayd Lucius thou spekest cowardly / for thy wor-25 des greue me more than alle the losse that I had this day / and anone he fende forth a kynge whiche hyghte fyr leomye with a grete armye / and badde hym hye hym fast to fore / and he wold folowe hastely after / kynge Arthur was warned pryuely / & sente his puple to Seffoyne / and toke vp the townes & castles 30 fro the Romayns / Thenne the kyng commaunded fyr Cador to take the rereward / & to take with hym certayne knyghtes of the round table / and fyre Launcelot / fyre Bors / fyr kay / fyre Marrok with fyre Marhaus shalle awayte on our persone / Thus the kynge Arthur disperplyd his hooft in dyuerse par-35 ties / to thende that his enemyes shold not escape / whanne the Emperour was entryd in to the vale of Seffoyne / he myghte fee where kyng Arthur was enbatailled and his baner dyfplayed / and he was byfette round aboute with his enemyes / that nedes he must fyghte or yelde hym / for he myght not flee / But sayd openly vnto the Romayns / fyrs I admonefte you 5 that this day ye fyghte and acquyte yow as men / and remembre how Rome domyneth and is chyef and hede ouer alle the erthe and vnyuersal world / and suffre not these bretons thys day to abyde ageynste vs / & ther with he dyd commaunde hys trōpettes to blowe the bloody fownes in fuche wyfe that the gro- 10 und trembled and dyndled / Thenne the batails approuched and shoue and showted on bothe fydes and grete strokes were fmyten on bothe fydes / many men ouerthrowen / hurte / & slayn and grete valyaunces / prowesses and appertyces of werre were that day shewed / whiche were ouer long to recounte the no- 15 ble feates of euery man / For they shold conteyne an hole volume / But in especyal kyng Arthur rode in the bataille exhortynge his knyghtes to doo wel / and hym self dyd as nobly with his handes as was possyble a man to doo / he drewe oute Excalibur his swerd / and awayted euer where as the ro- 20 mayns were thickest and mooft greued his peple / and anone he adressyd hym on that parte and hewe and slewe doune ryzt and rescued his peple / and he slewe a grete gyaunt named galapas / whiche was a man of an huge quantyte and heyghte he shorted hym and smote of bothe his legges by the knees / fa- 25 yenge Now arte thou better of a fyfe to dele with / than thou were / and after smote of his hede / there fyre gawayn foughte nobly and slewe thre admyrales in that bataill / And so dyd alle the knyghtes of the round table / Thus the bataill bitwe-ne kyng Arthur and Lucius themperour endured longe / Lu- 30 cius had on his fyde many farafyns / whiche were slayn / and thus the bataille was grete / and ofsfydes that one party was at a fordele and anone at an afterdele / whiche endured so longe tyl at the last kyng Arthur aspyed / where Lucius themperour fought / and dyd wonder with his owne handes / And anon he rode to hym / And eyther smote other fyersly / and atte last Lucyus smote Arthur thwart the vyfage / and gaf hym a large wound / And whanne kyng Arthur felte hym self hurte / anon he fmote hym ageyne with Excalibur that it clefted his hede fro the fomette of his hede / and flynted not tyl it cam to his breste And thenne themperour fylle doune dede / and there ended his lyf / And whan it was knowen that themperour was slayne 5 anone alle the Romyans with all their hooft put them to flyght / and kynge Arthur with alle his knyghtes folowed the chaas / and flewe doune ryght alle them that they myghte atteyne / And thus was the vycctory gyuen to kynge Arthur & the tryumphe / and there were slayne on the party of Lucius 10 moo than an hondred thoufand / And after kyng Arthur dyd doo ranfacke the dede bodyes / and dyd doo burye them that were slayne of his retenue euery man accordyng to thestate & degree that he was of / And them that were hurte he lete the fur-gyens doo ferche their hurtes and woundes / and commaun-15 ded to spare no falues ne medecynes tyl they were hole /

Thenne the kyng rode straye to the place where themperour lucius lay dede / and with hym he fond slayne the Sowdan of Surrey / the kynge of Egypte and of Ethyope / whiche were two noble kynges with xvij other kynges of dyuerse regy-20 ons / and also fyxty fenatours of Rome al noble men / whome the kynge dyd do bawme and gomme with many good gom-mes aromatyke / and after dyd do cere them in fyxty fold of ce-red clothe of Sendale / and leyde them in chestys of leed / by cause they shold not chauffe ne fauoure / and vpon alle these bo-25 dyes their sheldes with their armes and baners were sette / to thende they shold be knowen of what country they were / and after he fonde thre Senatours whiche were on lyue to whome he sayd / for to faue your lyues I wylle that ye take these dede bodyes / and carye them with yow vnto grete Rome / and pre-30 sente them to the potestate on my behalue shewyng hym my letters / and telle them that I in my persone shal hastely be atte Rome / And I suppose the Romyans shalle beware how they shal demaunde ony trybute of me / And I commaunde yow to faye whan ye shal come to Rome to the potestate and all the 35 councelle and Senate / that I fende to them these dede bodyes for the trybute that they haue demaunded / And yf they be not content with these / I shal paye more at my comyng / for other trybute owe I none / ne none other wylle I paye / And me thynketh this fuffyfeth for Bretayne / Irlond and al Almayne with germanye / And ferthermore I charge yow to faye to them / that I commaunde them vpon payne of theyre hedes neuer to demaunde trybute ne taxe of me ne of my londes Thenne with this charge and commaundement the thre Sena- 5 tours afore fayd departed with alle the fayd dede bodyes le-ynge the body of Lucius in a carre couerd with tharmes of the Empyre al alone / And after alwey two bodyes of kynges in a charyot / and thenne the bodyes of Senatours after them and foo wente toward Rome / and shewed theyr legacyon & 10 meffage to the poteflate and Senate / recountyng the bataylle done in Fraunce / and how the feld was loft and moche people & Innumerable flayne / wherfore they aduyfed them in no wyfe to meue no more warre ageynfte that noble conqueroure Arthur / For his myght and prowesse is moft to be doubted 15 feen the noble kynges and grete multytude of knyghtes of the round table / to whome none erthely prynce may compare /

¶ Capitulo nono

Now torne we vnto kyng Arthur and his noble kny-ghtes whiche after the grete bataylle acheued ageynfte the Romayns / entryd in to Lorayne braban and Flaundres 20 and fythen retorned in to hault Almayn / and fo ouer the mōtayns in to lombardye / and after in to Tufkane / wherin was a Cyte / whiche in no wyfe wold yelde them felf ne obeye / wherfore kyng Arthur bifeged it / and lay longe aboute hit / and gaf many affaultes to the Cyte / And they within deffended 25 them valyauntly / Thenne on a tyme the kyng called fyr florence a knyght / and fayd to hym they lacked vytaylle / and not ferre from hens ben grete forestes and woodes / wherin ben many of myn enemyes with moche beftyayl / I wyl that thou make the redy and goo thyder in foreyeng / and take with the 30 fyr Gawayn my newew / Syre wyffhard / fyre Clegys / Syre Cleremond and the Captayn of Cardes with other / & brynge with yow alle the beeftes that ye there can gete / And anone thefe knyghtes made them redy / and rode ouer holtys & hyllys thurgh forestes and woodes / tyl they cam in to a fayr medow 35 ful of fayre floures and graffe / And there they refted them & theyr horses alle that nyghte / And in the fpryngyng of the day in the next morne / fyre Gawayn took his hors and stale away from his felaufhip to feke some aduentures / And anon 5 he was ware of a man armed walkyng his hors eafly by a wodes fyde / and his fheld laced to his sholdre fyttyng on a ftronge courfer withoute ony man fauyng to a page beryng a myghty fpere . The knyght bare in his fheld thre gryffons of gold in fable charbuncle the chyef of fyluer / whan fyre Ga-10 wayn afpyed this gay knyght / he fewtryd his fpere and rode ftrayt to hym / and demaūded of hym from whens that he was that other anfuerd and fayd he was of Tufcane / and demaunded of fyre gawayn / what profryft thou proude knyghte thurgh their fheldes in to theyr sholders / wherfore anone they pulled oute their fwerdes / and fmote grete frokes that the fy-re fprange oute of their helmes / Thenne fyre gawayne was al 25 abafhed and with galatyn his good fwerd he fmote thurgh fhelde and thycke hauberke made of thyck maylles and al to rufhed and brake the precious ftones / and made hym a large wounde / that men myghte fee bothe lyuer and long / Thenne gro-ned that knyght / and adreffyd hym to fyr Gawayn / & with whiche greued gawayn fore / and he bledde fore / ¶ Thenne the knyghte fayd to fyre Gawayn / bynde thy wounde or thy blee-

 For alle the Barbours of Bretayne fhall not conne ftaunche greueth me but lytyl / thy grete wordes shalle not feare me ne lasse my courage / but thow shalt suffre tene and forow or we

 That may I doo sayd the knyght yf I wylle / And so wyll 5 hode / and it shalle be grete meryte for thy soule I graunte faid Gawayne so god helpe me taccomplysshe alle thy desyre / But fyrst telle me what thou foughtest here thus allone / and 10 of what londe and legeaunce thou arte of / Syre he sayd my name is Pryamus / and a grete prynce is my fader / and he hath ben rebelle vnto Rome and ouer ryden many of theyr londes / My fader is lyneally descended of Alyfaunder and of hector by ryght lygne / And duke Iosue and Machabeus were of 15 oure lygnage / I am ryght enherytour of Alyfaunder and auffryke and alle the oute yles / yet wyl I byleue on thy lord that thow byleuest on / And for thy labour I shalle yeue the trefour ynough / I was soo elate and hauteyn in my hert that I thought no man my pere ne to me semblable / I was sente 20 in to this werre with feuen score knyghtes / and now I haue encountred with the whiche hast gyuen to me of fyghtyng my fyllle / wherfore fyr knyghte I pray the to telle me what thow arte / I am no knyght sayd gawayn / I haue ben brought vp in the garderober with the noble kyng Arthur many yeres for 25 to take hede to his armour and his other araye / and to poyn-te his paltockes that longen to hym self / At yole last he made me yoman and gaf to me hors and harneys and an honderd pound in money / And yf fortune be my frend / I doubt not / but to be wel auanced and holpen by my lyege lord / A fa- 30 yd Pryamus / yf his knauys be so kene and fyers / his knytes ben passyng good / Now for the kynges loue of heuen whether thou be a knaue or a knyghte telle thou me thy name / By god sayd fyre Gawayn / Now wyl I saye the sothe / my name is fyre gawayn and knowen I am in his courte and in 35 his chambre / and one of the knyghtes of the round table / he dubbed me a duke with owne hand / Therefore grutche not yf this grace is to me fortunyd / hit is the goodnesse of god that lente to me my strengthe / Now am I better pleasyd fayd Pryamus than thou haddest gyuen to me al the prouynce and parys the ryche / I had leuer to haue ben torn with wylde hor-fes / than ony varlet had wonne such loos / or ony page or pry-5 ker shold haue had prys on me / But now fyre knyghte I warne the / that here by is a duke of Lorayne with his armye and the noblest men of Dolphyne and lordes of lombardye / with the garneson of godard / and sarasyns of Southland y-nombred lx M of good men of armes / wherfor but yf we 10 hye vs hens / it wyll harme vs bothe / for we ben fore hurte / neuer lyke to recouer / but take hede to my page that he no horne blowe / For yf he doo ther ben hounge fast by an C knytes awaytyng on my persone / and yf they take the / ther shall no raunson of gold ne syluer acqyte the / Thenne fyre gawa-15 yne rode ouer a water for to saue hym / And the knyghte folo-wed hym / and soo rode forthe tyl they came to his felawes / whiche were in the medowe / where they had ben al the nyghte Anone as fyre wychard was ware of fyre gawayn and sawe that he was hurte / he ranne to hym foroufully wepyng / and 20 demaunded of hym who had soo hurte hym / and gawayn told how he had foughten with that man / and eche of them hadde hurte other / and how he had salues to hele them / but I can telle yow other tydynges / that soone we shal haue adoo with many enemyes / Thenne fyre pryamus and fyre gawayn alygh-25 ted / and lete their horses grafe in the medowe and vnarmed them / And thenne the blood ranne freschly fro theyre woundes / And pryamus toke fro his page a vyolle ful of the four waters that came oute of paradys / and with certayne baume enoynted their woundes / and wesshe them with that water / & 30 within an houre after / they were both as hole as euer they were / And thenne with a trompet were they alle assembled to co-unceytle / And there pryamus told vnto them / what lordes and knyghtes had sworne to rescowe hym / and that without faille they shold be assailed with many thousandes / wherfor he coun-35 ceilled them to withdrawe them / Thenne fyre gawayn sayd it were grete shame to them to auoyde withoute ony strokes / Wherfore I aduyse to take our armes and to make vs redy to mete with these sarasyns and mysbyleuyng men / and wyth the helpe of god we shal ouerthrowe them and haue a sayre day on them / And fyre Florens shall abyde styll in thys felde to kepe the stale as a noble knyghte / and we shal not forsake yonder felawes / Now sayd Pyramus seaffe your wordes / for I warne yow ye shal fynde in yonder woodes many peryllous knyghtes / they wylle put forthe beestes to calle yow on / they be out of nombre / and ye are not past vij C whiche ben ouer fewe to fyght with soo many / Neuertheles sayd fyr gawayn we shal ones encountre them / and see what they can do and the beste shalle haue the vyctory

THenne fyre Florence callyd to hym fyre florydas with an honderd knyghtes and droofe forth the herde of beestes / Thenne folowed hym vij honderd men of armes / and fyr Feraunt of spayne on a fayr stede came spryngynge oute of the woodes / and came to fyre Florence and axyd hym why he fledde / Thenne fyre Florence took his spere / and rode ageynste hym / and smote hym in the forhede and brake his necke bone / Thenne all thother were meued / and thought to auenge the dethe of fyr Feraunt / and smote in cmonge them / and there was grete fyghte and many slayne and leyd doune to grounde / and fyr Florence with his C knyghtes alwey kepte the stale and foughte manly /

 30 and to me for to bycome Crysten . had not he haue be we shold neuer haue rotorned / wherfor I pray yow that he may be baptyfed / for ther lyueth not a nobler man ne better knyght of his handes / thenne the kyng lete hym anon be crystned / and dyd doo calle hym his fyrste name Pryamus / and made hym a du-35 ke and knyghte of the table round ¶ And thenne anon the kyng lete do crye assaulte to the cyte / and there was reynge of laddres brekyng of wallys and the dyche fylled / that men with lytel payne myȝt entre in to the cyte / thēne cam out a ducheſſe / & Claryſyn the counteſſe with many ladyes & damoyſels / and knelyng bifore kyng Arthur requyred hym for the loue of god to receyue the cyte / & not to take it by affaulte for thenne ſhold many gyltles be ſlayne / thēne the kyng 5 aualyd his vyſer with a meke & noble cōtenaūce / & ſaid madame ther ſhal none of my ſubgettys myſdoo you ne your ma-ydens / ne to none that to yow longen / but the duke ſhal abyde my Iugement / thenne anone the kyng commaunded to leue the affault / & anon the dukes oldeſt ſone brought out the keyes / & 10 knelyng delyuerd them to the kyng / & byſouȝt hym of grace / & the kyng ſeaſed the toun by aſſent of his lordes / & toke the duc & ſent hym to douer there for to abyde pryſoner terme of his lyf & aſſigned certayn rentes for the dower of the ducheſſe & for her children / Thenne he made lordes to rule tho londes & lawes 15 as a lord ought to do in his owne countrey / & after he took his journey toward Rome / & ſent ſir Florys & ſyr florydas to fore with v C men of armes / & they cam to the cyte of vrbyne & leid there a buſſhement there as them ſemed moſt beſt for them / & rode to fore the toune / where anon yſſued oute moche peple & ſkar- 20 muſhed with the fore rydars / thēne brake out the buſſhement & wan the brydge & after the toun / & ſet vpon the wallis the kynges baner / thēne cam the kyng vpon an hille & ſawe the Cyte & his baner on the wallys / by whiche he knewe that the Cyte was wonne / & anone he ſente & commaunded that none of his 25 lyge men ſhold defoule ne lygge by no lady / wyf / ne maide / & whan he cam in to the cyte / he paſſid to the caſtel / and comforted them that were in forou / & ordeyned ther a captayn a knyȝt of his own cōtrey / & whan they of Melane herd that thylk cyte was wōne / they ſent to kyng Arthur grete ſōmes of money / & 30 beſouȝt hym as their lord to haue pyte of them / promyſyng to be his ſubgettys for euer / & yelde to hym homage & ſealte for the lādes of pleſaūce & paue / peterſaynt & the port of tremble / & to gyue hym yerly a melyon of gold al his lyf tyme / thēne he rydeth in to Tuſkane & wynneth tounes & caſtels & waſted al 35 in his way that to hym wil not obeye / & ſo to ſpolute & viterbe & fro thens he rode in to the vale of vycecoūte among the vynes And fro thens he ſente to the ſenatours to wete / whether they wold knowe hym for theyr lord / But soone after on a faterday came vnto kyng Arthur alle the senatours that were left on lyue / and the noblest Cardynals that thenne dwellyd in Rome / And prayd hym of pees / and profered hym ful large 5 And byfought hym as gouernour to gyue lycence for vj we-kes for to assemble alle the Romayns / And thenne to crowne hym Emperour with creme as it bylongeth to so hyhe astate / I assente sayd the kyng lyke as ye haue deuysed / and at cry-stemas there to be crowned / and to holde my round table with 10 my knyghtes as me lyketh / And thenne the senatours maade redy for his Intronyfacyon / And at the day appoynted as the Romaunce telleth he came in to Rome / and was crowned em-perour by the popes hand with all the ryalte that coude be made / And fudgernd there a tyme / and establysshed all his lon-15 des from Rome in to Fraunce / and gaf londes and royammes vnto his seruantes and knyghtes to eueryche after his desert in fuche wyfe that none complayned ryche ne poure / & he gafe to fyre Pryamus the duchyc of Lorayne / and he thanked hym and sayd he wold serue hym the dayes of his lyf / and after 20 made dukes and erles / and made euery man ryche / Thenne after this alle his knyghtes and lordes assembled them afore hym / and sayd bleffyd be god your warre is fynnysshed and your conqueste acheued / in foo moche that we knowe none soo grete ne myghty that dar make warre ageynst yow / wherfore 25 we byfeche you to retorne homeward / and gyue vs lycence to goo home to our wyues / fro whome we haue ben longe / and to reste vs / for your Iourney is fynnysshed with honour & wo-ship / Thenne sayd the kyng / ye faye trouthe / and for to temp-te god it is no wyfedome / And therfore make you redy and 30 retorne we in to Englund / Thenne there was trussyng of harneis and bagage and grete caryage / And after lycence gyuen he retorned and commaunded that noo man in payne of dethe shold not robbe ne take vytaylle / ne other thyng by the way but that he shold paye therfore / And thus he came ouer the see 35 and loded at sandwyche / ageynste whome Quene Gweneuer his wyf came and mette hym / and he was nobly receyued of alle his comyns in euery cyte and burgh / and grete yestes presented to hym at his home comyng to welcome hym with /

¶ Thus endeth the fyftbe booke of the conqueste that kynge Arthur hadde ageynste Lucius the Emperoure of Rome / and here foloweth the fyrth booke whiche is of fyr Launcelot du lake

¶ Capitulum primum

Soone after that kyng Arthur was come / fro rome in to Englund / thenne alle the knyghtes of the table round reforted vnto the kyng / & made many Iustes & turnementes / & some there were that were but knyȝtes whiche encreaced so in ar- 5 mes and worship that they passed alle their felawes in pro-wesse and noble dedes / and that was wel preued on many But in especyal it was preued on fyre launcelot du lake / for in al turnementys and Iustes and dedes of armes both for lyf and deth he passed al other knyȝtes / and at no tyme he was 10 neuer ouercome / but yf it were by trefon or enchauntement / so fyr Launcelot encreaced soo merueyllously in worship / and in honour / therfor is he the fyrst knyȝt that the frensche book ma-keth mencyon of after kynge Arthur came fro rome / wherfore quene gweneuer had hym in grete fauour aboue al other kny- 15 ghtes . and in certayne he loued the quene ageyne aboue al other ladyes damoyfels of his lyf / And for her he dyd many dedes of armes and faued her from the fyre thorou his noble chyualry / Thus fyre launcelot rested hym longe with play & game / And thenne he thought hym self to preue hym self in 20 straunge auentures / thenne he badde his neuwe fyre Lyonel for to make hym redy / for we two wylle seke aduentures / So they mounted on their horses armed at al ryghtes / and rode in to a depe forest & soo in to a depe playne / ¶ And thenne the weder was hote about noone / and fyre launcelot had grete lust 25 to slepe / Thenne fyr lyonel aspyed a grete Appyl tree that stode by an hedge / & said broder yonder is a fayre shadowe / there maye we reste vs on oure horses / hit is wel faide faire broder said fyr launcelot / for this viij yere I was not so slepy as I am now / and so they there alyghted & tayed their horses vnto son- 30 dry trees / and so fyr launcelot layd hym doune vnder an appyl tree / and his helme he layd vnder his hede / And Syre lyonel waked whyle he slepte / Soo fyre launcelot was a flepe paffynge fast / And in the mene whyle there came thre knyghtes rydyng as faste fleyng as euer they myghte ryde And there folowed hem thre but one knyghte / And whanne 5 fyr lyonel sawe hym / hym thought he sawe neuer foo grete a knyghte nor foo wel farynge a man neyther foo wel appa-rilled vnto al ryghtes / Soo within a whyle this strong knyght had ouertaken one of these knyghtes / and there he smote hym to the cold erth that he lay styll / And than he rode vnto the fe-10 cond knyght / and smote hym foo that man and hors felle do-une / And thenne streyghte to the thyrdde knyghte he rode and smote hym behynde his hors ars a spere length / And thenne he alyghte doune arayned his hors on the brydel & bonde alle the thre knyghtes fast with the raynes of their owne bry-15 dels / Whan fyr lyonel sawe hym doo thus / he thought to affay hym / & made hym redy & styll / and pryuely he took his hors & thoughte not for to awake fyr launcelot / And whan he was mounted vpon his hors / he ouertoke this strong knyght / & bad hym torne / and the other smote fyr lyonel so hard that hors & 20 man he bare to the erthe / & so he alyght down & bound hym fast and threwe hym ouerthwart his owne hors / and foo he serued hem al soure / & rode with hem away to his owne castel / And whan he came there he garte vnarme them & bete hem with thornys al naked / & after put hem in a depe pryfon where were ma-25 ny mo knyghtes that made grete doloure

¶ Capitulum secundum /

WHan fyre Ector de marys wyf that fyre laūcelot was past out of the court to seke aduentures he was wroth with hym self / & made hym redy to seke fyre laūcelot / & as he had ryden long in a grete forest he mette with a man was ly-30 ke a foster / Fayre felaw said fyre Ector knowest thou in thys countrey any aduentures that ben here nyghe hand / Syr sayd the foster / this countrey knowe I wel . and here by within thys myle / is a stronge manoir and wel dyked / & by that manoir on the lyfte hand there is a faire fourde for horses to drynke 35 of / and ouer that fourde there groweth a fayr tree / and theron hangen many fayre sheldes that welded somtyme good knyghtes / & atte hoole of the tree hangeth a bacyn of coper & latoen / and ftryke vpon that bacyn with the but of thy fperre thryes / And foone after thou fhalt here newe tydynges / And ellys haft thou the fayreft grace that many a yere had euer knyght that paffed thorou this foreft / gramercy fayd fyre Ector / and departed / and came to the tree and fawe many fayre fheldes 5 And amonge them he fawe his broders fheld fyr Lyonel and many moo that he knewe that were his felawes of the round table / the whiche greued his herte / and promysed to reuenge his broder / Thenne anone fyr Ector bete on the bacyn as he were wood / and thenne he gaf his hors drynke at the fource / & 10 ther came a knyghte behynd hym / and bad hym come oute of the water and make hym redy / and fyre Ector anone torned hym fhortly and in fewter caft his fperre and fmote the other knyghte a grete buffet that his hors torned twyes aboute / This was wel done faid the ftrong knygt / & knygtly thou haft 15 ftryken me / And therwith he ruffhed his hors on fyre Ector / and cleyzte hym vnder his ryght arme & bare hym clene out of the fadel / and rode with hym away in to his owne halle / & threwe hym doune in myddes of the floore / the name of thys knyghte was fyre Turquyne / than he faid vnto fyre Ector for 20 thou haft done this day more vnto me than ony knyghte dyd thefe xij yeres / Now wille I graunte the thy lyf fo thou wilt be fworn to be my pryfoner all thy lyf dayes / Nay faid fir Ector / that wylle I neuer promyfe the / but that I will do myne auantage / That me repenteth fayd fyre Turquyne / and then- 25 ne he garte to vnarme hym and bete hym with thornys all naked / and fythen putte hym doune in a depe dungeon where he knewe many of his felawes / But whan fyre Ector fawe fyr lyonel thenne made he grete forowe / Allas broder fayd fir Ector / where is my broder fyre Launcelot / Fayre broder I lefte 30 hym on flepe whan that I from hym yode vnder an appel tree and what is become of hym I can not telle yow / Allas faid the knyghtes / but fyre launcelot helpe vs we may neuer be delyuerd / for we knowe now noo knyght that is able to matche oure mayfter Turquyn

¶ Capitulum tercium

Now leue we theſe knyghtes pryſoners and ſpeke we of fyre Launcclott du lake that lyeth vnder the Appyl Tree ſlepynge / euen aboute the noone there come by hym foure quenes of grete eſtate / And for the hete ſhold 5 not nyhe hem there rode foure knyghtes aboute hem / and bare a clothe of grene fylke on foure ſperes betwixe them and the ſonne / And the quenes rode on foure whyte mules ¶ Thus as they rode they herde by them a grete hors grymly-neye / thenne were they ware of a ſlepynge knyghte that laye 10 alle armed vnder an appyl tree / anone as theſe quenes loked on his face / they knewe it was fyre launcelot / Thenne they byganne for to ſtryue for that knyghte / euerychone ſayd they wold haue hym to her loue / ¶ We ſhalle not ſtryue ſayd Morgan le fay that was kynge Arthurs ſyſter / I ſhalle putte an 15 enchauntement vpon hym / that he ſhalle not awake in ſyxe owres / And thenne I wyll lede hym away vnto my caſtel / And whanne he is ſurely within my hold / I ſhalle take the enchauntement from hym / And thenne lete hym cheſe whyche of vs he wyll haue vnto peramour / ¶ Soo thys enchaunte-20 ment was caſte vpon fyre Launcelot / And thenne they leyd hym vpon his ſhelde / and bare hym ſoo an horſback betwixt two knyghtes / and brought hym vnto the caſtel charyot / and there they leyd hym in a chambyr cold / and att nyghte they ſente vnto hym a fayre damoyſel with his ſouper redy dyght 25 By that the enchauntement was paſt / And whan ſhe came ſhe ſalewed hym / and asked hym what chere / I can not ſaye fayre damoyſel ſaid fyre Launcelot / for I wote not how I cam in to this caſtel / but it be by an enchauntement / Syre ſayd ſhe ye muſt make good chere / And yf ye be fuche a knyghte as it is 30 ſayd ye ben / I ſhalle telle you more to morne by pryme of the daye / Gramercy fayre damoyſel ſayd fyre Launcelot of youre good wyl I requyre yow / And ſoo ſhe departed / And there he laye alle that nyght withoute comforte of ony body

¶ And on the morne erly came theſe foure quenes paſſyng-35 ly wel byſene / Alle they byddyng hym good morne / and he them ageyne / ¶ Syre knyghte the foure quenes ſayd thou muſt vnderſtande thou arte our pryſoner / and we here knowe the wel that thou arte fyre Launcelot du lake / kynge Bans fone / And by cause we vnderstande your worthynes that thou arte the noblest knyght lyuyng / And as we knowe wel ther can no lady haue thy loue but one / and that is quene Gweneuer / and now thou shalt lose her for euer and she the / and therfore the behoueth now to chese one of vs four / I am the quene 5 Morgan le fay quene of the land of Gorre / and here is the quene of Northgalys and the quene of Eestland / and the que-ne of the oute yles / ¶ Now chese one of vs whiche thou wylt haue to thy peramour / for thou mayst not chese or els in thys pryson to dye / This is an hard caaas fayd fyre Launcelot that 10 eyther I muste dye or els chese one of yow / yet had I leuer to dye in this pryson with worship than to haue one of you to my peramour maugre my hede / And therefore ye be anfuerd I wyll none of yow for ye be fals enchauntresses / And as for my lady dame Gweneuer / were I at my lyberte as I was / 15 I wold preue hit on you or on yours / that she is the truest lady vnto her lord lyuyng / Wel fayd the quenes / is this your anfuere that ye wyll reffuse vs / ye on my lyf fayd fyr laūcelot / reffused ye ben of me / Soo they departed and lefte hym there alone that made grete sorowe 20

¶ Capitulum quartum

RYght so at the noone came the damoyfel vnto hym with his dyner / and asked hym what chere / truly fayre damoyfel fayd fyre Launcelot in my lyf dayes neuer so ylle / fir she fayd that me repentest / but and ye wyll be reulyd by me / I shal help you out of this distresse / and ye shal haue no sha- 25 me nor vylony foo that ye hold me a promyse / fayre damoyfel I wil graunte yow / and fore I am of these quenes forcereffes aserd / for they haue destroyed many a good knyght / fyre fayd she that is sothe and for the renome and bounte that they here of you / they wold haue your loue / and fir they fayne / your na- 30 me is fyre Launcelot du laake the floure of knyghtes / & they be passyng wrothe with yow that ye haue reffused hem / But fyre and ye wold promyse me to helpe my fader on tewfdaye next comynge / that hath made a turnement betwixe hym and the kynge of Northgalys / for the last tewesdaye past my fader lost the felde thorough thre knyghtes of Arthurs courte / And ye wyl be there on tewesday next comyng / and helpe my fader to morne or pryme by the grace of god I shalle delyuer yow 5 clene / Fayre mayden sayd fyr launcelot telle me what is your faders name / and thenne shal I gyue you an anfuere / Syre knyghte she sayd / my fader is kyng Bagdemagus that was foule rebuked at the last turnement / I knowe your fader wel said fyre launcelot for a noble kyng and a good knyghte / 10 And by the feythe of my body ye shalle haue my body redy to doo your fader and you seruyse at that day / Syre she sayd gra-mery / and to morne awayte ye be redy by tymes and I shal be she that shal delyuer you / and take you your armoure and your hors shelde and spere / And here by within this x myle is 15 an Abbey of whyte monkes / there I praye you that ye me a-byde / and thyder shal I brynge my fader vnto you / alle thys shal be done faide fyre Launcelot as I am true knyghte / and foo she departed and came on the morne erly / and found hym redy / thenne she brought hym oute of twelue lockes & brougt 20 hym vnto his armour / & whan he was clene armed / she brought hym vntyl his owne hors / and lyghtely he fadeled hym and toke a grete spere in his hand / and foo rode forth / and fa-yd fayre damoyfel I shal not faile you by the grace of god / And foo he rode in to a grete forest all that day / and neuer co-25 ude fynde no hyghe waye / and foo the nyght felle on hym / and thenne was he ware in a flade of a paelione of reed fendel / By my feythe sayd fyre launcelot in that paelione wil I ledge alle this nyghte / and foo there he alyghte doune and tayed his hors to the paelione / and there he vnarmed hym / and 30 there he fond a bedde / and layd hym theryn / and felle on slepe fadly

¶ Capitulum v

THenne within an houre there came the knyghte to who-me the paelione ought / And he wende that his lemā had layne in that bedde / and foo he laid hym doune befyde fyr 35 Launcelot / and toke hym in his armes and beganne to kyffe hym / And whanne fyre launcelot felte a rough berd kyffynge hym / he starte oute of the bedde lyghtely / and the other knyght after hym / and eyther of hem gate their fwerdes in their handes / and oute at the paelione dore wente the knyghte of the paelione / and fyre launcelot folowed hym / and ther by a ly- 5 tyl flake fyr launcelot wounded hym fore nyghe vnto the deth And thenne he yelded hym vnto fyre launcelot / and so he graūted hym so that he wold telle hym why he came in to the bedde Syre fayd the knyght the paelione is myn owne / and there thys nyght I had affygnd my lady to haue slepte with me 10 And now I am lykely to dye of this wounde / that me repenteth fayd Launcelot of youre hurte / but I was adrad of trefon / for I was late begyled / and therfore come on your way in to your paelione and take your rest / And as I suppose I shalles faunche your blood / and soo they wente bothe in to the 15 paelione / And anone fyre launcelot faunched his blood / There with al came the knyghtes lady / that was a passynge fayre lady / And whanne she aspyed that her lord Belleus was fore wounded she cryed oute on fyre launcelot / and made grete dole oute of mefure / Pees my lady and my loue said 20 Belleus / for this knyght is a goood man and a knyght ad-uenturous / and there he told her all the cause how he was wou-ded / And whan that I yolde me vnto hym / he lefte me goode-ly and hath faunched my blood / Syre fayd the lady I re-quyre the telle me what knyght ye be / and what is youre na- 25 me / Fayr lady he fayd / my name is fyre launcelot du lake / soo me thought euer by your speche fayd the lady / for I haue se-ne yow ofte or this / and I knowe you better than ye wene / ¶ But now and ye wold promyse me of your curtosy for the harmes that ye haue done to me and to my lord Belleus that 30 whanne he cometh vnto Arthurs courte for to cause hym to be made knyghte of the rouūd table / for he is a passyng good man of armes and a myghty lord of landes of many oute yles / ¶ Fayre lady said fyr launcelot lete hym come vnto the cou-rte the next hyhe feest / and loke that ye come with hym / and I 35 shal doo my power / and ye preue you doughty of your handes that ye shalle haue your defyre ¶ So thus within a while as they thus talked the nyghte passed / and the daye shone / and thenne fyre launcelot armed hym / and took his hors / and they taught hym to the Abbaye and thyder he rode within the space of two owrys

ANd foone as fyre launcelott came withyn the Abbeye 5 yarde / the doughter of kynge Bagdemagus herd a grete hors goo on the payment / And she thenne aroos and yede vnto a wyndowe / and there she sawe fyr launcelot / and anone she made men fast to take his hors from hym / & lete lede hym in to a stabyl / and hym self was ledde in to a fayre chamber / 10 and vnarmed hym / and the lady sente hym a longe gowne / & anone she came her self / And thēne she made launcelot passyng good chere / and she sayd he was the knyzt in the world was moost welcome to her / Thenne in al haste she sente for her fader Bagdemagus that was within xij myle of that Abbay and 15 afore euen he came with a fayre sclauship of knyghtes wyth hym / And whanne the kynge was alyghte of his hors he yode streyte vnto fyr launcelots chamber / and there he fond his doughter / and thenne the kyng enbraced fyr Launcelot in his armes / and cyther made other good chere / Anone fyre launcelot made his complaynt vnto the kynge how he was bytrayed 20 And how his broder fyre lyonel was departed from hym / he nyft not where / and how his doughter had delyuerd hym out of pryson / therfor whyle I lyue I shal doo her seruyse and al her kynred / Thenne am I sure of youre helpe sayd the kynge 25 on tewesday next comynge / ye fyr sayd fyr launcelot / I shalle not faylle yow / for foo I haue promysed my lady your doughter / But fyre what knyghtes be they of my lord Arthurs that were with the kynge of Northgalys / and the kyng sayd it was fyre madore de laporte / and fyr Mordred and fyr gahalaytyne that al fur fared my knyghtes / for ageynst hem thre 30 I nor my knyghtes myghte bere no strengthe / Syre sayde fyre launcelot as I here say that the turnement shal be here within this thre myle of this abbay / ye shal sende vnto me thre knyghtes of yours suche as ye trust and loke that the thre knyghtes 35 haue al whyte sheldes & I also & no paynture on the sheldes / & and we four will come out of a lytel wood in myddes of both partyes / and we shalle falle in the frounte of oure enemyes & greue hem that we may / And thus shal I not be knowen what knyght I am / Soo they took their rest that nyght / and thys was on the sonday / and soo the kyng departed / and sente vnto fyre launcelot thre knyghtes with the four whyte sheldes 5 And on the tewefday they lodged hem in a lytyl leued wood befylde there the turnement shold be / And there were scaffoldis and holes that lordes and ladyes myghte beholde and to gyue the pryfe / Thenne came in to the feld the kyng of Northgalys with eyght score helmes / And thenne the thre knyghtes of 10 Arthur stode by them self / ¶ Thenne cam in to the feld kyng Bagdemagus with four score of helmys / And thenne they fewtryd their sperys / and cam to gyders with a grete dasshe / & there were slayn of knyghtes at the first recountre xij of kyng Bagdemagus parte / and fyx of the kyng of Northgalys par- 15 ty / and kyng Bagdemagus party was ferre sette a back /

¶ Capitulum septimum

Wyth that came fyr Launcelot du lake and he threste in with his spere in the thyckest of the prees / and there he smote doune with one spere fyue knyghtes / and of foure of hem he brake their backes / And in that throng he smote doune 20 the kyng of Northgalys / and brake his thye in that falle / Alle thys doying of fyre Launcelot sawe the thre knyghtes of Arthurs / Yonder is a shrewde gest sayd fyre Madore de la port therfore haue here ones at hym / soo they encountred / and fyre Launcelot bare hym doune hors and man / soo that his sholder 25 wente oute of lyth / Now befalleth it to me to Iuste sayd Mordred / for fyr Mador hath afore falle / Syre Launcelot was ware of hym / and gate a grete spere in his hand / and mette hym and fyr Mordred brake a spere vpon hym / and fyre launcelot gaf hym fuche a buffet that the arisson of his sadel brake / & 30 soo he flewe ouer his hors taylle that his helme butte in to the erthe a foote and more that nyhe his neck was broken / & there he lay longe in a swoone / ¶ Thenne came in fyr Gahalantyne with a grete spere / and Launcelot ageynst hym with al theyre strenght that they myzt dryue that both her speres to braft euen 35 to their handes / and thenne they flang out with their swerdes and gaf many a grym stroke / Thenne was fyr launcelot wroth oute of mefure / and theñe he smote fyr galahantyne on the helme that his nose brafte oute on blood and cerys and mouthe 5 bothe / and ther with his hede henge lowe / And therwith his hors ranne away with hym / and he felle doune to the erthe / Anone there with al fyre launcelot gate a greete spere in hys hand / And or euer that grete spere brake / he bare doune to the erthe xvj knyghtes some hors and man / and some the man & 10 not the hors / & there was none but that he hyt surely he bare none armes that day / And thenne he gate another grete spere & smote doune twelue knyghtes / and the moost party of hem neuer throve after / And thēne the knyghtes of the kyng of north-galys wold Iuste nomore / And there the gree was was gyuen to 15 kyng Bagdemagus / So eyther party departed vnto his owne place / and fyr launcelot rode forth with kyng Bagdemagus vnto his castel / and there he had passyng good chere both with the kyng and with his doughter / and they profred hym grete yestes / And on the morne he took his leue / and told the 20 kyng that he wold goo and seke his broder fyre Lyonel that wente from hym whan that he slepte / so he toke his hors / and bетаught hem alle to god / And there he sayd vnto the kynges doughter yf ye haue nede ony tyme of my seruyse I praye you lete me have knoueleche / and I shal not faylle you as I am 25 true knyght / and so fyr launcelot departed / and by aduenture he came in to the same forest / there he was take slepyng / And in the myddes of an hyhe way he mette a damoyfel rydyng on a whyte palfroy / and there eyther salewed other / Fayre damoyfel said fyre launcelot knowe ye in this countray ony aduen-30 tures / fyre knyghte sayd that damoyfel / here are aduentures nere hand / and thou durst preue hem / why shold I not preue aduentures said fyre launcelot for that cause come I hyder / Wel sayd she thou semest wel to be a good knyght / And yf thou dare mete with a good knyght / I shal brynge the where 35 is the best knyght / and the myghtyest that euer thou fond / so thou wylt telle me what is thy name / and what knyght thou arte / damoyfel as for to telle the my name I take no grete force / Truly my name is fyre launcelot du lake / fyre thou byfemyft wel / here ben aduentures by that fallen for the / for here by du-elleth a knyght that wylle not be ouermatched for no man I knowe but ye ouermatche hym / & his name is fyre Turquyne And as I vnderstand he hath in his pryfon of Arthurs courte good knyghtes thre score and foure / that he hath wonne 5 with his owne handes / But whan ye haue done that Iourney ye shal promyse me as ye are a true knyght for to go with me and to helpe me / and other damoyfels that are distressid day-ly with a fals knyghte / All your entente damoyfel and desyre I wylle fulfyllen / soo ye wyl brynge me vnto this knyghte 10 Now fayre knyght come on your waye / and soo she broughte hym vnto the fourde and the tre where henge the bacyn / So fir launcelot lete his hors drynke / and fythen he bete on the bacyn with the butte of his spere so hard with al his myst tyl the bottom felle oute / and longe he dyd soo but he fawe noo thyng 15 Thenne he rode endlong the gates of that manoyre nyghe half an houre / And thenne was he ware of a grete knyzt that dro-fe an hors afore hym / and ouerthwarte the hors there lay an armed knyght bounden / And euer as they came nere and ne-re / fyre launcelot thouzt he shold knowe hym / Thenne fir laun- 20 celot was ware that hit was fyre gaherys Gawayns broder a knyghte of the table round / Now fayre damoyfel sayd fir la-uncelot / I see yonder cometh a knyght fast bounden that is a felawe of myne / and broder he is vnto fyr gawayne / And att the fyrst begynnyng I promyse yow by the leue of god to re- 25 scowe that knyght / But yf his mayster fytt better in the sa-del I shal delyuer alle the pryfoners that he hath oute of daunger / for I am sure he hath two bretheren of myne pryfoners with hym / By that tyme that eyther had sene other / they gryp-ped theyr speres vnto them / Now fayre knyghte sayd fyr la- 30 uncelot / put that wounded knyghte of the hors / and lete hym reste a while / and lete vs two preue oure strengthes / For as it is enformed me thou doest and hast done grete despyte and shame vnto knyghtes of the round table / and therfor now defende the / And thow be of the table round sayd Turquyne I 35 desyre the and alle thy selsauship / that is ouermoeche sayd / fa-yd fyre launcelot

¶ Capitulum viii

ANd thēne they put theyr speres in the restys / & cam to gyders with her horfes as fast as they myght renne / And cyther smote other in myddes of theyre sheldes that bothe theyre horfe backes brafte vnder them / and the knyghtes were 5 bothe astroyed / and as soone as they myghte auoyde theyre horfes / they took theire sheldes afore them / and drewe oute her fwerdes / and came to gyder egerly / and cyther gaf other many stronge strokes / for there myght neyder sheldes nor harneis hold theyr strokes / And soo within a whyle they hadde bothe 10 grymly woundes / and bledde passyngre greuoufly / Thus they ferd two houres or mo trasfng and rasfng cyther other where they myght hytte ony bare place / Thenne at the last they were bretheles bothe / and stode lenyng on theyre fwerdes / Now fe-lawe fayd fyr Turquyne hold thy hand a whyle / and telle 15 me what I shal aske the / Say on thenne Turquyne fayd thou arte the byggest man that euer I mette with al / and the beste brethed / and lyke on knyzt that I hate aboue al other kny-ghtes / so be hit that thou be not he I wyl lyghtly accorde with the / & for thy loue I wil delyuer al the prysoners that I haue 20 that is thre score and foure / soo thou wylt telle me thy name / And thou and I we wyl be felawes to gyders and neuer to fayle the whyle that I lyue / it is wel fayd / fayd fyr launcelot / but fythen hit is soo that I may haue thy frendship what knyght is he that thou soo hatest aboue al other / Feythfully fa-25 yd fyr Turquyne his name is fyre launcelot du lake / for he fle-we my broder fyr Caradus at the dolorous toure that was one of the best knyghtes on lyue / And therefore hym I excepte of al knyghtes / for may I ones mete with hym / the one of vs shal make an ende of other I make myn auowe / And for fir 30 launcelots sake I haue slayne an C good knyghtes / and as many I haue maymed al vtterly that they myght neuer after helpe them self / and many haue dyed in pryson / and yet haue I thre score and foure / and al shal be delyuerd so thou wilt telle me thy name / so be it that thou be not fyre launcelot / 35 ¶ Now see I wel fayd fyre launcelot that fuche a man I myghte be I myght haue peas / and fuche a man I myghte be / that ther shold be warre mortal betwyxte vs / and now fyre knyghte at thy request I wyl that thou wete and knowe that I am Launcelot du lake kyng Ban sone of Benwyck / & very knyghte of the table round / And now I defye the and doe thy best / A sayd Turquyne / launcelot / thou arte vnto me 5 moost welcome that euer was knyghte / for we shalle neuer departe tyl the one of vs be dede / Thenne they hurtled to gyders as two wilde bulles rofshynge and lasthyng with their shel-des and fwerdes that fomtyme they felle bothe ouer theyr nos-ses / Thus they foughte styll two houres and more / and ne- 10 uer wolde haue reste / and fyre Turquyn gaf fyre laūcelot many woundes / that alle the ground there as they foughte was al bespeckled with blood

¶ Capitulum ix

THenne at the last fyr Turquyn waxed faynte / and gaf fomwhat a bak / and bare his shelde lowe for wery- 15 nesse / That aspyed fyre Launcelot / and lepte upon hym sferfly and gate hym by the Bauowre of his helmet / and plucked hym doune on his knees / And anone he racyd of his helme / and smote his neck in sondyr / And whanne fyre laūcelot had done this / he yode vnto the damoyfel and sayd / damoyfel I am 20 redy to goo with yow where ye wylle haue me / but I haue no hors / Fayre fyre sayd she / take this wounded knyghtes hors and fende hym in to this manoyr and commaunde hym to de-lyuer alle the prysoners / Soo fyr launcelot wente vnto Gahe-ryes and praid hym not to be agreued for to leue hym his hors 25 Nay fayr lord said Gaheryes I wyll that ye take my hors atte your owne commaundement / for ye houe bothe faued me and my hors / & this day I faye ye are the best knyghte in the worlde For ye haue slayne this daye in my syghte the myztest man & the best knyghte excepte yow that euer I fawe / & fore fyre 30 said Gaheryes I pray you telle me your name / Syre my name is fyr launcelot du lake that ouzte to helpe you of ryghte for kyng arthurs sake / & in especial for my lord sir gawayns sake your owne dere broder / & whan that ye come within yonder manayr / I am sure ye shal fynde ther many knyghtes of the 35 round table / for I haue sene many of their sheldes that I knowe on yonder tree / there is kayes shelde / & fir braundeles sheld / and fyr Marhaus sheld and fyre Galyndes shelde and fyre Bryan de lystnoyfe sheld and fyr Alydukes sheld with many mo that I am not now auysed of / and also my two brethe-5 ren sheldes fyre Ector de marys and fyr Lyonel / wherfore I pray yow grete them al from me / and say that I bydde them take suche stufte there as they fynd / and that in ony wyfe my bretheren goo vnto the courte and abyde me there tyl that I come / for by the feest of pentecost I cast me to be there / for as at 10 this tyme I must ryde with this damoyfel for to saue my pro-myse / and soo he departed from Gaheryfe / & Gaheryfe yede in to the manore / and ther he fond a yoman porter kepyng ther many keyes / Anone with al fyre gaheryfe threwe the porter vnto the ground / and toke the keyes from hym / and hastily he ope-15 ned the pryson dore / and there he lete oute all the prysoners / and euery man losed other of their boundes / And whan they fawe fyre Gaheryfe / alle they thanked hym / for they wend that he was wounded / Not soo sayd Gaheryfe / hit was launcelot that slewe hym worshipfully with his owne handes / I fawe 20 it with myn owne eyen / and he greteth you al wel / and prayeth you to haste you to the courte / And as vnto fyr Lyonel and Ector de marys he prayeth yow to abyde hym at the court That shalle we not doo says his bretheren / we wyll fynde hym and we may lyue / So shal I sayd fyr kay fynde hym or I 25 come at the courte as I am true knyghte / Thenne alle tho kn-yghtes fought the hous there as the armour was / and thenne they armed hem / and euery knyght sonde his owne hors / & al thet cuer longed vnto hym / And whan this was done ther cam a foster with foure horses lade with fatte venefon / A none 30 fyr kay sayd / here is good mete for vs for one meale / for we had not many a day no good repast / And so that venefon was rosted baken and foden / and so after souper somme abode there al that nyghte / But fyre Lyonel and Ector de marys and fyre kay rode after fyre launcelot to fynde hym yf they 35 myghte

¶ Capitulum Decimum

Now torne we vnto fyre launcelot that rode with the damoyfel in a fayre hyghe waye / fyr sayd the damoyfel / here by this way haunteth a knyght that destressyd al ladyes and gentylwymmen / And at the leest he robbeth them or lyeth by them / what said sir launcelot is he a theef & a knyght & a raufisher of wymmen / he doth shame vnto the ordre of knyghthode / and contrary vnto his othe / hit is pyte that he lyueth / But fayr damoyfel ye shal ryde on afore your self / and I wylle kepe my self in couerte / And yf that he trouble yow or distresse yow / I shalle be your rescowe and lerne hym to be ruled as a knyghte / Soo the mayde rode on by the way a soft ambelynge paas / And within a whyle cam oute that knyght on horsbak oute of the woode / and his page with hym / & there he put the damoyfel from her hors / and thenne she cryed / With that came launcelot as fast as he myghte tyl he came to that knyght / fayenge / O thou fals knyght and traytour vnto knyghthode / who dyd lerne the to dystresse ladyes and gentylwymmen / whanne the knyghte sawe fyre launcelot thus rebukynge hym / he answerd not / but drewe his sward and rode vnto fyre launcelot / and fyre launcelot threwe his spere fro hym / and drewe oute his sward / and strake hym fuche a buffet on the helmet that he clafe his hede and neck vnto the throte 20
 Now hast thou thy payement that long thou hast deferued / that is trouthe sayd the damoyfel / For lyke as fyr Turquyne watched to destroye knyghtes / soo dyde this knyght attende to destroye and dystresse ladyes damoyfels and gentylwymmen / & his name was fyre Perys de foreyst faueage / Now damoyfel fayde fyre launcelot wylle ye ony more seruyse of me / Nay fyre she sayd at this tyme / but almyghty Ihesu perferue you where someuer ye ryde or goo / for the curteyst knyghte thou arte and mekest vnto all ladyes and gentylwymmen that now lyueth / But one thyng fyre knyghte me thynketh ye lacke / ye that are a knyghte wyueles that ye wyl not loue some mayden or gentylwoman / for I coude neuer here say that euer ye loued ony of no maner degree and that is grete pyte / but hit is noyed that ye loue quene Gueneuer / and that she hath ordeyned by enchauntement that ye shal neuer loue none other / but her / ne none other damoyfel ne lady shall reioyse you / wherfor many in this land of hyghe estate and lowe make grete fo-rowe / ¶ Fayre damoyfel sayd fyr launcelot I maye not warne peple to speke of me what it pleaseth hem / But for to be a wedded man / I thynke hit not / for thenne I must couche with 5 her / and leue armes and turnementys / batayls / and aduentu-res / And as for to say for to take my plefaunce with peramo-urs that wylle I refuse in pryncypal for drede of god / For knyghtes that ben auenturous or lecherous shal not be happy ne fortunate vnto the werrys / for outhur they shalle be ouerco-10 me with a symplyer knyghte than they be hem self / Outhur els they shal by vnhap and her cursydnes flee better men than they ben hem self / And foo who that vfeth peramours shalle be vnhappy / and all thyng is vnhappy that is aboute hem / And foo fyre Launcelot and she departed / And thenne he rode in a 15 depe forest two dayes and more / and had straye lodgyng / Soo on the thyrdd day he rode ouer a longe brydge / and there starte vpon hym sodenly a passyng foule chorle / and he smote his hors on the nose that he turned aboute / & asked hym why he rode ouer that brydge withoute his lycence / why shold I not 20 ryde this way sayd fyr launcelot / I may not ryde befyde / thou shall not chese sayd the chorle and lasshyd at hym with a grete clubbe shod with yron / Thenne fyre launcelot drewe his fuerd and put the stroke abak / and clafe his hede vnto the pappys / At the ende of the brydge was a fayre village / & al the people 25 men and wymmen cryed on fyre launcelot / and sayd A wers dede dydest thou neuer for thy self / for thou hast slayn the chyef porter of oure castel / fyr launcelot lete them say what they wold And freyghte he wente in to the castel / And whanne he cam in to the castel he alyghte / and teyed his hors to a ryng on 30 the walle / And there he sawe a fayre grene courte / and thyder he dresyd hym / For there hym thought was a fayre place to fyghte in / Soo he loked aboute / and sawe moche peple in dores and wyndowes that sayd sayr knyghte thou arte vnhap-py

A None with al cam there vpon hym two grete gyaunts wel armed al fauf the hedes with two horryble club-bes in their handes / Syre Launcelot put his sheld afore hym and put the stroke aweye of the one gyaunt / and with his fwerd he clafe his hede a fondre / Whan his felaw sawe that / he 5 ran awey as he were wood / for fere of the horryble strokes / & launcelot after hym with al his myȝt & smote hym on the shol-der / and clafe hym to the nauel / Thenne fyre launcelot went in to the halle / and there came afore hym thre score ladyes and 10 damoyfels / and all kneled vnto hym / and thanked god & hym of their delyueraunce . For fyre sayd they / the mooste party of vs haue ben here this seuen yere their pryfoners / and we haue worched al maner of fylke werkes for oure mete / and we are al grete gentylwymmen borne / and bleffyd be the tyme knyȝte 15 that euer thou be borne / For thou haft done the moost worship that euer dyd knyght in this world / that wyl we bere recorde and we al pray you to telle vs your name / that we maye telle our frendes who delyuerd vs oute of pryfon / Fayre damoyfel he sayd / my name is fyre launcelot du lake / A fyre sayde they al / wel mayst thou be he / for els faue your self / as we demed / 20 there myghte neuer knyght haue the better of these two gyaunts / for many fayre knyghtes haue assayed hit / and here haue ended / and many tymes haue we wyffhed after yow / and these two gyaunts dredde neuer knyghte but you / Now maye ye fayre sayd fyr launcelot vnto youre frendes how & who hath 25 delyuerd you / and grete them al from me / and yf that I come in any of your marches / shewe me fuche chere as ye haue caufe and what trefour that there in this castel is I gyue it you for a reward for your greuaunce / And the lorde that is owner of this castel I wold he receyued it as is ryght / Fayre fyre faide 30 they / the name of this castel is Tyntygayl / & a duke oughte it fomtyme that had wedded fair Igrayn / & after wedded her V-therpendragon / & gate on her Arthur / wel faide fir launcelot I vnderstande to whome this castel longeth / and soo he departed from them / and bytaughte hem vnto god ¶ And thenne 35 he mounted vpon his hors & rode in to many straunge & wyld countreies and thorou many waters and valeyes and cuyl was he lodged / And at the lasfe by fortune hym happend a-geynft a nyghte to come to a fayr courtelage / & therin he fond an old gentylwoman that lodged hym with good wyl / and 5 there he had good chere for hym and his hors / And whan tyme was his ooft brought hym in to a fayre garet ouer the gate to his bedde / There fyre Launcelot vnarmed hym & fette hys harneys by hym / and wente to bed / and anone he felle on flepe / So foone after ther cam one on horfback / & knocked at the ga-10 in grete hafte / and whan fyr launcelot herd this / he arofe vp and loked oute at the wyndowe / & fawe by the mone lyghte thre knyghtes cam rydyng after that one man / and al thre laffhed on hym at ones with fwerdes / & that one knyzt tourned on hem knyztly ageyne / and deffended hym / Truly faide fyre 15 launcelot yonder one knyzte fhall I helpe / for it were shame for me to see thre knyghtes on one / And yf he be flayne I am partner of his deth / & ther with he took his harnois / and went out at a wyndowe by a fhete doune to the four knyghtes / & thenne fyr launcelot fayd on hyghe / torne you knyghtes vnto me and 20 leue your fyghtyng with that knyght / And thenne they alle thre lefte fyr kay / and torned vnto fyr launcelot / and there be-ganne grete bataylle / for they alyghte al thre / and strake many grete ftores at fyr launcelot / and affayled hym on eue-ry fyde / Thenne fyre kay drefsid hym for to haue holpen fyre 25 Launcelot / nay fyre fayd he I wyll none of your helpe / ther-for as ye wyll haue my helpe / lete me alone with hem / Syre kay for the pleafyre of the knyghte fuffred hym for to doo hys wyll / and foo ftoode on fyde / And thenne anon within vj ftokes / fyre launcelot had ftryken hem to the erthe 30 ¶ And thenne they al thre cryed fyre knyghte we yelde vs vnto you as man of myght makeles / As to that faid fyr laūcelot I will not take your yeldyng vnto me / But fo that ye wyll yelde you vnto fyr kay the Senefchal on that couena-unt I wyl faue your lyues and els not / ¶ Fayre knyghte 35 fayd they that were lothe to doo / For as for fyr kay / we chaced hym hyder / and had ouercome hym had not ye ben / therfor to yelde vs vnto hym it were no refon / wel as to that faid laūcelot / auyfe you wel / for ye may chefe whether ye wyll dye or lyue / for and ye be yolden it shal be vnto fyr kay / ¶ Fayre knyght thenne they sayd in fauynge of oure lyues we wylle doo as thou commaundys vs / Thenne shal ye sayd fyre launcelot on whytsonday nexte comyng go vnto the courte of kynge Arthur / and there shal ye yelde you vnto quene Guc- 5 neuer / and put you al thre in her grace and mercy / and faye that fir kay sente you thyder to be her pryfoners / Syre they said it shalle be done by the feythe of oure bodyes / and we ben lyuyng / and there they swore euery knyghte vpon his swerd / And so fir launcelot suffred hem soo to departe / And thenne fir 10 launcelot knocked at the yate with the pomel of his swerd / and with that came his oost / and in they entred fir kay and he Syre sayd his hooft I wende ye had ben in youre bedde / so I was / sayd fire launcelot / But I arose and lepte oute atte my wyndowe for to helpe an old felawe of myne / And so whanne 15 they came nyghe the lyghte / fir kay knewe wel / that it was fir launcelot / and ther with he kneled doune and thanked hym of al his kyndeneffe that he had holpen hym twyes from the deth Syre he sayd I haue no thyng done but that me ought for to doo / and ye are welcome / and here shal ye repose yow and ta- 20 ke your rest / Soo whan fir kay was vnarmed / he asked after mete / soo there was mete fette hym / and he ete strongly / And whan he hadde souped they went to theyr beddes and were lodged to gyders in one bedde / On the morne fir launcelot arose erly / and lefte fyre kay slepyng / and fir launcelot toke fire ka- 25 yes armour and his shelde and armed hym / and so he wente to the stable / and toke his hors and toke his leue of his oost / and soo he departed / Thenne soone after arose fyr kay and myssed fir launcelot / And thenne he aspyed that he had his armour and his hors / Now by my feythe I knowe wel that he wylle 30 greue some of the courte of kynge Arthur . For on hym knyghtes wylle be bolde / and deme that it is I / and that wyll begyle them / And by cause of his armour and shelde I am fure I shal ryde in pees / And thenne soone after departed fir kay & thanked his hooft

¶ Capitulum xij

Now torne we vnto fyre launcelot that had ryden long in a grete forest / and at the last he came in to a lowe co-untray ful of fayre Ryuers and medowes / And afore hym he sawe a longe brydge / and thre paelions stode ther 5 on of fylke and fendel of dyuers hewe / And withoute the pa-uelions henge thre whyte sheldes on truncheons of sperys / & grete longe sperys stode vpryght by the paelions / and at eue-ry paelions dore stode thre fresshe squyers / and soo fyre laun-celot passed by them and spake no worde / whan he was paste 10 the thre knyghtes sayden hym that hit was the proud kay / he weneth no knyght soo good as he / and the contrary is oftyme preued / By my feythe sayd one of the knyghtes / his name was fyre gaunter / I wylle ryde after hym / & assaye hym / for alle his pryde / and ye may beholde how that I spede / Soo 15 this knyght fyre Gaunter armed hym / and henge his shelde vpon his sholder / and mounted vpon a grete hors / and gate his spere in his hand / and wallopt after fyre launcelot / and whanne he came nyghe hym / he cryed Abyde thou proude kny-ght fyr kay / for thou shalt not passe quyte / Soo fyr launcelot 20 torned hym / and eyther seutryd their speres / and came to gyders with alle theyr myghtes / and fyre Gaunters spere brake but fyre launcelot smote hym doune hors and man / and whan fyr gaunter was at the erthe / his bretheren sayd echone to other yonder knyght is not fyre kay / for he is bygger than he / 25 I dare laye my heed sayd fyre Gylmere yonder knyghte hath slayne fyr kay and hath taken his hors and his harneis / whether it be soo or no sayd fyr Raynold the thyrd broder / lete vs now goo mounte vpon oure horses and rescowe our broder fir Gaunter vpon payne of dethe / we alle shal haue werke ynou3 30 to matche that knyght / for euer me semeth by his persone it is fyre Launcelot / or fyr Trystram / or fyr Pelleas the good kny-ght / Thenne anon they toke theyr horses and ouertook fyr la-uncelot / and fyre gylmere put forth his spere / and ranne to fir launcelot / and fyre launcelot smote hym doune that he lay in a 35 swoune / Syre knyght sayd fyr Raynold thou arte a strong man / and as I suppose thou hast slayne my two bretheren / for the whiche rasyth my herte sore ageynst the / And yf I my-ght with my worship I wold not haue a doo with yow but nedes I muſt take parte as they doo / And therfor knyghte he ſayd / kepe thy ſelf / And ſoo they hurtled to gyders with alle theyr myghtes / and al to ſheuered bothe theyre ſperes / And thenne they drewe her ſwerdes and laſſhyd to gyder egerly / Anone there with aroos fyre Gaüter / and came vnto his bro- 5 der fyre gylmere / and bad hym aryſe and helpe we oure broder fyr Raynold that yonder merueyllouſly matched yonder good knyght / There with alle they lepte on theyr horſes & hurtled vnto fyre launcelot / ¶ And whanne he ſawe them come / he ſmote a fore ſtroke vnto fyr Raynold that he felle of his hors 10 to the ground / And thenne he ſtroke to the other two brethemoche bygger than euer was fyre kay / Now shal ye see what 5 I may doo to hym / Soo fyr Ector gate his spere in his hand the erthe / and euer his spere held / By my feythe sayd sir V-wayne yonder is a strong knyghte / and I am fure he hath flasekyng in maner as it had ben in the feaute of an hurt dere /

What was your husbandes name sayd fyre launcelot / Syre sayd 20 best knyghtes of the world / and he that hath slayne hym I knowe not his name / Now god sende you better comforte

And now I requyre the on thy knyghthode helpe my brother that is fore wounded / and neuer stynteth bledyng / for this day he fought with fyre gylbert the bastard & slewe hym in playn bataylle / and there was my broder fore wounded / and there is 30 a lady a forcereffe that duelleth in a castel here beyde / and this day she told me / my broders woundes shold neuer be hole tyl I coud fynde a knyght that wold go in to the chappel peryllous / & ther he shold fynde a swerd and a bloody clothe that the wounded knyght was lapped in / and a pyece of that clothe & swerd 35 shold hele my broders woundes so that his woundes were ferched with the swerde and the clothe / This is a merucyllous thyng sayd fyre launcelot / but what is your broders name / lyuynge that may encheue that aduenture

¶ Capitulum xv

Rygght soo fyr Launcelot departed / And whan he cam 10 yed his hors vnto a lytyl gate / and as soone as he was with in the chirche yard / he sawe on the frount of the chappel many fayre ryche sheldes torned vp so doune / and many of the shel-des fyre launcelot had fene knyghtes bere byfore hand / wyth that he sawe by hym there stande a xxx greete knyghtes more 15 by a yarde than any man that euer he had fene / and all tho afore hym / and toke his swerd redy in his hand redy vnto bataylle / and they were al armed in black harneis redy with her 20 sheldes and her swerdes drawen / And whan fyr Launcelot wold haue gone thorou oute them / they scateryd on euery sy-de of hym / and gaf hym the way / and ther with he waxed al bold / and entred in to the chappel / and thenne he sawe no ly-ght / but a dymme lamp brennyng / and thenne was he ware 25 of a corps hyllid with a clothe of fylke / Thenne fyre Launcelot stouped doune / and cutte a pyece away of that clothe / and dye for it / I leue it not sayd fyr launcelot for no treatys / No sayd she and thou dydest loue that swerd / quene gweneuer shold thou neuer see / thenne were I a foole and I wold 5 leue this swerd sayd launcelot / Now gentyl knyghte fayde haddest kyffed me / thy lyf dayes had ben done / but now allas she said I haue loste al my labour / for I ordeyned this chap- 10 pel for thy sake / and for fyre gawayne / And ones I had fyr Gawayne within me / and at that tyme he foughte with that knyghte that lyeth there dede in yonder chappel fyre Gylbert Gylbert the bastard / And fyre Launcelot now I telle the / I 15 haue loued the this seuen yere / but there may no woman haue thy loue but quene Gweneuer / But sythen I maye not reioyce the to haue thy body on lyue I had kepte no more ioye in this world / but to haue thy body dede / Thenne wold I haue baumed hit and serued hit / and soo haue kepte it my lyfe 20 dayes / and dayly I shold haue clypped the / and kyffed the in despyte of Quene Gweneuer / ye saye wel sayd fyr launcelot Ihesu preferue me from your subtile craftes / And ther with al he took his hors and soo departed from her / And as the book sayth whan fyr launcelot was departed she took suche sorow that 25 she dyed within a fourteen nyghte / and her name was Hellawes the forcereffe lady of the castel Nygramous / Anone fyre launcelot mette with the damoyfel fyre Melyotis syfter / And whan she sawe hym she clapped her handes / and wepte for ioye And thenne they rode vnto a castel there by where lay fyr Me- 30 lyot / And anone as fyre launcelot sawe hym / he knewe hym / but he was passyng pale as the erthe for bledying / whan fyre Melyot sawe fyre launcelot he kneled vpon his knees and cry-ed on hyghe / O lord fyr launcelot helpe me / Anone fyre laun-celot lepte vnto hym and touched his woundes with fyr Gyl- 35 bertes swerde / And thenne he wyped his woundes with a part of the bloody clothe that fir gylbert was wrapped in / and anon an holer man in his lyf was he neuer / And thenne ther was grete ioie bytwene hem / and they made fyr launcelot all the chere that they myghte / and foo on the morne fyre launcelot toke his leue / and badde fyre Melyot hyc hym to the courte of my lord Arthur / for it draweth nyhe to the feest of pentecoste / and

¶ Capitulum xviij

SOo fyre launcelot rode many wylde wayes thorou out uncelot torned hym and thoughte no treafon / and there wyth was the knyghte and the lady on one fyde / & sodenly he swapped of his ladyes hede / And whan fyr Launcelot hadde aspy-

¶ Capitulum xviij

Now torne we vnto sir launcelot du lake that came home two dayes afore the feest of Pentecost / and the kyng and alle the courte were passyng fayne of his comyng /
 And whanne sire Gawayne / sir Vwayne / sire Sagamore / sir Ector de marys sawe sire Launcelot in Kayes armour / thenne 30 they wist wel it was he that smote hem doune al with one spere / Thenne there was laughyng and smylyng amonge them / and euer now and now came alle the Knyghtes home that sir Turquyn hadde prysoners and they alle honoured and worshipped syre launcelot / ¶ Whanne sire Gaheryes herd them 35 speke / he said / I sawe alle the bataille from the begynnyng to the endynge / and there he told kyng Arthur alle how it was and how fyre Turquyn was the strongest knyghte that euer he sawe excepte fyre launcelot / there were many knyghtes bare 5 hym record nyghe thre score / Thenne sire kay told the kyng / how fyr launcelot had rescowed hym whan he shold haue ben slayne / and how he made the knyghtes yelde hem to me / and not to hym / And there they were al thre / and bare record / and by Ihesu said fyr kay by cause fyr launcelot took my harnes 10 and leste me his / I rode in good pees / and no man wold haue adoo with me / ¶ Anone there with alle ther came the thre knyghtes that fought with fyre launcelot at the longe brydge And there they yelded hem vnto fyr kay / and sir kay forfoke hem and said he foughte neuer with hem / but I shall ease yo-15 ur herte said sir kay / yonder is fyr launcelot that ouercam you whan they wyf that / they were glad / And thenne fyr Melyot de logrys came home / and told the kyng how fyr launcelot had saued hym fro the dethe / and all his dedes were knowen how foure quenes forcereffes had hym in pryson / and how he 20 was delyuerd by kyng Bagdemagus doughter / Also there were told alle grete dedes of armes that fyr launcelot dyd betwixe the two kynges / that is for to saye the kyng of north-galys and kyng Bagdemagus Alle the trouthe fyr Gahalantyne dyd telle / and fyre Mador de la porte and fyre Mor-25 dred / for they were at that same turnement / ¶ Thenne cam in the lady that knewe fyr launcelot whan that he wounded fyr Bellyus at the paclione / And there atte request of fyr laūcelot fyr Beilyus was made knyghte of the round table / And soo at that tyme sir launcelot had the grettest name of 30 ony knyghte of the world / and most he was honoured of hye and lowe

¶ Explicit the noble tale of fyr Launcelot du lake whiche is the vj book ¶ Here foloweth the tale of fyr Gareth of Orkeney that was called Beaumayns by fyr kay and is the seuenth book

¶ Capitulum primum

Han Arthur held his round table moost ple-nour / it fortunēd that he commaunded that the hyhe feest of Pentecost shold be holden at a cy-te and a Castel the whiche in tho dayes was called kynke kenadonne vpon the fondes that 5 marched nyghe walys / ¶ Soo euer the kyng hadde a custome that at the feest of Pentecost in especyal afore other feestes in the yere he wold not goo that daye to mete vntyl he had herd or fene of a grete merueylle / And for that custome alle manner of straunge aduentures came before Arthur as at that fe- 10 est before alle other feestes / And soo fire Gawayne a lytyl to fore none of the daye of Pentecost aspyed att a wyndowe thre men vpon horsbak and a dwarf on foote / and soo the thre men alighte and the dwarf keppe their horses / and one of the thre men was hyher than the other tweyne by a foote and a half 15 Thenne fir Gawayne wente vnto the kyng and sayd / fire go to your mete / for here at the hande comen straunge aduentures So Arthur wente vnto his mete with many other kynges / And there were all the knyghtes of the round table only tho that were prysoners or slayn at a recoutre / thenne at the hy- 20 he feest euermore they shold be fulfilled the hole nombre of an C and fyfty / for thenne was the round table fully compliffhed Ryght soo cam in to the halle two men wel bifene and rychely / and vpon their sholders there lened the goodlyest yong man & the fairest that euer they al sawe / & he was large and long 25 and brode in the sholders & wel vyfaged / and the fayrest and the largest handed that euer man sawe / but he ferd as though he myght not goo nor bere hym self / but yf he lened vpon their sholders / Anon as Arthur sawe hym there was made pees & rome / & ryght so they yede with hym vnto the hyghe deysse with- 30 out sayeng of ony wordes / thenne this moche yong man pulled hym a bak and easly stretched vp freyghte / sayeng kyng Arthur god you bliffe and al your fair selauship / and in especial the selauship of the table rounde / And for thys cause I am come hyder to praye you and requyre you to gyue me thre 35 yestes / and they shalle not be vnrefonably asked / but that ye may worshipfully and honorably graunte hem me / and to you no grete hurte nor losse / And the fyrst done and gyfte I wil aske now / and the other two yestes I wylle aske this daye twelue moneth / where someuer ye hold your hyghe feest / Now aske sayd Arthur / and ye shalle haue your askyng

5 ¶ Now fyre this is my petycyon for thys feest / that ye wylle gyue me mete and drynke suffycyauntly for this twelue mo-neth / and at that day I wylle aske myn other two yestes ¶ My fayr sone sayd Arthur aske better I counceille the for this is but a fymple askyng / for my herte geueth me to the 10 gretely that thou arte come of men of worshyp / and gretely my confayte fayleth me / but thou shalt preue a man of ryghte grete worship / Syre he sayd / ther of be as it be may I haue afked that I wylle aske / wel sayd the kyngye ye shal haue me-te & drynke ynou3 / I neuer deffended þ^r none / nother my fren-15 de ne my foo / But what is thy name I wold wete / I can not telle you sayd he / that is merueylle sayd the kyng / that thou knowest not thy name / and thou arte the goodlyest yong man one that euer I sawe / Thenne the kyng betook hym to fir kay the steward / and charged hym that he shold gyue hym 20 of al maner of metes and drynkes of the best / and also that he hadde al maner of syndyng as though he were a lordes sone / that shal lytel nede sayd fyr kay to doo suche cost vpon hym For I dare undertake he is a vylayne borne / and neuer will make man / for and he had come of gentylmen he wold haue 25 axed of you hors and armour / but suche as he is so he asketh And sythen he hath no name / I shall yeue hym a name that shal be Beaumayns that is fayre handes / and in to the kechen I shalle bryngye hym / and there he shal haue fatte broweys euery day þ^r he shall be as fatte by the twelue monethes ende 30 as a porke hog / ryght soo the two men departed and beleste hym to fyr kay / that scorned hym and mocked hym ¶ Ca ij

T Here at was fir Gawayn wroth / & in especyal fir la-uncelot bad fir kay leue his mockyng / for I dare laye my hede he shall preue a man of grete worship / lete be / 35 said fir kay / it may not be by no reason / for as he is / so he hath asked / Beware said fyre Launcelot / so ye gafe the good kny3t Brewnor fyre Dynadamys broder a name / and ye called hym la cote male tayle / and that tourned you to anger afterward / As for that fayd fyr kay this shall neuer preue none fuche / For fyr Brewnor defyred euer worship and thys defy-reth breed & drynke / & brothe vpon payne of my lyf he was fofred vp in some abbay / and how someuer it was they fay- 5 led mete and drynke / and soo hyther he is come for his suftenaunce

¶ And soo fyre kay badde gete hym a place and fytte doune to mete / soo Beaumayns wente to the halle dore / and sette hym doune amonge boyes and laddys / & there he ete fadly / And thenne fyre launcelot after mete badde hym come to his chamber / And there he shold haue mete and 10 drynke ynough / And soo dyd fyre Gawayne / but he reffused hem al / he wold doo none other / but as fyr kay commaunded hym for no profer / But as touchyng fyre Gawayn he hadde refon to profer hym lodgyng mete and drynke / for that profer came of his blood / for he was nere kynne to hym than he wyft 15 But that as fyre launcelot dyd was of his grete gentylnes and curtosye

¶ Soo thus he was putte in to the kechyn and laye nyghtly as the boyes of the kechen dyd / And soo he endured alle that twelue moneth / and neuer dif-pleafyd man nor chylde / but alweyes he was meke & mylde / 20 But euer whanne that he sawe ony Iustynge of knyghtes / that wold he see and he myght / And euer fyre launcelot wold gyue hym gold to spende and clothes / and soo dyd fyre Ga-wayne / and where there were ony maystryes done / there atte wold he be / and there myghte none cast barre nor stone to hym 25 by two yerdys / Thenne wold fyre kay faye how lyketh yow my boye of the kechyn / soo it past on tyl the feest of Whytsontyde / And at that tyme the kynge helde hit att Carlyon in the mooft royallest wyfe that myghte be / lyke as he dyd yerly / But the Kynge wold no mete ete vpon the whyyfsonday vn- 30 tyl he herd some aduentures / Thenne cam ther a squyer to the Kyng / and said / fyre ye maye goo to your mete / for here cometh a damoyfel with fomme straunge aduentures / thenne was the Kynge gladde and sette hym doune / ¶ Ryghte soo ther came a damoyfel in to the halle and fawed the Kynge and prayd 35 hym of focour / for whome fayd the Kynge what is the aduenture / ¶ Syre she fayd I haue a lady of grete worship and renomme / and she is byfeged with a tyraunte so that she may not oute of her castel / And by cause here are callyd the noblest knyghtes of the world / I come to you to praye you of focour / What heteth your lady and where dwelleth she / & who is he / & what is his name that hath byfeged her / fyre kyng she 5 faide / as for my ladyes name that shall not ye knowe for me as at this tyme / but I lete you wete she is a lady of grete worship and of grete landes / And as for the tyraunt that byfyegeth her and destroyeth her landes he is called the rede knyght of the reed laundes / I knowe hym not sayd the kyng / Syre 10 said fyre Gawayne / I knowe hym wel for he is one of the perillouft knyghtes of the world / men saye that he hath feuen mennys strengthe / and from hym I escaped ones ful hard / with my lyf / Fayre damoyfel sayd the kyng there ben knyghtes here wolde doo her power for to rescowe your lady / but by 15 cause ye wyll not telle her name nor where she dwelleth / therfor none of my knyghtes that here be now shal goo with yow by my wyll / thenne must I speke further sayd the damoyfel

Yth these wordes came before the kyng Beaumayns whyle the damoyfel was ther / & thus he said fyr Kyng 20 god thanke you I haue ben this xij monethe in your kechyn and haue hadde my ful sustenaūce and now I will aske my two yestes that ben behynde / Aske vpon my peryl said the kyng / Syre this shal be my two gyftes / fyrst that ye wil graunte me to haue this aduenture of the damoyfel / for hit belon-25 geth vnto me / thou shalt haue hit sayd the kyng I graunte it the / thenne fyr this is the other yest / that ye shal bydde Launcelot du lake to make me knyght for of hym I wil be made knyght and els of none / And whanne I am paste I praye yow lete hym ryde after me and make me Knyght / whan I requyre hym / Al this shal be done sayd the Kyng / Fy on the sayde 30 the damoyfel / shalle I haue none but one that is your kechyn page / thenne was she wrothe and toke her hors and departed / And with that there cam one to Beaumayns and told hym his hors and armour was come for hym / and there was the 35 dwarf come with all thyng that hym neded in the rycheft manner / ther at al the court had moche merueill from whens cam al þ' gere / Soo whanne he was armed ther was none but fewe foo goodely a man as he was / and ryght foo as he came in to the halle and took his leue of kyng Arthur & sir Gawayn & fyr launcelot / and prayed that he wolde hyhe after hym / and foo departed and rode after the damoyfel

¶ Capitulum iiij

BVt there wente many after to behold how wel he was horfed and trapped in clothe of gold / but he had neyther shelde nor spere / Thenne fyr kay fayd al open in the halle I wylle ryde after my boye in the kechyn to wete / whether he wylle knowe me for his better / Said fyr launcelot and sir ga- 10 wayn yet abyde at home / So fyr kay made hym redy and took his hors and his spere and rode after hym / And ryghte as Beaumayns ouertook the damoyfel / ryghte foo cam fyre kay & fayd Beaumayns what fyre knowe ye not me / Thenne he tor-ned his hors / and knewe hit was sir kay / that had done hym 15 alle the despyte as ye haue herde afore / ye fayd beaumayns I knowe yow for an vngentyl knyghte of the courte / and therfore beware of me / There with fyre kay putte his spere in the reyste / and ranne streyghte vpon hym / and beaumayns cam as fast vpon hym with his swerd in his hand / and foo he putte 20 away his spere with his swerd and with a foyne thrested hym thorou the fyde / that fyr kay felle doune as he had ben dede / & he alyght doune and took sir kayes shelde and his spere / and starte vpon his owne hors and rode his waye / Al that sawe fyr launcelot and foo dyd the damoyfel / And thenne he badde 25 his dwarf starte vpon sir kayes hors / and foo he dyd / by that fyre Launcelot was come / thenne he profered sir laūcelot to Iufte / and eyther made hem redy / and they came to gyder soo fyverfly that eyther bare doune other to the erthe / and fore were they bryfed / Thenne sir launcelot arofe and halpe hym fro his hors 30 And thenne beaumayns threwe his sheld from hym / and profered to fyghte with sir launcelot on foote / and foo they rasshed to gyders lyke borys tracynge / rasyng and foynynge to the mountenaunce of an houre / and fyre launcelot felte hym foo bygge that he merucylled of his strengthe / for he fought more lyker a gyaunt than a knyght / and that his fyghtyng was durable and passyng perillous / For fyr launcelot had so mo-5 che adoo with hym that he dred hym self to be shamed / and fayd Beaumayns fyghte not so fore / youre quarel and myn is not foo grete but we may leue of / Truly that is trouthe sayd Beaumayns / but it doth me good to fele your myght / and yet my lord I shewed not the vtteraunce

 25 to the courte neyther for mete ne for drynke / And thenne fyr Launcelot gaf hym thordre of knyghthode / and thenne fyr Gareth prayd hym for to departe and lete hym goo / Soo fyre la-uncelot departed from hym and came to fyre kay and maade hym to be born home vpon his shelde / and so he was helyd hard 30 with the lyf / and al men scorned fyr kay / and in especyal sir Gawayne and fyre launcelot sayd it was not his parte to rebuke no yong man / for ful lytel knewe he of what byrth he the greece and talowe that thou gaynest in kyng Arthurs ke-chyn / wenest thou sayd she that I alowe the for yonder knyzt that thou kyllest / Nay truly / for thou slewest hym vnhappely and cowardly / therfor torne ageyn bawdy kechyn page / I knothou but a lufke and a torner of broches and a ladyl weffher Damoyfel sayd Beaumayns saye to me what ye wyll / I wyll not goo from you what someuer ye fay / for I haue vndertake to kyng Arthur for to acheue your aduenture / and so shal I fynyshe it to the ende / eyther I shal dye therfore / Fy 10 on the kechyn knaue wolt thou fynyshe myn aduenture / thou shalt anone be met with al / that thou woldest not for alle the brothe that euer thou soupest ones loke hym in the face / I shal assaye sayd Beaumayns / Soo thus as they rode in the wo-ode / ther came a man fleyng al that euer he myghte / whether 15 wolt thou sayd Beaumayns / O lord he said / helpe me / for here by in a flade are fyxe theues that haue taken my lord and bounde hym / soo I am aserd lest they wyl flee hym / Brynge me thyder said Beaumayns / and soo they rode to gyders vn-tyl they came there as was the knyghte bounden / and thenne 20 he rode vnto hem / and strake one vnto the dethe / and thenne an other / and at the thyrd stroke he slewe the thyrdde theef / and thenne the other thre fledde / And he rode after hem / and he ouertook hem / and thenne tho thre theues tourned ageyne and assayled Beaumayns hard / but at the last he slewe them / & re- 25 torned and vnbounde the knyghte / And the knyght thanked hym / and prayd hym to ryde with hym to his castel there a ly-tel besyde / and he shold worshipfully rewarde hym for his good dedes / Syr sayd Beaumayns I wille no reward haue / I was this day made knyghte of noble syr launcelot / & ther- 30 for I wyll no reward haue / but god rewarde me / And also I must folowe this damoyfel / And whan he came nyghe her she bad hym ryde fro her / for thou smellyst al of the kechyn / Wenest thou that I haue Ioye of the / for al this dede that thou hast done nys but myshappen the / But thou shalt see a syghte 35 shal make the torne ageyne and that lyghtly / Thenne the fame knyght whiche was rescowed of the theues rode after that damoyfel and prayed her to lodge with hym alle that nyghte And by cause it was nere nyght / the damoyfel rode with hym to his castel / and there they had grete chere / and at foupper the knyght fat fyr Beaumayns afore the damoifel / Fy fy said she fyr knyghte ye are vncurtoys to sette a kechyn page afore me hym byfemeth better to flycke a fwyne than to fyttre afore a da-5 moyfel of hylhe parage / thenne the knyght was ashamed atte her wordes / and took hym vp / and sette hym at asyde bord / and sette hym self afore hym / and soo al that nyght they had good chere and mery reste /

¶ Capitulum sextum

ANd on the morn the damoifel & he took their leue & thanryuer and but one passage / and ther were redy two knyghtes on the ferther syde to lette them the passage / what saist thou sayd the damoyfel / wylt thou matche yonder knyghtes or torne 15 ageyne / Nay sayd fyr Beaumayns I wyl not torne ageyn and they were syxe mo / And ther with al he rasshyd in to the water / and in myddes of the water eyther brake their speres vpon other to their handes / and thenne they drewe their swer-des / and smote egerly at other / And at the last fyr Beauma-20 yns smote the other vpon the helme that his hede stonyed / and there with alle he felle doune in the water / and there was he drowned / And thēne he sporyd his hors vpon the londe / where the other knyghte felle vpon hym / and brake his spere / and soo they drewe theyr swerdes / and foughte longe to gyders 25 At the laste fyre Beaumayns clafe his helme and his heede doune to the sholders / and soo he rode vnto the damoyfel & bad her ryde forth on her way / Allas she sayd that euer a kechen page shold haue that fortune to destroye suche two douzty kn-yghtes / thou wenest thou hast done doughtely that is not soo / 30 For the fyrste knyghte his hors stumbled / and there he was drowned in the water / and neuer it was by thy force / nor by thy myght / And the last knyghte by myshap thou camyft behynde hym and myshappely thou slewe hym / Damoyfel sayd Beaumayns ye maye faye what ye wyl / but with whom som-35 euer I haue a doo with al I truste to god to ferue hym or he departe / And therfor I recke not what ye fay soo that I may wyne youre lady / Fy fy foule kechen knaue thou shalt see knyghtes that shal abate thy boost / Fayre damoyfel gyue me and not by prowesse of thy handes / wel damoyfel ye may fay what ye wylle / but where someuer ye goo I wylle folowe you 10 Soo this Beaumayns rode with that lady tyl cuenfong tyme and euer she chyde hym and wold not reste / And they cam to a black launde / and there was a black hauthorne / & theron henge a blak baner / and on the other syde there henge a black damoyfel haue ye broughte this knyghte of kynge Arthur to be your champyon / Nay fayr knyghte sayd she / this is but a kechyn knaue that was sedde in kynge Arthurs kechyn for 25 shame that he bereth you company / fyr I can not be delyuerd of hym sayd she / for with me he rydeth maugre myn hede / god wold that ye shold put hym from me / outhur to flee hym and ye may / for he is an vnhappy knaue / and vnhappyly he hath do- 30 ne this day / thorou myfhappe I sawe hym flee two knyghtes at the passage of the water / and other dedes he dyde beforne ryght merucyllous and thorou vnhappyynes / that merueyled me sayd the black knyghte that ony man that is of worshyp wylle haue adoo with hym / they knowe hym not sayd the da- 35 be some man of worship borne / that may be / sayd the blak knyghte / how be it as ye say that he be no man of worship he is a ful lykely perfone / and ful lyke to be a stronge man / but thus moche shal I graunte you sayd the black knyghte / I 5 shal putte hym doune vpon one foote / and his hors and hys harneys he shal leue with me / for it were shame to me to doo hym ony more harme / Whanne fyre Beaumayns herd hym fayre thus / he sayd fyre knyghte thou art ful large of my hors and my harneys / I lete the wete it coste the noughte / & whether hit lyketh the or not this launde wyll I passe maulgre 10 thyn hede / And hors ne harneys getest thou none of my / but yf thou wyinne hem with thy handes / and therfor lete see what thou canst doo / Sayst thou that sayd the black knyghte / now yelde thy lady fro the / for it befemeth neuer a kechyn page to 15 ryde with fuche a lady / Thou lyeft sayd Beaumayns I am a gentyl man borne and of more hyghe lygnage than thou / & that wyl I preue on thy body / Thenne in grete wrathe they departed with theyr horfes / and came to gyders as hit had ben the thonder / and the black knyghtes spere brake / and Beaumayns threste hym thorou bothe his fydes / and there with his 20 spere brak / and the truncheon leste styll in his fyde / But neuertheles the black knyght drewe his fuerd / and smote many eger strokes and of grete myghte / and hurte Beaumayns ful fore / But at the laste the black knyghte within an houre 25 and an half he felle doune of his hors in swoone / and there he dyed / And thenne Beaumayns sawe hym foo wel horfed and armed / thenne he alyghte doune and armed hym in his armour / and foo took his hors and rode after the damoyfel /

Whanne she sawe hym come nyghe / she sayd away kechyn knaue oute of the wynde / for the smelle of thy baudy clothes greueth me / Allas she sayd that euer fuche a knaue shold by myfhap flee foo good a knyghte as thou hast done / but alle thys is thyn vnhappyne / But here by is one shal paye the alle thy payement / and therefore yet I counceylle the / flee / it may happen 35 me sayd Beaumayns to be beten or slayne / but I warne you fayre damoyfel I wyll not flee away / nor leue your company for al that ye can say / for cuer ye say that they wil kyll me or bete me / but how someuer hit happeneth I escape / and they lye on the ground / And therefore it were as good for you to hold you styll thus al day rebukynge me / for aweye wille I athamed / and there with al he gaf a grete froke of myghte & ny snowe wel matchecold al aboute / and doubel dyked / And ouer the toure gate there henge a fyfty sheldes of 10 dyuerse colours / and vnder that toure there was a fayr medow And therin were many knyglites and squyers to behold scaffoldes and paucions / for there vpon the morn shold be a grete turnement / and the lord of the toure was in his castel and loked out at a wyndowe / and sawe a damoyfel / a dwarf and 15 a knyzt armed at al poyntes / So god me helpe said the lord with þⁱ knyzt wyll I Iuste / for I see that he is a kniȝt arraūt & soo he armed hym and horsed hym hastely / And whanne he was on horfbak with his shelde and his spere / it was al rede bothe his hors and his harneis / and alle that to hym lon-20 geth / And whanne that he came nyghe hym he wende it hadde ben his broder the black knyghte / And thenne he cryed a loude broder what doo ye in these marches / nay nay fayd the damoyfel / it is not he / this is but a kechyn knaue that was brought vp for almesse in kynge Arthurs courte / Neuertheles fayd 25 the reed knyghte I wylle speke with hym or he departe / A fa-yd the damoyfel this knaue hath kylled thy broder / and fyre kay named hym Beaumayns / and this hors and this harneis was thy broders the black knyghte / Also I sawe thy broder the grene knyghte ouercome of his handes / Now maye ye 30 be reuenged vpon hym / for I may neuer be quyte of hym

¶ With this cyther knyghtes departed in fondre / and they cam to gyder with alle their myght / and cyther of their horses fell to the erthe / and they auoyded their horses / and put their shel-des afore them and drewe their sverdes / and either gaf other 35 fadde stokes / now here / now there / rasyng / tracyng / foynnyng and hurlyng lyke two bores the space of two houres / And thenne she cryed on hyhe to the rede knyghte / Allas thou noble reed knyghte / thyneke what worship hath folowed the / lete neuer a kechyn knaue endure the soo longe as he doth / Thenne the reed knyght waxed wrothe and doubled his strokes and hurte Beaumayns wonderly fore that the blood ranne doune to the ground that it was wonder to see that stronge bataille / 5 Yet at the last fyre Beaumayns strake hym to the erthe / and as he wold haue slayne the reed knyghte he cryed mercy fayeng Noble knyghte flee me not / and I shall yelde me to the with fyfty knyghtes with me that be at my commaundement And I forgyue the al the despyte that thou hast done to me / 10 and the dethe of my broder the black knyghte / All this auailleth not said Beaumayns / but yf my damoyfel praye me to saue thy lyf / And therwith he maade semblaunt to stryke of his hede / Lete be thou Beaumayns flee hym not / for he is a noble knyghte / and not soo hardy vpon thyne hede but thou saue 15 hym / Thenne Beaumayns badde the reed knyghte stand vp and thanke the damoyfel now of thy lyf / ¶ Thenne the reed knyght praid hym to see his castel / and to be there al nyghte Soo the damoyfel thenne graunted hym / and there they had mery chere / But alweyes the damoyfel spak many foule wordes vnto Beaumayns wherof the reed knyght had grete merueylle / and alle that nyghte the reed knyghte maade thre score knyghtes to watche Beaumayns that he shold haue no shame nor vylony / And vpon the morne they herd masse and dyned / and the reed knyghte came before Beaumayns with 25 his thre score knyghtes / and there he profered hym his homage and feaute at al tymes he and his knyghtes to doo hym seruyse / I thanke you said Beaumayns / but this ye shalle graunte me / whanne I calle vpon you to come afore my lord kyng Arthur and yelde you vnto hym to be his knyghtes / 30 Syr said the reed knyghte I wille be redy and my selsauship at your fomons / So syr Beaumayns departed and the damoyfel and euer she rode chydynge hym in the fowleest manere /

¶ Capitulum xi

DAmoyfel said Beaumayns ye are vncurteis so to rebuke me / as ye doo / for me semeth I haue done you good seruyse / and euer ye threate me I shal be betyn with knyghtes that we mete / but euer for al your boost they 5 lye in the dust or in the myre / and therfor I pray you rebuke me no more / And whan ye see me beten or yolden as recreaunt thenne may ye bydde me goo from you shamefully / but fyrste I lete you wete I wyll not departe from you / for I were werse than a foole and I wold departe from you all the why-10 le that I wyne worship / wel said she / ryght soone ther shall mete a knyght shal paye the alle thy wages / for he is the most man of worship of the world excepte kyng Arthur / I will wel said Beaumayns / the more he is of worship / the more shalle be my worship to haue adoo with hym / Thenne anone 15 they were ware / where was afore them a Cyte ryche and fayre And betwixe them and the Cyte a myle and a half there was a fayre medowe that semed newe mowen / and therin were many paelions fayre to beholde / Lo said the damoyfel yonder is a lord that oweth yonder cyte / and his custome is whan 20 the weder is fayr to lye in this medowe to Iuste and torneye / And euer there ben aboute hym fyue honderd knyghtes & gen-tilmen of armes / and there ben alle maner of games that ony gentylman can deuysse / That goodly lord saide Beaumayns wold I fayne see / thou shalt see hym tyme ynough saide the 25 damoyfel / and soo as she rode nere she aspyed the paelione / where he was / Loo sayd she seest thou yonder paelione that is al of the coloure of Inde and al maner of thynges that there is aboute men and wymmen / and horses trapped / sheldes and speres were all of the colour of Inde and his name is sir per-30 fant of Inde the moost lordlyest knyghte that euer thou lokest on / Hit may wel be said Beaumayns / but be he neuer so stoute a knyghte in this felde / I shalle abyde tyl that I see hym vnder his shelde / A foole said she thou were better flee by tymes / why sayd Beaumayns and he be fuche a knyghte as ye 35 make hym he wyll not sette vpon me with alle his men / or with his / v / C knyghtes / For and ther come no more but one at ones / I shal hym not fayle whylest my lyf lasteth / Fy fy said the damoyfel that euer suche a stynkyng knaue shold blowe suche a boost / Damoyfel he said ye ar to blame soo to rebuke me / For I had leuer do fyue batails / than so to be rebuked / lete hym come and thenne lete hym doo his werst / Syre 5 she said I merueylle what thou arte and of what kyn thou arte come / boldly thou spekest / and boldly thou hast done / that haue I fene / therfore I praye the saue thy self and thou ma-yst / for thy hors and thou haue had grete traueylle / And I drede we dwelle ouer longe from the fege / For hit is but hens 10 feuen myle / and alle perillous passages we ar past saue al only this passage / and there I drede me fore lest ye shalle ketche some hurte / therfore I wold haue ye were hens that ye were not bry-fed nor hurte with this stronge knyghte / But I lete you we-te this fyr Perfant of ynde is no thyng of myzte nor strength 15 vnto the knyghte that leid the syege aboute my lady / As for that said syre Beaumayns be it as it be may / For sythen I am come soo nyghe this knyght I wille preue his myghte or I departe from hym / and els I shalle be shamed / and I now withdrawe me from hym / And therfore damoyfel haue ye 20 no doubte by the grace of god I shall so dele with this knyghte that within two houres after none I shalle delyuer hym And thenne shal we come to the syege by day lyghte / O Ihesu merueille haue I said the damoyfel what maner a man ye be / for hit may neuer ben otherwyse but that ye be comen of a 25 noble blood / for soo soule ne shamefully dyd neuer woman rule a knyghte as I haue done you / and euer curteisly ye haue suffred me / and that cam neuer but of a gentyl blood / ¶ Damoyfel sayd Beaumayns a knyght may lytel do that may not suffre a damoysel / for what someuer ye said vnto me / 30 I took none hede to your wordes / for the more ye sayd the more ye angryd me / and my wrathe I wrekyd vpon them that I had adoo with al / And therfor alle the myffayenge that ye myffayed me / fordered me in my bataill & caused me to thyn-ke to shewe & preue my self at the ende what I was / for pera- 35 ventur thou; I had mete in kyng Arthurs kechyn / yet I myst haue had mete ynou; in other places / but alle that I dyd it for to preue & affaye my frendes / and that shalle be knownen another day / and whether that I be a gentylman borne or none / I lete you wete fayre damoyfel I haue done you gentilmans feruyfe / and parauntur better feruyfe yet wille I do or I departe from you / Allas she faid fayre Beaumayns for-5 gyue me alle that I haue myffaid or done ageynst the / wyth alle my herte faid he I forgyue it yow / for ye dyde no thyng but as ye shold doo / for al your euyl wordes pleasyd me / & damoyfel faide Beaumayns fyn hit lyketh you to faye thus fayre vnto me / wete ye wel it gladeth my herte gretely / and 10 now me semeth ther is no knyght lyuynge but I am able ynough for hym

W Capitulum Duodecimum

Yth this fir Perfant of ynde had aspyed them as they houed in the selde / and knyztly he sente to them whether he came in werre or in pees / fay to thy lord faid beauma-15 yns I take no force / but whether as hym lyst hym self / Soo the meffager went ageyne vnto fyr Perfaunt / and told hym alle this anfuere / wel thenne will I haue adoo with hym to the vtteraunce / and foo he purueyed hym and rode ageynst hym / And Beaumayns sawe hym and made hym redy / & ther they 20 mette with all that euer theyr horses myght renne / and braste their speres eyther in thre pyeces / & their horses rassed so to gyders that bothe their horses felle dede to the erthe & lyztly they auoyded their horses / and put their sheldes afore them / & drewe their swerdes / and gaf many grete strokes that somtyme
 25 they hurtled to gyder that they felle grouelyng on the ground Thus they fought two houres and more that their sheldes & theyr hauberkes were al forhewen / & in many stedys they were wounded / So at the last fyr Beaumayns smote hym thorou the cost of the body / & thenne he retrayed hym here & there 30 & knyghtly mayntened his batail long tyme / And at the last though hym lothe were Beaumayns smote fir Perfant aboue vpon the helme that he felle grouelyng to the erthe / & thenne he lepte vpon hym ouerthwart and vnlaced his helme to haue slayne hym / Thenne fyr Perfant yelded hym & asked hym 35 mercy / with that cam þe damoisel & praid to saue his lyf / I wil wel / for it were pyte this noble knyzt shold dye / gramercy fayed Perfaunt genty'l knyzt & damoyfel / For certeynly now I wote wel it was ye that slewe my broder the black knyghte / at the black thorne / he was a ful noble knyghte / his name was fyr Perard / Alfo I am fure that ye are he that wanne myn other brother the grene knyght / his name was fyre Pertolepe Alfo ye wanne my broder the reed knyght fyr Perrymones / 5 And now fyn ye haue wonne these / this shal I do for to please you ye shal haue homage & feaute of me / & an C knyghtes to be alweyes at your commaundement to go & ryde where ye wil commaunde vs / & so they wente vnto fir Perfauntes paulione & dranke the wyne / & ete spyeces / & afterward fire Per- 10 faunte made hym to reste vpon a bedde vntyl souper tyme / and after souper to bedde ageyne / whan Beaumayns was abedde fyr Perfaunt had a lady a faire dougter of xviij yere of age and there he called her vnto hym / & charged her & commaunded her vpon his blesfynge to go vnto the knyghtes bedde / and lye 15 down by his fyde / & make hym no straunge chere / but good chere / and take hym in thynne armes & kyffe hym / & loke that this be done I charge you as ye wil haue my loue & my good wil So fyr Perfants daughter dyd as her fader bad her / and soo she wente vnto fyr Beaumayns bed / & pryuely she dispoyled 20 her / & leid her doune by hym / & thenne he awoke & fawe her & asked her what she was / fyre she said I am fir Perfants doug-ter that by the commaundement of my fader am come hyder / Be ye a mayde or a wyf said he / fir she said I am a clene maiden / God defende sayd he that I shold defoyle you to doo fyre 25 Perfaunt fuche a shame / therfore sayre damoyfel aryse oute of this bedde or els I wille / Syre she said I cam not to you by myn owne wille but as I was commaunded / Allas said fyr Beaumayns I were a shameful knyghte and I wolde do your fader ony disworship / and so he kyft her and soo she de- 30 parted and came vnto fyr Perfant her fader / & told hym alle how she had spedde / Truly faide fyre Perfaunt what som-cuer he be / he is comen of a noble blood / and soo we leue hem there tyl on the morne

¶ Capitulum xiiij

¶ Capitulum xiiij

ANd soo on the morne the damoyfel & sir Beaumayns herd maffe & brake their fast / and soo took their leue Fair damoyfel said Perfant whether ward ar ye way ledyng this knyghte / fyr she said this knyghte is goyng to the sege / 5 that befyegeth my syfter in the castel Dangerus / A a sayd per-faunt that is the knyghte of the reed launde / the whiche is the moost peryllous knyghte that I knowe now lyuyng / and a man that is withouten mercy / and men sayen that he hath feuen mens strength / god saue you said he to Beaumayns from þ^t 10 knyghte / for he doth grete wrong to that lady / and that is grete pyte / for she is one of the fairest ladyes of the world / & me semeth that your damoyfel is her suster / is not your name Lynnet said he / ye fir said she / and my lady my susters name is dame Lyonesse / Now shal I telle you said fyr Perfaunt / thys 15 reed knyghte of the reed laund hath layne long at the fyege wel nyghe this two yeres / and many tymes he myghte haue had her and he had wold / but he prolongeth the tyme to thys entent / for to haue fir laūcelot du lake to doo bataill with hym or fir Trystram or fyr Lamerak de galys / or fyre Gawayne / & 20 this is his taryenge soo longe at the fyege / Now my lord fyre Perfaunt of ynde faide the damoyfel Lynet I requyre you that ye wille make this gentilman knyghte or cuer he fyghte with the reed knyghte / I will with all my herte said fyr Perfaunt and it please hym to take the ordre of knyghthode of so sym-25 ple a man as I am / Sire said Beaumayns I thanke you for your good wil / for I am better sped / for certaynly the noble knyght fir Launcelot made me knyght / A said fir Perfant of a more renommed knyghte myghte ye not be made knyghte / For of alle knyghtes he maye be called chyef of knyghthode / & 30 so all the world saith that betwixe thre knyghtes is departed clerly knyghthode / that is laūcelot du lake / fyr Trystram de ly-ones and fir Lamerak de galis / these bere now the renommee / there ben many other knyghtes as fir Palamydes the farasyn and fir Safere his broder / Alfo fir Bleoberys and fire Bla-35 more de ganyis his broder / Alfo fyr Bors de Ganyis & fyr Ector de marys & fir Percyuale de galis / these & many mo ben noble kniȝtes / but ther be none þ^t passe þ^e iij aboue said / therfor god spede you wel said fyr Perfant / for and ye may matche the rede knyghte ye shalle be called the fourth of the world / fir said Beaumayns I wold sayne be of good fame / and of knygh-thode / And I lete you wete I am of good men / for I dare say my fader was a noble man / and soo that ye wil kepe lit 5 in close / and this damoyfel / I wyl telle you of what kyn I am We wille not discouer you said they both tyl ye commaunde vs by the seythe we owe vnto god / ¶ Truly thenne faide he / my name is Gareth of Orkeney and kynge Lot was my fader / & my moder is kynge Arthurs fyfter / her name is Dame Mor- 10 gawfe / and fir Gawayne is my broder / and fir Agrauayne & fir Gaheryes / and I am the yongest of hem alle / And yet wo-te not kyng Arthur nor fir Gawayn what I am

¶ Capitulum xiiij

SOo the book faith / that the lady that was biseged had word of her systers comynge by the dwers and a kn- 15 yghte with her / and how he had passed al the perillous passages / what manere a man is he said the lady / he is a noble kn-yght truly madame said the dwers and but a yong man / but he is as lykely a man as euer ye sawe ony / what is he sayd the damoyfel / and of what kynne is he comen / and of whome 20 was he made knyghte / Madame said the dwers he is the kynges sone of Orkeney / but his name I wille not telle you as at this tyme / but wete ye wel of fyre launcelot was he maade knyght / for of none other wolde he be maade knyghte / and fire kay named hym Beaumayns / how escaped he said the lady 25 from the bretheren of Perfaunt / ¶ Madame he said as a noble knyghte shold / Fyrste he slewe two bretheren att a passage of a water / A faide she they were good knyghtes but they were murtherers / the one hyght Gherard de breusse / & the other kn-yght hyght sir Arnolde le Brewse / thenne madame he recoun- 30 tred with the black knyght / and slewe hym in playne batail & so he toke his hors & his armour & fouzt with the grene kn-yght & wanne hym in playn bataill / & in lyke wyse he serued the reed knyzt / and aftir in the same wyse he serued the blew knyzt & wan hym in playn batail / thēne said the lady he hath 35 ouercome sir Perfaunt of Inde / one of the noblest knyztēs of the world / & þe dwers said he hath wōne al the iiij bretherē & slayn the blak knyght / and yet he dyd more tofore he ouerthrewe fir kay and lefte hym nyghe dede vpon the ground / Also he dyd a grete batayll with fyre launcelot / and there they departed on euen handes / And thenne fyre launcelot made hym knyghte / 5 Dwerf sayd the lady I am gladde of these tydynges / therfor go thou in an hermytage of myn here by / and there shalt thou bere with the of my wyn in two flagans of siluer / they ar of two galons / and also two cast of brede with fatte venefon bake and deynte foules / and a cop of gold here I delyuer the / 10 that is ryche and precyous and bere all this to myn hermytage / and put it in the hermytes handes / And sythen go thou vnto my syfter and grete her wel / and commaunde me vnto that gentyl knyghte / and praye hym to ete and to drynke and make hym stronge / and say ye hym I thanke hym of his curto-15 fyre and goodenes that he wold take vpon hym suche labour for me that neuer dyd hym bounte nor curtosye / ¶ Also pray hym that he be of good herte & courage / for he shalle mete with a ful noble knyghte / but he is neyther of bounte / curtosye / nor gentylnes / for he attendyth vnto nothyng but to murther / & 20 that is the cause I can not prayse hym nor loue hym / So this dwerf departed / and came to fyre Persant where he fond the damoyfel lynet and fyr Beaumayns / and there he tolde hem alle as ye haue herd / and thenne they took theyr leue / but fyr Persant took an ambelyng hacney and conueyed hem on the-25 yr wayes / And thenne beleste hem to god / and soo within a lytil whyle they came to that heremytage / and there they dra-nke the wyne / and ete the venefon and the foules baken / And so whan they had repasted hem wel / the dwerf retorned ageyn with his vessel vn to the castel ageyne / and there mette 30 with hym the reed knyght of the reed laundes / and asked hym from whens that he came / and where he had ben / Syr fa-yd the dwerf I haue ben with my ladyes syfter of this castel and she hath ben at kyng Arthurs courte / and broughte a knyghte with her / thenne I accompte her trauaille but loste / 35 For though she had broughte with her fyre launcelot / sir Tryftram / syr Lamerak or syr gawayne / I wold thinke my selfe good ynough for them all / it may well be said the dwerf / but this knyghte hath passed alle the peryllous passages & slayn the black knyghte and other two mo / and wonne the grene knyght / the reed knyghte and the blewe knyghte / thenne is he one of these four that I haue afore reherced / He is none of tho said the dwerf / but he is a kynges sone / what is his name fa-yd the reed knyght of the reed laund / that wille I not telle 5 you feyd the dwerf / but fire kay upon sorne named hym Beaumayns / I care not said the knyght what knyghte foo euer he be / for I shal soone delyuer hym / And yf I euer matche hym he shalle haue a shameful dethe as many other haue had that were pyte sayd the dwerf / And it is merueill that ye ma- 10 ke suche shameful warre vpon noble knyghtes

¶ Capitulum xv

Too leue we the knyghte and the dwerf / and speke we of Beaumayns that al nyzt lay in the hermytage / & vpon the morne he and the damoyfel lynet herd their masse / and brake their fast / And thenne they toke theyr horses / and 15 rode thorou oute a fair forest / and thenne they came to a play-ne and sawe where were many paelions and tentys / and a fayr castel / and there was moche smoke and grete noyse / and whanne they came nere the sege / fyr Beaumayns aspyed vp-on grete trees as he rode / how there henge ful goodly armed 20 knyghtes by the neck and their sheldes aboute their neckys with their swardes / and gylt spores vpon their heles / and foo there henge nyghe a fourty knyghtes shamefully with ful ry-che armes / Thenne sir Beaumayns abated his countenaunce & sayd what meneth this / Fayre fyre said the damoyfel abate not 25 your chere for all this fyghte / for ye must courage your self or els ye ben al shente / for all these knyghtes came hyder to this sege to rescowe my syster Dame lyones / and whanne the reede knyghte of the reed laund hadde ouercome hem / he putte them to this shameful dethe withoute mercy and pyte / And in the 30 same wyse he wyll serue you / but yf ye quyte you the better Now Ihesu deffende me said Beaumayns from suche a vylaynous dethe and shenship of armes / For rather than I sholde so be faren with all / I wolde rather be slayn manly in playn bataille / Soo were ye better said the damoyfel / for trust not in hym is no curtosye but alle goth to the deth or shameful mur-ther / and that is pyte / for he is a ful lykely man / wel made of body / and a ful noble knyghte of prowesse and a lorde 5 of grete laundes and possessions / Truly said Beaumayns / he may wel be a good knyghte / but he vseth shameful customs and it is merueylle that he endureth so longe that none of the noble knyghtes of my lord Arthurs haue not delt with hym And thenne they rode to the dykes and sawe them double dy-10 ked with ful warly wallis / and there were lodged many grete lordes nyghe the wallys / and there was grete noyse of mynstralsy / and the fee betyd vpon the one syde of the walles where were many shippes and maryners noyse with hale & how And also there was fast by a Sykamore tree / and ther henge 15 an horne the grettest that euer they sawe of an Olyfantes bone / and this knyght of the reed laund had hanged it vp ther that yf ther came ony arraunt knyghte / he muste blowe that horne / and thenne wyll he make hym redy & come to hym to doo bataille / But fyr I pray you said the damoyfel Lynet blo-20 we ye not the horne tyl it be hyghe none / for now it is aboute pryme / & now encreaced his myghte / that as men say he hath seuen mens strengthe / A fy for shame fair damoifel say ye neuer soo more to me / For and he were as good a knyghte as euer was I shalle neuer sayle hym in his moost myghte / for 25 outhur I wille wynde worship worshipfully or dye knyghte-ly in the felde / and ther with he spored his hors streyghte to the Sykamore tree / and blewe soo the horne egerly that alle the sege and the castel range therof / And thenne there lepte oute knyghtes oute of their tentys and pavelions / and they 30 within the castel looked ouer the wallis and oute att wyndowes / Thenne the reed knyghte of the reed laundes armed hym hastely / and two barons sette on his spores vpon his heles / and alle was blood reed his armour spere and shelde / And an Erle buced his helme vpon his hede / and thenne they bro-35 ughte hym a rede spere and a rede stede / and soo he rode into a lytyl vale vnder the castel / that al that were in the castel and at the sege myghte behold the bataill

¶ Capitulum xvi]

Eyre fayd the damoyfel Lynet vnto fyr Beaumayns loke ye be gladde and lyght / for yonder is your dedely enemy / and at yonder wyndowe is my lady fyfter dame Lyones / where fayd Beaumayns / yonder said the damoyfel & poynted with her fynger / that is trouthe fayd Beaumayns / 5 She befemeth a ferre the fayrest lady that euer I loked vpon and truly he said I aske no better quarel than now for to do bataylle / for truly she shalle be my lady / and for her I wylle fyghte / And euer he loked vp to the wyndowe with gladde countenance / And the lady Lyones made curtosy to hym do- 10 une to the erthe with holdyng vpon bothe their handes / Wyth that the reed knyghte of the reed laundes callid to fyr Beaumayns / leue fyr knyghte thy lokyng / and behold me I cou-ceille the / for I warne the wel she is my lady / and for her I haue done many stronge batails / Yf thou haue so done said Be- 15 aumayns / me semeth it was but waste labour / for she loueth none of thy selauship / and thou to loue that loueth not the / is but grete folly / For and I vnderstode that she were not glad of my comyng / I wold be auyfed or I dyd bataille for her / But I vnderstande by the syegyng of this castel she may for- 20 bere thy selauship / And therfor wete thou wel thou rede knyghte of the reed laundes / I loue her / and wille refcowe her or els to dye / Saist thou that said the reed knyghte / me semeth / thou oughte of refon to beware by yonder knyghtes that thou sawest hange vpon yonder trees / Fy for shame said Beauma- 25 yns that euer thou sholdest faye or do so cuyl / for in that thou shamest thy self and knyghthode / and thou mayst be sure ther wylle no lady loue the that knoweth thy wycked custommes And now thou wenest that the fyghte of these hanged knyghtes shold fere me / Nay truly not so / that shameful fyght cau- 30 seth me to haue courage and hardynes ageynste the more than I wold haue had ageynst the / and thou were a wel ruled knyght / make the redy said the reed knyghte of the reed laūdes / and talke no lenger with me / Thenne fyre Beaumayns badde the damoyfel goo from hym / and thenne they putte their 35 speres in their reystes and came to gyders with alle their myst that they had bothe / and eyther smote other in myddes of their sheldes that the paytrellys / surfenglys and crowpers brafte / and felle to the erthe bothe / and the reynys of their brydels in their handes / and soo they laye a grete whyle fore stonyed 5 that al that were in the castel and in the sege wende their nec-kes had ben broken / and thenne many a straunger and other sayd the straunge knyzt was a bygge man / and a noble Iufter / for or now we sawe neuer noo knyghte matche the reed knyghte of the reed laundes / thus they sayd bothe within the 10 castel and withoute / thenne lyghtly they auoyded theyr horses and put their sheldes afore them / and drewe their swardes and ranne to gyders lyke two fyers lyons / and eyther gafe other suche buffets vpon their helmes that they relyd backward bothe two strydys / and thenne they recouerd bothe and hewe 15 grete pyeces of thaire harnais and thaire sheldes / that a grete parte felle in to the feldes

¶ Capitulum xvij

ANd thenne thus they foughte tyl it was past none / and neuer wold stynte tyl att the laste they lacked wynde bothe / and thēne they stode wagyng and scateryng pon-20 tyng / blowyng and bledyng that al that behelde them for the moost party wepte for pyte / Soo whan they had reftyd them a whyle / they yede to bataille ageyne / tracyng racyng soynyng as two bores / And at some tyme they toke their renne as hit had ben two rammys & hurtled to gyders that fomytyme they 25 felle grouelyng to the erthe / And at fomytyme they were so amafed that eyther took others swerd in stede of his owne / Thus they endured tyl euenfong tyme / that there was none that beheld them myghte knowe whether was lyke to wynde the bataill / and their armour was so fer hewen that men myzt 30 see their naked sydes / and in other places / they were naked / but euer the naked places they dyd defende / and the reed kn-yghte was a wyly knyght of werre / and his wyly fyghtyng taughte fyr Beaumayns to be wyfe / but he aboughte hit fulle fore or he dyd aspye his fyghtyng / And thus by assente of 35 them bothe they graunted eyther other to rest / and so they sette hem doune vpon two molle hylles there besydes the fyghtyng place / and eyther of hem vnlaced his helme / and toke the cold wynde / for either of their pages was fast by them to come whā they called to vnlace their harneis and to fette hem on ageyn at their commaundement / And thenne whan syr Beaumayns 5 helme was of / he loked vp to the wyndowe / and there he sawe the faire lady Dame Lyones / and she made hym suche countenaunce that his herte waxed lyghte and Ioly / and ther with he bad the reed knyghte of the reed laundes make hym redy and lete vs doo the bataille to the vtteraunce / I will wel fa- 10 id the knyghte / and thenne they laced vp their helmes / and their pages auoyded / & they stepte to gyders & foughte fresshely / but the reed knyghte of the reed laundes awayted hym / & at an ouerthwart smote hym within the hand / that his swerd felle oute of his hand / and yet he gaf hym another buf- 15 fet vpon the helme that he felle grouelynge to the erthe / & the reed knyghte felle ouer hym / for to holde hym doune / Thenne cryed the maiden Lynet on hyghe / O syr Beaumayns where is thy courage become / Allas my lady syster beholdeth the and she sobbeth and wepeth / that maketh myn herte heuy / when 20 syr Beaumayns herd her saye soo / he abrayed vp with a grete myght and gate hym vpon his feet / and lyghtely he lepte to his swerd and gryped hit in his hand and doubled hys paas vnto the reed knyghte and there they foughte a newe ba-taille to gyder / But sir Beaumayns thenne doubled his stro- 25 kes / and smote soo thyck that he smote the swerd oute of his hand / and thenne he smote hym vpon the helme that he felle to the erthe / and sir Beaumayns felle vpon hym / and vnlaced his helme to haue slayne hym / and thenne he yelded hym and asked mercy / and said with a lowde vois O noble knyghte 30 I yelde me to thy mercy / Thenne syr Beaumayns bethoughte hym vpon the knyghtes that he had made to be hanged shamefully / and thenne he said I may not with my worship faue thy lyf / for the shameful dethes that thou hast caused many ful good knyghtes to dye / Syre faide the reed knyghte of the 35 reed laundes hold your hand and ye shalle knowe the causes why I put hem to so shameful a dethe / faye on said sir Beaumayns / Syre I loued ones a lady a faire damoysel / and she had her broder slayne / and she said hit was fyr launcelot du lake / or els fyr gawayn / and she praide me as that I loued her hertely that I wold make her a promyse by the feith of my knyghthode for to laboure dayly in armes vnto I mette wyth 5 one of them / and alle that I myghte ouercome I shold putte them vnto a vylaynous dethe / and this is the cause that I haue putte alle these knyghtes to dethe / and foo I enured her to do alle the vylony vnto kynge Arthurs knyghtes / and that I shold take vengeaunce vpon alle these knyghtes and fyr now 10 I wille the telle that euery daye my strengthe encreaceth tyll none / and al this tyme haue I feuen mens strengthe

¶ Capitulum xviij

THenne came ther many Erles and Barons and noble knyghtes and praid that knyghte to faue his lyf and take hym to your pryfoner / And all they felle vpon the-15 ir knees and prayd hym of mercy / and that he wolde faue his lyf / and fyr they all sayd it were fairer of hym to take homage and feaute / and lete hym holde his landes of you than for to flee hym / by his deth ye shal haue none auantage and his mysdedes that ben done maye not ben vndone / And ther-20 for he shal make amendys to al partyes & we al wil become your men and doo you homage and feaute / Fayre lordes said Beaumayns / wete you wel I am ful lothe to flee this knyght neuertheles he hath done passyng ylle and shamefully / But in foo moche al that he dyd was at a ladyes request I blame 25 hym the lesse / and so for your sake I wil releace hym that he shal haue his lyf vpon this couenaunt / that he goo within the castel / and yelde hym there to the lady / And yf she wil forgy-ue and quyte hym / I wil wel / with this he make her amendys of al the trespas he hath done ageynst her and her landes / 30 ¶ And also whanne that is done that ye goo vnto the courte of kyng Arthur / and there that ye aske fyr Launcelot mercy / & fyr Gawayn for the euyl wil ye haue had ageynst them / sire said the reed knyght of the reed laundes / al this wil I do as ye commaunde / and fyker assuraunce and borowes ye shal ha-35 ue / And foo thenne whan the assuraunce was made / he made his homage and feaute / and alle tho erles and barons wyth hym / And thenne the mayden Lynet came to fyre Beauma-yns / and vnarmed hym and ferched his woundes / and flynted his blood / and in lyke wyfe she dyd to the rede knyghte of the reed laundes / and there they sojourned ten dayes in 5 their tentes / and the reed knyghte made his lordes and seruuntes to doo alle the pleasyre that they myghte vnto fyre Beaumayns / And soo within a whyle the reed knyghte of the reed laundes yede vnto the castel / and putte hym in her grace And soo she receyued hym vpon suffysaunt seurte / so alle her 10 hurtes were wel restored of al that she coude complayne / and thenne he departed vnto the Courte of kynge Arthur / and there openly the reed knyghte of the reed laundes putte hym in the mercy of fyre Launcelot and fyr Gawayne / and there he told openly how he was ouercome and by whome / and al- 15 so he told alle the batails from the begynnyng vnto the en-dyng / Ihesu mercy sayd kynge Arthur and sire Gawayne we merueyille moche of what blood he is come / for he is a noble knyghte / Haue ye no merucille faide sire Launcelot / for ye shal ryght wel wete that he is comen of a ful noble blood / 20 and as for his myghte and hardynes ther ben but fewe now lyuynge that is so myghty as he is / and so noble of prowesse It semeth by yow said kynge Arthur that ye knowe his name / and fro whens he is come / and of what blood he is / I suppose I doo so said Launcelot / or els I wold not haue yeuen 25 hym thordre of kny3thode / but he gaf me sliche charge at that tyme that I shold neuer discouer hym vntyl he requyred me or els it be knownen openly by some other

¶ Capitulum xix

Now torne we vnto fyr Beaumayns that desyred of Lynet that he myght see her syster his lady / Syre she 30 said I wold sayne ye sawe her / Thenne fyr Beaumayns al armed hym and toke his hors and his spere and rode strey3t vnto the castel / And whanne he cam to the gate he fond there many men armed and pulled vp the drawe brydge / & drewe the porte cloofe / ¶ Thenne merueilled he why they wold not suffre hym to entre / And thenne he loked vp to the wyndow And there he fawe the fair Lyones that faid on hyghe go thy way / fyr Beaumayns / for as yet thou shalt not haue holy 5 my loue vnto the tyme that thou be callyd one of the nombre of the worthy knyghtes / And thierfor goo laboure in worship this twelue monethe / and thenne thou shalt here newe tydynges / Allas faire lady faid Beaumayns I haue not deserued that ye shold shewe me this straungenes / and I had wend 10 that I shold haue ryght good chere with you and vnto my power I haue deserued thanke / and wel I am sure I haue boughte your loue with parte of the best blood within my body Fayre curteis knyghte faid Dame Lyones / be not displeafyd nor ouer hasty / for wete you wel / your grete trauaill nor go-15 od loue shal not be lost / for I confydre your grete trauail & labour / your bounte and your goodenes as me oughte to doo / And therfore goo on your wey / and loke that ye be of good comforte for all shal be for your worship / and for the best / & perde a twelue moneth wille soone be done / and trust me fair 20 knyghte I shal be true to you and neuer te bitraye you / but to my dethe I shalle loue you / and none other / And ther with alle she torned her from the wyndowe / and fyr Beaumayns rode away ward from the castel makynge grete dole / and soo he rode here and there & wyfte not ne where he rode tyl hit was 25 derke nyghte / And thenne it happend hym to come to a poure mans hous and there he was herborowed all that nyghte / But fyr Beaumayns hadde no rest but walowed and wrythed for the loue of the lady of the castel / And soo vpon the morowe he took his hors and rode vn tyl vnderne / and theñe 30 he came to a brode water / and there by was a grete lodge / and there he alyghte to slepe and leid his hede vpon the shelde / and bitoke his hors to the dwarf / and commaunded hym to watche al nyghte / Now torne we to the lady of the fame castel / that thoughte moche vpon Beaumayns / and thenne she called 35 vnto her fyr Gryngamore her broder / and praid hym in al maner as he loued her hertely that he wold ryde after fyr Beaumayns / and euer haue ye wayte vpon hym tyl ye may synde hym slepynge / for I am sure in his heuynes he wil alyȝt down in some place / and leye hym doune to slepe / And therfor haue ye your wayte vpon hym / and in the preuyest manere ye can take his dwerf / and go ye your waye with hym as faste as euer ye maye or fyr Beaumayns awake / For my syfter Lynet telleth me that he can telle of what kynreed he is come / 5 and what is his ryghte name / And the meane whyle I and my syfter wille ryde vnto youre castel to awayte whanne ye brynge with you the dwerf / And thenne whan ye haue broughte hym vnto youre Castel / I wylle haue hym in examination my self / vnto the tyme that I knowe what is his ryghte name / and of what kynreed he is come / shalle I neuer be mery at my herte

¶ Syfter said fyre Gryngamore alle thys shalle be done after your entente / And soo he rode alle the other daye and the nyghte tyll that he fond fyre Beaumayns lyenge by a water and his hede vpon his shelde 15 for to slepe /

¶ And thenne whanne he sawe fyre Beaumayns fast on slepe / he cam styllly stalkyng behynde the dwerf and plucked hym fast vnder his arme / and soo he rode awaye with hym as faste as euer he myght vnto his owne castel And this fyre Gryngamors armes were alle black and that 20 to hym longeth / But euer as he rode with the dwerf toward his castel / he cryed vnto his lord / and prayd hym for helpe / And there with awoke fyre Beaumayns / and vp he lepte lyghtly / & sawe where the Gryngamor rode his waye with the dwerf / and soo fyr Gryngamor rode oute of his syghte / 25

¶ Capitulum ix

THenne fyre Beaumayns putte on his helme anonc / and buckeled his shelde / and tooke his hors / and rode after hym alle that euer he myghte ryde thorou marys and feldes and grete dales / that many tymes his hors and he plonged ouer the hede in depe myres / for he knewe not 30 the wey / but took the gaynest waye in that woodenes that many tymes he was lyke to peryfthe / And at the laste hym happend to come to a fayre grene waye And there he mette with a poure man of the countreye whom he sawewd & asked hym / whether he mette not with a knyghte vpon a black hors & all black harneis a lytel dwerf fyttynge behynde hym with heuyn chere / Syre faide this poure man here by me came fyre Gryngamor the knyght with fuche a dwerf mornynge as ye faye / & 5 therefore I rede you not folowe hym / For he is one of the peryllouft knyghtes of the world / and his castel is here nyhe hand but two myle / therfor we aduise you ryde not after fyr Gryngamor but yf ye owe hym good wille / Soo leue we fyre Beaumayns rydyng toward the castel and speke we of fir 10 Gryngamor and the dwerf / Anone as the dwerf was come to the castel / dame Lyones and dame Lynet her fyfter asked the dwerf where was his maister borne / and of what lygnage he was come / And but yf thou telle me said dame Lyones thou shalt neuer escape this castel / but euer here to be pryfoner 15 As for that said the dwerf I fere not gretely to telle his name and of what kynne he is come / Wete ye wel he is a kynges fone / and his moder is fyfter to kyng Arthur / and he is broder to the good knyghte of fyre Gawayne / and his name is fyre Gareth of Orkeney / and now I haue told you his ry-20 ght name / I praye you fayre lady lete me goo to my lord a-geyne / for he wille neuer oute of this countrey vntyl that he haue me ageyne / And yf he be angry / he wil doo moche harme or that he be stynte / and worche you wrake in this countray As for that thretyng sayd fyr Gryngamore be it as it be may 25 We wille goo to dyner / and soo they waffhed and wente to mete / and made hem mery and wel at ease / by cause the lady Lyones of the castel was there / they made grete Ioye ¶ Truly Madame sayd Lynet vnto her fyfter wel maye he be a kynges fone / for he hath many good tatches on hym / for he 30 is curteis and mylde and the moost sufferynge man that euer I mette with al / For I dar faye ther was neuer gentylwo-man reuldyd man in soo foule a manere / as I haue rebuked hym / And at all tymes he gaf me goodely and meke anfuers ageyne

¶ And as they fate thus talky-35 nge / ther came sire Gareth in at the gate with an angry countenaunce and his swerd drawn in his hand / and cryed aloude that alle the castel myȝt here hit fayeng thou traitour fyre Gryngamor delyuer me my dwerf ageyn / or by the feith that I owe to the ordre of knyghthode I shal doo the al the harme that I can / Thenne fyr Gryngamor loked oute at a wyndow and said fyr gareth of Orkeney leue thy bofying wordes / for thou getest not thy dwerf ageyne / Thou coward knyghte sayd 5 fyr Gareth brynge hym with the / and come and doo bataylle with me / and wynne hym and take hym / So wille I do faid fyr Gryngamor and me lyft / but for: al thy grete wordes thou getest hym not / A fayr broder said dame Lyones I wold he had his dwerf ageyne / for I wold he were not wroth / for 10 now he hath told me al my defyre I kepe nomore of the dwerf And also broder he hath done moche for me / and delyuerd me from the reed knyghte of the reed laundes / and therfor broder I owe hym my seruyse afore al knyghtes lyuynge / And wete ye wel that I loue hym before al other / and ful fayne I 15 wold speke with hym / But in no wyfe I wold that he wist what I were / but that I were another straunge lady / Wel faid fyr Gryngamor sythen I knowe now your wille / I wylle obeye now vnto hym / And ryght ther with al he wente doun vnto fyr Gareth / and said fyr I crye you mercy / and al that 20 I haue myfdone I wille amend hit at your wille / And therfore I pray you that ye wold alyghte / and take suehe chere as I can make you in this castel / Shal I haue my dwerfe faide fyre Gareth / ye fyr / and alle the pleasaunce that I can make you / for as soone as your dwerf told me what ye we- 25 re and of what blood ye ar come / and what noble dedes ye haue done in these marches / thenne I repentyd of my dedes / And thenne fyre Gareth alyghte / and ther came his dwerf & took his hors / O my felawe said fyr gareth / I haue had many aduentures for thy sake / And soo fyre Gryngamor tooke 30 hym by the hand / and ledde hym in to the halle where his own wyf was

¶ Capitulum xxij

And thenne came forth Dame Lyones arayed lyke a prynceffe / and there she made hym passyng good chere and he her ageyne / and they had goodely langage & louely countenaunce to gyder / And fyre Gareth thought many tymes Ihesu wold that the lady of the castel perillous were fo fayre as she was / there were al maner of games & playes of dauncyng and syngyng / And euer the more fyre Gareth bihelde that lady / the more he loued her / and so he brenned in loue that he was past hym self in his reason / and forth toward nyghte they yede vnto souper / and fyre Gareth myghte not ete for his loue was soo hote / that he wist not where he was Alle these lokes aspyed fyr Gryngamor / and thenne at after souper he callid his syster Dame Lyones vnto a chamber / and sayd / fair syster I haue wel aspyed your couënaunce betwixe you and this knyght / And I wil syster that ye wete he is a ful noble knygt / & yf ye can make hym to abyde here I wil do hym all the pleasyr þ^t I can / for & ye were better than ye ar ye were wel bywaryd vpon hym / Fayre broder said Dame lyones I vnderstande wel that the knyghte is good & come he is of a noble hous / Notwithstandyng I wille assaye hym better how be it I am moost beholdyng to hym of ony erthely mā for he hath had grete labour for my loue / and passid many a daungerous passage / Ryght soo fyr Gryngamor wente vnto fyr Gareth and said fyre make ye good chere / for ye shal haue none other cause / for this lady my syster is yours at al tymes her worship faued / for wete ye wel she loueth you as wel as ye doo her and better / yf better may be / And I wist that faid fyr Gareth / ther lyued not a gladder man than I wold be Vpon my worship said fyr Gryngamor trust vnto my promyse And as long as it lyketh you ye shal soiourne with me and this lady shal be with vs dayly and nyghtly to make yow alle the chere that she can / I wille wel said fyre Gareth / For I haue promysed to be nyghe this countrey this twelue mo-neth / And wel I am sure kynge Arthur and other noble knyghtes wille fynde me where that I am within this twelue moneth / For I shal be foughte and founden yf that I be on lyue ¶ And thenne the noble knyghte fyre Gareth wente vnto the dame Lyones whiche he thēne moche loued / & kyft her many tymes / and eyther made grete Ioye of other / And there she promysed hym her loue certaynly to loue hym and none other the dayes of hyr lyf / Thenne this lady dame Lyones by the affente of her broder told fyr Gareth alle the trouth what she was / And how she was the same lady that he dyd batail 5 for / and how she was lady of the castel peryllous / and there she told hym how she caused her broder to take away his dwerf

¶ Capitulum xxij

TOr this cause to knowe the certaynte what was your name / and of what kynne ye were come / And thenne she lete fetch tofore hym Lynet the damoyfel that had 10 ryden with hym many wylfome wayes / Thenne was fyre Gareth more gladder than he was to fore / And thēne they trouth-plyte eche other to loue / and neuer to faylle whyles their lyfe lasteth / And foo they brente bothe in loue that they were accorded to abate their lustes secretely / And there Dame Lyones 15 counceylled fyr Gareth to slepe in none other place but in the halle / And there she promysed hym to come to his bedde a ly-tel afore mydnyght / This counceil was not foo pryuely kepte but it was vnderstande / for they were but yonge bothe and ten-dyr of age / and had not vsed none fuche craftes to forne / 20 Wherfor the damoyfel Lynet was a lytel displeasyd / and she thoughte her syster Dame Lyones was a lytel ouer hasty / that she myghte not abyde the tyme of her maryage / And for sauynge their worship / she thoughte to abate their hote lustes /

¶ And so she lete ordeyne by her subtyl craftes that they had 25 not their ententes neyther with other as in her delytes / vntyl they were maryed / And foo it past on / At after souper was made clene auoydaunce / that euery lord and lady shold goo vnto his rest / But fyr Gareth said playnly he wold goo noo ferther than the halle / for in fuche places he said was conuenient 30 for an arraunt knyght to take his rest in / and so there were or-deyned grete couches / & theron fether beddes / & there leyde hym doune to slepe / & within a while cam dame Lyones wrapped in a mantel furred with Ermyne & leid her down besydes fyr gareth / And there with alle he beganne to kyffe her / And thenne 35 he loked afore hym and there he apperceuyued and sawe come an armed knyght with many lyghtes aboute hym / and fawe come an armed knyzt with many lyghtes about hym / & this knyghte had a longe Gyfarme in his hand / and maade grym countenaunce to smyte hym / Whanne fyre Gareth fawe hym come in that wyfe / he lepte oute of his bedde and gate in 5 his hand his fwerd and lepte straye toward that knyght / And whanne the knyght fawe fyr Gareth come fo fyerfly vp-on hym / he smote hym with a foyne thorou the thycke of the thyz that the wound was a shaftmon brode and had cutte a-two many vaynes and fenewes / And there with al fyr Ga-10 reth smote hym vpon the helme fuche a buffet that he felle gro-uelyng / and thenne he lepte ouer hym and vnaced his helme and smote of his hede fro the body / And thenne he bledde fo fast that he myghte not stande / but soo he leid hym down vpon his bedde / and there he fwound and laye as he had ben dede 15 Thenne dame Lyones cryed alowde / that her broder fyr Gryngamor herd / and came doune / And whan he fawe fyr Gareth soo shamefully wounded / he was fore displeasyd and sayd I am shamed that this noble knyghte is thus honoured / Syr fa-yd fyr Gryngamore hou may this be / that ye be here / and thys 20 noble knyghte wounded / Broder she said I can not telle yow For it was not done by me nor by myn assente / For he is my lord and I am his / and he must be myn husband / therfore my broder I wille that ye wete I shame me not to be with hym / nor to doo hym alle the pleasyr that I can / Syster said fyre 25 Gryngamore / and I will that ye wete it and fyr Gareth both that it was neuer done by me nor by my assente that this vn-happy dede was done / And there they staunched his bledynge as wel as they myght / and grete sorou made fir Gryngamor and Dame Lyones / And forthe with al came Dame Lynet 30 and toke vp the hede in the fyghte of hem alle / and enoynted it with an oyntement there as it was smyten of / and in the same wyfe she dyd to the other parte there as the hede stak / And thenne she fette it to gyders / and it stak as fast as euer it did And the knyghte arofe lyghtely vp / and the damoyfel Lynet 35 put hym in her chambre / Alle this fawe fir Gryngamor and dame Lyones / and soo dyd fir Gareth / and wel he espyed that it was the damoyfel Lynet that rode with hym thorou the peryllous passages / A wel damoyfel said fyre Gareth I wende wold not haue done as ye haue done / My lord Gareth said Lynet / alle that I haue done I will auowe / and alle that I haue done shal be for youre honoure and worship / and to vs alle / And foo within a whyle fyr Gareth was nyghe hole / & waxid lyghte and Iocounde / and fange / daunced and ga- 5 med / and he and dame Lyones were foo hote in brennyng loue that they made their couenaunte at the tenth nyghte after that she shold come to his bedde / And by cause he was wouided afore / he laid his armour / and his fwerd nyghe his beddes fyde

¶ Capitulum xliij

RYght as she promysed she came / and she was not foo foone in his bedde / but she aspyed an armed knyghte comyng toward the bedde / there with alle she warned fyr Gareth / and lyghtly thorou the good helpe of Dame Lyones he was armed / and they hurtled to gyders with grete Ire & ma- 15 lyce al aboute the halle / and there was grete lyght as it had ben the nombre of xx torches bothe before and behynd / foo that fyr Gareth strayned hym / foo that his old wounde brafte a-geyne on bledyng / but he was hote and couragious and to-ke no kepe / but with his grete force he stroke doune that kny- 20 ghte / and voyded his helme / and strake of his hede / Thenne he hewe the hede in an honderd pyeces / And whan he had done so he took vp alle tho pyeces and threwe hem oute at a wyndow in to the dyches of the castel / and by this done / he was so faynt that vnuethes he myght stande for bledyng / And by thenne he 25 was al most vnarmed / he felle in a dedely swoune in the flo-re / And thenne dame Lyones cryed foo that fyr Gryngamor herd / And whan he cam and fond fyr Gareth in that plyte he made grete forou / & there he awaked fir Gareth / and gaf hym a drynke that releued hym wonderly wel / but the forou that 30 Dame Lyones made there maye no tonge telle / for she foo faryd with her felf as she wold haue dyed / ¶ Ryghte foo cam this damoyfel Lynet before hem al / and she had fette alle the goblets of the hede that fyr Gareth had throwen out at a wyndowe / and there she enoynted hem as she had done to fore / & set them to gyder ageyn / wel damoifel Lynet said fyre Gareth /

I haue not deserued alle this despyte that ye doo vnto me / fir knyghte she said / I haue no thyng do / but I will auowe / And al that I haue done shalle be to your worship and to vs al / And thenne was fyre Gareth staunched of his bledying 5 But the leches said / that ther was no man that bare the lyf / sholde hele hym thorou oute of his wounde / but yf they heled hym that caused that stroke by enchauntement / So leue we fyr Gareth there with fyr Gryngamore and his fyfters / and tor-ne we vnto kyng Arthur that at the nexte feest of Pentecost 10 helde his feest / and there cam the grene knygt with fyfty kny-ghtes / and yelded hem all vnto kyng Arthur / And so there came the reed knyghte his broder / and yelded hym to kyng Arthur and thre score knyghtes with hym / Also there came the blewe knyghte broder to them with an honderd knyghtes / & 15 yelded hem vnto kyng Arthur / and the grene knyghtes name was Partolype / and the reed knyghtes name was Pe-rymones / and the blewe knyghtes name was fyr Persant of Inde / these thre bretheren told kyng Arthur how they were ouercome by a knyghte that a damoyfel had with her / and 20 called hym Beaumayns / Ihesu sayd the kyng I merueylle what knyghte he is / and of what lygnage he is come / He was with me a twelue monethe / and pourely and shamefully he was fostred / and fyre kay in sorne named hym Beaumayns / Soo ryghte as the kyng stode soo talkyng with 25 these thre bretheren / there came fyr Launcelot du lake and told the kyng that there was come a goodly lord with vj C knghtes with hym / thenne the kyng wente oute of Carlyon / for there was the feest / and there came to hym this lord / and fawed the kyng in a goodly manere / What wylle ye sayd 30 kyng Arthur / and what is youre erand / Syr he said my na-name is the reed knyghte of the reed laundes / but my name is fyr Ironfyde / and fyre wete ye wel / here I am sente to yow / of a knyght that is called Beaumayns / for he wanne me in playne bataille hande for hand / and soo dyd neuer no kny-35 ght but he that euer had the better of me this xxx wynter / the whiche commaunded to yelde me to yow at youre wylle / ye are welcom said the kyng / for ye haue ben long a grete foo to me and my Courte / and now I truste to god I shalle foo entreate you that ye shal be my frend / Syre / bothe I and these fyue honderd knyghtes shal alweyes be at your somons to doo you seruyse as maye lye in oure powers / Ihesu mercy said kyng Arthur I am moche beholdynge vnto that knyght / that hath put foo his body in deuoyre to worshippe me & my 5 Courte / And as to the Ironsyde that art called the reed kn-yghte of the reed laundes thou arte called a peryllous knyzt And yf thou wylt holde of me I shal worshippe the and make the knyghte of the table round / but thenne thou must be no more a murtherer / Syre as to that I haue promysed vnto 10 fyre Beaumayns neuer more to vse fuche custommes / for all the shameful customes that I vsed I dyd at the request of a lady that I loued / and therfor I must goo vnto fyr Laun-celot and vnto fyre Gawayne / and aske them foryeuenes of the euyll wyll I had vnto them / for alle that I put to deth 15 was al only for the loue of fyr Launcelot and of fyr Gawayne / They ben here now said the kynge afore the / now maye ye faye to them what ye wyll / And thenne he kneled doune vnto fyre Launcelot and to fyre Gawayne and prayd them of foryeuenes of his enemytee that euer he had ageynste them / 20

¶ Capitulum xxiij

THenne goodely they said al at ones / god foryeue you and we do / and praye you that ye will telle vs where we may fynde fyr Beaumayns / Fayre lordes said fyr Ironsyde I can not telle you / for it is ful hard to fynde hym / for fuche yong knyghtes as he is one / whanne they be in their ad- 25 uentures ben neuer abydyng in no place / ¶ But to faye the worship that the reed knyghte of the reed laundes and fyr per-faunt and his broder said of Beaumayns / it was merueil to here / Wel my fayre lordes said kynge Arthur / wete yow wel / I shalle do you honour for the loue of fyr Beaumayns / and 30 as soone as euer I mete with hym I shalle make you al vp-on one day knyghtes of the table round / And as to the fyre Perfaunt of Inde thou hast ben euer called a ful noble knyghte / and foo haue euer ben thy thre bretheren called / But I merueil said the kyng that I here not of the black knyzt your 35 broder / he was a ful noble knyghte / Syr sayd Pertolype the grene knyȝt fyr Beaumayns flewe hym in a recoûtre with his spere / his name was fyr Perard / that was grete pyte sayd the kyng and foo faid many knyghtes / For theſe four brethe-5 ren were ful wel knowen in the courte of kyng Arthur for noble knyghtes / for long tyme they had holden werre ageynſt the knyghtes of the round table / Thenne sayd Pertolepe the grene knyghte to the kyng atte a paſſage of the water of mortayſe there encountred fyr Beaumayns with two brethe-10 ren that euer for the moost party kepte that paſſage / and they were two dedely knyghtes / and there he flewe the eldeſt broder in the water / and fmote hym vpon the heede ſuche a buſſet that he ſelle doune in the water / and there he was drowned / & his name was fir Garard le brewſe / and after he flewe the other 15 broder vpon the lond / his name was fyr Arnold le brewſe /

¶ Capitulum xxvi

So thenne the kyng and they wente to mete / and were ſerued in the beſt manere / And as they ſatte at the mete / ther came in the quene of Orkency with ladyes & knyȝtes a grete nombre / And thenne fyr Gawayn / fyr Agraun-20 yn and Gaherys aroſe / and wente to her / and ſalewed her vp- on their knees / and aſked her blyſſyng / For in xv yere they had not ſene her / Thenne ſhe ſpak on hyghe to her broder kyng Arthur / where haue ye done my yong ſone fyr Gareth / he was here amongſt you a twelue moneth / & ye made a kechyn kna-25 ue of hym / the whiche is ſhame to you all / Allas where haue ye done my dere ſone that was my Ioye and blyſſe / O dere moder ſaid fyr Gawayn I knewe hym not / Nor I ſaid the kyng that now me repenteth / but thanked be god he is preued a worſhipful knyghte as ony is now lyuyng of his yeres / & 30 I ſhal neuer be glad tyl I may fynde hym / A broder ſayd the quene vnto kyng Arthur and vnto fyr Gawayne and to alle her ſones / ye dyd your ſelf grete ſhame whan ye amongſt you kepte my ſone in the kechyn and fedde hym lyke a poure hog / Fayr ſiſter ſaid kyng Arthur ye ſhall ryghte wel wete / 35 I knewe hym not / nor nomore dyd fyre Gawayn / nor his bretheren / but fythen it is foo faid the kyng that he is thus gone from vs alle / we muft shape a remedy to fynde hym / Alfo fyfter me femeth ye myght haue done me to wete of his comy-nge / And thenne and I had not done wel to hym / ye myȝt haue blamed me / For whan he cam to this courte he came le- 5 nyng vpon two mens ſholders as though he myght not haue gone / And thenne he asked me thre yeſtes / and one he asked the fame day / that was that I wold gyue hym mete ynough that twelue moneth / and the other two yeſtes he asked that day a twelue moneth / and that was that he myghte haue thad- 10 uenture of the damoyfel Lynet / and the thyrd was that ſyre Launcelot ſhold make hym knyght whan he deſyred hym / And foo I graunted hym alle his deſyre / and many in this Courte merueilled that he deſyred his ſuſtenaunce for a twelf monethe / And there by we demed many of vs that he was 15 not come of a noble hous / Syre ſaid the Quene of Orkeney vnto kynge Arthur her broder / wete ye wel that I ſente hym vnto you ryghte wel armed and horſed and worſhipfully byſene his body / and gold and ſyluer plente to ſpend / it may be ſaid the kynge / but therof ſawe we none / ſauf that ſa- 20 me daye as he departed from vs / knyghtes told me that ther came a dwerf hyder ſodenly and broughte hym armour and a good hors ful wel and rychely byſene / and there at we al had merueille / fro whens that rycheſſe came / that we demed al that he was come of men of worſhip / Broder ſaid the Quene 25 alle that ye ſaye I byleue / for euer fythen he was growen / he was merueillouſly wytted / and euer he was ſeythful & true of his promeſſe / But I merueille ſaid ſhe that ſyre kay dyd mocke hym and ſcorne hym / and gaf hym that name Beaumayns / yet fyr kay ſaid the quene named hym more ryghte- 30 uouſly than he wende / For I dare ſaye and he be on lyue / he is as fair an handed man and wel diſpoſed as ony is lyuynge / Syre ſaid Arthurle te this langage be ſtylle / and by the grace of god he ſhal be founde / and he be within theſe ſeuē royames / and lete alle this paſſe and be mery / for he is proued 35 to be a man of worſhip / and that is my loye

¶ Capitulum xxvij

THenne said fyr Gawayne and his bretheren vnto arthur / fyre and ye wyl gyue vs leue we wille go and feke oure brother / Nay said fyr Launcelot that shalle ye not nede / and so said fyr Bawdewyn of Bretayne / for as 5 by oure aduys the kyng shal sende vnto dame Lyones a messenger / and praye her that she wille come to the courte in alle the hast that she may / and doubte ye not she wille come / And thēne she may gyue you best couceille where ye shal fynde hym 10 This is wel said of you said the kyng / Soo thenne goodely letters were made / and the messenger sente forth that nyghte & day he wente tyl he cam vnto the castel perillous / And thenne the lady dame Lyones was sente fore there as she was wyth fyr Gryngamor her broder and fyre Gareth / and whan she vnderstode this message / she badde hym ryde on his way vnto ky-15 nge Arthur / and she wold come after in al goodely hast

¶ Thenne whan she came to fyr Gryngamor and to sir Gareth she told hem al how kyng Arthur had sente for her / that is by cause of me said fyr Gareth / Now auyse me said dame Lyones what shalle I saye and in what manere I shal rule 20 me / My lady and my loue said sir Gareth I pray you in no wyse be ye aknowen where I am / but wel I wote my moder is there and alle my bretheren / and they wille take vpon hem to feke me / I wote wel that they doo / But this madame I wold ye sayd and aduysed the kyng whan he questyoned 25 with you of me / Thenne maye ye say / this is your aduys that and hit lyke his good grace / ye wille doo make a crye ayenst the feest of thassumpcion of our lady that what knyghte there preueth hym best he shal welde you and all your land / And yf soo be that he be a wedded man that his wyf shall the degre

35 where fyr Gareth was she coude not telle / But thus moche she said vnto Arthur / fyre I wille lete crye a turnement that shal be done before my castel at the Assumpcion of oure lady / and the crye shal be this that you my lorde Arthur shalt be there / & your knyghtes / and I will puruey that my knyghtes shalle be ageynst yours / And thenne I am sure ye shall here of fyr Gareth / this is wel aduyfed said kynge Arthur / and soo she departed / And the kynge and she maade grete proufyon to that turnement / Whan dame Lyones was come to the yle of A- 5 uylyon that was the same yle ther as her broder fyr Gryngamor dwelte / thenne she told hem al how she had done / and what promyse she had made to kynge Arthur / Allas said fyr Gareth / I haue been soo wounded with vnhappynes fythen I cam in to this castel that I shal not be abyly to doo at that tur- 10 nement lyke a knyghte / for I was neuer thorowly hole syn I was hurte / Be ye of good chere said the damoyfel Lynet / for I vndertake within these xv dayes to make you hole and as lusty as euer ye were / And thenne she leid an oynement & a salve to hym as it pleasyd to her that he was neuer so fressh 15 nor soo lusty / Thenne said the damoyfel Lynet / send you vnto fyr Perfaunt of ynde / and affomone hym and his knyghtes to be here with you as they haue promysed / Also that ye send vnto fyr Ironfyde that is the reed knyghte of the reed laundes / and charge hym that he be redy with you with his hole 20 fomme of knyghtes / and thenne shalle ye be abyly to matche with kynge Arthur and his knyghtes / Soo this was done & alle knyghtes were sente for vnto the castel peryllous / & thenne the reed knyght anfuerd and said vnto dame Lyones and to fyre Gareth / Madame & my lord fyr Gareth ye shal vnder- 25 stande that I haue ben at the court of kynge Arthur and fir Perfaunt of Inde and his bretheren / and there we haue done oure homage as ye commaunded vs / Also fyr Ironfyde sayd I haue taken vpon me with fyre Perfaunt of Inde and his bretheren to hold party ageynst my lord sir Launcelot and the 30 knyghtes of that courte / And this haue I done for the loue of my lady Dame Lyones and you my lord sir Gareth / ye haue wel done said fyr Gareth / But wete you wel ye shal be ful fore matched with the moost noble knyghtes of the world / ther-for we must purueye vs of goode knyghtes where we may ge- 35 te them / That is wel said / said sir Perfaunt and worshipfully And soo the crye was made in England / walis and scotland Ireland / Cornewaille / & in alle the oute Iles and in bretain and in many countreyes that at the feest of our lady the affumpcion next comyng men shold come to the castel peryllous besyde the yle of Auylyon / And there al the knyghtes that ther came shold haue the choyse whether them lyst to be on the 5 one party with the knyghtes of the castel or on the other party with kynge Arthur / And two monethes was to the daye that the turnement shold be / & so ther cam many good knytes that were at her large and helde hem for the moost party ageynst kynge Arthur and his knyghtes of the round table / 10 cam in the fyde of them of the castel / For fyr Epynogrus was 20 fyr Dynadas the seneschal / and fir Saduk / but this fyr Trif-tram was not at that tyme knyght of the table round / but he was one of the best knyghtes of the world / And soo all these noble knyghtes accompanied hem with the lady of the castel and with the reed knyghte of the reed laundes / but as for fir 25 Gareth he wold not take vpon hym more but as other meane ¶ Thenne Dame Lyones said vnto fyr Gareth / fyre I wyll lene you a rynge / but I wold pray you as ye loue me hertely lete me haue it ageyne whanne the turnement is done / ¶ For that rynge encreaceth my beaute moche more than it is of hym ne / And that is blewe it wil torne in lykenes of whyte / and that is whyte it wil torne in lykenes to blewe / and so it wil in fyr Launcelot and he smote fyr Turquyne / and he hym / & thenne came fyr Caradus his broder / and bothe at ones they assayled hym / & he as the moost noblest knyght of the world 10 worshipfully foughte with hem bothe / that al men wondred of the nobleffe of fyr launcelot / And thenne came in fyr Gareth and knewe that it was fir launce'ot that fought with tho two peryllous knyghtes / And thenne fyr Gareth came with his good hors and hurtled hem in fonder / & no stroke wold he sm- 15 yte to fyr Launcelot / that aspyed fir launcelot & demed it shold be the good knyghte fyre Gareth / & thenne fyr Gareth rode here and there / & smote on the ryght hand & on the lyfte hand that alle the folke myghte wel aspye where that he rode / and by fortune he mette with his broder fyr Gawayn / and there he 20 put fyr Gawayne to the werse / for he put of his helme / and so he ferued fyue or fyxe knyghtes of the rounde table that alle men said / he put hym in the most payne / and best he dyd his de-uoyr / For whan fyr Trystram beheld hym how he fyrst Iufted and after foughte so wel with a swerd / Thenne he rode 25 vnto fyr Ironfyde and to fyre Perfaunt of ynde and asked hem by their feythe / what maner a knyghte is yonder knyght that semeth in soo many dyuerse colours / Truly me semeth fay-yd Trystram that he putteth hym self in grete payne for he neuer ceaseth / Wote ye not what he is sayd fyr Ironfyde / No fa- 30 id fyr Trystram / thenne shal ye knowe that this is he that lo-ueth the lady of the castel and she hym ageyne / and this is he that wanne me whan I byfeged the lady of this castel / and this he that wanne fyr Perfaunt of ynde / and his thre bretheren / what is his name sayd fyr Trystram and of what blood 35 is he come / he was called in the courte of kyng Arthur Beaumayns / but his ryȝt name is fir Gareth of Orkeney broder to fir Gawayn / by my hede said fir Tristram he is a good kniȝt knyght and a bygge man of armes / & yf he be yong he shalle preue a ful noble knyghte / he is but a child they all faide & of fyr Launcelot he was made knyzt / therfor is he mykel the better said Trystram / And thenne fyr Trystram / fyr Ironfyde / 5 fyr Perfaunt and his broder rode to gyders for to helpe fir gareth / & thenne there were gyuen many strong strokes / And thenne fyr Gareth rode oute on the one syde to amende his helme / & thenne said his dwerf take me your rying that ye lese it not whyle that ye drynke / And so whan he had dronken he gat on 10 his helme / & egerly took his hors & rode in to the felde & lefte his rynge with his dwerf / and the dwerf was gladde the ry-ng was from hym / for thenne he wist wel he shold be knowen And thenne whan fyr Gareth was in the felde all folkes fa-we hym wel / & playnly that he was in yelow colours / & the-15 re he raffyd of helmes & pulled down knyghtes that kyng Arthur had merueylle what knyzt he was / for the kyng fawe by his here that it was the same knyght

¶ Capitulum xxxi

BVt by fore he was in so many colours and now he is but in one colour that is yelow / Now goo said kyng 20 Arthur vnto dyuerse heroudes and ryde aboute hym & aspye what maner knyghte he is / for I haue speryd of many knyghtes this day that ben vpon his party / and all faye they knowe hym not / And so an heroude rode nyhe Gareth as he coude / and there he sawe wryten aboute his helme in golde / This 25 helme is fyr gareth of Orkeney / Thenne the heroude cryed as he were wood / & many heroudes with hym / This is fyre gareth of Orkeney in the yelow armes that by all kynges and kny-ghtes of Arthurs beheld hym & awayted / & thenne they pre-ffyd al to beholde hym / & euer the heroudes cryed this is fyre 30 gareth of Orkeney kyng Lots sone / and whan fyr gareth aspyed that he was discoueryd / thenne he doubled his strokes / & smote doune fyr Sagamore & his broder fir gawayn / O broder faide fir gawayn I wende ye wolde not haue stryken me / so whan he herd hym say so he thrang here & there / & so with gre-35 te payne he gat out of the prees / and there he mette with his dwerf / O boye said fyr gareth thou hast begyled me foule this day that thou kepte my rynge / Gyue it me anone ageyn that I may hyde my body with al / and foo he tooke it hym / And thenne they all wist not where he was become / and fyr Gawayn had in maner aspyed where fyr Gareth rode / and thenne he rode after with alle his myghte / that aspyed fyr Gareth and rode lyghtely in to the forest that fyr Gawayn wist not where he was become / And whan fyr Gareth wyft that fyr Gawa- 5 yn was past / he asked the dwerf of best councel / Syr said the dwerf / me semeth it were best now that ye are escaped fro spy-eng that ye send my lady dame lyones her rynge / It is wel aduysed said fyr Gareth / now haue it here and bere it to her / 10 And faye that I recommaunde me vnto her good grace / and faye her I will come whan I maye / and I pray her to be true and feythful to me as I wil be to her / Syr said the dwerf it shal be done as ye commaunde / and foo he rode his waye and dyd his eraund vnto the lady / Thenne she said where is my 15 knyghte fyr Gareth / Madame said the dwerf he bad me faye / that he wold not be long from you / ¶ And foo lyghtely the dwerf cam ageyne vnto fyr Gareth that wold ful fayne haue had a lodgyng / for he had nede to be repofed / And thenne felle there a thonder and a rayne as heuen and erthe shold 20 goo to gyder / And fyr Gareth was not a lytyl wery / for of al that day he had but lytel rest neyther his hors nor he / So this fyr Gareth rode foo longe in that forest vntyl the nyghte came And euer it lyghtned and thondred as it had ben woode At the last by fortune he came to a Castel / and there he herd 25 the waytes vpon the wallys ¶ Capitulum xxxij /

THenne fyr Gareth rode vnto the barbycan of the castel / and praid the porter fayr to lete hym in to the castel / The porter anfuerd vngoodely ageyne / and faide thow getest no lodgyng here / Fayr fyr say not foo for I am a knyghte 30 of kynge Arthurs / & pray the lord or the lady of this castel to gyue me herberow for the loue of kynge Arthur / Thenne the porter wente vnto the ducheffe / and told her how ther was a knyghte of kyng Arthurs wold haue herberowe / lete hym in said the ducheffe / for I wille see that knyghte / And for kyng 35 Arthurs sake he shalle not be herberoules / ¶ Thenne she yode vp in to a toure ouer the gate with greet torche lyght / whan fyr Gareth sawe that torche lyghte he cryed on hyhe whether thou be lord or lady gyaunt or champyon I take no force so that I may haue herberowe this nyghte / & yf hit so be that I must nedes fyghte / spare me not to morne when I haue restyd me for bothe I and myn hors ben wery / Syr 5 knyghte said the lady thou spekest knyghtly and boldly / but wete thou wel the lord of this castel loueth not kyng Arthur / nor none of his court / for my lord hath euer ben ageynst hym and therfor thou were better not to come within this castel / For and thou come in this nyghte / thou must come in vnder 10 fuche fourme that where someuer thou mete my lord by sty3 or by strete / thou must yelde the to hym as pryfoner / Madame faid fyre Gareth what is your lord and what is his name / fyr my lordes name is the duke de la rouse / wel madame said fyr Gareth I shal promyse yow in what place I mete your lord 15 I shalle yelde me vnto hym and to his good grace with that I vnderstande he wille do me no harme / And yf I vnderstand that he wille I wil releace my self and I can with my spere and my swerd / ye say wel said the ducheffe / and thenne she lete the drawe brydge dounce / and soo he rode in to the halle / 20 and there he alyghte / and his hors was ledde in to a stable / & in the halle he vnarmed hym / & faide madame I will not oute of this holle this nyghte / And whan it is daye lyght / lete see / who wil haue adoo with me / he shal fynde me redy / Thenne was he sette vnto fouper / and had many good dyffhes / then-25 ne fyr Gareth lyft wel to ete / and knyghtely he ete his mete / and egerly / there was many a fair lady by hym / & some said they neuer sawe a goodlyer man nor so wel of etyng / thenne they made hym passieng good chere / & shortly whan he had fouped his bedde was made there so he rested hym al nyghte / 30 And on the morne he herd masse & brake his fast & toke his le-ue at the ducheffe / & at them al / & thanked her goodely of her lodgyng & of his good chere / & thenne she asked gym his name / Madame he faide truly my name is Gareth of Orkeney / & some men calle me Beaumayns / thēne knewe she wel it was 35 the same kny3t that fou3t for dame lyones / so fir gareth departed & rode vp in to a montayne / & ther mette hym a knyghte / his name was fyr Bendelayne and sayd to fyr Gareth thou shalt not passe this way / for outhur thou shalt Iuste with me or els be my prysoner / Thenne wille I iuste faid fyr Gareth / And foo they lete their horses renne / and there fyr Gareth smote hym thorou oute the body / and fyr Bendalyne rode forth to his castel there besyde and there dyed / So fyr gareth wold haue rested hym / and he cam rydyng to Bendalynis castel / 5 Thenne his knyghtes and seruantes aspyed that it was he that had slayne their lord / Thenne they armed xx good men and cam out and assailed fyr gareth / and foo he had no spere but his swerd / and put his shelde afore hym / and there they brake their speres vpon hym / and they assailed hem passyng- 10 ly fore / But euer fyr gareth deffended hym as a knyght

¶ Capitulum xxxiiij

Soo whan they sawe that they myghte not ouercome hym / they rode from hym / and took their councylle to flee his hors / and foo they cam in vpon fyr gareth / and with speres they slewe his hors / and thenne they assailed hym hard 15 But whan he was on foote / there was none that he raughte but he gaf him fuche a buffet that he dyd neuer recouer / So he flewe hem by one and one tyl they were but foure / and there they fledde / and sire gareth took a good hors that was one of theirs and rode his waye / Thenne he rode a grete paas til that 20 he came to a castel and there he herd moche mornynge of lady-es and gentylwymmen / so ther cam by hym a page / what noy-se is this faid fyr gareth that I here within this castel / Syre knyghte faid the page here ben within this castel thyrty lady-es and alle they be wydowes / For here is a knyght that way- 25 teth dayly vpon this castel / and his name is the broun kn-yght withoute pyte / and he is the peryllouft knyght that now lyueth / And therfor sir faid the page I rede you flee / Nay faid sir gareth I wille not flee though thou be aferd of hym / And thenne the page sawe where came the broune knyghte / loo 30 faid the page yonder he cometh / lete me dele with hym faid fyre gareth / And whan eyther of other had a fyghte they lete the-yr horses renne / and the broune knyghte brake his spere and sir gareth smote hym thorou oute the body that he ouerthrewe hym to the ground stark dede / So sir gareth rode in to the castel 35 & praid the ladies þ^t he myȝt repose hym / allas faid the ladies ye may not be lodged here / make hym good chere faid the page for this knyghte hath slayne your enemy / thenne they al made hym good chere as laye in their power / But wete ye wel they maade hym good chere for they myghte none otherwyse doo for they were but poure / And so on the morne he wente to 5 maffe / and there he sawe the thyrtyty ladyes knele / and lay grouelyng vpon dyuerse tombes makynge grete dole and sorowe / Thenne fyr Gareth wyft wel that in the tombes lay their lordes / Fayre ladyes said fyr Gareth ye must at the next seeft of Pentecost be at the court of kynge Arthur / and saye that I 10 fyr Gareth sente you thyder / we shal doo this said the ladyes Soo he departed / and by fortune he came to a mountayne / & there he found a goodely knyght that badde hym abyde fyr knyghte and Iuste with me / what are ye said fyr Gareth / My name is said he the duke de la rowse / A fyr ye ar the same knyght 15 yghte that I lodged ones in your Castel / And there I made promyse vnto your lady that I shold yelde me vnto yow A said the duke arte thou that proud knyghte that profereft to fyghte with my knyghtes / therfore make the redy for I wil haue adoo with you / Soo they lete their horses renne / and ther 20 fyr Gareth smote the duke doune from his hors / But the duke lyghtly auoyded his hors / and dresid his shelde and drew his swerd / and bad fyr Gareth alyghte and fyghte with hym / Soo he dyd alyghte / and they dyd grete batail to gyders more than an houre / and eyther hurte other ful fore / Att 25 the last fir Gareth gat the duke to the erthe / and wold haue slayn hym / and thenne he yelded hym to hym / Thenne must ye goo said fir Gareth vnto fyr Arthur my lord at the next seeft and saye that I fir Gareth of Orkeney sente you vnto hym / hit shal be done said the duke / and I wil doo to yow homage and 30 feaute with an C knyghtes with me / and alle the dayes of my lyf to doo you seruyse where ye wille commaunde me /

¶ Capítulum xxxiiij

SOo the duke departed / and fir Gareth stode there alone and there he sawe an armed knyght comyng toward hym / Thenne fyre Gareth toke the dukes shelde / and mounted vpon horfbak / and foo withoute bydyng they ranne to gyder as it had ben the thonder / And there that knyȝt hurt fyr Gareth vnder the fyde with his ſpere / And thenne they a-lyghte / and drewe their ſwerdes / and gaſe grete ſtrokes that the blood trayled to the ground / And foo they foughte two 5 houres / At the laſt there came the damoyfel Lynet that ſomme men calle the damoyfel ſauceage / and ſhe came rydyng vpon an ambelynge meule / and there ſhe cryed al on hyghe / fyr Ga-wayne fyr Gawayne leue thy ſyghtyng with thy broder fyre Gareth / And whan he herd her ſaye foo he threwe awaye hys 10 ſhelde and his ſwerd / and ranne to fyre Gareth / and tooke hym in his armes / and ſythen kneled doune and aſked hym mercy / What are ye ſaid fyr Gareth that ryght now were foo ſtronge and foo myghty / and now ſo ſodenly yelde you to me O Gareth I am your broder fyr Gawayn that for youre ſake 15 haue had grete forou and labour / Thenne fyr Gareth vnclaced his helme / and knelyd doune to hym / and aſked hym mercy / thenne they roſe both and embraced eyther other in their armes and wepte a grete whyle or they myghte ſpeke / and eyther of hem gaſ other the pryce of the bataille / And there were many 20 kynde wordes bitwene hem / Allas my faire broder ſaid ſir ga-wayn perde I owe of ryghte to worſhippe you / and ye were not my broder / for ye haue worſhipped kyng Arthur and all his courte / for ye haue ſente me mo worſhipful knyghtes this twelue moneth than ſyxe the beſt of the round table haue do- 25 ne excepte ſir Launcelot / Thenne cam the damoyfel ſauceage that was the lady Lynet that rode with ſir gareth foo longe / and there ſhe dyd ſtaunche ſir gareths woundes / and ſir gawayns Now what wille ye doo ſaid the damoyfel ſauceage / me ſemeth that it were wel do þ^t Arthur had wetyng of you both for yo- 30 ur horſes are foo bryfed that they may not bere / Now faire damoyfel ſaid fyr Gawayne / I praye you ryde vnto my lord myn vnkel kyng Arthur / and telle hym what aduenture is to me betyd here / and I ſuppoſe he wille not tary long / Thenne ſhe tooke her meule and lyghtly ſhe came to kyng Arthur / that 35 was but two myle thens / And whan ſhe had told hym tydynges the kyng bad gete hym a palfroy / ¶ And whan he was vpon his bak he badde the lordes and ladyes come after who that wold / and there was fadelyng and brydelyng of quenes horfes and prynces horfes / & wel was hym that sooneft myght be redy / Soo whan the kyng came there as they were he fawe fyr Gawayn and fyr Gareth fytte vpon a lytel hylle fyde / & 5 thenne the kyng auoyded his hors / And whanne he cam ny-ghe fyre Gareth / he wold haue spoken but he myghte not / and therwith he fanke doune in a swoune for gladnesse / and foo they starte vnto theyr vnkyl / and requyred hym of his good grace to be of good comforte / Wete ye wel the kyng made gre-10 te ioye and many a pyteous complaynte he made to fyr Gareth / And euer he wepte as he had ben a chyld / With that cam his moder the quene of Orkeney dame Morgause / And whan she fawe fyr Gareth redely in the vyfage she myghte not wepe but fodenly felle doune in a swoune / and lay there a grete why-15 le lyke as she had ben dede / And thenne fyr Gareth recomfor-ted his moder in fuche wyfe that she recouerd and made good chere / Thenne the kyng commaunded that al maner of knyghtes that were vnder his obeiffaunce shold make their lodging ryght there for the loue of his neuwes / And foo it was do-20 ne and al manere of purueaunce purueyd that ther lacked nothyng that myghte be gotten of tame nor wyld for gold or fyluer / And thenne by the meanes of the damoyfel Sauceage fyr Gawayne and fyr Gareth were heled of their woundes / and there they fojourned eyght dayes / Thenne said kyng Ar-25 thur vnto the damoyfel fauceage I merueylle that your fyf-ter Dame Lyones cometh not here to me / and in espeeial that she cometh not to vyfyte her knyghte my neuwe fyre Gareth that hath had foo moche trauaille for her loue / My lord said the damoyfel Lynet ye must of your good grace hold her excused / 30 For she knoweth not that my lord fyr Gareth is here / Go thē-ne for her said kyng Arthur that we may be apoynted what is best to done accordyng to the plesyr of my neuwe / Syr faid the damoyfel that shal be done / and foo she rode vnto her fyf-ter / And as lyghtely as she myght made her redy & she cam 35 on the morne with her broder fyr Gryngamor / and with her xl knyghtes / And so whan she was come she had alle the chere that myghte be done bothe of the kyng and of many other kynges and quenes

¶ Capitulum xxxv

And amonge alle thefe ladyes ſhe was named the fayreft and pyreles / Thenne whanne fyr Gawayn ſawe her / there was many a goodely loke and goodely wordes that alle men of worſhip had ioye to beholde them / Thenne cam kynge Arthur and many other kynges and dame Gweneuer & 5 the quene of Orkency / And there the kyng asked his neuwe fyre Gareth whether he wold haue that lady as peramour or to haue her to his wyf / My lord wete yow wel that I loue her aboute al ladyes lyuyng / Now fayre lady ſaid kyng Arthur what fay ye / Mooft noble kyng ſaid dame Lyones wete 10 yow wel that my lord fyr Gareth is to me more leuer to haue and welde as my huſband than ony kyng or pryncce that is cryſtened / and yf I maye not haue hym I promyſe yow I wyll neuer haue none / For my lord Arthur ſayd dame Ly-ones wete ye wel he is my fyrſt loue and he ſhal be the laſte / 15 And yf ye wil ſuffre hym to haue his wyl and free choiſe I dare faye he wyll haue me / That is trouthe ſaid fyr Gareth / And I haue not you and weld not you as my wyf / there ſhal neuer lady ne gentylwoman reioyce me / What neuwe ſaid the kyng is the wynde in that dore / for wete ye wel I 20 wold not for the ſtynte of my croune to be cauſar to withdra-we your hertes / And wete ye wel ye con not loue ſo wel but I ſhal rather encreace hit than dyſtreſſe hit / And alſo ye ſhal haue my loue and my lordſhip in the vttermoſt wyſe that may lye in my power / And in the ſame wyſe ſaid ſir Gareths mo- 25 der / thenne there was made a prouyſyon for the day of mary-ge / and by the kynges aduyſe it was prouyded that it ſhould be at Mychelmas folowyng at kynkenadon by the ſee ſyde / for ther is plentyful cowntrey / And ſoo it was cryed in al the places thurgh the royaume / And thenne fyr Gareth ſent his 30 ſomones to alle theſe knyghtes and ladyes that he had won-nen in batail to fore that they ſhould be at his day of maryage at kynkenadon by the ſandys / And thenne dame Lyones and the damoyſel Lynet with fyr Gryngamor rode to theire caſtel / and a goodely and a ryche ryng ſhe gaf to fyr Gareth / and 35 he gaf her another / And kyng Arthur gaf her a ryche bece of gold / and soo she departed / and kyng Arthur and his felau-ship rode toward Kynkenadon / and fyr Gareth broughte his lady on the way / & so cam to the kyng ageyne and rode with hym / Lord the grete chere that fyr launcelot made of fir Gareth 5 and he of hym / for there was neuer no knyght that fyr gareth loued so wel as he dyd fyr Launcelot / and euer for the most party he wold be in fyr launcelots company / for after fyr Gareth had aspyed fir Gawayns condycions he withdrewe hym self fro his broder fyr Gawayns felauship / for he was venge-10 able / and where he hated he wold be auengyd with murther and that hated fyr gareth ¶ Capitulum xxxvi

Soo hit drewe faste to Mychelmas / and thyder came dame Lyones the lady of the castel peryllous and her fyfter dame Lynet with fyre gryngamor her broder with hem / 15 For he had the conduyte of these ladyes / And there they were lodged at the deuyse of kyng Arthur / And vpon mychelmas day the Bisshop of Caunterbury made the weddyng betwixe fyr gareth and the lady Lyones with grete solempnyte / and kyng Arthur made gaherys to wedde the damoyfel fauceage / 20 that was dame Lynet / and kyng Arthur made fyr Agraua-yne to wedde dame Lyones nees a fayr lady / her name was dame Laurel / And so whan this solemnacion was done / thenne came in the grene knyghte fyr Pertylope with thyrty kny-ghtes / and there he dyd homage and feaute to fyr gareth and 25 these knyghtes to hold of hym for euermore / Also fir Pertilo-pe said I pray you that at this feest I maye be your cham-berlayne / with a good wil said fyr gareth / fyth it lyketh you to take soo fymple on offyce / Thenne come in the reed knyghte with thre score knyghtes with hym / and dyde to fyr Gareth 30 homage and feaute / and alle tho knyghtes to hold of hym for euermore / And thenne this fyr Perymonyes praide fir gareth to graunte hym to be his chyef botteler at that hyghe feest I wil wel faide fir gareth that ye haue this offyce and it were better / Thenne came in fyr Perfant of Inde with an C kn-35 yghtes with hym / and there he dyd homage and feaute / and al his knyghtes shold doo hym seruyfe / and hold their lond-des of hym for euer / and there he prayd fyr Gareth to make hym his Sewar chyef at the feest / I wil wel said fyr Gareth that ye haue it & it were better / Thenne cam the dukde la rowse with an C knyghtes with hym / and there he dyd ho- 5 mage and seaute to fyr Gareth / and soo to hold their londes of hym for euer / And he requyred fyr Gareth that he myght serue hym of the wyn that day at that feest / I wil wel sayd fyr Gareth and it were better / Thenne came in the reed kny3te of the reed laundes that was fyr Ironfyde / and he broughte 10 with hym thre honderd knyghtes / and there he dyd homage & seaute / and al these knyghtes to hold their landes of hym for euer / And thenne he asked fyr Gareth to be his keruer / I will wel said fyr Gareth and it please you / Thenne came in to the courte thyrtty ladyes / and alle they semed wydowes / and 15 tho thyrtty ladyes broughte with hem many fayre gentylwy-mmen / And alle they kneled doune at ones vnto kyng arthur and vnto fyr Gareth / and there al tho ladyes told the kyng how fyr Gareth delyuerd hem from the dolorous toure / and fle-we the broune knyght withoute pyte / And therfore we and 20 oure heyres for euermore wille doo homage vnto fyr Gareth of Orkeney / So thenne the kynges and quenes / prynces & erlys Barons and many bold knyghtes wente vnto mete / & well maye ye wete there were al manere of mete plentyuously / alle manere rules and games with al manere of mynstralsy that 25 was vfed in tho dayes / ¶ Also ther was grete Iustes thre da-yes / But the kyng wold not suffre fyre Gareth to Iuste by cause of his newe bryde / for as the frensshe book sayth that dame Lyones desyred of the kyng that none that were wedded shold Iuste at that feest / Soo the fyrst day there Iusted sir la- 30 merak de galys / for he ouerthrewe thyrtty knyghtes / & did passyng merueillously dedes of armes / and thenne kyng Arthur made fyr Persaunt and his two bretheren knyghtes of the round table to their lyues ende / and gaf hem grete londes / Also the second daye there Iusted Trystram best / and he ouerthrew 35 fourty knyghtes / and dyd there merueillous dedes of armes And there kyng Arthur made Ironfyde that was the reed knyghte of the reed laundes a knyghte of the table round to his lyues ende / and gaf hym grete^s landes / The thyrd day there Iusted fyr launcelot du lake / and he ouerthrewe fyfty knyghtes and dyd many merueyllous dedes of armes that all men wondred on hym / And there kynge Arthur made the duke de 5 la roufe a knyghte of the round table to his lyues ende / and gaf hym grete landes to spende / But whan this Iustes were done / fyr Lamerak and fyr Trystram departed fodenly / & wold not be knowm / for the whiche kyng Arthur and all the court were fore displeasyd / And soo they helde the courte fourty da-10 yes with grete solempnyte / And this fyr Gareth was a noble knyghte and a wel rulyd and fayr langaged ¶ Thus endeth this tale of fyr Gareth of Orkeney that wed= ded dame Lyones of the castel peryllous / And also fyr Gabe= rys wedded her syster dame Lynet / that was called the damo= yfel saueage / And fyr Agranayne wedded dame Laurel a fa= yr lady and grete and myghty landes with grete rycheffe gaf with them kyng Arthur that ryally they myght lyue tyl their lyues ende

There foloweth the viij book the which is the first book of fir Tristram de Lyones / & who was his fader & his moder / & hou he was borne and fosteryd / And how he was made knyghte

¶ Capitulum primum

It was a kyng that hyghte Melyodas / and he was lord and kynge of the countre of Lyonas And this Melyodas was a lykely knyght as ony was that tyme lyuynge / And by fortune he wedded kynge Markys fyfter of Cornewaille / And she 5 was called Elyzabeth that was callyd bothe good and fair And at that tyme kynge Arthur regned / and he was hole kynge of Englonde / walyng and Scotland & of many other royaumes how be it there were many kynges that were lordes of many countreys / but alle they held their landes of kyng 10 Arthur / for in walyng were two kynges / and in the north were many kynges / And in Cornewail and in the west were two kynges / ¶ Also in Irland were two or thre kynges and al were vnder the obeissaunce of kyng Arthur / So was the kyng of Fraunce and the kyng of Bretayn and all the 15 lordshippes vnto Rome / So whan this kyng Melyodas hadde ben with his wyf / within a whyle she waxid grete with child and she was a ful meke lady / and wel she loued her lord / & he her ageyne / for there was grete ioye betwixe them / Thenne ther was a lady in that countrey that had loued kyng Me- 20 lyodas longe / And by no meane she neuer coude gete his loue therfore she lete ordeyne vpon a day as kyng Melyodas rode on huntynge / for he was a grete chacer / and there by an enchauntement she made hym chace an herte by hym self alone / til that he came to an old Castel / and there anon he was taken 25 prysoner by the lady that hym loued / Whanne Elyzabeth kyng Melyodas myst her lord / and she was nyghe oute of her wytte and also as grete with child as she was she took a gentylwo-man with her / and ranne in to the forest to seke her lord / And whanne she was ferre in the forest she myghte no ferther 30 for she byganne to trauaille fast of her child / And she had many grymly throwes / her gentylwoman halp her alle that she myghte / And for by myracle of oure lady of heuen she was delyuerd with grete paynes / But she had taken suche cold for the defeaute of helpe that depe draughtes of deth toke her / that 35 nedes she must dye and departe oute of this world / ther was none other boote / And whanne this quene Elyzabeth sawe that ther was none other bote / thenne she made grete dole / and said vnto her gentylwoman / whan ye see my lord kyng Melyodas recommaunde me vnto hym / and telle hym what pay-15 nes I endure here for gis loue / and how I must dye here for his sake for defaute of good helpe / and lete hym wete that I am ful fory to departe out of this world fro hym / therfor pray hym to be frende to my soule / Now lete me see my lytel child / for whome I haue had alle this sorowe / And whanne she sa-20 we hym she said thus / A my lytel sone thou hast murdered thy moder / and therefore I suppose thou that arte a murtherer foo yong / thou arte ful lykeiy to be a manly man in thyn age / And by cause I shal dye of the byrthe of the / I charge the gentylwoman / that thou pray my lord kynge Melyodas that 15 whan he is crystned lete calle hym Trystram that is as moch to saye / as a sorouful byrthe / And ther with this quene gaf vp the ghooft and dyed / Thenne the gentylwoman leyd her vnder an vmbre of a grete tree / and thenne she lapped the ch-yld as wel as she myght for cold / Ryghte foo ther came the 20 Barons folowyng after the quene / ¶ And whan they sawe that she was dede / and vnderstood none other but the kynge was destroyed /

¶ Capitulum secundum

T Henne certayne of them wold haue slayne the child / by cause they wold haue ben lordes of the countrye of 25 Lyonas / But thenne thorou the faire speche of the gentylwo-man / and by the meanes that she made / the moost party of the Barons wold not assente ther to / And thenne they lete cary home the dede quene / and moche dole was made for her / Thenne this meane whyle Merlyn delyuerd kynge Melyodas out of 30 pryson on the morne after his quene was dede / And so when the kynge was come home / the moost party of the barons made grete ioye / But the sorow that the kyng made for his quene that myghte no tong telle

Soo thenne the kynge lete entere her rychely and after he le-35 te crystene his child as his wyf had commaunded afore her deth / And thenne he lete calle hym Trystram the forouful borne child / ¶ Thenne the kyng Melyodas endured feuen yeres withoute a wyf / And alle this tyme Trystram was nou-rysshed wel / ¶ Thenne hit befelle that kyng Melyodas wedded kyng Howles daughter of Bretayne / and anone 5 she hadde children of kyng Melyodas / thenne was she heuy and wrothe / that her children shold not reioyce the Countrey of Lyones / wherfor this quene ordeyned for to poyfene yong Trystram / So she lete poyfon be put in a pyece of syluer in the chamber where as Trystram and her children were to gyders / 10 Vnto that entente that whanne Trystram were thursty he shold drynke that drynke / And so hit felle vpon a daye the que-nes sone as he was in that chamber / aspyed the pyece with poyfon / and he wende hit hadde ben good drynke / and by cause the child was thursty he tooke the pyece with poyfon and 15 draunke frely / and there with al fodenly the child braut & was dede / whanne the quene Melyodas wyf of the dethe of her sone wete ye wel that she was heuy / But yet the kyng vndersto-de no thyng of her treason / ¶ Not withstandyng the quene wold not leue this / but este she lete ordeyne more poyfon / and 20 putte hit in a pyece / And by fortune kyng Melyodas her husband fond the pyece with wyn where was the poyfon / and he that was moche thursty took the pyece for to drynke ther oute And as he wold haue dronken therof / the Quene aspyed hym / and thenne she ranne vnto hym / and pulled the pyece 25 from hym fodenly ¶ The kyng merueilled why she dyd foo / and remembryd hym how her sone was fodenly slayne with poyfon / And thenne he took her by the hand and fayd / thou fals traitresse thou shalte telle me what manere of drynke this is / or els I shalle flee the / And ther with he pul- 30 led oute his swerd / and fware a grete othe that he shold flee her / but yf she told hym trouthe / A mercy my lord fayd she / and I shalle telle you alle / And thenne she told hym why she wold haue slayne Trystram / by cause her chyldren shold reioyce his land / wel said the kyng Melyodas / and therfor shal 35 ye haue the lawe / And soo she was dampned by the assente of the Barons to be brent / and thenne was ther made a grete fyre / & ryght as she was at the fyre to take her execucion / yong Trystram knelyd afore kynge^s Melyodas / and befought hym to gyue hym a bone / I wylle wel faid the kynge ageyne / ¶ Thenne faide yonge Trystram gyue me the lyf of thy que-ne my stepmoder / That is vnryghtfully asked faid kyng Me-5 lyodas / for thou oughte of ryght to hate her / for she wold haue slayne the with that poyfon and she myghte haue hadde her wille / And for thy fake moost is my cause that she sholde dye Syr faide Trystram as for that I byfeche you of your mercy that ye wille forgyue hit her / And as for my parte god forgy-10 ue it her and I doo / and foo moche it lyked your hyhenes to graunte me my bone / for goddes loue I requyre you hold your promyse / Sythen hit is foo faid the kynge I wille that ye haue her lyf / thenne faid the kynge I gyue her to you / and go ye to the fyre and take her / and doo with her what ye wylle / 15 Soo fyre Trystram wente to the fyre / and by the commaunde-ment of the kyng delyuerd her from the dethe / But after that kynge Melyodas wold neuer haue adoo with her as at bedde and borde / But by the good meanes of yong Trystram he made the kynge and her accorded / But thenne the kynge wold 20 not suffre yonge Trystram to abyde no lenger in his court

¶ Capitulum iij

ANd thenne he lete ordeyne a gentylman that was wel lerned and taughte / his name was gouernayle / and thenne he sente yonge Trystram with Gouernayle in to Fraunce to lerne the langage / and nurture / and dedes of 25 armes / And there was Trystram more than feuen yeres /

¶ And thenne whanne he wel couthe speke the langage and hadde lerned alle that he myght lerne in that countreyes / thenne he came home to his fader kynge Melyodas ageyne / and fo Trystram lerned to be an harper passyng alle other that there 30 was none fuche called in no countrey / and foo in harpyng & on Instrumentys of musyke he applyed hym in his yongthe for to lerne / And after as he growed in myght and strengthe he laboured cuer in huntynge and in haukyng foo that neuer gentylman more that euer we herd rede of / ¶ And as the book sayth / he beganne good mefures of blowing of beestes of venery and beestes of chace / and alle manere of vermayns / and alle thefe termes we haue yet of haukyng and huntyng And therefore the book of venery / of haukyng and hunty- 5 nge is called the book of fyr Tryftram / Wherfor as me femeth alle gentylmen that beren old armes oughte of ryght to ho-noure fyre Tryftram for the goodly termes that gentilmen haue and vse / and shalle to the daye of dome / that there by in a maner alle men of worship maye diffeuer a gentylman fro a 10 yoman / and from a yoman a vylayne / For he that gentyl is wylle drawe hym vnto gentil tatches / and to folowe the cus-tommes of noble gentylmen ¶ Thus fyr Tryftram endured in Cornewaile vntyl he was bygge / and stronge / of the age of xvij yeres / And thenne the kynge Melyodas had 15 grete ioye of fyr Tryftram / and soo had the quene his wyfe / For euer after in her lyf by caufe fyre Tryftram faued her from the fyre she dyd neuer hate hym more after / but loued hym euer after / and gaf Tryftram many grete yestes for eue-ry estate loued hym / where that he wente 20

¶ Capitulum quartum

THenne it befelle that kynge Anguyfthe of Irland / fente vnto kynge Marke of Cornewaile for his truage that Cornewaile had payed many wynters / And alle that tyme kynge Marke was behynde of the truage for fe- 25 uen yeres / And kyng Marke and his Barons gaf vnto the meffager of Irland thefe wordes and anfuere that they wold none paye / and bad the meffagyer goo vnto his Kynge Anguyfthe / and telle hym we wille paye hym no truage / but telle youre lord / and he wille alweyes haue truage of vs of Cornewaile / bydde hym fende a trusty knyghte of his land / 30 that wille fyghte for his ryght / and we shalle fynde another for to defende oure ryght / With this anfuere the meffagers departed in to Irland / ¶ And whanne kynge Anguyfthe vn-derstood the anfuere of the meffagers / he was wonderly wroth

And thenne he callyd vnto hym fyr Marhaus the good knyght that was nobly preued / and a knyghte of the table round / And this Marhaus was broder vnto the queene of Irland / ¶ Thenne the kynge fayd thus / Fayre broder fir Marhaus I praye yow goo in to Cornewaile for my fake and do bataille for our truage that of ryght we oughte to haue / and what fomeuer ye spende ye shalle haue suffyciently more than ye shal nede / Syre faide Marhaus wete ye wel that I shalle not be lothe to doo bataille in the ryght of you and your land 10 with the best knyght of the table rounde / for I knowe them for the moost party what ben theire dedes / and for to auauce my dedes and to encrease my worship I wyll ryght gladly goo vnto this iourneye for our ryghte

¶ Soo in alle haste there was made purueaunce for fyr marhaus / and he hadde al thynge that to hym neded / and foo he departed out of Irland / and arryued vp in Cornewaile euen fast by the castel of Tyntagil / And whan kynge Marke vnderstood that he was there arryued to fyghte for Irland /

¶ Thenne made kynge marke grete forou whan he vnderstood 20 that the good and noble knyghte fyre Marhaus was come / For they knewe no knyght that durste haue adoo with hym / For at that tyme fyre Marhaus was called one of the famoussest and renoumed knyghtes of the world

¶ And thus fyre Marhaus abode in the sec / and euery daye 25 he sente vnto kynge Marke for to paye the truage that was behynde of feuen yere / outhur els to fynde a knyght to fyghte with hym for the truage / This maner of meffage fyre Marhaus sente dayly vnto kynge Marke / ¶ Thenne they of Cornewayle lete make cryes in euery place that what knight 30 wold fyghte for to faue the truage of Cornewaile he sholde be rewarded foo that he sholde fare the better terme of hys lyf /

¶ Thenne some of the Barons fayde to kynge Marke / and counceiled hym to fende to the courte of Kynge Arthur for to feke fyre Launcelot du lake that was that ty-35 me named for the merueilloust Knyght of alle the worlde /

¶ Thenne there were somme other Barons that counceylled the Kynge not to doo foo & faid that it was laboure in vayn / by cause fyr Marhaus was a knyght of the round table / ther-for ony of hem will be loth to haue adoo with other / but yf hit were ony knyght at his owne request wold fyghte dyfguyfed and vnknownen / Soo the kynge and alle his barons assented that it was no bote to feke ony knyght of the round table / 5

¶ This meane whyle came the langage and the noyse vnto kyng Meliodas hou that sire Marhaus abode bataille faste by Tyntagil / And how kyng Marke couthe fynde no maner kn-yghte to fyghte for hym / Whan yong Trystram herd of thys / he was wrothe and fore ashamed that ther durst no knyghte 10 in Cornewaile haue adoo with fyr Marhaus of Irland /

¶ Capitulum quintum

¶ Here with al Trystram wente vnto his fader Kyng Meliodas and asked hym counceil what was best to doo for to recouer Cornewaile from truage / For as me semeth said sir Tristram it were shame that fyr Marhaus 15 the quenes broder of Irland shold goo awaye onles that he were foughten with alle

¶ As for that said kyng Meliodas wete you wel sone Tristram that fyre Marhaus is called one of the best knyghtes of the world and knyghte of the table round / And therefore I knowe no knyghte in this 20 countre that is able to matche with hym / ¶ Allas faide fyre Tristram that I am not made knyght / And yf sir Marhaus shold thus departe in to Irland / god lete me neuer haue worship and I were made knyght I shold matche hym /

And fyr said Trystram I pray you gyue me leue to ryde to 25 kyng Mark / and foo ye be not displeasyd / of kyng Marke wille I be made Knyght / I wille wel faide kyng Meliodas that ye be ruled as your courage wille rule you ¶ Thenne sir Trystram thanked his fader moche / And thenne he made hym redy to ryde in to Cornewaile / ¶ In the meane 30 whyle there came a messager with letters of loue fro kyng Faramon of Fraunces doughter vnto fyre Trystram that were ful pyteous letters & in them were wryten many compla-yntes of loue / but fyre Tristram had no Ioye of her letters nor regard vnto her / Also she sente hym a lytel brachet that was passyng fayre / But whan the kynges doughter vnderstood that fyre Trystram wold not loue her / as the book sayth / she dyed for sorow / ¶ And thenne the fame squyer that broughte 5 the letter and the brachet came ageyne vnto fyr Trystram / as after ye shalle here in the tale ¶ Soo this yonge fyre Trystram rode vnto his eme kyng Marke of Cornewa-yle / ¶ And whanne he came there / he herd say that ther wold no knyghte fyghte with fyre Marhaus / Thenne yede sir Trif-10 tram vnto his eme and sayd / fyre yf ye wylle gyue me thor-dre of knyghthode / I wille doo bataille with fyr Marhaus / What are ye said the kyng and from whens be ye comen / Sir said Trystram I come fro kyng Melyodas that wedded your syster and a gentylman wete ye wel I am 15 ¶ Kyng Marke behelde sir Trystram and sawe that he was but a yonge man of age / but he was passyngly wel maade and bygge / ¶ Faire fyre said the kyng what is youre name and where were ye borne / Syre sayd he ageyne / my name is Trystram / and in the countreye of Lyones was I borne / 20 Ye saye wel said the kyng / and yf ye wille doo this batayll I shalle make yow knyghte / Therefore I come to you sayd fyre Trystram and for none other cause

¶ But thenne kyng Marke made hym knyghte / And there with al anone as he had made hym knyght he sente a messa-25 ger vnto fyre Marhaus with letters that said / that he hadde sonde a yonge knyghte redy for to take the bataile to the vttermost / hit may wel be said fyre Marhaus / ¶ But telle kyng Marke I wille not fyghte with no knyghte but he be of blood royal / that is to saye outhur kynges sone outhur quenes 30 sone borne of a prynce or pryncesse /

¶ Whanne Kyng Marke vnderstood that / he sente for fyre Trystram de lyones and tolde hym what was the ansuer of fyr Marhaus / ¶ Thenne sayd fyre Trystram sythen that he fe-yth soo / lete hym wete that I am comen of fader syde and mo-35 der syde of as noble blood as he is / ¶ For fyre now shalle ye knowe that I am kyng Melyodas sone borne of youre own syster dame Elyzabeth that dyed in the forest in the byrthe of me / O Ihesu said kyng Mark ye are welcome faire neuewe to me / ¶ Thenne in alle the haste the kynge lete horse fyr Trif-tram and arme hym in the best maner that myghte be had or gotten for gold or fyluer / ¶ And thenne kynge Marke fente vnto sir Marhaus / and dyd hym to wete that a better born mā than he was hym self shold fyghte with hym / and his name 5 is sir Trystram de lyonas gotten of kynge Melyodas / and borne of kynge Markes fyfter / Thenne was sir Marhaus glad and blythe that he shold fyghte with fuche a gentylman / and soo by the assente of kynge Mark and of sir Marhaus they lete ordeyne that they shold fyghte within an Iland nyghe 10 fyr Marhaus shippes / and soo was sir Trystram putte in to a vessel both his hors and he and all that to hym longed bo-the for his body and for his hors / Syre Trystram lacked no thyng / And whan kynge Marke and his Barons of Cor-newaile beheld how yonge sir Trystram departed with fuche 15 a caryage to fyghte for the ryghte of Cornewaile / there was neyther man ne woman of worship but they wepte to see and vnderstande soo yonge a knyght to Ieoparde hym self for their ryghte /

¶ Capitulum tertium

SOo to shorten this tale whan sir Trystram was arry- 20 ued within the Iland / he loked to the fether syde / & there he sawe at an anker fyxe shippes nyghe to the land / and vnder the shadowe of the shippes vpon the land / there houed the noble knyghte sir Marhaus of Irland / Thenne sir Tryftram commaunded his seruauant gouernail to brynge his hors 25 to the land and dresse his harneis at al manere of ryghtes / And thenne whan he had soo done / he mounted vpon his hors And whan he was in his fadel wel apparailled / & his shelde dresfid vpon his sholder / Trystram asked Gouernayle where is this knyghte that I shal haue adoo with alle / Syre sayd 30 Gouernaile / see ye hym not / I wende ye had sene hym yonder he houeth vnder the vmbre of his shippes on horsbak with his spere in his hand and his sheld vpon his sholder / That is trouthe sayd the noble knyghte syre Trystram now I see hym wel ynouȝ / Thenne he commaunded his seruauant Gouernayle 35 to goo to his veffaile ageyne / and commaunde me vnto myne eme kynge Marke / and praye hym / yf that I be flayn in this bataille for to entere my body as hym femed beft / & as for me lete hym wete I will neuer yelde me for cowardyse / and yf I 5 be flayne and flee not / thenne they haue loſt no truage for me And yf foo be that I flee or yelde me as recreaūt / bydde myn eme neuer berye me in Cryſten beryels / And vpon thy lyf faid fyr Tryſtram to Gouvernayle / come thou not nyghe this I-land tyl that thou fee me ouercomen or flayne / or els that I 10 wyne yonder knyght / foo eyther departed from other fore we-pynge

¶ Capitulum ſeptimum

ANd thenne fyr Marhaus auyfed fyr Tryſtram and faid thus / yonge knyght fyr Tryſtram what doſt thou here / me fore repenteth of thy courage / for wete thou wel I haue 15 ben affayed / and the beſt knyghtes of this land haue ben af-fayed of my hand / And alſo I haue matched with the beſt kn-yghtes of the world / and therfor by my counceille retorne a-geyne vnto thy veffaile / And faire knyght and wel preued knyght ſaid fyre Tryſtram thou ſhalt wel wete I maye not 20 forſake the in this quarel / for I am for thy ſake made knyght And thou ſhalt wel wete that I am a kynges ſone born and goten vpon a quene / and ſuche promyſe I haue made att my neuews requeſt and myn owne ſekyng that I ſhalle fyghte with the vnto the vttermoſt / and delyuer Cornewaile from 25 the old truage / And alſo wete thou wel fyr Marhaus / that this is the gretteſt cauſe that thou courageſt me to haue adoo with the / For thou art called one of the moost renoumed kn-yghtes of the world / and by cauſe of that noyſe and fame / that thou haſt / thou gyueſt me courage to haue adoo with the / 30 for neuer yet was I preued with good knyghte / And fy-then I toke the ordre of knyghthode this day / I am wel pleaſyd that I maye haue adoo with ſo good a knyght as thou arte / And now wete thou wel fyr Marhaus that I caſte me to gete worſhip on thy body / And yf that I be not preued / I 35 truſt to god that I ſhal be worſhipfully preued vpon thy body / and to delyuer the countrey of Cornewaile for euer fro al maner of truage from Irland for euer / Whanne fyr Marhaus had herde hym faye what he wold / he faide thenne thus ageyn Fair Knyght sythen it is soo that thou castest to wynde worship of me / I lete the wete / worship may thou none lese by me yf thou mayst stande me thre strokes / for I lete the wete / for 5 my noble dedes preued and fene / Kyng Arthur made me knyghte of the table round / Thenne they beganne to feutre theyre speres / and they mette soo fyersly to gyders / that they smote eyther other doune / bothe hors and all / But sir Marhaus smote fyr Trystram a grete wounde in the syde with his spere / & 10 thenne they auoyded their horses / and pulled oute their swardes / and threwe their sheldes afore them / And thenne they lashed to gyders as men that were wyld and couragious / And whan they hadde stryken soo to gyder longe / thenne they leste her strokes / and soyned at their brethes and vyfours / & when 15 they sawe that that myght not preuaile them / thēne they hurtled to gyders lyke rammes to bere eyther other down / thus they fought styлле more than half a day / and eyder were wounded passyng fore / that the blood ranne doune freshly fro them vpon the ground / By thenne fyr Trystram waxed more fresher / 20 than fyr Marhaus and better wynded and bygger / and with a myghty stroke he smote fyr Marhaus vpon the helme suche a buffet that hit went thorou his helme / and thorou the coyse of stele and thorou the brayn pan / and the sward stak soo fast in the helme and in his brayn pan that sir Trystram pulled thry- 25 es at his sward or euer he myght pulle it out from his hede / & there Marhaus felle down on his knees the edge of Tristrams sward left in his brayne pan / And fodenly fyr Marhaus rose grouelynge / and threwe his sward and his shelde from hym / and soo ranne to his shippes and fledde his waye / and sir trif- 30 tram hadde euer his shelde and his sward / And whan sir Trif-tram sawe sir Marhaus withdrawe hym / he said A sir knyght of the round table why withdrawest thou the / thou dost thy selfe and thy kyn grete shame / for I am but a yong Knyghte / or now I was neuer preued / and rather than I shold withdrawe 35 we me from the / I had rather be hewen in C pyeces / Syr mar-haus answerd no worde but yede his way fore gronyng / Well sir knyght said sir Triftram I promyse the thy suerd and thy sheld shal be myn / and thy sheld shalle I were in al places where I ryde on myn aduentures and in the fyghte of kyng Arthur and alle the round table

¶ Capitulum viij

5 A Non fir Marhaus and his selsauship departed in to Ir-land / And as foone as he came to the kyng his broder / he lete ferche his woundes / ¶ And whan his hede was ferched / a pyece of fyre Trystrams fwerd was founden therin / and myghte neuer be had oute of his hede for no furgeons / and soo he dyed of fyr Trystrams fwerd / and that py-10 ece of the fwerd the queene his syster kepte hit for euer wyth her / for she thoughte to be reuengyd and she myghte / ¶ Now torne we ageyne vnto fyr Trystram that was fore wounded / and ful fore bled that he myzt not within a lytel whyle when he had take cold vnnethe sterc hym of his lymmes / and thē-15 ne he fette hym doune softely vpon a lytel hylle / and bledde fast / Thenne anone came Gouvernaile his man with his vessel And the kyng and his barons came with proceffion ageynst hym / And whan he was come vnto the land / Kyng Marke toke hym in his armes / and the kyng and fir Dynas the fe-20 nefcal ladde fyr Trifram in to the castel of Tyntygail / And thenne was he ferched in the best maner / and leid in his bedde / And whan kyng Marke sawe his woundes / he wepte hertely and soo dyd alle his lordes / So god me help said kyng Mark I wolde not for alle my landes that my neuewe dyed / Soo 25 fyr Trystram laye there a moneth and more / and cuer he was lyke to deye of that stroke that fir Marhaus smote hym fyrst with the spere / For as the Frensshe book saith / the speres hede was enuenyment that fyr Trystram myghte not be hole / Thenne was kyng Mark and alle his barons passyng heuy / For 30 they demed none other / but that fyr Trystram shold not recouer / Thenne the kyng lete sende after alle manere of leches & furgens bothe vnto men and wymmen / and there was none / that wold behote hym the lyf / Thenne came there a lady that was a ryght wyfe lady / & she said playnly vnto kyng mark 35 and to fir Trystram and to alle his barons that he shold neuer be hole / but yf fire Tryftram wente in the fame countrey that the venym came fro / and in that countrey shold he be holpen or els neuer / Thus faid the lady vnto the Kyng / whan kynge Marke vnderstood that / he lete purueye for fyr Tryf- 5 tram and gouernail with hym / and fir Triftram toke his harp with hym / and foo he was putte in to the fee to fayle in to Ir-land / and foo by good fortune he arryued vp in Irland euen fast by a castel where the Kyng and the quene was / and at his arryuayl he sat and harped in his bedde a mery lay fu- 10 che one herd they neuer none in Irland afore that tyme /

¶ And whan it was told the Kyng and the quene of fuche a Knyght that was fuche an harper / anone the Kyng sente for hym / and lete ferche his woundes / and thenne asked hym his name / then he anfuerd I am of the countrey of Lyonas / & 15 my name is Tramtryft that thus was wounded in a bataille as I fought for a ladyes ryght / So god me help faid kyng Anguyfthe ye shal haue al the helpe in this land that ye may haue here / But I lete you wete in Cornewaile I had a grete loffe / as euer hadde kyng / for there I lost the best knyghte 20 of the world / his name was Marhaus a ful noble knyghte and Knyght of the table round / and there he told fyr Tryftra wherefore fyr Marhaus was slayne / Syr Tryftram made femblaunt as he had ben fory / and better knewe he how hit was than the kyng

¶ Capitulum ix

THenne the kyng for grete fauoure maade Tramtryft to be put in his daughters ward and kepyng by cause she was a noble furgeon / And whan she had ferched hym / she fond in the bottome of his wound that therin was poyfon / And foo she heled hym within a whyle / and therfore Tramtrif 30 cast grete loue to la beale Ifoud / for she was at that tyme the fairest mayde and lady of the worlde / And there Tramtryft lerned her to harpe / and she beganne to haue grete fantasyc vnto hym / And at that tyme fir Palamydes the sarafyn was in that countrey and wel cheryfshed with the kyng and the 35 quene / And euery day fyr Palamydes drewe vnto la beale Ifoud / and profered her many yestes / for he loued her passy-ngly wel / Al that Aspyed Tramtryst / and ful wel knewe he fyr Palamydes for a noble knyght and a myghty man / 5 And wete ye wel fyr Tramtryst had grete despyte at fyr palomydes / for la beale Ifoud told Tramtryst that Palamydes was in wylle to be crystened for her sake / Thus was ther grete enuy betwixe Tramtryst and fyr Palamydes / Thenne hit befelle that kynge Anguyfthe lete crye a grete Iustes and a 10 grete turnement for a lady that was called the lady of the la-undes / and she was nyghe cofyn vnto the kynge / And what man wanne her / thre dayes after he shold wedde her and haue alle her landes / This crye was made in England / walys Scotland and also in Fraunce and in Bretayne / It befelle 15 vpon a day la beale Ifoud came vnto fyr Tramtryst and told hym of this turnement / he answerd and sayd fayr lady I am but a feble knyghte / and but late I had ben dede / had not your good ladyship ben / Now fayre lady what wold ye I shold doo in this matere / wel ye wote my lady that I maye 20 not Iuste / A Tramtryst said la beale Ifoud why wille ye not haue ado at that turnement / wel I wote fyr Palamydes shall be there / and to doo what he maye / And therefore Tramtryst I pray you for to be there / for els fyr Palamydes is ly-ke to wynde the degree / Madame said Tramtrist as for that / 25 it may be soo / for he is a proued knyght / and I am but a yong knyght and late made / and the fyrst batail that I dyd it myshapped me to be foore wounded as ye see / But and I wyf ye wold be my better lady / at that turnement I will be so that ye wille kepe my counceille and lete no creature haue 30 knouleche that I shalle Iuste but your self / and suche as ye wil to kepe your council / my poure persone shall I leoparde there for your sake that paraentur fir Palamydes shal knowe whan that I come / Therto said la beale Ifoud do your best & as I can said la beale Ifoud I shal purueye hors and ar-35 mour for you at my deuyse / as ye will soo be hit said fyr Trātrist I wille be at your cōmaundement / So at the day of Iustes / ther cam fir Palamydes with a black sheld / & he ouerthrew many knyghtes that alle the peple had merueyle of hym /

For he putte to the werse fyr Gawayne / Gaherys / Agraauyn Bagdemagus / kay / Dodyus le faueage / Sagramor le defyr-rus / Gumret le petyte / and Gryflet le fyfe de dieu / Alle these the fyrste daye fyr Palamydes strake doune to the erthe / And thenne alle maner of knyghtes were adred of fir Palamydes 5 and many called hym the knyght with the black shelde / Soo that day fyre Palamydes had grete worshyp / ¶ Thenne cam kynge Anguyfthe vnto Tramtryst / and asked hym why he wold not Iuste / Syr he said I was but late hurte / and as yet I dare not auenture me / ¶ Thenne came there the same 10 squyer that was sente from the kynges doughter of Fraunce / vnto fyr Trystram / And whanne he had aspyed fyre Tristrā he felle flat to his feete / Alle that aspyed la Bele Ifoud / what curtosye the squyer made vnto fyr Trystram / And ther-with al sodenly fyr Trystram ranne vnto his squyer whos na- 15 me was Heles le renoumes / and praid hym hertely in noo wyfe to telle his name / Syr said Heles I wille not discouer your name / but yf ye commaunde me

¶ Capitulum x

Thenne fyr Trystram asked hym what he dyd in thofe countreyes / fyr he sayd / I came hyder with fyr Gawa- 20 yn for to be made knyght / And yf it please you of your han-des that I may be made knyghte / Awaite vpon me as to morn secretely / and in the feld I shal make you a knyght / Thenne had la beale Ifoud grete suspecyon vnto Tramtryst that he was somme man of worship proued / and ther with she com- 25 forted her self / and cast more loue vnto hym than she had done tofore ¶ And soo on the morne fyr Palamydes maade hym redy to come in to the feld as he dyd the fyrst day / And there he smote doune the kynge with the C knyghtes and the kynge of Scottes / ¶ Thenne had la beale Ifoud ordeyned 30 and wel arayed fyr Trystram in whyte hors and harnais / And ryght soo she lete putte hym oute at a preuy posterne / & soo he came in to the feld as it had ben a bryght angel / And anone fyr Palamydes aspyed hym / and ther with he sentrid a spere vnto fyr Tramtrist / and he ageyne vnto hym / And 35 there fyr Trystram smote dounc fyr Palamydes vnto the erth And thenne there was a grete noyfe of people / some sayd / fyre Palamydes hadde a falle / some said the knyght with the blak shelde had a falle / And wete you wel la beale Ifoud was 5 passynge gladde / And thenne sire Gawayne and his felawes ix had merueille what knyghte it myght be that had smyten dounc fyr Palamydes / Thenne wold there none Iuste with Tramtryst / but alle that there were forfoke hym / moost & left / Thenne fyr Trystram made Heles a knyght / and caused hym 10 to put hym self forthe / and dyd ryght wel that day / So after fyr Heles held hym with fyr Trystram / And whan fyre Palamydes had receyued this falle / wete ye wel that he was fore ashamed / And as pryuely as he myght / he withdrewe hym oute of the feld / Alle that aspyed fyre Trystram / and 15 lyghtly he rode after fyre Palamydes and ouertoke hym / and badde hym torne / for better he wold assaye hym / or euer he departed / Thenne fyr Palamydes torned hym and cyther lashed at other with their swerdes / But at the fyrste stroke fyre Trystram smote dounc Palamydes / and gaf hym suche a 20 stroke vpon the hede that he felle to the erthe / Soo thenne Trif-tram badde yelde hym / and doo his commaundement or els he wold slee hym / whan fyre Palamydes beheld his countenaunce / he dredde his buffets foo / that he graunted al his askyn-ges / Wel said / said sir Triftram / this shalle be your charge / 25 Fyrst vpon payne of your lyf that ye forsake my lady la beale Ifoud / and in no maner wyse that ye drawe not to her / Also this twelue moneth and a day / that ye bere none armou-ur nor none harneis of werre / ¶ Now promyse me this or here shalt thou dye / Allas faide Palamydes for euer I am ashamed 30 / ¶ Thenne he sware as fyr Trystram hadde commaunded hym / Thenne for despyte and anger / fyre Palamydes cutte of his harneis / and threwe them awaye / And soo fyr Trystram torned ageyne to the Castel where was la beale Ifoud / and by the weye he mette with a damoyfel that asked after fyre 35 launcelot that wanne the dolorous gard worshipfully / & this damoyfel asked sire Triftram what he was / For it was tolde her that it was he that smote dounc fyr Palamydes / by whom the x knyghtes of kynge Arthurs were smyten dounc /

Thenne the damoyfel prayd fyr Trystram to telle her what he was / And whether that he were fyr Launcelot du lake / for she demyd that there was no knyght in the world myghte do fuche dedes of armes / but yf it were Launcelot / Fayre damoyfel sayd fyr Trystram wete ye wel that I am not fyr launcelot 5 for I was neuer of fuche prowesse / but in god is al that he maye make me as good a knyght as the good knyght sir launcelot / Now gentyl knyght said she / put vp thy vyfure / & whan she beheld his vyfage / she thouȝt she sawe neuer a better mās vyfage / nor a better farynge knyght / And thenne whan the 10 damoyfel knewe certaynly that he was not fyre launcelot / thenne she took her leue and departed from hym / And thenne fyre Trystram rode pryuely vnto the pofterne where kepte hym la beale Ifoud / and there she made hym good chere and thanked god of his good spede / Soo anone within a whyle 15 the kyng and the quene vnderstood that hit was Tramtryst that smote doune fyre Palamydes / thenne was he moche made of more than he was before

THus was sir Tramtryst longe there wel cheryfshed / with the kyng and the quene / and namely with la 20 beale Ifoud / So vpon a daye / the quene and la beale Ifoud made a bayne for fyre Tramtryst / And whan he was in his bayne / the quene and Ifoud her doughter romed vp & doune in the chamber / and there whyles Gouvernail and Heles attendyd vpon Tramtryst / & the quene beheld his swerd 25 there as it laye vpon his bedde / And thēne by vnhap the quene drewe oute his swerd / and beheld it a longe whyle / and bothe they thoughte it a passyng fayre swerd / but within a foote and an half of the poynte there was a grete pyece there of oute broken of the edge / And whan the quene aspyed that 30 gap in the swerd / she remembryd her of a pyece of a swerd / that was foude in the brayne pan of fyre Marhaus the good knyght that was her broder / Allas thenne said she vnto her doughter la beale Ifoud / this is the same traytour knyghte that slewe my broder thyn eme / Whanne Ifoud herd her saye 35 foo / she was passyng fore abaffhed / for passyng wel she loued Tramtryft / and ful wel she knewe the cruelnes of her moder the quene / Anon there with alle the quene went vnto her owne chamber / and foughte her cofre / and there she toke oute the 5 pyece of the swerd that was pulled out of fyr Marhaus hede after that he was dede / And thenne she ranne with that pyece of yron to the swerd that laye vpon the bedde / And whanne she putte that pyece of stele and yron vnto the swerd / hit was as mete as it myghte be / whan it was newe broken / And the-10 ne the quene gryped that swerd in her hand fyerfly / & with alle her myghte she ranne streyghte vpon Tramtryft where he sat in his bayne / And there she hadde ryued hym thorow hadde not fyr Heles gotten her in his armes / and pulled the fuerd from her / and els she hadde threst him thorow / Thenne whanne 15 she was lettyd of her euyl wylle / she ranne to the kynge Anguyssh her husband and fayde on her knees / O my lord here haue ye in your hous that traitour knyght that slewe my broder and your seruauant that noble knyght fyr Marhaus / Who is that said kynge Anguysshe and where is he / Syr she said 20 hit is fyr Tramtryft the same knyght that my doughter helyd Allas said the kynge therfore am I ryght heuy / for he is a ful noble knyght as euer I sawe in felde / ¶ But I charge you said the kyng to the quene that ye haue not ado with that knyght / but lete me dele with hym / Thenne the kynge went in 25 to the chambre vnto fyr Tramtryft / and thenne was he gone vnto his chambre / and the kynge fond hym al redy armed to mounte vpon his hors / Whanne the kynge sawe hym al redy armed to goo vnto horsbak / the kynge said nay Tramtryft hit wille not auaille to compare the ageynst me / But thus moche 30 I shalle doo for my worship and for thy loue in foo moch as thou arte within my courte / hit were no worship for me to flee the / Therefore vpon this condycyon I wille gyue the leue for to departe from this courte in faufte / so thou wilt telle me who was thy fader / and what is thy name / and yf thou slewe fyr 35 Marhaus my broder

¶ Capitulum xij

SYr said Trystram now I shalle telle you alle the tro-uthe / my faders name is sir Melyodas kynge of Lyo-nas / & my moder hyȝt Elyzabeth that was sifter vnto kynge Marke of Cornewaile / & my moder dyed of me in the foreste / And by cause therof she commaunded or she dyed that 5 whan I were crystened / they shold crystene me Tcystram / & by cause I wold not be knowen in this countrey I turned my name and lete me calle Tramtryst / & for the truage of Corne-wayle I fought for myn emes sake / & for the ryght of Corne-newaile that ye had posseded many yeres / And wete ye well 10 said Trystram vnto the kynge I dyd the bataille for the loue of myn vnkel kynge Marke / and for the loue of the countreye of Cornewaile / and for to encrease myn honoure / For that same day that I fought with sir Marhaus I was made knyȝt And neuer or than dyd I no bataille with no knyght / & fro 15 me he went alyue & leste his sheld & his fuerd behynde / so god me helpe said the kyng I may not say but ye dyd as a kny-ght shold / & it was your part to doo for your quarel / & to encreace your worship as a knyght shold / how be it I may not mayntene you in this countrey with my worship onles that I 20 shold displease my barons & my wyf / & her kyn / Syr said Trystram I thanke you of your good lordship that I haue had with you here / and the grete goodenes my lady your doughter hath shewed me / & therfor said sir Tristram it may so happen that ye shalle wyne more by my lyf than by my dethe / for in 25 the partyes of Englonde it may happen I may doo you seruyse at some season that ye shal be glad that euer ye shewed me your good lordship / ¶ With more I promyse you as I am true knyȝt that in all places I shal be my lady your douȝters ser-uaunt / & knyȝt in ryght & in wrong / & I shal neuer fayle her 30 to doo as moche as a knyght maye doo ¶ Also I byſeche your good grace that I may take my leue at my lady your doughter and at alle the Barons and kny-ghtes / I wille wel said the kynge / ¶ Thenne sire Tristram wente vnto la beale Ifoud / and tooke his leue of her / And 35 thenne he tolde her all what he was and how he had chaunged his name by cause he wold not be knowen / & hou a lady told hym he þ^t shold neuer be hole tyl he cam in to this couȝtrei where the poyſon was made / where thorow I was nere my dethe had not your ladyſhip ben / O gentyl knyght ſaid la beale Ifoud ful wo am I of thy departyng / for I ſawe neuer man that I oughte ſoo good wille to / and there with all ſhe wepte her-5 tely / Madame ſaid ſire Tryſtram ye ſhalle vnderſtande that my name is ſir Tryſtram de lyones gotten of kyng Melyodas and borne of his quene / And I promyſe you feythfully that I ſhal be alle the dayes of my lyf your knyghte / Gramercy ſaid La beale Ifoud / and I promyſe you there ageynſte that I 10 ſhalle not be maryed this ſeuē yeres but by your aſſent / and to whome that ye wille I ſhalle be maryed to / hym wyll I haue / and he wille haue me yf ye wil conſente / And thenne ſyre Tryſtram gaf her a rynge and ſhe gaf hym another / and ther with he departed fro her / leuyng her / makinge grete dole 15 and lamentacion / and he ſtreighte wente vnto the Courte amonge alle the Barons / and there he took his leue at moſt and leſt / and openly he ſaid amonge them all / Faire lordes now it is ſoo that I muſte departe / Yf there be ony man here that I haue offended vnto / or that ony man be with me gre-20 ued / lete complayne hym here afore me or that euer I depart and I ſhal amende it vnto my power / And yf there be ony that wil profer me wronge or ſay of me wrong / or ſhame behynde my bak / ſaye hit now or neuer / and here is my body to make it good body ageynſt body / And alle they ſtood ſtylle / 25 ther was not one that wold ſaye one word / yet were there ſome knyghtes that were of the quenes blood and of ſire Mar-haus blood / but they wold not medle with hym /

¶ Capitulum xliij

Soo ſir Triſtram departed and toke the ſee / & with good wynde he aryued vp at Tyntagyl in Cornewaile / & 30 whan kyng Mark was hole in his proſperite ther cam tydynges that ſir Triſtram was arryued and hole of his wo-undes / therof was kyng marke paſſyng glad / & ſoo were alle the barons / & whan he ſawe his tyme he rode vnto his fader kyng melyodas / & there he had al the chere that the kyng & the 35 quene coude make hym / And thenne largely Kyng Melyo-das and his quene departed of their landes and goodes to ſire Tryſtram /

¶ Thenne by the lycence of Kyng

Melyodas his fader he retorned ageyne vnto the court of kyng Mark / and there he lyued in grete ioye long tyme / vntyl at the lafte there befelle a Ialoufy and an vnkyndenes betwyxe kyng Marke and sir Triftram / for they loued bothe one lady / And she was an erles wyf that hyght fyre Segwarydes / And this lady loued fyre Tryfram passyngly wel / And he loued her ageyne for she was a passyng fayr lady / And that aspyed sir Triftram wel / ¶ Thenne kyng Mark vnderstood that and was Ialous / for kyng Marke loued her passyngly wel / Soo it felle vpon a day / this lady sent a dw-erf vnto sir Triftram and badde hym as he loued her / that he wold be with her the nyȝt nexte folowyng / Also she charged you that ye come not to her but yf ye be wel armed / for her lord was called a good knyghte ¶ Syre Tryfram answered to the dwerf / recommaunde me vnto my lady / and telle her I wille not sayle but I wille be with her the terme that she hath sette me / and with this anfuere the dwerf departed / And kyng Marke aspyed that the dwerf was with fyre Tryfram vpon message from Segwarydes wyf / thenne kyng Marke sent for the dwerf / And whanne he was comen / he maade the dwerf by force to telle hym alle why and wherfore that he came on message from fyre Triftram ¶ Now said kyng Marke goo where thou wolt / and vpon payne of dethe that thou faye no word that thou spakest with me / soo the dwerf departed from the kyng / ¶ And that same nyghte that the steuen was sette betwixt Segwarydes wyfe & syr Tryfram kyng Marke armed hym / and made hym redy and took two knyghtes of his counceyll with hym / and soo he rode afore for to abyde by the waye / for to awayte vpon sir Tryfram / ¶ And as fyre Tryfram came rydyng vpon his waye with his spere in his hand / kyng Marke came hurtlyng vpon hym with his two knyghtes fodenly / And alle thre smote hym with theyre speres / and kyng Marke hurte fyre Tryfram on the brest ryght fore / And thenne fyre Triffram feutryd his spere / and smote his vnkel kyng Marke soo fore that he raffhyd hym to the erthe / and bryfed hym that he laye styll in a fwoune / and longe hit was or cuer he myghte welde hym self / And thenne he ranne to the one knyght / and eft to the other / and smote hem to the cold erthe / that they laye styll / And ther with alle sir Tristram rode forth the fore wounded to the lady / and fonde her abydyng hym 5 at a posterne

ANd there she welcomed hym fayre / and eyther halfed other in armes / and soo she lete putte vp his hors in the best wyfe / and thenne she vnarmed hym / And soo they souped lyghtely and wente to bedde with grete ioye and 10 plefaunce / and soo in his ragyng he took no kepe of his grene wound that kyng Marke had gyuen hym / And soo fyr Tristram bebled both the ouer shete and the nether & pelowes / and hede shete / and within a whyle ther came one afore that warned her that her lord was nere hand within a bowe draughte 15 Soo she made sir Trystram to aryse / and soo he armed hym / and tooke his hors and so departed / By thenne was come segwarydes her lord / and whan he fonde her bedde troubled & broken and wente nere and beheld it by candel lyghte / thenne he sawe that there had layne a wounded knyght / A fals traitreffe thenne he said / why hast thou bitrayed me / and there with alle he swange oute a swerd and said / but yf thou telle me who hath ben here / here thou shalt dye / A my lord mercy fayd the lady / and helde vp her handes / fayeng / flee me not / and I shall telle you alle who hath ben here / Telle anone said seg-25 warydes to me alle the trouthe / Anone for drede she faide here was sir Trystram with me / and by the way as he came to me ward / he was fore wounded / A fals traitreffe said segwarides where is he become / sir she said he is armed and departed on hors bak not yet hens half a myle / ye faye wel said segwarydes 30 thenne he armed hym lyghtly / and gate his hors and rode after fyre Tristram that rode streyght waye vnto Tyntagyl / And within a whyle he ouertoke fyre Tristram / And thenne he badde hym torne fals traitour knyghte / and fyr Tristram anon torned hym ageynst hym / And there with al segwarides smote fyr Trystram with a spere that it alle to braste / ¶ And thenne he fwange oute his fwerd / and smote fast at fyr Trif-tram / Syre knyght faid fyre Tryfram I counceyle you that ye smyte no more how be it for the wronges that I haue done you / I wille forbere you as longe as I maye / ¶ Nay fa-yd Segwarides that shalle not be / for outhur thou shalt dye 5 or I / Thenne fyre Triftram drewe oute his fwerd and hurtled his hors vnto hym fyerfly / and thorou the waste of the body he smote fyre Segwarides that he felle to the erthe in a fwounce / And soo fyre Triftram departed and lefte hym there And soo he rode vnto Tyntagil and tooke his lodgyng secrete 10 tely for he wold not be knowen that he was hurte ¶ Also fir Segwarides men rode after theyr maister / whome they fond lyenge in the feld fore wounded / and brouzt hym home on his shelde / and there he lay longe or that he were hole / but at the laste he recouerd ¶ Also kynge Marke 15 wold not be aknowen of that fir Triftram and he hadde mette that nyght / And as for fyre Tryfram he knewe not that kynge Marke had mette with hym / And soo the kynges astaū-ce came to fir Triftram to comforte hym as he laye seke in his bedde / But as longe as kynge Marke lyued / he loued neuer 20 fyre Tryfram after that / though there was fayre speche / loue was there none / And thus it past many wekes and dayes / & alle was forgyuen and forgotten / For fyre Segwarydes durste not haue ado with fir Triftram by cause of his noble prowesse And also by cause he was neuewe vnto kynge Marke / ther 25 fore he lete it ouer flyp / for he that hath a pryuy hurte is loth to haue a shame outward

¶ Capitulum xv /

THenne hit befelle vpon a daye that the good knyghte Bleoberys de gany's broder to Blamore de gany's / & nyghe cofyn vnto the good knyght fir launcelot du la- 30 ke / This Bleoberys came vnto the courte of kynge Marke / & there he asked of kynge Marke a bone to gyue hym what yest that he wold aske in his courte ¶ Whanne the kyng herd hym aske soo / he merueilled of hys askynge / but by cause he was a knyghte of the round table / & of a grete renomme / kynge Marke graunted hym his hole afkynge / thenne faide sire Bleoberys I wille haue the fayrest lady in your Courte that me lyst to chefe / I maye not say nay 5 sayd kynge marke / Now chefe at youre aduenture

And soo sire Bleoberys dyd chefe fyre segwarydes wyf / and to-ke her by the hand and soo wente his waye with her / and soo he tooke his hors and gart fette her behynde his squyer and rode vpon his way / When sire segwarydes herd telle that his la-10 dy was gone with a knyght of kynge Arthurs courte /

¶ Thenne he armed hym and rode after that knyght for to re-scowe his lady / soo whan Bleoberys was gone with this lady / kyng Mark and all the courte was wroth that she was awey / thenne were there certayne ladyes that knewe that there 15 was grete loue bitwene sire Tristram and her / and also that lady loued sire Tristram aboue alle other knyghtes / Thenne there was one lady that rebuked sire Tristram in the horryblest wyfe / and called hym coward knyghte / that he wold for shame of his knyghthode see a lady soo shamefully be taken awaye /

20 fro his vnkels courte / But she ment that eyther of hem hadde loued other with entiere hert / But sire Tristram answered her thus / Faire lady it is not my parte to haue adoo in suche maters whyle her lord and husband is present here / And yf hit hadde ben that her lord hadde not ben here in this courte / thenne 25 for the worship of this courte perauentur / I wold haue ben her champion / And yf so be / sire segwarides spede not wel / it may happen that I wille speke with that good knyght / or euer he passe from this countrey / Thenne within a whyle came one of sire segwarydes squyers / and told in the court that sire segwari-30 des was beten fore and wounded to the poynte of dethe / as he wold haue rescowed his lady / sire Bleoberis ouerthrewe hym and fore hath wounded hym / Thenne was kynge marke heuy therof / and alle the courte / When sire Tristram herd of this / he was ashamed and fore greued / And thenne was he soone ar-Andret his cosyn that by the commaundement of kynge Ma-rke was sente to brynge forth & euer it laye in his power / ij / dret / ther was neuer worfe with me / for here by the commaun-dement of kynge Mark I was sente to fetcche two knyghtes of 5 kynge Arthurs courte / and that one bete me / and wounded me / and sette nought by my message / Faire cosyn said fir triffram ryde on your way / and yf I may mete them / it may happen I shal reuenge you / So fyr Andret rode in to Cornewaile And fyr Triffram rode after the two knyghtes the whiche one 10

¶ Capitulum xvi /

THenne within a whyle fyr Tryfram sawe hem afore his maister / fir I wold counceile you nought to haue 15 ado with hem / for they ben two preued knyghtes of Arthurs Courte / As for that said fyr Tryfram haue ye no doute / but I wille haue adoo with hem to encrease my worship / for it is many daye sythen I dyd ony dedes of armes / doo as ye lyst said Gouvernaile / and there with alle anone fyr Tryfram af- 20 ked them / from whens they came / and wheder they wold / and fyre Triffram / and hadde scorne of his wordes / & asked hym ageyne / Fair knyghte be ye a knyght of Cornewaile / where by aske ye hit said fir Triffram / For it is feldom sene said fir Sa- 25 gramore that ye Cornyshe knyghtes ben valyaunte men of armes / For within these two houres there mette vs one of you cornyshe knyghtes / and grete wordes he spak / and anon with lytel myght he was leyd to the erthe / And as I trowe sayd fir Sagramore ye shal haue the same handfel that he hadde 30 Faire lordes said fyre Triffram it may soo happen that I maye better withstande than he dyd / and whether ye will or nyl / I wil haue ado with you / by cause he was my cosyn that ye bete And therefore here do your best / & wete ye wel but yf ye quyte had ben thonder / And fyr Dodynas spere braft in fonder / but fyr Trystram smote hym with a more myght / that he smote hym clene ouer the hors croupe that nyghe he hadde broken his 5 neck / Whanne fyre Sagramour sawe his felawe haue fuche a falle / he merueylled what knyzt he myght be / And he dresseth and they came to gyders as the thonder / and ther fir Tristram smote fyr Sagramore a stronge buffet that he bare his hors & 10 hym to the erthe / and in the fallyng he brake his thygh / whan this was done / fyr Trystram asked hem / Fayre knyghtes will nge Arthur / it is to you shame to say of vs knyghtes of Corne-wayle dishonoure / for it may happen a Cornyshe knyght may 15 matche you / that is trouthe said fyr Sagramore / that haue we wel preued / but I requyre the sayd fyre Sagramore telle vs youre ryght name by the feythe and trouthe that ye owe to the hyghe ordre of knyghthode / ye charge me with a grete thynge said fyr Trystram / and fythen ye lyst to wete hit / ye shal 20 knowe and vnderstande that my name is fyr Trystram de lyonas kynge Melyodas sone / and neuewe vnto kynge Marke Thenne were they two knyghtes fayne / that they had mette with Trystram / and soo they praid hym to abyde in their sela-uship / Nay said fyre Tristram / for I must haue ado with one of 25 your felawes / his name is fyr Bleoberys de ganys / god spetram departed and rode on ward on his waye / And thenne was he ware before hym in a valeye where rode fyr Bleoberys with fir Segwarydes lady that rode behynde his squyer vpon 30 a palfroy

¶ Capítulum xvij

THēne fyr Trystram rode more than a paas vntyl that he had ouertake hym / Thenne spak fyr Trystram abyde he said knyght of Arthurs courte / brynge ageyne that lady or delyuer her to me / I wille doo neyther said Ble-35 oberys / for I drede no Cornyshe knyght soo fore that me lyst

[leaf 149 verso]

to delyuer her / why said fyr Triftram may not a Cornyssh knyght doo as wel as another knyght / this same daye two knyghtes of your Courte within this thre myle mette with me / And or euer we departed / they fonde a Cornyssh knyght good ynough for them bothe / what were their names said Bleoberis / they told me said fyr Tryftram that the one of them hyghte fyr Sagramore le defyrus / and the other hyghte Dodynas le faueage / A said fyr Bleoberys haue ye met with them Soo god me helpe they were two good knyghtes and men of grete worship / And yf ye haue bete them bothe / ye must nedes be a good knyght / but yf it soo be / ye haue bete them bothe / yet shalle ye not fere me / but ye shalle bete me / or euer ye haue thys lady / Thenne defende you said fyr Triftram / soo they departed and came to gyder lyke thonder / and eyder bare other doune hors and alle to the erthe / Thenne they auoyded their horses / and lashed to gyder egerly with swerdes and myghtely / now tracyng and trauerfynge on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand more than two houres / And somtyme they rashed to gyder with fuche a myght that they laye bothe grouelynge on the ground / Thenne sir Bleoberis de ganys starte abak / and said thus / Now gentyl good knyght a whyle hold your handes / & lete vs speke to gyders / Saye what ye wille said Tryftram / & I wille anfuere you / Sire faide Bleoberys I wold wete of whens ye be / and of whom ye be come / and what is your name / Soo god me help said fyr Tryftram I fere not to telle you my name / Wete ye wel I am kynge Melyodas sone / and my moder is kyng Markes syster / and my name is sir Triftram de Lyonas and kynge Marke is myn vnkel / Truly said Bleoberys I am ryght gladde of you / for ye are he that slewe marhaus the knyght hand for hand in an Iland for the truage of Cornewaile / Also ye ouercame sir Palamydes the good knyght at a turnement in an Iland / where ye bete sir Gawayne & his nyne felawes / Soo god me helpe said sir Tryftram wete ye wel that I am the same knyght / Now I haue told you my name / telle me yours with good will / Wete ye wel that my name is sir Bleoberys de ganys / and my broder hyghte fire Blamore de ganys / that is called a good knyght and we be syfter children vnto my lord sir Laūcelot du lake that we calle one of the best knyghtes of the world / That is trouthe said sir Tristram / sir Launcelot is called pierles of curtosy and of knyghthode / and for his sake said sir Trystram I will not with my good wille fyghte no more with you for the grete loue I 5 haue to sir Launcelot du lake / In good feith said Bleoberys / as for me / I wille be lothe to fyghte with you / But sythen ye folowe me here to haue this lady / I shal profer you kyndenys curtosy and gentilnes right here vpon this ground / This lady shalle be betwixe vs bothe / and to whome that she 10 wille go / lete hym haue her in pees / I wille wel said Tristram For as I deme she wille leue you / and come to me / ye shalle preue hit anone said Bleoberys

¶ Capitulum xviij

SOo whan she was fette betwixe them bothe / she sayd these wordes vnto sir Tristram / wete ye wel syr Tristram de lyones that but late thou was the man in the 15 world that I moost loued and trusted / And I wende thou haddest loued me ageyne aboue alle ladyes / But whan thou sawest this knyght lede me away thou madest no chere to rescoue me / but suffred my lord Segwarydes ryde after me / but 20 vn tyl that tyme I wend thou haddest loued me / And therefore now I wille leue the / and neuer loue the more / & there with alle she went vnto sir Bleoberys / Whan syr Tristram sawe her doo soo / he was wonderly wrothe with that lady & ashamed to come to the courte / sir Tristram said sir Bleoberys ye 25 are in the defeaute / for I here by these ladyes wordes / she before this day trusted you aboue alle erthly knyghtes / and as she faith ye haue deceyued her / therefore wete ye wel / ther may noo man hold that wille aweye / and rather than ye shold be heretely displeasyd with me / I wold ye had her / and she wold 30 abyde with you / Nay said the lady / so god me help I wil neuer goo with hym / For he that I loued most / I wende he had loued me / And therefore sire Trystram she said ryde as thou cam / for though thou haddest ouercome this knyght as ye was lykely / with the neuer wold I haue gone / And I shall pray 35 this knyghte soo faire of his knyghthode that or euer he passe this countrey / that he wille lede me to the Abbeye / there my lord fyr Segwarydes lyeth Soo god me helpe said Bleoberis I lete yow wete good knyght sire Trystram by cause kynges Marke gaf me the choyse of a yefte in this courte / and so this lady lyked me best / Not withstandynge she is wedded and hath a lord / and I haue fulfilled my quest / she shall be sent vnto her husband ageyne / And in especial moost for youre sake sire Trystram / And yf she wold goo with you / I wold ye had her / I thanke you said fyr Trystram / but for her loue I shal beware what manere a lady I shalle loue or truste / For had her lord fyr Segwarydes ben away from the courte I shold haue ben the fyrst that shold haue folowed yow / but fythen ye haue refused me / as I am true knyght I shalle her knowe passyngly wel that I shal loue or trust / and soo they took theyr leue one fro thother and departed / And soo sire trif-tram rode vnto Tyntagyl / and fyr Bleoberys rode vnto the ab-bay where fyr segwarydes lay fore wounded / and there he delyuerd his lady / and departed as a noble knyght / & whan sire segwarydes sawe his lady / he was gretely comforted / and thenne she told hym that sire Trystram had done grete bataill with fyre Bleoberys / and caused hym to brynge her ageyne / These wordes pleasyd sire segwarydes ryght wel that sire trif-tram wold doo soo moche / and soo that lady told alle the bataill vnto kynges Marke betwixe fyr Trystram and sire Bleobe-rys

¶ Capitulum xix

THenne whanne this was done / kynges Mark cast alweyes in his hert how he myght destroye fyr Triftram And thenne he ymagyned in hym self to sende sire trif-tram in to Irland for la beale Ifoud / For sire Trystram had soo preyed her beaute and her goodnes that kynges Mark faid he wold wedde her / where vpon he praid fyr Triftram to take his wey in to Irland for hym on message / And all this was done to the entente to flee fyr Triftram / Not withstandynge fyr Trystram wold not reffuse the message for no daunger nor peryl that myght falle for the pleasyr of his vnkel / but

to goo he made hym redy in the most goodlyest wyfe that myght be deuysed / For sir Tristram tooke with hym the mooste goodlyest knyghtes that he myght fynde in the courte / & they were arayed after the gyse that was thenne vsed in the goodlyest maner / So sir Tristram departed and toke the fee with alle his selauship / And anone as he was in the brode see / a tempest toke hym and his selauship and drofe them bak in to the coste of Englund / And there they arryued fast by Camelot / and ful fayne they were to take the land / ¶ And whan 10 they were landed sir Tristram sette vp his paelione vpon the land of Camelot / and there he lete hange his shelde vpon the paelione / And that same day came two knyghtes of kynge Arthurs / that one was sir Ector de marys and sir Morganor And they touched the shelde / and badde hym come oute of the 15 paelione for to Iust and he wold Iust / ye shalle be answerd faid sir Tristram and ye wille tarye a lytel whyle / Soo he made hym redy / and fyrste he smote doune sir Ector de marys / and after he smote doune sir Morganor alle with one spere / and fore bryfed them / And whan they laye vpon the erthe / they asked sir Tristram what he was / and of what cuntrye he was 20 knyghte / Faire lordes faid sir Tristram wete ye wel that I am of Cornewaile / Allas faid sire Ector now am I ashamed / that euer ony Cornyshe knyghte shold ouercome me / And thenne for despyte fyre Ector put of his armour fro hym / and 25 wente on foot and wold not ryde

¶ Capitulum xx

THenne it felle that sire Bleoberys and sire Blamore de ganyys that were bretheren they hadde affomoned the kyng Anguysshe of Irland for to come to Arthurs Court vpon payne of forfeture of kyng Arthurs good grace 30 And yf the kyng of Irland came not in at the day assigned and sette / the kyng shold lese his landes / So by hit happend that at the day assigned kyng Arthur neither sire Launcelot myght not be there for to gyue the Iugement / for kyng Arthur was with sir launcelot at the castel ioyous gard / And so

[leaf 151 verso]

kyng Arthur assigned kyng Carados and the kyng of scottes to be there that day as Iuges / So whan the kynges were at Camelot / kyng Anguyffhe of Irland was come to knowe his accusars / Thenne was there Blamore de ganys and appeled the kyng of Irland of treafon / that he hadde slayne 5 a cofyn of his in his courte in Irland by treafon / The kyng was fore abasshed of his accusacion / for why / he was come att the fomons of kyng Arthur / And or that he came at Camelot / he wist not wherfore he was sente after / And whanne the kyng herd fir Blamor faye his wille / he vnderstood wel there 10 was none other remedy but to anfuere hym knyghtly / for the custome was fuche in tho dayes / that and ony man were appealed of ony treafon or murther / he shold fyghte body for body / or els to synde another knyght for hym / And alle maner of Murtherers in tho dayes were callid treafon / So whan kyng 15 Anguyffhe vnderstood his accusyng / he was passyng heny / for he knewe fir Blamor de ganys that he was a noble knyght / and of noble knyghtes comen / Thenne the kyng of Irland was symply purueyed of his anfuere / therfore the Iuges gaf hym respyte by the thyrdd daye to gyue his anfuere / 20 Soo the kyng departed vnto his lodgyng / the mean whyle ther came a lady by fir Trystrams paelione making grete dole / what eyleth you said fir Triftram that ye make fuche dole / A fayre knyght said the lady I am ashamed onles that fom good knyght helpe me / for a grete lady of worship sente by 25 me a fayre child and a ryche vnto fir launcelot du lake / and here by there mette with me a knyghte and threwe me doun fro my palfray and took aweye the child from me / wel my lady said fyr Triftram / and for my lord fyr Launcelots sake I shalle gete you that child ageyne / or els I shalle be beten 30 for hit / And foo fire Triftram tooke his hors / and asked the lady whiche wey the knyght rode / And thenne she tolde hym And he rode after hym / and within a whyle he ouertoke that knyght / And thenne fyr Triftram badde hym corne and gyue ageyne the child

¶ Capitulum xxj

THe knyghte torned his hors / and he made hym redy to fyghte / And thenne sir Trystram smote hym with a swerd suche a buffet / that he tumbled to the erthe / And thenne he yelded hym vnto sir Tristram / thenne come thy waye 5 sayd sire Trystram and brynge the child to the lady ageyne / Soo he took his hors wekely and rode with sir Trystram / and thenne by the way fyr Trystram asked hym his name / Thenne he said my name is Breunis faunte pyte / Soo whanne he hadde delyuerd that child to the lady / he said / sir as in this the 10 child is wel remedied / Thenne sir Trystram lete hym goo a-geyne that fore reyentyd hym after / for he was a grete foo vnto many good knyghtes of kyng arthurs courte / ¶ Thenne whan sir Tristram was in his paelione / Gouvernaile his man cam / and told hym how that kyng anguyfhe of Irland was 15 come thyder / and he was putte in grete distresse / and there gouernaille told sir Trystram / how kyng anguyfhe was fomoned and appealed of murther / Soo god me help said sir Trif-tram thes ben the best tydynge that euer came to me this vii yere / for now shalle the kyng of Irland haue nede of my helpe 20 for I dare faye there is no knyght in this countrey that is not of arthurs courte dare doo bataille with fyre Blamore de ga-nys / and for to wynde the loue of the kyng of Irland I wil take the batail vpon me / and therfor gouernaile brynge me I charge the to the kyng / Thenne Gouvernaile wente vnto kyng 25 anguyfhe of Irland and fawed hym fayre / the kyng welcomed hym / and asked hym what he wolde / Syr faide Gouer-naile / here is a knyghte nere hande that desyreth to speke with you / he badde me faye he wolde doo you feruise / what Knyght is he faide the Kyng / fyr he said hit is sir Tristram du fyonas 30 that for your good grace ye shewed hym in your landes wyll rewarde you in thes countreyes / Come on felawe said the kyng with me anone / and shewe me vnto sir Trystram / soo the Kyng took a lytel hackney and but fewe felawship with him vntyl he came vnto sir Tristrams paelione / and whanne fyre 35 Trystram sawe the Kyng / he ranne vnto hym and wold haue holden his styrope / But the kyng lepte from his hors lyghtly / and eyther halfed other in armes / my gracious Lord fayde sire Trystram gramercy of your grete goodnesse shewed vnto me in your marches and landes / And at that tyme I promyfed you to doo my feruyfe / and euer it laye in my power / & gentyl knyght faid the kynge vnto fir Triftram / now haue I grete nede of you / neuer had I foo grete nede of no knyghtes helpe / How foo my good lord faid fire Tryfram / I shalle telle 5 you faid the kynge I am affomoned and appeled fro my countrey for the deth of a knyght that was kyn vnto the good knyght fir Launcelot / wherfor fir Blamor de ganys broder to fir Bleoberys hath appeled me to fyghte with hym / outhere to fynde a knyght in my ftede / And wel I wote faid the kyng 10 thefe that are come of kynge Bans blood as fir Launcelot & thefe other are paffynge good knyghtes and hard men for to wynde in bataille as ony that I knowe now lyuynge / Syre faid fir Tryfram / for the good lordfhip ye shewed me in Ireland and for my lady youre daughters sake / La Beale I- 15 foud I wille take the bataille for you vpon this condycyon / that ye shalle graunte me two thynges / that one is that ye shal fwere to me that ye are in the ryght that ye were neuer confentyng to the knyghtes dethe / Syr thenne faid fir Triftram when that I haue done this bataille yf god yeue me grace that I 20 fpede that ye shalle gyue me a reward what thyng refonable that I wille afke of you / Soo god me help faid the kyng ye shal haue what fomeuer ye will afke / It is wel faid / faid fir Tryfram

Now make your anfuer that youre Champyon is redy 25 For I shalle dye in your quarel rather than to be recreant / I haue no doubte of you faid the kynge / that and ye fhold haue adoo with fir Launcelot du lake / Syr faid fir Triftram as for fire Launcelot he is called the nobleft knyghte of the worlde / And wete ye wel that the knyghtes of his blood 30 are noble men and drede shame / And as for Bleoberys broder to fyr Blamor I haue done bataille with hym / therefore vpon my hede / it is no shame to call hym a good knyght / It is noyfed faid the kynge / that Blamor is the hardyer knyghte / fire as for that lete hym be / he shal neuer be refused / & as he were 35

the best knyght that now bereth shelde or spere / Soo kyng Anguyfhe departed vnto kyng Carados / and the kynges that were that tyme as Iuges / and told hem that he hadde sonde his champion redy / Thenne by the commaundementes of the 5 kynges sir Blamor de ganyz and sire Tristram were sente for to here the charge / And whan they were come beforen the Iuges / there were many kynges and knyghtes biheld sire Tristram / and moche speche they had of hym by cause he slewe sir Marhaus the good knyght / and by cause he foriusted sir Palamydes the good knyght / ¶ So when they had taken their 10 charge / they withdrewen hem to make hem redy to doo bataille / Thenne said sir Bleoberys to his broder sir Blamore / sayr dere broder remembre of what kyn we be come of / and what a man is sir launcelot du lake / neyther ferther nor nere but brother 15 children / and ther was neuer none of oure kyn that euer was shamed in bataille / and rather suffre deth broder than to be shamed / Broder said Blamore haue you no doute of me / for I shal neuer shame none of my blood / hou be it I am sure that yonder knyghte is called a passyng good knyght as of 20 his tyme one of the world / yet shal I neuer yelde me nor say the lothe word / wel may he happen to smyte me doun with his grete myght of chyualry / but rather shalle he flee me than I shal yelde me as recreaunt / God spede you wel said Bleoberys for ye shal fynde hym the myghtyest knyght that euer ye hadde 25 do with all / for I knowe hym for I haue had ado with hym God me spede said Blamor de ganyz / and therewith he tooke his hors at the one ende of the lystes / and sire Tristram at the other ende of the lystes / and soo they feutryd theyre speres / & came to gyders as it had ben thonder / and there sir Tristram 30 thorow grete myght smote doun sir Blamore and his hors to the erthe / Thenne anone sir Blamor auoyded his hors and pulled oute his swerd / and threwe his shelde afore hym / and badde sir Tristram alyghte / for though an hors hath failed me I truste to god the erthe wil not faile me / And thenne fyre 35 Tristram alyght and dresid hym vnto batail / and there they lashed to gyder strongly as racyng and tracyng / foynynge and dassyng many sad strokes that the kynges and knyghtes had grete wonder that they myghte stande / for euer they fought lyke wood men so that there were neuer knyghtes fe-ne fyghte more fyerfly than they dyd / for sire Blamore was so hafty he wold haue no rest that alle men wondred that they had brethe to stande on their feet / and alle the place was blody that they fought in / And at the laste fyre Tristram smote 5 sire Blamor fuche a buffet vpon the helme that he there felle do-une vpon his syde / and sire Trystram fode and beheld hym /

¶ Capitulum xxiiij

Thenne whan sire Blamor myghte speke / he said thus Sire Tristram de Lyones I requyre the as thou art a noble knyghte and the best knyghte that euer I fond that 10 thou wilt flee me oute / for I wold not lyue to be made lord of alle the erth / for I haue leuer dye with worship than lyue with shame / and nedes sire Tristram thou must flee me / or els thou shalt neuer wyne the feld / for I wille neuer faye the lothe word / And therefore yf thou dare flee me / flee me / I re- 15 quyre the / Whanne sire Tristram herd hym faye soo knyghtely / he wyste not what to doo with hym / he remembryng hym of bo-the parties of what blood he was comen / and for sire Launce-lots sake he wold be lothe to flee hym / and in the other party in no wyse he myghte not chese / but that he must make hym to 20 faye the lothe word or els to flee hym / Thenne fyre Tristram starte abak and went to the kynges that were Iuges / and ther he kneled down to fore hem and besoughte hem for their wor-shippes and for kynge Arthurs and sire Laūcelots sake that they wold take this mater in theyr handes / For my fayre lor- 25 des said sire tristram hit were shame and pyte / that this noble knyght that yonder lyeth shold be slayne / for ye here wel / shamed wille he not be / and I pray to god that he neuer be slayne nor shamed for me / And as for the kyng for whome I fyghte fore I shalle requyre hym as I am his true champyon and 30 true knyght in this felde that he wille haue mercy vpon this knyghte / So god me helpe said kynge Anguyshe I wil for your sake fyre tristram be ruled as ye wylle haue me / For I knowe you for my true knyghte /

¶ And therefore I

wylle hertely pray the kynges that ben here as Iuges to take hit in theire handes / And the kynges that were Iuges called fyr Bleoberys to them / and asked hym his aduysfe ¶ My lor-des said Bleoberys / though my broder be beten and hath the 5 wers thorou myghte of armes I dare saye though fyre Tryftram hath beten his body / he hath not beten his herte / and I thanke god he is not shamed this daye / And rather than he shold be shamed / I requyre you sayd Bleoberys lete fir Trif-tram flee hym oute / It shalle not be soo said the kynges / for 10 his parte aduerfary bothe the kyng and the champion haue pyte of fyre Blamors knyghthode / My lordes said Bleoberys I wille ryght wel as ye wille / ¶ Thenne the kynges called the kyng of Irland and sond hym goodely and tretabyll / And thenne by alle their aduysfes 15 fyre Triftram and fyre Bleoberys toke vp fire Blamore / and the two bretheren were accorded with kyng Anguysfhe / and kyssed and made frendys for euer / And thenne fire Blamor and fire Tryftram kyssed to gyders / and there they made their othes that they wold neuer none of them two bretheren fy-20 ghte with fyre Tryftram / and fyre Tryftram made the same oth And for that gentyl bataille alle the blood of fyre Launcelot loued fire Tryftram for euer / ¶ Thenne kyng Anguysfhe and fyre Triftram toke theire le-ue and failed in to Irland with grete nobleffe and ioye / 25 ¶ Soo whanne they were in Irland / the kyng lete make it known thoroute alle the land how and in what manere fyre Tryftram had done for hym ¶ Thenne the Quene and alle that there were made the moost of hym that they myghte / But the Ioye that la beale Ifoud made of fyr Triftram 30 there myghte no tonge telle / for of alle men erthely she loued hym moost

¶ Capitulum xxiiii

THenne vpon a daye kyng Anguysfhe asked fyr Trif-tram why he asked not his bone / For what someuer he had promysed hym / he shold haue hit withoute sayle

Syre sayd sire Trystram now is hit tyme this is alle that I wylle desyre that ye wylle gyue me la beale Ifoud youre daughter not for my self but for myn vnkel kynge Marke that shalle haue her to wyf / for foo haue I promysed hym / Allas said the kynge I had leuer than alle the land that I haue / 5 ye wold wedde her youre self / Syre and I dyd than I were shamed for euer in this world / and fals of my promyse / Therefore said sire Trystram I praye you hold your promyse that ye promysed me / for this is my desyre that ye wylle gyue me la Beale Ifoud to goo with me in to Cornewaile for to 10 be wedded to kynge Marke myn vnkel / ¶ As for that sayd kynge Anguyshe ye shalle haue her with you to doo with her what it please you / that is for to saye yf that ye lyst to wedde her your self that is me leuest / And yf ye wille gyue her vnto kynge Marke youre vnkel that is in youre choyse / 15

¶ Soo to make short conclusion la beale Ifoud was made redy to goo with fyre Trystram and dame Bragwayne wente with her for her chyef gentylwoman with many other / thenne the quene Ifouds moder gaf to her and dame Bragwayne her daughters gentilwoman and vnto Gouvernaile a drynke and 20 charged them that what day kynge Marke shold wedde that same daye they shold gyue hym that drynke / foo that kynge Marke shold drynke to la beale Ifoud / and thenne said the Quene I vndertake eyther shalle loue other the dayes of their lyf / Soo this drynke was yeuén vnto dame Bragwayne and 25 vnto Gouvernaile / And thenne anone fyre Trystram tooke the fee / and la Beale Ifoud / and whan they were in their caban hit happed foo that they were thursty / and they sawe a lytyl flacked of gold stande by them / and hit semed by the coloure and the taste that it was noble wyn / 30

Thenne sire Trystram toke the flacket in his hand / and sayd Madame Ifoud here is the best drynke that euer ye drank that dame Bragwayne youre mayden and Gouvernaile my seruauent haue kepte for them self / Thenne they lough and made good chere and eyther dranke to other frely / and they thouthte neuer drynke that euer they dranke to other was foo swete nor foo good / But by that they drynke was in their bodyes / they loued eyther other so wel that neuer theyr loue departed for wele neyther for wo / And thus it happed the loue fyrste betwixe sire Tristram and la beale Ifoud / the whiche loue neuer departed the dayes of their lyf / soo thenne they fay-5 led tyl by fortune they came nyghe a castel that hyght Pluere And there by arryued for to repose them wenyng to them to haue hadde good herborou3 / but anon as sire Trystram was within the castel / they were taken pryfoners / for the customme of the castel was fuche who that rode by that castel and brought ony 10 lady he must nedes fyghte with the lord that hyghte Breunor And yf it were soo that Breunor wanne the feld / thenne sh-old the knyght straunger and his lady be putte to dethe what that euer they were / and yf hit were so that the straunge knyghte wanne the feld of sire Breunor / thenne shold he dye and 15 his lady bothe / this custome was vfed many wynters / for hit was called the castel pluere that is to faye the wepyng castel

¶ Capitulum xxv

Thus as sire Trystram and la beale Ifoud were in pryfon / hit happed a knyght and a lady came vnto them / where they were to chere them / I haue merueille said Tristram 20 vnto the kny3t and the lady what is the caufe the lord of this Castel holdeth vs in pryfon / hit was neuer the custome of no place of worship that euer I came in / whan a knyghte and a lady asked herborough / and they to receyue hem / & after to deftroye them that ben his gestes / Syr said the kny3t this is the 25 old custome of this castel that whan a knyght cometh here / he must nedes fyghte with our lord / and he that is weyker muste lese his hede / And whan that is done yf his lady that he bryn-geth / be fouler than our lordes wyf / she must lese her heede / And yf she be fayrer preued than is oure lady / thenne shal the la-30 dy of this castel lese her heede / Soo god me help said sire Trif-tram this is a fowle custome and a shameful / But one auau-tage haue I said sire Trystram I haue a lady is fayre ynou3 fayrer fawe I neuer in alle my lyfe dayes / And I doubtte not for lack of beaute she shalle not lese her heed / and rather than I shold lese my heede I wille fyghte for hit on a fayre felde /

¶ Wherefore Syre knyght I pray you telle your lord that I wille be redy as to morne with my lady and my selfe to doo batail yf hit be so I maye haue my hors and myne armour / Syre said that knyght I vndertake that youre desyre shalle be spedde ryght wel /

And thenne he sayd take youre rest and loke that ye be vp by tymes and make you redy and your lady / for ye shall wante no thyng that you behoueth / and ther with he departed and on the morne by tymes that fame knyghte came to fire Tryftram and fetched hym oute and his lady & brougte hym hors and armour that was his owne / and badde hym make hym redy to the feld / for alle the estates and comyns of that lordship were there redy to behold that bataille and Iugement / ¶ Thenne came fyre Breunor the lord of that Castel wyth his lady in his hand muffeld / and asked fyre Tryftram where was his lady / for and thy lady be fayrer than myn wyth thy swerd smyte of my ladyes hede / and yf my lady be fayrer than myn / with my swerd I muste stryke of her heed / And yf I maye wyne the / yet shalle thy lady be myne / and thou shalt lese thy hede /

¶ Syre said Tryftram this is a fowle custome and horryble / and rather than my lady shold lese her heed / yet had I leuer lese my hede / ¶ Nay nay said fyre Breunor the ladyes shalle be fyrst shewed to gyder / and the one shalle haue her Iugement / Nay I wille not soo said fyre Tristram / For here is none that wille gyue ryghteous Iugement / But I doubte not said fir Trif-tram my lady is fayrer than thyne / And that wille I preue and make good with my hand / And who someuer he be that wille saye the contrary I wille preue hit on his hede

And there with fyre Tristram shewed la beale Ifoud / and torned her thryes aboute with his naked swerd in his hand And whanne fyre Breunor sawe that he dyd the same wyfe torne his lady / But whanne fyre Breunor beheld la beale Ifoud / hym thoughte he sawe neuer a fayrer lady / and thenne he dradde his ladyes hede shold be of / and soo al the peple that were there present gaf Iugement that la beale Ifoud was the fayrer lady and the better made / how now said sir Trifstrā my semeth it were pyte that my lady shold lose her heed / but by cause thou and she of long tyme haue vsed this wycked cus-5 tome / and by you bothe haue many good knyghtes and la-dyes ben destroyed / for that cause it were no losse to destroye you bothe / Soo god me help said sir Breunor for to faye the forthe / thy lady is fayrer than myn / and that me fore repenteth And soo I here the peple pryuely faye / for alle wymmen I 10 sawe none soo fayre / and therfor and thou wilt flee my lady I doute not but I shal flee the and haue thy lady / ¶ Thou shalt wyne her said sir Trystram as dere as euer knyzt wan lady / And by cause of thyn owne Iugement as thou woldest haue done to my lady yf that she had ben fouler / and by cause 15 of the evyl custome gyue me thy lady said Trystram / & there with alle sir Trifstram strode vnto hym and toke his lady from hym / and with an auke stroke he smote of her hede cleue / wel knyght said sir Breunor now hast thou done me a despyte /

¶ Capítulum xxvj

Now take thyn hors fythen I am lady les I wil wyn 20 thy lady and I may / thenne they took their horses / & came to gyders as hit had ben the thonder / and fire Trystram smote sir Breunor cleue from his hors / and lyztely he rose vp And as sir Trystram came ageyne by hym / he threst his hors thorou oute both the sholders that his hors hurled here and the-25 re / and felle dede to the ground / And euer sir Breunor ranne after to haue slayne sire Trifstram / but sire Trifstram was ly-ght and nymel and voyded his hors lightely / And or euer sir Trystram myght dresse his sheld and his swerd / the other gaf hym thre or foure sadde strokes ¶ ¶ Thenne they 30 raffhed to gyders like two bores traeyng and trauercyng myztely and wyfely as two noble knyghtes / For this sire Breunor was a proued knyghte and hadde ben or than the dethe of many good knyghtes / that it was pyte that he had so long endured / Thus they fouzt hurlyng here & there nyȝ two houres & eyder were wounded fore / thenne at the laft fir Breunor raffhed vpon fir Tryftram and tooke hym in his armes / for he trufted moche to his ftrengethe / Thenne was fir Tryftram called the ftrengeft and the hieft knyght of the world / For he was called byggar than fir laücelot / but fir Lancelot was better 5 brethed / Soo anone fire Tryftram thruft fyr Breunor doune grouelynge / and thenne he vnaced his helme / and ftrake of his hede / And thenne al they that longed to the caftel cam to hym and dyd hym homage and feaute prayenge hym / that he wold abyde there ftylle a litel whyle to fordo that foule custom 10 Syr Tryftram graunted ther to / the meane whyle one of the knyghtes of the caftel rode vnto fire Galahad the haut prynce the whiche was fir Breunors fone / whiche was a noble knygt and told hym what myfauenture his fader hadde and his moder

15

¶ Capitulum xxvij

THenne came fir Galahad and the kyng with the hon-derd knyghtes with hym / and this fyr Galahad profered to fyghte with fir Tryftram hand for hand / and foo they made them redy to go vnto bataile on horfbak with grete courage / Thenne fir Galahad and fir Tryftram mette to gy- 20 ders foo hard that eyder bare other doune hors and alle to the erthe / And theñe they auoyded their horfes as noble knyghtes and drefsid theire sheldes and drewe their fwerdes with Ire & rancour / and they lafshed to gyder many fadde ftrokes / and one whyle ftrykyng another whyle foynyng / tracyng and tra- 25 uerfynge as noble knyghtes / thus they fought long nere half a day and eyder were fore wounded / At the laft fire Tryftram waxed lyghte and bygge / and doubled his ftrokes and drofe fyr Galahad abak on the one fyde and on the other / fo that he was lyke to haue ben flayne / With that came the kyng with 30 the honderd knyghtes and all that felaufhip went fyerfly vp-on fir Triftram / whan fir Tryftram fawe them comyng vpon hym / thenne he wift wel he myghte not endure / ¶ Thēne as a wyfe knyght of werre he faid to fir Galahad the haut prynce fyre ye shewe to me no knyghthode for to fuffre alle youre men 35 to haue adoo with me al at ones / ¶ And as me femeth ye be a noble knyghte of your handes / hit is grete shame to you / So god me helpe faid sire Galahad there is none other waye but thou must yelde the to me / outhere els to dye faid sire Galahad to sire Trystram I wille rather yelde me to you than dye / for 5 that is more for the myght of your men than of your handes / And ther with alle sire Trystram tooke his owne fuerd by the poynte / and put the pomel in the hand of sire Galahad / there with alle came the kynge with the honderd knyghtes / and hard beganne to assaylle sire Trystram / lete be faid sire Galahad 10 be ye not foo hardy to touche hym / for I haue gyuen this kny-ght his lyf / that is youre shame faid the kynge with the C knyghtes / hath he not slayne your fader and your moder / As for that faid fyre Galahad I may not wyte hym gretely for my fader had hym in pryson / and enforced hym to doo bataill 15 with hym / and my fader had fuche a customme that was a shameful custome that what knyght came there to aske herborowh his lady must nedes deye but yf she were fayrer than my moder / And yf my fader ouercame that knyght he must nedes de-ye / This was a shameful customme and vsage / a knyghte 20 for his herberowe askynge to haue fuche herborage / ¶ And for this customme I wold neuer drawe aboute hym / So god me helpe faid the kynge this was a shameful customme / Truly faid fyre Galahad foo femed me / and me femed it had ben grete pyte that this knyght shold haue ben slayne / for I dare 25 faye he is the noblest man that bereth lyf / but yf it were sire laūcclot du lake / Now fayre knyght faid sire Galahad I requyre the telle me thy name / and of whens thou arte / and whyder thou wolt / Syr he faid my name is sire Trystram du lyones & from kynge Marke of Cornewaile I was sente on message 30 vnto kynge Anguysshe of Irland for to fetch his daughter to be his wyf / & here she is redy to go with me into Cornewai-le / and her name is la beale Ifoud / and / sire Trystram faid sire Galahad the haut pryncce / wel be ye fonde in these marches / & foo ye wille promyse me to goo vnto fyr Launcelot du lake / 35 and accompanye with hym / ye shalle goo where ye wylle / and your fayre lady with you / And I shalle promyse you neuer in al my dayes shal fuche custommes be vsed in this castel as haue ben vsed / Syr faid fyre Trystram now I lete you wete foo god me helpe I wende ye had ben fyr launcelot du lake / whan I fawe you fyrste / and therfore I dredde you the more And sire I promyse you faid fir Tristram as soone as I may I wille see fir launcelot / and enfelaushippe me with hym / for of alle the knyghtes of the world I moost defyre his felau- 5 ship

¶ Capitulum xxviii

ANd thēne fir Tristram took his leue whan he fawe his tyme and tooke the fee / And the meane whyle word came vnto fir Launcelot and to fir Trystram that sire Carados the myghty kynge that was made lyke a gyaunt / 10 that fought with fir Gawayn and gaf hym suche strokes that he fwouned in his fadel / and after that he took hym by the coller / and pulled hym oute of his fadel / and fast bounde hym to the fadel bowe / and so rode his wey with hym toward his castell / And as he rode by fortune fir Launcelot mette with sire 15 Carados and anone he knewe sire Gawayne / that lay bounde after hym / A faid fir Launcelot vnto sire Gawayne how stande it with you / Neuer so hard faid fir gawayn onles that ye helpe me / for so god me help without ye rescowe me I knowe no kny-ght that may but outhur you or fyr Trystram / where for fir 20 Launcelot was heuy of fir Gawayns wordes / And thenne fir Launcelot bad fir Carados leye doune that knyghte / & fyghte with me / thou arte but a foole faide sire Carados / for I wylle ferue you in the same wyfe / as for that faid fir Launcelot spare me not / for I warne the I wille not spare the / And then- 25 ne he bond fir Gawayne hand and foot / and so threwe hym to the ground / And thenne he gate his spere of his squyer / and departed from fyr launcelot to fetche his cours / and foo eyther met with other / and brake their speres to their handes / & thenne they pulled out swardes / and hurtled to gyders on horfbak 30 more than an houre / And at the laste sire launcelot smote fir Carados suche a buffet vpon the helme that it perched his bray-ne pan / So thenne fir Launcelot toke fir Carados by the coller and pulled hym vnder his hors feet / And thenne he alyzte and pulled of his helme / and strake of his hede / And thenne 35 fir Launcelot vnbounde fir Gawayne / soo this fame tale was told to fir Galahad and to fir Trystram / here maye ye here the noblenes that foloweth fir launcelot / Allas said syr Trystram and I had not this meſſage in hand with this fayre lady / 5 truly I wold neuer flynte or I had fonde fyre Launcelot / Thenne fire Trystram and la beale Ifoud wente to the fee & came in to Cornewaile / and there alle the barons mette hem /

¶ Capitulum xix

10 ANd anone they were rychely wedded with grete nobley / But euer as the frenſſhe book ſayth fir Trystram and la beale Ifoud loued euer to gyders / ¶ Thenne was there grete luſtes and grete torneyenge / and many lor-des and ladyes were at that feſt / and fir Trystram was moſt preyſed of alle other / thus dured the feſt longe / and after the feſt was done / within a lytel whyle after by the aſſent of 15 two ladyes that were with quene Ifoud / they ordeyned for hate and enuy for to deſtroye dame Bragwayne / that was mayden and lady vnto la beale Ifoud / and ſhe was ſente in to the foreſt for to fetch herbes / & there ſhe was mette & bounde feete and hand to a tree / and ſoo ſhe was bounden thre 20 dayes / And by fortune fir Palamydes fonde dame Bragwa-yne / and there he delyuerd her from the dethe / and brought her to a nonnery there befyde for to be recouerd / whanne Ifoud the quene myſt her mayden / wete ye wel ſhe was ryght heuy as e-uer was ony quene / for of alle erthely wymmen ſhe loued her 25 beſt / the cauſe was for ſhe came with her oute of her countreye / And ſoo vpon a day quene Ifoud walked in to the foreſt to putte awaye her thoughtes / and ther ſhe wente her ſelf vnto a welle / and made grete mone / and ſodenly there came Palamydes to her / and had herd alle her complaynte / and ſayd Madam-30 me Ifoud and ye wille graunte me my bone / I ſhalle bryn-ge to you dame Bragwayne ſauf and ſound / And the que-ne was ſo glad of his profer / that ſodenly vnauyſed ſhe graūted alle his aſkyng / wel madame ſaid Palamydes I truſt to your promyſe / And yf ye wille abyde here half an houre / I 35 ſhal brynge her to you / I ſhall abyde you ſaid la beale Ifoud

And sir Palamydes rode forth his way to that nonnery / and lyghtly he came ageyne with dame Bragwayne / but by her good wille she wold not haue comen ageyne / by cause for loue of the quene she stood in auēture of her lyf / Notwithstandyng half ageynst her wille she wente with sir Palamydes vnto the 5 quene / And whan the quene sawe her / she was passyng glad Now madame said Palamydes remembre vpon your promyse / for I haue fulfilled my promyse / Sir Palamydes said the quene I wote not what is your defyre / But I wille that ye wete how be it I promysed you largely I thought none euyl 10 nor I warne you none ylle wille I doo / Madame said sir palamydes / as at this tyme ye shalle not knowe my defyre / but bfore my lord your husband there shalle ye knowe that I wil haue my defyre that ye haue promysed me / And therwith the quene departed and rode home to the kyng / and sir palamy- 15 des rode after her / And whan syr Palamydes came before the kyng / he said sir kyng I requyre you as ye be a ryghteous kyng that ye wille Iuge me the ryght / Telle me your cause faid the kyng and ye shalle haue ryght /

¶ Capitulum xxx

Syre said Palamydes I promysed your Quene Ifoud 20 to brynge ageyne dame Bragwayne that she had lost vpon this couenaunt that she shold graunte me a bone that I wold aske / and without grutchyng outhur auysēmēt she graunted me / what saye ye my lady said the kyng / hit is as he faith soo god me help said the quene / to saye the sothe / I 25 promysed hym his askyng for loue and ioye that I had to see her / Wel madame said the kyng / and yf ye were hasty to graunte hym what bone he wold aske / I wyll wel that ye performe your promyse / Thenne said Palamydes I will that ye wete that I wille haue your quene to lede her and gouerne 30 her where as me lyft / There with the kyng stood styll and bethought hym of sir Trystram / and demed that he wold rescowe her / And thenne hastely the kyng answered take her with the aduētūres that shal falle of hit / for as I suppose thou wylt not enioye her noo whyle / As for that said Palamydes I dare ryght wel abyde the aduenture / and foo to make short tale / fir Palamydes toke her by the hand / and said Madame grutche not to goo with me / for I defyre no thyng but your own pro-15 myfe / As for that said the quene I fere not gretely to go with the / hou be it thou hast me at auantage vpon my promyse / For I doute not I shalle be worshipfully rescowed from the /

As for that said fir Palamydes be it as it be maye / So quene Ifoud was fette behynde Palamydes / and rode his way / anon 10 the kynge sente after fyr Tryfram / but in no wyse he coude be foude / for he was in the foreit an huntynge / for that was alweyes his custome / but yf he vsed armes / to chafe and to hunte in the forestes / Allas said the kynge now I am shamed for euer that by myn owne assente my lady and my quene shalle 15 be deuoured / Thenne came forth a knyght his name was lambegus / and he was a knyght of fyr Tryfram / My lord sayd this knyght sythe ye haue truste in my lord sire Tristram / we-te ye wel for his sake I wille ryde after your quene and re-scowe her / or els I shal be beten / Gramercy faide the kynge / & 20 I lyue fir Lambegus I shal deferue hit / And thenne fir Lambegus armed hym / and rode after as fast as he myghte / And thenne within a whyle he ouertoke fir Palamydes / And thenne fir Palamydes lefte the quene / what arte thou faide Pala-mydes / arte thou Tryfram / nay he faide I am his seruante / 25 and my name is Lambegus / that me repenteth faide Pala-mydes / I hadde leuer thou haddest ben sire Tryfram / I bileue you wel said Lambegus / but when thou metest with fir Tryfram thou shalt haue thy handes ful / And thenne they hurtled to gyders and alle to brafte their speres / and thenne they pul-30 led oute their sverdes / and hewed on helmes and hauberkes / At the laste sire Palamydes gaf fir Lambegus fuche a wound that he felle down lyke a dede knyghte to the erthe / Thenne he loked after la beale Ifoud / and thene she was gone he nyft where / wete ye wel fir Palamydes was neuer foo heuy / So the qu-35 ene ranne in to the forest / and there she fond a wel / and theryn she hadde thoughte to haue drowned her self / And as good fortune wold ther came a knyght to her that hadde a Castel ther-by his name was sire Adtherp / And when he fonde the quene in that meschyef / he rescowed her / and broughte her to his castel / And whanne he wyft what she was he armed hym / and took his hors and said / he wold be auengyd vpon palamydes and soo he rode on tyll he mette with hym / and there sir Palamydes wounded hym fore / and by force he made hym to telle 5 hym the cause why he dyd bataille with hym / and how he had ladde the quene vnto his castel / Now brynge me there said palamydes or thou shalt dye of my handes / Sir said sir Adtherp I am soo wounded I may not folowe / but ryde you this way and hit shalle brynge you in to my castel / and there within is 10 the quene / Thenne sire Palamydes rode styll tyl he came to the Castel / And at a wyndowe La Beale Ifoud sawe sir Palamydes / thenne she made the yates to be shette strongly / And whan he sawe he myght not come within the castel / he putte of his brydel and his fadel / and putte his hors to pasture / and 15 sette hym self doune atte gate lyke a man that was oute of his wytte that retchyd not of hym self /

¶ Capitulum xxxi

Now torne we vnto sir Trifram that whanne he was come home / and wyfte la Beale Ifoud was gone with fyr Palamydes wete ye wel he was wrothe oute of me- 20 fure / Allas said sir Tryfram I am this day shamed / Thenne he cryed to Gouvernaile his man / haste the that I were armed and on horsbak / for wel I wote Lambegus hath no myghte nor strengthe to withstande sir Palamydes / Allas that I haue not ben in his stede / Soo anone as he was armed and horsed 25 sir Trifram and Gouvernaile rode after in to the forest / and within a whyle he fond his knyght Lambegus al moost wounded to the dethe / and fyre Tryfram bare hym to a foster / and charged hym to kepe hym wel / And thenne he rode forth and there he fond fyr Adtherp fore wounded / and he told hym hou 30 the quene wold haue drowned her self had not he ben / And how for her sake & loue he had taken vpon hym to doo bataille with sir Palamydes / where is my lady said sire Tryfram / Syr said the knyght she is sure ynough within my Castel / & she can hold her within hit / Gramercy said fyre Trystram of thy grete goodenes / and soo he rode tyl he came nyghe to that Castel / and thenne fyr Trystram sawe where fyr Palamydes sat at the gate slepyng / and his hors pastured fast afore hym 5 Now goo thou Gouvernaile said fire Triftram / and byd hym awake / and make hym redy / So Gouvernayle rode vnto hym / and said fir Palamydes aryfe and take to the thyn harneis but he was in suche a study he herd not what Gouvernayle said So Gouvernaile came ageyne and told fyre Trystram he sle-10 pte or els he was madde / Goo thou ageyne said fire Triftram / and bydde hym aryfe / and telle hym that I am here his mortal soo / So Gouvernaile rode ageyne and putte vpon hym the but of his spere / and said fir Palamydes make the redy / for wete ye wel fyr Triftram houeth yonder and sendeth the word 15 he is thy mortal soo / And there with all fire Palamydes arose styllly withoute wordes and gate his hors / and faddeled hym / and brydeled hym / and lyghtely he lepte vpon / and gat his spere in his hand / and eyder feutryd their speres and hurtled faste to gyders / and there Triftram smote doune fire Pa-20 lamydes ouer his hors tayle / Thenne lightly fire Palamydes putte his sheld afore hym and drewe his swerd / And there beganne stronge bataill on bothe partyes / for both they fought for thr loue of one lady / and euer she laye on the walles and behelde them / hou they foughte oute of mesure / and eyther we-25 re wouided poffyng fore / but Palamydes was moche forer wou-ded / thus they fought tracyng and trauceryng more than two houres that wel nygh for dole and sorowe la beale Ifoud swo-uned / ¶ Allas she said that one I loued and yet doo / and the other I loue not / yet it were grete pyte that I shold see fir pa-30 lamydes slayne / for wel I knowe by that tyme the ende be done fir Palamydes is but a dede knyzt / by cause he is not crystened I wold be lothe that he shold dye a farafyn / And there with alle she came doune and bifought fire Trystram to fyghte no more / A madame saide he what meane you / wille ye haue 35 me shamed / wel ye knowe I wille be ruled by you / I wyll not your dishonour saide la beale Ifoud but I wold that ye wold for my sake spare this vnhappy farafyn Palamydes / Madame said fyre Trystram I wille leue fyghtyng at this ¶ Thenne take thy waye said la beale Ifoud vnto the Courte 5 of kynge Arthur / and there recommaunde me vnto quene Gue-

ANd soo fyre Palamydes departed with grete heuynes And sire Tristram took the quene and brougte her agey-ne to kynge Marke / And thenne was there made grete Ioye of her home comynge / who was cheryfshed but sire Tryst-ram / Thenne sire Trystram lete fetchen fyre Lambegus his knyghte 15 fro the fosters hous and hit was longe or he was hole / but at the last he was wel recouerd / thus they lyued with Ioye and play a long whyle / But euer sire Andred that was nygh cosyn to fyre Trystram lay in a wathe to wayte betwix sire Trystram and la beale Ifoud for to take hem and sklaundre hem / Soo 20 vpon a day fyre Tristram talked with la beale Ifoud in a wyndowe / and that aspyed sire Andred and told it to the kynge / Thenne kynge Marke took a swerd in his hand and came to sire Tristram and called hym fals traitour / and wold haue stry-ken hym / But sire Trystram was nyghe hym and ranne vnder 25 his swerd and tooke hit oute of his hande / And thenne the kynge cryed where are my knyghtes and my men / I charge you flee this traitour / But at that tyme there was not one wold meue for his wordes / Whanne fyre Trystram sawe that there was not one wold be ageynst hym / he shoke the swerd to 30 the kynge and made countenaunce as though he wold haue stry-ken hym / And thenne kynge Marke fledde / and fyre tristram folowed hym and smote vpon hym fyue or sixe strokes flatlynge on the neck that he made hym to falle vpon the nose / & thenne sire Tristram yede his waye and armed hym and tooke 35 there vpon a daye fyr Tryftram mette with two bretheren that were knyghtes with kynge Marke / and there he frake of the hede of the one / & wounded the other to the dethe / and he maade 5 hym to bere his broders hede in his helme vnto the kynge / and thyrtty moo there he wounded / And whan that knyght came before the kynge to faye his meffage / he there dyed afore the kynge and the quene / Thenne kynge Marke called his coun-ceill vnto hym / and asked aduyse of his barons what was 10 best to doo with fire Tryftram / Syr faid the barons in especyal Syre Dynas the Seneschal / fyr / we wille yeue you counceyll for to fende for fir Triftram / for we wille that ye wete / many men wille holde with fyre Tryftram / and he were hard bestad And fyr faid fire Dynas ye fhalle vnderfstande that fir Trif-15 ram is called pyerles and makeles of ony Cryften knyghte / and of his myghte and hardynes we knewe none foo good a knyght / but yf hit be fire Launcelot du lake / And yf ye departe from your Courte and goo to kynge Arthurs courte / wete ye wel he wille gete hym fuche frendes there that he wylle 20 not fette by your malyce / And therfore fyre I counceyle yow fyre Triftram came to the kynge / he was welcome / and no re-25 herfail was made / and there was game and playe / and thenne the kynge and the quene wente on huntynge and fir Trif-tram

¶ Capitulum xxxiiij

THe kynge and the quene made their paucions & the-30 ire tentes in that forest befyde a Ryuer / and ther was dayly huntynge and Iustyng / for there were euer xxx knyghtes redy to Iuste vnto alle them that came in at that tyme / And there by fortune came fire Lamerak de galys and fir Dryaunt / and there fyre Dryaunt Iusted ryght wel / but at the laste he had a falle / Thenne fire Lamerak profered to 35 Iuste / And whan he began he ferd so with the thyrtty knyghtes that there was not one of hem but that he gaf hym a falle / and somme of them were fore hurte / I merueyle said kyng Mark what knyght he is that doth fuche dedes of armes / Sir said sire Tristram / I knowe hym wel for a noble knyght / as fewe now ben lyuyng / and his name is sir Lamerak de Galys / it were 5 grete shame faide the kyng that he shold goo thus aweye on-les that somme of you mette with hym better / Syre said fyre Tristram me semeth it were no worship for a noble man to haue adoo with hym / And for by cause at this tyme he hath done ouer moche for ony meane knyght lyuyng / therfore as me se- 10 meth hit were grete shame and vylony to tempte hym ony more at this tyme / in soo moche as he and his hors are wery bothe For the dedes of armes that he hath done this daye and they be wel confyded / it were ynough for sir Launcelot du lake /

¶ As for that said kyng Marke I requyre you as ye loue 15 me and my lady the Quene La beale Ifoud take youre armes and Iuste with sire Lamerak de Galys / ¶ Syre said sir Tristram ye byd me doo a thyng that is ageynst knyghthode / And wel I can deme that I shal gyue hym a falle / For hit is no maystry / for my hors and I ben fresshe bothe / and so is 20 not his hors and he / and wete ye wel / that he wil take hit for grete vnkyndenes / For euer one good is lothe to take another at disfauintage / But by cause I wil not displeafe yow / as ye requyre me / soo wille I doo and obeye your commaundemēt And soo sire Tristram armed hym and took his hors / & putt 25 hym forth / and there sire Lamerak mette hym myghtely / and what with the myght of his owne spere / and of sire Tristram spere fyr Lameraks hors felle to the erthe / and he fytyng in the fadel / Thenne anone as lyghtly as he myghte he auoyded the fadel and his hors / and put his shelde afore hym and dre- 30 we his swerd / And thenne he badde sir Tristram alyghte thou knyght and thou darst / Nay said sire Tristram I wil no more haue adoo with the / for I haue done to the ouer moche vnto my dishonour and to thy worship / ¶ As for that said sir Lamerak I can the no thanke / fyn thou hast foriusted me on 35 horibak I requyre the and I bifeche the / and thou be sir Trif-tram / fyghte with me on foote / ¶ I wille not soo said ore Tristram / And wete ye wel my name is fire Tristram de lyones / and wel I knowe ye be fire Lamorak de Galys / And this that I haue done to you was ageynst my wylle / but I was requyred therto / but to saye that I wille doo atte 5 youre request / as at thys tyme I will haue no more ado with you / for me shameth of that I haue done / ¶ As for the shame said fire Lamorak on thy party or on myne / beare thou hit & thou wilt / For though a marys sone hath sayled me / now a Quenes sone shalle not sayle the / And therefore and thou be 10 fuche a knyghte as men calle the / I requyre the / alyghte / and fyghte with me / Syre Lamorak said fire Tristram I vnderstande youre herte is grete / and cause why ye haue / to saye the fothe / for hit wold greue me and ony knyght shold kepe hym freffhe / and thenne to stryke doune a very knyghte / for that 15 knyghte nor hors was neuer fourmed that alwey myght stā-de or endure / And therefore said fire Tristram I wille not haue adoo with you / for me forthynketh of that I haue done / as for that said fire Lamorak I shal quyte you and euer I see my tyme /

¶ Capitulum xxxiiii

20 ¶ Oo he departed from hym with fire Dryaun / and by the weye they mette with a knyght that was fente from Morgan le fay vnto kynge Arthur / and this knyght hadde a fayre horne harneft with gold / and the horne had fuche a ver-tue that there myght no lady ne gentilwoman drynke of that 25 horne / but yf she were true to her husband / And yf she were fals she shold spyll alle the drynke / And yf she were true to her lord she myght drynke peasfble / and by cause of the que-ne Gueneuer and in despyte of fire Launcelot this horne was fente vnto kynge Arthur / and by force fire Lamorak ma-30 de that knyghte to telle alle the cause why he bare that horne / ¶ Now shalte thou bere this horn sayd Lamorak vnto kyng Marke or els chese thou to dye for it / For I telle the playnly in despyte and reproof of fire Tristrams thou shalte bere that horne vnto kynge Marke his vnkel / and fay thou to hym that I fent hit hym for to assay his lady / ¶ And yf she be true to hym he shal preue her / Soo the knyghte wente his waye vnto kynges Marke and broughte hym that ryche horne / and sayd that sir Lamorak sente hit hym / and there to he told hym the vertue of that horne ¶ Thenne the kynges maade 5 Quene Ifoud to drynke therof / and an honderd ladyes / and there were but four ladyes of alle tho that dranke clene / ¶ Allas faide kynges Marke this is a grete despyte / and swa-re a grete othe / that she shold be brente and the other ladyes / ¶ Thenne the Barons gadred them to gyder and said playn- 10 ly they wold not haue tho ladyes brente for an horne maade by forcery that came from as fals a forcereffe and wytche as tho was lyuynge / For that horne dyd neuer good but caused stryf and debate / and alweyes in her dayes she had ben an enemy to alle true louers / Soo there were many knyghtes made their a- 15 uowe / and euer they met with Morgan le fay that they wold shewe her short curtosye / ¶ Also sir Tristram was passynge wrothe that sire Lamorak sente that horne vnto kynges Marke for wel he knewe that hit was done in the despyte of hym / And therfor he thoughte to quyte sire Lamorak / ¶ Thenne 20 syre Tristram vsed dayly and nyghtely to go to quene Ifoud whanne he myght / and euer syre Andred his cosyn watched hym nyght and daye for to take hym with la Beale Ifoud / And soo vpon a nyght syre Andred aspyed the houre and the tyme whan sir Tristram wente to his lady / ¶ Thenne syre 25 Andred gate vnto hym twelue knyghtes / and at mydnyghte he sette vpon sire Tristram secretly and fodenly / and there sire Tristram was take naked a bedde with la Beale Ifoud / and thenne was he bouñd hande and foot / and soo was he kepte vn-tyl daye / ¶ And thenne by the assent of kynges Marke and of 30 syre Andred and of somme of the Barons syre Tristram was ledde vnto a chappel that stode vpon the see rockes there for to take his Iugement / and soo he was ledde bounden with fourty knyghtes / And whan sire Tristram sawe that there was none other boote / but nedes that he must dye / thenne said he sayr lor-des remembre what I haue done for the Countreie of Cornewaile / and in what Ieopardy I haue ben in for the wele of you alle / For whan I fouzt for the truage of cornewaile with fir Marhaus the good knyght / I was promysed for to be better rewarded / whanne ye alle refused to take the bataille / therfore as ye be good gentyl knyghtes / fee me not thus shamefully to dye / for it is shame to alle knyghthode thus to fee me 5 dye / For I dare faye said fire Triftram that I neuer met with no knyght but I was as good as he / or better / Fy vpon the said fir Andred fals traitour that thou arte with thyn auaucunge / for alle thy boost thou shalt dye this daye / O Andred Andred said fir Triftram thou sholdest be my kynnesman / and 10 now thou art to me ful vnfrendely / but and there were no mo but thou and I / thou woldest not putte me to deth / No said fir Andred / and ther with he drewe his sward / and wold haue slayne hym / Whanne fir Triftram sawe hym make suche countenaunce / he loked vpon bothe his handes that were fast boun-15 den vnto two knyghtes / and sodenly he pulled them bothe to hym / and vnwraft his handes / and thenne he lepte vnto his cosyn fyr Andred and wrothe his sward oute of his handes / thenne he smote fir Andred that he fylle to the erthe / and foo fir Triftram foughte tyl that he hadde kyled x knyghtes / So 20 thenne fir Triftram gate the chappell and kepte hit myghtely / thenne the crye was grete / and the peple drewe faste vnto fire Andred moo than an honderd / whanne fir Triftram sawe the peple drawe vnto hym he remembryd he was naked / & sferd fast the chappel dore and brake the barrys of a wyndowe / and 25 foo he lepte oute and fylle vpon the crackys in the see / And so at that tyme fir Andred nor none of his felawes myghte ge-te to hym at that tyme /

[leaf 163 verso]

faid fyre Trystram this is a ful vngoodely place for fuche a fayre lady / And yf I maye she shalle not be longe there / And soo he took his men and wente there as was la Beale Ifoud / and fette her aweye and broughte her in to a forest to a fayre manoyre / and sire Tristram there abode with her / 5 Soo the good knyghte badde his men goo from hym / For att Gouernaile / And soo vpon a daye sir Tristram yede in to the forest for to disporte hym / and thenne hit happend / that there fore hand had slayne his broder / And whan this man hadde foud hym he shotte hym thorou the sholder with an arow / and sir Tristram lepte vp and kyllled that man / And in the meane tyme it was told kynge Marke / how sir Tristram and la beale Ifoud were in that same manoir / and as soone as euer he 15

And whanne he came there / he fond hym gone / and there he took la beale Ifoud home with hym / and kepte her straye that Thenne by the meane of la Beale Ifoud she told a lady that 25 was cofyn vnto dame Bragwayne / and she came to sir Tristram and told hym that he myght not be hole by no meanes / For thy lady la beale Ifoud maye not helpe the / therfor she byd-deth you haste in to Bretayne to kynge Howel / and there ye shal fynde his douȝter Ifoud le blaunche maynys / and she shal 30 helpe the / Thenne sir tristram and gouernaile gat them shyp-pyng / and soo failed in to Bretayne / And whan kynge Howel wist that it was sir tristram / he was ful gladd of hym / Syre he faid I am comen in to this countrey to haue help of your doughter / For hit is tolde me / that there is none other may hele 35 me but she / and soo within a whyle she heled hym /

¶ Capitulum lxxvi]

THere was an Erle that hyghte Gryp / And this Erle maade grete werre vpon the kynge / and putte the kynge to the werfe / and bysegged hym / And on a tyme fyre kehydyus that was sone to kynge Howel / as he yffued ¶ Thenne Gouvernaile wente to the kynge and said / fyre I counceyle you to defyre my lord fyre Triftram as in your nede to helpe you / I wille doo by your counceylle said the kynge / and soo he yede vnto fyr Tryfram and praid hym in his war-10 ris to helpe hym / for my sone kehydyus may not goo in to the felde

¶ Sire said sir Triftram I wille goo to the feld and doo what I maye / Thenne sir Triftram yffued out of the towne with fuche selauship as he myght make / and dyd fuche dedes that alle Bretayne spake of hym / And thēne at the last 15 by grete myghte and force he slewe the Erle Gryp with his owne handes / and moo than an honderd knyghtes he slewe that daye / And thenne sire Triftram was receyued worship-fully with proceffion

¶ Thenne kynge Howel enbraced hym in his armes / and said sire Triftram alle my kyng-20 dome I wille refygne to the / God defende said sir Triftram / For I am beholden vnto you for youre doughters fake to doo for you /

¶ Thenne by the grete meanes of kynge Howel & kehydyus his sone by grete profers there grewe grete loue betwixe Ifoud and sire Tryfram / for that lady was 25 bothe good and fayre / and a woman of noble blood & fame

¶ And for by cause sir Triftram had fuche chere and Rycheffe and alle other plefaunce that he hadde / all moost he hadde forfaken la beale Ifoud / And soo vpon a tyme sir Tryfram agreed to wedde Ifoud la blanchē maynys / And at the laste 30 they were wedded / and solempnly held theyr maryage / And che a thought sodenly that he was alle desmayed / and other chere maade he none but with clyppynge and kyffynge as for 35 other flesshly lustes sire Tryfram neuer thoughte nor hadde adoo with her / fuche mencyon maketh the frensihe booke

Also it maketh mencyon that the lady wende there had ben no pleasyr but kyssyng and clyppynge / ¶ And in the meane tyme there was a knyght in Bretayne his name was Suppy-nabyles / and he came ouer the see in to Englonde / And thenne he came in to the court of kynge Arthur / and he met with 5 me doo you to wete that he wille be your mortal enemy in eue-ry place where he may mete you / That me repenteth said Triffram / for of alle knyghtes I loued to be in his selsauship / Soo fyre Trifram made grete mone and was ashamed that noble 25 knyghtes shold deffame hym for the fake of his lady / And in this meane whyle la beale Ifoud maade a letter vnto Quene Gueneuer complaynyng her of the vntrouthe of sir Trifram and how he hadde wedded the kynges doughter of Bretayne / Quene Gueneuer sente her another letter / and badde her be of 30 good chere / for she shold haue Ioye after forou / for fire trifram was so noble a knyght called / that by craftes of forcery ladyes wolde make fuche noble men to wedde them / but in the ende Quene Gueneuer said hit shal be thus / that he shalle hate her / and loue you better than euer he dyd to fore myghtely / and fyfshers of the yle of seruage toke hym vp and 5 his squyer was drowned / and the ship men had grete laboure to faue fire Lamoraks lyf / for alle the comfort that coude doo / and the lord of that yle hyght fyre Nabon le noyre a grete myghty gyaunt / And this fir Nabon hated alle the knyghtes of kynge Arthurs / and in no wyse he wold doo hem fa-10 uoure / And these fyfshers told fir Lamorak alle the gyse of fyre Nabon / how there came neuer knyghte of kynge Arthurs but he destroyed hym / And atte last bataille that he dyd was slayne fyr Nanowne le petyte / the which he put to a shameful dethe in despyte of kynge Arthur / for he was drawen lymme 15 meale / That forthynketh me said fir Lamerak for that knyghtes dethe / for he was my cofyn / And yf I were at myn ease as wel as euer I was I wold reuenge his dethe / Pees fa-yd the fyfshers and make here no wordes / for or euer ye departe from hens fyre Nabon must knowe that ye haue ben here / or 20 els we shold dye for your sake / So that I be hole said Lamorak of my diseafe / that I haue taken in the fee / I wille that ye telle hym that I am a knyzt of kynge Arthurs / for I was neuer aferd to reneye my lord /

¶ Capitulum xxxviij

Mow tourne we vnto fire Trystram that vpon a daye he 25 took a lytel Barget and his wyf Ifoud la blaūche rydes and a damoyfel / And thenne cyther falewed other / fyre sayde Segwarydes I knowe you for fire Tristram de Lyones the man in the world that I haue moost cause to hate by cause ye departed the loue bitwene me and my wyf / but as for that fayd Segwarydes I wil neuer hate a noble knyzt for a lyzt lady / And therfore I pray you be my frende and I wille be yours vnto my power / for wete ye wel / ye are hard bestad in this valey / and we shalle haue ynough to doo eyther of vs to 5 focoure other / And thenne sir Segwarydes brought sir Tryftram to a lady there by that was borne in Cornewaile / and she told hym alle the peryls of that valey / and how ther cam neuer knyght there but he were taken pryfoner or slayne / wete you wel fair lady said sir Trystram that I flewe sire Marhaus 10 and delyuerd Cornewaile from the truage of Irland / And I am he that delyuerd the kynge of Irland from sire Blamor de ganys / and I am he that bete sire Palamydes / and we-te ye wel I am sire Trystram de lyones that by the grace of god shalle delyuer this woful yle of seruage / So sir Triftram 15 was wel eafed / thenne one told hym there was a knyghte of kyng Arthur þ' had wrackyd on the rockes / what is his name said sir Triftram / we wote not said the fyfshers but he kepeth it no counceill but that he is a knyghte of Kynge Arthurs / and by the myghty lord of this yle he setteth nought by / I praye 20 you said sir Tdestram and ye maye brynge hym hyder that I maye see hym / And yf he be ony of the Knyghtes of Arthurs I shalle knowe hym / Thenne the lady prayed the fyfshers to brynge hym to her place / Soo on the morowe they brouzt hym thyder in a fyfshers rayment / And as soone as sire Triftram 25 sawe hym he smyled vpon hym and knewe hym wel / but he knewe not sir Triftram / Fair sir faide sire Triftram me semeth by your chere ye haue ben diseased but late / and also me thyn-keth I shold knowe you here to fore / I wille wel said sir La-morak that ye haue sene me and mette with me / Fair sir faide 30 sir triftram telle me your name / vpon a couenaunt I wil telle

For sothe said sir triftram I am not he nor I hold not of hym

 10 said he / and it were to doo ageyne / soo wold I doo / for I had leuer stryf and debate felle in kyng Marks courte rather than Arthurs courte / for the honour of bothe courtes be not y lyke As to that said sir Tristram I knowe wel / ¶ But that that was done it was for despyte of me / but alle youre malyce I 15 thanke god hurte not gretely / Therfor said sir Tristram ye shal leue alle your malyce / and soo wille I and lete vs affay hou we may wyne worship bitwene you and me vpon this gy-aunt sir Nabon le noyre / that is lord of this Iland to destroye hym / Sir said sir Lamorak now I vnderstande your knyght-peple said there was neuer knyȝt that euer they sawe do suche dedes of armes / for as the Frensshe book faith he foriusted alle that were there for the moost party of fyue honderd knyghtes that none abode hym in his fadel Thenne sir Nabon profered to playe with hym his playe / for I sawe neuer no knyghte doo 5 foo muche vpon a daye / I wille wel said fire Lamorak playe as I may but I am wery and fore bryfed / and there eyther gate a spere / but Nabon wold not encountre with fire Lamorak / but smote his hors in the forhede and foo slewe hym / and thenne fire Lamorak yede on foote and torned his shelde and 10 drewed his fwerd / and there beganne stronge bataill on foote / But sir Lamorak was so fore bryfed and shorte brethed that he tracyd and trauercyd fomwhat abak / Fair felawe said fyre Nabon hold thy hand and I shalle shewe the more curtosye / than euer I shewed knyght by cause I haue fene this daye thy 15 noble knyghthode / And therefore stand thou by and I wil wete whether any of thy felawes wille haue adoo with me / Theunne whan sir Tristram herd that / he stepte forth and said Nabon lende me hors and fure armour and I wille haue adoo with the Wel felawe said sir Nabon goo thou to yonder paelione and 20 arme the of the best thou fyndest there / and I shalle playe a merueillous playe with the / Thenne said fire Tristram loke ye playe wel or els peraduentur I shalle lerne you a newe play that is wel said felawe said sir Nabon / So whan sir Tristram was armed as hym lyked best and wel shelded and fwerded / 25 he dresid to hym on foote / For wel he knewe fyr Nabon wold not abyde a stroke with a spere / therfore he wold slee alle kny-ghtes horses / Now fair felawe said sir Nabon lete vs playe / Soo thenne they foughte longe on foote tracynge and trauer-cynge smytynge and foynynge longe withoute ony rest / Atte 30 last sir Nabon praid hym to telle hym his name / Syre Nabon I telle the my name is sir Tristram de lyones a knyȝt of Cornewail vnder kynge Marke / thou art welcome said sir nabon / for of alle knyghtes I haue moost desyred to fyghte with the or with sir Launcelot / Soo thenne they wente egerly to gyders 35 and fire tristram slewe fire nabon / and foo forth with he lepte to his sone / and strake of his hede / and thenne al the countrey fayde / they wold holde of fire Tristram / nay faide fire Tristram

I wille not foo / here is a worshipfull knyght fir Lamorak de galys that for me he shalle be lord of this countrey / for he hath done here grete dedes of armes / nay said fir Lamorak I wil not be lord of this countrey / for I haue not deserued it as wel 5 as ye / therfore gyue ye hit where ye wille for I will none haue / Wel faide fire Tristram syn ye nor I wille not haue hit / lete vs yeue hit to hym that hath not so wel deserued hit / Doo as ye lyft said Segwarydes / for the yeste is yours for I wil none haue and I had deserued hit / Soo was it yeuen to seg-10 warydes wherof he thanked hem / and foo was he lord / & wor-shipfully he dyd gouerne hit / And thenne fir Segwarydes delyuerd alle prysoners and sette good gouernaunce in that valey / and foo he torned in to Cornewaile / and told kynge Mark and la beale Ifoud how fir Tristram had auauuced 15 hym to the yle of seruage / and there he proclaimed in al Cor-newaile of alle the aduentures of these two knyghtes / so was hit openly knownen / But ful wo was la Beale Ifoud when she herde telle that fire Tristram was wedded to Ifoud la bla-unche maynys

¶ Capítulum xl

20 Soo torne we vnto fir Lamorak that rode toward Ar-thurs courte / and fire Tristrams wyf and Kehydys took a vessel and failed in to Bretayne vnto kynge Howel where he was welcome / And whan he herd of these aductures they merueilled of his noble dedes / Now torne we vnto fir La-25 morak that whan he was departed from fire Tristram / he rode oute of the forest tyll he came to an hermytage / whan the here-myte sawe hym / he asked hym from whens he came / fir said fir Lamorak I come fro this valey / fir said the hermyte therof I merueille / For this xx wynter I sawe neuer no knyght passe 30 this countrey / but he was other slayne or vylaynously wounded or passe as a poure prysoner / Tho ylle customs said fir la-morak are fordene / for fir Tristram slewe your lord fir Nabon and his sone / thenne was the hermyte gladde and all his bretheren / for he said ther was neuer suche a tyraunt among cry-35 sten men / And therfor said the hermyte this valey and frauceis we wille holde of fire Triftram / Soo on the morowe fir Lamorak departed / And as he rode he fawe four knyghtes fyghte ageynst one / and that one knyght defended hym wel but atte last the four knyghtes had hym doune / And thenne fir Lamorak wente betwixe them / and asked them why they wold flee 5 that one knyght / and said hit was shame four ageynst one / Thou shalt wel wete said the four knyghtes that he is fals / that is youre tale said fir Lamorak / And whanne I here hym also speke / I wille fay as ye faye / ¶ Thenne said Lamorak / a knyght can ye not excufe you / but that ye are a fals knyghte / 10 Syr said he yet can I excufe me both with my word & with my handes / that I wille make good vpon one of the best of them my body to his body / ¶ Thenne spake they al attones / we wil not Ieopardy our bodyes as for the / But wete thou wel they faide and kynge Arthur were here hym self it shold not lye in 15 his power to faue his lyf / That is to moche said / said fire La-morak / but many speke behynde a man more than they wyll faye to his face / And by cause of your wordes ye shalle vnderstande that I am one of the symplest of kynge Arthurs courte / in the worship of my lord now doo your best / and in despy- 20 te of you I shalle rescowe hym / And thenne they lassed alle at ones to fir Lamorak / but anone at two strokes fyre Lamorak had slayne two of them / and thenne the other two fledde ¶ Soo thenne fire Lamorak tornd ageyne to that knyghte / & asked hym his name / fyre he sayde my name is fire Frolle of 25 the oute Iles / thenne he rode with fire Lamorak and bare hym company / And as they rode by the waye / they fawe a semely knyght rydyng ageynst them / and all in whyte / A said Frol yonder knyght Iusted late with me and smote me doune / therfore I wil Iuste with hym / ye shal not doo foo said fire Lamo- 30 rak by my counceil / and ye wille telle me your quarel whether ye Iusted at his request / or he at yours / Nay said fir Frol / I Iusted with hym at my request / Syr said Lamorak / thēne wil I couceile you dele no more with hym / for me semeth by his co-untenaunce he shold be a noble knyght / and no Iaper / for me 35 thynketh / he shold be of the table round / therfor I wil not spare said fir Frol / and thenne he cryed and said / fir knyzt make the redy to Iust / That nedeth not said the whyte knyghte / For I haue no luste to Iuste with the / but yet they feutryd theyr speres / and the whyte knyghte ouerthrewe fire Frol / and thē-ne he rode his waye a softe paas / Thenne fir Lamorak rode af-5 ter hym / and praid hym to telle hym his name / for me semeth ye shold be of the fellowship of the round table / Vpon a couenant said he I wille telle you my name / soo that ye wylle not discouer my name / and also that ye wille telle me yours / Thenne said he my name is fir Lamorak de galys / And my 10 name is fir Launcelot du lake / thenne they putte vp their fuerdes / and kyssed hertely to gyders / and eyder made grete Ioye of other / Syr said fir Lamorak and hit please you I wyll do you feruyse / God defende said Launcelot that ony of soo noble a blood as ye be shold doo me feruyse / Thenne he faide more I 15 am in a quest that I must doo my self alone / Now god spede you said fir Lamorak / and so they departed / Thenne fir Lamorak came to fir Frol and horsed hym ageyne / what knyght is that said fir Frol / fir he said it is not for you to knowe nor it is no poynte of my charge / ye are the more vncurteis faide fire 20 Frol / and therfore I wille departe fro yow / ye may doo as ye lyst said fir Lamorak / and yet by my company ye haue faued the fayrest floure of your garland / soo they departed

¶ Capitulum xli

THenne within two or thre dayes fyr Lamorak fond a knyghte at a welle slepyng / and his lady fate with 25 hym and waked / Ryght so came fir Gawayne and toke the knyghtes lady / and sette her vp behynde his squyer / Soo fyre Lamorak rode after fyre Gawayne / and said fire Gawayne / torne ageyne / And thenne said fir Gawayne what wylle ye do with me / for I am neuewe vnto kyng Arthur / fyre said he for 30 that cause I wil spare you / els that lady shold abyde wyth me / or els ye shold Iuste with me / Thenne fire Gawayne tor-ned hym and ranne to hym that ought the lady with his spere / but the knyght with pure myght smote doune fyre Gawayne / and took his lady with hym / Alle this fir Lamorak saw 35 and said to hym self / but I reuenge my felawe / he will say of me dishonour in kynge Arthurs courte / Thenne sire Lamorak retorned and profered that knyght to Iuste / Syr said he I am redy / and there they came to gyders with alle their myght / and there sir Lamorak smote the knyght thorow both fydes / that he fylle to the erthe dede / thenne that lady rode to that knyghtes 5 broder that hyght Belliaunce le orgulus / that duelled fast ther by / and thenne she told hym how his broder was slayne / Allas said he I wille be reuengyd / and soo he horsed hym / & armed hym / and within a while he ouertook fyre Lamorak / and badde hym torne and leue that lady / for thou and I must 10 playe a newe playe / for thou hast slayne my broder fyre Froll that was a better knyghte than euer were thou / It myghte wel be said sir Lamorak / but this day in the felde I was found the better / Soo they rode to gyder / and vnhorsed other / & torned their sheldes / and drewe their swerdes / and foughte myghtely 15 as noble knyghtes preued by the space of two houres / So the ne sir Bellyaunce prayed hym to telle hym his name / Syr said he my name is sire Lamorak de galys / A said syr Belly-aunce / thou arte the man in the world that I moost hate / for I slewe my fones for thy sake / where I faued thy lyf / and 20 now thou hast slayne my broder syr Frol / Allas how shold I be accorded with the / therefore defende the / for thou shalt dye ther is none other remedy / ¶ Allas said sir Lamorak ful wel me ought to knowe you / for ye are the man that moost haue done for me / And there with alle sire Lamorak knelyd doune / and 25 bifought hym of grace / Aryse said sir Bellyaunce / or els there as thou kneleth I shalle flee the / That shal not nede faide sire Lamorak / for I wyl yelde me vnto you / not for fere of yow / nor for your strengthe / but your goodenes maketh me ful loth to haue adoo with you / wherfore I requyre you for goddes fa- 30 ke / and for the honour of knyghthode forgyue me al that I haue offended vnto you / Allas said Belleaunce leue thy knely-nge or els I shal flee the withoute mercy / Thenne they yede ageyne vnto batail / and either wounded other that al the ground was bloody there as they foughte / And at the laste Bel- 35 leaunce withdrew hym abak and sette hym doune softly vpon a lytil hylle / for he was so faynte for bledyng that he myght not stonde / Thenne sir lamorak threwe his shelde vpon his bak / and asked hym what chere / wel faid fyr Belliaunce / A fyr yet shalle I shewe you faueour in your male ease / A kn-yght fyr Belliaunce faid fyr Lamerak thou arte a foole / for and I had had the at suche auantage as thou hast done me 5 I shold slee the / but thy gentylnes is so good and so large / that I must nedes forgyue the myn euylle wille / And thenne fire Lamerak knelyd adoune / and unlaced fyrst his vmberere / and thenne his owne / and thenne cyther kyffed other with wepyng teres / Thenne fire Lamerak ledde fir Belliaunce 10 to an Abbay fast by / and there fire Lamerak wold not departe from Belliaunce tyl he was hole / And thenne they sware to gyders that none of hem shold neuer syghte ageynst other / So fyre Lamerak departed and wente to the courte of kyng Arthur /

¶ Here lene we of fire Lamerak and of fir Tristram

¶ And here begynneth the historye of La cote male tayle

¶ Capitulum primum

15 AT the Courte of kyng Arthur there cam a younge man and bygly made / and he was rychely byfene / and he defyred to be made knyghte of the kyng but his ouer garmēt fat ouerthwart-ly / how be hit / hit was ryche clothe of gold / 20 ¶ What is your name faid kyng Arthur / Syre faide he / my name is Breunor le noyre / and within shorte space ye shalle knowe that I am of good kyn / It maye wel be faid fir kay the Seneschal / but in mockage ye shalle be called la cote male 25 grete thyng that thou askest faid the kyng / And for what cause werest thou that ryche cote / telle me / for I can wel thynke for fomme cause hit is / Syre he ansuerd I had a fader a noble knyght / And as he rode on huntynge vpon a daye hit happed hym to leye hym doune slepe / And there came a knyght that 30 had ben longe his enemy / And whan he sawe he was fast on slepe / he alle to hewe hym / And this same cote had my fader

[leaf 169 verso]

on the fame tyme / and that maketh this cote to fyte foo evyll vpon me / for the strokes ben on hit as I fond hit / and neuer fhalle be amendyd for me / Thus to haue my faders dethe in re-membraunce I were this cote tyl I be reuengyd / and by caufe ye are callyd the moost nobleft kynge of the world I come to 5 you that ye fhould make me knyght / Sir faid fir Lamorak and fir Gaherys / hit were wel done to make hym knyght / for hym befemeth wel of perfone / and of countenance / that he fhall preue a good man and a good knyght / and a myghty for fire and ye be remembryd euen fuche one was fire launcelot du lake / 10 whanne he came fyrfte in to this Courte / and full fewe of vs knewe from whens he came / and now is he preued the man of moost worship in the world / and all your courte and alle your Round table is by fire launcelot worshipped and amended more than by ony knyghte now lyuyng / that is trouthe faide 15 the kynge / and to morou att your request I fhalle make hym knyght

¶ So on the morou there was an herte founden / and thyder rode kynge Arthur with a company of his knyghtes to flee the herte / And this yonge man that fire kay named la cote male tayle was there leste behynd with Quene 20 Gueneuer / and by fodeyne aduenture ther was an horryble lyon kepte in a stronge Toure of stone and it happend that he at that tyme brake loos / and came hurlyng afore the Quene & her knyghtes

¶ And whanne the Quene fawe the lyon / she cryed and fledde / and praide her knyghtes to refcove 25 her / And there was none of hem alle but twelue that abode / and alle the other fledde / ¶ Thenne faide La cote male tayle Now I fee wel that alle coward knyghtes ben not dede / and there with alle he drewe his fwerd / and dreffid hym afore the lyon / and that lyon gaped wyde and came vpon hym raump- 30 pyng to haue flayne hym / And he thenne fmote hym in the mydde of the hede fuche a myghty stroke / that it clafe his hede in fonder / and daffhed to the erthe / ¶ Thenne was hit tolde the Quene how the yonge man that fire kay named by fcorne La cote male tayle hadde flayne the lyon / With that the kyng 35 came home /

¶ And whanne the Quene tolde hym of that aduenture / he was wel pleafed / and faid / vpon payne of myn hede he fhalle preue a noble man and a feythful Knyghte and true of his promyse / thenne the kynge forth with al made hym knyght / Now sire said this yonge knyght I requyre you and alle the knyghtes of youre courte / that ye calle me by none other name but la cote male taylor / in foo moche that 5 fyr kay hath foo named me / foo wille I be called / I assente me wel therto said the kynge

¶ Capitulum secundum

Thenne that same daye there came a damoyfel in to the courte / and she brought with her a grete black shelde / with a whyte hand in the myddes holdynge a swerd 10 Other pycour was there none in that shelde / whan kyng Arthur sawe her / he asked her from whens she came / and what she wold / Syr she said I haue ryden longe and many a day with this sheld many wayes / and for this cause I am come to your courte / There was a good knyght that ought this sheld / & 15 this knyght had vndertake a grete dede of armes to enchieue hit / and foo it myffortuned hym / another stronge knyght met with hym by fodeyne aduenture / and there they fought longe / & eyther wounded other passynge fore / and they were foo very / that they lefte that bataille euen hand / Soo this knyght that 20 ought this shelde sawe none other way but he must dye / & thēne he commaunded me to bere this shelde to the Courte of kynge Arthur / he requyrynge and prayenge somme good knyght to take this shelde / and that he wold fulfille the quest that he was in / Now what saye ye to this quest said kynge Arthur / 25 Is there ony of you here that wille take vpon hym to welde this shelde / ¶ Thenne was there not one that wold speke one word / thenne sir kay took the shelde in his handes / Sire knyght said the damoyfel what is your name / Wete ye wel said he my name is sir kay the seneschal that wyde where is knowen / 30 Syre said that damoyfel laye doune that shelde / for wete ye wel it falleth not for you / for he must be a better knyght than ye / that shalfe welde this shelde / damoyfel sayd fyr kay wete ye wel I toke this sheld in my handes by youre leue / for to behold it not to that entent / but goo where someuer thou wilt / for I will not go with you / Thenne the damoyfel stode styll a grete why-le / and byheld many of tho knyghtes / Thenne spak the kny-ght La cote male taylor / fayre damoyfel I wille take the shel-de and that aduenture vpon me / for I wyft I shold knowe / 5 wheder ward my iourney myght be / for by cause I was this daye made knyght I wold take this aduenture vpon me / What is your name fayre yonge man said the damoyfel / My name is said he la cote male taylor / wel mayst thou be called fo said the damoyfel / the knyght with the cuylle shapen cote / but & 10 thou be so hardy to take vpon the to bere that shelde and to fo-lowe me / wete thou wel / thy kyn shall be as wel hewen as thy cote / As for that said la cote male taylor whan I am so hewen I wille aske you no salue to hele me with alle / And forth with all ther came in to the Court two squyers & brougt 15 hym grete horses and his armour and his speres / and anone he was armed and tooke his leue / ¶ I wold not by my will said the kynge that ye took vpon you that hard aduenture / fir said he / this aduenture is myn / and the fyrst that euer I took vpon me / and that wille I folowe what someuer come of me 20 ¶ Thenne that damoyfel departed / and la cote male taylor fast folowed after / And within a whyle he ouertook the damoyfell and anone she myffaid hym in the fowlest maner

¶ Capitulum Tercium /

Thenne fir kay ordeyned fir dagonet / kynge Arthurs foole to folowe after la cote male taylor / and there fir 25 kay ordeyned that fir Dagonet was horsed and armed and bad hym folowe la cote male taylor / and profer hym to Iuste and so he dyd / and whan he sawe la cote male taylor he cry-ed and badde hym make hym redy to Iuste / So fir la cote male taylor smote fir Dagonet ouer his hors croupe / Thenne the 30 damoyfel mocked la cote male taylor / and said fy for shame / now art thou shamed in Arthurs courte / whan they fende a foole to haue adoo with the / and specially at thy fyrst Iustes / thus she rode longe and chyde / ¶ And within a whyle there came fir Bleoberys the good knyght / and there he lusted with la cote male tayle / and there fyre Bleoberys smote hym so fore that hors and alle felle to the erth / Thenne la cote male tayle arofe vp lyghtely and dresid his sheld / and drewe his suerd 5 and wold haue done bataill to the vtteraunce / for he was wode wrothe / Not foo said Bleoberys de ganys / as at this tyme I wille not fyghte vpon foote / Thenne the damoyfel Maledysaut rebuked hym in the foulest maner / and badde hym torne ayene coward / A damoyfel he said I pray you of mercy to myslay 10 me no more / my gryef is ynough though ye gyue me no more / I calle my self neuer the wers knyght / whan a marys sone fa-yleth me / and also I compte me neuer the wers knyght for a falle of fir Bleoberys / Soo thus he rode with her two dayes / and by fortune there came fir Palomydes and encountred with 15 hym / and he in the same wyfe serued hym as dyd Bleoberys to fore hand / ¶ What dost thou here in my selsauship saide the damoyfel maledysaut / thou canst not fyte no knyghte / nor withstande hym one buffet / but yf hit were fir dagonet / A fair damoyfel I am not the wers to take a falle of sire Palamy-20 des / and yet grete disworship haue I none / for neyder Bleoberys nor yet palamydes wold not fyghte with me on foote / As for that said the damoyfel wete thou wel they haue desda-yne and scorne to lyghte of their horses to fyghte with suche a lewde knyght as thou arte / Soo in the meane whyle ther cam 25 fir Mordred / fir Gawayns broder / and foo he felle in the selsauship with the damoyfel maledysaut / And thenne they came afore the castel Orgulous / and there was suche a customme that there myght no knyght come by that castel / but outhur he must Iuste or be prysoner / or at the lest to lese his hors and his har-30 neis / and there came oute two knyghtes ageynst them / and fir Mordred Iusted with the foremost / and that knyght of the castel smote sire Mordred doune of his hors / and thenne la cote male tayle Iusted with that other / and eyther of hem smote other doune hors and alle to the erthe / And whanne they auoy-35 ded their horses / thenne eyther of hem took others horses / ¶ And thenne la cote male tayle rode vnto that knyght that smote doune sire Mordred and Iusted with hym / And there fyre La cote male tayle hurte & wounded hym passynge fore and putte hym from his hors as he had ben dede / So he torned vnto hym that mette hym afore / and he took the flyght toward the castel / and sire la cote male tayle rode after hym in to the Castel Orgulous / and there la cote male tayle flewe hym

¶ Capitulum iiii

ANd anon there came an honderd knyghtes about hym 5 and assaylled hym / and whan he sawe his hors shold be slayne / he alyghte and voyded his hors / & putte the brydel vnder his fecte / and so put hym out of the gate / And whan he had foo done / he hurled in amonge hem / and dressid his bak vnto a ladyes chamber walle / thynkyng hym self that he had leuer 10 dye there with worship / than to abyde the rebukes of the damoi-fel Maledyfaunt / And in the meane tyme as he stood & fougt that lady whos was the chamber wente out flyly at her posterne / and without the gates she fond la cote male tayles hors and lyghtly she gate hym by the brydel / and teyed hym to the 15 posterne / And thenne she wente vnto her chambre flyly ageyn for to behold hou that one knyght fought ageynst an honderd knyghtes / And whan she had behold hym longe / she wente to a wyndowe behynde his bak / and said thou knyght thou fyghtest wonderly wel / but for alle that at the last thou must ne- 20 des dye / But and thou canst thorou thy myzty prowesse wynne vnto yonder posterne / for there I haue fastned thy hors to abyde the / but wete thou wel thou must thynke on thy worship / & thynke not to dye / for thou maiste not wyne vnto that posterne without thou doo nobly and myghtly / Whan la cote 25 male tayle herd her faye so / he gryped his swerd in his handes and put his shield fayre afore hym / & thorou the thyckest prees he thrulled thorou them / And whan he came to the posterne he fond there redy four knyghtes / and at two the fyrst strokes he flewe two of the knyghtes / & the other fledde / & foo he wanne 30 his hors and rode from them / and alle as it was it was reher-ced in kynge Arthurs courte / hou he flewe twelue knyghtes within the castel Orgulous / and so he rode on his waye / And in the meane whyle the damoyfel said to sir Mordred I wene my foolyshe knygt be outhere slayn or takē prysoner / thēc we- 35 re they ware where he came rydyng / And whan he was come to them / he told alle how he hadde spedde / and escaped in despyte of them alle / and fomme of the best of hem wille telle no tales / Thou lyest falsly faide the damoyfel / that dare I make good / but as a foole and a daftard to alle knyghthode / they haue lete the passe / that may ye preue said La cote male taylor / 5 With that she sente a currouer of hers that rode alweye with her for to knowe the trouthe of this dede / and soo he rode thydder lyghtly / and asked how and in what maner that la cote male taylor was escaped oute of the castel / ¶ Thenne alle the 10 knyghtes curfyd hym and said that he was a sende and noo man / For he hath slayne here twelue of oure best knyghtes / & we wende vnto this daye that hit ben to moche for sir launcelot du lake or for sire Tristram de lyones / And in despyte of vs alle he is departed from vs and maugre oure hedes /

 15 ¶ With this answer the currouer departed and came to Maledyfaunt his lady / and told her alle how sir la cote male taylor had spedde at the castel Orgulous / Thenne she smote down her heed / and sayd lytel / By my hede said sir Mordred to the damoyfel ye are gretely to blame so to rebuke hym / for I warne you playnly he is a good knyghte / and I doubte not / but 20 he shalle preue a noble knyghte / but as yet he may not yet fytt sure on horsbak / for he that shalle be a good horsman / hit must come of vsage and excercyse / But whan he cometh to the strokes of his swerd / he is thenne noble and myghty / and that sawe we sire Bleoberys and sir Palamydes / for wete ye wel they are wyly men of armes / and anon they knowe when they see a yonge knyghte by his rydyng / how they are sure to yeue hym 25 a falle from his hors or a grete buffet / But for the moost party they wille not lyghte on foote with yonge knyghtes / For they are wyght and strongly armed / For in lyke wyse sir launcelot du lake whan he was fyrste made knyghte / he was often putte to the werse vpon horsbak / but euer vpon foote he recouerd his renomme / and slewe and defoyled many knyghtes of the round table / And therfor the rebukes that sir Launcelot dyd vnto many knyghtes causeth them that be men of prowesse to beware / for often I haue sene the old preued knyghtes rebuked and slayne by them that were but yonge begynners / Thus they rode sure talkyng by the way to gyders /

¶ There lene we of a whyle of this tale and speke we of fire Launcelot du lake /

¶ Capitulum Quintum

THat whan he was come to the courte of kynge Arthur thenne herd he telle of the yonge knyghte la cote male tayle how he fiewe the lyon / & how he tooke vpon hym the aduenture of the black shelde / the whiche was named atte that tyme the hardyest aduenture of the world / Soo god me 5 faue faid sir Laūcelot vnto many of his felawes / it was shame to alle the noble knyghtes to suffre fuche a yonge knyghte to take fuche aduenture vpon hym for his destructyon / for I wille that ye wete faid fire launcelot / that that damoyfel maledyfaunt hath born that shelde many a day for to feche the most 10 proued knyghtes / and that was she that Breunys saunce py-te took that sheld from her / and after Tristram de lyones reco-wed that shelde from hym / and gaf it to the damoyfell ageyne A lytil afore that tyme that sir Tristram fought with my neuwe fire Blamore de Ganys for a quarel that was betwixe 15 the kynge of Irland and hym / Thenne many knyghtes were fory that sir La cote male tayle was gone forth to that aduenture / Truly faid sir launcelot I cast me to ryde after hym / and within feuen dayes sir launcelot ouertook la cote male tayle / And thenne he falewed hym / and the damoyfel maledyfaunt / 20 And whan sir Mordred sawe sir laūcelot / thenne he lefte their felauship / and foo sir launcelot rode with hem al a day / and e-uer that damoyfel rebuked la cote male taile / and thenne fire launcelot anfuerd for hym / thenne she lefte of / and rebuked sir launcelot / Soo this meane tyme fyre Tristram fente by a da- 25 moyfel a letter vnto fire launcelot excufynge hym of the weddyng of Ifoud le blaunche maynys / and faid in the letter as he was a true knyzt / he hadde neuer adoo fleffhly with Ifoud la blaunche maynys / and passynge curtoisly & gentyly sir tristram wrote vnto fire launcelot / euer byfechyng hym to be his 30 good frende / & vnto la beale Ifoud of Cornewaile / and that fire Launcelot wold excuse hym yf that euer he sawe her / ¶ And within shorte tyme by the grace of god said sir Tristram that he wold speke with la Beale Isoud and with hym ryghte hastely / Thenne sire Launcelot departed from the damoyfel / & 5 from fyr la cote male taile for to ouersee that letter / and to wryte another letter vnto fyre Tristram de lyones / and in the meane whyle la cote male tayle roode with the damoyfel vntyl they came to a castel that hyght Pendragon / and there were fyxe knyghtes stode afore hym / and one of hem profered to luf-10 te with la cote male tayle / And there la cote male tayle smote hym ouer his hors croupe / ¶ And thenne the fyue knyghtes sette vpon hym all at ones with their speres / & there they smote la cote male tayle doune hors and man / And thenne they a-lyght sodenly / and sette their handes vpon hym all attones / 15 and toke hym prysoner / and soo ledde hym vnto the castel / & kepte hym as prysoner / And on the morne sir Launcelot arose and delyuerd the damoyfel with letters vnto sir Tristram / & thenne he took his way after la cote male tayle / & by the waye vpon a brydge there was a knyghte profered sire Launcelot to 20 luste / and sire Launcelot smote hym doune / and thenne they foughte vpon foote a noble batail to gyders and a myghty / & at the laste sire Launcelot smote hym doune grouelynge vpon his handes and his knees / And thenne that knyghte yelded hym / and sire launcelot receyued hym fayre / Syr said the kn-25 yght I requyre the telle me your name / for moche my herte yeueth vnto you / Nay said sire Launcelot as at this tyme I wil not telle you my name / onles thenne that ye telle me your name / Certaynly said the knyght my name is sir Nerouens that was made knyght of my lord sir Launcelot du lake / A Nero-30 uens de lyle said sire Launcelot I am ryght gladde that ye ar proued a good knyghte / for now wete ye wel my name is sir Launcelot du lake / Allas said sire Nerouens de lyle what haue I done / and there with al flatlyng he felle to his feet / and would haue kyft them / but sir Launcelot wold not lete hym / & 35 thenne cyther made grete ioye of other / And thenne sire Nerouens told sir Launcelot that he shold not goo by the castel of Pendragon / for there is a lord a myghty knyght / and many knyghtes with hym / and this nyght I herd say that they toke a knyght pryfoner yesterday that rode with a damoyfel / & they faye he is a knyghte of the round table

¶ Capitulum vij

A Said sir Launcelot that knyght is my felawe / & hym shalle I rescowe or els I shalle lese my lyf therefore And there with alle he rode fast tyl he came before the 5 Castel of Pendragon / and anone there with alle there cam vj knyghtes / and alle made hem redy to fette vpon sire Launcelot at ones / thenne sire Launcelot feutryd his spere / and smote the formeft that he brake his bak in fonder / and thre of them hytte and thre fayled / And thenne sire launcelot pafte thorou them / 10 and lyghtly he torned in ageyne / and smote another knyghte / thorugh the brest and thorou oute the bak more than an ell / & ther with alle his spere brak / Soo thenne alle the remenaunt of the four knyghtes drewe their swardes and lashed at fyre Launcelot / And at euery stroke sire launcelot bestowed so his 15 strokes that at four strokes sondry they auoyded theyr sadels passynge fore wounded / and forthe with alle rode hurlyng in to that castel / And anon the lord of the castel that was that tyme cleped sir Bryan de les yles the which was a noble mā and grete enemy vnto kyng arthur / within a whyle he was 20 armed and vpon horsbak / And thenne they feutryd their spe-res and hurled to gyders soo strongly that bothe their horses rashed to the erthe / And thenne they auoyded their sadels / & dressed their sheldes and drewe their swardes and flange to gyders as wood men / and there were many strokes yeuē in a 25 whyle / at the last sir launcelot gaf to sir Bryan suche a buffet that he kneled vpon his knees / and thenne sir launcelot rashed vpon hym / and with grete force he pulled of his helme / and whanne sire Bryan sawe that he shold be slayne he yelded hym and put hym in his mercy and in his grace / Thenne sire 30 launcelot made hym to delyuer alle his pryfoners that he had within his castel / and therin sir launcelot fonde of arthurs kn-yghtes thyrty / and / xl / ladyes / and soo he delyuerd hem / and thenne he rode his waye / and anon as la cote male tayle was delyuerd he gat his hors and his harneis / and his damoyfel 35

Maledyfaunt / the meane whyle fyre Neroueus that fir Launcelot had foughten with alle afore at the brydge / he sente a damoyfel after fir Launcelot to wete hou he spedde at the Castell of Pendragon / And thenne they within the castel merueylled 5 what knyght he was whan fir Bryan and his knyghtes deluyerd alle tho pryfoners / haue ye no merueille said the damoyfel / for the best knyghte in this world was here / and dyd this iourney / and wete ye wel she said it was fire launcelott Thenne was fir Bryan ful gladde and soo was his lady / & 10 alle his knyghtes / that suche a man shold wyne them / And whan the damoyfel and la cote male tayle vnderstood that it was fyr Launcelot du lake that had ryden with them in selau-ship / ¶ And that she remembryd her hou she had rebuked hym and callyd hym coward / thenne was she passyng heuy

15 Soo thenne they took their horses and rode forth a pas after fire Launcelot / And within two myle they ouer-took hym / and salewed hym / and thanked hym / and the damoyfel cryed fir Launcelot mercy of her euyll dede / and fayenge / for now I knowe the floure of alle knyghthode is 20 departed euen bitwene fire Tristram and you / For god knoweth said the damoyfel that I haue foughte you my lord fir Launcelot and fir Tristram longe / and now I thanke god I haue mette with you / and ones at Camelot I mette with fir Tristram / and there he rescowed this blak shelde with the why-25 te hand holdyng a naked swerd / that fir Bruyns faunce pyte had taken from me / Now fayre damoyfel said fir Launcelot who told you my name / Syre said she / there came a damoyfell from a knyghte that ye fought with all at the brydge / and he told me your name was fir Launcelot du lake / blame haue 30 she thenne said fire Launcelot / but her lord fire Neroueus hath told her / But damoyfel said fire Launcelot vpon this couenaunt I wille ryde with you / so that ye wille not rebuke this knyght fir La cote male tayle nomore / for he is a good knyght and I doubte not he shalle preue a noble knyght / and for his fake and pyte that he sholde not be destroyed / I folowed hym to focoure hym in this grete nede / A / Ihesu thanke you faid the damoyfel / for now I wil fay vnto you and to hym both / I rebuked hym neuer for no hate that I hated hym / but for grete loue that I had to hym / For euer I supoofed that he had ben 5 to yonge and to tendyr to take vpon hym these aduentures / And therefore by my wille I wold haue dryuen hym awaye for Ialoufy that I had of his lyf / for it maye be no yong kny-ghtes dede that shal enchyue this aduenture to the ende / Perdieu faid sire Launucelot hit is wel faid / and where ye are cal- 10 led the damoyfel Maledysfaunt I wille calle you the damoyfel Bien pensfaunt / and soo they rode forthe a grete whyle vnto they came to the Bordoure of the countrey of Surluse / and there they fond a fayr vyllage with a stronge brydge lyke a fortresse / And whanne sire launcelot and they were at the brid- 15 ge / there starte forth afore them of gentilmen and yomen many that faide / Faire lordes ye maye not passe this brydge and this fortresse by cause of that black shelde that I see one of you bere / And therefore there shalle not passe but one of you at ones / therfore chese you whiche of you shalle entre withynne 20 this brydge fyrste / Thenne sire Launcelot profered hym self fyrst to entre within this brydge / Syr faid La cote male tayle I biseche you lete me entre within this fortresse / and yf I may spe-de wel / I wille sende for you / and yf it happend that I be slayn there it goth / And yf soo be that I am a prysoner taken / then- 25 ne maye ye rescowe me / I am lothe faid sire launcelot to lete you passe this passage / Syre faid la cote male tayle I praye you lete me putte my body in this aduenture / Now goo youre waye faid sire Launcelot / and Ihesu be your spede / So he entrid and anone there mette with hym two bretheren / the one hyȝte 30 fyr Playne de force and the other hyght sire Playne de amours And anone they mette with sire la cote male tayle / and fyrste la cote male tayle smote doune Playne de force / and after he smote doune playne de amours / and thenne they dresseid them to their sheldes and fwerdes / and badde la cote male tayle a- 35 lyghte / and soo he dyd / and there was daffhyng and foynyng with fwerdes / and soo they began to affaile ful hard la cote male tayle / and many grete woundes they gaf hym vpon his heed and vpon his brest and vpon his sholders / And as he myght euer amonge he gaf sadde strokes ageyne / And thenne the two bretheren traced and traureyd for to be of bothe handes of fire la cote male tayle / but he by fyne force & 5 knyghtly prowesse gate hem afore hym / And thenne whan he felte hym self soo wounded / thenne he doubled his strokes / & gaf them soo many woundes that he feld them to the erthe / & wold haue slayne them had they not yelded them / And ryzt 10 them thre / and soo rode forth his waye to the other fortresse & kes / and one whyle the one knyght was afore on the brydge / and an other whyle the other / And thus they foughte two houres and more / and neuer rested / And euer fire Launcelot and the damoyfel beheld them / ¶ Allas said the damoyfel my 20 knyghte fyghteth passynge fore and ouer longe / ¶ Now may ye see said sir Launcelot that he is a noble knyghte for to con-fydre his fyrste bataile / and his greuous woundes / And euen forth with all so wounded as he is / it is merucile that he may endure this longe batail with that good knyghte /

 10 ne fire Triftram and fire Lamorak gate fire kehydius vpon a fhield betwixe them bothe / and ledde hym to a fosters lodge / & there they gaf hym in charge to kepe hym well / and with hym they abode thre dayes / Thenne the two knyghtes toke their hor-fes / and at the croffe they departed / And thenne faid fir Trif-15 tram to fire Lamorak I requyre you yf ye happe to mete wyth fir Palamydes / fay hym that he fhall fynde me atte fame welle there I mette hym / and there I fire Triftram fhalle preue whether he be better knyght than I / and soo eyther departed from other a fondry way / and fire triftram rode nyghe there as was 20 fire kehydius / and fire Lamorak rode vn tyl he came to a chappel / and there he putte his hors vnto pasture / and anone there came fir Melyagaunce that was kyng Bagdemagus fone / & he there putte his hors to pasture / and was not ware of fir la-morak / and thenne this knyght fire Melliagaunce maade his 25 mone of the loue that he hadde to quene Gueneuer / and there he made a woful complaynte / All this herd fire Lamorak / and on the morne fir lamorak took his hors and rode vnto the fo-reft / and there he mette with two knyghtes houyng vnder the wood shawe / Faire knyghtes faid fire Lamorak what doo ye 35 ync mete with all / Syre they faid / hit is fire launcelot that fle-we oure broder / And yf euer we maye mete with hym / he fhall not efcape but we fhalle flee hym / ¶ Ye take vpon you a grete charge faide fir Lamorak / for fire launcelot is a noble proued knyzt / As for that we doute not / for there nys none of vs but we are good ynough for hym I will not bileue that faid fir Lamorak / For I herd neuer yet of no knyght the da-yes of my lyf but fir launcelot was to bygge for hym 5

¶ Capitulum xiii /

RYght foo as they stode talkynge thus / fyre Lamorak was ware hou fyr launcelot came rydyng streyghte toward them / thenne fire Lamorak falewed hym / and he hym were ony thyng that he myght doo for hym in these marches / 10 Nay faid fire launcelot not at this tyme / I thanke you / thenne eyther departed from other / and fir Lamorak rode ageyn ther as he lefte the two knyghtes / and thenne he fond them hydde in the leued woode / Fy on you faid fir Lamorak fals cowardes / pyte and shame it is / that ony of you shold take the hyhe 15 ordre of knyghthode / Soo fir Lamorak departed fro them / and within a whyle he mette with fire Melyagaunce / And thenne fyre Lamorak asked hym / why he loued Quene Gueneuer as he dyd / for I was not fer from you whanne ye made your complaynte by the chappel / Dyd ye foo faid fir Melyagaũ- 20 ce / thenne wille I abyde by hit / I loue quene gueneuer what wille ye with hit / I wille preue and make good / that she is the fayrest lady and moost of beaute in the world / ¶ As to that faid fire Lamorak I say nay therto / for quene Morgause of Orkeney moder to fire Gawayne and his moder is the fay- 25 rest quene and lady that bereth the lyf / That is not so sayd fyre Melyagaunce / and that wille I preue with my handes vpon thy body / Wille ye foo faid fire Lamorak / and in a better quarel kepe I not to fyghte / Thenne they departed eyther from other in grete wrathe / And thenne they came rydyng to gyder 30 as hit had ben thonder / and eyther smote other so fore that their horses felle bakward to the erthe / And thenne they auoyded their horses and dresid their sheldes / and drewe their swardes And thenne they hurtled to gyders as wylde bores / and thus they fought a grete whyle / For Melyagaunce was a good man and of grete myght / but fire Lamorak was hard bygge for hym / and putte hym alweyes a bak / but eyther had wounded other fore / ¶ And as they stode thus fyghtyng / by for-5 tune came fire Launcelot and fire Bleoberys rydyng / And thenne fire launcelot rode betwixe them / and asked them / For what cause they fought foo to gyders / and ye are bothe knyghtes of kyng Arthur /

¶ Capitulum xiiii

10 Yr faid Melyagaunce I shalle telle you for what cause we doo this bataille / I prayfed my lady Quene Gueneuer / and faid she was the fayrest lady of the world / and fire Lamorak faid nay therto / For he faid quene Morgause of Orkeney was fayrer than she and more of beau-that Quene Gueneuer is the fayrest lady and moost of bounte in the world

¶ Syre faid fire Lamorak I am loth 20 to haue adoo with you in this quarell / For euery man thyn-keth his owne lady fayrest / and though I prayfe the lady / that I loue moost / ye shold not be wrothe / For though my lady quene Gueneuer be fayrest in your eye / wete ye wel Quene Morgause of Orkeney is fayrest in myn eye / and foo euery 25 knyght thynketh his owne lady fayrest / and wete ye wel fyr ye are the man in the world excepte fire Tristram / that I am moost lothest to haue adoo with alle / But and ye wille nedes fyghte with me I shal endure you as long as I may / ¶ Thenne spake fire Bleoberys / and faid / my lord fire Laū-30 celot / I wyfte you neuer foo mysaufed as ye are now / For fyre Lamorak faith you but reason and knyghtely / ¶ For I warne you I haue a lady / and me thynketh that she is the fayrest lady of the world / were this a grete reason that ye sh-old be wrothe with me for suche langage / And wel ye wote / 35 that fyr Lamorak is as noble a knyght as I knowe / and he hath oughthe you and vs euer good wille / and therfore I praye you be good frendes / ¶ Thenne sire Launcelot sayd vnto sir lamerak / I pray you foryeue me myn euylle wylle / And yf I was myfaufyed I wille amende hit / Syre sayde sir Lamorak the amendys is foone made betwixe you and me 5 And foo sir Launcelot and sire Bleoberys departed / and syr Melyagaunce and sir Lamorak took their horses / and eyther departed from other / And within a whyle came kyng Arthur and mette with sir Lamorak and Iusted with hym / and there he smote doune sire Lamorack / and wounded hym fore 10 with a spere / and foo he rode from hym / wherfore sir Lamorak was wrothe that he wold not fyghte with hym on foote / hou be it that sire Lamorak knewe not kyng Arthur

Now leue we of this tale / and speke we of sire Tristram / that as he rode he mette with sir kay the seneschal 15 and there sire kay asked sir Tristram of what countrey he was / he answered that he was of the countrey of Cornewail Hit maye wel be said sir kay / for yet herd I neuer that euer good knyghte came oute of Cornewaile / that is euyl spoken said sir Tristram / but and it please you to telle me your name 20 I requyre you / Syre wete ye wel said sire kay that my name is sire kay the seneschal / Is that your name said sir Tristram / now wete ye well that ye are named the shamefullest knyghte of youre tonge that now is lyuyng / how be it ye are called a good knyght / but ye are called vnfortunate / and passyng ouer- 25 thwarte of your tonge / And thus they rode to gyders tyl they came to a brydge / And there was a knyghte wold not lete hem passe / tyl one of hem Iusted with hym / and so that knyght Iusted with sir kay / and there that knyght gaf sir kay a falle / his name was sire Tor fyre Lamoraks half broder / and then- 30 ne they two rode to theyre lodgyng / And there they fonde sire Brandyles / and sir Tor came thyder anone after /

¶ And as they fatte atte souper these foure knyghtes / thre of them spak alle shame by Cornyffhe knyghtes / ¶ Syr Triftram herd alle that they faide / and he fayd but lytell / but he thoughte the more / but at that tyme he discouerd not his name / Vpon the morne fir Triftram took his hors / and abode 5 them vpon their way / And there fyre Brandyles proferd to luste with fir Triftram / and fir Triftram smote hym doune hors and alle to the erthe / Thenne fire Tor le fyfe de vayshoure encountred with fyre Triftram / and there fire Triftram smote hym doune / and thenne he rode his waye / and fir kay folowed 10 hym / but he wold not of his selaufship / Thenne fire Brandy-les came to fir kay / and said I wold wete fayne what is that knyghtes name / Come on with me said fir kay / and we shall praye hym to telle vs his name / Soo they rode to gyders / tylle they came nyghe hym / and thenne they were ware where he sat 15 by a welle / and had putte of his helme to drynke at the welle And whanne he sawe them come / he laced on his helme lyghtly / and took his hors / and proferd hem to luste / Nay said fyre Brandyles we lusted late ynough with you / we come not in that entent / But for this we come to requyre you of knyght-20 hode to telle vs your name / My fayre knyghtes fythen that is your defyre / and to please you ye shal wete that my name is fir Triftram de lyones neuewe vnto kyng Mark of Corne-wayle / In good tyme faide fire Brandyles / and wel be ye fonden / and wete ye wel that we be ryght gladde that we ha-25 ue fonde you / and we be of a selaufship that wold be ry3t glad of your company / For ye are the knyghte in the world that the noble selaufship of the round table mooste defyareth to haue the company of / God thanke them said fir Triftram of theyre grete goodenes / but as yet I feale wel that I am vnabyll to 30 be of their selaufship / For I was neuer yet of fuche dedes of worthynes to be in the company of fuche a selaufship / A fayde fire kay and ye be fyre Tryftram de lyones ye are the man called now moost of prowesse excepte fir launcelot du lake / For he bereth not the lyf crysten ne hethen that can fynde fuche ano-35 ther knyght to speke of his prowesse and of his handes and his trouthe with alle / For yet coude there neuer creature saye of hym dishonour and make hit good / ¶ Thus they talked a grete whyle / and thenne they departed cyther from other fuche weyes as hem femed beft /

¶ Capitulum xvi /

Now shall ye here what was the cause that kynge Arthur cam in to the forest perillous / that was in North-walys by the meanes of a lady / her name was Annowre / and this lady came to kynge Arthur at Cardyf / and she by fayre promyse and fayre bihestes maade kynge Arthur to ryde with her in to that forest perillous / and she was a grete forcereffe / and many dayes she hadde loued kynge arthur / and by cause she wold haue hym to lye by her / she came in to that Countrey / Soo whanne the kynge was gone with her / many of his knyghtes folowed after kynge arthur / whan they myft hym / as fir launcelot Braundyles and many other / and when she had brought hym to her toure / she defyred hym to lye by her and thenne the kynge remembryd hym of his lady / and wold not lye by her for no crafte that she coude doo / Thenne euery daye she wolde make hym ryde in to that forest with his owne knyghtes to the entent to haue had kynge arthur slayne / For whan this lady annoure sawe that she myȝt not haue hym at her wille / thenne she laboured by fals meanes to haue destroyed kynge arthur and slayne / Thenne the lady of the lake that was alwey frendely to kynge arthur / she vnderstoode by her subtyl craftes that kynge arthur was lyke to be destroyed And therefore this lady of the lake that hyght Nyneue cam in to that forest to feke after sire Launcelot du lake / or sire Trif-tram for to helpe kynge arthur / for as that fame day this lady of the lake knewe wel that kynge arthur shold be slayne / on-les that he hadde helpe of one of these two knyȝtes / and thus she rode vp and doune tyl she mette with sire Tristram / and anon as she sawe hym / she knewe hym / O my lord sir Tristram she said well be ye mette / and bleffid be the tyme that I haue mette with you / for this fame day / and within these two heures shalle be done the foulest dede that euer was done in this land O fair damoyfel said sir Tristram maye I amende hit / Come on with me she said and that in alle the haste ye maye / for ye shal see the most worshipfullest knyȝt of the world hard bestad

¶ Thenne said sire Tristram I am redy to helpe fuche a noble man / he is neither better ne wers said the lady of the lake but the noble kyng Arthur hym self / God defende said sire Tristram that euer he shold be in fuche distresse / Thenne they rode to 5 gyders a grete pas vntyl they came to a lytel turrete a castel / & vndermethe that castel they sawe a knyghte standynge vpon foote fyghtynge with two knyghtes / And soo sire Tristram biheld them / and at the laste the two knyghtes smote doun the one knyghte / and that one of hem vnaced his helme to haue 10 slayne hym / And the lady Annoure gat kyng Arthurs suerd in her hand to haue stryken of his hede / And there with alle came sire Tristram with alle his myghte / cryenge / Traytreffe / Traitresse leue that / And anone there sire Tristram smote the one of the knyghtes thorou the body that he selle dede / and thē 15 ne he raffishd to the other / and smote his bak in sonder / and in the meane whyle the lady of the lake cryed to kyng Arthur lete not that fals lady escape / Thenne kyng Arthur ouertoke her / and with the same swerd he smote of her heed / and the lady of the lake took vp her heed and henge it vp by the heyre 20 of her fadel bowe / And thenne sire Tristram horfed kyng Arthur / and rode forth with hym / but he charged the lady of the lake not to discouer his name as at that tyme / Whan the kyng was horfed / he thanked hertely sire Tristram / and desyred to wete his name / but he wold not telle hym / but that he was 25 a poure knyght auenturous / and soo he bare kyng Arthur felausship tyl he met with somme of his knyghtes / And within a whyle he mette with sire Ector de marys / and he knewe not kyng Arthur nor sire Tristram / and he desyred to iuste with one of hem / Thenne sire Tristram rode vnto sire Ector / and smote hym from his hors / And whanne he hadde done soo / he came 30 ageyne to the kyng / and said my lord yonder is one of your knyghtes / he may bere you felausship / and another day that dede that I haue done for you I truste to god ye shalle vnderstande that I wold do you seruyse / Allas said kyng Arthur 35 lete me wete what ye are / Not at this tyme said sire Tristram / Soo he departed and lefte kyng Arthur and sire Ector to gyders

¶ Capitulum xvij

ANd thenne at a day sette fire Tristram and fire Lamorak mette at the welle / and thenne they took kehydius at the fosters hous / and soo they rode with hym to the ship / where they lefte dame Brangwayne and Gouvernayle and soo they sayled in to Cornewaile all holy to gyders / and 5 by assent and enformacyon of dame Brangwayn whan they were landed they rode vnto fire Dynas the seneschal / a trusty frende of fir Tristrams / and so dame Brangwayne and fyre Dynas rode to the courte of kynge Marke / and told the que-ne la Beale Ifoud that fir tristram was nyghe her in that co- 10 untrey / thenne for very pure Ioye la beale Ifoud swouned / & whan she myghte speke / she said gentyl knyȝt Seneschall help that I myght speke with hym / outhur my herte wille braft / ¶ Thenne fir Dynas and dame Brangwayne broughte fyre tristram and kehydius pryuely vnto the courte vnto a cham- 15 bre where as la beale Ifoud hadde assygned hit / and to telle the ioyes that were betwixe la beale Ifoud and fire tristram / there is no tonge can telle it / nor herte thynke hit / nor pen wryte hit / And as the Frensshe book maketh mencyon at the fyrst tyme that euer fir kehydius sawe la beale Ifoud / he was soo 20 enamoured vpon her / that for very pure loue he myghte neuer withdrawe hit / And at the last as ye shall here or the book be ended / fire Kehydius dyed for loue of la beale Ifoud / and thenne pryuely he wrote vnto her lettres and ballades of the moost goodlyest that were vsed in tho dayes / ¶ And whanne 25 La beale Ifoud vnderstood his letters she hadde pyte of his cōplaynt / and vnauyfed she wrote another letter to comforte hym with alle / And fire tristram was alle this whyle in a turret at the commaundement of la beale Ifoud / and whan she my-ght / she came vnto fire tristram / So on a day kynge Mark pla- 30 yed at the cheffe vnder a chamber wyndowe / and at that tyme fire tristram and fire Kehydius were within the chamber ouer Kyng Marke / and as it myshapped fir tristram sonde the letter that Kehydius sent vn̄to la beale Ifoud / also he had fōud the letter that she wrote vnto Kehydius / & at that fame tyme 35 la Beale Ifoud was in the same chamber / Thenne fir tristram came vnto la Beale Ifoud and said / Madame here is a letter that was sente vnto you / and here is the letter that ye sent vnto hym that sente you that letter / Allas madame the good loue that I haue loued you / and many landes and rycheffe 5 haue I forfaken for your loue / and now ye are a traytreffe to me the whiche dothe me grete payne / but as for the fir kehydius I broughte the oute of Bretayne in to this Cōutrey / and thy fader kynge Howel I wanne his landes / how be it I wedded thy fyfter Ifoud le blaunche maynys for the goodenes she 10 dyd vnto me / And yet as I am true knyghte she is a clene mayden for me / but wete thou wel fyr Kehydus for this fals-hede and treason thou hast done me / I wille reuenge hit vpon the / And there with alle fir Triftram drewe oute his fwerd / and said fire kehydius kepe the / and thenne la Beale Ifoud 15 fwouned to the erthe / And whanne fir kehydius sawe fir triftram come vpon hym / he sawe none other bote / but lepte oute at a bay wyndowe euen ouer the hede where sat kynge Marke playenge at the cheffes / And whanne the kynge sawe one come hurlynge ouer his hede / he sayd / Felawe what arte thou / and 20 what is the caufe thou lepest oute at that wyndowe / ¶ My lord the kynge said Kehydus / hit fortunod me that I was a flepe in the wyndowe aboue your hede / and as I flepte I flommeryd / and soo I felle doune / And thus fir kehydius excused hym

25 THenne fir Triftram dredde fore lest he were discouered vnto the kynge that he was there / wherfore he drewe hym to the strengthe of the Toure / and armed hym in fuche armour as he had to fyghte with hem that wold with-stande hym / And soo whanne fire Triftram sawe / there was no 30 reflytence ageynst hym / he sente Gouvernaille for his hors and his spere / and knyghtely he rode forth oute of the castel openly that was called the castel of Tyntagil / And euen atte gathe he mette with Gyngalyn fyr Gawayns sone / And anone fir Gyngalyn putte his spere in his reyste / and ranne vpon 35 fire Tryftram and brake his spere / and fire Triftram at that tyme had but a fwerd / and gaf hym fuche a buffet vpon the helme that he fylle doune from his fadel / and his fwerd flode adoune / and carf a fonder his hors neck / And foo fire triftram rode his waye in to the forest / and alle this doynghe fawe kyng Mark / And thenne he sente a squyer vnto the hurte knyghte 5 and commaunded hym to come to hym / and foo he dyd / And whanne kyng Marke wyft that it was fir Gyngalyn / he welcomed hym / and gaf hym an hors / and asked hym what kn-yght hit was that had encoütrede with hym / Syr said fir gyn-galyn / I wote not what knygt he was / but wel I wote that he 10 fygheth and maketh grete dole / Thenne fir Triftram within a while mette with a knyght of his owne that hyghte fir Fergus / And whan he had mette with hym he made grete forowe in fo moche that he felle doune of his hors in a fwoune / and in fuche sorowe he was in thre dayes and thre nyghtes / Thenne 15 at the lafte fir Triftram sent vnto the courte by fir Fergus for to spere what tydynges / And fo as he rode by the way he met with a damoyfel that came from fir Palamydes to knowe and feke how fir Triftram dyd / Thenne fir Fergus told her / how he was al most out of his mynde / ¶ Allas said the damoyfel 20 where shalle I fynde hym / In fuche a place said fire Fergus ¶ Thenne fir Fergus fond Quene Ifoud feke in her bedde / makynge the gretteft dole that euer ony erthely woman made And whan the damoyfel fonde fire Triftram / she made grete dole by caufe she myzt not amende hym / for the more she made of 25 hym / the more was his payne / And at the laft fir Triftram to-ke his hors and rode awaye from her / And thenne was it thre dayes or that she coude fynde hym / And thenne she broughte hym mete and drynke / but he wold none / and thenne another tyme fir Triftram efcaped awaye from the damoyfel / and it hap- 30 ped hym to ryde by the fame castel where fire Palamydes and fir Triftram dyd bataille whan la beale Ifoud departed them / And there by fortune the damoyfel mette with fire Triftram a-geyne makynge the gretteft dole that euer erthely creature made / and she yede to the lady of that castel / and tolde her of the 35 myfaunture of fire Triftram / allas said the lady of that castel where is my lord fir triftram / Ryght here by your castel said the damoyfel / In good tyme faide the lady / is he foo nyghe me / he fhalle haue mete and drynke of the beſt / and an harp I haue of his / where vpon he taught me / For of goodely harpyng he bereth the pryce in the world / So this lady and damoiſel brought hym mete and drynke / but he ete lytel therof / Thenne 5 vpon a nyght he putte his hors from hym / And thenne he vnlaced his armour / and thenne ſir Triftram wold go in to the wilderneſſe and braſt doune the trees and bowes / and other-whyle whan he fond the harp that the lady ſente hym / thenne wold he harpe and playe therupon / and wepe to gyders / and 10 ſomtyme whan ſir Triftram was in the woode that the lady wyſt not where he was / thenne wold ſhe fytt her doune and playe vpon that harp / Thenne wold ſir Triftram come to that harp / and herken ther to / and ſomtyme he wold harpe hym ſelf Thus he there endured a quarter of a yere / thēne at the laſt he 15 ranne his way / and ſhe wiſte not where he was become / And thenne was he naked and waxed lene / and poure of fleſſhe / and ſoo he felle in the ſelaufhip of herd men and ſheepherdes / and dayly they wold gyue hym ſomme of their mete / & drynke / And whan he dyd ony ſhrewd dede / they wold bete hym 20 with roddeſ / and ſoo they clypped hym with ſheres and made hym lyke a foole

¶ Capitulum xix

ANd vpon a day Dagonet kynge Arthurs foole came in to Cornewaile with two ſquyers with hym / and as they rode thorough that foreſt / they came to a fayre welle / where 25 ſir Triftram was wonte to be / and the whether was hote / and they alyghte to drynke of that welle / and in the meane whyle their horſes brake lous / ¶ Ryght ſoo ſir Triftram came vnto them / and fyrſt ſir Dagonet in that welle / & after his ſquyers / and there at lough the ſheepherdes / and forth 30 with al he ranne after their horſes and broughte hem ageyne / one by one / and ryght ſoo wete as they were / he made hem le-pe vp / and ryde their wayes / ¶ Thus ſir Triftram endured there an halfe yere naked / and wold neuer come in town / ne vyllage / The meane whyle the damoyſel that fyre Palomydes 35 ſente to ſeke ſir Triftram ſhe yede vnto ſir Palomydes / and told hym alle the mefchyef that fir Triftram endured / Allas fayd fir Palomydes hit is grete pyte that euer foo noble a Knyght fhould be foo mefcheued for the loue af a lady / But neuertheles I wille goo and feke hym / and comforte hym and I may ¶ Thenne a lytel before that tyme la Beale Ifoud had com- 5 maunded fir Kehydus oute of the Countrey of Cornewaile / Soo fir Kehydus departed with a dolorous herte / and by aduenture he mette with fir Palomydes / and they enfelaushypped to gyder / and eyther complayned to other of theire hote loue that they loued la beale Ifoud / Now lete vs faid fir Palomy- 10 des feke fire triftram that loued her as wel as we / and lete vs preue whether we maye recouer hym / Soo they rode in to that foreft / and thre dayes and thre nyghtes they wold neuer take their lodgyng but euer foughte fir triftram / And vpon a tyme by aduenture they mette with Kyng Mark that was 15 ryden from hys men al alone / whanne they fawe hym / fyre palomydes knewe hym / but fir Kehydus knewe hym not / A fals kyng faid fir Palomydes / it is pyte thou haft thy lyf / For thou arte a destroyer of alle worshipful Knyghtes / and by thy mefchyef and thy vengeance thou haft destroyed the mooste 20 noble Knyght fire triftram de lyones / And therfor defende the faid fir Palomydes / for thou fhalt dye this day / that were shame faid Kyng Mark / for ye two are armed and I am vnar-med / As for that faid fir Palomydes I fhalle fynde a remedy therfore / here is a Knyzt with me / and thou fhalt haue his har- 25 neis / Nay faid kyng Mark I wille not haue adoo with yow for caufe haue ye none to me / For alle the myfeafe that fir trif-tram hath / was for a letter that he fond / for as to me I dyd to hym no difpleafyre / and god knoweth I am ful fory for his difeafe and malady / Soo when the kyng had thus excused 30 hym / they were frendes / and kyng Mark wold haue had them vnto tyntagil / but fyr Palomydes wolde not but torned vnto the Realme of Logrys / and fir kehydus faide that he wolde goo in to Bretayn / ¶ Now torne we vnto fir Dagonet ayene that whanne he and his fquyers were vpon horfbak / he demyd 35 that the fheepherdes had fente that foole to araye hem fo / by caufe that they laughed at hem / and foo they rode vnto the keepers of beeftes and alle to bete them / Syr triftram fawe them bete that were wonte to gyue hym mete and drynke / thenne he ran thyder / and gat fir Dagonet by the hede / and gaf hym ſuche a falle to the erthe / that he bryfed hym fore ſo that he lay ſtylle / And thenne he wraft his ſwerd oute of his hand / And ther-

Thenne the knyght took vp the gyaunts hede / and bare hit with hym vnto kyng Marke / and told hym / what aduenture betyd hym in the forest / and how a naked man rescowed hym / from the grymly gyaunt Tauleas 5 where hadde ye this aduenture said kyng Marke / forsothe faid fyr Dynaunt at the fayre fontayne in your foreste / where many aduenturous knyghtes mete / and there is the madde man wel faid kyng Mark I wille see that wild man / So within

¶ Capitulum xxi

THenne the quene departed / but the brachet wold not fyr Andred fpak and said fyr this is sir Tristram I see by the brachet / Nay said the kyng I can not suppoſe that / Thenne the kyng asked hym vpon his feith what he was / and what was was his name / ¶ So god me help said he / my name 30 kyng Mark me repenteth of your recouer / & thenne he lete calle his barons to Iuge sir Tristram to the dethe / thēne many of his barons wold not assente therto / and in especyal fyr Dynas Tristram was banysshed out of the cōtrey for x yere / & therupon he took his oth vpon a book before the kyng & his barons /

And foo he was made to departe oute of the Countrey of Cor-thyp / of the whiche fomme were his frendes / & fomme his foes / And in the meane whyle there came a knyghte of kyng Ar-gaf fire Dynadan a falle / And thenne he praid fir Triftram to gyue hym leue to goo in his selauship / ye shalle be ryght wel-

 And wel am I rewarded for the fyghtyng with fire Mar-haus / and delyuerd all this countrey from seruage / and wel 20 am I rewarded for the fetchyng and cofes of Quene Ifoud oute of Irland / and the daunger that I was in fyrst & last and by the way comyng home what daunger I had to bryn-ge ageyne Quene Ifoud from the castel Pluere / and well I ge / and by me they were put to a rebuke / and wel I am rewarded for the sleynge of Tauleas the myghty gyaunte and many other dedes haue I done for hym / and now haue I my

ANd at the next landynge faste by the see / there mette with sir Tristram & with sir Dynadan sir Ector de ma- 5 rys and sir Bors de ganys / and there sir Ector luf-ted with syr Dynadan / and he smote hym and his hors down And thenne sir Tristram wold haue lusted with fyre Bors and sir Bors said that he wolde not luste with no Cornyssh knyghtes / for they are not called men of worship / and all this 10 was done vpon a brydge / and with this came sire Bleoberys and syr Dryaunt / and sir Bleoberys profered to luste with syr Tristram / and there sir Tristram smote doune syr Bleobethat bereth the trappours enbrouded with crounes / And thenne sir Tristram and syr Dynadan departed fro them in to a fosire launcelot to seke after somme noble knyghtes of kyng Ar-thurs courte for to rescowe sir launcelot / and soo sir launcelott 20 was ordeyned / for by the treason of quene Morgan le fay to haue slayne sir launcelot / and for that cause she ordeyned thyrty knyghtes to lye in a wayte for sir launcelot / and this damoyfel knewe this treason / And for this cause the damoyfel came for to seke noble knyghtes to helpe syr Launcelot / For that ny- 25 ght or day after syr launcelot shold come where these xxx knyghtes were / And soo this damoyfel mette with fyre Bors and sire Ector and with sir Dryaunt / and there she told hem alle four of the treason of Morgan le fay / and thenne they promyfed her that they wold be nyghe where sire launcelot shold 30 mete with the xxx knyghtes / & yf soo be they set vpon hym / we wil do rescowes as we can / so the damoyfel departed / and by adventure the damoifel met with sir tristram & with sir Dyna-dan / & there the damoyfel told hem al the treason that was or-deyned for sir launcelot / Fair damoyfel said sir tristram bryng 35 me to that same place where they shold mete with sir launcelot Thenne said sir Dynadan what will ye do / hit is not for vs to syghte with thyrty knyghtes / and wete you wel I wyll not thereof / as to matche one knyght two or thre is ynough and they be men / But for to matche xv knyghtes that wille I neuer vndertake / fy for shame said fyre Triftram / doo but youre 5 lene me your sheld / for ye bere a sheld of Cornewaile / and for the cowardyse that is named to the knyghtes of Cornewaile by your sheldes ye be cuer forborne / Nay said fyr Triftram I will not departe from my sheld for her sake that gaf it me / But one thyng said fir Triftram I promyse the fyr Dynadan / but yf 10 thou wilt promyse me to abyde with me / here I shalle flee the For I defyre no more of the / but anfuer one knyghte / And yf them / Syre said fyre Dynadan I promyse you to loke vpon & to doo what I may to saue my self / but I wold I had not 15 mette with you / Soo thenne anone these thyrtty knyghtes cam fast by these four knyghtes / and they were ware of them / and eyther of other / And soo these thyrtty knyghtes lete for thys cause that they wold not wrathe them yf caas be that they had adoo with fyr launcelot / and the four knyghtes lete them passe 20 to this entent that they wold see and beholde what they wold doo with fyr launcelot / and soo the thyrtty knyghtes paste on / and came by fir Triftram and by fir Dynadan / and thenne fir Triftram cryed on hyghe / loo here is a knyght ageynste you for the loue of fyre launcelot / and there he slewe two with 25 one sperd and ten with his swerd / And thenne came in fyre Dynadan and he dyd passyng wel / and soo of the thyrtty knyghtes there wente but ten away / and they fledde / Al this bataille fawe fir Bors de ganys and his thre felawes / and thenne they fawe wel hit was the fame knyghte that Iusted 30 with hem at the brydge / thenne they took their horses and rode vnto fyr Triftram and prayfed hym and thanked hym of his good dedes / and they alle defyred fyre Triftram to goo wyth hem to their lodgyng / and he said nay / he wold not go to no lodgyng / Thenne they alle four knyghtes praid hym to telle 35 hem his name / Faire lordes said fyr Triftram / as at this tyme

¶ Capitulum xxiiij /

THēne fir Triftram & fir Dynadan rode forth theire weye tyl they came to the sheepherdes & to the herde men / & there they asked hem yf they knewe any lodgyng or herberough there nyghe hand / ¶ Forsothe fyrs sayde the herde-men / here by is good lodgyng in a castel / But there is suche a customme that there shalle no knyghte be herberowed but yf he luste with two knyghtes / and yf he be but one knyghte / he 5 must luste with two / And as ye be therin soone shalle ye be matched / There is shrewde herberowe said fyre Dynadan / lodge where ye will / for I wille not lodge there / Fy for shame said fir Tristram are ye not a knyghte of the table round / wherefore ye may not with your worship refuse your lodgyng / Not soo 10 said the herd men / for and ye be beten / and haue the wers ye shalle not be lodged there / and yf ye bete them ye shalle be wel herberowed A said fyr Dynadan they are two fure knyghtes / Thenne fyre Dynadan wold not lodge there in no manere / but as fyre Tristram requyred hym of his knyghthode / and so they 15 rode thyder / and to make shorte tale fyr Tristram and fir Dynadan smote hem doune bothe / and soo they entred in to the castel and had good chere / as they coude thynke or deuyse / And whanne they were vnarmed and thought to be mery and in good rest / there came in at the yates fyre Palomydes and fyre 20 Gaherys requyryng to haue the customme of the castel / what aray is this said fyre Dynadan / I wold haue my rest / that may not be said fir Tristram / Now must we nedes defende the cus-tomme of this castel / in soo moche as we haue the better of the lordes of this castel / and therfore saide fyre Tristram / nedes 25 muste ye make you redy / In the deuyls name said fir Dyna-dan came I in to your company / and so they made them redy And fir Gaherys encountred with fyre Tristram / and fyr Gaherys had a falle / and fir Palamydes encountred with fir Dynadan / and fir Dynadan had a falle / thenne was hit fall for 30 falle / Soo thenne muste they fyghte on foote / that wold not fyr Dynadan / for he was so fore bryfed of the falle that fyre Palomydes gaf hym / Thenne fir Tristram vnaced fyre Dynadans helme / and praid hym to helpe hym / I wille not sayde fyr Dynadan for I am fore wounded of the thyrty knyghtes 35 that we hadde but late agoo to doo with alle ¶ But ye fare said fyre Dynadan vnto fyr Tristram as a madde man and as a man þ^t is oute of his mynde þ^t wold cast hym self away and I may curfe the tyme that euer I fawe you / For in al the world are not two fuche knyghtes that ben fo wode as is fire of fyr launcelot as I haue done now with you and he fet me 5 a werke that a quarter of a yere I kepte my bedde / Ihefu defende me faid fyr Dynadan from fuche two knyghtes / and specially from your felaufhip / Thenne faid fyre Triftram I will fyghte with hem both / Thenne fyr Triftram badde hem come forth both / for I wille fyghte with you / thenne fyr Palomydes 10 and fyr Gaherys dreffid them / and fmote at hem bothe / thenne Dynadan fmote at fyr Gaherys a froke or two / and torned from hym / nay faid fir Palomydes / it is to moche fhamme for vs two knyghtes to fyghte with one / And thenne he dyd byd fyr Gaherys ftande a fyde with that knyght that hath no lyfte to 15 fyghte / Thenne they rode to gyders and fought longe / and atte laft fyr Triftram doubled his frokes / and drofe fyre Palomydes a bak / more than thre ftrydes / And thenne by one affente fyre Gaherys and fyr Dynadan wente betwixe them / and departed them in fonder / And thenne by affent of fyr Triftram 20 they wold haue lodged to gyders / But fyre Dynadan wold not lodge in that caftel / And thenne he curfed the tyme that e-uer he came in their feaufhip / and foo he took his hors / and his harnais / and departed / thenne fir Triftram prayd the lor-des of that caftel to lene hym a man to brynge hym to a lodg-25 ynge / and foo they dyd / and ouertoke fir Dynadan / and rode to their lodgyng two myle thens with a good man in a pry-ory / and there they were wel at ease / And that fame nyght fir Bors and fire Bleoberys and fir Ector and fyre Dryaunt / abode ftylle in the fame place there as fire Triftram fougt with 30 the thyrty knyghtes / and there they mette with fyr Launcelot the fame knyght / and had made promyfe to lodge with fyr Col-greuaunce the fame nyght / not come oute of this castel / For wete ye wel sir Gawayne 20 the Knyght that bereth the armes of Cornewaile / we knowe hym / and what he is / thenne sir Gawayne and sir tristram departed and rode on their wayes a day or two to gyders / and there by aduenture they met with fyr Kay and fyr Sagramor le defyrus / And thenne they were glad of fyr gawayne / and 25 he of them / but they wiste not what he was with the shelde of Cornewaile / but by demynge / And thus they rode to gyders a daye or two / And thenne they were ware of fyr Breufe faūce pyte chacyng a lady for to haue slayne her / for he had slayn her peramour afore / Hold you all styll said fyr Gawayne & 30 shewe none of you forthe / and ye shalle see me reward yonder fals Knyght / for and he aspye you he is so wel horsed that he wille escape away / And thenne fyre Gawayne rode betwix fyr Breufe and the lady / and said fals knyghte leue her / and haue adoo with me / whan fyr Breufe sawe no moo but fyre ga- 35 yne he feutryd his spere / and fyr Gawayne ageynst hym / and there fyr Breufe ouerthrewe fyr Gawayne / and thenne he rode ouer hym / & ouerthwart hym twenty tymes to haue destroyed hym / and whan fire Triftram sawe hym doo foo vylaynous a dede / he hurled oute ageynste hym / And whan fyr Breufe sa-we hym with the shelde of Cornewaile / he knewe hym well / that it was fyre Triftram / and thenne he fledde / and fir Trif-5 tram folowed after hym / and fyr Breufe faunce pyte was fo horfed that he wente his waye quyte / and fir Triftram folowed hym longe / for he wold fayne haue ben auengyd vpon hym / And foo whanne he hadde longe chased hym / he sawe a fayre welle / and thyder he rode to repose hym / and teyed his hors til

¶ Capitulum xviij

ANd thenne he pulled of his helme and wasshed his vyfage / and his handes / and foo he felle on slepe / ¶ In the meane whyle came a damoyfel that had fought fir triftram many wayes and dayes within this land / 15 And whanne she came to the welle she loked vpon hym / & had forgotten hym as in remembraunce of fire Triftram / but by hys hors she knewe hym / that hyghte passe Brewel / that had ben fire Triftrams hors many yeres / For whanne he was mad in the forest / fyr Fergus kepte hym / Soo this lady dame Bran-20 gwayne abode styll tyl he was awake / Soo whanne she sawe hym wake / she sawed hym / and he her ageyn / for cyther knewe other of old acquyntaunce / thenne she told hym how she had fought hym longe and brode / and there she told hym hou she hadde letters from quene la beale Ifoud / Thenne anon fire 25 Triftram redde them / and wete ye well / he was gladde / for theryn was many a pyteous complaynte / Thenne fir Triftram said / lady Brangwayne ye shalle ryde with me tyl that turnement be done at the castel of maydens / And thenne shalle ye bere letters and tydynges with you / And thenne fire triftram 30 took his hors and fought lodgyng / and there he mette wyth a good auneynt knyght and prayd hym to lodge with hym Ryȝt fo came Gouvernaile vnto fir Triftram / that was glad of that lady / Soo this old knyghtes name was fir Pellow-nus / and he told of the grete turnement that shold be att the 35 Castel of maydens / And there fir launcelot and xxxij knyȝtes of his blood had ordeyned sheldes of Cornewaile / and ryȝte foo there came one vnto fyr Pellounes / and told hym that fir Perfydes de bloyfe was come home / thenne that knyght helde vp his handes and thanked god of his comynge home / and there fir Pellounes told fyr Triftram that in two yeres he had 5 not fene his fone fyr Perfydes / Syr faid fir Triftram I knowe your fone wel ynough for a good knyght / foo on a tyme fyr Triftram and fyr Perfydes came to their lodgyng both at ones / and foo they vnarmed hem / and putte vpon hem their clothynge / And thenne theſe two knyghtes eche welcomed o- 10 ther / And whanne fyr Perfydes vnderſtode that fir Triftram was of Cornewaile / he faid he was ones in Cornewaile / and there I luſted afore kynge Marke / And foo it happed me at that tyme / to ouerthrowe ten knyghtes / and thenne came to me fyre Triftram de lyones and ouerthrowe me / and took my 15 lady away from me / and that ſhalle I neuer forgete / but I ſhalle remembre me and euer I fee my tyme / A faid fir tryftram now I vnderſtande that ye hate fyr Triftram / what deme ye / wene ye that fir Triftram is not able to withſtande your malyce / yes faid fir Perfydes I knowe wel that fir Triftram is 20 a noble knyght and a moche better knyght than I / yet ſhalle I not owe hym my good wille / ¶ Ryght as they ſtode thus talkynge at a bay wyndowe of that caſtel / they ſawe many knyghtes rydyng to and fro toward the turnement / And thenne was fyre Triftram ware of a lykely knyght rydyng vp- 25 on a grete black hors / and a black couerd ſhelde / what knyȝte is that faid fyre Triftram with the black hors & the blak ſheld he ſemes a good knyȝt / I knowe hym wel faid fir Perfydes he is one of the beſt knyghtes of the world / thenne is it fyre Launcelot faid fir Triftram / nay faid fyre Perfydes / hit is fyr 30 Palomydes / that is yet vncryſtened /

¶ Capitulum xxviij

THenne they ſawe moche people of the countrey ſalewe fyre Palomydes / And within a whyle after / ther cam a ſquyer of the caſtel / that told fyre Pellounes that was lord of that caſtel / that a knyght with a blak ſheld had 35 smyten dounc thyrtten knyȝtes / Fayr broder said fir Triftram vnto fyr Perfydes / lete vs caste vpon vs clokes / and lete vs goo see the play / Not foo said fir Perfydes / we wille not goo lyke knaues thyder / but we wille ryde lyke men and good 5 knyghtes to withstande oure enemyes / Soo they armed them and took their horses and grete speres / and thyder they went there as many knyȝtes assayed hem self before the turnement And anone fir Palomydes sawe fir Perfydes / and thenne he sente a squyer vnto hym and said / goo thou to the yonder kn-10 yght with the grene sheld and therin a lyon of gooldis / and say hym I requyre hym to Iuste with me / and telle hym that my name is fire Palomydes / whanne fir Perfydes vnderstood that request of fyre Palomydes / he made hym redy / and there anone they mette to gyders / but fyre Perfydes had a falle 15 Thenne fyre Triftram dressid hym to be reuengyd vpon fir palomydes / and that sawe fyre Palomydes that was redy / and foo was not fire Triftram and took hym at auauntage / and smote hym ouer his hors tayle whanne he had no spere in his reyste / Thenne starte vp fyre Triftram and took his hors lyȝ-20 tely / and was wrothe oute of mesure / and fore ashamed of that falle / Thenne fire Triftram sente vnto fyr Palomydes by Gouvernaile and prayd hym to Iuste with hym at his request Nay said fire Palomydes as att this tyme I wille not Iuste with that knyght / for I knowe hym better than he weneth / 25 And yf he be wrothe / he may ryghte it to morne att the castel of maydens / where he maye see me and many other knyghtes with that came fyr Dynadan / and whanne he sawe fire Triftra wrothe / he lyst not to Iape / lo sayd fir Dynadan / here may a mā preue / Be a man neuer foo good yet maye he haue a falle / & 30 he was neuer foo wyfe but he myght be ouersene / and he rydeth wel that neuer fylle / Soo fyre Triftram was passyng wrothe and sayd to fyre Perfydes and to fyre Dynadan I wille reuenge me / Ryghte foo as they stood talkyng there / there came by fir Triftram a lykely knyght rydyng passyng soberly and 35 heuily with a blak shelde / what knyght is that said fir Trif-tram vnto fyr Perfydes / I knowe hym well said fir Perfydes / for his name is fire Bryaunt of Northwalys / foo he paste on amonge other knyghtes of Northwalys / And there came in fyre launcelot du lake with a sheld of the armes of Cornewaile / and he fente a squyer vnto fyr Bryaunt / and requyred hym to Iuste with hym / wel said fyr Bryaunt / fythen I am requyred to Iuste / I wille doo what I may / and there fyre launcelot smote doune fyr Bryaunt from his hors a grete 5 falle / And thenne fyr Tristram merueiled what knyght he was that bare the sheld of Cornewaile / what so euer he be said fyr Dynadan I warante you he is of Kynge Bannys blood / the whiche ben knyghtes of the moost noble prowesse / in the world for to accompte foo many for foo many / Thenne 10 there came two knyghtes of Northgales / that one hyghte Hewe de la montayne / and the other fyr Madok de la montayne / & they chalengyd fire launcelot foote hote / Syr Launcelot not refusyng hem but made hym redy / with one spere he smote hem doune bothe ouer their hors croupes / and foo fir launcelot rode 15 his way / By the good lord said fire Tristram he is a good knyght that bereth the shelde of Cornewaile / and me semeth he rydeth in the best maner that euer I sawe knyghte ryde / Thenne the kynge of Northgalys rode vnto fyre Palomydes / and praid hym hertely for his sake to Iuste with that knyght that 20 hath done vs of Northgalys despyte / Syr said fir Palomydes I am ful lothe to haue adoo with that knyght / and caufe why is / for as to morne the grete turnement shalle be / And therfor I wille kepe my self freshe by my wille / Nay said the kyng of Northgalys I pray you requyre hym of Iustes / fyre sayd 25 fyr palomydes I wille Iuste at your request / and requyre that knyght to Iuste with me / and often I haue fene a man haue a falle at his owne request

¶ Capitulum xix

THenne fir palomydes fente vnto fir launcelot a squyer and requyred hym of Iustes / Fair felawe seid fir launcelot / telle me thy lordes name / Syre said the squyer my lordes name is fyr Palomydes the good knyght / In good houre said fir launcelot / for there is no knyght that I sawe thys feuen yeres that I had leuer adoo with all than with hym /

And so eyther knyghtes made hem redy with two grete speres Nay said fyr Dynadan ye shalle see that fir Palomydes will quyte hym ryght wel / hit may be soo said fir Trifram / but I vndertake that knyght with the sheld of Cornewayle shal gy-5 ue hym a falle / I bileue hit not said fir Dynadan / Ryght fo they spored their horses / and feutryd their speres / and eyther hytte other / and fyr palomydes brake a spere vpon fire launcelot / and he fat and meued not / but fir Launcelot smote hym so lyghtly that he made his hors to auoyde the fadel / and the stro-10 ke brake his shelde and the hauberke / and had he not fallen / he had be slayne / how now said fir Trifram / I wiste wel by the maner of their rydyng bothe that fire Palomydes shold haue a falle / Ryght so fir launcelot rode his way and rode to a well to drynke and to repose hym / and they of Northgalys aspyed 15 hym whyther he rode / and thenne there folowed hym twelue knyghtes for to haue meschyeued hym / for this cause that vp-on the morne at the turnement of the castel of maydens that he shold not wyne the victory / Soo they came vpon fir launcelot sodenly and vnnethe he myght putte vpon hym his helme / 20 and take his hors but they were in handes with hym / & thenne fir launcelot gat his spere and rode thorou them / and there he slewe a knyght and brake his spere in his body / Thenne he drewe his swerd and smote vpon the ryght hand and vpon the lyfte hand soo that within a fewe strokes he had slayne o-25 ther thre knyghtes / and the remenaunt that abode he wounded hem sore alle that dyd abyde / Thus fyr launcelot escaped from his enemyes of Northwalys / and thenne fir launcelot rode his way tyl a frende & lodged hym tyl on the morne / for he wold not the fyrste daye haue adoo in the turnement by cause of his 30 grete labour / And on the fyrst day he was with kyng Arthur there as he was set on hye vpon a schaffold to discerne who was best worthy of his dedes / So fir launcelot was with kyng Arthur / and Iusted not the fyrst daye /

¶ Capitulum xxx

35 M Ow torne we vnto fir Trifram de lyones that comma-unded Gouvernaile his seruauant to ordeyne hym a blak

And soo fyre Perfydes and fyr Triftram departed from their hooſte fyr Pellounes / and they rode erly toward the turnement / and thenne they drewe hem to kyng Carados fyde of Scotland / and anone knyghtes beganne the felde what of ky-

 Thenne came in fyre Bleoberys de ganys and fyre Gaherys with them of Northaglys / and thenne was fir Perfydes fmy- 10 wente ouer hym / For fyr Bleoberys dyd grete dedes of armes and fyre Gaherys fayled hym not / whanne fire Triftram by-held them / and fawe hem doo fuche dedes of armes / he meruey-led what they were / Also fir Triftram thought ſhame that fir 15 Perfydes was soo done to / and thenne he gat a grete ſpere in his hand / and thenne he rode to fire Gaherys and ſmote hym doune from his hors / And thenne was fire Bleoberys wroth and gate a ſpere and rode ageynſt fir Triftram in grete yre / & there fyre Triftram mette with hym / and ſmote fir Bleoberys 20 from his hors / Soo thenne the kyng with the honderd knyghtes was wrothe / and he horſed fire Bleoberys and fir gaherys ageyne / and there beganne a grete medle / and euer fir triftram held them paſſynge ſhorte / and euer fir Bleoberys was paſ-ſynge beſy vpon fyre Triftram / and there came fire Dynadan a- 25 geynſt fyre Triftram / and fire Triftram gaf hym fuche a buffet that he ſwounded in his ſadel / Thenne anone fir Dynadan cam to fire Triftram / and ſaid fyr I knowe the better than thou weneſt / But here I promyſe the my trouthe I wille neuer come ayenſt the more / for I promyſe the that ſwerd of thyn ſhal 30 neuer come on myn helme / with that came fir Bleoberys / and fyr Triftram gaf hym fuche a buffet that doune he leyd his he-de / and thenne he raught hym ſo fore by the helme / that he pulled hym vnder his hors feet / And thenne kyng Arthur blewe to lodgyng / Thenne fyre Triftram departed to his paulione / 35 and fire Dynadan rode with hym / and fire Perfydes & kyng Arthur thenne and the kynges vpon bothe parties merucylled what knyght that was with the blak ſhelde / Many ſaid their aduyfe / and fome knewe hym for fyre Triftram / and helde their pces and wold nought fay / Soo that fyrste day kyng Arthur and alle the kynges and lordes that were Iuges gaf fir Triftram the pryce / hou be hit they knewe hym not but named 5 hym the knyght with the black fheld

¶ Capitulum xxxi

THenne vpon the morne fire Palomydes retorned from the kyng of Northgalys / and rode to kyng Arthurs fyde where was kyng Carados and the kyng of Irland / & fyr launcelots kynne and fir Gawayns kynne / Soo fire palo-10 mydes fente the damoyfel vnto fire Triftram that he fente to feke hym whanne he was oute of his mynde in the forest / and thys damoyfel asked fire Triftram / what he was / and what was his name / As for that faid fir Triftram telle fir Palomydes ye fhalle not wete as at this tyme vnto the tyme I haue broken 15 two fperes vpon hym / But lete hym wete thus moche faid fir Triftram / that I am the fame knyghte that he fmote doune in ouer euenyng at the turnement & telle hym playnly / on what party that fyre Palomydes be / I wille be of the contrary parte Syre faid the damoyfel ye fhalle vnderfande that fir Palomy-20 des wille be on kyng Arthurs fyde / where the moost noble kn-yghtes of the world ben / In the name of god faid fir Trif-tram / thenne wille I be with the kyng of Northgalys by cause fyr Palomydes wille be on kyng Arthurs fyde / and els I wold not but for his sake / ¶ Soo whanne kyng Arthur 25 was come they blewe vnto the felde / and thenne there began a grete party / and soo kyng Carados lusted with the kyng of the honderd knyghtes / and there kyng Carados hadde a falle / thenne was there hurlynge and raffhyng / and ryght fo cam in knyghtes of kyng Arthurs / and they bare on bak the 30 kyng of Northgalys knyghtes / Thenne fir Triftram came in and beganne fo roughly and soo bygly that there was none myght withftande hym / and thus fire Triftram dured longe / ¶ And at the laft fyr Tryfram felle amonge the felaufhip of kyng Ban / and there felle vpon hym fyr Bors de ganyys / 35 and fyr Ector de marys / and fire Blamor de ganyys / & many other knyghtes / And thenne fir Triftram smote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand that alle lordes and ladyes spak of his noble dedes / But at the last fyre Triftram shold haue had the werfe / had not the kyng with the honderd knyghtes ben / And thenne he came with his selauship and rescowed 5 fir Triftram / and brought hym away from tho knyghtes that bare the sheldes of Cornewaile / and thenne fir Triftram sawe another selauship by them self / and there were a xl Knyghtes to gyder / and fir Kay the Seneschal was there gouernour / Thenne fyre Triftram rode in amongest them / and there he 10 smote doune fyr Kay from his hors / and there he fared among tho Knyghtes lyke a grey hound among conyes / Thenne fyre launcelot fond a Knyght that was fore wounded vpon the he-de / Sir said fir launcelot who wounded you so fore / Sire he said a Knyght that bereth a black shelde / and I maye curfe the 15 tyme that euer I mette with hym for he is a deuyl and no man Soo fyre launcelot departed fro hym / & thought to mete with fir Triftram / and soo he rode with his swerd drawn in his hand to seke fir Triftram / and thenne he aspyed hym how he hurled here and there / and at euery stroke fyr Triftram wel nygh smo- 20 te doune a knyght / O mercy Ihesu said the kyng syth the tyme I bare armes sawe I neuer no knyght do so merueillous dedes of armes / And yf I shold sette vpon this knyght said fir Launcelot to hym self I dyd shame to my self / & there with al fir launcelot put vp his swerd / And theñe the Kyng with the 25 C Knyghtes / and an honderd more of Northwalys fet vpon the twenty of fir launcelots kyn / and they xx Knyghtes held them euer to gyder / as wyld swyne and none wold faile other / & fo whan fir Triftram beheld the nobleffe of these xx Knyghtes / he merueiled of their good dedes / for he sawe by their fare and 30 by theil reule that they had leuer deye than auoyde the felde / ¶ Now Ihesu saide fyre Triftram wel maye he be valyaunte and ful of prowesse that hath suche a sorte of noble Knyghtes vnto his kynne / and ful lyke is he to be a noble man that is their leder and gouernour / he mente hit by fir Launcelot du 35 Lake / ¶ Soo whanne fyre Triftram had beholden them long / he thougt shame to see / ij / C knyghtes battering vpon twenty knyghtes / ¶ Thenne fire Tristram rode vnto the kyng with the honderd knyghtes / and said fyre leue youre fyghtyng with tho twenty knyghtes / for ye wyne no worship of them / ye be soo many / and they soo fewe / And wete ye 5 well they wille not oute of the felde I see by their chere and countenance / and worship gete ye none and ye flee them / therfore leue your fyghtyng with them / for I to encrease my worship / I wyll ryde to the twenty knyghtes and helpe them with all my myghte and power / ¶ Nay said the 10 kyng with the honderd knyghtes / ye shall not do so / Now I see youre courage and curtosy / I wille withdrawe my kny-ghtes for your pleasyr / for euermore a good knyght wyll fa-uoure another / and lyke wille drawe to lyke /

¶ Capitulum xxxij

15 THenne the kyng with the honderd knyghtes withdre-fyr launcelot had watched vpon fyr Tristram with a very purpos to haue selaufhipped with hym / And thenne fo-denly fyr Tristram / fyr Dynadan / and Gouvernaille his man rode their waye in to the forest that no man perceyued where they 20 wente / Soo thenne kyng Arthur blewe vnto lodgyng / and gaf the kyng of Northgalys the pryce by cause fyr Tristram was vpon his fyde / Thenne fyr launcelot rod here and there so wood as lyon that fauted his fylle by cause he had losse fyre Tristram / and soo he retourned vnto kyng Arthur / and then-25 ne in alle the felde was a noyse that with the wynde hit my-ght be herd two myle thens / how the lordes and ladyes cryed the knyght with the blak shelde hath wonne the felde ¶ Allas said kyng Arthur where is that knyght become / hit is shame to alle tho in the felde so to lete hym escape away from 30 you / but with gentylnes and curtosy ye myght haue brought hym vnto me to the castel of maydens ¶ Thenne the noble kyng Arthur wente vnto his knyghtes and comforted them in the best wyse that he coude / and sayd / my fayre felawes be not dysmayed / how be hit ye haue losse the felde this daye and many were hurte and fore wounded / thur loke that ye be of good chere / for to morne I wille be in the feld with you and reuenge you of youre enemyes ¶ Soo that nyght Kynge Arthur and his knyghtes repofed 5 foud vnto fyr Triftram alle the whyle the turnement was adoynge she was with Quene Gueneuer / and euer the Quene asked her for what caufe she came in to that Countrey ¶ Madame she anfuerd I come for none other caufe but from 10 my lady la Beale Ifoud to wete of your welfare / For in no wyfe she wold telle the Quene that she came for fyr Triftrams sake / Soo this lady dame Brangwayne took her leue of Quene Gueneuer / and she rode after fyr Triftram / And as she rode thurgh the forest she herd a grete crye / thenne she 15 commaunded her squyer to goo in to that forest to wete what was that noyse / and soo he came to a welle and there he fond pyed the squyer / ther with he abraide / and brake hym felf lo- 20 wyne that squyer / Thenne he took his hors and fledde all that e-uer he myght vnto dame Brangwayne / and told her of his aduenture / Thenne she rode vnto fyr Triftrams paelione / and told fyr Triftram what aduenture she had fonde in the forest / 25

Allas said fyr Triftram vpon my heede there is somme good Knyghte at meschyf / Thenne fyr Triftram tooke his hors and playned vnto hym felf and sayd / I woful knyght fyre palomydes what myfaunture befalleth me / that thus am defoiled 30 with falshede and treason thorou fyre Bors and fyre Ector / Allas he sayde why lyue I soo longe / And thenne he gat his fwerd in his handes / and maade many straunge fygnes and tokens / and soo thorou his ragynge he threwe his fwerd in to that fontayne

¶ Thenne fyr Palomydes way- 35 led and wrange his handes / And at the laste for pure forow he ranne in to that Fontayne ouer his bely / and foughte after his fwerd / Thenne fir Triftram fawe that and ranne vpon fyr Palomydes / and helde hym in his armes fast / what arte thou faid Palomydes that holdeth me foo / I am a man of this forest that wold the none harme / Allas faid fire Palomydes I 5 maye neuer wyne worfhip where fyr Triftram is / For euer where he is / and I be there thenne gete I no worfhip / And yf he be away / for the mooft party I haue the gree / onles that fir Launcelot be there or fyr Lamorak / Thenne fire Palomydes faid ones in Irland fyr Triftram putte me to the werfe / and 10 another tyme in Cornewaile and in other places in this land What wold ye do faid fyre Triftram & ye had fir Triftram / I wold fyghte with hym faid fir Palomydes and eafe my hert vpon hym / and yet to faye the fothe fyre Triftram is the gen-telyft knyght in this world lyuyng / what wil ye doo fayd fir 15 Triftram wille ye goo with me to youre lodgyng / Nay fayde he I wille goo to the kyng with the honderd knyghtes / for he refcowed me from fire Bors de ganys / and fir Ector / & els had I ben flayne traitourly / Syre Triftram faid hym fuche kynde wordes that fyre Palomydes wente with hym to his lod-20 gyng / Thenne Gouvernaile wente to fore / and charged dame Brangwayn to goo oute of the way to her lodgyng / and byd ye fyre Perfydes that ye make hym no quarels / And fo they rode to gyders tyl they came to fire Triftrams paelione / and there fyre Palomydes had alle the chere that myght be had all 25 that nyghte / But in no wyfe fire Palomydes myzt not knowe what was fyr Triftram / and soo after fouper they yede to reſte And fyr Triftram for grete trauaile ſlepte tylle it was daye / And fyr Palomydes myghte not ſlepe for anguyſſhe / and in the daunyng of the daye he tooke his hors pryuely / and rode 30 his waye vnto fyr Gaherys and vnto fyr Sagramour le defyrus / where they were in their paelions / for they thre were felawes at the begynnyng of the turnement / And thenne vp-on the morne the kyng blewe vnto the turnement vpon the thyrdd daye /

¶ Capitulum xxxiiij /

SOo the kynge of Northgalys and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes they two encountred with kyng ca-rados and with the kynge of Irland / and there the kynge with the honderd knyghtes smote doune kynge Cara-dos / and the kynge of Northgalys smote doune the kynge of 5 Irland / With that came in fyr Palomydes / and whan he cam he made grete werke / for by his endented shelde he was well knowen / Soo came in kynge Arthur / and dyd grete dedes of armes to gyders / and putte the kynge of Northgalys and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes to the werfe / With this came 10 in fyr Triftram with his black shelde / And anone he lusted with fyre palomydes / and there by fyne force fyr Triftram smote fyre palomydes ouer his hors croupe / Thenne kynge Arthur cryed Knyght with the black shelde make the redy to me / and in the same wyse sir Triftram smote kynge Arthur / And then- 15 ne by force of kyng Arthurs knyghtes the kynge and sir palomydes were horfed ageyne / Thenne kyng Arthur with a grete egre herte he gate a spere in his hand / and therupon the one fyde he smote fyr Triftram ouer his hors / Thenne foote hote fyr Palomydes cam vpon sir Triftram as he was vpon foot to ha- 20 ue ouer ryden hym / Thenne sir Triftram was ware of hym / & there he stouped a fyde / and with grete yre he gate hym by the arme / and pulled hym doune from his hors / Thenne fyre palomydes lyghtely arofe / and thenne they daffhed to gyder myghtely with their fwerdes / and many kynges / Quenes and 25 lordes stode and beheld them / And at the laste fyre Triftram smote fyre palomydes vpon the helme thre myȝty strokes / and at euery stroke that he gaf hym he said this for fyre Triftrams sake / With that fyre Palomydes felle to the erthe grouelyng / Thenne came the kynge with the honderd knyghtes / & broughte fyre Triftram an hors / and foo was he horfed ageyn By thenne was fyr Palomydes horfed / and with grete yre he lusted vpon fyr Triftram with his spere as hit was in the reyste and gaf hym a grete daffhe with his sverd / ¶ Thenne sir Triftram auoyded his spere / and gate hym by 35 the neck with his bothe handes / and pulled hym clene oute of his fadel / and foo he bare hym afore hym the lengthe of ten spe-res / & thenne in the presence of hem al he lete hym falle at his adventure / Thenne fire Triftram was ware of kyng Arthur / with a naked fuerd in his hand / and with his spere fir Trif-tram ranne vpon kyng Arthur / and thenne kyng Arthur boldly abode hym and with his swerd he smote atwo his spe-5 re / and there with alle fyre Triftram stonyed / and foo kyng Arthur gaf hym thre or four grete strokes or he myzt gete out his swerd / and at the last fir Triftram drewe his swerd and assailed other passyng hard / with that the grete prees departed / thenne fir Triftram rode here and there and dyd his gre-10 te payne that xj of the good knyghtes of the blood of kyng Ban that was of fire launcelots kyn / that daye fyre Triftram smote doune / that alle the estates merueilled of his grete dedes and alle cryed vpon the knyght with the black sheld

¶ Capitulum xxxiiii

15 Thenne this crye was foo large / that fir launcelot herd it / And thenne he gate a grete spere in his hand / and came towards the crye / Thenne fir launcelot cryed / the knyght with the blak shelde make the redy to Iuste with me / Whanne fire Triftram herd hym say so he gate his spere in his hand / and eyther abeyshed down their hedes / and came to gy-20 der as thonder / and fire Triftrams spere brake in pyeces / and fyr launcelot by male fortune stroke fir Triftram on the syde a depe wound nyghe to the dethe / But yet fyr Triftram auoyded not his fadel / and foo the spere brak / there with all fir triftram that was wounded gate oute his swerd / and he rasshed to fir 25 launcelot / and gaf hym thre grete strokes vpon the helme that the fyre sprange there oute / and fir launcelot abeyshed his he-de lowely toward his fadel bowe / And there with alle fir trif-tram departed from the felde / for he felte hym foo wouided that he wende he shold haue dyed / and fir Dynadan aspyed hym 30 and folowed hym in to the forest / Thenne fir launcelot abode & dyd many merueylous dedes / Soo whan fire Triftram was departed by the forests syde / he alyght & vnlaced his harneis and fresshed his woud / thēne wende fir Dynodan that he shold haue dyed / Nay nay faide fire Tristram / Dynadan / neuer drede the / for I am herte hole / & of this wounde I shal soone be hole by the mercy of god / ¶ By that sir Dynadan was ware where came palomydes rydyngre fleyghte vpon them / And thenne fyre Tristram was ware that fyre Palomydes came to 5 haue destroyed hym / and so fyre Dynadan gaf hym warnyng and faide fire Tristram my lord ye are foo fore wounded that ye may not haue adoo with hym / therfore I wille ryde ageyn-nst hym and doo to hym what I maye / And yf I be slayne ye maye praye for my soule and in the meane whyle ye maye 10 withdrawe you and goo in to the castel / or in the foreste that he shalle not mete with you / ¶ Syre Tristram smyled and said I thanke you fyre Dynadan of your good wyll / but ye shalle wete that I am able to handle hym / And thenne anon hastily he armed hym and took his hors / and a 15 grete spere in his hand and said to fyre Dynadan Adieu / & rode toward fyre Palamydes a softe paas ¶ Thenne whanne fire Palomydes sawe that / he made countenaunce to amende his hors / but he dyd hit for this cause / For he abode fire Gaherys that came after hym / ¶ And whanne he 20 was come he rode toward fyre Tristram / ¶ Thenne fyre Trif-tram sente vnto fyr palomydes and requyred hym to Iuste with hym / And yf he smote doune sir Palomydes / he wold doo no more to hym / And yf it so happend that fire Palomydes smote doune fyr Tristram he badde hym do his vtterance / So they 25 were accorded / thenne they mette to gyders / and fyre Tristram smote doune sir palomydes / that he had a greuous falle / foo that he laye styll as he hadde ben dede / And thenne fire Tryftram ranne vpon fyr Gaherys / and he wold not haue Iusted But whether he wolde or not fyre Tristram smote hym ouer 30 his hors croupe that he laye styll as though he had ben dede / And thenne fyr Tristram rode his waye and leste fyre Perfydes squyer within the pavelions / and fyre Tristram and fyre Dynadan rode to an old knyghtes place to lodge them / And that olde knyght had fyue fones at the turnement / for whome 35 he prayed god hertely for their comyng home / ¶ And so as the frenshhe book saith they cam home al / v / wel beten / And whan fyr Tristram departed in to the forest fyr laücelot held alwey the floure lyke hard as a man araged that took no heede to hym felf / and wete ye wel there was many a noble knyghte ageynst hym / And whanne kyng Arthur sawe fir Launcelot doo foo merueyllous dedes of armes / he thenne armed hym / & 5 took his hors and his armour / and rode in to the felde to helpe fyr launcelot / and so many knyghtes came in with kyng Arthur / and to make short tale in concludon the kyng of North-galys / and the kyng of the honderd knyghtes were putte to the wers / and by cause fyre launcelot abode and was the last 10 in the feld / the pryce was yeuen hym / But fir Launcelot wold neyther for kyng / Quene ne knyghte haue the pryce / but where the crye was cryed thorough the felde / fyr launcelot fir laun-celot hath wonne the felde this day / fyre Launcelot lete make an other crye contrary fyr Tristram hath wonne the feld / for 15 he beganne fyrst and last he hath endured / and foo hath he done the fyrst day / the second and the thyrd day /

¶ Capitulum xxxv

THenne alle the estates and degrees hyhe and lowe fa-yd of fyr launcelot grete worship / for the honour that he dyd vnto fyr Tristram / and for that honour doyng 20 to fir Tristram he was at that tyme more preysed and renou-med than and he had ouerthrowen v C knyghtes / and all the peple holy for this gentylnes / fyrst the estates bothe hyhe and lowe / and after the comynalte cryed at ones fyre Launcelot hath wonne the felde who foo euer saye nay / Thenne was fyre 25 Launcelot wroth and ashamed / and foo there with alle he rode to kyng Arthur / Allas said the kyng we are alle dyfmayed that fyr Tristram is thus departed from vs / By god said kyng Arthur he is one of the noblest knyghtes that euer I sawe hold spere or swerd in hand / and the moost curteyst 30 knyght in his fyghtyng / for sul hard I sawe hym sayd kyng Arthur whanne he fmote fyr Palomydes vpon the helme thry-es / that he abasshed his helme with his strokes / and also he said / here is a stroke for fyr Tristram / and thus thryes he sayd / Thenne kyng Arthur / fyr launcelot / and fire Dodynas le fa-35 uage took their horses to seke fir Tristram / and by the menes of fyr Perfydes / he had told kyng Arthur where fyr Tristram was in his paelione / but whanne they came there / fyr Tristram and sir Dynadan were gone / thenne kyng Arthur and fyr launcelot were heuy / and retorned ageyne to the castel of maydens makyng grete dole for the hurte of fyre Trystram / & 5 his sodeyne departyng / Soo god me helpe said kyng Arthur I am more heuy that I can not mete with hym / thenne for al the hurtes that alle my knyghtes haue had at the turnement Ryght foo came sir Gaherys and told kyng Arthur how fyr Tristram had smyten doune fyr Palomydes / and it was atte 10 fyr Palomydes owne request / Allas said Kyng Arthur that was grete dishonoure to fyre Palomydes in as moche as fyre Tristram was fore wounded / and now may we alle kynges and knyghtes and men of worship saye that fyre Tristram may be called a noble knyght and one of the best Knyghtes that e- 15 uer I sawe the dayes of my lyf / For I wille that ye al kynges and Knyghtes knowe said Kyng Arthur that I neuer sawe Knyghte doo so merueyllously as he hath done thefe thre dayes / for he was the first that began and that lengest held on fauf this last day / And though he was hurte it was a manly 20 aduenture of two noble Knyghtes / and whan two noble men encountre nedes must the one haue the werse lyke as god wil suffre at that tyme / ¶ As for me said sir launcelot for alle the landes that euer my fader lefte me I wold not haue hurte sir Tristram and I had knowen hym at that tyme / that I hurt 25 hym was for I sawe not his sheld / For and I had sene his black sheld / I wold not haue medled with hym for many causes / for late he dyd as moche for me as euer dyd Knyght and that is wel known that he had adoo with thyrty Knytes / and no helpe saue fyr Dynadan / And one thyng shalle 30 I promyse said fyr launcelot / fyr Palomydes shalle repente it as in his vnkyndely delynge for to folowe that noble knyght that I by myshap hurted thus / Syr launcelot sayd alle the worship that myght be said by sir Tristram / Thenne kyng Arthur made a grete feest to alle that wold come / And thus we 35 lete passe Kyng Arthur / and a lytyl we wille torne vnto sir Palomydes that after he had a falle of sire Tristram / he was nyghe hand araged oute of his wyt for despyte of sir Tristram

And foo he folowed hym by aduenture / And as he came by a ryuer in his woodenes / he wold haue made his hors to haue lepte ouer / and the hors fayled footyng / and felle in the Ryuer / wherfore fyre palomydes was adrad left he shold haue ben 5 drouned / and thenne he auoyded his hors / and swamme to the land / and lete his hors goo doune by aduenture /

¶ Capitulum xxxvj /

ANd whanne he came to the land he took of his harnes-is / and fatte rorynge and cryenge as a man oute of his mynde / Ryght so came a damoyfel euen by fyr Palomydes 10 that was fente fro fyr Gawayne and his broder vnto sir mordred that lay seke in the same place with that old knyzt where fyr Tristram was / For as the Frensshe book faith fyr Perfydes hurte foo fyr Mordred a ten dayes afore / and had not ben for the loue of sir Gawayne and his broder / fyr Perfydes 15 had slayne sir Mordred / and foo this damoyfel came by sir palomydes / and she and he had langage to gyder / the whiche pleasyd neyther of them / and foo the damoyfel rode her wayes tyl she came to the old knyghtes place / & there she told that old knyght how she mette with the woodeft knyght by aduenture 20 that euer she mette with all / what bare he in his sheld said sir Tristram / hit was endented with whyte and black faide the damoyfel / A said sir Tristram that was sir palomydes / the good knyght / For wel I knowe hym said sir Tristram for one of the best knyghtes lyuynge in this realme / Thenne that old 25 knyght took a lytel hackney and rode for fyre palomydes / and brought hym vnto his owne manoyr / and ful wel knewe fire Tristram fyr Palomydes / but he said but lytel / for at that tyme fyr Tristram was walkyng vpon his feet / and wel amended of his hurtes / and alweyes whan fire Palomydes sawe 30 fyr Tristram / he wold behold hym ful merueillously / And euer hym semed that he hadde sene hym / Thenne wold he saye vnto fyre Dynadan and euer I may mete with fyre Tristram he shal not escape myn handes / I merueile said sir Dynadan þ^t ye booste behynde fyr Triftram / for it is but late that he was in youre handes / and ye in his handes / why wold ye not holde hym whanne ye hadde hym / for I fawe my self twyes or thry-es that ye gat but lytel worship of sir Triftram / thenne was fyr Palomydes ashamed / Soo leue we them a lytyl whyle in 5 the old castel / with the old knyght sir Darras / ¶ Now shall we speke of Kynge Arthur / that faid to sir Launcelot had not ye ben / we had not lost fyre Triftram / for he was here dayly vnto the tyme ye mette with hym / and in an euylle tyme sayd Arthur ye encountred with hym / My lord Arthur faid Laun- 10 celot ye putte vpon me that I shold ben cause of his departycyon / god knoweth hit was ageynste my wille / But whan men ben hote in dedes of armes ofte they hurte their frendes as wel as their foes / And my lord faid sir launcelot ye shal vnderstande that sir Triftram is a man that I am loth to offende 15 for he hath done for me more than euer I dyd for hym as yet / But thenne sir Launcelot made brynge forth a book and thē-ne sir launcelot faid / here we are ten Knyghtes that wil swere vpon a book neuer to reste one nyght where we rest another this twelue moneth vn tyl that we fynde fyr Triftram / And 20 as for me faid fyre Launcelot I promyse you vpon this book that and I may mete with hym / outhur with fayrenes or foulnesse I shalle brynge hym to this courte / or els I shalle dye therfore / And the names of these ten knyghtes that hadde vndertake this quest were these folowyng / Fyrst was sir Laun- 25 celot / fyr Ector de Marys / fyr Bors de ganys and Bleoberis and fyre Blamor de ganys / and Lucan the botteler / fyr Vwa-yne / fyr Galyhud / Lyonel and Galyodyn / Soo these x noble knyghtes departed from the courte of kynge Arthur / and soo they rode vpon their quest to gyders vntyl they came to a cro- 30 sse where departed four wayes / and there departed the felau-ship in four to seke fyr Triftram / And as fyr launcelot rode by aduenture he mette with dame Brangwayn that was sent in to that cuntry to seke sir Triftram / and she fled as faiste as her palfrey myght goo / Soo fyre Launcelot mette with her 35 and asked her why she fledde / ¶ A fayre knyghte faid dame Brangwayne I flee for drede of my lyf / for here foloweth me fyr Breufe faunce pyte to flee me / Hold you nyghe me sayd fir launcelot / Thenne whanne fire Launcelot sawe fir Breufe faunce pyte / fyr launcelot cryed vnto hym / and said / fals knyght destroye of ladyes and damoyfels / now thy last dayes be come / Whanne fire Breufe faunce pyte sawe fire launcelots 5 shelde he knewe hit wel / for at that tyme he bare not the armes of Cornewaile / but he bare his owne shelde / And thenne fyre Breufe fled / and fyr Tristram folowed after hym / But fir Breufe was foo wel horsed that whan hym lyst to flee he myght wel flee / and also abyde whan hym lyst / 10 And thenne fire launcelot retorned vnto dame Brangwayne and she thanked hym of his grete labour /

¶ Capitulum xxxviij

Now wille we speke of fir Lucan the buttelere that by fortune he came rydyng to the same place there as was fyr Tristram / and in he came in none other entente / 15 but to aske herberowe / thenne the porter asked what was his name / Telle your lord that my name is fyr Lucan the botteler a knyghte of the round table / Soo the porter wente vnto fyre Darras lord of the place / and told hym who was there to aske herborow; / Nay nay seid fyr Daname that was neuewe to 20 fyr Darras / faye hym that he shalle not be lodged here / But lete hym wete that I fyr Daname wyll mete with hym anon and bydde hym make hym redy / So fire Daname came forth on horsbak / and there they mette to gyders with speres / and fir Lucan smote doune fyr Daname ouer his hors croupe / and thē-25 ne he fledde in to that place / and fir Lucan rode after hym / & asked after hym many tymes / Thenne fyr dynadan said to fire Tristram hit is shame to see the lordes cofyn of this place de-foiled / Abyde said fir Tristram and I shalle redresse it / and in the meane whyle fyr Dynadan was on horsbak and he luf-30 tid with Lucan þe botteler / & ther fir lucan smote doune dynadā thur; the thyck of the thyghe / and foo he rode his way / and fire trif-tram was wrothe that fir Dynadan was hurte / & folowed after and thought to auenge hym / and within a whyle he ouer-took fir lucan / and badde hym torne / and foo they mette to gy-35 ders foo that fire Tristram hurt fir Lucan passyng fore / and gaf hym a falle / With that came fire Vwayne a gentyl knyȝt And whanne he fawe fire Lucan foo hurte / he called fyre trif-tram to Iufte with hym / Faire knyght faid fire Triftram telle me your name I requyre you / Syre knyghte wete ye wel my name is fyre Vwayne le fyfe de roy Vreyn / A faide fire Trif- 5 tram by my wille I wold not haue adoo with you at no tyme / ye ſhalles not foo faid ſir Vwayne but ye ſhalles haue adoo with me / And thenne ſire Triftram fawe none other boote but rode ageynſt hym and ouerthrewe fyr Vwayn and hurte hym in the fyde / and foo he departed vnto his lodgyng ageyne / 10 And whanne ſire Dynadan vnderſtood that fyr Triftram had hurte ſir Lucan / he wold haue ryden after fyr Lucan for to haue ſlayne hym / but ſir Triftram wold not ſuffre hym / ¶ Thenne fyr Vwayne lete ordeyne an hors lytter / and brought ſir Lucan to the abbey of Ganys / and the caſtel there by 15 hyght the caſtel of Ganys / of the whiche fyr Bleoberys was lord / And at that Caſtel ſire launcelot promyſed alle his ſelawes to mete in the queſt of fyr Triftram / Soo whan ſir trif-tram was come to his lodgyng / ther cam a damoiſel þ^t told ſir Darras that thre of his ſones were ſlayne at that turnement 20 and two greuouſly woūded that they were neuer lyke to helpe them ſelf / And alle this was done by a noble knyghte that bare the black ſhelde / and that was he that bare the pryce / ¶ Thenne came there one and told fyr Darras that the ſame knyght was within hym that bare the black ſheld / Thenne ſir 25 Darras yede vnto ſir Triftrams chamber / and there he fond his ſheld and ſhewed it to the damoiſel / A fyr faid the damoiſel that ſame is he / that ſlewe your thre ſones / Thenne withoute ony taryenge ſir Darras putte fyre Triftram and fyre Palo-mydes and fyr Dynadan within a ſtrong pryſon / and there ſir 30 Triftram was lyke to haue dyed of grete ſekeneſſe / and eue-ry day fyr Palomydes wold repreue ſir Triftram of old hate betwixe them / And euer ſir Triftram ſpak fayre and ſaid ly-tel / But whan ſir Palomydes fawe the ſallynge of ſekeneſſe of ſir Triftram thenne was he heuy for hym / and comforted 35 hym in alle the beſt wyſe he coude / And as the Frenſſhe booke faith there came ſourty knyghtes to ſire Darras / that were of his owne kyn / and they wold haue ſlayne ſire Triftram and his two felawes / but sire Darras wold not suffre that but kepte them in pryson / and mete and drynke they had / So sire Tristram endured there grete payne / for sekeneffe had vndertake hym / and that is the grettest payne a pryfoner maye haue 5 For alle the whyle a pryfoner may haue his helthe of body / he maye endure vnder the mercy of god and in hope of good delyueraunce / But whanne sekene toucheth a pryfoners body / thenne may a pryfoner say al welthe is hym berafte / and thenne he hath cause to wayle and to wepe / Ryȝt so dyd fyre Trist-10 ram whanne sekene had vndertake hym / for thenne he tooke fuche forou that he had almost slayne hym self

¶ Capitulum xxxviii

Now wille we speke and leue sir Tristram / fyre Palo-mydes / & syr Dynadan in pryson / and speke we of other knyghtes that foughte after fyre Tristram many dyuerse 15 partyes of this land / and some yede in to Cornewaile / and by aduventure syr Gaheryse neuewe vnto kyng Arthur came vnto Kyng Mark / and there he was wel receyued / and fatte atte kyng Marks owne table & ete of his owne messe / ¶ Thenne kyng Mark asked sir Gaheryse what tydynges there were in 20 the royalme of Logrys / Syre said syr Gaheryse the Kyng regneth as a noble knyght / and now but late there was a grete Iustes and turnement as euer I sawe ony in the realme of Logrys / and the moost noble knyghtes were at that Iustes / But there was one knyght that dyd merueyllously thre da-25 yes / and he bare a black shelde / and of alle knyghtes that e-uer I sawe he preued the best knyȝt / thenne said Kyng mark that was fyre launcelot or fyre palomydes the paynym / Not soo said syr Gaherys / for bothe fyre launcelot and sire Palomydes were on the contrary party ageynst the Knyght with the blak 30 shelde / thenne was it sir Tristram said the kyng / ye said sir Ga-heryse And there with all the Kyng smote down his hede / & in his herte he feryd fore that fyre Tristram shold gete hym fuche worship in the Royame of Logrys / where thorou that he hym self shold not be able to withstande hym / Thus fyre Gaheryse had grete chere with kynge Marke / and with quene la Beale Ifoud the whiche was gladde of fyr Gaheryfe wordes / For wel she wist by his dedes and maners / that it was fyr Tristram / And thenne the kynge made a feest Royal / and to that feest came sir Vwayne le fyfe de roy Vreyne / and somme callid hym Vwayne le blanche maynys / And this fyr Vwayn chalengyd alle the knyghtes of Cornewaile / Thenne was the kyng woode wroth that he had no knyghtes to ansuer hym / Thenne sire Andred neuewe vnto kynge Mark lepte vp and faid I wille encountre with fyr Vwayne / Thenne he yede and armed hym and horsed hym in the best maner / And there fyre Vwayne mette with fyre Andred and smote hym doune that he swouned on the erthe / Thenne was kynge Marke fory and wrothe oute of mesure that he had no knyghte to reuenge his neuewe sir Andred / Soo the kynge called vnto hym fyr Dynas the feneschal / and praid hym for his sake to take vpon hym to Iuste with sir Vwayne / Syr faid fyr Dynas I am ful lothe to haue adoo with ony knyght of the round table / yet faid the kyng for my loue take vpon the to Iuste / Soo fyr Dynas made hym redy / and anone they encountred to gyders with grete speres / but sire Dynas was ouerthrowen hors and man a grete falle / who was wrothe but kynge Marke / Allas he faid haue I no knyght that wille encountre with yonder knyghte Syr faid sir Gaheryfe for your sake I wille Iuste / So sir Gaherys made hym redy / and whanne he was armed he rode in to the felde / And whanne sir Vwayne sawe fyr Gaheryfes sheld he rode to hym and faid / sir ye doo not youre parte / For sire the fyrst tyme ye were made Knyght of the round table ye sware that ye shold not haue a do with your selauship wetyngly And par dy sir Gaheryfe ye knewe me wel ynou3 by my shelde & so do I knowe you by your sheld / and thou3 ye wold breke your othe / I wold not breke myn / for there is not one here nor ye that shall thynke I am aferd of yow / but I durst ryght wel haue adoo with you / and yet we be sister fones / Thenne was sir Gaheryfe ashamed / and foo there with alle euery knyght wente their way / and sir Vwayne rode in to the countrey / Thenne kyng mark armed hym and tooke his hors and his spere with a squyer with hym / And thenne he rode afore fir Vwayne / and fodenly at a gap he ranne vpon hym as he that was not ware of hym / and there he smote hym al most thurgh the body / and there lefte hym / So within a while there cam fir Kay / and sonde fir Vwayne / and asked hym how he was 5 hurte / I wote not said fir Vwayne why nor wherfore / but by treason I am sure I gat this hurte / for here came a knyghte fo-dently vpon me or that I was ware / and fodenly hurte me / ¶ Thenne there was come fyre Andred to feke kyng Mark ¶ Thou traytour knyght said fir kay / and I wiste it were 10 thou that thus traitourly haft hurte this noble knyghte / thou sholdest neuer passe my handes / Syre faide fir Andred I dyd neuer hurte hym / and that I wyll reporte me to hym self / Fy on you fals knyghtes said fyr kay / for ye of Cornewaile ar nought worthe / Soo fyr kay made cary fyr Vwayne to the 15 abbay of the black Croffe / and there he was helyd / And thenne fyr Gaherys took his leue of kyng Mark / But or he departed he sayd / fyre kyng ye dyd a foule shame vnto you & your Courte whan ye bannysshed fir Tristram out of this coutrey / for ye neded not to haue doubted no knyght and he had 20 ben here / and soo he departed

¶ Capitulum xxxix

THenne there came fyre kay the Seneschal vnto kyng Marke / and there he hadde good chere shewyng oute-ward / Now fayre lordes said he wille ye preue ony aduventure in the forest of Morris in the whiche I knowe wel 25 is as hard an aduventure as I knowe ony / Syr said fir kay / I wille preue hit / And fir Gaheryse said he wold be auysed For kyng Mark was euer ful of treason / and there with al fyr Gaheryse departed and rode his waye / And by the same waye that fyre Kay shold ryde / he leyd hym doune to reste 30 chargynge his squyer to wayte vpon fir kay / and warne me whanne he cometh / Soo within a while fir kay came rydynge that way / and thenne fir Gaheryse tooke his hors and met hym and sayd fyre kay ye are not wyfe to ryde at the request of kyng Mark for he deleth alle with treason / Thenne said fyre kay 35 I requyre you lete vs preue this aduventure / I shal not fayle you said fir Gaherys / and foo they rode that tyme tyl a lake / that was that tyme called the peryllous lake / And there they abode vnder the shawe of the wood / ¶ The meane whyle kyng Marke within the castel of Tyntagyl auoyded alle his barōs & alle other fauf fuche as were pryuy with hym / were auoyded 5 oute of his chamber / And thenne he lete calle his neuewe fir Andred / and badde arme hym and horfe hym lyghtely / & by that tyme it was mydnyght / And foo kyng Marke was armed in blak hors and alle / and foo att a pryuy posterne they two yffued oute with their varlets with them / and rode tyll 10 they came to that lake / Thenne fir Kay aspyed them fyrst gat his spere / and profered to Iuste / And kyng Mark rode ageynst hym / and smote eche other ful hard / for the mone shone as the bryght day / And there at that Iustes fir Kayes hors fyllle doune / for his hors was not so bygge as the kynges hors 15 and fir kayes hors bryfed hym ful fore / Thenne sire Gaherys was wrothe that fir kay had a falle / Thenne he cryed knyght fytt thou fast in thy fadel / for I wille reuenge my felawe / Thenne kyng Marke was aferd of fyr Gaherys / and so with euyl wyll kyng Marke rode ageynst hym / and fir Gaherys 20 gaf hym fuche a stroke that he selle down / So thenne forth with all fyr Gaherys ranne vnto fyr Andred and smote hym from his hors quyte that his helme smote in the erthe / and nyhe had broken his neck / And there with al fyr Gaherys alyghte and gate vp fir Kay / And thenne they yode bothe on foote to them / 25 and badde them yelde them / and telle theire names other they shold dye / Thenne with grete payne sire Andred spak fyrst & said hit is kyng Marke of Cornewaile / therfore be ye ware what ye do / and I am fir Andred his cofyn / Fy on you bothe said fir Gaherys for a fals traitour / and fals treafon hast thou 30 wrougt / and he both vnder the fayned chere that ye made vs / it were pyte said fir Gaherys that thou sholdest lyue ony lenger / Saue my lyf said kyng Marke and I wil make amendys & confyder that I am a kyng anoynted / it were the more shame said fir Gaherys to saue thy lyf / thou arte a kyng enoynted 35 with creme / and therfore thou sholdest holde with alle men of worship / And therfor thou arte worthy to dye / With that he lashed at kyng Mark without sayeng ony more & couerd hym with his sheld and defended hym as he myghte / and thenne fir kay lasshed at fir Andred / and there with all kynge Marke yelded hym vnto fyr Gaherys / And thenne he kneled adoune / and made his othe vpon the crosse of the fuerd 5 that neuer whyle he lyued he wold be ageynst arraunt knyghtes / And also he sware to be good Frende vnto fir Tristram / yf euer he came in to Cornewaile / By thenne fir Andred was on the erthe / and fir Kay wold haue slayne hym / lete be said fir Gaherys / flee hym not I pray you / It were pyte said fyre 10 kay that he shold lyue ony lenger / for this is nygh cofyn vnto fyr Tristram / and euer he hath ben a traytour vnto hym / & by hym he was exyled oute of Cornewaile / and therfor I will flee hym sayd fir Kay / ye shalle not said Gaherys fythen I haue gyuen the kynge his lyf / I pray you yeue hym his lyf / 15 and there with alle fir Kay lete hym goo / And soo fir Kay and fyre Gaherys rode their way vnto Dynas the Seneschal for by cause they herd say that he loued wel fir Tristram / Soo they reposed them there / and soone after they rode vnto the ro-yamme of Logrys / And soo within a lytel whyle they mette 20 with fire Launcelot that alweyes had dame Bragwayn with hym / to that entente / he wende to haue mette the sooner with fir Tristram / and fyr launcelot asked what tydynges in Cornewaile / and whether they herd of fir Tristram or not / Syr Kay and fir Gaherys ansuerd and said that they herd not of hym 25 Thenne they told fir launcelot word by word of their aduenture / Thenne fyr launcelot smyled and said / hard hit is to take oute of the fleshe that is bred in the bone / and soo maade hem mery to gyders

¶ Capitulum xi

30 M Ow leue we of this tale / and speke we of fyr dynas that had within the castel a peramour / and she loued another knyghte better than hym / And so whanne fyr Dynas wente oute on huntynge / she flypped doune by a tuell / And took with her two brachets / and soo she yede to the kny-ght that she loued / and he her ageyne / ¶ And whanne fir Dynas come home / and myft his peramour and his brachets thenne was he the more wrother for his Brachets than for the lady / Soo thenne he rode after the knyght that had his peramour and badde hym torne and Iufte / So fyr Dynas fmote hym doune that with the falle he brake his legge and his ar- 5 me / And thenne his lady and peramour cryed fire Dynas mercy / and faid ſhe wold loue hym better than euer ſhe dyd / Nay faid fir Dynas I ſhalle neuer truſte them that ones by-trayed me / and therfor as ye haue begonne ſo ende / for I wyll neuer medle with you / And ſo fir Dynas departed and tooke 10 his brachets with hym / and ſoo rode to his caſtel / Now wil we torne vnto fir launcelot that was ryght heuy that he coude neuer here no tydynges of fir Triftram / for al this whyle he was in pryſon with fir Darras / Palomydes / & Dynadan / Thenne dame Brangwayne took her leue to goo in to Cornewaile and 15 fyr launcelot / fyr kay / & fyr Gaherys rode to ſeke fir Triftram in the countrey of Surleufe / Now ſpeketh this tale of fir trif-tram and of his two felawes / for euery daye fyre Palomydes brauled and ſayd langage ageynſt fyr Triftram I merueyle faid fir Dynadan of the fyr Palomydes / and thou haddeſt fyre 20 Triftram here / thou woldeſt do hym no harme / For and a wolf and a ſhepe were to gyders in a pryſon / the wolf wold ſuffre the ſheep to be in pees / and wete thou wel faid fyre Dynadan this ſame is fyre Triftram at a word / and now maiſt thou doo thy beſt with hym / & lete ſee now yf ye can ſkyfte it with your 25 handes / thenne was fyre Palomydes abaſhed and faid lytyl/fyr Palomydes thenne faid fyr Triftram / I haue herd moche of your maugre ageynſt me / but I wille not medle with you as at this tyme by my wille / by cauſe I drede the lord of this place that hath vs in gouernaunce / for and I dredde hym not 30 more than I doo the / ſoone hit ſhold be ſkyfte / ſoo they peaced them ſelf / Ryght ſoo came in a damoyfel and faid knyghtes be of good chere for ye are ſure of your lyues / and that I herd ſay my lord fyre Darras / Thenne were they gladd alle thre / For dayly they wende they ſhold haue dyed / ¶ Thenne ſoone after 35 this fyr Triftram ſylle ſeke that he wende to haue dyed / thenne fyr Dynadan wepte / and ſoo dyd fyre Palomydes vnder them bothe makyng grete forou / ¶ Soo a damoyfel came in to them and fonde them mornynge / Thenne he wente vnto fire Darras / and told hym how that myghty knyghte that bare the black shelde was lykely to dye / That shalle not be fayd fir Darras / for god defende whanne Knyghtes come 5 to me for focour that I shold suffre hem to dye within my pry-son / Therfor said fir Darras to the damoyfel / fetch that knyzt and his felawes afore me / And thenne anone fir Darras fa-we fir Triftram brought afore hym / he said fire Knyghte me repenteth of thy sekeneffe / for thou arte called a ful noble kn-10 yght / and soo hit semeth by the / And wete ye wel it shall neuer be said that fyr Darras shalle destroye fuche a noble kny-ght as thou arte in pryson / how be hit / that thou hast slayn / iij of my fones / where by I was gretely agreued / But now shalt thou goo and thy felawes / and youre harneis & horses haue 15 ben fayre and clene kepte / and ye shall goo where hit lyketh you vpon this couenaunt / that thou Knyght wilt promyse me to be good frende to my fones two that ben now on lyue / and also that thou telle me thy name / Syr said he as for me my name is fir Triftram de Lyones / and in Cornewaile was I born 20 and neuewe I am vnto Kynge Marke / And as for the deth of your fones I myght not doo with alle / For and they had ben the next kyn þ^t I haue / I myzt haue done none other wyfe/And yf I had slayne hem by treason or trechery I hadde ben worthy to haue dyed / Alle this I confyder said fyr Darras/25 that alle that ye dyd was by force of knyghthode / and that was the cause I wold not putte you to deth / But fythe ye be fyr Triftram the good knyght I pray you hertely to be my good frend and to my fones / Syr said fire Triftram I promyse yow by the feithe of my body euer whyle I lyue I wille do yow ser-30 uyse / for ye haue done to vs but as a naturel Knyghte ought to doo / Thenne fir Triftram repofed hym there tyl that he was amended of his sekeneffe / And whanne he was bygge and stronge / they took their leue / and euery knyght took their hor-fes and soo departed and rode to gyders tyl they came to a 35 crosse way / Now felawes said fyr Triftram here wylle we departe in fondry wayes / and by cause fire Dynadan hadde the fyrst aduenture of hym I wille begynne

¶ Capitulum xli

SOo as sir Dynadan rode by a welle / he fond a lady makingre grete dole / what eyleth you said sir Dynadan Syre knyght said the lady I am the wofullest lady of the world / for within these fyue dayes / here came a knyght called sir Breuse saunce pyte / and he flewe myn owne broder / 5 And euer fyns he hath kepte me at his owne will / and of al men in the world I hate hym moost / And therfor I requyre you of knyghthode to auenge me / for he wille not tary but be here anone / Lete hym come said sire Dynadan / And by cause of honour of alle wymmen I wille doo my parte / With this cam 10 sir Breuse / And whan he sawe a Knyght with his lady / he was wood wrothe / And thenne he said sir Knyght kepe the from me / soo they hurled to gyder as thonder / and eyther smote other passynge fore / But fyre Dynadan putte hym thurgh the sholder a greuous wounde / and or euer sir Dynadan my- 15 ght torne hym sir Breuse was gone and fledde / Thenne the lady prayd hym to brynge her to a Castel there befyde but four myle thens / and soo sir Dynadan brought her there / & she was welcome / for the lord of that castel was her vnkel / and soo fyre Dynadan rode his way vpon his aduenture / Now tor- 20 ne we this tale vnto fyre Tristram that by aduenture he cam to a castel to aske lodgyng / wherin was quene Morgan le fay / & soo whan sire Tristram was lete into that castel / he had good chere alle that nyght / And vpon the morne whan he wold haue departed / the Quene said / wete ye wel ye shall not departe 25 lyghtely / for ye are here as a pryfoner / Ihesu defende said sir Tristram / for I was but late a pryfoner / Fayr knyght sayd the quene ye shalle abyde with me tyl that I wete what ye ar and from whens ye come / And euer the Quene wold fet sir Tristram on her owne fyde / and her peramour on the other fy- 30 de / And euer Quene Morgan wold beholde sir Tristram / & ther at the knyght was Ialous / and was in wille sodenly to haue ronne vpon sir Tristram with a fwerd / but he lefte it for shame / theñe the quene said to sir Tristram telle me thy name &

I shalle suffre you to departe whan ye will / vpon that couena-unt I telie you my name is fyr Tristram de lyones / A fayd Morgan le fay / and I had wyft that thou sholdest not haue departed foo foone as thou shalt / But sythen I haue maade a 5 promyse / I wille holde hyt / with that thou wilt promyse me to bere vpon the a shelde that I shall delyuer the / vnto the castel of the hard roche where kynge Arthur had cryed a grete turnement / and there I pray you that ye wille be / and to doo for me as moche dedes of armes as ye maye doo / For att the 10 Castel of maydens fyr Tristram ye dyd merueillous dedes of armes as euer I herd knyght doo / Madame said fyr Tristram lete me see the shelde that I shalle bere / Thenne the shelde was brought forth / and the feld was guldysih with a kynge and a quene therin paynted / and a knyght standynge aboue them 15 vpon the kynges hede / and the other vpon the quenes / Madame said fir Tristram this is a fayre shelde and a myzty But what sygnefyeth this kynge and this quene / and that knyght standynge vp bothe their hedes / I shalle telle you said Morgan le fay hit sygnefyeth kynge Arthur and quene gue-20 neuer and a knyght that holdeth them both in bondage and in seruage / who is that knyght said fyre Tristram / that shalle ye not wete as at this tyme / said the quene / but as the Frenshe book saith Quene Morgan le fay loued fir launcelot best / and euer she defyred hym / and he wold neuer loue her / nor doo no thyng 25 at her request / and therefore she held many Knyghtes to gyder / for to haue taken hym by strengthe / And by cause she demed that fyr Launcelot loued Quene Gueneuer peramour / and she hym ageyne / therfore Quene Morgan le fay ordeyned that sheld to put fir launcelot to a rebuke to that entent that kyng 30 Arthur myght vnderstande the loue bitwene them / Thenne fir Tristram took that sheld and promysed her to bere hit atte turnement at the castel of the hard roche / But fir Tristram knewe not that that sheld was ordeyned ageynst fyr launcelot / but afterward he knewe hit

¶ Capitulum xliij

S Oo thenne sire Tristram took his leue of the Quene / and took the sheld with hym / Thenne came the knyȝte that helde Quene Morgan le fay / his name was fyre Hymefon / and he made hym redy to folowe fyre Tristram / fayr frende said Morgan le fay ryde not after that knyght / for ye shalle 5 not wyne no worship of hym / Fy on hym coward faide sire Hemyfon / for I wyft neuer good knyghte come oute of Cor-newaile / but yf hit were fyr Tristram de Lyones / what & that be he said she / Nay nay said he / he is with la beale Ifoud and this is but a daffyssh knyght / Allas my fair frende ye shalle 10 fynde hym the best knyght that euer ye mette with alle / For I knowe hym better than ye doo / for your fake said sir Hemyfon I shalle flee hym / A fayr frende said the Quene me repenteth that ye wyll folowe that knyght / for I fere me fore of youre ageyne comynge / with this / this knyghte rode his waye woode 15 wrothe / and he rode after fyr Tristram as fast as he hadde ben chaced with knyghtes / Whanne sir Tristram herd a knyghte come after hym soo fast / he retorned aboute / and sawe a knyȝt comynge ageynst hym / And whanne he came nyghe to sir Trif-tram / he cryed on hyghe fyr knyght kepe the from me / Thenne 20 they raffhed to gyders as hit had ben thonder / and sir Hemyfon bryfed his spere vpon fyr Tristram / but his harneis was soo good that he myght not hurte hym / And fyre Trystram smote hym harder and bare hym thorou the body / and fylle ouer his hors croupe / Thenne sire Tristram torned to haue do- 25 ne more with his swerd / but he sawe soo moche blood go from hym that hym femed he was lykely to deye / And so he departed from hym / and came to a fayre manoyre to an old knyȝt and there fyre Tristram lodged ¶ Now leue to speke of sir Tristram / and speke we of the 30 knyght that was wounded to the dethe / thenne his varlet alyght and took of his helme / and thēne he asked his lord whether there were ony lyf in hym / there is in me lyf faide the knyghte but hit is but lytyl / and therfore lepe thou vp behynde me / whan thou hast holpen me vp / and holde me fast that I falle 35 not / and brynge me to Quene Morgan le fay / for depe drauȝtes of dethe drawn to my herte that I may not lyue / for I wold sayne speke with her or I dyed / For els my soule wyll be in grete perylle and I dye / for with grete payne his varlet brought hym to the Castel / and there fyr Hemyfon fylle doun dede / whanne Morgan le fay sawe hym dede / she made grete fo-rou oute of reafon / And thenne she lete despoyle hym vnto his 5 shyrt / and soo she lete hym putte in to a tombe / And aboute the tombe she lete wryte / Here lyeth fyr Hemyfon slayne by the handes of fire Triftram de lyones / ¶ Now torne we vnto fyre Triftram that asked the knyght his hooft yf he sawe late ony knyghtes aduenturous / Sir he said the last nyght here lodged 10 with me Ector de marys and a damoyfel with hym / and that damoyfel told me that he was one of the best knyghtes of the world / that is not soo said sir Triftram / for I knowe four better knyghtes of his owne blood / and the fyrst is fyr launcelot du lake / calle hym the best knyght / and sir Bors de ganyys 15 Syr Bleoberys / fyr Blamor de ganyys and fyr Gaheris / nay said his hooft / sir Gawayne is a better knyght than he / that is not soo said fyr Triftram / for I haue mette with hem bothe / & I felte fyr Gaherys for the better knyght and sir Lamorak I calle hym as good as ony of them / excepte sir launcelot / Why 20 name ye not sir Triftram said his hooft / for I accompte hym as good as ony of them / I knowe not fyre Triftram said trif-tram / thus they talked and bourded as longe as them lyst / and thenne wente to reffe / And on the morne sir Triftram departed and took his leue of his hooft / and rode toward the 25 roche deure / and anone aduenture had fyre Triftram but that / & soo he rested not tyl he came to the castel where he sawe fyue C tentys

¶ Capitulum xliiiij

T Henne the kynge of Scottes and the kyng of Irland helde ageynst kynge Arthurs knyghtes / and there be-30 ganne a grete medle / So came in fyr Triftram and dyd merueillous dedes of armes / for there he smote doune many knytes / And euer he was afore kynge Arthur with that shelde / And whanne kynge Arthur sawe that shelde / he meruyllid gretely in what entente hit was made / but Quene Gueneuer 35 demed as it was wherfor she was heuy / Thēne was ther a da-moysfel of Quene Morgan in a chamber by kyng Arthur / And whan she herd kyng Arthur speke of that shelde / thēne she spak openly vnto kyng Arthur / fyre kyng weete ye well this sheld was ordeyned for you to warne you of your shame and dishonour / and that longeth to you and your Quene / 5 And thenne anon that damoyfel pyked her away pryuely / that no man wyft where she was become / Thenne was kyng Arthur fadde and wrothe and asked from whens came that damoyfel / there was not one that knewe her / nor wyfte where she was become / Thenne Quene Gueneuer called to her sir Ec- 10 tor de marys / and there she made her complaynte to hym / and said I wote wel this sheld was made by Morgan le fay / in despyte of me and sir Launcelot / wherfore I drede me fore lest I shold be destroyed / And euer the kyng bihelde fyre Tristram that dyd soo merueillous dedes of armes that he wō- 15 dred fore what knyght he myght be / and wel he wyft hit was not fyr launcelot / And hit was told hym that fyr Tristram was in petyte Bretayne with Ifoud la blanche maynys / for he demyd and he had ben in the realme of Logrys / fyr la-uncelot or fomme of his sclawes that were in the quest of fyr 20 Tristram that they shold haue fond hym or that tyme / So kyng Arthur had merueylle what knyght he myghte be / And euer fyr Arthurs eye was on that shelde / Alle that aspyed the Quene / and that made her fore aferd / Thenne euer fyr Tristram smote doun knyghtes wonderly to beholde what vpon the ry- 25 ght hand and vpon the lyfte hand that vnnethe no knygt my-ght withstande hym / And the kyng of Scottes and the kyng of Irland beganne to withdrawe hem / Whanne Arthur aspyed that / he thought that that Knyght with the straunge sheld shold not escape hym / Thenne he called vnto hym fyre Vwayn 30 la blanche maynys / and bad hym arme hym and make hym redy / Soo anon kyng Arthur and sir Vwayne dresfid them bifore sir Tristram and requyred hym to telle hem where he had that shelde / Syr he said I had it of Quene Morgan le fay sister vnto kyng Arthur 35

¶ Soo here endeth this history of this book / for it is the firste book of sire Tristram de lyones / and the second book of sir tristram foloweth

¶ There begynneth the second book of fyre Tristram / How fyre Tristram smote doune kyng Arthur & sir Vwayne / by cause he wold not telle hem wherfor that shelde was made / But to say the sothe fyre Tristram coude not telle the cause / for he knewe it not

¶ The tenth book

¶ Capitulum primum

ANd yf so be ye can descryue what ye bere / ye ar worthy to bere the armes / As for that said fyr Tristram I wille ansuere you / this sheld was yeuen me / not defyred / of queene Morgan le fay 5 And as for me I can not descryue these armes for it is no poynt of my charge / and yet I truste to god to bere hem with worship / Truly sayd kyng Arthur ye oughte not to bere none armes / but yf ye wist what ye bare / But I pray you telle me youre name / to what entente said fyre Tristram / 10 for I wold wete said Arthur / Syre ye shalle not wete as at this tyme / thenne shalle ye and I doo bataille to gyders sayd Kyng Arthur / why said fyre Tristram wyll ye doo bataille with me but yf I telle you my name / and that lytyl nedeth you and ye were a man of worshyp / for ye haue sene me thys 15 day haue had grete traueylle / And therefore ye are a vylaynous knyght to aske bataille of me consyderynge my grete traueylle / how be hit I wyl not fayle you / and haue ye no doubte that I feare not you / though ye thynke ye haue me atte a grete auauntage / yet shalle I ryght wel endure you / And 20 there with all kyng Arthur dresid his shelde and his spere and fyre Tristram ageynst hym / and they came soo egerly to gyders / And there kyng Arthur brake his spere all to pyeces vpon fyr Tristrams shelde / But sir Tristram hitte Arthur ageyne that hors and man felle to the erthe / And there was 25 kyng Arthur wounded on the lyfte fyde a grete wounde and a peryllous / Thenne whanne sir Vwayne sawe his lord Arthur lye on the ground fore wounded he was passynge heuy / And thenne he dresid his shelde and his spere / and cryed a-lowde vnto fyr Triftram and said knyght defende the / So they came to gyder as thonder / and fyr Vwayne bryfed his spere / alle to pyeces vpon fyre Triftrams shelde / and fyre Triftram fmote hym harder and forer with fuche a myȝt that he bare hym clene oute of his fadel to the erthe / with that fyr Triftram tor- 5 ned aboute and said Fair knyghtes / I had no nede to Iuste with you / for I haue had ynough to doo this daye / Thenne arofe Arthur / and wente to fyr Vwayn and said to fire Trif-tram we haue as we haue deserued / For thurgh our orgulyte we demaunded bataille of you / and yet we knewe not youre 10 name / Neuertheles by seynt croffe said fyre Vwayne he is a stronge knyght at myn aduysf as ony is now lyuyng / Thenne fir Triftram departed / and in euery place he asked & demaunded after fir Launcelot / but in no place he coude not here of hym whether he were dede or on lyue / wherfor fir triftram 15 made grete dole and forowe / Soo fyr Triftram rode by a forest and theñe was he ware of a fayre toure by a mareysf on that one fyde / and on that other fyde a fayr medowe / And there he sawe ten knyghtes fyghtyngf to gyder / And euer the nere he came / he sawe how ther was but one knyght dyd bataille 20 ageynst nyne knyghtes / and that one dyd soo merueyllously that fyre Triftram had grete wonder that euer one knyȝt my-ght doo soo grete dedes of armes / and thenne within a lytell whyle he had slayne half their horsfes / and vnhorfed them / and their horsfes ranne in the felde and forestf / Thenne fyre 25 Triftram had soo grete pyte of that one knyght that endured soo grete payne / and euer he thought hit shold be fyr palomydes by his shelde / and soo he rode vnto the knyghtes and cry-ed vnto them / and bad them seace of their bataille / for they did them self grete shame soo many knyghtes to fyghtf with one / 30 Thenne answerd the maister of tho knyghtes / his name was called Breuse faunce pyte that was atte that tyme the mooste mefchyeuoufst knyght lyuyngf / and said thus / fyr knyȝt what haue ye ado with vs to medle / And therfor and ye be wyse/departe on your way as ye cam / for this knyghtf shalle not ef-cape vs / that were pyte said fyr Triftram that soo good a kn-yght as he is shold be slayne soo cowardly / And therefore I warne you I will focoure hym with all my puyssaunce

¶ Capitulum secundum

SO fyre Tristram alyghte of his hors by cause they were on foote that they shold not flee his hors / And the-ne dresid his sheld with his fwerd in his hand / and he smote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand passyng fore that 5 wel nygh at euery stroke he strake down a knyght / And when they aspyed his strokes / they fled all with Breuse saice pyte vnto the toure / & sir Tristram folowed fast after with his suerd in his hand / but they escaped in to the toure / and shytted fire Tristram withoute the gate / ¶ And whanne sir Tristram 10 sawe this / he retorned abak vnto sir Palomydes / and fond hym syttyng vnder a tree fore wounded / A faire knyght saide fyre Tristram wel be ye fonde / Gramercy said sir palomydes of your grete goodenes / for ye haue rescowed me of my lyf and saued me from my dethe / what is your name said sir Tristram / 15 he said my name is sir Palomydes / O Ihesu said sir Tristram thou hast a fayre grace of me this daye / that I shold rescowe the / and thou arte the man in the world that I mooste hate / but now make the redy / for I will doo bataille with the / what is your name said palomydes / my name is sir Tristram your 20 mortal enemy / hit may be so said sir palomydes / But ye haue done ouer moche for me this day that I shold syghte with you / for in as moche as ye haue saued my lyf / hit wille be no worship for you to haue adoo with me / for ye are freshe and I am wounded fore / And therfor and ye wille nedes haue ado 25 with me / Assigne me a day and thenne I shal mete with you withoute fayle / ye saye wel said sir Tristram / Now I assigne you to mete me in the medowe by the ryuer of Camelot / where Merlyon sette the peron / so they were agreed / Thenne sir Tristram asked sir Palomydes why the ten knyghtes dyd bataill 30 with hym / for this cause said sir palomydes / as I rode vp myn aduentures in a forest here befyde / I aspyed where laye a dede Knyght / and a lady wepyng befyde hym / And whanne I sawe her makynge suche dole / I asked her who slewe her lorde ¶ Syre she said the falsest knyght of the world now lyuyng 35 and he is the moost vylayne that euer man herd speke of / and his name is fir Breufe faunce pyte / thenne for pyte I made the damoyfel to lepe on her palfroy / and I promyfed her to be her waraunt / and to helpe her to entyere her lord / And foo fodenly as I came rydyng by this toure / there came oute fyr Breufe faunce pyte / and fodenly he strake me from my hors / 5 And thenne or I myghte recouer my hors / this fir Breufe flewe the damoyfel / and foo I took my hors ageyne / and I was fore aghamed / and so beganne the medle betwixe vs / and this is the caufe wherfore we dyd this bataille / Well said fir triftram now I vnderstande the maner of your bataiylle / but in 10 ony wyfe haue remembraunce of your promyse that ye haue made with me to doo bataille with me this day fourtenyght / I shal not fayle you said fir Palomydes / wel said fir Triftram as at this tyme I wille not fayle you tyl that ye be oute of the daunger of your enemyes / So they mounted vpon theyr horses / & 15 rode to gyders vnto that foreste / and there they fond a fayre welle / with clere water burbelynge / fayr fir said fir Triftram to drynke of that water haue I courage / and thenne they alyght of their horses / And thenne were they ware by them wherfore stood a grete hors teyed to a tree / and euer he neyhed 20

 And thenne were they ware of a fayr knyght armed vnder a tree lackyng no pyece of harneis faue his helme lay vnder his heede / By the good lord said fir Triftram yonder lyeth a wel farynge knyght / what is best to doo / Awake hym said fir palomydes / so fir Triftram awaked hym with the but of his spe- 25 re / And foo the knyght arose vp hastely and putte his helme vpon his hede / and gat a grete spere in his hand / and without ony moo wordes he hurled vnto fir Triftram / and smote hym cleue from his sadel to the erthe / and hurte hym on the lyfte fyde that fir Triftram lay in grete perylle / Thenne he wallopped 30 ferther / and fette his cours / and came hurlyng vpon fir palomydes / and there he strake hym a parte thorou the body that he fylle from his hors to the erthe / ¶ And thenne this straunge knyght lefte them there / and took his way thurgh the foreste / With this fir Palomydes and fire Triftram were on foote and 35 gat their horses ageyn / and eyther asked councelle of other / what was best to done / By my hede said fir Triftram I wyll folowe this strong knyght that thus hath shamed vs / ¶ Well said sir Palomydes / & I wyllle repose me here by with a frend of myn / Beware said fire Triftram vnto Palomydes that ye sayle not that day ye haue set with me to do bataill / for as I deme ye wille not hold your day / for I am moche bygger 5 than ye / As for that said sir Palomydes / be hit as hit be maye for I feare you not / For and I be not seke nor prysoner I wil not sayle you / But I haue caufe to haue moche more doubte of you that ye wille not mete with me / for ye ryde after yonder strong knyght / And yf ye mete with hym / hit is an hard aduerture 10 and euer ye escape his handes / Ryght foo sir Triftram and sir Palomydes departed / and eyther took their wayes dyuerse

¶ Capitulum iij

ANd so fyre Triftram rode longe after this stronge kn-yght / And at the laste he sawe where lay a lady ouer-20 amounted vpon his hors / and the stronge knyght and my oute with his spere / and thus he hath broughte me in grete woo and dammage / That me repenteth said fire Triftram of yghtes suche a knyght met with vs to oure grete damage / &

 For why he was ouer stronge for me / That strong knyght to-ke his wordes at scorne and said he said it for mockery / And thenne they rode to gyders / and soo he hurte my felawe / And whan he had done so / I myght not for shame / but I must Iuste 5 with hym / And at the fyrst course he smote me doune / and my feest of the round table vpon payne of my hede ye shalle fynde hym there / By my feythe said sir Tristram I shall neuer reste 15 tyl that I fynde hym / And thenne sir Gawayne asked hym sheld clofe with clothe / By my hede said sir Kay that is the 25 same Knyght that mette with vs / for this nyght we were lodged within a wydowes hous / and there was that knyght lodged / And whanne he wyft we were of Arthurs court / he spak grete vylonye by the kynge / and specially by the Quene Gue-neuer / ¶ And thenne on the morne was waged bataille 30 with hym for that cause / And at the fyrst recoûtre said sir kay auoyded theyre horses / and putte their sheldes afore them / and 10 they strake to gyders with bryght swerdes as men that were of myght / and eyther wouDED other wonderly fore that the blood ranne out vpon the grasse / And thus they fought the space of four houres / that neuer one wold speke to other one word / & 15 said Gouvernaile I merueyle gretely of the strokes my maister hath yeuen to your mayster / By my hede said sir Laücelots scruaunt your maister hath not yeuen so many but your maister hath receyued as many or more / O Ihesu faide Gouvernaile promyse to Arthur neuer to come ageyne to the court tyl they 5 had brought fyr Triftram with them

¶ Capítulum sextum

 owne perfone / Thenne was fyr Gawayne gladde / and said to sire Triftram ye are welcome / for now haue ye easyd me grete- 10 ly of my labour / For what cause said sir Gawayne came ye countrey / by cause of fyr Palomydes / for he and I had assy-gned at this day to haue done bataille to gyders at the Peroun And I merueyle I here not of hym / And thus by aduentur 15 my lord fyre Launcelot and I mette to gyders / With this came Kyng Arthur / And whan he wyft that there was sir Trif-tram / thenne he ranne vnto hym and toke hym by the hand / And faide sire Triftram ye are as welcome as ony Knyghte / that euer came to this Courte / And whanne the Kyng had 20 herd how sire Launcelot and he had foughten / and eyther had wounded other wonderly fore / thenne the Kyng maade grete dole / Thenne sir Triftram told the Kyng how he came thydder for to haue had adoo with sire Palomydes / And thenne he told the kyng how he had rescowed hym from the nyne knyghtes 25 and Breuse faunce pyte / And how he fond a Knyght lyeng by a well / and that Knyght smote doune sir Palomydes and me / but his sheld was couerd with a clothe / Soo sir Palomydes lefte me / and I folowed after that Knyghte / and in many places I fonde where he had slayne Knyghtes / and foriuf- 30 ted many / By my hede said sir Gawayne that same Knyghte known hym but I myȝt not / Ihesu mercy said Arthur what 35 knyghte was that with the couerd shelde / I knowe not faide ne wote I for it is fir laūcelot / thēne they al loked vpon fir laūcclot & faid ye haue begyled vs with your couerd shelde / Hit is 5 not the fyrst tyme faid Arthur he hath done foo / My lord fayd bare the couerd shelde / And by cause I wold not be knowen that I was of your Courte I faid no worship of your hows That is trouthe faid fir Gawayne / fir kay / and fir Bleoberys 10 Thenne kynge Arthur took fir Triftram by the hand / & wente ladyes with her / and alle tho ladyes fayden at one voyce / welcome fir Triftram / welcome faid the damoyfels / welcome fayd knyghtes / welcome faid Arthur for one of the best knyghtes / 15 and the gentylst of the world / and the man of mooste worship / for of alle maner of huntynge thou bereft the pryce / and of alle mefures of blowynge thou arte the begynnyng / and of alle the termes of huntyng and haukyng ye are the begyn-

 Triftram therto is me lothe / for I haue adoo in many countre-25 yes / Not foo faid Arthur / ye haue promysed hit me / ye maye not fay nay / Syr faid fir Triftram I wille as ye wille / Thenne wente Arthur vnto the feges about the round table / and loked in euery fyege / the whiche were voyde that lacked knyghtes / And thenne the kynge sawe in the siege of Marhaus let-30 ters that saiden / this is the fyege of the noble knyght fir Trif-tram / And thenne Arthur made fir Triftram knyght of the table round with grete nobley and grete sceft as myghte be thought / for fir marhaus was slayne by the handes of fire Triftram in an yland / and that was wel knowen at that ty-35 me in the courte of Arthur / for this marhaus was a worthy knyght / And for cuylle dedes that he dyd vnto the countrey of Cornewaile / fire Triftram and he foughte / And they foughte foo longe tracynge and trauercynge tyll they fylle bledynge to the erthe / for they were so fore wounded that they myght not stande for bledynge / and sir Triftram by fortune recouerd and fyre Marhaus dyed thurgh the stroke on the hede / Soo leue we of sir Triftram and speke we of Kyng Marke /

¶ Capitulum vij

Thenne Kyng Marke had grete despyte of the renou- 5 me of sir Triftram / and Thanne he chaced hym oute of Cornewaile / yet was he neuwe vnto Kyng Marke / but he had grete fuspecyon vnto sire Triftram by cause of his Quene la Beale Ifoud / for hym semed that there was to moche loue bitwene them bothe / Soo whan sir Triftram departed oute 10 of Cornewaile in to Englund / kyng marke herd of the grete prowesse that sir Triftram dyd there / the whiche greued hym sore / Soo he sente on his party men to aspye what dedes he dyd / And the Quene sente pryuely on her party spyes to knowe what dedes he had done / for grete loue was bitwene them tweyn 15 Soo whan the messagers were come home / they told the trouth as they had herd that he passed alle other knyghtes / but yf it were sir launcelot / Thenne kyng Marke was ryght heuy of these tydynges / and as glad was la Beale Ifoud / Thenne in grete despyte he took with hym two good Knyztes / and two 20 squyers / and desguyfed hym self / and took his way in to En-glond to the entente for to flee sir Triftram / and one of these ij Knyghtes hyght Berfules / and the other Knyzt was called Amant / Soo as they rode Kyng marke asked a knyght that he met where he shold fynde Kyng Arthur / he said at Came- 25 lot / Also he asked that Knyghte after sire Triftram whether he herd of hym in the courte of Kyng Arthur / wete you wel faid that Knyzt ye shall fynde sir Triftram ther for a man of as grete worship as is now lyuyng for thurȝ his prowesse he wā the turnement of the castel of maydens / that standeth by the 30 hard roche / And fythen he hath wonne with his owne handes thyrty Knyghtes that were men of grete honour /

¶ And the laste batail that euer he dyde / he foughte with fyre Launcelot / and that was a merueilous bataille / And not by force fyr launcelot brought fir Triftram to the Courte / and of hym kynge Arthur made passyngre grete ioie / and soo maade hym knyght of the table round / and his seate was where the 5 good Knyghtes fir Marhaus seate was / Thenne was Kyng Marke passyngre sory whanne he herd of the honour of fir Trif-tram / and soo they departed / Thenne said Kyng Marke vnto his two Knyghtes / Now wille I telle you my counceylle ye are the men that I trust moost to on lyue / and I wille that 10 ye wete my comyngre hyder is to this entente / for to destroye fir Triftram by wyles or by treason / and hit shalle be hard yf e-uer he escape our handes / Allas said fir Berfules what mene you / for ye be sette in suche a waye / ye are disposed shamefully For fir Triftram is the Knyzt of moost worship that we kno-15 we luyngre / And therfor I warne you playnly I wyll neuer consente to doo hym to the dethe / and therfor I wyll yelde my seruyse / and forsake you whan kynge Mark herd hym say so / Sodenly he drewe his swerd and said A traitour / & smote fyr Berfules on the hede that the suerd wente to his teeth / 20 Whanne Amant the knyghte sawe hym doo that vylaynous dede / and his squyers / they said hit was foul done / and meschyeuously / wherfore we wille doo the no more seruyse / and wete ye wel / we wil appeche the of treason afore Arthur / Thenne was Kyng Marke wonderly wrothe / and wold haue slayne Amant / but he and the two squyers held them to gy-25 ders / and sette nought by his malyce / whanne Kyng Marke sawe he myght not be reuenged on them / he said thus vnto the Knyght Amant / wete thou wel / and thou apoeche me of treason / I shalle therof defende me afore Kyng Arthur / but I re-30 quyre the that thou telle not my name that I am Kyng mark what someuer come of me / As for that said fir Amant I wil not discouer your name / and soo they departed / and Amant and his felawes took the body of Berfules and buried hit

¶ Capitulum Octauum

THenne kynge Mark rode tyl he came to a fontayne / and there he rested hym / and stode in a doubte whether he wold ryde to Arthurs courte or none / or retorne a-geyne to his country / And as he thus rested hym by that fontayne / ther came by hym a knyght wel armed on horsbak / and 5 he alyghte and teyed his hors vntyl a tree / and fette hym do-une by the brynke of the fontayne / and there he made grete lā-gour and dole / and made the dolefullest complaynte of loue / that euer man herd / and al this whyle was he not ware of kynge Marke / And this was a grete parte of his complaynte / 10 he cryed and wepte sayenge O fayre Quene of Orkeney kynge Lots wyf and moder of sir Gawayne and to sire Gaheris and moder to many other / for thy loue I am in grete paynes / Thenne Kynge Marke arofe and wente nere hym / and sayd / no knyght that bereth a shelde / and my name is sire Lamorak de galys / But whan sire Lamorak herd Kynge Mark speke 20 thenne wist he wel by his speche that he was a Cornysfhe kny-ght / Syr faid sir Lamorak / I vnderstande by your tonge ye be of Cornewaile wherin there duelleth the shamefullest kynge that is now lyuyng / for he is a grete enemy to alle good kn-yghtes / and that preueth wel / for he hath chaced oute of that 25 Countrey fyr Tristram that is the worshipfullest knyght that now is lyuyng / and alle knyghtes speken of hym worship / And for Ialoufnes of his quene he hath chaced hym oute of his country / Hit is pyte faid sir Lamorak that euer ony fuche fals knyght coward as kynge Marke is shold be matched 30 with fuche a fayre lady and good as la Beale Ifoud is / for alle the world of hym speketh shame / and of her worship that ony Quene maye haue

¶ I haue not adoo in this matere faid kynge marke / neyther noughte wille I speke therof wel faid faid fyre Lamorak fyre can ye 35 telle me ony tydynges / I can telle you faid fyr Lamorak / that there shalle be a grete turnement in haft beyde Camelot at the castel of Iagent / and the kyng with the C knyghtes & the kyng of Irland as I suppoſe make that turnement

- 5 ¶ Thenne there came a knyght that was callid fire Dyna-dan / and falewed them bothe / And whan he wyft that kyng Marke was a knyght of Cornewaile / he repreued hym for the loue of kyng Marke a thouſand fold more / than dyd fir la-morak / thenne he profered to luſte with kyng Mark / and he 10 was ful lothe therto / But fir Dynadan edgyd hym foo / that he luſted with fir lamorak / & fir lamorak ſmote kyng marke ſo fore that he bare hym on his ſpere ende ouer his hors taylor / And thenne kyng Marke aroſe ageyne / and folowed after fir lamorak / but fir Dynadan wold not luſte with fire Lamo-15 rak / But he told kyng Marke that fire Lamorak was fyre kay the ſeneſchall / that is not foo faid kyng Mark / for he is moche byggar than fir kay / and foo he folowed and ouertoke hym / and badde hym abyde / what wille ye doo faid fir La-morak / Syr he faid / I will fyghte with a ſwerd / for ye haue 20 ſhamed me with a ſpere / and there with they daſſhed to gyders with ſwerdes / and fir Lamorak ſuffred hym / and forbare hym And kyng Marke was paſſyng haſty / and ſmote thyecke ſtrokes / Syr Lamorak ſawe he wold not ſlynte and waxyd ſomwhat wrothe / and doubled his ſtrokes / for he was one of the 25 nobleſt knyghtes of the world / and he bete hym foo on the helme that his hede henge ny³ vn the fadel bowe Whan fir lamorak ſawe hym fare foo / he faid / fyr knyght what chere me ſemeth ye haue nyghe your fylle of fyghtyng / hit were pyte to doo yow ony more harme / for ye are but a meane knyght / therfore I gy-30 ue you leue to goo where ye lyſt / Gramercy faid kyng Mark For ye & I be not matches / Thenne fir dynadan mocked kyng Marke and faid ye are not able to matche a good knyght / as for that faid Kyng Mark at the firſt tyme that I luſted with this Knygt ye refuſed hym / Thynke ye that it is a ſhame to 35 me faid fyr Dynadan / Nay fyr it is cuer worſhip to a Knygt to refuſe that thyng that he may not atteyne / therfor your worſhip had ben moche more to haue refuſed hym as I dyd / for I warne you playnly he is able to bete ſuche fyue as ye / and I be / for ye Knyghtes of Cornewaile are no men of worship / as other Knyghtes are / And by cause ye are no men of worship / ye hate alle men of worship / for neuer was bredde in your cuntrye fuche a Knyght as is sir Triftram /

¶ Capitulum ix

T Henne they rode forth alle to gyders Kyng Mark / fir 5 Lamorak & sir Dynadan tyl that they came to a brydge / And at the ende therof stode a fayre Toure / Thenne fawe they a Knyght on horsbak wel armed braundysshing a spere cryenge and proseryng hym self to Iuste / Now said sir Dynadan vnto Kyng Mark / yonder ar two bretheren that one hy- 10 ght Aleyn / and the other hyghte Tryan that will Iuste with ony that passeth this passage / Now proper your self said Dyna-dan to Kyng Mark / for euer ye be leide to the erthe / Thenne Kyng Marke was ashamed / and there with he seutryd hys spere / and hurtlid to sir Tryan / and eyther brake their speres / 15 all to pyeces / and passid thurgh anone / Thenne fyr Trian sent Kyng Mark another spere to Iuste more / But in no wyse he wold not Iuste no more / Thenne they came to the castel al thre Knyghtes / and praid the lord of the castel of herburgh / ye are ryght welcome said the Knyghtes of the castel / for the loue of 20 the lord of this castel / the whiche hyght sir Tor le fyfe aries / & thenne they came in to a fayr courte wel repayred / and they had passyng good chere tyl the lieutenaunt of this castel that hyght Berluse / aspyed Kyng Marke of Cornewaile / Thenne said Berluse / fyr Knyght I knowe you better than ye we- 25 ne / for ye are Kyng Marke that flewe my fader afore myne owne eyen / and me hadde ye slayne hadde I not escaped in to a wood / but wete ye wel for the loue of my lord of this castel I will neyther hurte you ne harme you nor none of your selauship / But wete ye wel whan ye are past this lodgyng / 30 I shalle hurte you and I may / for ye flewe my fader traitourly / But fyrst for the loue of my lord sir Tor / and for the loue of sir Lamorak the honourable Knyght that here is lodged ye shal haue none ylle lodgyng / For hit is pyte that euer ye shold be in the company of good Knyghtes / for ye ar the moost 35 vylaynous knyght or kyng that is now knowen on lyue / for ye are a deftroier of good knyghtes and alle that ye doo is but trefaon /

¶ Capitulum x

T Henne was Kyng Marke fore aflamed / and fayd 5 but lytyl ageyne / But whanne fir Lamorak and fir Dynadan wyft that he was kyng Marke / they were fory of his felaufhip / Soo after fouper they wente to lodgyng / Soo on the morne they arofe erly / and kyng Marke and fir Dyna-dan rode to gyders / and thre myle fro their lodgyng there met 10 with hem thre knyghtes / and fir Berlufe was one / and that other his two cofyns / Syr Berlufe fawe kyng Marke / and thenne he cryed on hyghe traytour kepe the from me / for wete thou wel that I am Berlufe / Syr knyght faid fir Dynadan / I counceylle you to leue of at this tyme / for he is rydyng to 15 Kyng Arthur / And by caufe I haue promysed to conduyte hym to my lord kyng Arthur / nedes muft I take a part with hym / how be hit I loue not his condycyon / and fayne I wold be from hym / Wel dynadan faid fir Berlufe me repenteth that ye wille take party with hym / but now doo your beft / And thē 20 ne he hurtled to Kyng Marke and fmote hym fore vpon the fhelde / that he bare hym clene out of his fadel to the erthe / That fawe fir Dynadan / and he feutryd his spere / and ranne to one of Berlufes felawes / and fmote hym doun of his fa-del / Thenne Dynadan torned his hors / and fmote the thyrdde 25 knyght in the fame wyfe to the erthe / for fire Dynadan was a good knyght on horfbak / and there byganne a grete batail for Berlufe and his felawes helde them to gyders strongly on fote And foo thurgh the grete force of fir Dynadan / kyng Marke had Berlufe to the erthe / and his two felawes fledde / and 30 had not ben fyre Dynadan kyng Marke wold haue flayne hym / And foo fyre Dynadan refcowed hym of his lyf / for kyng Marke was but a murtherer / And thenne they took their horfes / and departed / and lefte fir Berlufe there fore wouided Thenne kyng Mark and fir Dynadan rode forth a four leges 35 englyfhe tyl that they came to a brydge where houed a kny-ght on horfbak armed and redy to Iufte / ¶ Loo fayd

fyr Dynadan vnto Kyng Mark / yonder houeth a Knyghte that wille Iuste / for there shalle none passe this brydge / but he must Iuste with that Knyght / Hit is wel said kyng mark for this Iustes falleth with the / Syr Danadan knewe the kn-yght wel / that he was a noble Knyght / and sayne he wold ha- 5 ue Iusted / but he had had leuer Kyng Mark had Iusted with hym / but by no meane kyng Mark wold not Iuste / Thenne fyr Dynadan myght not refuse hym in no maner / And thenne eyther dresid their speres and their sheldes / and smote to gyders soo that thorow fyne force fyr Dynadan was smyten 10 to the erthe / and lyghtely he arofe vp / and gat his hors / and requyred that Knyght to doo bataille with fuerdes / And he an-fuerd and said Fair Knyght as at this tyme I may not haue adoo with you nomore / for the customme of this passage is fuche / Thenne was fyr Dynadan passyng wrothe / that he mygt 15 not be reuenged of that Knyght / and soo he departed / and in no wyse wold that Knyght telle his name / But euer fyr Dynadan thought he shold knowe hym by his shelde that it shold be fyr Tor

¶ Capitulum xi

SOo as they rode by the way / Kyng Mark thenne be- 20 ganne to mocke fyr Dynadan and said I wend yow Knyghtes of the table round mygt not in no wyse fynde their matches / ye say well said fyr Dynadan / as for you on my lyfe I calle you none of the best knyghtes / But sythe ye haue such a despyte at me / I requyre you to Iuste with me / to preue my 25 strengthe / Not soo said Kyng Mark / for I wille not haue ado with you in no maner / But I requyre you of one thyng that whanne ye come to Arthurs courte discouer not my name / for I am there soo hated / It is shame to you said fyr Dynadan / that ye gouerne you soo shamefully / for I see by you ye ar ful 30 of cowardyse and ye are a murtherer / and that is the grettest shame that a Knyght may haue / for neuer a Knyght beyng a murtherer hath worship / nor neuer shalle haue / for I sawe but late thur; my force ye wold haue slayn fyr Berluse a better Knyghte than ye / or euer ye shal be / & more of prowesse 35

¶ Thus they rode forth talkynge tyl they came to a fayre place where stood a knyght and prayd them to take their lodgyng with hym / Soo at the request of that knyght / they repofed them there and made them wel at ease / and had grete chere /
 5 For al arraunt knyghtes were welcome to hym / and specially alle tho of Arthurs courte / Thenne sire Dynadan demaunded his hooft what was the Knyghtes name that kepte the brydge For what cause aske you it said his hooft / for hit is not long ago said fyr Dynadan fythen he gaf me a falle / A fayr knyght 10 said his hooft / therof haue ye no meruaylle for he is a passynge good knyght / and his name is sir Tor the sone of aries le vayshere / A said sir Dynadan was that sir Tor / for truly foo euer me thought / Ryght as they stode thus talkyng to gyders / they sawe come rydyng to them ouer a playne vj knyghtes 15 of the courte of kynge Arthur wel armed at al poyntes / And there by theire sheldes sire Dynadan knewe them wel / The fyrst was the good knyght sir Vwayne the sone of Kynge Vryens / the second was the noble knyght sir Brandyles / the thyrd was Ozana le cure hardy / the fourthe was 20 Vwayne les auenturous / The fyfthe was fyr Agrauayne / The vj sir Mordred broder to sir Gawayne / Whanne sir Dynadan had sene these vj knyghtes / he thought in hym self he wold brynge kynge Marke by some wyle to luste with one of them And anone they toke their horses & ranne after these knyghtes 25 wel a thre myle englysshe / Thenne was kynge Marke ware / where they sat al fyxe aboute a welle / and ete and drank such metes as they had / and their horses walkyng and somme teyed / and their sheldes henge in dyuerse places aboute them Loo said sir Dynadan yonder ar Knyghtes arraunt that wyl 30 luste with vs / God forbede said Kynge Mark / for they be fyx and we but two / As for that said sire Dynadan lete vs not spare / for I wille assaye the formeft / and there with he maade hym redy / whanne kynge Marke sawe hym doo foo as fast as sir Dynadan rode toward them Kynge marke rode froward 35 them with alle his mayneal meyny / Soo whan sire Dynadan sawe Kynge Marke was gone / he fette the spere oute of the reeft / and threwe his sheld vpon his bak / and came rydyng to the selsauship of the table round / And anone sire Vwayne knewe fir Dynadan / and welcomed hym / and foo dyd al his felaufhip /

¶ Capitulum xij /

ANd thenne they asked hym of his aduentures / & whether he had fene fyr Triftram or fir launcelot / So god me helpe said fir Dynadan I sawe none of them fythen I de- 5 parted from Camelot / what Knyght is that said fir Brandy-les that foo fodenly departed from you / and rode ouer yonder felde / Syr said he / hit was a Knyghte of Cornewaile / and the moost horryble coward that euer bestrode hors / what is his name said alle these knyghtes / I wote not said fir Dynadan / 10 Soo whan they had repofed them / and spoken to gyders / they took their horsfes / and rode to a castel where duellid an old kn-yght that made alle Knyghtes erraunt good chere / Thenne in the meane whyle that they were talkynge came in to the castel fyr Gryflet le fyfe de dieu / and there was he welcome / and 15 they alle asked hym whether he had fene fyre Launcelot or fyre Triftram / Syrs he anfuerd I sawe hym not fythen he departed from Camelot / Soo as fir Dynadan walked and beheld the castel / there by in a chamber he aspyed Kynge Marke / and thenne he rebuked hym / and asked hym why he departed foo / 20 Syr said he for I durst not abyde by cause they were so many But how escaped ye said Kyng Mark / fyr said fir Dynadan they were better frendes than I wend they had ben / who is Capytayn of that felaufhip said the Kynge / thenne for to fere hym fir Dynadan sayd that it was fir Launcelot / O Ihesu fa- 25 id the Kyng myghte I knowe fir Launcelot by his shelde / ye said Dynadan / for he bereth a shelde of syluer and black ben-dys / Alle this he said to fere the kyng / for fyre launcelot was not in his felaufhip / Now I pray you said kyng Mark that ye wille ryde in my felaufhip / that is me lothe to doo said fyre 30 Dynadan by cause ye forfoke my felaufhip / Ryght foo fir Dynadan went from kyng Mark & wente to his own felaufhip and foo they mounted vpon their horsfes / & rode on their wa-yes / and talked of the Cornysfh knyghte / for Dynadan told them that he was in the castel where they were lodged / hit is 35 wel faid faid fir Gryflet / for here haue I brought fir Dagonet kynge Arthurs foole that is the beft felawe and the meryeft / in the world / ¶ Wille ye doo wel faid fir Dynadan I haue told the Cornysſhe Knyght that here is fir Launcelot / and the 5 Cornysſhe Knyght asked me what ſhelde he bare / Truly I told hym that he bereth the ſame ſhelde that fir Mordred bereth / wyl ye doo wel faid fir Mordred I am hurte and maye not wel be-re my ſhelde nor harneis / And therfore put my ſhelde and my harneis vpon fir Dagonet / and lete hym ſette vpon the Cor-10 nyſſhe Knyght / that ſhalle be done faid fir Dagonet by my feythe / Thenne anone was Dagonet armed hym in Mordreds harneis and his ſhelde / & he was ſette on a grete hors & a ſpere in his hand / Now faid Dagonet ſhewe me the Knyght / & I trowe I ſhalle bere hym doune / Soo alle theſe Knyghtes 15 rode to a woode ſyde / and abode tyl Kynge Marke came by the way / Thenne they putte forth fir Dagonet / and he came on al the whyle his hors myght renne ſtreight vpon Kynge Mark And whanne he came nyghe Kynge Marke / he cryed as he were wood / and faid kepe the Knyghte of Cornewaile / for I 20 wille ſlee the / Anone as Kynge Mark beheld his ſhelde / he faid to hym ſelf / yonder is fir launcelot Allas now am I deſtro-yed / and there with all he made his hors to renne as faſt as it myghte thorough thicke and thynne / And euer ſire Dagonet ſolowed after Kynge Mark cryenge and rateynge hym as a 25 wood man thurgh a grete foreſt / whanne fir Vwayne and ſire Brandyles ſawe dagonet ſoo chace Kynge Marke / they laughed all as they were wood / And thenne they toke theire hor-ſes / and rode after to ſee how fir Dagonet ſpedde / for they wol-ld not for no good that ſire Dagonet were ſhente / for Kynge 30 Arthur loued hym paſſyng wel / and made hym Knyght his owne handes / And att euery turnement he beganne to make Kynge Arthur to laughe / Thenne the knyghtes rode here and there cryenge and chacyng after kynge Marke that alle the foreſt range of the noyſe /

¶ Capitulum xiiij

35 S Oo kynge Mark rode by fortune by a welle in the way where ſtood a Knyght erraunte on horſbak armed att al poyntes with a grete ſpere in his hand

And whanne he sawe Kynge Marke comynge fleyng / he faid Knyght retorne ageyne for shame and stand with me / & I shalle be thy waraunt / A fayr Knyght said Kyng Marke lete me passe / for yonder cometh after me the best knyght of the world with the blak bended shelde / Fy for shame said the kn- 5 yght he is none of the worthy Knyghtes / and yf he were syre launcelot or sir Tristram I shold not doubte to mete the better of them bothe / Whanne Kynge Marke herd hym saye that word / he torned his hors and abode by hym / And thenne that stronge Knyght bare a spere to Dagonet / and smote hym so fo- 10 re that he bare hym ouer his hors tayle / and nyghe he had broken his neck / And anone after hym came sir Brandyles / and whanne he sawe Dagonet haue that falle / he was passynge wrothe / and cryed Kepe the Knyght / and soo they hurtled to gyders wonder fore / But the Knyght smote sir Brandyles so 15 fore that he wente to the erthe hors and man / Syre Vwayne came after and sawe alle this / Ihesu said he / yonder is a stro-nge Knyght / And thenne they feutryd theyr speres / and this Knyght came soo egerly that he smote doune sir Vwayne / Thenne came Ozana with the hardy hert / and he was smyten 20 doune / Now said sire Gryflet by my counceyl lete vs sende to yonder arraunt Knyght / and wete whether he be of Arthurs Courte / for as I deme hit is sir Lamorak de galys / Soo they sente vnto hym / and prayd the straunge Knyghte to telle his name / and whether he were of Arthurs courte or not / As for 25 my name they shalle not wete / but telle hem I am a Knygt arraunt as they ar / and lete them wete that I am no Knyghte of Kynge Arthurs Courte / and soo the squyer rode ageyne vnto them and told them his ansuer of hym / By my hede said sir Agrauiyne he is one of the strongest Knyghtes that euer 30 I sawe / for he hath ouerthrowen thre noble Knyghtes / and ne-des we must encountre with hym for shame / So syr Agraui-yne feutryd his spere / and that other was redy / & smote hym doune ouer his hors to the erthe / And in the same wyse he smote sir Vwayne les auoutres and also sir Gryflet / thenne had 35 he serued hem alle / but sir Dynadan / for he was behynde / and sir Mordred was vnarmed and Dagonet had his harneis / ¶ Soo whan this was done this stronge Knyght rode on his his way a fofte paas / and kynge Marke rode after hym / pray-fynge hym mykel / but he wold anfuer no wordes / but fyghed wonderly fore / hangynge doune his hede / takyng no hede to his wordes / Thus they rode wel a thre myle Englyfhe / and then-5 ne this Knyght called to hym a varlette / and badde hym ryde vntyl younder fayr manoyre / and recommaunde me to the lady of that caftel and place / and praye her to fende me refreffh-ynge of good metes / and drynkes / And yf fhe afke the what I am / Telle her that I am the knyght that foloweth the Gla-10 tyfaunt beeft / that is in Englyfhe to faye the quefthyng beeste for that beeft where fomerue he yede / he quefted in the bely with fuche a noyfe / as hit hadde ben a thyrty couple of houndes ¶ Thenne the varlet wente his way and came to the manoyr and falewed the lady / and told her from whens he came / And 15 whan fhe vnderftode that he came from the knyghte that folo-wed the quefthyng beeste / O fwete lord Ihefu fhe fayd whan fhalle I fee that noble Knyghte my dere fone Palomydes / Allas wille he not abyde with me / and there with fhe frowned and wepte / and made paffynge grete dole / And thenne al-20 fo foone as fhe myghte fhe gaf the varlet alle that he axyd / And the varlet retorned vnto fir Palomydes / for he was a var-let of kynge Marke / And as foone as he came / he told the kn-yghtes name was fir Palomydes / I am wel pleafyd faid kynge Marke but holde the ftyll and feye no thyng / ¶ Thenne 25 they alyghte and fette them doune and reposed them a why-le / Anone with alle kynge Marke felle on flepe / whanne fyre Palomydes fawe hym found a flepe / he took his hors and rode his way and faid to them I wille not be in the companye of a flepyng Knyghte / And foo he rode forthe a grete paas

¶ Capitulum xiiij

30 Now torne we vnto fire Dynadan that fonde thefe feuen knyghtes paffynge heuy / And whanne he wyfte how that they fped / as heuy was he / My lord Vwayne faid Dynadan / I dare ley my hede it is fir Lamorak de galys / I promyfe you alle / I fhalle fynde hym / and he may be founde in this countrey / and foo fyre Dynadan rode after this knyghte / And so dyd kyng Marke that fought hym thurgh the forest Soo as Kyng Mark rode after sir Palomydes / he herd a noy-fe of a man / that made grete dole / Thenne kyng Mark rode as nyghe that noyfe as he myght and as he durst / Thenne was he 5 ware of a knyght that was descended of his hors / and hadde putte of his helme / and there he made a pyteous complaynte / and a dolorous of loue

¶ Now leue we that / and talke we of sire Dynadan that rode to feke fyr Palomydes / And as he came within a foreste / he 10 mette with a Knyght a chacer of a dere / Syr said sire Dyna-dan mette ye with a Knyghte with a shelde of fyluer / and lyons hedes / ye fayr knyghte sayd the other / with fuche a knyght mette I with but a whyle agone / and strayte yonder waye he yede / Gramercy said sir Dynadan / for myght I fynde the trak 15 of his hors I shold not fayle to fynde that Knyghte / Ryghte so as sir Dynadan rode in the euen late / he herd a doleful noy-fe as it were of a man / ¶ Thenne sir Dynadan rode toward that noyfe / And whanne he came nyghe that noyfe / he alyghte of his hors / and wente nere hym on foote / Thenne was he wa- 20 re of a knyght that stood vnder a tree and his hors teyed by hym / and the helme of his hede / and euer that knyght made a doleful complaynte as euer made knyghte / And alweyes he made his complaynte of la Beale Ifoud the Quene of Cor-newaile / and said A fayr lady why loue I the / for thou art 25 fayrest of alle other / and yet shewest thou neuer loue to me / nor bounte / Allas yet must I loue the / And I may not blame the fayre lady / for myn eyen ben caufe of this forowe / And yet to loue the I am but a soole / for the best knyghte of the world loueth the / and ye hym ageyne / that is sir Triftram de Lyones 30 And the falsest kynge and Knyghte is youre husband / and the moost coward and ful of treason is your lord kyng ma-rke

¶ Allas that euer so fayre a lady and pyerles of alle other shold be matched with the moost vylaynous knyght of the world / Alle this langage herd Kyng Marke / what 35 sir Palomydes said by hym / wherfore he was adradde / whanne he sawe sire Dynadan lest and he aspyed hym / that he wold telle fyre Palomydes that he was Kyng Marke / and therefor he withdrewe hym and took his hors and rode to his men where he commaunded hem to abyde / And foo he rode as fast as he myght vnto Camelot / & the same day he fonde there Amant the knyght redy that afore Arthur had appeled hym of trea-5 son / and foo lyghtely the Kynge commaunded them to do bataile / And by myfauenture kynge Marke smote Amant thorough the body / And yet was Amant in the ryghtuous quarel And ryghte foo he took his hors and departed from the court for drede of sir Dynadan that he wold telle fyr Triftram and 10 sir Palomydes what he was / ¶ Thenne were ther maydens / that la Beale Ifoud hadde sente to sire Triftram that knewe fir Amant wel

¶ Capitulum xv

Thenne by the lycence of Kynge Arthur / they went to hym and spak with hym / for whyle the troncheon of 15 the spere stak in his body he spak / A fayr damoyfels said Amant / ye recommaunde me vnto la Beale Ifoud / and telle her that I am slayn for the loue of her and of sir Triftram / And there he told the damoyfels how cowardly Kyng Mark had slayne hym and sire Berfyles his felawe / ¶ And for 20 that dede I appeled hym of treason / and here am I slayne in a ryghtuous quarel / and alle was by cause of sir Berfules & I wold not consente by treason to flee the noble knyght sir trif-tram / Thenne the two maydens cryed alowde that alle the courte myght here it / and said O swete lord Ihesu that knowest 25 alle hydde thynges / why suffrest thou soo fals a traytour to vaynquyshe and flee a trewe knyght that fought in a ryghtuous quarel / Thenne anone hit was spronge to the Kyng and the quene and to alle the lordes that it was kynge Mark that had slayne fyr Amant / and sire Berfules afore hand / wher-30 for they dyd their bataille / Thenne was Kyng Arthur wroth oute of mesure / and so were alle the other knyghtes But whanne sire Triftram knewe alle the matere / he maade grete dole and sorowe oute of mesure / and wepte for sorow for the losse of the noble knyghtes fyr Berfyles & of sir Amant ¶ Whanne fir Launcelot aspyed fir Tristram wepe / he wente hastely to Kyng Arthur and said fyre I pray you gyue me leue to retorne ageyne to yonder fals kyng and knyghte / I pray yow said kyng Arthur / fetch he hym ageyne / but I wold not that ye slewe hym for my worship / Thenne fir launcelot 5 armed hym in alle haste / and mounted vpon a grete hors / & toke a spere in his hand and rode after kyng Marke / And from thens a thre myle englysshe / fir launcelot ouertook hym / and badde hym torne recreaunt kyng and knyght / For why-der thou wilt or not thou shalt go with me to kyng Arthurs 10 Courte / Kyng Marke retourned and loked vpon fir Launcelot / and said Faire fyr what is your name / wete thou wel faid he my name is fire Launcelot / and therfor defende the / And whanne Kyng Marke wiste that it was fire Launcelot / and came soo fast vpon hym with a spere / he cryed thenne on lowde 15 I yelde me to the fir launcelot / honourable Knyghte / But fire Launcelot wold not here hym / but came fast vpon hym / kyng Marke sawe that / and maade no defence but tombled adoune out of his sadel to the erthe as a sak / and there he lay styll / and cryed fire launcelot mercy / Aryse recreaunt knyghte and 20 Kyng / I wyll not fyghte said Kyng Marke / But whether that ye wille I wil goo with yow / Allas Allas said fire Launcelot that I maye not gyue the one buffet for the loue of fire Tdestram and of la Beale Ifoud And for the two knyghtes that thou hast slayne traitourly / 25

 And soo he mounted vpon his hors and brouzt hym to kyng Arthur / and there Kyng Marke alyghte in that same place and threwe his helme from hym vpon the erthe / and his suerd and fylle flat to the erthe of kyng Arthurs feet and putte hym in his grace and mercy /

¶ Soo god me help said 30 Arthur ye are welcome in a maner / and in a maner ye ar not welcome / In this maner ye are welcome that ye come hyder maulgre thy hede as I suppose / ¶ That is trouthe said kyng Marke / and els I had not ben here / For my lord fir launcelot brought me hyder thurgh his fyne force / and to hym am 35 I yolden to as recreaunt / ¶ Wel said Arthur ye vnderstande ye oughte to doo me feruyse / homage and feaute / And neuer wold ye doo me none / but euer ye haue ben ageynst me / and a destroyer of my knyghtes / now / how wille ye acqyte you / Sir said Kyng Marke / Ryght as your lordship will requyre me vnto my power / I wille make a large amendys / For he was 5 a fayre speker and fals there vnder / Thenne for grete pleasyr of fyr Triftram to make them tweyne accorded / the kyng withheld kyng Marke / as at that tyme / and made a broken loue day bitwene them /

¶ Capitulum xvi

Now torne we ageyne vnto fir Palomydes how fir Dy-10 nadan comforted hym in alle that he myghte from his grete sorow / what Knyghte are ye said fir Palomydes / fyre I am a knyght erraunt as ye be that hath foughte you longe by your sheld / Here is my sheld said fir Palomydes / Wete ye wel and ye wille oughte / there with I wille defende hit / Nay said 15 fir Dynadan I wille not haue adoo with yow / but in good maner / And yf ye wil ye shal fynde me sone redy / Syr said fir Dynadan whyder ward ryde you this way / By my hede sayd fir Palomydes I wote not but as fortune ledeth me / Herde ye or sawe ye ought of fir Triftram / So god me help of fir Trif-20 ram I bothe herd and sawe / and not / for thenne we loued not Inwardly wel to gyders / yet at my meschyef fir Triftram refcowed me from my dethe / and yet or he and I departed by bothe our assentes we assigned a day that we shold haue met at the stony graue / that merlyon fette befyde Camelot / & there 25 to haue done bataille to gyders / how be hit I was letted sayd fir Palomydes that I myght not holde my daye / the whiche greueth me fore / but I haue a large excuse / For I was pry-soner with a lord and many other moo / and that shalle fyre Triftram ryght wel vnderstande / þ^t I brake hit not of fere of 30 cowardyse / And thenne fir Palomydes told fir Dynadan the same day that they shold haue mette / Soo god me helpe sayd fyre Dynadan that same day mette fire Launcelot and fir Trif-tram at the same graue of stone / ¶ And there was the moost myghtyest bataille that euer was sene in this land betwyxe two knyghtes / for they fought more than two houres / And there they bothe bledde moche blood / that alle men merucy-led that euer they myght endure hit /

¶ And so at the laste by bothe their assentes they were made frendes and sworne bretheren for euer / and no man can Iuge the better knyght / And now is sir Tristram made a Knyghte of the round table / and he fytteth in the sege of the noble knyght sire Marhaus /

¶ By my hede said sir Palomydes fyre Tristram is ferre bygger than sir Launcelot / and the hardyer Knyghte /

¶ Haue ye assayed them

¶ I haue sene fyre Tristram fyghte said fyre Palomydes / but neuer sire Launcelot / to my we-tynge / But at the fontayne where sire Launcelot lay on slepe there with one spere he smote doune sire Tristram / and me said Palomydes / but at that tyme they knewe not eyther other

Faire Knyghte said sir Dynadan as for sir launcelot and sir Tristram lete them be / for the werst of them wille not be lyghly matched of no knyghtes that I knowe luyng / No said sire Palomydes god defende but and I had a quarrel to the better of them bothe / I wold with as good a wyll fyghte with hym as with yow

¶ Syre I requyre you telle me your name and in good feith I shalle hold you company / tyl that we come to Camelot / and there shalle ye haue grete worship now at this grete turnement for there shalle be the Quene Gueneuer / and la Beale Ifoud of Cornewaile / wete yow wel fyre Knyght for the loue of la Beale Ifoud I wille be there and els not / but I wille not haue adoo in Kynge Arthurs courte / Sir said Dynadan / I shal ryde with yow and doo you feruyse / so ye wille telle me youre name / Syre ye shalle vnderstande my name is fyre palomydes brother to Safere the good and noble Knyghte / And Syre Segwarydes and I we be Sarafyns borne of fader and moder /

¶ Syre said sire Dynadan I thanke you moche / for the tellyng of your name / For I am gladde of that I knowe your name / & I promyse you by the feyth of my body ye shalle not be hurte by me by my will / but rather be auanced / And therto wille I helpe yow with all my power I promyse you / doubte ye not / And certaynly on my lyf ye shalle wynne grete worship in the Courte of Kyng Arthur / And be ryght welcome / Soo thenne they dresid on their helmes / & putte on their sheldes / & mounted vpon their horses / and toke the brode way toward Camelot / And thenne were they ware 5 of a castel / that was fayre and ryche / and also passyng strong as any was with in this reame

¶ Capitulum xviij

SYr Palomydes said Dynadan here is a Castell that I knowe wel / and therin duelleth Quene Morgan le fay Kyng Arthurs syster / And kyng Arthur gafe her this 10 Castel / the whiche he hath repented hym sythen a thoufand tymes / for sythen kyng Arthur and she haue ben at debate and stryfe / but this castel coude he neuer gete nor wynne of her by no maner of engyne / And euer as she myght she made werre on kyng Arthur / And alle daungerous knyghtes she with-15 holdeth with her for to destroye alle these knyghtes that Kyng Arthur loueth / And there shalle noo Knyghte passe this way but he muste Iuste with one knyght or with two or with thre And yf it happe that Kyng Arthurs knyght be beten / he shal lese his hors and his harneis / and alle that he hath / and hard 20 yf that he escape / but that he shalle be pryfoner / ¶ Soo god me helpe said Palomydes this is a shameful cus-tomme and a vylaynous vfaunce for a Quene to vse / And namely to make fuche werre vpon her owne lord / that is called the floure of chyualry that is Crysten or hethen / and with 25 alle my hert I wold destroye that shameful customme / And I wille that alle the world wete she shalle haue no seruyse of me / And yf she fende oute ony knyghtes / as I suppose she wil for to Iuste they shalle haue bothe their handes ful /

And I shalle not sayle you said sir Dynadan vnto my pu-30 yffaunce vpon my lyf / Soo as they stode on horsbak afore the Castel / there came a Knyght with a reed sheld and ij squyers after hym / And he came streyght vnto syre Palomydes the good Knyghte / and sayd to hym / Fayre and gentyl Knygt erraunt I requyre the for the loue thou owest vnto knyghthode that ye wille not haue adone here with theſe men of thys Caſ-tell / for this was ſire Lamorack that thus ſaid / For I came hydder to ſeke this dede / and hit is my requeſt / And therfor I biſeche you knyght lete me dele / and yf I be beten / reuenge 5 me / In the name of god ſaid Palomydes / lete ſee how ye wil ſpede / and we ſhalbe behold you / ¶ Thenne anone came forth a knyght of the Caſtel and profered to Iuſte with the knyghte with the reed ſheld / Anone they encountred to gyders / and he with the reed ſhelde ſmote hym ſoo hard that he bare hym ouer 10 to the erthe / There with anone came another Knyght of the caſtel / and he was ſmyten ſo fore that he auoyded his ſadel / And forth with alle came the thyrd knyghte / and the knyght with the reed ſhelde ſmote hym to the erthe / Thenne came ſir Palo-mydes and beſought hym that he myght helpe hym to Iuſte 15 Faire knyght ſaid he vnto hym ſuffre me as at this tyme to haue my wylle / For and they were twenty knyghtes I ſhalbe not doubtbe them / And euer there were vpon the wallys of the caſtel many lordes and ladyes that cryed and ſaid wel haue ye Iuſted knyght with the reed ſhelde / ¶ But as ſoone as the 20 Knyght had ſmyten hem doune / his ſquier toke their horſes / & auoyded their ſadels and brydels of the horſes / and tourned them in to the foreſt / and made the knyghtes to be kepte to the ende of the Iuſtes / Ryght ſoo came oute of the caſtel the fourth Knyght / and freſhly proferd to Iuſte with the knyghte with 25 the reed ſhelde / and he was redy / and he ſmote hym ſoo hard / that hors and man felle to the erthe / & the knyghtes bak brak with the falle and his neck alſo / O Iheſu ſaid ſir Palomydes that yonder is a paſſyng good knyght / and the beſt Iuſtar that euer I ſawe / By my hede ſaid ſir Dynadan he is as good as 30 euer was ſir launcelot or ſir Triftram what knyghte ſomeuer he be /

¶ Capitulum xviij.

THenne forth with alle came a knyght oute of the caſtel with a ſhelde bended with blak and with whyte / ¶ And anone the knyghte with the reede ſhelde and 35

And he encountred soo hard / that he smote the Knyght of the Castel thorou the bented shelde and thurgh the body / and brake the hors bak / Faire Knyghte said fyr Palomydes ye haue ouer moche on hand / therfor I praye you lete me luste / for ye 5 had nede to be repofed / Whyr fir said the knyght / seme ye that I am weyke and feble / and fir me thynketh ye profer me wrong and to me shame whan I doo wel ynough / I telle yow now as I told you erst / for and they were twenty knyghtes I shal bete them / And yf I be beten or slayne thenne may ye reuen-10 ge me / And yf ye thynke that I be very / and ye haue an appetyte to luste with me / I shalle fynde you Iustynge ynough / Syr said Palomydes I said it not by cause I wold luste with you / but me semeth that ye haue ouer moche on hand / & ther-for and ye were gentyl said the Knyght with the reed sheld 15 ye shold not profer me shame / therfor I requyre you to luste with me / and ye shalle fynde that I am not wery / Syth ye re-quyre me said fir palomydes / take kepe to your self / ¶ Thenne they two Knyghtes came to gyders as fast as their horses my-ght renne / and the Knyght smote fir Palomydes so fore on the 20 shelde that the spere wente in to his fyde a grete wounde and a perillous / And there with alle fir Palomydes auoyded his fadel / And that Knyght torned vnto fir Dynadan / And when he sawe hym comynge / he cryed a loude and said / fyr I wyll not haue ado with you / but for that he lete it not / but cam stre-25 yghte vpon hym / Soo fire Dynadan for shame put forthe hys spere and alle to sheurd hit vpon the Knyght / But he smote fyr Dynadan ageyne soo hard that he smote hym clene from his fadel / but their horses he wold not suffre his squyers to medle with / and by cause they were knyghtes erraunt / Thenne he 30 dresfid hym ageyne to the castel and Iusted with feuen kny-ghtes moo / and there was none of hem myght withstande hym / but bare hym to the erthe / And of these twelue Knyghtes he slewe in playne Iustes four / And the eyght knyghtes he made them to swere on the croffe of a suerd / that they shold neuer 35 vse the euylle custommes of the castel / And whan he had made them to swere that othe / he lete them passe / And euer stode the lordes and the ladyes on the Castel walles cryeng and fa-yenge / knyghte with the reed shelde ye haue merueyllously wel done as euer we sawe Knyght doo / And therewith came a knyght oute of the Castel vnarmed and said / Knyghte with the reed sheld ouer moche dammage hast thou done to vs this day / therfor retorne whyther thou wilt / for here ar no moo wille haue adoo with the / for we repente fore that euer thou 5 camest here / for by the is fordone the old customme of this castel / And with that word he tourned ageyne in to the Castel / and shytte the yates / Thenne the Knyght with the reede sheld torned and called his squyers / and so past forth on his waye and rode a grete paas / And whanne he was past sire Palomy- 10 des wente to sir Dynadan and said I had neuer siche a shame of one Knyght that euer I met / And therefore I caste me to ryde after hym / and to be reuenged with my swerd / for on horsbak I deme I shalle gete no worship of hym / Syre Palomydes said Dynadan ye shalle not medle with hym by my co- 15 unceil for ye shal gete no worship of hym / and for this cause / ye haue fene hym this day haue had ouer moche to done & ouer moche trauailed / By almyȝty Ihesu said Palomydes I shall neuer be at ease tyl that I haue had adoo with hym / Syr fa- 20 id Dynadan I shalle gyue you my beholdyng / wel said Palomydes / thenne shall ye see how we shalle redresse our myghtes Soo they took their horses of their varlets / and rode after the Knyght with the reed shelde / & doune in a valey befyde a fountayne they were ware where he was alyghte to repose hym / and had done of his helme / for to drynke at the welle 25

¶ Capitulum xix

THenne Palomydes rode faste tyl he came nyghe hym / And theñe he said Knyght remembre ye of the shame ye dyd to me ryght now at the Castel / therfore dresse the / for I wille haue adoo with the / Fair knyȝt said he to Palomydes of me ye wyne no worship / for ye haue fene this daye that I 30 haue ben trauailed fore / As for that said Palomydes I wille not lete / for wete ye wel I wil be reuenged / wel said the knyght I may happen to endure you / And there with all he mouted vpon his hors and took a grete spere in his hand redy for to Iuste / Nay said palomydes I wille not Iuste / for I am sure at Iustyng I gete no pryce / Fair knyght said that Knyghte It wold bifeme a knyght to Iuste and to fyghte on horsbak ye shalle see what I wille doo said Palomydes / and therwith 5 he alyghte doune vpon foote / and dresid his shelde afore hym and pulled oute his swerd / Thenne the knyghte with the reed sheld descended doune from his hors / and dresid his sheld afore hym / and soo he drewe oute his fuerd / And thenne they came to gyders a softe paas / and wonderly they lashed to gy-10 ders passyng thyck the moütenaunce of an houre / or euer they brethed / Thenne they tracyd and trauercyd and waxed wonderly wrothe / and eyther behyght other dethe / they hewe so fast with their fuerdes that they cutte in doune half theire swerdes / and mayles that the bare flesshe in some place stode aboute the-15 yr harnais / ¶ And whan sir Palomydes beheld his felawes swerd ouer hyllid with his blood / hit greued hym fore / some whyle they fayned / some whyle they strake as wyld men / But at the last sir Palomydes waxed saynte by cause of his first wounde that he had atte castel with a spere / for that wo-20 und greued hym wonderly fore / Faire knyght said Palomydes me semeth we haue assayed eyther other passyng fore / and yf hit may please the / I requyre the of thy knyghthode telle me thy name / Sir said the knyzt to Palomydes / that is me loth to doo / for thou hast done me wronge / and no knyghthode to pro-25 fer me bataille / confyderynge my grete trauaylle / ¶ But and thou wolt telle me thy name / I wille telle the myn / Syr said he wete thou wel my name is palomydes / A fyr ye shall vnderstande my name is sir Lamorak de galys / sone and hcyre vnto the good knyghte and kyng / kyng Pellenore / and fyr Tor 30 the good knyght is my half broder / Whanne sire Palomydes herd hym faye soo he kneled doune and asked mercy for oul-traguously haue I done to you this daye / confyderyng the grete dedes of armes I haue sene you done / shamefully and vnknyghtely I haue requyred you to doo bataille / A fyre Palo-35 mydes said sir Lamorak / ouer moche haue ye done and sayd to me / And ther with he embraced hym with his both handes / and said Palomydes the worthy knyght in alle this land is noo better than ye nor more of prowesse / and me repentyd fore that we shold fyghte to gyders / So it doth not me faid fir Palomydes / and yet am I forer wounded than ye ben / ¶ But as for that I shalle soone therof be hole / But certaynly I wold not for the fayrest castel in this land / but yf thou and I had met for I shalle loue you the dayes of my lyfe afore al other knyghtes excepte my broder fir Safere / I saye the fame faid fyre Lamorak excepte my broder fir Tor / Thenne came fyre Dynadan / and he made grete ioye of fir Lamorak / ¶ Thenne their fquyers dreffid bothe their sheldes and their harneis / and stopped their woundes / And there by at a pryory they rested them alle nyghte /

Now torne we ageyne / whan fyre Gaynys and fir brandyles with his felawes came to the Courte of kyng Arthur / they told the kyng / syr Launcelot and fir Triftram / how fyre Dagonet the foole chaced Kyng Marke thurgh the foreft / and how the stronge knyght smote them doune al feuen with one spere / There was grete laughynge and Iapyngge atte Kyng Marke and at fyre Dagonet / But all these knyghtes coude not telle what knyght it was that rescowed kyng mark / Thenne they asked kyng Marke yf that he knewe hym / and he answered and faid / he named hym self the Knyght that followed the questynge beest / and on that name he sente one of my varlets to a place where was his moder / and when she herd from whens he cam / she made passyng grete dole and discouerd to my varlet his name and faid / O my dere sone fyre Palomydes why wolt thou not see me / and therfor syr faid kyng mark it is to vnderstande his name is fir Palomydes a noble knyght / Thienne were alle these feuen knyghtes gladde that they knewe his name / ¶ Now torne we ageyne / for on the morne they toke their horses bothe fir Lamorak / Palomydes Dynadan with their fquyers and varlets tyl they fawe a fayre castel / that stood on a montayne wel closed / and thyder they rode and there they fond a knyght that hyght Galahalt that was lord of that castel / and there they had grete chere and were wel eafed / Syr Dynadan faid fyre Lamorak what wil ye doo fir said Dynadan / I wyll to morowe to the courte of kynge Arthur / ¶ By my hede said fir Palomydes I wille not ryde these thre dayes / for I am fore hurte / and moche haue I bled And therfor I wille repofe me here / Truly said fir Lamorak / 5 and I wille abyde here with you / And whan ye ryde / thenne wille I ryde / onles that ye tary ouer longe / Thenne wyll I take myn hors / therfor I pray you fyr Dynadan abyde and ry-de with vs / Feythfully said Dynadan I wyll not abyde for I haue fuche a talent to see fir Triftram that I may not abyde 10 longe from hym // A Dynadan said fyre Palomydes now do I vnderfande / that ye loue my mortal enemy / and therefore how shold I trust yow / wel said Dynadan I loue my lord fyre Triftram aboue all other / and hym wille I ferue and do ho-noure / So shalle I said fyre Lamorak in al that may lye in 15 my power / Soo on the morne fir Dynadan rode vnto the court of kynge Arthur / And by the way as he rode he fawe where ftoode an erraunt Knyght / and made hym redy for to Iuste / Not foo said Dynadan for I haue no wyll to Iuste / with me shalle ye Iuste said the knyght or that ye paffe this waye / 20 Whether afke ye Iustes by loue or by hate / The knyght anfuere wete ye wel / I afke hit for loue & and not for hate / hit maye wel be foo said fyre Dynadan / but ye profer me hard loue / whan ye wyll Iuste with me with a fharpe fpere / But fayre knyghte fayd fyre Dynadan fythe ye wyll Iuste with me / mete wyth 25 me in the Courte of Kynge Arthur / and there shalle I Iuste with you / Wel said the Knyght fythe ye wille not Iuste with me I pray yow telle me your name / ¶ Syr kny-ght said he my name is fyre Dynadan / A said the Knyghte / ful wel knowe I you for a good knyghte and a gentyl / and 30 wete yow wel I loue you hertely / ¶ Thenne shalle here be no Iustes fayd Dynadan betwixe vs / Soo they departed / And the fame day he came to Camelot where lay Kynge Arthur / And there he falewed the Kynge and the queene / fyre Launcelot and fyre Triftram / and alle the Courte was gladde of fir 35 Dynadan / for he was gentyl wyfe and curteys / and a good Knyghte / And in efpecial the valyaunt Knyght fir Triftram loued fyre Dynadan paffyng wel aboue alle other knyghtes fauf fir launcelot ¶ Thenne the kynge asked fyr Dynadan what aduentures he had fene / Sire faid Dyna-dan I haue fene many aduentures / and of fomme kyng mark knoweth / but not alle / Thenne the Kyng herkened fyr Dyna-nadan how he told that fir Palomydes and he were afore the caſtel of Morgan le fay / and how fyr Lamorak toke the Iuſ- 5 tes afore them / and how he foriufte twelue Knyghtes / and of them four he ſlewe / And how after he ſmote doune fir Palo-mydes and me bothe / I may not byleue that ſayd the kyng For fir Palomydes is a paſſyng good knyghte / that is very trouthe ſaid fir Dynadan / but yet I ſawe hym better preued 10 hand for hand / And thenne he told the kyng alle that batail And how fir Palomydes was more weyker and more hurte / and more loſt of his blood / And withoute doubte ſayd fir dynadan had the bataille lenger laſted / palomydes had be ſlayn O Iheſu faid Kyng Arthur this is to me a grete merueylle 15 Syr faid Triftram merueylle ye no thyng theſe / for at myn aduys / there is not a valyaunter knyghte in the world lyuynge / for I knowe his myght / And now I wille ſaye yow I was neuer ſoo wery of knyghte but yf it were fir launcelot And there is no knyghte in the world excepte fyr Launcelot 20 I wold dyd ſoo wel as fir Lamorak / Soo god me help ſaid the kyng I wold that knyght fyre Lamorak came to thys Courte / fyr faid Dynadan he wille be here in ſhorte ſpace / and fyr Palomydes bothe / but I fere that Palomydes may not yet trauallye

¶ Capitulum xxi /

THenne within thre dayes after the kyng lete make a Iuſtyng at a pryory / And there made hem redy many Knyghtes of the round table / For fyr Gawayne and his bretherē made them redy to Iuſte / But Triftram / Laūcelot nor Dynadan wold not Iuſte / but ſuffred fir Gawayne for 30 the loue of kyng Arthur with his bretheren to wyne the gree yf they myght / Thenne on the morne they apparayled them to Iuſte fyr Gawayne and his four bretheren / and dyd there grete dedes of armes / and fir Ector de marys dyd merueyllouſly wel / But fyre Gawayne paſſed alle that ſelaufhip / wherfore 35

[leaf 224]

kyng Arthur and alle the knyghtes gafre Gawayne the honour at the begynnyng / ¶ Ryght soo kynge Arthur was ware of a knyght and two squyers / the whiche came oute of a forest fyde with a sheld couerd with leder / And thenne he 5 came flyly and hurtlyd here and there / And anone with one spere he had smyten doune two knyghtes of the round table Thenne with this hurtlyng he lost the keuerynge of his sheld thenne was the kynge and alle other ware that he bare a reed shelde / O Ihesu faide Kyng Arthur see where rydeth a stoute 10 Knyghte he with the reed shelde / And there was noyse & cry-enge Beware the knyght with the reed shelde / Soo within a lytel whyle he had ouerthrowen thre bretheren of sire Gawayys / Soo god me help said Kyng Arthur me semeth yonder is the best Iuster that euer I sawe / with that he sawe hym en-15 countre with sire Gawayne / and he smote hym doune with soo grete force that he made his hors to auoyde the fadel / ¶ How now said the Kyng sire Gawayne hath a falle / wel were me / and I knewe what knyght he were with the reed shelde / I knowe hym wel said Dynadan / but as at this tyme ye shalle not 20 knowe his name / By my hede said syr Tristram he Iusted better than sir Palomydes / And yf ye lyst to knowe his name / wete ye wel his name is sir Lamorak de galys / As they stode thus talkyng / sire Gawayne and he encountred to gyders ageyne / And there he smote sir Gawayne from his hors / and 25 bryfed hym fore / And in the syghte of Kyng Arthur he smote doune twenty knyghtes befyde sire Gawayne and his bretheren / And soo clerely was the pryce yeuen hym as a knyght pyerles / Thenne flyly and merueyllously syr Lamorak withdrew hym from alle the selsauship in to the forest fyde / Al this 30 aspyed Kyng Arthur / for his eye wente neuer from hym / ¶ Thenne the Kyng syr Launcelot syr Tristram and syr dynadan took theire hackneis / and rode streyght after the good knyght syr Lamorak de galys / And there fond hym / And thus said the kyng / A fayr knyght wel be ye fonde / Whanne 35 he sawe the kynge / he put of his helme and sawed hym / and whanne he sawe sir Tristram / he alyghte down of his hors and ranne to hym to take hym by the thyes / but sir Tristram wold not suffre hym / but he alyghte or that he came / and eyder took other in armes / and made grete ioye of other / The kyng was gladde / and also was alle the selauship of the round table / excepte fire Gawayne and his bretheren / And whanne they wyft that he was fyre Lamorak / they had grete despyte at hym 5 and were wonderly wrothe with hym / that he had putte hym to dishonour that day / Thenne Gawayn called pryuely in cou-ceille alle his bretheren / and to them said thus / Faire bretheren here may ye see whome that we hate / kyng Arthur loueth And whome that we loue he hateth / ¶ And wete ye wel my 10 fayr bretheren / that this sir Lamorak wille neuer loue vs / by cause we slewe his fader Kyng Pellenore / for we demed that he slewe our fader Kyng of Orkeney / And for the despyte of Pellenore fyr Lamorak dyd vs a shame to oure moder / therfore I wille be reuenged / Syr said sir Gawayns bretheren / 15 lete see how ye wylle or maye be reuenged / and ye shalle synde vs redy / Wel said Gawayne hold you styll and we shalle aspye oure tyme /

¶ Capitulum xxi

Now passe we oure matere / and leue we sire Gawayn and speke of Kyng Arthur that on a day sayd vn- 20 to Kyng Marke / Syr I pray yow gyue me a yeste that I shall axe yow / Syr said Kyng Mark I will gyue you what someuer ye desyre and hit be in my power / Syre gramercy faid Arthur / This I wille aske yow that ye wille be good lord vnto sir Tristram / for he is a man of grete honour / and that 25 ye wille take hym with yow in to Cornewaile / & lete hym see his frendes / and there cherysshe hym for my sake / Syre said Kyng Marke I promyse yow by the feythe of my body and by the feythe that I owe to god and to yow I shalle worshippe hym for your sake in alle that I can or may / Syr said 30 Arthur / and I wylle forgyue yow alle the euylle wylle that euer I oughte yow / and so be that ye fwere vpon a book afore me / with a good wille said Kyng Marke / and soo he there sware vpon a boook afore hym and alle his knyghtes / & ther with kyng Mark and sire Tristram toke eyther other by 35 the handes hard knyght to gyders / But for alle this kynges marke thought falsly / as it preued after / for he put sir Tristram in pryson / and cowardly wold haue slayne hym / Thenne fo-5 one after kynges Marke took his leue to ryde in to Cornewayl / and sir Tristram made hym redy to ryde with hym / wherof the moost party of the round table were wrothe and heuy / & in especial sir launcelot and sire Lamorak and sir Dynadan were wrothe oute of mesure / For wel they wyft kyng Marke wold flee or destroye sir Tristram / Allas said Dynadan that 10 my lord fyr Tristram shalle departe / and sir Tristram toke suche forowe that he was amafyd lyke a foole / ¶ Allas said sir Launcelot vnto kynges Arthur what haue ye done / for ye shall lese the moost man of worship that euer cam in to your court It was his owne desyre said Arthur / and therefore I myghte 15 not doo with alle / for I haue done alle that I can and made them at accord / Accord said sir launcelot fy vpon that accord For ye shalle here that he shalle flee sir Tristram / or put hym in a pryson / for he is the moost coward and the vylaynst kyng and knyght that is now lyuyng / And there with sire Laun-20 celot departed / and cam to kynges Mark / and said to hym thus Syr kyng wete thou wel the good knyght sir Tristram shalle goo with the / Beware I rede the of treason / for and thou me-fchyeue that knyght by ony maner of falshede or trefon by the feythe I owe to god and to the ordre of knyghthode I shall 25 flee the myn owne handes / Syr launcelot said the kyng ouer moche haue ye said to me / and I haue sworne and said ouer largely afore kynges Arthur in herynge of alle his knyghtes / that I shal not sle nor bitraye hym / It were to me ouer moche shame to breke my promyse / ye faye wel said sir Launcelot 30 but ye are called so fals and ful of treason that no man man byleue yow ¶ For soth it is knowen wel wherfor ye came in to this countrey / and for none other cause but to flee sir trif-tram / Soo with grete dole Kynges Marke and sir Tristram rode to gyders / for hit was by sir Tristrams wil and his mea-35 nes to goo with kyng Marke and all was for the entente to see la Beale Ifoud / for without the fyghte of her fyr Tristrā myght not endure

¶ Capitulum xxiiij

Now torne we ageyne vnto sire Lamorak / and speke we of his bretheren / fyr Tor whiche was kyng Pellenors fyrst sone and bygoten of Aryes wyf the couherd for he was a bastard and sire Aglouale was his fyrste sone begoten in wedlok / fyre Lamorak / Dornar / Percyuale / these 5 were his fones to in wedlok / ¶ Soo whanne kyng Marke and sire Triftram were departed from the Courte / there was made grete dole and forowe for the departyng of sir Triftram Thenne the kyng and his knyghtes made no manere of Ioyes eyghte dayes after / And atte eyghte dayes ende ther cam 10 to the courte a knyght with a yonge squyer with hym / And whanne this knyghte was vnarmed / he went to the kynge and requyred hym to make the yonge squyer a knyghte / Of what lygnage is he come said Kyng Arthur / Syre sayd the knyght he is the sone of kyng Pellenore that dyd you fom- 15 tyme good feruyse / And he is broder vnto fyr Lamorak de galys the good knyghte / wel sayd the kyng for what cause de-fyre ye that of me that I shold make hym knyghte / wete you wel my lord the Kyng that this yonge squyer is broder to me as wel as to sir Lamorak / and my name is Aglauale 20 Syre Aglouale sayd Arthur for the loue of sire Lamorak and for his faders loue he shalle be made knyghte to morowe / ¶ Now telle me said Arthur what is his name / Syre sayd the Knyght his name is Percyuale de Galys / Soo on the morne the kyng made hym knyght in Camelott/ 25 But the Kyng and alle the knyghtes thoughte hit wold be longe or that he preued a good knyghte ¶ Thenne at the dyner whanne the Kyng was set at the table / and euery kn-yzt after he was of prowesse / the kyng commaunded hym to be fette amonge meane Knyghtes / and soo was sire Percyuale 30 fette as the Kyng commaunded / Thenne was there a mayden in the Quenes court that was come of hyhe blood / & she was domme & neuer spak word / Ryght so she cam streyght in to the halle / & went vnto sir Percyuale & toke hym by þe hād & said a-lowde that the kyng and all the knyghtes myght here hit / A-ryfe fyr Percyuale the noble Knyght and goddes knyght and go with me / and foo he dyd / And there she broughte hym to the ryght fyde of the fege perillous / And said Fair knyghte 5 take here thy fege / for that fege apperteyneth to the and to none other / Ryght foo she departed and asked a preste / And as she was confessed and housfeld thenne she dyed / Thenne the kyng and alle the courte made grete ioye of fyr Percyuale

¶ Capitulum xxiiij

10 Now torne we vnto fir Lamorak that moche was there preyfed / Thenne by the meane of fir Gawayn and his bretheren / they sente for her moder there befydes fast by a Castel befyde Camelot / and alle was to that entente to flee fir Lamorak / The Quene of Orkeney was there but a whyle but fir Lamorak wyft of their beyng / and was ful fayne / & 15 for to make an ende of this matere he sente vnto her / and ther betwixe them was a nyght assygned that fir Lamorak shold come to her / Therof was ware fyre Gaherys / and there he rode afore the same nyght and waited vpon fire Lamorak / and thē-ne he sawe where he came all armed / and where fire Lamorak 20 alyghte / he teyed his hors to a preuy posterne / and so he wēt in to a palour and vnarmed hym / And thenne he wente vnto the Quenes bedde / and she made of hym passyngre grete ioye and he of her ageyne / for cyther loued other passyngre fore /

¶ Soo whan the Knyght fyr Gaherys / sawe his tyme / he cam 25 to their beddes fyde alle armed with his swerd naked / and fo-denly gat his moder by the here and strake of her hede / whanne fir Lamorak sawe the blood daffhe vpon hym all hote / the whiche he loued passyngre wel / wete yow wel he was fore abashed and defmayed of that dolorous knyght / And there with al fir 30 Lamorak lepte out of the bedde in his sherte as a knyght defmayed fayenge thus A fyre Gaherys knyght of the table round foule and euylle haue ye done and to yow grete shame Allas why haue ye slayn your moder that bare you with more ryght ye shold haue slayne me / ¶ The offence hast thou done sayd Gaherys not withstandynge a man is borne to offre his seruyse / but yet sholdest thou beware with whome thou meddest / for thou hast putte me and my bretheren to a shame / and thy fader flewe our fader / and thou to lye by our moder is to moche shame for vs to suffre / And as for thy fader kyng Pel- 5 lenore my broder sir Gawayne and I flewe hym / ye dyd hym the more wronge said sire Lamorak / For my fader flewe not your fader / it was Balyn le faueage / and as yet my faders dethe is not reuenged / leue tho wordes said sir Gaherys / For and thou speke felonly I wil flee the / But by cause thou 10 arte naked I am ashamed to flee the / but wete thou wel / in what place I may gete the / I shalle flee the / and now my moder is quyte of the / and withdrawe the / and take thyn armour that thou were gone / Syre Lamorak sawe there was none other bote but fast armed hym and took his hors and rode his 15 way makynge grete sorowe / But for the shame and doloure he wold not ryde to kyng Arthurs Courte / but rode another waye / But whan hit was knowen that Gaherys had slayne his moder / the kyng was passynge wrothe and commaunded hym to goo oute of his courte / wete ye wel sire Gawayn was 20 wrothe that Gaherys had slayne his moder / and lete sire La-morak escape / And for this matere was the kyng passynge wrothe and foo was sir Lamorak and many other knyghtes Syr said sir Launcelot here is a grete meschyef befallen by felony / and by fore cast treason that your syster is thus shame- 25 fully slayne / And I dare saye that it was wrougte by trefon And I dare saye ye shalle lese that good Knyghte sir Lamorak the whiche is grete pyte / I wote wel and am sure and sir Tristram wyfte hit / he wold neuer more come within your courte / the whiche shold greue yow moche more and alle youre 30 knyghtes / God defende said the noble Kyng Arthur that I shold lese sire Lamorak or sir Tristram / for thenne tweyne of my chyfe knyghtes of the table round were gone / Syre saide sire Launcelot I am sure ye shalle lese sir Lamorak for sir Ga-wayne and his bretheren wille sle hym / by one meane or oth- 35 er / for they amonge them haue concluded and sworne to flee hym and euer they may see their tyme / That shalle I lette sayd Arthur

¶ Capitulum xrv

Now leue we of fire Lamorak / and speke of fire Gawayns bretheren & specially of fyr Agraauayne and fyre Mordred as they rode on theire aduentures they mette with a Knyghte fleyng fore wounded / and they asked hym 5 what tydynges / Faire Knyghtes said he here cometh a knyght after me that wylle flee me / With that came fire Dynadan rydyng to them by aduenture / but he wold promyse them no help But fir Agraauayne and fire Mordred promysed hym to rescowe hym / There with alle came that knyght freyght vnto them 10 And anone he proferd to Iuste / That sawe fyre Mordred and rode to hym but he strake Mordred ouer his hors taylor

¶ That sawe fire Agraauayn and freyghte he rode toward that knyght / And ryghte soo as he ferued Mordred soo he ferued Agraauayne / and said to them / Syrs wete ye wel bothe that I 15 am Breuse faunce pyte that hath done this to yow / And yet he rode ouer Agraauayne fyue or fyxe tymes /

¶ Whan Dynadan sawe this / he muste nedes Iuste with hym for shame / And so Dynadan and he encountred to gyders / that with pure strengthe fir Dynadan smote hym ouer his hors taylor 20 yle / Thenne he took his hors and fledde / for he was on foot one of the valyauntest knyghtes in Arthurs dayes / and a grete destroyer of alle good knyghtes / Thenne rode fir Dynadan vnto fir Mordred and vnto fir Agraauayne / Syre knyght said they alle wel haue ye done / and wel haue ye reuenged vs / wherfor 25 we praye yow telle vs youre name / Faire firs ye ouzte to knowe my name the whiche is called fire Dynadan / Whanne they vnderstood that it was Dynadan / they were more wroth than they were before / for they hated hym oute of mesure by cause of fir Lamorak / For Dynadan had fuche a custome that he loued 30 alle good Knyghtes that were valyaunt / and he hated al tho that were destroyers of good knyghtes / And there were none that hated Dynadan but tho that euer were called murtherers Thenne spack the hurt knyght that Breuse faunce pyte hadde chaced / his name was Dalan / and said yf thou be Dynadan / 35 thou slewest my fader / Hit may wel be so said Dynadan / but thenne it was in my defence and at his request / By my hede said Dalan thou shalt dye therfore / and there with he dresfid his spere and his shelde / And to make the shorter tale fyre Dynadan fmote hym doune of his hors that his neck was ny; broken / And in the same wyfe he fmote fyre Mordred and fir Agrauayne / And after in the quest of the Sancgreal cowardly and felloynsly they slewe Dynadan / the whiche was grete 5 dammage / for he was a grete bourder and a passyng good knyght ¶ And foo fyre Dynadan rode to a Castel that hyght Beale valet / And there he fonde fyre Palo-mydes that was not yet hole of the wound that fyr Lamorak gaf hym / And there Dynadan told Palomydes all the tydyn- 10 ges that he herd and sawe of fyre Tristram / and how he was gone with kynge Marke / and with hym he hath alle his wyll and defyre / There with fyre Palomydes waxed wrothe / for he loued la Beale Ifoud / And thenne he wyfte wel that fyre Tristram enioyed her 15

¶ Capitulum xxvi

Now leue we fyre Palomydes and fyre Dynadan in the castel of Beale valet / and torne we ageyne vnto kynge Arthur / There came a Knyght oute of Cornewail his name was Fergus / a felawe of the round table / And ther he told the Kynge and fir Launcelot good tydynges of 20 fir Tristram / and there were brought goodly letters / and how he lefte hym in the castel of Tyntagil ¶ Thenne came the damoyfel that broughte goodly letters vnto kynge Arthur and vnto fyre launcelot / and there she hadde passyng good chere of the Kynge and of the Quene Guene- 25 uer and of fyre Launcelot / ¶ Thenne they wrote goodly letters ageyne / But fyre Laūcelot badde euer fyre Tristram beware of kynge Marke / for euer he called hym in his letters Kynge Foxe / As who faith / he fareth alle with wyles and treason / wherof fyre Tristram in his herte thanked fyre Laū- 30 celot

¶ Thenne the Damoyfel went vnto la Beale Ifoud and bare her letters from the Kynge and from fyre Launcelot / wherof she was in passyng grete Ioye ¶ Faire damoyfel said la Beale Ifoud / how fareth my Lord Arthur and the Quene Gweneuer / and the noble knyzt fyr Launcelot / she anfuerd and to make short tale / moche the better that ye and sire Tristram ben in Ioye / God rewarde them said la beale Ifoud / for sir Tristram suffereth 5 grete payne for me and I for hym / So the damoyfel departed and broughte letters to Kyng Marke / And whanne he had redde them / and vnderstood them / he was wrothe with sir Trif-tram / for he demed he had sente the damoyfel vnto Kyng Arthur / For Arthur and Launcelot in a maner threted kyng 10 mark / And as Kyng mark redde these letters / he demed treson by fyr Tristram / Damoyfel said Kynges marke / wille ye ryde ageyne and bere letters from me vnto Kynges Arthur / sir she said I wille be at your commaundement to ryde whan ye wille / ye faye wel said the Kyng / come ageyne said the Kyng 15 to morne / and fetch your letters / Thenne she departed / & told them how she shold ryde ageyne with letters vnto Arthur Thenne we praye you said la beale Ifoud and sir Tristram that whanne ye haue receyued your letters / that ye wold come by vs that we may see the pryete of your letters / Al that 20 I may doo madame ye wote wel I must doo for sir Tristram for I haue ben longe his owne mayden / Soo on the morne the damoyfel went to kynges marke to haue had his letters and to departe / I am not auyfed said kynges marke as at this tyme to fende my letters / Thenne pryuely and secretly he sent let-25 ters vnto kynges Arthur and vnto Quene Queneuer / and vnto sir launcelot / So the varlet departed / and fond the Kyng and the Quene in wals at Carlyon / And as the kyng and the Quene were at masse the varlet came with the letters / And whanne masse was done the kyng and the Quene ope-30 ned the letters pryuely by them self / And the begynnyng of the kynges letters spak wonderly short vnto Kynges Arthur / and badde hym entermete with hym self and with his wyf / & of his knyghtes / For he was able ynough to rule and kepe his wyf

¶ Capitulum xviij

WHanne kyng Arthur vnderstood the letter / he musyd of many thynges / & thouȝt on his syfters wordes que-ne Morgan le fay that she had sayd betwixe quene gue-neuer and sir Launcelot / And in this thoughte he studyed a grete whyle / Thenne he bethought hym ageyne how his syfter 5 was his owne enemy / and that she hated the Quene and sir launcelot / and soo he putte all that oute of his thoughte ¶ Thenne Kyng Arthur redde the letter ageyne / and the latter claufe said that Kyng Marke tooke fire Tristram for his mortal enemy / wherfor he put Arthur oute of doubte he wold 10 be reuengyd of sir Tristram / Thenne was kyng Arthur wroth with kyng Marke / And whanne quene Gueneuer redde her letter and vnderstood hit / she was wrothe oute of mesure / for the letter spak shame by her / and by sir launcelot / And soo pryuely she sente the letter vnto sir Launcelot / And whanne 15 he wyfte the entent of the letter / he was soo wrothe that he le-yd hym doune on his bedde to slepe / wherof sir Dynadan was ware / for hit was his maner to be preuy with alle good kny-ghtes / And as sire launcelot slepte he stole the letter oute of his hand and red it word by word / And thenne he made gre- 20 te forow for anger / and soo sir Launcelot awaked / and went to a wyndowe / and redde the letter ageyne / the whiche maade hym angry / Syre said Dynadan wherfore be ye angry / discouer your hert to me / For sothe ye wote wel I owe yow good wylle / how be hit I am a poure knyght and a seruytour vnto 25 yow and to alle good knyghtes / For though I be not of worship my self I loue alle tho that ben of worship / It is trouth said sir Launcelot / ye are a trusty knyght / and for grete trust I wille shewe yow my counceylle / And whan Dynadan vn-derstood alle / he said this is my counceyl / Sette you ryght no- 30 ught by these thretys / For kyng Marke is soo vylaynous / that by fayre speche shalle neuer man gete of hym / ¶ But ye shalle see what I shalle doo / I wille make a lay for hym / & whan hit is made I shalle make an harper to synge hit afore hym / Soo anone he wente and made hit / and taughte hit an 35 harper that hyght Elyot / And whanne he coude hit / he taught hit to many harpers

¶ And soo by the wyлле of sire Launcelot and of Arthur the harpers went streyghte in to walys / and in to Cornewaile to fynge the laye that sire Dynadan made kynge Marke / the whiche was the werste lay that euer harper fange with harp or with any other Instrumētys

¶ Capitulum xxviii

5 Now torne we ageyne vnto sire Triftram and to Kyng Marke / As fyr Triftram was at Iustes and att turnement / hit fortunēd he was fore hurte bothe with a spere and with a fwerd / but yet he wanne alweyes the degre And for to repose hym / he wente to a good knyght that duelled in Cornewaile in a Castel whos name was Syr Dynas 10 le Seneschall / Thenne by myffortune there came oute of Seffoyne a grete nombre of men of armes / and an hydous hooft / & they entred nyghe the castel of Tyntagyl / and her Capytayns name was Elyas a good man of armes / Whan Kyng Mark 15 vnderstode his enemyes were entred in to his land / he maade grete dole and sorow / for in no wyse by his wille kyng Mark wold not fende for sir Triftram for he hated hym dedely / Soo whan his counceill was come / they deuysed and cast many perylls of the strengthe of her enemyes / And thenne they concluded all at ones and said thus vnto kynge Marke / Syr wete ye wel ye must fende for sire Triftram the good knyghte or 20 els they wylle neuer be ouercome / For by sire Triftram they must be foughten with alle / or els we rowe ageynst the streame ¶ Wel said Kyng Marke I wille doo by your counceylle / 25 but yet he was ful lothe ther to / but nede constrayned hym to fende for hym / Thenne was he sente for in alle hast that myghte be that he shold come to Kyng Marke / And whanne he vnderstood that Kyng Marke had sente for hym / he mounted vpon a softe ambuler and rode to Kyng Marke / And when 30 he was come / the Kyng said thus / Faire neuwe fyr Triftra this is alle / Here be come oure enemyes of Seffoyne / that are here nyghe hand / and withoute taryenge they must be mette with shortly or els they wylle destroye this countrey / Syr said sir Triftram wete ye wel alle my power is at your commaundement / And wete ye wel fyre / these eyght dayes I may bere none armes for my woundes ben not yet hole / And by that day I shalle doo what I may / ye faye wel said kyng Marke / Thenne goo ye ageyne and repose yow and make yow fresshe And I shalle go and mete the Sessioyns with alle my power Soo the Kyng departed vnto Tyntagyl and fir Triftram went 5 to repose hym / and the Kyng made a grete hooft and departed them in thre / The fyrste parte ledde fyr Dynas the Seneschall and fir Andred ledde the second parte / and fir Arguys ledde the thyrde parte / and he was of the blood of Kyng Mark / and the Sessioyns had thre grete batails / and many good men of 10 armes / And soo Kyng Marke by the aduyse of his Knyghtes yffued oute of the Castel of Tyntagyl vpon his enemyes And Dynas the good knyghte rode oute afore / and fiewe ij Knyghtes his owne handes / and thenne beganne the batayls / And there was merueyllous brekyng of speres and smytyng 15 of fuerdes / and fiewe doune many good knyghtes / And euer was fyr Dynas the Seneschal the best of Kyng Markes party / And thus the bataille endured longe with grete mortalyte But at the last Kyng Mark and fir Dynas were they neuer soo lothe they withdrewen hem to the castel of Tyntagyl / 20 with grete slaughter of peple / And the Sessioyns folowed on fast / that ten of them were put within the gates and four flayne with the porte coloyse / Thenne Kyng Marke sente for fir Triftram by a varlet that told hym alle the mortalyte /

¶ Thenne he sente the varlet ageyne and bad hym telle Kyng 25 Mark that I wille come as soone as I am hole / for erste I maye doo hym noo good / Thenne Kyng Mark hadde his ansuer / There with came Elyas and badde the Kyng yelde vp the castel / for ye maye not hold it no whyle / Sir Elyas said the kyng so wyll I yelde vp the castel yf I be not soone rescou- 30 ued / Anone Kyng Marke sente ageyne for rescowe to fir trif-tram / By thenne fir Triftram was hoole / and he hadde goten hym ten good Knyghtes of Arthurs / And with hem he rode vnto Tyntagyl / And whanne he sawe the grete hooft of Sessioyns he merueylled wonder gretely / And thenne fir Tryfram 35 rode by the woodes and by the dyches as secretely as he myght tyl he came nyghe the gatys / And there dresfid a Knyghte to hym / when he sawe that fir Triftram wold entre & fir triftram fmote hym doune dede / And foo he ferued thre mo / And eue-ryche of theſe ten knyghtes ſlewe a man of armes / Soo fir trif-tram entryd in to the caſtel of Tyntagyl / And whan kyng Marke wyſt that fir Triftram was come he was glad of his 5 comyng / and foo was alle the ſelaushyp / and of hym they made grete Ioye

¶ Capitulum xxix

SOo on the morne Elyas the capytayne came / and bad kyng Marke come oute / and doo bataille / for now the good knyghte fir Triftram is entryd / It wylle be ſhame to 10 the ſayd Elyas for to kepe thy walles / whan kyng Mark vnderſtode this / he was wrothe and ſayd no word / but went vnto fir Triftram and axed hym his counceyl / Sire ſaid fir Trif-tram wylle ye that I gyue hym his anſuer / I wille wel ſayd Kynge Marke / Thenne fir Triftram ſaid thus to the meſſagere 15 Bere thy lord word from the kyng and me / that we wyl do batail with hym to morne in the playne felde / what is your name ſaid the meſſager / wete thou wel / my name is fir Tryſtram de Lyones / There with alle the meſſager departed / and told his lord Elyas alle that he had herd / Syr ſaide ſire Triftram 20 vnto Kynge Marke I praye yow gyue me leue to haue the rule of the bataill / I pray yow take the rule ſaid kyng mark Thenne ſire Triftram lete deuyſe the bataille in what manere that it ſhold be / He lete departe his hooft in ſyxe parties / and ordeyned fir Dynas the Senefchal to haue the fore ward / & 25 other knyghtes to rule the remenaunt / And the ſame nyghte ſyre Triftram brente alle the Seſſoyns ſhyppes vnto the cold water / Anone as Elyas wyſt that he ſaid hit was of fir Triftrams doynge / for he caſteth that we ſhalle neuer eſcape moder-ſone of vs / Therefore ſayre ſelawes ſyghte frely to morowe / & 30 myſcomforte yow noughte for ony knygt though he be the beſt knyght in the world / he maye not haue adoo with vs alle / ¶ Thenne they ordeyned theyr batails in four parties wonderly wel apparailled and garnyſhed with men of armes Thus they within yſſued / and they withoute ſette frely vpon 35 them / and there fir Dynas dyd grete dedes of armes / not for thenne fir Dynas and his felaufhip were put to the werse / With that came fire Tristram and slewe two Knyghtes with one spere / thenne he slewe on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand / that men merueylled that euer he myght do fuche dedes of armes / And thenne he myght see somtyme the bataille was 5 dryuen a bowe draughte from the castel / and somtyme it was at the gates of the Castel / Thenne came Elyas Capytayne raffhyng here and there / and hytte kyng Mark so fore vpon the helme that he made hym to auoyde the fadel / And thenne fir Dynas gate kyng Mark ageyne to horsbak / There with 10 alle came in fir Tristram lyke a lyon / and there he mette with Elyas / and he smote hym so fore vpon the helme that he auoy-ded his fadel / And thus they fought tyl it was nyghte / and for grete flauſter and for wounded peple eueryche party dre-we to their reſte / And whan kyng Marke was come within 15 the caſtel of Tyntagyl / he lacked of his knyghtes an honderd and they withoute lacked two honderd / and they ferched the wounded men on bothe parties / And thenne they wente to counceyl / and wete yow wel eyther party were lothe to fyghte more / ſoo that eyther myght eſcape with their worſhip 20 ¶ Whan Elyas the capytayn vnderſtode the dethe of his men / he made grete dole / And whan he wyſt that they were lothe to goo to bataille ageyne / he was wrothe oute of meſure / Thenne Elyas ſente word vnto Kyng Mark in grete deſpyte whether he wold fynde a Knyght that wold fyghte for hym / body for 25 body / ¶ And yf that he myght flee Kyng Markes knyghte / he to haue the truage of Cornewaile yerely / And yf that this knyght flee hym / I fully relece my clayme for euer Thenne the meſſager departed vnto Kyng Marke and told hym how that his lord Elyas had ſente hym word to fynde a 30 Knyght to doo bataille with hym body for body / whanne kyng Marke vnderſtood the meſſagyer he badde hym abyde / and he ſhold haue his anſuer / Thenne called he alle the Baronage to gyder to wete what was the beſt counceyll / They ſayd all at ones to fyghte in a felde we haue no luſt / for had not ben fyr 35 Tristrams prowefſe / hit had ben lykely that we neuer ſhold haue eſcaped / And therfor fir as we deme / hit were wel done to fynde a knyȝt that wold do batail with hym for he knyȝtly

Ot for thenne whan alle this was said / they coude synde no Knyght that wold doo bataille with hym / Syre kynge said they alle / here is no knyght that dare fyghte wyth 5 Elyas / Allas said kyng Marke thenne am I vtterly ashamed and vtterly destroyed / onles that my neuewe sire Tristram wylle take the bataille vpon hym / wete yow wel they sayd alle he had yesterday ouer moche on hand / and he is wery for trauaille / and fore wounded / where is he said Kyng mark 10 Syr said they he is in his bedde to repose hym / Allas said kyng Marke / but I haue the focoure of my neuewe sire Tristram I am vtterly destroyed for euer / There with one wente to syr Tristram there he lay and told hym what kyng Marke had sayd / And there with sire Tristram aroos lyghtely / and putt 15 on hym a longe gowne / and came afore the Kyng and al the lordes / And whan he sawe hem alle foo defmayed / he asked the Kyng and the lordes what tydynges were with hem / Neuer werfe said the Kyng / And ther with he told hym alle how he had word of Elyas to fynde a knyght to fyghte for the tru-20 age of Cornewail / and none can I fynde / And as for yow said the kyng and alle the lordes we maye aske no more of yow for shame / For thurgh your hardynes yesterday ye sauad alle your lyues / Syre said syr Tristram now I vnderstande ye wold haue my focour / reason wold that I shold doo al that 25 lyeth in my power to doo / fauyng my worship / and my lyf / how be hit I am fore bryfed and hurte / And fythen sire Elyas profereth foo largely / I shalle fyghte with hym or els I will be slayne in the felde / or els I wille delyuer Cornewaille from the old truage / And therefore lyghtely calle his messager and 30 he shalle be anfuerd / for as yet my woundes ben grene and they wille be forer a feuen nyght after than they ben now / And ther-for he shalle haue his anfuere / that I will doo bataill to morn with hym / Thenne was the messager departed brought before kyng Marke / Herke my felawe said sire Tristram 35 goo fast vnto thy lord and bydde hym make true assuraunce on his party / for the truage / as the kyng here shalle make on his party / and thene telle thy lord sire Elyas that I sire Tristram kyng Arthurs knyght / and knyghte of the table round / wyll as to morne mete with thy lord on horfbak / to doo batail as longe as my hors maye endure / And after that to doo ba-taille with hym on foote to the vtteraunce / the meffager behelde fyre Triftram from the top to the too / And there with alle he departed and came to his lord and told hym how he was an- 5 fuerd of fir Triftram / And there with alle was made hostage on bothe partyes / and made hit as sure as hit myghte be / that whether party had the vycory / foo to ende / And thenne were bothe hostes affembled on bothe partyes of the felde withoute the castel of Tyntagyl / & ther was none but fir Triftram & fir 10 Elyas armed / Soo whan the poyntement was made they departed in fonder / and they came to gyders with alle the myght that their horses myghte renne / And eyther knyghte smote other foo hard that bothe horses and knyghtes wente to the er-the / Not for thenne they bothe lyghtely aroos and dresfid the- 15 ir sheldes on their sholders with naked swardes in their han-des / and they daffhed to gyders that hit semed a flammynge fyre aboute them / Thus they tracyd and trauercyd and hewe on helmes and hawberkes / and cutte awaye many cantels of their sheldes / and eyther wounded other passynge fore / so that 20 the hote blood felle freshly vpon the erthe / ¶ And by thenne they had foughten the mountenaunce of an houre / fir Triftram waxte saynte and forbledde / and gaf fore a bak / That sawe fire Elyas / and folowed fyerfly vpon hym / and wounded hym in many places / And euer fire Triftram tracyd and tra- 25 uercyd / and wente froward hym here and there / and couerd hym with his shelde as he myghte alle weykely / that alle men said he was ouercome / For fir Elyas hadde gyuen hym twenty strokes ageynst one / ¶ Thenne was there laughyng of the Seffoyns party and grete dole on Kynge Markys party / 30 Allas said the Kynge we are affhamed and destroyed all for euer / for as the book faith fyr Triftram was neuer so matched but yf it were fir launcelot / Thus as they stode and beheld bothe partyes / that one party laughynge and the other party wepyng / Syre Triftram remembryd hym of his lady la bea- 35 le Ifoud that loked vpon hym / And how he was lykely neuer to come in her prence / Thenne he pulled vp his shelde that crst henge ful lowe / And thenne he dresfid vp his shelde vnto Elyas / and gaf hym many sadde strokes twenty ageynst one and alle to brake his shelde and his hauberk / that the hote blod ranne doune to the erthe / Thenne beganne kynge Mark to laughe and alle Cornyffshe men / and that other party to wepe / 5 And euer sir Tristram said to sir Elyas yelde the / ¶ Thenne whanne sir Tristram sawe hym soo slakkerynge on the ground he said fyr Elyas I am ryght fory for the / for thou arte a passyng good knyghte as euer I mette with alle excepte sire Launcelot / ther with alle sir Elyas fylle to the erthe / & there 10 dyed / what shalle I doo said sir Tristram vnto Kynge marke for this bataille is at an ende / Thenne they of Elyas party departed / and kynge Marke took of hem many prysoners to redresse the harmes and the scathes that he had of them / and the remenaunt he sente in to their countrey to borowe oute their fe-15 lawes / Thenne was sire Tristram ferched and wel helyd / yet for alle this Kynge Marke wold fayne haue slayne sir Trif-tram / ¶ But for alle that euer sire Tristram sawe or herd by kynge Marke yet wold he neuer beware of his treason / but e-uer he wold be there as la Beale Ifoud was

¶ Capitulum xxxi

20 Now wille we passe of this mater / and speke we of the harpers that sir Launcelot and sir Dynadan hadde sente in to Cornewaile / And at the grete feest that kyng ma-rke made for Ioye that the Seffoyns were putte oute of his Countrey / Thenne came Elyas the harper with the lay that 25 Dynadan had made and secretlye broughte hit vnto sir Trif-tram and told hym the lay that Dynadan had made by kynge Marke / And whan sir Tristram herd hit / he said O lord Ihesu that Dynadan can make wonderly wel and ylle / there as it shalle be / ¶ Syr said Elyas dare I synge this songe 30 afore Kynge Marke / ye on my perylle said sire Tristram / for I shalle be thy waraunt / Thenne at the mete cam in Elyas the harper / & by cause he was a curyous harper men herd hym synge the same lay that Dynadan had made / the whiche spak the moost vylony by Kyng Marke of his treason / that euer man 35 herd / whan the harper had songe his songe to the ende / kynge Marke was wonderly wrothe ¶ And sayd / thow harper how durst thou be so bold on thy heede to synge this songe afore me / Syr said Elyas wete yow wel I am a mynstrel / and I must doo as I am commaūded of these lordes that I bere the armes of / And fyre wete ye wel that sir Dynadan a knyghte of the table round made this songe / and made me 5 to synge hit afore yow / Thow sayest wel sayd kyng Marke And by cause thou arte a mynstral / thou shalt go quyte / but I charge the hye the fast oute of my syghte / Soo the harper departed and wente to sir Tristram and told hym how he had sped / Thenne fyre Tristram lete make letters as goodely as he 10 coude to launcelot and to sire Dynadan / And soo he lete con-duyte the harper out of the cōtrei / but to say þ^t Kyng Mark was wonderly wrothe he was / for he demed that the lay that was songe afore hym was made by sir Tristrams counceylle/wherfore he thoughte to flee hym / and alle his wel wyllars / 15 in that countrey

¶ Capitulum xxxiiij

Now torne we to another mater that felle bitwene kyng Marke and his broder that was called the good prynce Bodwyne that alle the peple of the countrey loued passy-nge wel / So hit befelle on a tyme that the mescreaunts Sarasyns loded in the countreye of Cornewaile soone after the- 20 se Sessoyns were gone / And thēne the good prynce Boudwyne at the landyng he areysed the countrey pryuely and ha-ffly / And or hit were day / he lete put wyld fyre in thre of his owne shyppes / and fodenly he pulled vp the sayle / And with 25 the wynde he made tho shyppes to be dryuen among the nauye of the Sarasyns / And to make shorte tale tho thre shippes set on fyre alle the shippes that none were saued / And atte poynt of the day the good prynce Boudwyn with all his selauphip sette on the mescreauntes with shoutes and cryes and slewe 30 to the nombre of xl / M / and leste none on lyue / whan kyng Marke wyft this he was wonderly wrothe that his broder sh-old wyne fuche worship / And by cause this prynce was better byloued than he in all that countrey / And that al so Boudwyn loued wel sir Tristram / therefore he thoughte to flee hym 35

And thus hastily as a man oute of his wytte he sente for prynce boudwyn / & Anglydes his wyf / & bad them brynge theyre yonge sone with them that he myght see hym / Alle this he dyd to the entente to flee the child as wel as his fader / for he was 5 the falsest traitour that euer was borne / Allas for his goodenes and for his good dedes this gentyl prynce Boudwyn was slayne / Soo whan he came with his wyf Anglydes the Kyng made them fayre semblaunt tyl they had dyned / And whanne they had dyned / Kyng Marke sente for his 10 broder and said thus / Broder how spedde yow whan the mescreaunts aryued by yow / me semeth hit had be youre parte to haue sente me word that I myght haue ben at that Iourneye for it had ben reason that I had had the honour and not you Syre said the Prynce Boudwyn it was soo that and I had 15 taryed tyl that I had sente for yow / tho myscreauntes hadde destroyed my cuntrye / Thou lyeft fals traytour said Kyng Marke / for thou arte cuer aboute for to wyne worship from me / and put me to dishonour / and thow cheryft that I hate / And there with he stroke hym to the hert with a daggar / that 20 he neuer after spake word / Thenne the lady Anglydes made grete dole and fwouned / for she sawe her lord slayne afore her face / Thenne was there no more to doo but prynce Boudwyn was despoyled and brought to buryels / But Anglydes pryuely gat her husbandes dobblet and his sherte / and that she 25 kepte secretly / Thenne was there moche sorowe and cryenge / and grete dole made sir Tristram / sir Dynas / sir Fergus / and so dyd alle knyghtes that were there / for that prynce was passyngly wel byloued / Soo la Beale Ifoud sente vnto Anglydes the prynce Boudwyns wyf and badde her auoyde lyz-30 tely or els her yonge sone Alyfander le Orphelyn shold be slaye / whanne she herd this / she took her hors and her child / and rode with fuche poure men as durst ryde with her /

Of withstandynge whan Kyng Marke had done this dede / yet he thought to doo more vengeance / and with his fwerd in his hand / he fought from chamber to chamber to feke Anglydes and her yonge sone / And when she was myste / he called a good knyghte that hyghte Sadok / and charged hym by payne of dethe to fetche Anglydes ageyne / and her yo- 5 nge sone / So fyre Sadok departed / and rode after Anglydes / And within ten myle he ouertoke her / and badde her torne a-gayne and ryde with hym to Kynge Marke / Allas fair knygt she said / what shalle ye wyne by my sones deth or by myn / I haue hadde ouer moche harme and to grete a losse / Madame said Sadok / of your losse is dole and pyte / but madame said 10 Sadok wold ye departe oute of this countrey with your sone / and kepe hym tyl he be of age / that he may reuenge his faders dethe / thenne wold I suffer yow to departe from me / Soo ye pro-myse me to reuenge the dethe of prynce Boudwyn / A gentyl knyght Ihesu thanke the / and yf euer my sone Alysaunders le 15 Orphelyn lyue to be a knyght / he shal haue his faders dobblet and his shert with the blody markes / and I shalle gyue hym suche a charge that he shalle remembre hit whyles he lyueth / And there with al Sadok departed from her / and eyther by-toke other to god

[leaf 233 verso]

¶ And when Sadok came to kyng 20 Marke he told hym feythfully that he had drouned yong Aly-fander her sone / and therof kyng Marke was ful gladde / ¶ Now torne we vnto Anglydes that rode bothe nyghte and day by aduenture oute of Cornewaile / and lytyl and in fewe places she rested / but euer she drewe southward to the see fyde / 25 tyl by fortune she came to a castel that is called Magouns / & now hit is called Arundel in southsex / and the Conestable or the castel welcomed her and said she was welcome to her owne castel / and there was Anglydes worshipfully receyued / for the Conestables wyf was nyghe her cosyn / and the Conestables 30 name was Belangere / and that same Conestable told Anglydes that the same Castel was hers by ryght enherytaunce / Thus Anglydes endured yeres and wynters tyl Alyfander was bygge and stronge / there was none soo wyght in all that Countrey / neyther there was none that myghte doo no manere 35 of mayftry afore hym /

¶ Capitulum xxxiiij

THenne vpon a day Bellangere the Conestable came to Anglydes and sayd Madame it were tyme my lord Alyfander were made knyzt / for he is a passyng strong yonge man / Syre said she I wold he were made knyghte / 5 But thenne must I yeue hym the moost charge that euer synful moder gaf to her childe / Doo as ye lyste sayd Bellangere / and I shalle gyue hym warnynge that he shalle be maade knyght / Now hit wyl be wel done that he may be made knyght at oure lady day in lente / Be hit soo said Anglydes / and I 10 pray yow make redy therfore / Soo came the Conestable to Alyfander and told hym that he shold at oure lady in lente be made knyghte / I thanke god said Alyfander these are the best tydynge that euer came to me / Thenne the Conestable ordeyned twenty of the grettest gentylmens fones and the best born 15 men of the cuntry that shold be maade knyghtes that same day that Alyfander was made knyght / Soo on the same daye that Alyfander and his twenty felawes were made Knyghtes / at the offrynge of the masse there came Anglydes vnto her sone and sayd thus / ¶ O fayre swete sone I charge the vpon 20 my blesyng and of the hyghe ordre of chyalry that thou ta-kest here this day / that thou vnderstande what I shalle faye / and charge the with alle / There with alle she pulled out a blody dobblet and a bloody sherte that were bebledde with old blood / whanne Alyfaunder sawe this / he starte abak and waxed 25 paale / and sayd fayre moder what maye this meane / I shall telle the fayre sone / this was thyne owne faders dobblett and sherte that he ware vpon hym that same daye that he was flayne / and there she told hym why and wherfore / And hou for his goodenes kyng Marke slewe hym with his daggar afore 30 myn owne eyen / And therfor this shalle be your charge that I I shalle gyue the and vpon the hyghe ordre of kny3thode that thow be reuengyd vpon kynge Marke for the dethe of thy fader / and there with all the fwouned / Thenne Alyfander lepte to his moder / and took her vp in his armes and fayd Fair moder ye haue gyuen me a grete charge / and here I promyse yow I shalle be auen- 5 gyd vpon Kynge Marke / whanne that I may / and that I promyse to god and to yow ¶ Soo this feest was endyd / and the conestabyl by the aduyse of anglydes lete purueye that Alyfander was wel horfed and harneyfid / Thenne he Iusted with his twenty felawes that were made knyghtes 10 with hym / but for to make a shorte tale he ouerthrewe alle tho twenty that none myght withstande hym a buffet / ¶ Thenne one of tho Knyghtes departed vnto Kynge Marke / and told hym alle how Alyfander was maade Knyghte / and alle the charge that his moder gaf hym as ye haue herd afore tyme 15 ¶ Allas fals treason said Kynge Marke I wende that yonge traitour had ben dede / Allas whome may I truste / And there with alle kynge Marke took a fwerd in his hand / and foughte fyre Sadok from chamber to chamber to flee hym / ¶ Whanne sir Sadok sawe kynge Marke come with his fuerd 20 in his hand / he fayd thus / Beware Kynge Marke and come not nyghe me / for wete thow wel that I faued Alyfander his lyf / of whiche I neuer repente me / for thow falsly and cowardly flewe his fader Boudwyn traytourly for his good dedes / wherfore I pray almyghty Ihesu fende Alyfander my- 25 ghte and strengthe to be reuengyd vpon the / and now beware Kynge Marke of yonge Alyfander / for he is made a knyghte / ¶ Alas said Kynge Marke that euer I shold here a tray-tour faye soo afore me / ¶ And there with foure Knyghtes of kynge Markes drewe theire fwerdes to flee fyre Sadok / but 30 anone sir Sadok flewe hem alle in Kynge Markes presence / And thenne fyre Sadok past forthe in to his chamber / and to-ke his hors and his harneis / and rode on his waye a good paas / For there was neyther fyre Tristram / neyther fyre Dynas nor fyre Fergus that wold sir Sadok ony euylle wyll / 35 ¶ Thenne was Kynge Marke wrothe / and thoughte to destroye fyre Alyfander and fyre Sadok that had faued hym / for kynge Marke dredde and hated Alifander moost of ony man lyuynghe whanne fir Triftram vnderflood that Alyfander was made knyghte / Anone forth with alle he fente hym a letter prayenge hym and charynghe hym that he wold drawe hym to the Courte of Kyng Arthur / and that he putte hym in the rule and in the handes of fire Launcelot

¶ Soo this letter was fente to Alyfander from his cofyn fyr Triftram / And at that tyme he thought to doo after his commaundement / Thenne kyng Mark called a knyght that broughte hym the tydynges from Alyfander / and badde hym abyde styлле in that countrey / Syre sayd that knyght soo muste I doo / for in myn owne countrey I dare not come / No force faid Kyng Marke / I shalle gyue the here double as moche landes as euer thou haddest of thyne owne / But within short space fir Sadok mette with that fals knyght / and flewe hym 15 Thenne was Kyng Marke wode wrothe oute of mesure

¶ Thenne he fente vnto Quene Morgan le fay / and to the queene of Northgalys prayenge them in his letters that they two forcereffes wold fette alle the countrey in fyre with ladyes that were enchauntrefess / And by fuche that were daungerous 20 knyghtes as Malgryn Breufe saunce pyte / that by no meane Alyfander le Orphelyn shold escape / but outhere he shold be taken or slayne / This ordenaunce made kyng Marke for to destroye Alyfander

25 Now torne we ageyne vnto fire Alyfander that at his departynghe his moder toke with hym his faders bloody sherte / Soo that he bare with hym alweyes tylle hys dethe daye in tokenynghe to thynke on his faders dethe

¶ Soo was Alyfander purposed to ryde to london by the couceille of fire Triftram to fyre Launcelot / And by fortune he 30 wente by the see syde / and rode wronge / and there he wanne at a turnement the gree / that Kyng Carados made / And there he smote doune Kyng Carados and twenty of his knyghtes and also fire Safere a good knyght that was fire Palomydes broder the good knyght / ¶ Alle this sawe a damoyfel / and sawe the best knyghte Iuste that euer he sawe / And euer as he smote doune knyghtes / he made them to swere to were none harneis in a twelue monethe and a day / This is wel sayd / faide Morgan le fay / this is the knyght that I wold fayne see / And soo she took her palfroy and rode a grete whyle / and thenne she rested her in her paelione / So there came four kn-yghtes two were armed and two were vnarmed / and they told Morgan le fay their names / the fyrst was Elyas de gomeret / the second was Carde Gomoret / tho were armed / that other tweyne were of Camlyard / cosyns vnto Quene Gue-neuer / and that one hyzt Guy / and that other hyght Garaüt tho were vnarmed / There these four Knyghtes told Morgan le fay how a yonge knyghte had smyten them doune before a Castel / For the mayden of that Castel said that he was but late made knyghte and yonge / But as we suppoise but yf hit were sire Tristram or sire Launcelot or sire Lamorak the good kny; there is none that myzt fyte hym a buffet with a spere/Well said Morgan le fay I shalle mete that knyght or it be longe tyme / and he dwelle in that countrey ¶ Soo torne we to the damoyfell of the Castel that whanne Alyfander le Orphelyn hadde foriusted the four Knyghtes she called hym to her and said thus / Syre knyghte wolt thou for my sake Iuste and fyghte with a knyghte for my sake of this countrey that is and hath ben long tyme an euyl neyghbour to me / his name is Malgryne / and he wyll not suffer me to be maryed in no maner wyfe for all that I can doo / or any knyght for my sake /

¶ Damoyfel said Alyfander and he come whyles I am here I wyll fyghte with hym / and my poure body for your sake I wille Ieoparde / And there with alle she fente for hym / for he was at her commaundement / And whan eyther hadde a fyghte of other / they made hem redy for to Iuste / and they cam to gyder egerly / and Malgryn bryfed his spere vpon Alyfan-der / and alifander smote hym ageyne so hard that he bare hym quyte from his sadell to the erthe / But this Malgryne aroos lyghtly and dresfid his sheld and drewe his suerd / and badde hym alyzte / fayög thou; thou haue the better of me on horsbak thow shalt fynde that I shalle endure lyke a knyght on foot It is wel said said Alyfander / and foo lyghtly he auoyded his hors and bitoke hym to his varlet / And thenne they raffled to gyders lyke two bores and leyd on their helmes and 5 sheldes long tyme by the space of thre houres that neuer man coude faye whiche was the better Knyghte

¶ And in the meane whyle came Morgan le fay to the damoysel of the Castel / and they beheld the bataylle / But this mal-gryne was an olde roted Knyghte / and he was called one of 10 the daungerous knyghtes of the world to doo bataille on foot but on horsbak there were many better / And euer this Mal-gryne awayted to flee Alyfander / and foo wounded hym wonderly fore / that it was merueylle that euer he myghte stande / for he had bledde foo moche blood / for Alyfander fought wyld-15 ly and not wyttely / And that other was a felonous knyghte and awayted hym / and smote hym fore / And fomtyme they raffled to gyders with their sheldes lyke two bores or rammes and fylle grouelynge bothe to the erthe /

¶ Now knyghte sayd Malgryn hold thy hand a while / & 20 telle me what thow arte / I wyll not said Alyfander / but yf me lyft / But telle me thy name / and why thow kepest thys countrey / or els thow shalt dye of my handes / wete thow well sayd Malgryne that for this maydens loue of this Castel I haue slayne ten good knyghtes by myshap / and by outeraige 25 and orgulyte of my self I haue slayne ten other knyghtes / Soo god me helpe sayd Alyfander this is the fowlest confes-syon that euer I herd knyghte make / nor neuer herd I speke of other men of sliche a shameful confession / wherfore hit were grete pyte & grete shame vnto me that I shold lete the lyue ony 30 lenger / therfore kepe the as wel as euer thow mayst / for as I am true knyghte cyther thow shalte flee me or els I shal flee the / I promyse the feythfully ¶ Thenne they lassed to gyders fyersly / And at the last Alyfander smote Malegryne to the erthe / And thenne he racyd 35 of his helme / and smote of his hede lyghtely /

¶ And whanne he hadde done and ended this bataille / anone he called to hym his varlet the whiche brought hym his hors And thene he wenyng to be strong ynouȝ wold haue mouȝed

And soo the leyd sire Alyfander in an hors lyttar and ledde hym in to the Castel / for he he had no foote ne myzt to stande vpon the erthe / for he had syxtene grete woundes / and in especial one of them was lyke to be his dethe /

¶ Capitulum xxxvij

THenne Quene Morgan le fay ferched his woundes / 5 and gaf suche an oynement vnto hym that he shold haue dyed / And on the morne whanne she came to hym he camplayned hym fore / And thenne she put other oynements vpon hym / And thenne he was out of his payne / Thenne came the damoyfel of the Castel and said vnto Morgan le fay / I 10 pray yow helpe me that this Knyghte myghte wedde me / for he hath wonne me with his handes / ye shalle see said Morgan le fay what I shalle saye Thenne Morgan le fay wente vnto Alyfander and bad in ony wyse that he shold refuse this lady and she desyre to wedde yow / for she is not for yow / Soo the 15 damoyfel came and desyred of hym maryage / damoyfel sayd Orphelyn I thanke yow but as yet I caste me not to marye in this countrey / Syre she said sythen ye will not mary me / I pray yow in soo moche as ye haue wonne me that ye wyl gyue me to a Knyghte of this countrey that hath ben my frende / & 20 loued me many yeres / with alle my herte said Alyfander I wylle assente therto / Thenne was the Knyzte sente for / his name was Geryne le grofe / And anone he made them hand fast / and wedded them / Thenne came Quene Morgan le fay to Alyfander and badde hym aryse and putte hym in an hors lyttar 25 and gaf hym suche a drynke that in thre dayes and thre nyghtes he waked neuer but slepte / and soo she brought hym to her owne castel that at that tyme was called la Beale regard / Thenne Morgan le fay came to Alyfander and asked hym yf he wold fayne be hole / who wold be feke said Alyfander and he 30 myghte be hole / wel said Morgan le fay thenne shalle ye promyse me by youre knyghthode that this daye twelue monethe and a daye ye shalle not passe the compas of thys Castel / and withoute doubt ye shalle lyghtely be hole / I assente said sire Alyfaunder / And there he made her a promyse / thenne was he foone hole / And whanne Alyfander was hole / thenne he repen-tyd hym of his othe / for he myghte not be reuenged vpon kynge Marke / Ryght soo there came a damoyfel that was cofyn 5 to the Erle of pafe / and she was cofyn to Morgan le fay / and by ryght that castel of la Beale regard shold haue ben hers by true enherytaunce / Soo this damoyfel entred in to this castel / where lay Alyfander / and there she fond hym vpon his bed passyng heuy and alle sad

¶ Capitulum xxxviii

10 Yre knyghte said the damoyfel / and ye wold be mery I coude telle yow good tydynges / wel were me said Alyfander / and I myghte here of good tydynges / for now I stand as a pryfoner by my promyse / Syr she sayd wete ye wel that ye be a pryfoner and werse than ye wene / for my lady 15 my cofyn Quene Morgan le fay kepeth yow here for none other entente but for to doo her pleasyr with yow whan hit lyked her / O Ihesu defende me said Alyfander from fuche pleasyr for I had leuer cutte away my hangers than I wold do her fuche pleasyr / As Ihesu helpe me said the damoyfel / and 20 ye wold loue me and be ruled by me I shalle make youre delyueraunce with your worshyp / Telle me said Alyfander / by what meane / and ye shalle haue my loue / fayre knyghte sayd she / this castel of ryght ought to be myn / And I haue an vnkel the whiche is a myghty Erle / he is Erle of pafe / and of al 25 folkes he hateth moost Morgan le fay / and I shalle fende vnto hym / and praye hym for my sake to destroye this castel / for the euylle custommes that ben vsed therin / And thenne wyll he come and sette wyldre fyre on euery parte of the castel / and I shalle gete yow oute at a pryuy posterne / and there shall ye 30 haue your hors and your harneis / ye say wel damoyfel sayd Alyfander / and thenne she sayd ye may kepe the rome of this Castel this twelue moneth / and a day / thenne breke ye not yow-er othe / Truly sayr damoyfel said Alyfander ye faye sothe / And thenne he kyfte her and dyd to her plesaunce as it plea-35 sed them bothe at tymes and leyfers / Soo anone she sent vnto her vnkel and badde hym come and destroye that castel / for as the book faith / he wold haue destroyed that castel afore tyme/had not that damoyfel ben / Whanne the Erle vnderstood her letters / he sente her word ageyne that on fuche a day he wold come and destroye that castel / Soo whan that day came she she- 5 wed Alyfander a posterne where thorou he shold flee in to a gardyn / and there he shold fynde his armour and his hors / Whanne the day came that was sette thydder came the erle of pafe with four honderd knyghtes / and sette on fyre all the partyes of the castel / that or they seaced they leste not a stone stan- 10 dyng / And alle this whyle that the fyre was in the Castell/he abode in the gardyn / And whan the fyre was done / he lete make a crye that he wold kepe that pyece of erthe / there as the castel of la beale regard was a twelue monethe and daye / from alle manere knyghtes that wold come / Soo hit happed 15 there was a duke that hyzte Anserus / and he was of the kyn of sir launcelot / And this knyght was a grete pylgrym / for euery thyrdde yere he wold be at Iherusalem / And by cause he vfed alle his lyf to goo in pylgremage men called hym duke Anferus the pylgrym / And this duke had a douzter that hyzt 20 Alys that was a passyng fayre woman / And by cause of her fader she was called Alys la beale pylgrym / And anone as she herd of this crye / she wente vnto Arthurs courte & fayd openly in heryng of many knyghtes / that what Knyghte maye ouercome that Knyght that kepeth the pyece of erthe shal ha- 25 ue me and alle my landes / whan the Knyghtes of the round table herd her saye thus / many were gladde / for she was passy-nge fayre and of grete rentes / Ryght so she lete crye in castels and townes as faste on her syde as as Alyfander dyd on his syde / Thenne she dresfid her paelione streyghte by the pyece of 30 the erthe that Alyfander kepte / So she was not so soone there/but there came a Knyght of Arthurs courte that hyghte Sagramore le desyrus / and he proferd to Iuste with Alyfander / & they encountred / and Sagramore le desyrus bryfed his spere vpon fire Alyfander / but fire Alyfander smote hym soo harde 35 that he auoyded his fadel / And whanne la Beale Alys sawe hym Iuste soo wel / she thought hym a passyng goodly knyzt on horsbak / And thenne she lepte oute of her paelione / & toke fir Alyfander by the brydel / and thus she sayd / fayre knyght I requyre the of thy knyghthode / shewe me thy vyfage / I dar wel faid Alyfander shewe my vyfage / And thenne he put of his helme / and she sawe his vyfage / she faid / O fwete Ihesu/5 the I must loue / and neuer other / thenne shewe me your vy-fage faid he /

¶ Capitulum xxxix

THenne she vnwympeled her vyfage / And whanne he sawe her / he faid here haue I fond my loue and my lady / Truly fayre lady faid he I promyse yow to be 10 your knyghte / and none other that bereth the lyf / Now gentil knyghte faid she telle me your name / My name is faid he Alyfander le Orphelyn / Now damoyfel telle me your name sayd he / my name is faid she / Alys la beale pylgrym / And whan we be more at oure hertes ease both ye and I shalle telle other 15 of what blood we be come / Soo there was grete loue betwyxe them / And as they thus talked / there came a Knyghte that hyghte Harfoufe le Berbufe and axed parte of fir Alyfanders speres / Thenne fire Alyfander encountred with hym / and at the fyrst fir Alyfander smote hym ouer his hors croupe / 20 And thenne there came another knyghte that hyt fire Hew-gon / And fire Alyfander smote hym doune as he dyd that other / Thenne fire Heugon profered to do bataille on foote / fyre Alyfander ouercame hym with thre strokes / and there wold haue slayne hym had he not yelded hym / Soo thenne Alifander 25 made bothe tho Knyghtes to fwere to were none armour in a twelue moneth and a day / Thenne fire Alifander alyzte down and wente to reste hym and repose hym / Thenne the damoyfell that halp fire Alyfander oute of the castel in her play told Alys all to gyder how he was pryfoner in the castel of la bea-30 le regard / and there she told her how she gat hym oute of pry-son / Syr faid Alys la Beale pylgrym me semeth ye ar moche beholdynge to this mayden / that is trouth faid fir Alyfander / And there Alys told hym of what blood she was come / Syre wete ye wel she faid that I am of the blood of Kynge 35 Ban that was fader vnto fir Launcelot ye wys sayr lady fa-yd Alyfander my moder told me that my fader was broder vnto a kynge / and I am nyghe cofyn vnto fire Tristram / Thē-ne this whyle came there thre knyghtes / that one hyzt Vayns / and the other hyght Haruys de le marches / and the thyrddē hyght Peryn de la montayne / and with one spere fire Alyfan-der smote them doune alle thre / and gaf them suche fallys / that 5 they hadde no lyfte to fyghte vpon foote / Soo he made them to swere to were none armes in a twelue moneth / Soo whanne they were departed fire Alyfander beheld his lady Alys on hors bak as he stood in her paelione / And thenne was he soo enamoured vpon her that he wyft not whether he were on hors- 10 bak or on foote / Ryght so came the fals Knyght fyr Mordred and sawe fir Alyfander was affoted vpon his lady / and ther-with alle he took his hors by the brydel / and ledde hym here & there / and had cast to haue ledde hym oute of that place to haue shamed hym / whanne the damoyfel that halpe hym out of 15 that Castel sawe how shamefully he was ledde / Anone she lete arme her and sette a shelde vpon her sholder / And ther with she mounted vpon his hors / and gatte a naked swerd in her hand / and she threst vnto Alyfander with alle her myght / and she gaf hym suche a buffet that he thought the fyre flewe oute 20 of his eyen / And whanne Alyfander felte that stroke he loked about hym / and drewe his swerd / And whan he sawe that she fledde / and soo dyd Mordred in to the forest / and the damoyfel fledde in to the paelione / So whanne Alyfander vnderstood hym self how the fals knyght wold haue shamed hym / hadde 25 not the damoyfel ben / thenne was he wrothe with hym self that fyre Mordred was soo escaped his handes / But thenne fire Alyfander and Alys hadde good game at the damoyfel hou sadly she hytte hym vpon the helme / ¶ Thenne fir Alyfander lusted thus day by day / and on foot he dyd many batails with 30 many knyghtes of kynge Arthurs court and with many kn-yghtes straungers / therfore to telle alle the batails that he did it were ouer moche to reherse / for euery day within that twelue moneth he had adoo with one Knyght or with other / and some day he had adoo with thre or with foure / And there was neuer 35 knyght that putte hym to the werse / & at the twelue monethes ende he departed with his lady Alys la beale pylgrym / and the damoyfel wold neuer goo from hym / and soo they went in to theyr countrey of Benoye / and lyued there in grete Ioye / ¶ Capitulum xl

BVt as the book fayth / kyng marke wold neuer flynte tyll he had slayne hym by treafon / and by Alys he gat a child that hyght Bellengerus le Beufe / and by good fortune he came to the courte of Kyng Arthur / and preued a passyng good Knyghte / and he reuenged his faders dethe for the fals Kyng Marke slewe bothe fyre Tristram & Aly-fander falsly and felonly / and hit happed so that Alyfander hadde neuer grace ne fortune to come to Kyng Arthurs court 10 For and he had comen to sire launcelot alle knyghtes fayd / that knewe hym / he was one of the strengest knyghtes that was in Arthurs dayes / and grete dole was made for hym Soo lete we of hym passe and torne we to another tale So hit befelle that sire Galahalt the haute prynce was lord of 15 the countrey of Surluse / wherof came many good knyghtes / And this noble prynce was a passyng good man of armes and euer he helde a noble selschyp to gyders / And thenne he came to Arthurs court / & told hym his entent / how this was his wyll / how he wold lete crye a Iustes in the couñtrei of Sur-20 luse / the whiche countrey was within the landes of kyng Arthur / and there he axed leue to lete crye a Iustes / I wyl gyue yow leue said Kyng Arthur / But wete thou wel said Kyng Arthur / I maye not be there / Syre said Quene Gue-neuer please hit you to gyue me leue to be at that Iustes / with 25 ryght good wille said Arthur / for sire Galahalt the haute prynce shall haue yow in gouernaunce / Syr said Galahalt I wille as ye wylle / sir thenne the quene I wille take with me and fuche knyghtes as please me best / do as ye lyst said kynge Arthur / So anone she commaunded sire Launcelot to ma-30 ke hym redy with fuche knyghtes as he thought best / Soo in e-uery good towne and castel of this land was made a crye / that in the countrey of Surluse fyre Galahalt sholde make a Iustes that shold laste eyghte dayes / And how the haute prynce with the help of Quene Gueneuers knyghtes shold Iuste ageyne alle manere of men that wold come / whanne this cryc was knowen / kynges and prynces / dukes and Erles / Barons and noble knyghtes made them redy to be at that Iustes And at the daye of Iustying there came in fire Dynadan / difguyfed / and dyd many grete dedes of armes

¶ Capitulum xli

THenne at the request of Quene Gueneuer and of kynge Bagdemagus / fir Laūcelot came in to the rayeng but he was desguyfed / and that was the cause that fe-we folke knewe hym / and there mette with hym fir Ector de marys his owne broder / and eyther brake their speres vpon 10 other to theyr handes / And thenne eyther gate another spere / And thenne fire launcelot smote doune fyr Ector de marys his owne broder / That fawe fire Bleoberys / and he smote fir laun-celot fuche a buffet vpon the helme that he wyft not wel where he was / Thenne fir launcelot was wrothe / and smote fir Ble- 15 oberys so fore vpon the helme that his hede bowed doune backward / And he smote este another buffet that he auoyded his sadel / and foo he rode by / and threst forth to the thyckest / whan the kyng of Northgalys fawe fire Ector and Bleoberys lye on the ground / thenne was he wroth / for they came on his par- 20 ty ageynst them of Surlufe / So the kyng of Northgalys ran to fire Launcelot / and brake a spere vpon hym all to pyeces There with fire Launcelot ouertook the kyng of Northgalys and smote hym fuche a buffet on the helme with his fuerd that he made hym to auoyde his hors / and anone the kyng was hor- 25 fed ageyne / So bothe the kyng Bagdemagus and the kyng of Northgalys party hurled to other / and thenne beganne a stronge medle / but they of Northgalys were ferre bygger Whanne fire launcelot fawe his party goo to the werst / he thrange in to the thyckest prees with a fuerd in his hand / & 30 there he smote doune on the ryght hand and on the lyft hand and pulled doune knyghtes and racyd of their helmes that alle men hadde wonder that euer one knyght myghte doo fuch dedes of armes / whanne fire Mellegaunt that was sone vnto kyng Bagdemagus saw how fir Launcelot ferd / he merueiled 35 gretely / And whan he vnderstood that it was he / he wyf wel that he was defguyfed for his sake / Thenne fire Malegeaunt prayd a Knyghte to flee fir launcelots hors outhur with fuerd or with spere / At that tyme Kynge Bagdemagus mette wyth 5 a Knyghte that hyght Saufeyfe a good knyghte / to whom he fayd / Now fayr Saufeyfe encounter with my fone Malegeaunt / and gyue hym large payment / for I wold he were well beten of thy handes that he myghte departe oute of this feld / And thenne fir Saufeyfe encountred with fyre Malegeaunt / 10 and eyther fmote other doune / And thēne they fought on fo-te / and there Saufeyfe had wonne fyre Malegeaunt / hadde not there come rescowes / So thenne the haute prynce blewe to lodgyng / And euery knyghte vnarmed hym / and wente to the grete feest / ¶ Thenne in the meane whyle there came a damoy-15 fel to the haute prynce / and complayned that there was a kn-yghte that hyght Goneryes that withhelde her alle her landes Thenne the knyghte was there prefente and caste his gloue to hym or to any that wold fyghte in her name / Soo the damoyfel took vp the gloue alle heuily for defaute of a champyon / 20 Thenne there came a varlet to her and fayd damoyfel / wille ye doo after me / ful fayne said the damoyfel / thenne goo ye vnto fuche a knyght that lyeth here befyde in an ermytage / and that foloweth the quefying beft / and pray hym to take the bataille vpon hym / and anone I wote wel he wille graunte yow / 25 ¶ So anone ſhe took her palfroy / and within a whyle ſhe fond that knyght that was fire Palomydes / And whan ſhe requy-red hym / he armed hym and rode with her / and made her to go to the haute prynce / and to afke leue for her kynght to doo ba-tail / I wille wel ſaid the haute prynce / Thenne the knyghtes 30 were redy in the feld to luſte on horſbak / and eyther gatte a ſpere in their handes and mette ſoo fyerfly to gyders that their ſperes alle to ſheuerd / Thenne they flange out ſwerdes / and fyr Palomydes fmote fire Gonereys doune to the erthe / And thenne he racyd of his helme and fmote of his hede / Thenne 35 they wente to ſouper / and the damoyfel loued Palomydes as peramour / but the book faith ſhe was of his kyn / Soo thenne Palomydes defguyfed hym ſelf in this manere / in his ſhelde he bare the quefying beeft and in alle his trappours / ¶ And whanne he was thus redy / he fente to the haute prynce to gyue hym leue to Iuste with other knyghtes / but he was adoubted of fire launcelot / The haute prynce fente hym word ageyne / that he shold be welcome / and that fyre Launcelot shold not Iuste with hym / Thenne fire Galahalt the haute prynce lete 5 crye what knyght someuer he were that fmote doune fir Palomydes shold haue his damoyfel to hym self /

¶ Capitulum xliij

ThEre begynneth the second daye / anone as fire Palomydes came in to the felde / fyr Galahalt the haute prynce was at the raunge ende / and mette with fire Palomy- 10 des / and he with hym with grete speres / And thenne they cam soo hard to gyders that their speres alle to sheuered / But fyr Galahalt fmote hym soo hard that he bare hym backward ouer his hors / but yet he lost not his styropes / ¶ Thenne they drewe their swardes and lassed to gyder many fadde strokes / that 15 many worshipful knyghtes leste their besynes to behold them But at the last fire Galahalt the haut prynce fmote a stroke of myghte vnto Palomydes fore vpon the helme / but the helme was soo hard that the sward myght not byte but flypped and fmote of the hede of the hors of fir Palomydes / whan the haut 20 prynce wyft and sawe the good knyght falle vnto the erthe / he was affhamed of that stroke / And there with he alyghte doune of his owne hors / and prayd the good knyghte Palomydes to take that hors of his yeste / and to forgyue hym that dede / Syre said Palomydes I thanke yow of your grete good- 25 nes / for euer of a man of worship / a knyghte shalle neuer haue disworship / and soo he mounted vpon that hors / and the haute prynce had another anone / Now said the haute prynce I relece to yow that maiden / for ye haue wonne her / A said palomydes the damoyfel and I be at your commaundement / So 30 they departed and fire Galahalt dyd grete dedes of armes / And ryght soo came Dynadan / and encountred with fyr Galahalt / and eyther came to other so fast with their speres that their speres brak to their handes / But Dynadan had wende the haute prynce had ben more very than he was / And thenne 35 he smote many fadde strokes at the haute prynce / but whan dynadan sawe he myght not gete hym to the erthe / he said My lord I pray yow leue me / and take another / the haute prynce knewe not Dynadan / and lefte goodely for his fayr wordes / 5 And soo they departed / but soone there came another / and told the haute prynce that hit was Dynadan / for soth sayd the prynce therfor am I heuy that he is soo escaped from me / for with his mockes and lapes / now shalle I neuer haue done with hym / And thenne Galahalt rode fast after hym / and bad hym 10 abyde Dynadan for kynge Arthurs sake / Nay said Dynadan soo god me helpe we mete no more to gyder this daye / Thenne in that wrathe the haute prynce mette with Melyagaunt / and he smote hym in the throte that and he had fallen his neck had broken / and with the same spere he smote doune another knyght / Thenne came in they of Northgalys / and many straügers 15 and were lyke to haue putte them of Surluse to the werse / for fyr Galahalt the haut prynce had ouer moche in hand / Soo there came the good knyghte Semound the valyaunt wyth fourty knyghtes / and he bete them al abak / Thenne the Que-20 ne Gueneuer and fire launcelot lete blowe the lodgyng / and euery knyghte vnarmed hym / and drestid hem to the fecste /

¶ Capitulum xliij

WHanne Palomydes was vnarmed he axed lodgyng for hym self and the damoyfel / Anone the haute prynce commaunded them to lodgyng / And he was not so soone 25 in his lodgyng / but there came a Knyght that hyght Archade / he was broder vnto Gomoryes that Palomydes flewe afore in the damoyfels quarel / And this Knyght Archade called fyre Palomydes traytour / and appelyd hym for the dethe of his broder / By the leue of the haute prynce sayd Palomydes 30 I shalle anfuere the / whan fire Galahalt vnderstood theyre quarel / he badde them goo to dyner / and as soone as ye haue dyned / loke that eyther knyghte be redy in the felde / So when they hadde dyned they were armed bothe / and tooke their horses / and the quene and the prynce and fyr Launcelot were fet 35 to behold them / and soo they lete renne their horses / and there fir Palomydes bare Archade on his spere ouer his hors taylor

And thenne Palomydes alyght and drewe his fwerd / but fyr Archade myght not aryse / and there fyr Palomydes racyd of his helme / and smote of his hede / ¶ Thenne the haute prynce and Quene Gueneuer wente vnto souper / ¶ Thenne Kynge Bagdemagus sente aweye his sone Melyagaunt by cause fyr Launcelot shold not mete with hym / for he hated fire launcelot / and that knewe he not ¶ Capitulum xliiii

Now begynneth the thyrdde daye of lustynge / and att that daye Kynge Bagdemagus made hym redy / and there came ageynst hym kynge Marfyl / that had in yeste an Iland of fyre Galahalt the haute prynce / And this yland had the name Pomytayne / Thenne hit befelle that Kyng Bag-demagus and kynge Marfyl of Pomytayne mette to gyders with speres / and Kynge Marfyl had fuche a buffet that he felle ouer his hors croupe ¶ Thenne came therin a Knyght of Kynge Marfyl to reuenge his lord / And kynge Bagdemagus smote hym doune hors and man to the erthe ¶ Soo there came an Erle that hyght arroufe / and fir Breufe and an honderd knyghtes with hem of Pometyne / and the Kynge of Northgalys was with hem / And alle these were ageynst them of Surluse / And thenne there beganne grete bataylle / and many Knyghtes were caste vnder hors feet / And euer Kynge Bagdemagus dyd best / for he fyrste beganne / & euer he helde on / Gaherys Gawayns broder smote euer at the face of Kynge Bagdemagus / And at the laste kynge Bag-demagus hurtled doune Gaherys hors and man ¶ Thenne by aduventure fyre Palomydes the good Knyghte mette with fyre Bleoberys de Ganys / fyre Bleoberys broder/And eyther smote other with grete speres / that both theyre horses and Knyghtes felle to the erthe / But fyre Blamore had fuche a falle that he had al moost broken his neck / for the blood braste oute at nose / mouthe and his eres / but at the laste he recouered well by good surgyens / Thenne therecam in the duke Chaleyns of Claraunce and in his gouernaunce there came a knyghte that hyghte Elys la noyre / And there encountred with hym Kyng Bagdemagus / and he smote Elys that he made hym to auoyde his fadel / ¶ Soo the Duke Chaleyns of 5 Claraunce dyd there grete dedes of armes / and of soo late as he came in the thyrdde daye there was no man dyd soo wel excepte kyng Bagdemagus and sire Palomydes that the pryce was gyuen that day to Kyng Bagdemagus /

¶ And thenne they blewe vnto lodgyng and vnarmed hem 10 and wente to the sceft / ¶ Ryght soo came Dynadan and mocked and Iaped with Kyng Bagdemagus that alle knyghtes lough at hym / for he was a fyne Iaper and wel louynge alle good knyghtes /

¶ Soo anone as they had dyned / there came a varlet berynge foure speres on his bak / & 15 he came to Palomydes / & fayd thus / here is a Knyghte by hath fente yow the choyse of foure speres / and requyreth yow for your lady sake to take that one half of these speres / and Iuste with hym in the felde / ¶ Telle hym said Palomydes I wyll not fayle hym / whanne sire Galahalt wyte of this / he badde 20 Palomydes make hym redy / ¶ So the Quene Gueneuer the haute prynce and sire Launcelot they were fet vpon schafhol-des to gyue the Iugement of these two Knyghtes / ¶ Thenne fyre Palomydes and the straunge knyght ranne so egerly to gyders that their speres brake to their handes / Anon 25 with alle cyther of them tooke a grete spere in his hand and alle to sheuered them in pyeces / And thenne cyther tooke a gretter spere / And thenne the knyghte smote doune fyre Palomydes hors and man to the erthe / And as he wold haue passed ouer hym / the straunge knyghtes hors stumbled and 30 felle doune vpon Palomydes ¶ Thenne they drew their fwerdes and lashed to gyders wonderly fore a gre-but euer the straunge knyght doubled his strokes / and putte 35 Palomydes abak / there with alle the haute prynce cryed hoo / and thenne they wente to lodgyng / And whanne they were vnarmed / they knewe hit was the noble knyght fyr Lamorak ¶ Whanne fyr Launcelot knewe that hit was sir Lamorak he made moche of hym / for aboue alle erthely men he loued hym best excepte sire Tristram / ¶ Thenne Quene Gueneuer commended hym / and soo dyd alle other good knyghtes made moche of hym excepte sire Gawayns bretheren / Thenne quene Gueneuer said vnto sire launcelot fyr I requyre yow that & 5 ye luste only more / that ye luste with none of the blood of my

¶ Capitulum xlvj

ThEre begynneth the fyfthe daye / soo hit befelle that fyre Palomydes came in the morne tyde / and profered to Iuste there as kyng Arthur was in a Castel there besydes Surluse / and there encountred with hym a worshipful duke / and there fire Palomydes smote hym ouer his hors croupe / And this duke was vnkel vnto kyng Arthur / Thenne fire Elyses sone rode vnto Palomydes / and Palomydes ferued Elyse in the same wyse / whanne fire Vwayne sawe thys he was wrothe / Thenne he took his hors / and encountred with fyr Palomydes / and Palomydes smote hym foo hard / that he wente to the erthe hors and man / And for to make a short tale / he smote doune thre bretheren of fyre Gawayns / that is for to say Mordred Gaherys and Agrauayne / O Ihesu said Ar- 5 thur this is a grete despyte of a Sarafyn that he shalle smyte doune my blood / And there with alle kyng Arthur was wo-ode wrothe / and thoughte to haue made hym redy to Iuste / That aspyed fyre Lamorak that Arthur and his blood were difcomfyte / And anone he was redy and axed Palomydes 10 yf he wold any more Iuste / why shold I not said Palomydes / Thenne they hurtled to gyders and brake their speres / and alle to sheuerd them / that alle the castel range of theyr dyn-tys / Thenne eyther gate a gretter spere in his hand / and they came foo fyersly to gyders / but sir Palomydes spere all to braft 15 and fyre Lamorak dyd holde / there with alle fyre Palomydes lost his steroppes and lay vp ryght on his horfbak / And the-ne fyre Palomydes retorned ageyne and took his damoyfel / and fyre Safere retorned his way / Soo whan he was departed kyng Arthur came to fyr Lamorak and thanked hym of his 20 goodnes / and prayd hym to telle hym his name / Syr sayd Lamorak wete thow wel / I owe yow my feruys / but as att had wedded her / for ye are a kynges sone as wel as they

¶ O Ihesu sayd the noble Knyght fyre Lamorak vnto Arthur her dethe shalle I neuer forgete / I promyse yow and make myn auowe vnto god I shalle reuenge her dethe as soone 35 as I see tyme conenable / And yf hit were not at the reuerence of your hyhenes / I shold now haue ben reuenged vpon fyre Gawayn & his bretheren / truly said arthur I wil make you at acord / Syr said Lamorak as at this tyme I may not abyde with yow / for I muste to the Iustes / where is fyre launcelot and the haute prynce fyre Galahalt / Thenne there was a damoyfel that was doughter to kynge Bandes / and there was 5 a Sarafyn knyghte that hyghte Corfabryn / and he loued the damoyfel / and in no wyfe he wold suffre her to be maryed / for euer this Corfabryn noyed her and named her that she was oute of her mynde / and thus he lette her that she myght not be maryed

¶ Capitulum xliiij

- 10 SOo by fortune this damoyfel herd telle that Palomydes dyd moche for damoyfels sake / soo she sent to hym a penfel / and prayd hym to fyghte with sire Corfabryn for her loue / and he shold haue her / and her landes of her faders that shold falle to her / Thenne the damoyfel sente vnto cor-15 fabryn and badde hym goo vnto syr Palomydes that was a paynym as wel as he / and she gaf hym warnyng that she had sente hym her penfel / and yf he myghte ouercome Palomydes she wold wedde hym / whanne Corfabryn wyft of her dedes / then was he wood wroth and angry / and rode vnto Sur-20 luse where the haute prynce was / and there he fond sire Palomydes redy the whiche had the penfel / Soo there they waged batail either with other afore Galahalt / wel said the haute prynce / this daye muste noble knyghtes Iuste / and at after dy-ner we shall see how ye can spede / Thenne they blewe to Iustes yght / and he threwe hym doune ouer his hors croupe / and sire Dynadan ouerthrewe four kny3tes moo / and there he dyd grete dedes of armes / for he was a good kny3t / but he was a scoffer / and a Iaper and the meryest knyght among selauship that 30 was that tyme lyuyng / And he hadde suche a customme that he loued euery good knyghte / and euery good knyght loued hym ageyne / ¶ Soo thenne whanne the haute prynce sawe Dynadan doo soo wel / he sente vnto fyre la-uncelot / and bad hym stryke doune fyre Dynadan / And whan 35 that ye haue done so brynge hym afore me and the noble quene

Gueneuer / Thenne fir Launcelot dyd as he was requyred / Thenne fire Lamorak and he smote doune many knyghtes / &

 And soo fire Launcelot smote doune fire Dynadan / and made his men to vnarme hym / and soo brought hym to the quene 5 and the haute prynce and they lough at dynadan so fore that they myghte not stande / wel said fire Dynadan yet haue I no shame / for the old shrewe fire Launcelot smote me doune / So nadan

¶ Thenne whanne the dyner was done / they 10

 Syre Palomydes pyght his penfell in myddes of the felde / & thene they hurtled to gyders with their speres as it were thonder / and cyther smote other to the erthe / And thenne they pulled oute their swardes / and dresfid their sheldes / and lashed 15 to gyders myghtely as myghty knyghtes / that wel nyghe there was no pyece of harneis wold hold them / for this Corfabryn was a passynge felonous knyghte / Corfabryn said Palomydes wylte thou releace me yonder damoyfel / and the penfell / Thenne was Corfabryn wrothe oute of mesure / and gaf Palo- 20 mydes suche a buffet that he kneled on his knee /

¶ Thenne they blewe vnto lodgyng / and Palomydes was 30 vnarmed

¶ Thenne he wente vnto Quene Gue-neuer / to the haute prynce / and to fyre launcelot / ¶ Syre sayd the haute prynce / here haue ye fene this day a grete myrakel by Corfabryn / what fauour there was whanne the soule departed from the body / There for fyre we wylle requyre yow to take the 35 baptyvm vpon yow / and I promyse yow alle knyghtes wyl sette the more by yow / and say more worship by yow ¶ Syre said Palomydes I wille that ye alle knowe / that in to this land I came to be crytlened / and in my herte I am crytlened / and crytlend wille I be / ¶ But I haue made fuche an auowe that I maye not be crytend tyl I haue done feuen true batails for Ihesus sake / And thenne wil 5 I be crytend / And I truſte god wylle take myn entent for I meane truly / Thenne ſire Palomydes prayed Quene Gue-neuer and the haute prynce to ſoupe with hym / And ſoo they dyd bothe ſire Launcelot and ſire Lamorak / and many other good knyghtes / Soo on the morne they herd their maſſe / and 10 blewe the ſelde / and thenne knyghtes made them redy / ¶ Capítulum xlviii

 that were bretheren vnto ſire Lamorak / and they mette with other two knyghtes / and eyther ſmote other ſoo hard that all ſpere brake / Thenne he pulled oute his ſuerd / and ſmote aboute hym on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand / and ra-25 cyd of helmes and pulled doune knyghtes that alle men merueylled of fuche dedes of armes as he dyd / for he ſerd ſo that many knyghtes fledde / Thenne he horſed his bretheren ageyne and ſayd bretheren ye oughte to be aſhamed to falle ſo of your horſes / What is a Knyght but whan he is on horſbak / I ſett 30 not by a knyght whanne he is on foote / for all batails on fo-te ar but pelowres batails / For there ſhold no Knyghte fyghte on foote / but yf hit were for treaſon / or els he were dryuen therto by force / therfore bretheren fytte faſte on your horſes or els fyghte neuer more afore me / with that cam in the duke Chaleyns of Claraunce / and there encountred with hym the Erle Vlbowes of Surluse / and eyther of hem smote other do-une / Thenne the knyghtes of bothe partyes horfed their lordes ageyne / for fyr Ector and Bleoberys were on foote waytynge on the duke Chaleyns / And the kynge with the honderd 5 knyghtes was with the erle of Vlbowes / With that came Gaherys / and lassed to the Kynge with the honderd Knyghtes and he to hym ageyne / Thenne came the Duke Chaleyns / and departed them / thenne they blewe to lodgyng / and the knytes vnarmed them and drewe them to their dyner / and atte 10 myddes of their dyner in came Dynadan and beganne to ray-le / Thenne he beheld the haute prynce that semed wrothe with somme faute that he sawe / for he hadde a customme he loued no fyssh / and by cause he was serued with fyssh / the whiche he hated therefore he was not mery / Whan sir Dynadan had aspy- 15 ed the haute prynce / he aspyed where was a fyssh with a grete hede / and that he gatte betwixe two dyffhes / and serued the haute prynce with that fyssh / And thenne he said thus / sir galahalt wel may I lyken yow to a wolf / for he wille neuer ete fyssh but flessh / thenne the haute prynce lough at his wordes 20 Wel wel said Dynadan to launcelot / what deuylle doo ye in this Countrey / for here may no meane knyghtes wyne no worship for the / sir Dynadan said Launcelot I ensure the I shalle no more mete with the nor with thy grete spere / for I maye not fyte in my fadel when that spere hyttyth me / And yf I 25 be happy I shalle beware of that boyfous body that thow be-rest / wel said launcelot make good watche euer / god forbede that euer we mete but yf hit be at a dyffhe of mete / Thenne lough the Quene and the haute prynce / that they myghte not fyte at their table / thus they made grete Ioye tyl on the morn 30 And thenne they herd masse / and blewe to felde / And quene Gueneuer and all the estates were set and Iuges armed cle-ne with their sheldes to kepe the ryghte

¶ Capitulum xlii

Tow begynneth the feuenth bataill / there cam in the duke Cambynes / and there encountred with hym fyr Arryfaunce that was counted a good knyghte / & they mette foo hard that cyther bare other doune hors and man

- 5 ¶ Thenne came there the Erle of lambayle and helped the duke ageyne to hors / Thenne came there fyr Offayse of Surluse / and he smote the erle Lambayle doune from his hors / Thenne beganne they to doo grete dedes of armes / and many speres were broken / and many knyghtes were caste to the erthe
- 10 ¶ Thenne the kyng of Northgalys and the Erle Vlbowes smote to gyders that alle the Iuges thought it was lyke mortal dethe / This meane whyle quene Gueneuer and the haute prynce and fyr laücelot made there fyre Dynadan make hym redy to Iuste / I wold said Dynadan ryde in to the felde / but
- 15 thenne one one of yow tweyne wille mete with me / Per dieu sayd the haute prynce ye maye see hou we fyttre here as Iuges with oure sheldes / and alweyes mayst thow beholde whether we fyttre here or not / Soo fyr Dynadan departed and tooke his hors and mette with many knyghtes / and dyd passynge
- 20 wel / And as he was departed / fyre Launcelot desguysed hym self / and putte vpon his armour a maydens garment fresshely attyered / Thenne sire Launcelot made sire Galyhodyn to lede hym thorough the raunge / and alle men had wonder what damoyfel it was / And foo as sire Dynadan came in to the
- 25 raunge / sire Launcelot that was in the damoyfels araye gatte Galyhodyns spere and ranne vnto sir Dynadan / And alwayes sire Dynadan loked vp there as fyre Launcelot was / and thenne he sawe one fyttre in the stede of sire Launcelot armed / But whanne Dynadan sawe a maner of a damoyfel he drad
- 30 peryls that it was fyre launcelot desguysed / but fyre Launcelot came on hym so fast that he smote hym ouer his hors croupe / and thenne grete scornes gate sire Dynadan in to the forest there befyde / & there they dispoyllid hym vnto his sherte and putte vpon hym a womans garment / and so brought hym
- 35 in to the felde / and foo they blewe vnto lodgyng / And euery knyght wente and vnarmed them / thenne was sir Dynadan brought in among them alle / And whanne Quene Gueneuer sawe sir Dynadan brought foo amonge them alle / thenne she lough that she fylle doune / and soo dyd alle that there were / Wel sayd Dynadan to launcelot thow arte soo fals that I can neuer beware of the / Thenne by alle the assente they gaf fyre Launcelot the pryce / the next was fire Lamorak de galys / the thyrd was sir Palomydes / the fourthe was kynge Bagdema- 5 gus / soo thefe four Knyghtes had the pryce / and there was grete Ioye / and grete nobley in alle the Courte / And on the morne Quene Gueneuer and sir Launcelot departed vnto kynge Arthur / but in noo wyfe fyr Lamorak wold not go with them I shalle vndertake said fire launcelot that and ye wyll 10 goo with vs / kynge Arthur shalle charge fyre Gawayne and his bretheren / neuer to doo yow hurte / As for that sayd fyre Lamorak I wyll not truste fire Gawayne nor none of his bretheren / and wete ye wel sir Launcelot / and hit were not for my lord Kynge Arthurs sake / I shold matche fire Gawayn 15 and his bretheren wel ynouȝ / But to say that I shold truste them / that shal I neuer / and therfor I pray you recomma-unde me vnto my lord Arthur and vnto alle my lordes of the round table / And in what place that euer I come I shal do you seruyse to my power / and fyr it is but late that I reuen- 20 gyd that whan my lord Arthurs kynne were put to the werse by fire Palomydes / Thenne sir Lamorak departed from sir laūcelot / and eyther wepte at their departynge

¶ Capitulum I

Now torne we fro this mater / and speke we of sir trif-tram of whome this booke is pryncipal of / and leue 25 we the kynge and the quene / fyr Launcelot / and fyre Lamorak / and here begynneth the treason of kynge Marke that he ordeyned ageynst fyr Tristram / There was cryed by the cos-tes of Cornewaile a grete turnement and Iustes / and al was done by sir Galahalt the haut prynce / and kynge Bagdema- 30 gus to the entent to flee Launcelot or els vtterly destroye hym and shame hym / by cause sir launcelot had alweyes the hyher degree / therfore this prynce and this kynge made this Iustes ageynst fire Launcelot / And thus her couceyll was discouerd vnto Kyng Marke wherof he was ful gladde / Thenne Kyng Marke bethoughte hym that he wold haue fyre Triftram vnto that turnement desguysed that no man shold knowe hym / to that entente that the haute prynce shold wene that sir Triftram 5 were fyre launcelot / Soo at thise Iustes came in fyr Triftram/And at that tyme fyre launcelot was not there / but whan they sawe a Knyzt desguysed doo suche dedes of armes / they wende hit had been sir launcelot / And in especyal Kyng Mark sayd hit was fyre launcelot playnly / Thenne they sette vpon hym 10 bothe Kyng Bagdemagus and the haute prynce and theyre Knyghtes that hit was wonder that euer fyre Triftram myght endure that payne / Not withstandyng for alle the payne that he had fyr Triftram wanne the degree at that turnement / and there he hurte many Knyztes and bryfed them / and they hurte 15 hym and bryfed hym wonderly fore / ¶ So whanne the Iustes were alle done / they knewe wel that hit was fyre Triftram de Lyones / and all that were on Kyng markes party were glad that sir Triftram was hurte / and the remenaunt were fory of his hurte / for fyre Triftram was not soo behated as was fyre 20 Launcelot within the Reame of Englonde / Thenne came Kyng Marke vnto fyre Triftram / and sayd sayre neuwe I am fo-ry of your hurtes / Gramercy my lord said fyre Triftram / ¶ Thenne Kyng Marke made sir Triftram to be putte in an hors bere in grete sygne of loue / and said sayre cosyn I shalle 25 be your leche my self / and soo he rode forth with fyre Triftram and brought hym to a Castel by day lyghte / And thenne Kynge Mark made fyre Triftram to ete / And thenne after he gaf hym a drynke / the whiche as soone as he had dronke / he fell on slepe / And whanne it was nyghte he made hym to be caryed to 30 another castel / and there he putte hym in a stronge pryson / & there he ordeyned a man and a woman to gyue hym his mete and drynke / Soo there he was a grete whyle / thenne was fyr Triftram myssed / and no creature wyft where he was become When la beale Ifoud herd hou he was myssed pryucly she went 35 vnto sir Sadok & praid hym to aspye where was sir Triftram Thenne when Sadok wyft hou sir triftram was myssed & anon aspyed that he was put in pryson by kyng mark & the traitours of Magōs / thēne sadok & two of his cosyns leid them in an enbushment fast by the castel of Tyntagyl in armes / And as by fortune there came rydyng Kynge Marke and foure of his newewes / and a certayn of the traytours of Magouns Whanne fir Sadok aspyed them / he brake oute of the bush-ment / and fette there vpon them / And whan kynge Mark af- 5 pyed fire Sadok / he fledde as fast as he myghte / and there fir Sadok flewe alle the four newewes vnto Kynge Marke / But these traitours of Magons flewe one of Sadoks cosyns a grete wound in the neck / but Sadok smote the other to the dethe / Thenne fir Sadok rode vpon his way vnto a Castel that 10 was called Lyonas / and there he aspyed of the treason and felony of kynge Marke / Soo they of that castel rode with fyre Sadok tyl that they came to a Castel that hyghte Arbray / & there in the toun they fond fyre Dynas the Seneschal / that was a good Knyght / But whan fire Sadok had told fyre 15 Dynas of alle the treason of Kynge Marke / he defyed fuche a Kynge / and sayd he wold gyue vp his landes that he held of hym / And whanne he said these wordes alle manere Knyghtes sayd as fyre Dynas said / Thenne by his aduys and of fire Sadoks he lete stuffe alle the townes and Castels within 20 the Countrey of Lyones and assembled alle the peple that they myght make

¶ Capitulum li

Now torne we vnto Kynge Marke that whan he was escaped from fir Sadok / he rode vnto the Castel of Tyn-tagyl / and there he made grete crye and noyse / & cry- 25 ed vnto harneis alle that myghte bere armes / Thenne they fought and fond where were dede four cosyns of kyng Markes and the traytour of Magouns / Thenne the kynge lete entyere them in a chappel / thenne the kynge lete crye in alle the countrey that helde of hym to goo vnto armes / for he vnderstood 30 to the werre he must nedes / Whanne Kynge Marke herde and vnderstood how fyre Sadok and fir Dynas were aryfen in the Countrey of Lyones / he remembryd of wyles and treason / Lo thus he dyd / he lete make and counterfete letters from the pope and dyd make a straunge clerke to bere them vnto kyng marrk / the whiche letters specyfyed that kynge Marke shold make hym redy vpon payne of curfying with his hooft to come to the pope to helpe to goo to Iherusalem for to make warre vp-5 on the Sarafyns / whan this clerk was come by the meane of the Kynge / anone with alle kyng marke sente thefe letters vnto fire Triftram and badde hym faye thus / that and he wold goo werre vpon the mescreauntes / he shold be had oute of pryfon / and to haue alle his power / Whanne fire Triftram vnder-10 stood this letter / thenne he sayd thus to the Clerke / A kynge Marke euer haft thou ben a traytour / and euer wyll be / but Clerke said fire Triftram Say thou thus vnto Kynge marke Syn the Appostle pope hath sente for hym / bydde hym goo thy-der hym self / for telle hym traitour Kynge as he is I wyll 15 not goo at his commaündement / gete I oute of pryfon as I may for I see I am wel rewarded for my true feruyse / Thenne the Clerke retorned vnto kynge Marke and told hym of the anfuer of fire Triftram / wel sayd Kynge marke yet shal he be begyled / Soo he wente in to his chamber and counterfete let-20 ters / and the letters specyfyed that the pope defyred fire Tri-fram to come hym self to make werre vpon the mescreauntes Whan the Clerke was come ageyne to fir Triftram and tooke hym thefe letters / thenne fire Triftram behelde thefe letters / & anone he aspyed they were of kynge Markes counterfetyng 25 A said fyre Triftram fals haft thou ben euer kynge Marke / and foo wolt thou ende / Thenne the Clerke departed from fire Triftram and came to kynge Marke ageyne / By thenne there were come four wounded knyghtes within the castel of Tyntagil / and one of them his neck was nyghe broken in tweyn 30 Another had his arme stryken away / the thyrdde was borne thurgh with a spere / the fourth had his teeth stryken in tweyn And whanne they came afore kynge Marke they cryed and sayd / kynge / why fleest thou not for alle this country is a-ryfen clerely ageynst the / thenne was kynge Marke wrothe 35 oute of mesure / and in the meane whyle there came in to the country fire Percyuale de galys to seke fire Triftram / And whan he herd that fyre Triftram was in pryfon / fyr Percyual made clerely the delyueraunce of sir Tristram by his knyghtly meanes / And whan he was foo delyuerd / he made grete Ioye of fyre Percyuale / and foo echone of other / Syr Tristram fa-yd vnto fire Percyuale / and ye wille abyde in these marches I wille ryde with yow / Nay said Percyuale in this cuntry 5 I maye not tary / for I muste nedes in to walys / ¶ Soo fyre Percyuale departed from fire Tristram / and rode freyghte vnto Kyng Marke / and told hym how he had delyuerd fyre Tristram / and also he told the kyng that he had done hym self grete shame for to putte sir Tristram in pryson / For he is now 10 the knyght of moost renomme in this world lyuynge And wete thow wel the noblest knyghtes of the worlde loue fyr Tristram / and yf he wille make werre vpon yow / ye maye not abyde hit / That is trouthe said kyng Marke / but I may not loue fire Tristram by cause he loueth my Quene and my 15 wyf la beale Ifoud / A fy for shame said fyr Percyuale fay ye neuer so more / Are ye not vnkel vnto sir Tristram / and he your neuwe / ye shold neuer thynke that foo noble a Knyghte as fire Tristram is that he wold doo hym self foo grete a vy-lony to holde his vnkels wyf / how be it said fyr Percyuale he 20 may loue your Quene synles by cause she is called one of the fayrest ladyes of the world / Thenne fyr Percyuale departed from Kyng Marke / Soo whan he was departed Kyng Mark bethought hym of more trefon / Not withstādyng kyng mark graunted fyr Percyuale neuer by no manere of meanes to 25 hurte fire Tristram / Soo anone Kyng Marke sente vnto fyre Dyanas the Seneschal that he shold putte doune alle the peple that he had reysed / for he sente hym an othe that he wold goo hym self vnto the pope of Rome to warre vpon the mescreaun-tes / and this is a fayrer werre than thus to areyse the peple / 30 ageynst youre kyng / whanne sir Dynas vnderstood that kyng Marke wold goo vpon the mescreauntes / thenne fire Dynas in alle haft putte doune alle the peple / and whan the peple were departed euery man to his home / thēne Kyng mark afpyed where was fire Tristram with la Beale Ifoud / and 35 there by treason Kyng Marke lete take hym and put hym in pryson contrary to his promyse that he made vnto fyre Percyuale / whan Quene Ifoud vnderstood that fyr Tristram was in pryfon / she made as grete forowe as euer made lady or gentylwoman / Thenne fire Tristram sent a letter vnto la Beale Ifoud and praid her to be his good lady / and yf hit pleased her to make a vessel redy for her and hym / he wold goo with 5 her vnto the reame of Logrys that is this land / ¶ Whanne la beale Ifoud vnderstood fyre Tristrams letters and his entent she sente hym another / and badde hym be of good comforte / for she wold doo make the vessel redy and alle thynges to purpos ¶ Thenne la beale Ifoud sente vnto fyre Dynas and to sadok 10 and prayd hem in ony wyse to take Kynge Marke / and put hym in pryfon vnto the tyme that she and fyre Tristram were departed vnto the Royamme of Logrys / whan sir Dynas the Seneschall vnderstood the treason of Kynge Marke / he promy-sed her ageyne and sente her word that Kynge Marke shold 15 be put in pryfon / And as they deuysed hit soo hit was done / And thenne fyre Tristram was delyuerd out of pryfon / and anone in alle the haste Quene Ifoud and fyr Tristram and went and took their counceyll with that they wold haue with them whan they departed

20 Thenne la Beale Ifoud and fire Tristram took their vessel / and came by water in to this land / and so they were not in this land four dayes / but there came a crye of a lustes and turnement that Kynge Arthur lete make / Whanne fire Tristram herd telle of that turnement he desguysed 25 hym self / and la Beale Ifoud / and rode vnto that turnement And whan he came there he sawe many Knyghtes luste and turneye / and so fyr Tristram dressid hym to the raunge / and to make short conclusion / he ouerthrewe fourteen Knyghtes of the round table / Whanne sir Launcelot sawe these Knyghtes thus 30 ouerthrowen / fire launcelot dressid hym to sir Tristram / That sawe la Beale Ifoud how fire launcelot was come in to the felde / ¶ Thenne la Beale Ifoud sente vnto fire Launcelot a ryng / and badde hym wete that it was sir Tristram de lyones Whanne sir launcelot vnderstood that there was fyre Tristram 35 he was ful gladd / and wold not luste / thēne fire Launcelot aspyed whyder fyre Tristram yede / and after hym he rode / and thenne eyther made of other grete Ioye / And soo fire Launcelot broughte fire Tristram and la beale Ifoud vnto Ioyous gard that was his owne Castel that he had wonne with his owne handes / And there fire Launcelot put them in to welde 5 for their owne / And wete ye wel that Castel was garnysshed and furnysshed for a Kynge and a quene Royal there to haue foiourned / and fyre Launcelot charged alle his people to honoure them and loue them as they wold doo hym felf /

¶ Soo fire launcelot departed vnto kynge Arthur / and then- 10 ne he told Quene Gueneuer how he that Iufted soo wel atte laft turnement was fire Tristram / and there he told her how he hadde with hym la beale Ifoud maulgre kynge Marke / & soo Quene Gueneuer told alle this vnto kynge Arthur /

¶ Whanne kynge Arthur wyfte that fire Tristram was efca- 15 ped and comen from kynge Marke / and had broughte la beale Ifoud with hym / thenne was he passyng gladde / So by caufe of fire Tristram kynge Arthur lete make a crye / that on may day shold be a lustes before the castel of Lonazep / And that Castel was fast by Ioyous gard / And thus Arthur 20 deuyfed that alle the knyghtes of this land and of Cornewaile and of Northwalys shold Iuste ageynste all thefe countreyes / Irland / Scotland / and the remenaunt of walys & the countrey of Gore and Surluse and of Lyftynoyse / & they of Northumberland and alle they that helde landes of arthur 25 a this half the fee / whanne this crye was made / many knyghtes were gladde and many were vngladde / ¶ Syre faid laūcelot vnto Arthur by this crye that ye haue made ye wyll put vs that ben aboute yow in grete Ieopardy / for there be many Knyghtes that haue grete enuye to vs / therfore whan we shal 30 mete at the daye of Iustes there wille be hard skyfte amonge vs / As for that faid Arthur I care not / there shal we preue who shal be best of his handes / Soo whan fir launcelot vnder-stode wherfore kynge Arthur made this Iustyng thēne he made fuche purueaunce that la beale Ifoud shold behold the Iuf- 35 tes in a secrete place that was honest for her estate /

¶ Now torne we vnto fire Tristram and to la beale Ifoud / how they maade grete Ioye dayly to gyders with alle manere of myrthes that they coud deuyse / and in euery day fir Triftram wold goo ryde on huntynge / for fire Triftram was that tyme called the best chacer of the world / and the noblest blower of an horne of alle manere of mesures / for as bookes reporte / of 5 fyre Triftram came alle the good termes of venery and of hūtyng and alle the fyfes and mesures of blowynge of an horne / and of hym we had fyrste alle the termes of haukyng / & whiche were beestes of chace and beestes of venery / and whiche were vermyns / and alle the blastes that longen to all ma-10 ner of gamen / Fyrste to the vncoupelyng / to the sekyng / to the rechate / to the flyghte / to the dethe / and to strake / and many other blastes and termes / that all maner of gentylmen haue cause to the worldes ende to preyse fir Triftram and to praye for his foule

¶ Capitulum liij

15 Soo on a daye la beale Ifoud sayd vnto fir Triftram I merueyle me moche said she / that ye remembre not your self how ye be here in a straunge countrey and here be many peryllous knyghtes / and wel ye wote that kyng Marke is ful of treason / and that ye wylle ryde thus to chace and to 20 to hunte vnarmed ye myghte be destroyed / ¶ My fayr lady and my loue I crye you mercy I wille no more doo foo Soo thenne fire Triftram rode dayly on huntynge armed and his men berynge his shelde and his spere / Soo on a day a ly-tyl afore the monethe of may fyre Triftram chaced an hert pas-25 syng egerly / and foo the herte passed by a fayr welle / And thenne fir Triftram alyghte and putte of his helme to drynke of that burbley water / Ryght foo he herd and sawe the que-syng beest come to the welle / whan fyre Triftram sawe that be-ste / he putte on his helme for he demed he shold here of fir Pa-30 lomydes / for that beste was his quest / ¶ Ryght so fir Triftram sawe where came a knyghte armed vpon a noble courser / and he fawed hym / and they spake of many thynges / and thys knyghtes name was Breufe faunce pyte / and ryght so with alle there came vnto them the noble knyghte fire Palomydes / 35 and eyther fawed other / and spake fair to other

Fair knyghtes said sir Palomydes I canne telle yow tydynges / what is that said tho knyghtes / Syrs wete ye wel that Kynge Marke is put in pryfon by his owne knyghtes / and alle was for loue of fire Triftram / for kynge Marke hadde put fyre Triftram twyes in pryfon / And ones fire Percyuale de- 5 lyuerd the noble knyghte fire Triftram oute of pryfon

¶ And at the laste tyme Quene La beale Ifoud deliuerd hym / and wente clerlylly aweye with hym in to this reame / & alle this whyle kynge Marke the fals traytour is in pryfon / Is this trouthe said Palomydes / Thenne shall we hastily he- 10 re of fire Triftram / And as for to say that I loue la Beale Ifoud peramours I dare make good that I doo / and that she hath my feruyfe aboue alle other ladyes / and shalle haue the terme of my lyf / And ryght soo as they stood talkynge / they fawe afore them where came a Knyghte alle armed on a 15 grete hors / and one of his men bare his sheld / and the other his speres / And anone as that Knyght aspyed them he gatte his shelde and his spere / and dresid hym to luste ¶ Fair felawes said fire Triftram yonder is a Knyghte wil luste with vs / lete see whiche of vs shalle encountre with hym 20 for I see wel he is of the courte of Kynge Arthur ¶ It shalle not be longe or he be mette with alle said fire Palomydes / for I fonde neuer noo knyght in my queste of this Glastynge beest / but and he wold luste I neuer refused hym

¶ As wel may I said Breufe faunce pyte folowe that beest 25 as ye / Thenne shalle ye doo bataille with me said Palomydes / Soo fyre Palomydes dresid hym vnto that other Knyghte fyre Bleoberys that was a ful noble Knyghte nyghe kynne vnto fire Launcelet / And soo they mette soo hard / that fyre Palomydes felle to the erthe hors and alle / 30

Thenne sir Bleoberis cryed a lowde and said thus / make the redy thou fals traytour knyghte Breufe faunce pyte / for wete thow certaynly I wille haue adoo with the to the vterance for the noble knyghtes and ladyes that thou hast falsly bi-traid

¶ Whanne this false knyght and traitour 35 Breufe faunce pyte herde hym saye soo / he took his hors by the brydel and fledde his waye as faste as euer his hors myghte renne / for fore he was of hym aferd / ¶ Whan syr Bleoberys sawe hym flee he folowed faste after thorough thycke and thorough thynne / And by fortune as sir Breuse fledde / he sawe euen afore hym thre knyghtes of the table round / of the whiche tho one hyghte sire Ector de marys / the other hyghte fyre Percyuale de galys / the thyrdd hyghte sir Harre de fyfe lake a good knyght and an hardy / And as for fyr Percyuale he was called that tyme of his tyme one of the best knyghtes of the world and the best assured / when Breuse sawe these knyghtes he rode streyghte vnto them and cryed vnto them & prayd them of rescowes / what nede haue ye said sire Ector / A fayr knyghtes faide fyre Breuse here foloweth me the moost traytour knyght and moost coward and moost of vylony / his name is Breuse faunce pyte / and yf he may gete me he wyll flee me withoute mercy and pyte / Abyde with vs said sir Percyuale and we shalle waraunt yow / Thenne were they ware of fyre Bleoberys that came rydyng alle that he myghte / Thenne sir Ector put hym self forth to Iuste afore them alle / When sire Bleoberis sawe that they were four knyghtes / and he but hym self / he stode in a doubte / whether he wold torne or hold his waye / Thenne he said to hym self I am a knyght of the table round / and rather than I shold shame myn othe & my blood I wille hold my way what soo euer falle therof / And thenne sire Ector dressid his spere and smote either other passyng fore / but sire Ector felle to the erthe / That sawe sir Percyuale and he dressid his hors toward hym all that he myghte dryue / but sir Percyuale had fuche a stroke that hors and man felle to the erth / ¶ Whanne sir Harre sawe that they were bothe to the erthe / thenne he said to hym self / neuer was Breuse of fuche prowesse / Soo sire Harre dressid his hors / & they mette to gyders soo strongly that bothe the horses and knyghtes felle to the erthe / but sire Bleoberis hors beganne to recouer ageyne / That sawe sire Breuse and he came hurtlyng / & smote hym ouer and ouer and wolde haue slayne hym as he lay on the ground / Thenne fyr Harre le fyfe lake arose lyghtely and toke the brydel of sir Breuse hors and said / ¶ Fy for shame fryke neuer a Knyght when he is at the erthe / for this Knyght may be called no shameful knyghte of his dedes / for yet as men may see there as he lyeth on the ground he hath done worshipfully / and putte to the werfe passynge good knyghtes Therfore wyll I not lete faide sire Breufe / thou shalte not chese faid syr Harre as at this tyme / Thenne whanne sir Brufe sawe that he myghte not chese nor haue his wyll / he spak sayre / Thenne fyre Harre lete hym goo / And thenne anone he 5 made his hors to renne ouer fyre Bleoberys / and raffhed hym to the erthe lyke yf he wold haue slayne hym / Whanne fyre Harre sawe hym doo so vyloynly / he cryed traytour knyzt le-ue of for shame / and as sir Harre wold haue taken his hors to fyghte with sir breufe / thenne sir Breufe ranne vpon hym 10 as he was half vpon his hors and smote hym doune hors & man to the erthe / and had nere slayne syr Harre the good kn-yght / That sawe sire Percyuale / and thenne he cryed traitour knyghte what dost thou / And whan sire Percyuale was vpon his hors / syr Breufe tooke his hors and fledde all that euer 15 he myght / and fyre Percyuale and fyre Harre solowed after hym fast / but euer the lenger they chaced the ferther were they behynde / Thenne they torned ageyne and came to syr Ector de marys and to fyre Bleoberys / A sayr knyghtes faid Bleoberys why haue ye focoured that fals knyght & traitour / why 20 faid sire Harre what knyght is he / for wel I wote hit is a fals knyght faid sir Harre and a coward and a felonous kn-yght / Syr sayd Bleoberys he is the moost coward knyghte / and a deuourer of ladyes and a destroyer of good Knyghtes and speccially of Arthurs / what is your name faide sir Ector 25 my name is Syr bleoberys de ganys / Allas fair cosyn fayde Ector / forgyue it me / for I am sir Ector de marys / thenne fyre Percyuale and sire Harre made grete ioye that they met with bleoberys / but alle they were heuy that syr breufe was escaped them wherof they made grete dole 30

¶ Capitulum liiij

RYght soo as they stood thus / there came sir Palomydes And whanne he sawe the shelde of bleoberys lye on the erthe / ¶ Thenne faid Palomydes he that oweth that sheld / lete hym dresse hym to me / for he smote me doune here fast by at a fontayne / and therefore I wylle fyghte for hym on foote / I am redy faid Bleoberys here to anfuer the / for we-te thou wel fyr knyzt it was I / and my name is Bleoberys 5 de ganys / wel arte thou met faide Palomydes / and wete thou wel my name is Palomydes the farafyn / and cyther of them hated other to the dethe / ¶ Syre Palomydes sayd Ector wete thou wel there is neyther thou nor none knyght that bereth the lyf that sleeth ony of oure blood / but he shalle dye for hit / ther-10 for and thou lyfte to fyghte goo feche sire laūcelot or sir Trif-tram and there shalle ye fynde your matche / with hem haue I mette faid Palomydes / but I had neuer no worship of them / was there neuer no maner of knyghte faid sire Ector but they that euer matched with yow / yes sayd Palomydes / there was 15 the thyrdde a good knyght as ony of them / and of his age he was the best that euer I fond / for and he myghte haue lyued tyl he had ben an hardyer man / there lyueth no knyghte now fuche / and his name was fyre Lamorak de galys / And as he had Iusted at a turnement / there he ouerthrewe me / and xxx 20 knyghtes moo / and there he wanne the degree / And at his departynge there mette hym fyre Gawayne and his bretheren / & with grete payne they slewe hym felonfly vnto alle good kny-ghtes grete damage / Anone as sir Percyuale herd that his broder was dede fyr Lamorak / he felle ouer his hors mane fw-25 ounynge / and there he made the grettest dole that euer maade knyghte / ¶ And whan fyr Percyuale aroos / he faid / Allas my good and noble broder fyre Lamorak / now shalle we neuer mete / and I trowe in alle the wyde world a man maye not fynde fuche a knyght as he was of his age / and hit is to 30 moche to suffre the dethe of our fader kyng Pellenore / & now the dethe of our good broder sir Lamorak / Thenne in the meane wyhle there came a varlet from the court of kyng Arthur and told them of the grete turnement that shold be at Lona-35 3ep / and how these landes Cornewail / & Northgalys shold be ageynst alle them that wold come ¶ Capitulum lv

Now torne we vnto sir Tristram that as he rode on huntyng / he mette with sire Dynadan that was comen in to that countrey to seke fyre Tristram / Thenne sire Dynadan told sire Tristram his name / but sire Tristram wold not telle hym his name / wherfore syr Dynadan was wrothe / 5 For fuche a foolysse knyghte as ye are said sire Dynadan I sawe but late this day lyenge by a welle / and he fared as he slepte / and there he lay lyke a foole grymmynge and wold not speke / and his shelde lay by hym / and his hors stode by hym / and wel I wote he was a louer / A fayr syr said fyre 10 Tristram are ye not a louer / mary sy on that craste said sir dynadan / that is euylle said said sire Tristram / for a knyzt maye neuer be of prowesse / but yf he be a louer / it is wel said said sir Dynadan / Now telle me your name syth ye be a louer / or els I shalle doo bataille with yow / As for that said sir Tristram 15 hit is no reason to fyghte with me / but I telle yow my name And as for that my name shalle ye not wete as at this tyme Fy for shame said Dynadan arte thou a knyghte and darste not telle thy name to me / therfore I wil fyghte with the / As for that said sir Tristram I wyll be aduysed / for I wil not 20 doo batail / but yf me lyft / And yf I doo batail said sire Tristram ye are not able to withstande me / Fy on the coward sayd fyre Dynadan / and thus as they houed styl they sawe a kn-yght came rydyng ageynst them / Lo said sir Tristram see where cometh a knyght rydyng wyll Iuste with you / Anon as sir 25 Dynadan beheld hym he said that is the same doted knyzt that I sawe lye by the welle neither slepyng ne wakyng / wel sayde sire Tristram I knowe that knyght wel with the couerd shelde of afure / he is the kynges sone of Northumberland / his name is Epynegrys / and he is as grete a louer as I knowe / 30 and he loutheth the kynges doughter of walys a ful fayre lady And now I suppose said sire Tristram / and ye requyre hym / he wille Iuste with yow / and thenne shalle ye preue whether a louer be a better knyghte or ye that wyll not loue no lady / wel said Dynadan now shalt thou see what I shall do / There with 35 alle sire Dynadan spake on hyghe and said sir knyghte make the redy to Iuste with me / for it is the custome of erraüt knytes one to Iuste with other / Sir said Epynegrys is þ^t the rule of yow arraunt knyghtes for to make a knyght to Iuste will he or nyll / As for that sayd Dynadan make the redy / for here is for me / And there with al they spored theyr horses & mett to gyders soo hard that Epynegrys smote doune sir Dynadan 5 Thenne sir Tristram rode to sire Dynadan and sayd how now me semeth the louer hath wel spedde / Fy on the Coward sayd fyre Dynadan / and yf thou be a good Knyghte reuenge me/Nay said syr Tristram I wyll not Iuste as at this tyme / but take your hors and lete vs goo hens / God defende me fa-10 yd fyre Dynadan from thy selauſhyp / For I neuer sped wel syn I mette with the / and soo they departed / wel sayd sir trifram / peradventure I coude telle yow tydynes of sir tristram God defende me said Dynadan from thy selauſhyp / for sir trifram were mykel the werse / and he were in thy company / and 15 thenne they departed / Syre said sir Tristram yet it may happen I shal mete with you in other places / so rode syr Tristram vnto Ioyous gard / and there he herd in that toun grete noyse and crye / what is this noyse said sire Tristram / Syre sayd they here is a knyght of this castel that hath ben longe among 20 vs / and ryght now he is slayne with two knyghtes / And for none other cause / but that oure knyghte sayd that sir Laūcelot were a better Knyght than fyre Gawayne / that was a fymple cause said sir Tristram for to flee a good knyght for to faye wel by his mayster / That is lytel remedy to vs sayde the 25 men of the toun / For and sire Launcelot had ben here / foone we shold haue ben reuenged vpon the fals knyghtes / whan fyre Tristram herd them faye soo / he sente for his shelde / & for his spere / and lyghtly within a whyle he had ouertake them/and badde them torne and amende that they had mysdone / 30 What amendes woldest thou haue sayd the one Knyghte / & therwith they tooke theyr cours / and eyther mette other so hard that syr Tristram smote doune that knyghte ouer his hors ta-yle / Thenne the other knyght dresseid hym to syr Tristram / and in the same wyse he serued the other knyghte / ¶ And thenne 35 they gate of their horses as wel as they myghte and dresseid their sheldes and swerdes do do their bataile to the vterance Knyghtes said sire Tristram ye shalle telle me of whens ye ar and what be youre names / for fuche men ye myȝte be ye shold hard escape my handes / and ye myghte be fuche men of fuche a countre / that for alle your euylle dedes ye shold passe quyte / Wete thow wel fyre Knyghte sayde they we feare not to telle the oure names / for my name is fyr Agrauayne / and my na-name is Gaherys bretheren vnto the good Knyghte fyre Gawa- 5 yne / and we be newewes vnto kyng Arthur / wel sayd fir tristram for Kynge Arthurs sake I shalle lete yow passe as att this tyme / But hit is shame said fyre Tristram that fyre Ga-wayne and ye be comen of soo grete a blood that ye soure bretheren are soo named as ye be / For ye be called the grettest def- 10 troyers and murtherers of good Knyghtes that ben now in this reame / for it is but as I herde saye that fyr Gawayne & ye flewe amonge yow a better knyght than euer ye were / that was the noble knyghte fyre Lamorak de galys / and hit hadde pleased god sayd fyre Tristram I wold I had ben by fyre 15 Lamorak at his deth / thenne sholdest thou haue gone the same way said fir Gaherys / Fayre knyghte said fyre Tristram ther must haue ben many moo knyghtes than ye are / And there with alle fyre Tristram departed fro them toward Ioyous gard And whanne he was departed / they took theyre horses / and 20 the one said to the other / we wylle ouertake hym and be reuen-ged vpon hym in the despyte of fyre Lamorak ¶ Capitulum lvj

W Oo when they hadde ouertake fyre Tristram / fir Agra-uayne badde hym torne traytour knyght / that is euyll sayd / said fir Tristram / and ther with he pulled out his 25 swerd / and smote fyr Agrauayne fuche a buffet vpon the helme that he tumbled doune of his hors in a swoone / and he hadde a greuous wounde / And thenne he turned to Gaherys / and fyre Tristram smote his swerd and his helme to gyders with fuche a myght that Gaherys selle oute of his fadel / and soo fir Trist- 30 ram rode vnto Ioyous gard and there he alyght and vnarmed hym / Soo fyre Tristram told la beale Ifoud of alle his aduenture as ye haue herd to forne / And whan she herd hym telle of fyre Dynadan / fyr said she is not that he that made the song by kynges Marke / that fame is he said fyre Tristram / for he is the best boulder and Iaper and a noble knyghte of his handes / and the best felawe that I knowe / and alle good knyghtes loue his fellowship / Allas fyre said she why broughte ye not 15 hym with yow / haue ye no care sayd fyr Tristram / for he rydeth to seke me in this countre / and therefore he wyll not away tyl he haue met with me / And there fyre Tristram told la Beale Ifoud how sir Dynadan helde ageynste alle louers / Ryght so there came in a varlet and told sir Tristram how there was co-10 me an erraunt knyght in to the toun with fuche colours vpon his shield / that is fyre Dynadan said fyre Tristram / wete ye 30 to be soo mad and soo foted vpon wymmen / why said la bele Ifoud / are ye a Knyght and be no louer / it is shame to you where for ye may not be called a good knyghte / and yf ye make a quarel for a lady / God defende me sayd Dynadan / for the Ioye of loue is to short / and the sorow therof and what cometh 35 therof dureth ouer longe / A said la Beale Ifoud say ye not good game at hym / Soo he had alle the chere that the myghte erly fyr Triftram armed hym and la beale Ifoud gaf hym a good helme / and thenne he promyfed her that he wold mete 15 with fyr Dynadan / And they two wold ryde to gyders vnto Lonazep where the turnement shold be / and there shal I make redy for yow where ye shalle see the turnement / Thenne departed fir Triftram with two squyers that bare his sheld & his speres that were grete and longe / 20

¶ Capitulum liiij

THenne after that fyr Dynadan departed / and rode his way a grete paas vntyl he had ouertake fir Triftram And when fyr Dynadan had ouertake hym / he kne-we hym anone / and he hated the felauship of hym aboute all other knyghtes / A faid fyre Dynadan art thou that coward 25 knyght that I mette with yesterday / kepe the / for thou shalte Iuste with me maulgre thy hede / Wel faid fire Triftram and I am lothe to Iuste / and soo they lete theyr horses renne / and fyr Triftram myssid of hym a purpos / & fir Dynadan brak a spere vpon fire Triftram / and there with fyre Dynadan dresid 30 hym to to drawe out his swerd / Not soo faid fir Triftram / why are ye soo wrothe I wille not fyghte / Fy on the coward fayd Dynadan thou shamest alle knyghtes / As for that faid fyre Triftram I care not / for I wille wayte vpon you and be vnder your protectyon / for by caufe ye are fo good a knyght ye may faue me / The deuylle delyuer me of the faid fyr Dynadan / for thou arte as goodely a man of armes and of thy perfone as euer I fawe and the moost coward that euer I fawe / what 5 wold thou doo with tho grete speres that thou caryest with the whan I come to the turnement / And yf I fee yow doo best / I shalle gyue them to yow / Soo thus as they rode talkyng they fawe where came an erraunt knyght afore them that drefsyd 10 hym to Iuste / Loo faid fyr Triftram yonder is one wyllc Iuste now dresse the to hym / a flame betyde the faid fire Dynadan / Nay not foo faid Triftram for that knyght befemeth a shrewe / Thenne shalle I faid fyr Dynadan and foo they drefsid their sheldes and their speres / and they mette to gyders foo hard / 15 that the other knyght fmote down fir Dynadan from hys hors Loo faid fir Triftram hit had ben better ye had lefte / Fy on the coward faid fire Dynadan / Thenne fir Dynadan starte vp and gat his fwerd in his hande / and profered to do batail on foote / whether in loue or in wrathe faide the other knyghte / lete 20 vs doo bataille in loue faid fir Dynadan / what is your name faid that knyght I pray yow telle me / wete ye wel my name is fir Dynadan / A Dynadan faid that knyght and my name is Gareth the yongest broder vnto fyre Gawayne / thenne eyther made of other grete chere / for this Gareth was the best 25 knyghte of alle tho bretheren / and he preued a good Knyghte Thenne they took their horses / and there they fpak of fir Trif-tram how fuche a coward he was / and euery word fir Triftram herd and lough them to fcorne / Thenne were they ware where came a knyght afore them wel horsed and wel armed / and he 30 made hym redy to Iuste / Fair knyghtes faid fyr Triftram / loke betwixe yow who shalle Iuste with yonder knyghte / for I warne yow I wille not haue adoo with hym / thenne shall I faid fyr Gareth / and foo they encountred to gyders / and there that knyght fmote doune fire Gareth ouer his hors croupe 35 How now faide fire Triftram vnto fyre Dynadan / dresse the now and reuenge the good knyght Gareth / That shall I not faid fir Dynadan / for he hath ftryken doune a moche bygger knyghte than I am / A said fire Triftram now fire Dynadan I see and fele wel your herte fayleth yow / therfore now shalle ye see what I shalle doo / And thenne fire Triftram hurtled vnto that knyghte / and smote hym quyte from his hors / And whanne fire Dynadan sawe that / he merueyled gretely / And thenne he demed that hit was fire Triftram / Thenne this kny-ght that was on foot pulled oute his swerd to doo bataille / what is your name said fire Triftram / wete ye wel fayde that knyghte my name is fyre Palomydes / What knyghte hate ye moost said fyr Triftram / Syr knyeght said he I hate fir Trif-tram to the dethe / for and I may mete with hym the one of vs shalle dye / ye fayde wel said fir Triftram / and wete ye wel that I am fire Triftram de lyones / and now doo your werste whanne fire Palomydes herd hym fayde soo he was afonyed / And thenne he said thus I praye yow fir Triftram forgyue me alle myn euylle wyll / And yf I lyue I shal doo you seruyse aboue alle other knyghtes that ben lyuynge / and there as I haue owed yow euylle wyll me fore repenteth / I wote not what eyleth me / for me semeth that ye are a good knyghte / & none other Knyghte that named hym self a good knyghte shold not hate yow therfor I requyre yow fyr triftram take no displeasur at myn vnkynde wordes / Syr Palomydes said fire Triftram ye fayde wel / and wel I wote ye are a good knyghte for I haue sene you preued and many grete enterpryses haue ye taken vpon yow / and wel encheued them / therfor said fire Triftram and ye haue ony euill wille to me / now maye ye ryghte hit / for I am redy at your hand / Not soo my lord fire Triftram I wille doo yow knyghtly seruys in all thyng as ye wyl commaunde / and ryght soo I will take yow said fyre Triftram / and soo they rode forthe on theyr wayes talkyng of many thynges / O my lord fire Triftram said Dynadan / foule haue ye mocked me / for god knoweth I cam in to this cōtrei for your sake / and by the aduys of my lord fire Launcelot / And yet wold not fire Launcelot telle me certeynte of you where I shold fynde yow / Truly said fir Triftram fyre Laun-celot wiste wel wherr I was / for I abode within his owne castel /

¶ Capitulum lviij

THus they rode vntyl they were ware of the Castel lo-nazep / And thenne were they ware of foure honderd tentys and paelions / and merueylous grete ordenaunce / Soo god me helpe faide fire Tristram yonder I see the 5 gretteft ordenaunce that euer I sawe / Syre faid Palomydes / me semeth that there was as grete an ordenaunce att the castel of maydens vpon the roche where ye wanne the pryce / for I sa-we my self where ye foriusted thyrty knyghtes / Syr sayd Dynadan and in Surlufe at that turnement that Galahalt 10 of the longe Iles maade the whiche there dured feuen dayes / was as grete a gadrynge as is here / for there were many nacyons / who was the best faid fire Tristram / fire it was fir Laun-celot du lake and the noble knyghte fire Lamorak de galys / and fir launcelot wanne the degree / I doubte not faid fir Trif-15 tram but he wanne the degree / So he had not ben ouermatched with many knyghtes / and of the dethe of fire Lamorak sayd fyre Tristram hit was ouer grete pyte / for I dare say / he was the clenest myȝted man and the best wynded of his age / that was on lyue / for I knewe hym that he was the byggest kny-20 ght that euer I mette with all but yf hit were fire Launcelot/Allas faid fire Tristram ful woo is me for his deth / And yf they were not the cosyns of my lord Arthur that slewe hym / they shold dye for hit / and all tho that were consentyng to his dethe / And for suche thynges faid fire Tristram I seare to dra-25 we vnto the courte of my lord Arthur / I wylle that ye wete hit faid fire Tristram vnto Gareth / Syre I blame yow not faid Gareth / For wel I vnderstande the vengeance of my bretheren fire Gawayne / Agraayne / Gaherys / and Mordred / But as for me faid fire Gareth I medle not of their maters 30 therfore there is none of them that loueth me / And for I vnderstande they be murtherers of good knyghtes I leste theyre company / and god wold I had ben by sayd Gareth whanne the noble knyghte fyre Lamorak was slayne / Now as Ihesu be my help faid fir Tristram / it is wel faid of you / for I had le-35 uer than al the gold betwixe this & Rome I had ben there / ye wys faid palomydes & foo wold I had ben there / & yet had I neuer the degree at no Iustes nor turnement there as he was / but he put me to the werse or on foot or on horsbak / & that day that he was slayne he dyd the most dedes of armes that euer I fawe knyghte doo in alle my lyfe dayes

¶ And whan hym was gyuen the degree by my lord Arthur / fyre Gawayne and his thre bretheren Agrauayne / Gahe-rys and fire Mordred sette vpon fyre Lamorack in a pruy 5 place / and there they slewe his hors / and fo they fought with hym on foote more than thre houres bothe biforne hym and behynd hym / and fire Mordred gaf hym his dethes wound / behynde hym at his bak / and alle to hewe hym / for one of his fquyers told me that fawe hit / Fy vpon treafon faid fir Tryf- 10 tram / for hit kylleth my herte to here this tale / So it doth myn faid Gareth bretheren as they be myn I shall neuer loue them nor drawe in their felaufhip for that dede / Now fpeke we of other dedes faid Palomydes / and lete hym be / for his lyf ye maye not gete ageyne / that is the more pyte faid Dynadan / 15 For fire Gawayne and his bretheren excepte yow fire Gareth/haten alle the good knyghtes of the round table for the most party / for wel I wote and they myght pryuely / they hate my lord fire Launcelot and al his kynne / and grete pruy despyte they haue at hym / and that is my lorde fyre launcelot wel 20 ware of / and that caufeth hym to haue the good knyghtes of his kyn aboute hym /

¶ Capitulum lii

BYre faid Palomydes lete vs leue of this matere / and lete vs fee how we shalle doo at this turnement / By myn aduyfe faid Palomydes lete vs foure holde to gyders a- 25 geynfte alle that wyl come / Not by my counceil faid fire Trif-tram / for I fee by their paelions ther wil be four honderd kn-yghtes / and doubte ye not faid fir Triftram but there wil be many good knyghtes / and be a man neuer foo valyaunt nor foo bygge / yet he may be ouermatched / And foo haue I fene kn- 30 yghtes done many tymes / And whanne they wend best to haue wonne worship they lofte hit / For manhode is not worthe / but yf it be medled with wyfedome / And as for me faid fir Tryftram hit maye happen I shalle kepe myn owne hede as wel as another / Soo thus they rode vntyl that they came to hum- 35 ber bank where they herd a crye and a doleful noyse / ¶ Thenne were they ware in the wynde where came a ryche vessel hyllid ouer with reed sylke / and the vessell loded fast by them / There with fire Tristram alyghte and his knyghtes / And fo fyre Tristram wente afore and entred in to that vessell ¶ And whanne he came within he sawe a sayre bedde rychely couerd / 5 and there vpon laye a dede semely knyghte all armed sauf the hede was al bebledde with dedely woundes vpon hym / the whiche semed to be a passyng good knyghte / ¶ How may thys be said fire Tristram / that this knyghte is thus slayne / Thenne fyre Tristram was ware of a letter in the dede knyghtes hande / 10 Maister maronnners said fire Tristram what meaneth that letter / Syre sayd they / in that letter ye shalle here and knowe hou he was slayne / and for what cause / and what was his name / But fire said the maronnners wete ye wel that no man shall take that letter and rede hit but yf he be a good knyghte / and 15 that he wille seythfully promyse to reuenge his dethe / els shal there no knyghte see that letter open / wete ye wel said fir Trif-tram that somme of vs may reuenge his dethe as wel as other And yf hit be soo as ye maronnners saye / his dethe shalle be reuenged / And there with fire Tristram took the letter oute of 20 the knyghtes hande / and hit sayd thus / Harmaunce kyng & lord of the reed Cyte I fend vnto alle knyghtes erraunt recommaundynge vnto yow noble knyghtes of Arthurs courte I byfeche them alle amonge them to fynde one knyghte that wylle fyghte for my sake with two bretheren that I brought 25 vp of nought and felonfly and traytourly they haue slayne me / wherfore I byfeche one good knyghte to reuenge my deth And he that reuenged my dethe I wille that he haue my rede Cyte and alle my castels / Syre said the maronnners wete ye wel this kyng and knyghte that here lyeth was a ful wor-30 shipful man and of ful grete prowesse / and ful wel he loued alle maner knyghtes errauntes / Soo god me help said fire Tristram here is a pyteous caas / and ful fayne I wold take this enterpryse vpon me / but I haue made sliche a promyse that nedes I must be at this grete turnement / or els I am shamed 35 For wel I wote for my sake in especial my lord Arthur lete make this lustes and turnement in this countrey / and well I wote that many worshipful people wylle be there att that turnement for to see me / therfor I fere me to take this enterpryse vpon me that I shal not come ageyne by tyme to this lustys Syr said Palomydes / I pray yow gyue me this enterpryse / and ye shall see me encheue it worshipfully / outhir els I shal dye in this quarel / wel said fire Triftram / and this enterpryce I gyue yow with this that ye be with me at this turnement / 5 that shalle be as this day feuen nyght / Syre said Palomydes / I promyse yow that I shalle be with yow by that day / yf I be vnslayne or vnmaymed

¶ Capitulum 12

THenne departed fire Triftram / Gareth / and sir Dyna-dan / and lefte fire Palomydes in the vessel / and so fir 10 Triftram behelde the maronniers how they sayled ouer longe humber / And whan fir Palomydes was oute of theyre fyghte / they toke theyr horses and beheld aboute them / And thenne were they ware of a Knyght that came rydyng ageyn-nst them vnarmed / and nothyng aboute hym but a swerd / 15 And whan this knyghte came nyghe them / he fawed them / & they hym ageyne / Faire knyghtes sayd that knyght I praye yow in soo moche as ye be knyghtes erraunt that ye wille come and see my castel and take suche as ye fynde there / I praye yow hertely / and soo they rode with hym vntyl his Castel / & 20 there they were brought in to the halle that was wel apparailled / and soo they were there vnarmed and sette at a bord / & whan this knyghte sawe fire Triftram anone he knewe hym / And thenne this Knyght waxed pale and wroth at fir trif-tram / whan fire Triftram sawe his hooft make suche chere / he 25 merueylled and said Syre myn hooft what chere make yow wete thou wel said he I fare the werse for the / for I knowe the fir Triftram de lyones / thou slewest my broder / And therefore I gyue the somons I wille flee the / and euer I maye gete the at large / Syr knyght said fir Triftram I am neuer ad- 30 dyssed that euer I slewe any broder of yours / And yf ye say that I dyd I wille make amendys vnto my power / I wyll none amendys said the knygt but kepe the from me / So whan he had dyned fir Triftram asked his armes & departed / & so they rode on their wayes / & within a whyle / fir Dynadan sawe whe- 35 re cam a knygt wel armed & wel horsed withoute shelde / fyre Triftram said fir Dynadan take kepe to your self / for I dar vnder-take yonder cometh your hooft that will haue ado with you Lete hym come said fir Triftram I shall abyde hym as wel as I may / anone the knyghte whanne he came nyghe fir Triftram 5 he cryed and bad hym abyde and kepe hym / So they hurtled to gyders / but fir Triftram smote the other knyght so fore that he bare hym ouer his hors croupe / That knyght arose lyghtely and took his hors ageyne / and foo rode fyerfly to fir Trif-tram and smote hym twyes hard vpon the helme / Sir knyghte 10 said fir Triftram I pray yow leue of and smyte me no more / for I wold be lothe to dele with yow / & I myzt chese / for I haue your mete and your drynke within my body / for al that he wold not leue / and thēne fir Triftram gaf hym fuche a buffet vpon the helme that he felle vp foo doune fro his hors / that 15 the blood braft oute at the ventayls of his helme / and foo he lay styll lykely to be dede / Thenne sire Triftram said me repenteth of this buffet that I smote so fore / for as I suppose he is dede / and foo they lefte hym and rode on their wayes / ¶ So they had not ryden but a whyle but they sawe rydyng ayenft 20 them two ful lykely knyghtes wel armed and wel horfed & goodly seruauantes aboute them / the one was Berraunt le a-pres / and he was called the kynge with the honderd Knyghtes and the other was fir Segwarydes whiche were renommed two noble Knyghtes / So as they cam eyther by other / the Kynge 25 loked vpon fir Dynadan that at that tyme he had fyre Triftrams helme vpon his sholder / the whiche helme the kynge had sene to fore with the Quene of Northgalys / and that quene the kynge loued as peramour / & that helme the quene of north-galys had gyuen to la Beale Ifoud / & the quene la Beale 30 Ifoud gaf it to fir Triftram / Syr Knyghte sayd Berraunt Where had ye that helme / what wold ye said sire Dynadan / for I wyll haue adoo with the said the kynge for the loue of her that owed that helme / and therefore kepe yow / Soo they departed and came to gyders with alle their myghtes of the-35 yr horses / and there the kyng with the honderd knyghtes smote sire Dynadan hors and alle to the erthe / and thēne he commaunded his seruauant goo and take thou his helme of / and kepe hit / Soo the varlet wente to vnbockel his helme / What helme / what wold thou doo said fir Triftram / leue that helme to what entente sayd the kyng wille ye fire knyght medle with that helme / Wete yow wel said fir Triftram that helme shalle not departe from me or it be derer boughte / Thenne make you redy said fir Beraunce vnto fyre Triftram / Soo they hurtled to 5 gyders / and there fyr Triftram smote hym down ouer his hors taye// and thenne the kyng arose lyghtely / and gatte his hors lyghtely ageyne / And thenne he strake fyersly att fyre Triftram many grete strokes / And thenne fyre Triftram gaf fir Beraunce fuche a buffet vpon the helme / that he felle doune 10 ouer his hors fore stonyed / Loo said Dynadan that helme is vnhappy to vs tweyne / for I had a falle for hit / and now fir kyng haue ye another falle / ¶ Thenne Segwarydes asked who shal Iuste with me / I pr-aye the said fyre Gareth vnto Dynadan / lete me haue this Iuf- 15 tes / fyr said Dynadan I pray yow take it as for me / that is no reafon said tristrā / for this Iustes shold be yours / ¶ Att a word said Dynadan I wille not therof / ¶ Thenne Gareth drestid hym to fyre Segwarides / and there fyre Segwarides smote Gareth and his hors to the erthe / ¶ Now sayd fyr 20 Triftram to Dynadan Iuste with yonder knyghte / I wil not therof said Dynadan / Thenne wille I said fyr Triftram / and thenne fyr Triftram ranne to hym / and gaf hym a falle / and foo they leste them on foote / and fyre Triftram rode vnto Ioyous gard / and there fir Gareth wold not of his curtosy haue 25 gone in to this castel / but fyre Triftram wold not suffre hym to departe / And foo they alyghte and vnarmed them / & hadde grete chere / But whan Dynadan came afore la Beale Ifoud he curfed the tyme that euer he bare fyr Trifstrams helme / and there he tolde her how fyre Triftram had mocked hym / Thenne 30 was there laughyng and Iapyng at fyr Dynadan that they wiste not what to doo with hym

¶ Capitulum lxi

Now wille we leue them mery within Ioyous gard & speke we of fyr palomydes / thēne fir palomydes fail-led euen longes hüber to the costes of the see / where was a fair 35 castel / And at that tyme hit was erly in the mornynge afore daye / Thenne the maronners wente vnto fire palomydes / that slepte fast / Syre knyghte faide the maronners ye muste aryse / for here is a castel there ye muste goo in to / I assente me sayd 5 fire Palomydes / and there with alle he aryued / And thenne he blewe his horne that the maronners had yeuen hym / And whanne they within the Castel herd that horne / they put forthe many knyghtes and there they stode vpon the walles / and said with one voys / welcome be ye to this castel / and then-10 ne it waxed clere day / and fire Palomydes entred in to the castel / And within a whyle he was serued with many dyuerse metes / Thenne fire Palomydes herd aboute hym moche wepy-nge and grete dole / what may this meane said fir palomydes / I loue not to here suche a forou / and fayne I wold knowe 15 what it meaneth / thenne there came afore hym one whos name was fir Ebel that said thus wete ye wel fir knyghte this dole and forowe is here made euery daye / ¶ And for this cause / We had a kyng that hyght Hermaunce and he was kyng of the reed cyte / and this kyng that was lord / was a noble kn-20 yght large and lyberal of his expense / And in the world he loued no thyng foore moche as he dyd erraunt knyghtes of kynge Arthurs courte / and alle lustynges huntynge and al manner of knyghtly games / for so kynde a kyng and knyghte had neuer the rule of poure peple as he was / and by cause of his 25 goodenes and gentylnesse we bemone hym / and euer shalle / And alle kynges and estates may beware by oure lord for he was destroyed in his owne defaute / for had he cherished them of his blood / he hadde yet lyued with grete rycheffe and reste/but alle estates may beware by our kyng / But allas sayd 30 Ebel that we shalle gyue alle other warnynge by his dethe / ¶ Telle me said palomydes / and in what manere was youre lord slayne and by whome / Syr said fir Ebel / oure kyng brought vp of children two men that now are peryllous knyghtes / & these two knyghtes oure kyng had foore in chere that he 35 loued no man nor trusted no man of his blood / nor none other that was aboute hym / And by these two knyghtes oure kyng was gouerned / and foore they ruled hym peasably and his landes / and neuer wolde they suffre none of his blood to haue no rule with oure kyng / And also he was foo free and foo gentyl / and they so fals and deceyuable that they ruled hym peafyly / and that aspyed the lordes of our kynges blood / & departed from hym vnto their owne lyuelode / Thenne whan these two traytours vnderstoode that they had dryuen alle the 5 lordes of his blood from hym / they were not pleased with that rule / but thenne they thoughte to haue more / as euer hit is an old sawe / gyue a chorle rule / and there by he wylle not be suffyed / for what someuer he be that is ruled by a vylayne born and the lord of the foyle to be a gentelman born / that fame vy- 10 layne shalle deftroie alle the gentylnen aboute hym / therfor al estates and lordes / beware / whome ye take aboute yow / And yf ye be a knyght of Kyng Arthurs courte remembre this tale / for this is the ende and concludon / my lord and kyng rode vnto the forest here by by the aduyse of these traytours / and 15 there he chaced at the reed dere armed at alle pyeces ful lyke a good knyght / and foo for labour he waxed drye / And thenne he alyghte / and dranke at a welle / And whan he was a-lyghte by the assente of these two traytours that one that hy-ght Helyus he sodenly smote our kyng thurgh the body with 20 a spere / and foo they lefte hym there / And whan they were departed / thenne by fortune I came to the welle / and fond my lord and kyng wounded to the dethe / And whan I herd his complaynte / I lete brynge hym to the water fyde / and in that fame shyp I put hym a lyue / And whan my lord kyng her- 25 maunce was in that vessel / he requyred me for the true seyth I owed vnto hym for to wryte a letter in this maner /

¶ Capitulum lxi

Recommaundyng vnto kyng Arthur & to al his kny-3tes erraūt bifechyng them al that in so moche as I kyng Hermaūce kyng of the reed cyte thus am slayn by felony 30 & treason thurȝ two knyghtes of myn own & of myn own bryngyng vp & of myn owne makyng that som worshipful kn-yȝt wil reuenge my deth / in so moche I haue ben euer to my power wel willyng vnto Arthurs court / & who that wil aduenture his lyf with these two traitours for my sake in one batail 35 I kyng hermaūce kyng of the rede cyte frely gyue hym all my landes and rentes that euer I welded in my lyf / This letter faid Ebel I wrote by my lordes commaundement / and thenne he receyued his creatoure / and whan he was dede / he commanded me or euer he were cold to put that letter fast in his hand / 5 And thenne he commaunded me to putte forthe that fame vesfel doune humber / and I shold gyue these maronnys in commaundement neuer to flynte vntyl that they came vnto Logris where all the noble knyghtes shall assemble at this tyme / & there shalle somme good knyghte haue pyte on me to reuenge 10 my dethe / for there was neuer kynge nor lord falslyer ne traitourlyer slayne than I am here to my dethe / ¶ Thus was the complaynte of our kyng Hermauce / Now faid sir Ebel ye knowe alle how our lord was bitrayed / we requyre you for god-des sake haue pyte vpon his dethe / and worshipfully reuenge 15 his dethe / and thenne may ye weld alle thise landes / For we alle wete wel / that & ye may flee these two traytours the reed cyte and alle tho that ben therein will take you for their lord / Truly faid sire Palomydes hit greueth my herte for to here you telle this doleful tale / and to saye the trouthe I sawe the fame 20 letter that ye speke of / and one of the best knyghtes on the er-the redde that letter to me / and by his commaundement I cam hydder to reuenge your Kynges deth / and therfor haue done / and lete me wete where I shall fynde tho traitours / for I shal neuer be at ease in my herte tyl I be in handes with them / 25 ¶ Syr faid sire Ebel thenne take your ship ageyne / and that shyp must brynge you vnto the delectable yle fast by the reed Cyte / and we in this castel shalle pray for yow / and abyde your ageyne comyng / for this fame castel and ye spede wel must nedes be yours / for oure kyng Harmaunce lete make this cas-30 tel for the loue of the two traytours / and so we keppe it with stronge hande / & therefore ful fore are we threted / ¶ Wote ye what ye shal do faid sir Palomydes what somme euer come of me / loke ye kepe wel this castel / for & it myssfortune me soo to be slayn in this quest / I am sure there wil come one of the best 35 knyghtes of the world for to reuenge my deth / and that is sir Trifram de lyones or els sir Launcelot du lake ¶ Thenne sir Palomydes departed from that castel / And as he cam nyghe the Cyte / there cam out of a shyp a goodly knyzt armed ageynst hym with his shelde on his sholder / and his hand vpon his swerd / And anone as he came nyghe sir Palomydes he said sir knyghte what seke ye here / leue this queste for it is myn / and myn it was or euer it was yours / & therfor I wille haue hit / Syr knyght said Palomydes it may wel be 5 that this quest was yours or it was myn / but when the letter was take oute of the dede kynges hand at that tyme by lykelyhode there was no knyght had vndertake to reuenge the deth of the kyng / And soo at that tyme I promysed to reuenge his dethe / And soo I shalle or els I am ashamed / ye say wel 10 sayd the knyghte / but wete ye wel thenne wille I fyzte with yow / and who be the better knyghte of vs bothe / lete hym take the bataille vpon hand / I assente me said sire Palomydes / & thenne they dresseid their sheldes / and pulled out their swerdes and lashed to gyder many fadde strokes as men of myghte / & 15 this fytyng was more than houre / but at the last sir Palomydes waxed bygge and better wynded / soo that thenne he smote that knyght suche a stroke / that he made hym to knele vpon his knees / Thenne that knyghte spak on hyghe / and sayd gentyll knyght hold thy hand / Syr Palomydes was goodely & with- 20 drewe his hand / Thenne this knyght sayd wete ye wel knyzt that thou arte better worthy to haue this bataille than I / and requyre the of knyghthode telle me thy name / Syr my name is Palomydes a knyghte of Kyng Arthurs and of the table round that hyder I came to reuenge the dethe of this dede kyng 25

¶ Capitulum lxiij

WEl be ye fond said the knygyte to Palomydes / for of alle knyghtes that ben on lyue excepte thre I had leuest haue yow / The fyrste is sire Launcelot du lake & sir Tristram de lyones / the thyrd is my nyȝ cofyn sir Lamorck de galys / and I am broder vnto kyng Harmaunce that is dede 30 & my name is sir Hermynde / ye saye wel said sir Palomydes / & ye shal see how I shal spede / & yf I be there slayn / goo ye to my lord sir laūcelot or els to my lord sir Tristram / & pray them to reuenge my deth / for as for sir Lamorak hym shal ye neuer see in this world / Allas said sir Hermynde how may that be / he is 35 flayne said fire Palomydes by fire Gawayne and his bretheren / Soo god me helpe said Hermynd there was not one for one that slewe hym / that is trouthe said fire Palomydes / for they were four daungerous knyghtes that slewe hym / as Syr 5 Gawayne / fyr Agrauayne / fire Gaherys and fire Mordred / but fire Gareth the fyfthe broder was away / the best knyght of them alle / And foo fyre Palomydes told Hermynde alle the manere / and how they slewe fir Lamorak all only by treafon So fir Palomydes took his ship / and aryued vp at the delecta-10 ble yle / And in the meane whyle fyr Hermynde that was the kynges broder he arryued vp att the reed Cyte / and there he told them how there was comen a knyghte of kynge Arthurs to auenge kynge Hermaunce dethe / and his name is fire Palomydes the good knyght / that for the moost party he foloweth 15 the best Glatyfaunt / Thenne alle the Cyte made grete loye / for mykel had they herd of fire Palomydes and of his noble pro-wesse / Soo lete they ordeyne a messager and sente vnto the / ij / bretheren / and bad them to make them redy / for there was a knyght comen that wold fyghte with them bothe / Soo the mes-20 sager wente vnto them where they were at a Castel there besyde and there he told them how there was a knyght comen of kynge Arthurs courte to fyghte with them bothe at ones / he is welcome said they / But telle vs we pray yow yf hit be fire launcelot or ony of his blood / he is none of that blood said the 25 messager / thenne we care the lesse said the two bretheren / for with none of the blood of fire launcelot we kepe not to haue adoo with alle / wete ye wel said the messager that his name is fire Palomydes that yet is vncrystened a noble knyght / well said they and he be now vncrystened / he shalle neuer be cryst-30 end / Soo they apoynted to be at the cyte within two dayes / And whanne fire Palomydes was come to the Cyte they made passyngre grete loye of hym / and thenne they beheld hym/and fawe that he was wel made / clenely and byggely / and vn-maymed of his lymmes / and neyther to yonge nor to old / and 35 foo alle the peple preyfedyd hym / and though he was not crystened yet he byleued in the best maner / and was fulfeythful & true of his promyse / and wel condycyoned / And by cause he made his auowe that he wold neuer be crystened vnto the tyme that he had encheued the beste Glatysfaunt / the whiche was a ful wonderful beeft and a grete fygnifycacyon / for Merlyn profecyed moche of that beeft / And also sire Palomydes auo-wed neuer to take ful cryftendome vnto the tyme that he had done feuen batails within the lyftys / So within the thyrd day 5 there came to the Cyte thefe two bretheren / the one hyght He-lyus / the other hy3t Helake / the whiche were men of grete pro-weffe how be hit that they were fals and ful of treafon / and but poure men borne / yet were they noble kny3tes of their han-des / And with hem they brought fourty knyghtes to that en- 10 tent / that they shold be bygge ynough for the reed Cyte / Thus came the two bretheren with grete bobaunce and pryde / for they had put the reed Cyte in fere and dammage / Thenne they were broughte to the lyftes / and sire Palomydes came in to the place and fayd thus / be ye the two bretheren Helyus & 15 Helake that flewe your kyngc and lord fyr Hermaunce by felony and treafon / for whome that I am comen hyder to reuenge his dethe / wete thou wel faid sir Helyus and sir He-lake that we ar the fame knyghtes that flewe kyng Harmaunce / And wete thou wel sire Palomydes farafyn / that we 20 shalle handle the fo or thou departe that thou shalt wyffhe that thou werest crystened / Hit maye wel be faid sir Palomydes / for yet I wold not dye or I were crystened / and yet soo am I not aferd of yow both / but I truste to god that I shal dye a better cryften man than ony of yow both / and doubte ye not 25 faid sir Palomydes eyther ye or I shalle be lefte dede in this place

¶ Capitulum lxiij

THēne they departed and the two bretheren came aye-nst sir Palomydes / and he ageynst them as fast as their horfes myght renne / And by fortune sir Palomydes smote 30 Helake thorou his shelde and thurgh the brest more than a fa-dom / Alle this whyle sir Helyas helde vp his spere / and for pryde and orgulyte he wold not smyte sire Palomydes wyth his spere / but whan he sawe his broder lye on the erth / and fa-we he my3t not helpe hym self / thēne he faid vnto sir palomydes 35 helpe thy self / and there with he came hurtlyng vnto sir Palomydes with his spere / and smote hym quyte from his fadel Thenne sire Helyus rode ouer sir Palomydes twyes or thryes And there with sir Palomydes was ashamed / & gat the hors 5 of sir Helyus by the brydel / & therwith al the hors areryd / & sir Palomydes halp after / & so they felle both to the erthe / but anone sir Helyus starte vp lyghtely & there he smote sir Palomydes a grete stroke vpon the helme that he kneled vpon his owne knee / Thenne they lassed to gyder many sad strokes / & 10 tracyd and trauercyd now bakward / now sydelyng hurtlyng to gyders lyke two bores / & that fame tyme they felle both grouelyng to the erthe / Thus they fought styll withoute ony repofynge two houres and neuer brethed / & thēne sir Palomydes waxed faynt and wery / & sir Helyus waxed passyng strong 15 & doubled his strokes / & drofe sir Palomydes ouerthwart and endlonge alle the feld / that they of the cyte whan they sawe sir Palomydes in this caas they wept & cryed & made grete dole / & the other party made as grete Ioye / Allas said the men of the Cyte that this noble knyght shold haue thus be slayne for our kyn-20 ges sake / & as they were thus wepyng & cryeng / sir Palomydes that had suffred an honderd strokes that it was wonder / that he stode on his feet / At the last sire Palomydes beheld as he myght the comen peple how they wepte for hym / and thenne he said to hym self / A fy for shame syr palomydes why han-25 gest thou thy hede foo lowe / & there with he bare vp his shield / & loked sir Helyus in the vyfage / and he smote hym a grete stroke vpon the helme / and after that another and another / And thenne he smote sir Helyus with suche a myghte that he felle to the erthe grouelyng / and thenne he rassyd of his helme from 30 his hede / and there he smote hym suche a buffet that he departed his hede from the body / And thenne were the peple of the Cyte the Ioyefullest peple that myght be / Soo they brought hym to his lodgyng with grete solempnyte / and there alle the peple became his men / And thenne sire Palomydes prayd them all 35 to take kepe vnto alle the lordship of Kynges Hermaunce / for fair firs wete ye wel I maye not as at this tyme abyde with yow / for I muste in alle haste be with my lord kyng Arthur at the castel of Lonazep the whiche I haue promysed /

Thenne was the peple ful heuy at his departynge / for alle that Cyte profered sir Palomydes the thyrd parte of their goodes/soo that he wold abyde with hem / but in no wyse as at that tyme he wold not abyde / and soo fire Palomydes departed / and soo he came vnto the castel there as fire Ebel was lieutenaunt/ 5 And whanne they in the castel wyfte hou fire Palomydes had sped there was a Ioyeful meyny / and soo sir Palomydes departed / and came to the castell of Lonaȝep / And whanne he wyft that fire Triftram was not there / he took his way ouer humber and came vnto Ioyous gard where as sir Triftram was and 10 la Beale Ifoud / Syr Triftram had commaunded that what knyght erraunt came within the Ioyous gard as in the toun that they shold warne fire Triftram / Soo there came a man of the toun / and told fire Triftram how there was a Knyghte in the toun a passynge goodely man / What manere of man is 15 he said fire Triftram / and what fygne bereth he / Soo the man told fire Triftram alle the tokens of hym / that is Palomydes said Dynadan / it maye wel be said sir Triftram / go ye to hym said fire Triftram vnto Dynadan / Soo Dynadan wente vnto fire Palomydes / and there eyther made other grete Ioye / 20 and soo they laye to gyder that nyghte / And on the morne erly came fire Triftram and fire Gareth / and took them in the-yr beddes / and soo they arofe and brake their fast ¶ Capitulum lrv

ANd thenne fire Triftram defyred fire Palomydes to ry-de in to the feldes and woodes / So they were accorded 25 to repose them in the foreste / And whanne they hadde played them a grete whyle / they rode vnto a fayre welle / and anone they were ware of an armed knyght that came rydyng ageynste them / and there eyther salewed other / Thenne this armed knyghte spak to fire Triftram and asked what were these 30 knyghtes that were lodged in Ioyous gard / I wote not what they ar said sir Triftram / what knyȝtes be ye said that knyȝte for me semeth ye be no knyghtes erraunt by cause ye ryde vn-armed / whether we be Knyghtes or not / we lyfte not to telle the oure name / wilt thou not telle me thy name said that knyght / thenne kepe the for thou shalt dye of my handes / & therewith he gate his spere in his handes / and wold haue ronne fir Tristram thurgh / that sawe fir palomydes / and smote his hors 5 trauerse in myddes of the fyde that man and hors felle to the erthe / And ther with fire palomydes alyghte and pulled out his swerd to haue slayne hym / lete be said fir Tristram / flee hym not / the Knyght is but a foole / it were shame to flee hym but take away his spere said fire Tristram / and lete hym take 10 his hors and goo where that he wille / Soo whan this knyghte arose he groned fore of the falle / and soo he took his hors / and whan he was vp / he torned thenne his hors and requyred fir Tristram and fir palomydes to telle hym what knyghtes they were / Now wete ye wel said fir Tristram that my name is fir 15 Tristram de Lyones / and this knyghtes name is fir palomydes / when he wyfte what they were / he took his hors with the spores by cause they shold not aske hym his name / and so rode fast away thurgh thyck and thynne / Thenne came there by them a knyghte with a bented sheld of asure whos name was 20 Epynogrys / and he cam toward them a grete wallop / whether ar ye rydyng faid fir Tristram / my fayre lordes faid Epynogrys I folowe the falsest knyght that bereth the lyf wherfor I requyre yow telle me whether ye sawe hym / for he bereth a shelde with a caas of reed ouer it / So god me help said Tristram fuche a knygt departed from vs not a quarter of an houre agon 25 We pray yow telle vs his name / Allas faid Epynogrys why lete ye hym escape from yow / and he is soo grete a fo vnto al erraunt knyghtes his name is Breuse faunce pyte / A fy for shame faid fire palomydes / Allas that euer he escaped myne 30 handes / for he is the man in the world that I hate moost / Thenne euery knyghte made grete forowe to other / and so Epynogrys departed and folowed the chace after hym / Thenne fir Tristram and his thre felawes rode vnto Ioyous gard / and there fir Tristram talked vnto fire palomydes of his batail hou 35 he sped atte reed Cyte / and as ye haue herd afore so was hit ended / Truly faid fir Tristram I am gladd ye haue wel sped for ye haue done worshipfully / wel said fir Tristram we must forward to morn / and thenne he deuyfed how it shold be / and fyr Triftram deuyfed to fende his two paelions to fette them faft by the welle of Lonaȝep / and therin fhalle be the Quene la beale Ifoud / Hit is wel faid / faid fir Dynadan but when fire Palomydes herd of that / his herte was rauyffhed oute of mefure / Not withftandynge he fayd but lytel / Soo when they 5 came to Ioyous gard / fire Palomydes wold not haue gone in to the caftel / but as fire Triftram took hym by the fynger / & ladde hym in to the caftel / And whanne fire Palomydes fawe la Beale Ifoud he was rauyffhed fo that he myghte vnneth fpeke / Soo they wente vnto mete / but Palomydes myghte not 10 ete / and there was alle the chere that myght be hadde / And on the morn they were apparaylled to ryde toward Lonaȝep / ¶ Soo fir Triftram had thre fquyers / and la beale Ifoud had thre gentylywymmen and bothe the Quene and they were rychely apparailled / and other peple had they none with them / 15 but varlets to bere their fheldes and their fperes / ¶ And thus they rode forthe / So as they rode / they fawe afore them a route of knyghtes / hit was the knyght Galyhodyn with / xx / knyghtes with hym / Fair felawes faid Galyhodyn / yonder comen foure knyghtes and a ryche and wel fayre lady / I am in 20 wyll to take that lady fro them / That is not of the beft counceil faid one of Galyhodyns men / but fende ye to them / and we-te what they wille faye / and foo hit was done / there came a f-quyer vnto fire Triftram / and asked them whether they wold Iufte or els to lefe their lady / Not foo faid fire Triftram telle 25 your lord I byd hym come as many as we ben and wyne her and take her / Syre faid Palomydes and hit pleafe you lete me haue this dede / and I fhalle vndertake them all foure / I wyll that ye haue it faid fire Triftram at your pleasyr / Now goo and telle your lord Galyhodyn / that this fame knyghte 30 wyll encountre with hym and his felawes ¶ Capitulum lxxj

THenne this fquyer departed and told Galyhodyn / & thenne he drefsid his fhelde / and put forthle a fpere / & fir Palomydes another / and there fire Palomydes fmote Galyhodyn foo hard that he fmote bothe hors and man to the erthe 35

And there he had an horryble falle / And thenne came ther an other knyght / and in the fame wyfe he ferued hym / and soo he ferued the thyrd and the fourthe that he fmote them ouer their horfe croupes / and alweyes fire Palomydes spere was 5 hole / Thenne came fixe knyghtes moo of Galyhodyns men / & wold haue been auenged vpon fire Palomydes / lete be fayd fir Galyhodyn not soo hardy / none of yow alle medle with this knyght / for he is a man of grete bounte and honoure / & yf he wold ye were not able to medle with hym / and ryghte 10 soo they helde them styll / And cuer fire Palomydes was redy to Iuste / And whan he sawe they wold no more / he rode vnto fire Triftram / Ryght wel haue ye done said fir Triftram / & worshypfully haue ye done as a good knyghte shold / This Galyhodyn was nyghe cofyn vnto Galahalt the haute prynce 15 And this Galyhodyn was a kynge within the countrey of Surlufe / Soo as fir Triftram / fyr Palomydes / and la Bele Ifoud rode to gyders they sawe afore them four knyghtes and euery man had his spere in his hand / the fyrst was fire Gawayne / the second fir Vwayne / the thyrd fir Sagramor le 20 defyrus / and the fourthe was Dodynas le fauceage / Whan fir palomydes beheld them that the four knyghtes were redy to Iuste / he praid fir Triftram to gyue hym leue to haue adoo with them also longe as he myghte holde hym on horsbak / And yf that I be smyten doune I pray yow rcuenge me / wel said fire 25 Triftram I wille as ye wille / and ye are not soo fayne to haue worship but I wold as fayne encrease your worship / and there with all fir Gawayne put forth his spere / & fir Palomydes another / and so they cam so egerly to gyders that fir Palomydes fmote fire Gawayne to the erthe / hors and alle / and 30 in the fame wyfe he ferued Vwayne / fir Dodynas / and Sagra-more / Alle these four knyghtes fir Palomydes fmote down with dyuerse speres / And thenne fire Triftram departed toward Lonezep / And whanne they were departed thenne came thydder Galyhodyn with his x knyghtes vnto fir Gawayne / & ther 35 he told hym alle how he had fped / I merueyle said fire Ga-wayne what knyghtes they ben / that ar so arayed in grene / & that knyght vpon the whyte hors fmote me down said galihodyn & my / iij / felaws / & so he dyd to me said gawayn / & wel I wote said fire Gawayne that outhur he vpon the whyte hors is fire Triftram or els fire Palomydes / and that gay byfene lady is queene Ifoud / Thus they talked of one thyng and of other And in the meane whyle fir Triftram passed on / tyl that he came to the welle where his two pauelions were fette / & there 5 they alyghted / and there they sawe many pauelions and grete araye / Thenne fire Triftram lefte there fire Palomydes and fire Gareth with la beale Ifoud / and fir Triftram and fyre Dynadan rode to Loneȝep to herken tydynges / and fire Trif-tram rode vpon fire Palomydes whyte hors / And whanne he 10 came in to the caſtel / fir Dynadan herd a grete horne blowe / & to the horne drewe many Knyghtes / Thenne fire Triftram afked a Knyght what meaneth the blaſt of that horne / Sir ſaid that Knyght it is alle tho that ſhalle holde ageynſt kyng Arthur at this turnement / The fyrſte is the kyng of Irland / & 15 the Kyng of Surluſe / the Kyng af Lyſtynoyſe / the kyng of Northumberland / and the kyng of the beſt parte of Walys / with many other countreyes / and theſe drawe them to a counceyle to vnderſtande what gouernaunce they ſhalle be of / but the Kyng of Irland whos name was Marhalt and fader to 20 the good knyghte fir Marhaus that fire Triftram ſlewe had alle the ſpeche that fir Triftram myghte here it / He ſaid lordes and felawes lete vs loke to our ſelf / for wete ye wel Kyng Arthur is ſure of many good Knyghtes / or els he wold not with ſoo fewe knyghtes haue adoo with vs / therfore by my co- 25 unceyl lete euery Kyng haue a ſtandard and a cognoiſſaun-ce by hym ſelf that euery knyghte drawe to their naturel lord and thenne maye euery Kyng and capytayne helpe his knytes yf they haue nede / whan fir Triftram had herd all their co-unceyl / he rode vnto Kyng Arthur for to here of his counceyl 30

¶ Capitulum lxxvj

BVt fir Triftram was not ſoo ſoone come in to the place but fire Gawayne and fir Galyhodyn wente to kynge Arthur and told hym that ſame grene Knyȝte in the grene harneis with the whyte hors ſmote vs two doune / and / vj / of oure felawes this fame day / wel said Arthur / and thenne he called sir Tristram and asked hym what was his na-this tyme / for ye shalle not wete my name / And there sir Trif-5 tram retorned and rode his way / I haue merueylle said Arthur that yonder knyght wille not telle me his name / but goo thow Gryflet le fyse de dieu / and praye hym to speke with me betwixe vs / Thenne sire Gryflet rode after hym and ouertoke hym / and said hym that kyng Arthur praid hym for to spe-10 ke with hym secretely a parte / vpon this couenaunt said sir trif-tram I wille speke with hym that I wille torne ageyne / soo that ye wille ensure me not to desyre to here my name / I shalle vndertake said sir Gryflet that he wille not gretely desyre hit of you / Soo they rode to gyders vntyl they cam to kyng Ar-15 thur / Fair sir said Kyng Arthur what is the cause ye wylle not telle me your name / Syr said sir Tristram withoute a cause I wille not hyde my name / vpon what party will ye hold said kyng Arthur / Truly my lord said sir Tristram I wote not yet on what party I wille be on vntil I come to the felde 20 And there as my herte gyueth me / there wille I hold / but to morowe ye shalle see and preue on what party I shall come & there with al he retorned and wente to his paelions / And vpon the morne they armed them alle in grene / and came in to the felde / and there yonge knyghtes beganne to Iuste and 25 dyd many worshipful dedes / Thenne spacke Gareth vnto sire Tristram and praid hym to gyue hym leue to breke his spere for hym thoughte shame to bere his spere hole ageyne / Whan sir Tristram herd hym say soo he lough / and sayd I pray yow doo your best / Thenne sir Gareth gate a spere and profered to 30 Iuste / That sawe a knyght that was neuewe vnto the kyng of the honderd knyghtes / his name was Selyses and a good man of armes / Soo this knyght Selyses thenne dresid hym vnto sir Gareth / and they two mette to gyders soo hard / that eyther smote other doune his hors and alle to the erthe / so they we-35 re both bryfed and hurte and there they lay tyl the Kyng with the honderd knyghtes halp Selyses vp / and syr Tristram and sir Palomydes halpe vp Gareth ageyne / and so they rode with sir Gareth vnto their paelions / and thenne they pulled of his helme / And whanne la Beale Ifoud sawe sire Gareth bry-fed in the face / she asked hym what eyed hym / Madame said sire Gareth I had a grete buffet / and as I suppoſe I gaf another / but none of my felawes god thanke them wold not refcowe me / Forſothe ſaid Palomydes hit longed not to none 5 of vs as this daye to Iuſte / for there haue not this day Iuſted no preued knyghtes / and nedely ye wold Iuſte / And whan the other party ſawe ye proſered your ſelf to Iuſte / they ſente one to yow a paſſyng good knyght of his age / for I knowe hym wel his name is Selyſes / and worſhipfully ye met with 10 hym / and neyther of yow are diſhonoured / & therfor refreſhe your ſelf that ye may be redy and hole to Iuſte to morowe / As for that ſaid Gareth I ſhalle not ſayle yow and I may beſtryde myn hors /

¶ Capitulum lxviii

Now vpon what party ſaid Triftram is hit beſt / we be 15 with alle as to morne / Syr ſaid Palomydes ye ſhalle haue myn aduſe to be ageynſt Kyng Arthur as to morne for on his party wille be ſyre Launcelot and many good knyghtes of his blood with hym / And the moo men of worſhip that they be / the more worſhip we ſhalle we wyne / That is full 20 knyghtely ſpoken ſaid ſir Triftram / and ryght ſoo as ye counceile me / ſoo wille we doo / In the name of god ſaid they all Soo that nyghte they were lodged with the beſt / And on the morne whan it was day they were arayed alle in grene trap-pours ſheldes and ſperes / and la Beale Ifoud in the ſame co- 25 loure and her thre damoyfels / And ryghte ſoo theſe four kn-yghtes came in to the feld endlonge and thurgh / And ſo they ledde la beale Ifoud thyder as ſhe ſhold ſtande and beholde all the Iuſtes in a bay wyndowe / but al wayes ſhe was wympeld that no man myȝt ſee her vyſage / And thenne theſe thre knyȝ- 30 tes rode ſtreight vnto the party of the kyng of Scottes / Whan Kyng arthur had ſene hym doo all this he asked ſir laūcelot what were theſe knyȝtes & that quene / ſir ſaid launcelot I can not ſay you in certayn / but yf ſir Triftram be in this countrey or ſir palomydes / wete ye wel it be they in certeyn / and 35 la beale Ifoud / Thenne Arthur called to hym fyre kay and said goo lyghtely and wete how many knyghtes there ben here lackynge of the table round / for by the seges thou maiste knowe / Soo wente fyr kay and sawe by the wrytynge in the 5 seges that there lacked ten knyghtes / and these ben their names that ben not here / Syr Tristram / fyr Palomydes / fyr Percyuale / fyr Gaherys / fyr Epynogrys / fyr Mordred / fyre Dynadan / fyr la cote male tayle and fyr Pelleas the noble knyzt wel said arthur somme of these I dar vndertake ar here thys 10 day ageynst vs / Thenne came therin two bretheren cofyns vnto fyre Gawayne the one hyght fyr Edward / that other hyzte fyr Sadok the whiche were two good knyghtes / and they asked of Kynge arthur that they myght haue the fyrst Iustes / for they were of Orkeney / I am pleased said Kynge arthur / 15 Thenne fyr Edward encountred with the Kynge of Scottes/in whos party was fyre Tristram and fyr Palomydes / & fyre Edward smote the Kynge of Scottes quyte from his hors / and fyr Sadok smote doune the Kynge of Northwalys / and gaf hym a wonder grete falle that there was a grete crye on 20 kynge arthurs party / and that made fyr Palomydes passyng wrothe / and soo fyr palomydes dresid his shelde and his spere / and with alle his myght he mette with fyr Edward of or-keney that he smote hym soo hard / that his hors myghte not stande on his feet / and soo they hurtled to the erthe / and then-25 ne with the same spere fyr Palomydes smote doune fyre Sa-dok ouer his hors croupe / O Ihesu said arthur what Knyghte is that arayed all in grene / he Iusteth myghtely / wete you wel said fyr Gawayne he is a good Knyghte and yet shall ye see hym Iuste better or he departe / and yet shalle ye see saide fyre 30 Gawayne another bygger Knyghte in the same coloure than he is / for that same Knyghte said fyre Gawayn that smote doune ryghte now my four cofyns / he smote me doune within these two dayes and seuen felawes moo / This meane whyle as they stood thus talkynge there came in to the place fyr trif-35 tram vpon a black hors / and or euer / he synte he smote doune with one spere four good Knyghtes of Orkeney that were of the Kynne of sir Gawayn / & sir Gareth & sir Dynadan euerryche of them smote down a good Knyzt / Ihesu seid arthur yōder knyghte vpon the black hors doth myghtely and merueyllously wel / Abyde you said sir Gawayne that knyght with the black hors beganne not yet / Thenne fyr Tristram made to horse ageyne the two kynges that Edward and Sadok had vn-horsed at the begynnyng / And thenne sire Tristram drewe 5 his swerd and rode in to the thickest of the prees ayenst them of Orkeney / and there he smote doune knyghtes / and rashed of helmes and pulled away their sheldes / and hurtled down many knyghtes / he ferde foo that sire Arthur and alle knyghtes had grete merueille whan they sawe one knyghte doo foo 10 grete dedes of armes / and sire Palomydes fayled not vpon the other fyde / but dyd so merueylously wel that al men had wonder / For there kyng Arthur lykened fyre Tristram that was on the black hors lyke to a wood lyon / and lykened fyr palomydes vpon the whyte hors vnto a wood lybard / and sir 15 Gareth and sir Dynadan vnto eger wolues / But the custome was such amonge them that none of the kynges wold helpe other / but alle the fellowship of euery standard to helpe other as they myght / but euer sire Tristram dyd foo moche dedes of armes that they of Orkeney waxed wery of hym / and so with- 20 drewe them vnto Lonezep

¶ Capitulum lxiij

Thenne was the crye of Heraudes and alle manere of comyn peple the grene knyghte hath done merueyllously and beten all them of Orkeney / & there the heraudes nom-bred that fyr Tristram that satte vpon the black hors had smy- 25 ten doune with speres and swerdes xxx knyghtes / and sir palomydes had smyten doune twenty knyghtes / and the moost party of these / 1 / knyghtes were of the hous of kyng Arthur / & proued knyghtes / So god me help said Arthur vnto sir launcelot this is a grete shame to vs to see four knyghtes bete foo many 30 knyghtes of myn / & therfor make yow redy for we wyll haue adoo with them / Syr said launcelot wete ye wel that there ar two passyng good knyghtes and grete worship were hit not to vs now to haue adoo with them / for they haue this day fore trauaylled / As for that said Arthur I wille be auengyd / & therfor take with yow fire Bleoberys and fir Ector / and I wille be the fourthe sayd Arthur / Syre said Launcelot ye shal fynde me redy / and my broder fir Ector and my cosyn fir ble-5 berys / And soo whanne they were redy and on horsbak / Now chese said fir Arthur vnto fir launcelot with whome that ye wil encountre with alle / Sir said Launcelot I wille mete with the grene knyghte vpon the black hors that was fyre Tristram / & my cosyn fir Bleoberys shalle matche the grene knyghte vpon 10 the whyte hors that was fir Palomydes / and my broder fyre Ector shalle matche with the grene knyzt vpon the whyte hors that was fir Gareth / Thenne must I said fir Arthur haue adoo with the grene knyghte vpon the gryfeld hors / and that was fire Dynadan / Now euery man take heede to his felawe 15 said fir launcelot / and soo they trotted on to gyders / and ther encountered fire Launcelot ageynste fyre Tristram / ¶ Soo fyr Launcelot smote fir Tristram soo fore vpon the shelde that he bare hors and man to the erthe / but fir launcelot wend that it had ben fire Palomydes and soo he passed forthe / And then-20 ne fire Bleoberys encountred with fire Palomydes / and he smote hym soo hard vpon the shelde that fire Palomydes and his whyte hors rustled to the erthe ¶ Thenne fir Ector de marys smote fire Gareth soo hard that doune he felle of his hors / And the noble kynge Arthur encountred with fir Dy-25 nadan / and he smote hym quyte from his fadel / And thenne the noyse torned a whyle how the grene knyghtes were sla-yn doune / Whanne the Kynge of Northgalys sawe that fyre Tristram had a falle / thenne he remembryd hym how grete de-des of armes fir Tristram had done / Thenne he made redy ma-30 ny knyghtes for the customme and crye was fuche that what knyght were smyten down and myghte not be horfed ageyne by his felawes outhur by his owne strenght that as that daye he shold be prysoner vnto the party that had smyten hym do-une / Soo came in the Kynge of Northgalys and he rode strey-35 ghte vnto fire Tristram / And whanne he came nyghe hym / he alyghte doune sodenly and bytoke fir Tristram his hors / and sayd thus Noble knyghte I knowe the not / of what countrey that thow arte / but for the noble dedes that thow haste done this day take there my hors / and lete me doo as wel I maye For as Ihesu me helpe thow arte better worthy to haue myne hors than I my self / Gramercy said sir Triftram / & yf I may shalle quyte yow / loke that ye goo not ferre from vs / And as I suppoſe I shalle wyne yow an other hors / And ther with 5 ſire Triftram mounted vpon his hors / and there he mette with Kyng Arthur / and he gaf hym ſuche a buffet vpon the helme with his ſwerd that kyng Arthur had no power to kepe his fadel / And thenne ſir Triftram gaf the Kyng of Northgalis kyng Arthurs hors / thenne was there grete prees about kyng 10 Arthur for to horſe hym ageyne / But ſire Palomydes wold not ſuffre kyng Arthur to be horſed ageyne / but euer ſir Palomydes ſmote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand myghtely as a noble knyght / And this meane whyle ſir Triftrā rode thorou the thyckeſt of the prees / and ſmote doune knygh- 15 tes on the ryzt and on the lyfte hand and racyd of helmes and ſoo paſſed forth vnto his paelions / and leſte fyr Palo-mydes on foot / and fyr Triftram chaunged his hors and deſ-guyſed hym ſelf alle in reed hors and harneis / ¶ Capitulum lxxij

ANd whan the Quene la Beale Ifoud ſawe that fyre 20 Triftram was vnhorſed and ſhe wiſt not where he was thenne ſhe wept gretely / But ſir Triftram whan he was redy came daſſhyng lyghtely in to the feld / And thenne la Beale Ifoud aſpyed hym / and ſo he dyd grete dedes of armes with one ſpere that was grete / fyr Triftram ſmote doune fyue kny- 25 tes or euer he ſtynte / Thenne fyr Launcelot aſpyed hym redyly that it was fyr Triftram and thenne he repentyd hym that he had ſmyten hym doune / and ſoo fyr Launcelot went oute of the prees to reſpoſe hym and lyghtely he came ageyne / and now whanne fyr Triftram came in to the prees thorou his gre- 30 te force / he put fyre palomydes vpon his hors / and fyr Gareth and fyre Dynadan / and thenne they beganne to do merueyllouſly / but ſir Palomydes nor none of his two ſelawes kne-we not who had holpen them on horſbak ageyne / But euer fyre Triftram was nyghe them / and focoured them and they 35 not hym by caufe he was chaunged in to reed armour / and al this whyle fir launcelot was away / Soo whanne la Beale Ifoud knewe fir Triftram ageyne vpon his horsbak / she was paffynge gladde / and thenne she lough and make good chere / 5 And as hit happend fir palomydes loked vp toward her where she lay in the wyndowe / and he aspyed how she laughed and there with he took fuche a reioycynge that he smote doune what with his spere and with his fuerd alle that euer he mett for thurgh the fyghte of her he was soo enamoured in her loue 10 that he femed at that tyme / that and bothe fir Triftram and fir Launcelot had ben bothe ageynft hym they shold haue won-ne no worship of hym / and in his herte as the book faith fyre Palomydes wyffhed that with his worship he myghte haue adoo with fir Triftram bfore all men by caufe of la Beale I-15 foud / ¶ Thenne fyre Palomydes beganne to double his strengthe / and he dyd soo merueyllously that alle men had wonder of hym / and euer he caste vp his eye vnto la Beale Ifoud / And whanne he sawe her make fuche chere / he ferd lyke a lyon that there myghte no man withstande hym / and thenne fyre 20 Triftram beheld hym how that fyre Palomydes bestured hym / and thenne he said vnto fir Dynadan / soo god me help fir Palomydes is a paffynge good knyghte and a wel endurynge / But fuche dedes sawe I hym neuer doo / nor neuer herd I telle that euer he dyd soo moche in one day / it is his day said Dyna-25 dan / and he wold saye no more vnto fyr Triftram / but to hym felf he sayd / and yf ye knewe for whos loue he doth alle these dedes of armes / soone wolde fyre Triftram abate his courage/Allas said fyre Triftram that fyre Palomydes is not cryste-ned / Soo said Kynge Arthur / and soo said all tho that behelde 30 hym / Thenne alle peple gaf hym the pryce as for the best kny-ght that day that he passed fyr launcelot outhur fyre Triftram wel said Dynadan to hym felf alle this worship that fyre Palomydes hath here this daye he maye thanke the Quene Ifoud For had she ben aweye this daye / fyre Palomydes had not ge-35 ten the pryce this daye ¶ Ryght soo come in to the felde fyr launcelot du lake and sawe and herd the noyse and crye and the grete worship that fyre Palomydes had he dresfid hym ageynft fyr Palomydes with a grete myghty spere / and alonge / and thought to smyte hym doune / And whanne fyre Palomydes sawe fir launcelot come vpon hym soo fast / he ran vpon fire launcelot as fast with his swerd as he myght / and as fire launcelot shold haue stryken hym / he smote his spere on syde / and smote it atwo with his swerd / And fir palomy- 5 des raffled vnto fire launcelot and thoughte to haue putt hym to a shame / and with his swerd he smote his hors neck that fire launcelot rode vpon / and thenne fir launcelot felle to the erthe / Thenne was the crye huge and grete / see how fir Palo-mydes the sarafyn hath smyten doune fyre launcelots hors 10

¶ Ryght thenne were there many knyghtes wrothe with fyre Palomydes by cause he had done that dede / therfor many kny-ghtes held there ageynst that it was vnknyghtely done in a turnement to kille an hors wilfully but that hit had ben done in playne batail lyf for lyf 15

¶ Capitulum lxxi

WHanne fir Ector de marys sawe fir launcelot his broder haue suche a despyte / & so set on foot / thenne he gat a spere egerly / & ran ageynst fir palomydes / & he smote hym so hard that he bare hym quyte from his hors / that sawe fir tristrā that was in reed harneis / & he smote doune fyr Ector de ma- 20 rys quyte from his hors / thenne fir launcelot dresid his sheld vpon his sholder / & with his suerd naked in his hand / & so cam streyzt vpon fir palomydes fyrfly & said wete thou wel thou hast done me this day the grettest despyte that euer ony worshipful knyzt dyd to me in turnement or in Iustes / & therefore I 25 will be auengid vpon the / therfor take kepe to your self / ¶ A mercy noble knyzt said palomydes / & forgyue me myn vnkyndely dedes for I haue no power nor myzt to withstande you / & I haue done soo moche this daye that wel I wote I dyd neuer so moche nor neuer shal in my lyf dayes / & therefore moost no- 30 ble knyzt I requyre the spare me as at this day / & I promyse you I shal euer be your knyzt whyle I lyue / And ye putte me from my worship now / ye putte me from the grettest worship that euer I had or euer shalle haue in my lyf dayes / wel fayd fire launcelot / I see for to fay the sothe ye haue done mer-ueyllously wel this day / and I vnderstande a parte for whos loue ye doo hit / and wel I wote that loue is a grete maystreffe And yf my lady were here as she nys not / wete yow wel fa-5 id fire Palomydes ye shold not bere away the worship / But beware your loue be not discouerd / for and fyr Tristram may knowe hit ye wille repente hit / And sythen my quarel is not here / ye shall haue this day the worshyp as for me confydering the grete trauaylle and payne that ye haue had this day / it we-10 re no worship for me to putte yow from hit / And there wyth all fir launcelot suffred fir Palomydes to departe / ¶ Thenne fir Launcelot by grete force and myghte gate his owne hors maulgre xx knyghtes / Soo whanne fire Launcelot was horfed/he dyd many merueylles / and soo dyd fir Tristram / and fyre 15 palomydes in lyke wyfe / Thenne fir laūcelot fmote doune with a spere fir Dynadan / and the kyng of scotland / and the kynge of walys / and the kyng of Northumberland / and the kyng of Lyflynys / Soo thenne fire laūcelot and his felawes fmote doune wel a fourty knyghtes / Thenne came the kyng of 20 Irland and the kyng of the streyte marches to rescowe fyre Tristram and fire Palomydes / There beganne a grete medle / & many knyghtes were smyten doune on bothe partyes / and alweyes fir launcelot spared fir Tristram / and he spared hym / And fir Palomydes wold not medle with fir launcelot / and 25 soo there was hurtelynge here and there / And thenne Kyng Arthur fente oute many knyghtes of the table round / and fir palomydes was cuer in the formeſt fronte / and fyre Trystram dyd soo strongly wel that the kyng and alle other had merueylle / And thenne the kyng lete blowe to lodgynge / and by 30 cause fir Palomydes beganne fyrſte / and neuer he went nor rode oute of the feld to repose / but euer he was doynge merucyllously wel outhur on foote or on horſbak / and leneſt durynge Kyng Arthur and alle the kynges gaf fir Palomydes the honour and the gree as for that daye / Thenne fyr Tristram com-35 maunded fir Dynadan to fetcche the Quene la Beale Ifoud and brynge her to his two paelions that stode by the welle / And soo Dynadan dyd as he was commaunded / But when fir Palomydes vnderſtode and wyſt that fire Tristram was in the reed armour / and on the reed hors / wete ye wel that he was gladde and soo was sir Gareth and sire Dynadan / For they alle wende that fyre Trystram had be taken prysoner And thenne euery knyghte drewe to his Inne / And thenne kynge Arthur and euery knyghte spake of tho knyghtes / but 5 aboute alle men they gaf sire Palomydes the pryce / and alle knyghtes that knewe sire Palomydes had wonder of his de-des / Syre said sir Launcelot vnto Arthur as for sir Palomydes and he be the grene knyghte I dare say as for this daye he is best worthy to haue the degree / for he reposed hym neuer / ne 10 neuer chaunged his wedys / And he beganne fyrste and lengeft held on / and yet wel I wote said sir Launcelot that ther was a better knyght than he / and that shalle be preued or we departe vpon payne of my lyf / ¶ Thus they talked on eyther party / and soo sire Dynadan rayled with sir Tristram & said 15 what the deuyl is vpon the this day / for sir palamydes strenght febled neuer this day but euer he doubled his strengthe ¶ Capitulum lxxii

And thou sire Tristram saryft alle this daye as though thou haddeft ben a slepe / and therfor I calle the coward wel Dynadan said sir Tristram / I was neuer called co- 20 ward or now of no erthely knyghte in my lyf / and wete thou wel fyr I calle my selfe neuer the more coward though fyre Launcelot gaf me a falle / For I oute cepte hym of al knyghtes / And doubte ye not fyr Dynadan and fyr Launcelot haue a quarel good / he is to ouer good for ony knyght that now is 25 lyuynge / and yet of his sufferaunce largesse / bounte / and cur-tosy I calle hym knyght pyrles / and soo sire Tristram was in maner wrothe with fyr Dynadan / But alle this langage fyr Dynadan said by cause he wold angre fyre Tristram for to cause hym to awake his spyrytes & to be wrothe for wel kne- 30 we fyr Dynadan that and fyr Tristram were thorouly wrothe fyre Palomydes shold not gete the pryce vpon the morn / And for this entente fyr Dynadan said alle this raylynge and lan-gage ageynst sir Tristram / Truly said fyre palomydes / as for fyr launcelot of his noble knyghthode / curtosye and prowesse / 35 and gentilnes I knowe not his pyere / for this day fayd fyre Palomydes I dyd ful vncurtoisly vnto sire launcelot and ful vnknyghtely / and ful knyghtely and curtoisly he dyd to me ageyne / for and he had ben as vngentyl to me as I was to 5 hym this daye I had wonne no worship / And therfor fayd Palomydes I shal be sire launcelots knyght whyles my lyfe lasteth / Thys talkynge was in the howses of Kynges / But alle kynges lordes and knyghtes fayd of clere knyghthode / & of pure strengthe / of bounte / of curtoisye / fyr Launcelot and fir 10 Tristram bare the pryce aboue alle knyghtes that euer were in Arthurs dayes / And there were neuer knyghtes in Arthurs dayes dyd half soo many dedes as they dyd / as the book sayth / no ten knyghtes dyd not half the dedes that they dyd & there was neuer knyghte in their dayes that requyred fir la-15 uncelot or sire Tristram of ony quest soo hit were not to theyre shame but they performed their desyre ¶ Capitulum lxxiiij

SOo on the morne fyre Launcelot departed and fir trif-tram was redy and la Beale Ifoud with fir Palo-mydes and fir Gareth / And soo they rode alle in gre-20 ne ful fresfhely byfene vnto the forest / and fir Tristram left fir Dynadan slepyng in his bed / and so as they rode / it happed the kyng and launcelot stode in a wyndowe / and sawe fyre Tristram ryde and Ifoud / Syre fayd Launcelot yonder ry-deth the fayrest lady of the world excepte youre quene Dame 25 Gueneuer / who is that said fir Arthur / Sir fayd he / it is que-ne Ifoud that oute taken my lady your quene she is make-les / Take your hors said Arthur / and araye yow at alle ryztes as I wylle doo / and I promyse yow said the kyng / I wille see her / ¶ Thenne anone they were armed & 30 horfed / and eyther took a spere and rode vnto the forest / Syre said launcelot it is not good that ye goo to nyghe them / for wete ye wel there are two as good knyghtes as nowe are lyuynge / and therefore fir I pray yow be not to hasty / For peradventure theré wille be somme knyghtes ben displeased and we come fodenly vpon them / As for that sayd Arthur I wyll see her / for I take no force whome I greue / Syr said launcelot ye putte your self in grete Ieopardy / As for that said the kyng we wille take the aduenture / Ryght foo anone the Kyng rode euen to her / and fawled her / and said god yow faue / 5 Syr said she ye are welcome / thenne the kyng beheld her / and lyked her wonderly wel / with that came fire palomydes vnto Arthur and said vncurtois knyght what sekest thou here / thou art vncurtois to come vpon a lady thus fodenly / therfor with-drawe the / Syr Arthur took none hede of fire palomydes wor- 10 des / but euer he loked styll vpon Quene Ifoud / Thenne was fir Palomydes wrothe / and there with he took a spere / and cam hurtelynge vpon Kyng Arthur / and smote hym doune with a spere / whan fire launcelot sawe that despyte of fir Palomydes he sayd to hym self I am loth to haue adoo with yonder kny- 15 ght / and not for his owne sake but for fir Tristram / And one thyng I am fure of / yf I smyte doune fir palomydes I must haue adoo with fire Tristram / and that were ouer moche for me to matche them bothe / for they are two noble knyghtes / notwithstandynge whether I lyue or I dye nedes muste I re- 20 uenge my lord / and so wille I what someuer befall of me / And there with fir launcelot cryed to fir palomydes / kepe the from me / And thenne fir launcelot and fire Palmydes raf-shed to gyder with two speres strongly / But fire Launcelot smote fir palomydes foo hard that he wente quyte oute of his 25 sadel and had a grete falle / Whanne fire Tristram sawe fyre palomydes haue that falle / he sayd to fire Launcelot / fyr kny-ght kepe the / for I must Iuste with the / As for to Iuste with me said fir launcelot I wille not sayle yow / for no drede I haue of yow / but I am lothe to haue adoo with yow and I 30 myghte chese / for I will that ye wete that I must reuenge my special lord that was vnhorfed vnwarly and vnknyghtely / And therfor though I reuengyd that falle / take ye no disp-leafyr therin / for he is to me suche a frende that I may not see hym shamed / anone fir Tristram vnderstode by his parson and 35 by his knyghtely wordes that it was fir launcelot du lake / and verily fir Tristram demed that it was kyng Arthur he that fir Palomydes had smyten doune

And thenne sir Triftram put his spere from hym / and putte fire Palomydes ageyne on horsbak / and sir launcelot put kyng Arthur on horsbak and foo departed / So god me helpe sayd fire Triftram vnto Palomydes ye dyd not worshipfully when 5 ye smote doune that knyght foo fodenly as ye dyd / And we-te ye wel ye dyd your self grete shame / for the knyghtes cam hyder of their gentilnesse to see a fayre lady / and that is eue-ry good knyghtes parte to behold a fayr lady / and ye hadde not adoo to playe fuche maystryes afore my lady / wete thou 10 wel hit wille tourne to angre / for he that ye smote doune was kyng Arthur / and that other was the good knyght fire la-uncelot / But I shalle not forgete the wordes of fire launcelot whan that he callyd hym a man of grete worship / there by I wyft that it was kyng Arthur / And as for fire launcelot / 15 and there had ben fyue honderd knyghtes in the medowe / he wold not haue refused them / and yet he said he wold refuse me / By that ageyne I wyft that it was sir launcelot / for e-uer he forbereth me in euery place / and sheweth me grete kyndnesse / and of alle knyghtes I oute take none faye what men 20 wille fay / he bereth the floure of al chyualry / faye hit hym who someuer wille / and he be wel angred / and that hym lyft to do his vtteraunce withoute ony fauour / I knowe hym not on lyue but sir launcelot is ouer hard for hym / be hit on horsback or on foote / I may neuer byleue sayd Palomydes that kyng 25 Arthur wille ryde foo pryuely as a poure erraunt knyghte / A said sir Triftram ye knowe not my lord Arthur / for all knytes maye lerne to be a knyghte of hym / And therefore ye may be fory said fire Triftram of your vnkyndely dedes to so noble a kyng / And a thyng that is done may not be vndone sayd 30 Palomydes / Thenne fire Triftram sente queene Ifoud vnto her lodgyng in the pryory there to behold alle the turnement /

¶ Capitulum lxxiiiij

THenne there was a crye vnto all knyghtes that when they herd an horne blowe they shold make Iustes as they dyd the fyrst day / And lyke as the bretheren fire

[leaf 271 verso]

Edward and fir Sadok beganne the Iustes the fyrst daye / fir Vwayne the kynges sone Vreyn and fir lucanere de buttelere beganne the Iustes the second day / And at the fyrst encountre fyr Vwayne smote doune the kynges sone of Scottes / and fyr Lucanere ranne ageynste the kyng of walyng / and they brake 5 their speres alle to pyeces / and they were foo fyers bothe / that they hurtled to gyders that bothe felle to the erthe / ¶ Thenne they of Dorkeney horfed ageyne fyr Lucanere / And thenne came in fyr Tristram de Lyones / and thenne fyr Tristram smote doune fyr Vwayne / and fyre Lucanere and fyre Palomy- 10 des smote doune other two Knyghtes / and fyre Gareth smote doune other two Knyghtes / Thenne said fyre arthur vnto fyr Launcelot / see yonder thre knyghtes doo passyngly wel / & namely the fyrst that Iusted / Sir said launcelot that Knyghte beganne not yet / but ye shalle see hym this day doo merueyl- 15 lously / and thenne came in to the place the dukes sone of Or-keney / and thenne they beganne to do many dedes of armes / ¶ Whan fyre Tristram sawe them foo begynne / he said to Palomydes / how fele ye your self / maye ye doo this daye as ye dyd yesterday / Nay said Palomydes I fele my self foo wery and 20 foo fore bryfed of the dedes of yesterday that I maye not endure as I dyd yesterday / That me repenteth said fyre Tristram / for I shall lacke yow this day / Sire Palomydes faide truste not to me / for I maye not doo as I dyd / alle these wordes said Palomydes for to begyle fyr Tristram / Syr said fyr Tristram 25 vnto fyr Gareth thenne muste I truste vpon yow wherfor I praye yow be not ferre from me to rescowe me / and nede be faid Gareth I shalle not fayle yow in alle that I maye doo ¶ Thenne fyr Palomydes rode by hym self / and thenne in des-pyte of fyr Tristram he putte hym self in the thyckest prees a- 30 monge them of Dorkeney / and there he dyd foo merueyllous dedes of armes that alle men had wonder of hym / for there myghte none stande hym a stroke / whanne fyre Tristram sawe fyre Palomydes doo suche dedes / he merueyllled and sayd to hym self / he is wery of my company / Soo fyr Tristram beheld 35 hym a grete whyle and dyd but lytel els / for the noyse and crye was foo huge / and grete / that fyre Tristram merueyllled / from whens came the strengthe that fyre Palomydes had there in the felde / Syr said sire Gareth vnto syr Triftram / remembre ye not of the wordes that syr Dynadan sayd to yow yesterday when he called yow coward / for sothe fir he said it for none yl for ye are the man in the world that he moost loueth / and alle 5 that he sayd was for your worship / And therefore said fir Gareth to fir Triftram lete me knowe this daye what ye be / & wondre ye not foo vpon sire Palomydes / for he enforceth hym self to wynne alle the worship and honour from yow / I maye well byleue it said fir Triftram / And fythen I vnderstande his euyl 10 wyll and his enuy / ye shalle see / yf that I enforce my selfe / that the noyse shalle be leste that now is vpon hym / Thenne sire Triftram rode in to the thickest of the prees / & thenne he dyd foo merueyllously wel / and dyd foo grete dedes of armes that alle men sayd that sire Triftram dyd double so mo-15 che dedes of armes as fyre Palomydes had done afore hand / And thenne the noyse wente playne from sire Palomydes / and alle the peple cryed vpon fir Triftram / O Ihesu said the peple see how sire Triftram smyteth doune with his spere foo many knyghtes / And see faide they all how many knyghtes he smy-20 teth doune with his suerd / and of how many knyghtes he raf-shed of their helmes and their sheldes / and foo he bete them al of Orkeney afore hym / How now said fir launcelot vnto kynge Arthur / I told yow that this daye there wold a knyzt playe his pagent / yonder rydeth a knyzt ye may see he doth kny-25 ghtely / for he hath strengthe and wynde / So god me help said Arthur to Launcelot ye saye sothe / for I sawe neuer a better knyghte / for he passeth fer sire Palomydes / Syre wete ye well sayd launcelot hit muste be foo of ryghte / for hit is hym selfe that noble knyght syr Triftram / I maye ryght wel byleue it 30 said Arthur / But whan sire Palomydes herd the noyse and the crye was torned from hym / he rode oute on a parte / and beheld fir Triftram / And whanne sire Palomydes sawe fir Trif-tram do so merueyllously wel / he wepte passyngly fore for des-pyte / for he wiste wel / he shold no worship wyne that daye / 35 for wel knewe sire Palomydes whanne sire Triftram wold put forth his strengthe and his manhode he shold gete but ly-tyl worship that daye

¶ Capitulum lxxxv

THenne came kynge Arthur and the kynge of North-galys / and sir Launcelot du lake and sire Bleoberis sire Bors de ganyis / sir Ector de maris / these thre kny-ghtes came in to the feld with sire launcelot / And thenne sire Launcelot with the thre knyghtes of his kynne dyd foo grete 5 dedes of armes that alle the noyfe beganne vpon sir launcelot / And foo they bete the kynge of walys and the kyng of scottes ferre abak / and made them to auoyde the felde / but sir Trif-tram and sir Gareth abode styll in the felde and endured all that euer there came / that alle men had wonder that ony kny- 10 ght myght endure foo many strokes / But euer sir launcelot & his thre kynnesmen by the cammaudement of fyr launcelot forbare sir Tristram / Thenne said sir Arthur is that sir Palomydes that endureth foo wel / nay said sir launcelot / wete ye wel it is the good knyght sir Tristram / for yonder ye maye see fyr 15 Palomydes beholdeth and houeth and doth lytel or noughte / And sire ye shalle vnderstande that sire Tristram weneth thys day to bete vs alle oute of the felde / And as for me said sire launcelot I shal not bete hym / bete hym who foo wil / Sir said Launcelot vnto Arthur ye maye see how sir Palomydes houeth 20 yonder / as though he were in a dreame / wete ye wel he is ful heuy that Tristram doth fuche dedes of armes / Thenne is he but a foole said Arthur / for neuer was sire Palomydes / nor neuer shalle be of fuche prowesse as sir Tristram / And yf he haue ony enuy at sir Tristram and cometh in with hym vpon his fy- 25 de he is a fals knyghte / ¶ As the kynge and sir Launcelot thus spake / sir Tristram rode pryuely oute of the prees / that none aspyed hym / but la Beale Ifoud and sir Palomydes / for they two wold not lete of their eyen vpon sir Tristram / ¶ And whanne sir Tristram cam to his paelions he fond sire 30 Dynadan in his bedde a slepe / Awake said Tristram / ye ouȝt to be ashamed foo to slepe whan knyghtes haue ado in the feld Thenne fyr Dynadan arose lyghtely and said fyr what wylle ye that I shalle doo / make yow redy said fyr Tristram to ryde with me in to the felde / Soo whan fyr Dynadan was armed 35 he loked vpon fyre Tristrams helme and on his shelde / and whan he sawe foo many strokes vpon his helme and vpon his shelde / he said in good tyme was I thus a slepe / For hadde I ben with yow / I must nedes for shame there haue folowed yow / more for shame than ony prowesse / that is in me / that I 5 see wel now by tho strokes that I shold haue ben truly beten as I was yesterdaye / Leue youre Iapes said sire Tristram / & come of that were in the felde ageyne / what sayd sire Dynadan is your herte vp / yester daye ye ferd as though ye had dremed / Soo thenne sire Tristram was arrayed in black harne-10 is / O Ihesu said Dynadan what eyleth yow this day / me fe-meth ye be wylder than ye were yesterday / Thenne smyled sire Tristram and sayd to Dynadan awayte wel vpon me / yf ye see me ouermatched / loke that ye be euer behynde me / and I shalle make yow redy way by goddes grace / Soo sire Tristram 15 and fyre Dynadan took their horsen / Alle this aspyed sire palomydes / bothe their goynge and their comynge / and foo dyd la Beale Ifoud / for she knewe sire Tristram aboue alle other

¶ Capitulum lxxvi

Thenne whanne sire Palomydes sawe that sire Tristram was desguysed / thenne he thoughte to doo hym a sha-20 me / Soo fyre Palomydes rode to a knyghte that was fore wounded that satte vnder a fayre welle from the felde / Syr knyghte said sire Palomydes I pray you to lene me your armour / and your shelde / for myn is ouer wel knowen in this felde / and that hath done me grete damage / and ye shall 25 haue myn armour and my shelde that is as sure as yours / I wille wel said the knyghte that ye haue myn armour and my shelde / yf they may doo yow ony auayle / So sire Palomydes armed hym hastily in that Knyghtes armoure & his shield that shone as ony crytall or syluer / and foo he came rydynge 30 in to the felde / And thenne ther was neyther sire Tristram nor none of kynge Arthurs party that knewe sire Palomydes /

¶ And ryght foo as sire Palomydes was come in to the felde sire Tristram smote doune thre Knyghtes euen in the fyght of sire Palomydes / And thenne sire Palomydes rode ageynst fyre Tristram / and eyther mette other with grete speres / that they baste to their handes / And thenne they dafshed to gyder with fwerdes egerly / Thenne sire Tristram had merueylle what knyghte he was that dyd bataill so knyghtely with hym / Thenne was sire Tristram wrothe / for he felte hym passyng stronge 5 so that he demed he myghte not haue adoo with the remenaunt of the knyghtes by cause of the strengthe of fyre palomydes ¶ Soo they lashed to gyder and gaf many sadde strokes to gyders / and many knyghtes merueylled what knyghte he myghte be that soo encountred with the black knyghte sire trif- 10 tram / ful wel knewe la Beale Isoud that there was fyre palomydes that fought with sire Tristram / for he aspyed al in her wyndowe where that she stode / as fyre palomydes chaunged his harneis with the wounded knyghte / And thenne she be-ganne to wepe so hertely for the despyte of fyre palomydes that 15 ther she swowned / Thenne came in fyre launcelot with the knyghtes of Orkeney / And whanne the other party had aspyed sire Launcelot / they cryed / retorne retorne / here cometh fyre launcelot du lake / Soo there came knyghtes and sayd fyre launcelot ye must nedes fyghte with yonder knyght in the black har- 20 neis that was fyre Tristram / for he hath al moost ouercome that good knyghte that fyghteth with hym with the syluer shelde that was fyre palomydes / Thenne sire launcelot rode betwix sire Tristram and fyre palomydes / and fyre launcelot said to palomydes / fyre knyghte lete me haue the bataill / for ye haue nede 25 to be repofed / Fyre palomydes knewe fyre launcelot wel / and so dyd fyre Tristram / but by cause fyre Launcelot was ferre hardyer knyght than hym self / therfor he was gladde / and suffred fyre launcelot to fyghte with fyre Tristram / For wel wyfte he that fyre launcelot knewe not sire Tristram / and there he hoped 30 that fyre launcelot shold bete or shame fyre Tristram / wherof fyre palomydes was ful sayne / and soo fyre launcelot gaf fyre Tristram many sadde strokes / but fyre launcelot knewe not fyre Tristram / but sire Tristram knewe wel fyre launcelot /

And thus they fought longe to gyders that la Beale Isoud 35 was wel nygh oute of her mynde for forou / thenne fyre Dynadan told sire Gareth how þat knyght in the black harneis was sire triftra & this is launcelot þat fyghteth with hym þat must nedes haue the better of hym / for sir Triftram hath had to moche trauaylle this day / Thenne lete vs fmyte hym doune said fyre Gareth / fo it is better that we doo said fire Dynadan thenne sir Triftram be shamed / for yonder houeth the stronge knyghte with the fyl-5 uer sheld to falle vpon fyre Triftram yf nede be / Thenne forthe with alle Gareth raffhed vpon fyre launcelot / and gaf hym a grete stroke vpon his helme soo hard that he was astroyed And thenne came fyr Dynadan with a spere / and he smote fyr launcelot fuche a buffet that hors and alle felle to the erthe 10 O Ihesu said fyr Triftram to fyre Gareth and fyre Dynadan fy for shame why dyd ye fmyte doune soo good a knyght as he is / and namely whan I had adoo with hym / now ye doo your self grete shame / and hym no difworship / For I helde hym refonable hote though ye had not holpen me / Thenne cam 15 fyre palomydes that was desguysed and smote doune fyr Dynadan from his hors / Thenne fyr launcelot by cause fyr Dyna-dan had fmyten hym afore hand / thenne fyr launcelot affai-led fyre Dynadan passyng fore / and fyre Dynadan defended hym myghtely / But wel vnderstood fyr Triftram that fyre 20 Dynadan myghte not endure fyr launcelot / wherfor fyr Trif-tram was fory / Thenne came fyre palomydes fresshe vpon fyre Triftram / And whanne fyr Triftram sawe hym come / he thoughte to delyuer hym at ones by cause that he wold helpe fyre Dynadan by cause he stode in grete perylle with fyr Launcelot 25 ¶ Thenne fyre Triftram hurteled vnto fyre palomydes & gaf hym a grete buffet / and thenne sir Triftram gate sir palomydes and pulled hym doune vnder nethe hym / And so felle sir Triftram with hym / and fyr Triftram lepte vp lyghtely and leste sir palomydes and wente betwixe sir launcelot and Dy-30 nadan / and thenne they beganne to do bataille to gyders / ¶ Ryght soo fire Dynadan gat sir Triftrams hors and said on hyghe that sir Launcelot myght here it / my lord sir Triftra take yours hors / And whanne fire Launcelot herd hym ne-name sir Triftram / O Ihesu said launcelot what haue I done 35 I am dishonoured / A my lord fyre Triftram said Launcelot / why were ye desguyfed / ye haue put your self in grete perille this daye / But I praye you noble Knyghte to pardone me / for and I had knowen yow we had not done this bataille /

Sir said sir Triftram this is not the fyrst kyndenes ye shewed me / soo they were bothe horfed ageyne / Thenne alle the people on the one syde gaf sir laūcelot the honour and the degree / & on the other syde all the people gaf to the noble knyzt sir triftram the honour and the degree / but launcelot sayd nay ther to / for 5 I am not worthy to haue this honour / for I wil reporte me vnto alle knyghtes that sir Triftram hath ben lenger in the felde than I / and he hath fmyten doun many moo knyghtes thys day than I haue done / And therefore I wille gyue sire Trift-ram my voyce and my name / and so I praye alle my lordes & 10 felawes soo to doo / Thenne there was the hole voyce of dukes and Erles / Barons and knyghtes / that fyr Triftram thys day is preued the best knyghte ¶ Capitulum lxxvij

THenne they blewe vnto ledgyng / and Quene Ifoud was ledde vnto her paelions / but wete yow wel she 15 was wrothe oute of mesure with fyr Palomydes / for she sawe alle this treafon from the begynnyng to the endyng / And all this whyle neyther fyr Triftram neyther sir Gareth nor Dyna-dan knewe not of the treafon of sir Palomydes / but afterward ye shalle here that there befelle the gretteft debate betwixe fyre 20 Triftram and sire Palomydes that myghte be / So whanne the turnement was done / sir Triftram Gareth and Dynadan rode with la Beale Ifoud to these paelions / And euer sire Palomydes rode with them in theyr company desguysed as he was But whanne sir Triftram had aspyed hym that he was the fa- 25 me knyghte with the sheld of syluer / that helde hym soo hote that day / Sir knyghte said sire Triftram wete yow wel here is none that hath nede of youre selaufship / and therefore I praye yow departe from vs / ¶ Sire Palomydes answerd ageyne as though he had not knowen sir Triftram / wete yow wel sir kn- 30 yghte from this selaufship wille I neuer departe / for one of the best knyghtes of the world commaunded me to be in this company / and tyl he discharge me of my seruyse I wille not be discharged / by that sir Triftram knewe that it was sir palomydes A sir palomydes sayd the noble knyghte sire Triftram ar ye fu- 35 che a knyghte ye haue ben named wronge / For ye haue longe ben called a gentil knyȝt / And as this daye ye haue shewed me grete vngentilnes / For ye hadde al mooste broughte me vnto my dethe / But as for yow I suppoſe I ſhold haue done wel ynough / but ſir launcelot with yow was ouer moche / for 5 I knowe no knyght lyuyng but ſir launcelot is ouer good for hym and he wyll doo his vttermoſt / Allas ſaid ſir Palomydes ar ye my lord ſir Triftram / ye ſir and that ye knowe wel ynough / by my knyghthode ſaid Palomydes vntyl now I kne-we yow not I wende that ye had ben the Kyng of Irland / 10 for wel I wote ye bare his armes / His armes I bare ſaid ſyre Triftram / and that wille I ſtand by / For I wanne them ones in a felde of a ful noble knyghte / his name was ſir Marhaus and with grete payne I wanne that knyghte / for there was none other recouer but ſir Marhaus dyed thorough fals leches / & 15 yet was he neuer yolden to me / Sir ſaid Palomydes I wend ye had ben torned vpon ſir Launcelots party / and that cauſed me to torne / ye fay wel ſaid ſir Triftram / and ſo I take you & I forgyue yow / Soo thenne they rode in to their pauclions / and whan they were alyȝt they vnarmed them and waſſhe theyre 20 faces and handes / and ſoo yode vnto mete and were ſette atte their table / But whanne Ifoud ſawe ſir Palomydes ſhe chaūged thenne her colours & for wrath ſhe myght not ſpeke / Anon ſir Triftram aſpyed her countenance and ſaid Madame / for what cauſe make ye vs ſuche chere / we haue ben fore trauailed 25 this day / Myn owne lord ſaid la Beale Ifoud for goddes ſake be ye not dyſpleafyd with me / for I maye none other wyſe doo / for I ſawe thys day how ye were bitrayed and nyghe bro-ughte to your dethe / Truly ſyre I ſawe euery dele how and in what wyſe and therfor ſyre how ſhold I ſuffre in your preſence 30 ſuche a felon and traytour as ſir Palomydes / For I ſawe hym with myn eyen / how he beheld yow whan ye wente oute of the felde / for euer he houed ſtylle vpon his hors til he ſawe yow come in ageynward / And thēne forth with al I ſawe hym ryde to the hurte knyghte and chaūged harnes with hym / And then-35 ne ſtreighte I ſawe hym how he rode in to the felde /

¶ And anone as he had ſoude yow / he encountred with yow / and thus wilfully ſir Palomydes dyd bataille with yow / & as for hym ſir I was not gretely aferd but I dred fore laūcelot that knewe yow not / Madame said Palomydes ye maye. saye what so ye wyll / I maye not contrary yow but by my knyghtho-de I knewe not sir Tristram / ¶ Sir Palomydes said sir Trif-tram I wille take your excuse / but wel I wote ye spared me but lytel / but alle is pardoned on my party / Thenne la beale 5 Ifoud held doune her heed and said no more at that tyme /

¶ Capitulum lxxviii

ANd there with alle two knyghtes armed cam vnto the paulione / and there they alyghte bothe / and came in armed at alle pyeces / Faire knyghtes sayd fyre Tristram / ye ar to blame to come thus armed at alle pyeces vpon me why- 10 le we ar at oure mete / yf ye wold ony thyng when we were in the felde / there myghte ye haue eafyd your hertes / Not fo said the one of tho knyghtes we come not for that entent / But wete ye wel sir Tristram we be come hydder as your fren-des / And I am come here said the one for to see yow & thys 15 knyghte is come for to see la Beale Ifoud / Thenne said fire Tristram I requyre yow doo of your helmes that I maye see yow / that wille we doo at your desyre sayd the knyghtes / And whanne their helmes were of / sir Tristram thought that he shold knowe them / Thenne said sir Dynadan pryuely vnto 20 syr Tristram / syr that is fire Launcelot du lake that spak vnto yow fyrst / and the other is my lord Kynge Arthur / Thenne said sir Tristram vnto la Beale Ifoud Madame aryfe for here is my lord kynge Arthur / thenne the kynge and the quene kyssed and fire launcelot and syr Tristram braced cyther other 25 in armes / and thenne there was Ioye withoute mesure / & at the request of la Beale Ifoud kynge Arthur and Laun-celot were vnarmed / and thenne there was mery talkynge ¶ Madame said fire Arthur hit is many a day sythen that I haue defyred to see yow / for ye haue ben prayfed soo ferre / and 30 now I dar say ye are the sayrest that cuer I sawe / & sir Trif-tram is as sayre and as good a knyghte as ony that I knowe / therfor me besemeth ye are wel besett to gyders / Syr god thanke yow said the noble knyzt fire Tristram and Ifoud / of your grete goodenesse & largesse ye ar pyerles / Thus 35 they talked of many thynges and of alle the hole Iustes / But for what cause sayd kynge Arthur were ye sir Triftram ageynst vs / ye are a knyght of the table round / of ryghte ye shold haue ben with vs / Syre said sir Triftram here is Dyna-5 dan and sire Gareth your owne neuewe caused me to be ayenst yow / My lord Arthur sayd Gareth I may wel bere the blame but it were sir Triftrams owne dedes / That may I repente sayd Dynadan / for this vnhappy sire Triftram broughte vs to haue this turnement / and many grete buffets he caused vs to haue 10 Thenne the kynge and launcelot lough that they myghte not fytt / what knyght was that sayd Arthur that held yow soo short / this with the sheld of syluer / Syr said sir Triftram here he fytteth at this bord / what said Arthur was hit sire Palomydes / wete ye wel hit was he said la Beale Ifoud / ¶ So 15 god me help said Arthur that was vnknyghtely done of you of soo good a Knyghte / for I haue herd many peple calle you a curtois knyghte / Sir said Palomydes I knewe not sir Trif-tram / for he was soo defguyed / Soo god me helpe sayd la-uncelot it maye wel be / for I knewe not sir Triftram / But I 20 merueyle why ye torned on oure party / That was done for the same cause said launcelot / As for that said sir Triftram I haue pardonned hym / and I wold be ryght lothe to leue his felauship / for I loue ryght wel his company / soo they lefte of and talked of other thynges / And in the cuenyng kyng ar-25 thur and sir launcelot departed vnto their lodgyng / but wete ye wel sir Palomydes had enuy hertely for aile that nyght he had neuer rest in his bedde / but wayled and wepte oute of mesure / Soo on the morn sire Triftram Gareth and Dynadan arose erly / and thenne they wente vnto sire Palomydes cham-30 ber / and there they fond hym fast on slepe / for he had al nyzt watched / And it was seene vpon his chekes that he had wept ful fore / Say no thyng sayd syr Triftram / for I am sure he hath taken anger and sorowe for the rebuke that I gaf to hym and la Beale Ifoud

¶ Capitulum lxxix

Thenne sir Tristram lete calle sir Palomydes / and bad hym make hym redy / for it was tyme to go to the felde whan they were redy they were armed and clothed al in reed bothe Ifoud and alle they / and soo they lad her passynge fresshely thurgh the feld in to the pryory where was her lodgyng / and thenne they herd thre blastes blowe / and euery kyng and knyghte drestid hym vnto the felde / and the fyrste that was redy to Iuste was sir Palomydes and sir Kaynus le straunge a knyghte of the table round / And soo they two en-counted to gyders / but sire Palomydes smote sir Kaynus soo hard that he smote hym quyte ouer his hors croupe / and forth with alle sir Palomydes smote doune another knyght and brake thenne his spere & pulled oute his swerd and did wonderly wel / And thenne the noyse beganne gretely vpon sir palomydes / loo said Kyng Arthur yonder palomydes begynneth to play his pagent / So god me help said Arthur he is a passyng good knyght / And ryght as they stood talkyng thus in came sir Tristram as thonder / and he encountered with fyre Kay the Seneschall / and there he smote hym doune quyte from his hors / and with that same spere sir Tristram smote doune thre knyghtes moo / and thenne he pulled oute his swerd and dyd merueylously / Thenne the noyse and crye chaunged from fyr Palomydes and torned to sir Tristram and alle the peple cryed O Tristram O Tristram / And thenne was sir Palomydes clene forgotten / How now said Launcelot vnto Arthur / yonder rydeth a knyght that playeth his pagents / So god me help said Arthur to launcelot ye shalle see this daye that yonder two knyghtes shalle here doo this day wonders / Syr said Launcelot the one knyght wayteth vpon the other / and enforceth hym self thurgh enuy to passe the noble knyght sire Tristram / and he knoweth not of the pryuy enuy / the whiche fyre Palomydes hath to hym / For all that the noble fyre Tristram dothe is thorou clene knyghthode / And thenne sire Gareth and Dynadan dyd wonderly grete dedes of armes as two noble knyghtes soo that Kyng Arthur spak of them grete honour & worship / and the kynges and knyghtes of fir Triframs syde did passyngly wel / and helde them truly to gyders / Thenne fir Arthur and fir Launcelot took their horses and dresseid them and gete in to the thyekest of the prees / And there fyr Trift-5 ram vnknowyng smote doune kyng Arthur / and thenne fyre launcelot wold haue rescowed hym / but there were soo many vpon fir launcelot that they pulled hym doune from his hors / And thenne the kyng of Irland and the kyng of Scottes with their Knyghtes dyd their payne to take kyng Arthur/10 and fir launcelot prysoner / Whanne fyr Launcelot herd hem say soo he ferd as hit had ben an hongry lyon / for he ferd so that no knyghte durste nyghe hym / Thenne came fir Ector de maris and he bare a spere ageynst fire Palomydes / and braft it vpon hym alle to sheuers / And thenne fyr Ector came ageyne and 15 gaf fire Palomydes fuche a daffe with a fwerd that he stou-ped doune vpon his fadel bowe / And forth with alle fyre Ector pulled doune fir Palomydes vnder his fecte / And thenne fyr Ector de marys gate fir launcelot du lake an hors / and brought hit to hym / and badde hym mounte vpon hym / But 20 fir Palomydes lepte afore and gatte the hors by the brydel / & lepte in to the fadel / Soo god me helpe said launcelot ye are better worthy to haue that hors than I / Thenne fir Ector broughte fyr launcelot an other hors / gramercy sayd launcelot vnto his broder / ¶ And so when he was horfed ageyne/25 with one spere he smote doune four knyghtes / And thenne fir Launcelot broughte to kyng Arthur one of the best of the iiij horses / Thenne fyr launcelot with kyng Arthur and a fewe of his Knyghtes of fire Launcelots kynne dyd merueyllous dedes / for that tyme as the booke recordeth fyr launcelot smote 30 doune and pulled doune thyrty knyghtes / Not withstanding the other parte held them soo fast to gyders that kyng arthur and his knyghtes were ouermatched / And whanne fir Trifram sawe that what labour Kyng Arthur and his knyghtes and in especyal the noble dedes that fyre launcelot dyd with 35 his owne handes he merueylled gretely

¶ Capitulum lxxx

T Henne fir Triftram called vnto hym fyr Palomydes/fyr Gareth and fyr Dynadan / and sayd thus to them my fayre felawes wete ye wel that I will torne vnto kyng Arthurs party / for I fawe neuer foo fewe men doo foo round table to see our lord kyng Arthur and that noble kn-yght fire Launcelot to be dishonoured / It wille be wel do faid fire Gareth / and fyr Dynadan / do your best said palomydes / for I wille not chaunge my party that I came in with al That is for my sake said fir Triftram / god spede yow in your 10 Iourneye / and foo departed fyr Palomydes fro them / Thenne fir Triftram Gareth and Dynadan torned with fir launcelot And thenne fyr launcelot fmote doune the kyng of Irland quyte from his hors / and so fyr launcelot fmote doune the kynge of Scottes and the Kyng of walys / and thenne fir ar- 15 thur ranne vnto fyre Palomydes and fmote hym quyte from his hors / and thenne fyr Triftram bare doune alle that he mett Syr Gareth and fir Dynadan dyd there as noble knyghtes/thenne al the partyes beganne to flee / Allas said Palomydes that euer I shold see this day / for now haue I lost al the wor- 20 ship that I wanne / and thēne fir palomydes wente his way waylynge / and foo withdrewe hym tyl he came to a welle and there he putte his hors from hym / and dyd of his armour and wayled and wepte lyke as he had ben a wood man / Thenne many Knyghtes gaf the pryce to fyre Triftram / and 25 there were many that gaf the pryce vnto fyre Launcelot /

Fair lordes said fir Triftram I thanke yow of the honour ye wold yeue me / but I pray yow hertely that ye wold gyue your voys to fyr launcelot / for by my feythe said fyre Tryftram / I wille gyue fir launcelot my voys / but fyre launcelot 30 wold not haue hit / and so the pryce was gyuen betwix them bothe / Thenne euery man rode to his lodgyng and fyr bleoberis and fyr Ector rode with fir Triftram and la Beale Ifoud vnto her paelions / Thenne as fyr Palomydes was atte well waylynge and wepyng / there came by hym fleyng the kyng 35 of walys and of Scotland / and they fawe fyre Palomydes in that arage / Allas said they that foo noble a man as ye be/shold be in this araye / & thenne tho kynges gat fir palomydes liors ageyne / and made hym to arme hym and mounte vpon his hors / and foo he rode with hem makyng grete dole / ¶ Soo whan fire Palomydes came nyghe the paucelions there as fyre Triftram and La beale Ifoud was in / thenne fire palomydes 5 prayd the two kynges to abyde hym there the whyle that he spake with fir Triftram / And whanne he came to the porte of the paucelions / fyre palomydes said on hyghe where arte thou fyr Triftram de lyones / Syr said Dynadan that is palomydes What fir Palomydes wille ye not come in here amonge vs / 10 Fy on the traytour fayd Palomydes / for wete yow wel and hit were day lyght as it is nyght I shold flee the myn owne handes / And yf I euer maye gete the said Palomydes thou shalt dye for this dayes dede / Sir Palomydes said fir Triftram ye wyte me with wronge / for had ye done as I dyd ye hadde 15 wonne worship / But sythen ye gyue me foo large warnynge/I shalle be wel ware of yow / Fy on the traitour faide Palo-mydes / and there with departed / Thenne on the morne fir Trif-tram / Bleoberis and fir Ector de marys / fir Gareth / fyr Dynadan what by water and what by lond they brought la be-20 ale Ifoud vnto Ioyous gard / and there reposed them a vij nyghte / and made alle the myrthes and disportes that they coude deuyse / and kyng Arthur and his knyghtes drewe vnto Camelot / and fyre Palomydes rode with the two kynges / And euer he made the grettest dole that ony man coude thynke 25 for he was not alle only foo dolorous for the departyng from la beale Ifoud / but he was a parte as forouful to departe from the selauship of fir Triftram / for fire Triftram was foo kynd and foo gentyl that whanne fire Palomydes remembrid hym therof he myghte neuer be mery 30 SO at the seuen nyghtes ende / fir Bleoberys & fyr Ec-these two good knyghtes had grete yestes / and fir Gareth and fir Dynadan abode with fir Triftram / & whan fire Blebeorys lodged in a castel by the fee fyde / And thorou the grace of god the quene was recouerd of her maladye / ¶ Thenne she asked the two knyghtes from whens they came / they sayd that they came from sir Triftram and from la beale Ifoud / how doth sir Triftram said the quene and la Beale Ifoud / Truly sayd 5 tho two knyghtes he dothe as a noble knyght shold doo / and as for the Quene Ifoud she is pyerles of alle ladyes / for to speke of her beaute bounte and myrthe / and of her goodenesse we fawe neuer her matche as ferre as we haue ryden and gone O mercy Ihesu said quene Gueneuer soo sayth alle the people / 10 that haue sene her and spoken with her / God wold that I had parte of her condycyons / and it is myffortuned me of my sekenesse whyle that turnement endured / And as I suppose / I shalle neuer see in alle my lyf fuche an assemble of knyghtes and ladyes as ye haue done / Thenne the knyghtes told her hou 15 Palomydes wanne the degree at the fyrst daye with grete no-bleffe / And the second day sir Trystram wanne the degree / and the thyrdd day fyre launcelot wanne the degree / wel said que-ne Gueneuer who dyd best alle these thre dayes / Soo god me help said these knyghtes sir launcelot and sire Triftram hadde 20 leest dishonour / And wete ye wel sir palomydes dyd passyng wel and myghtely / but he torned ageynst the party that he cam in with alle / and that caused hym to lese a grete parte of hys worship / for it semed that sir Palomydes is passyng enuyous Thenne shalle he neuer wynne worship said Quene Gueneuer 25 for and it happeth an enuyous man ones to wynne worshyp he shalle be dishonoured twyes therfore / And for this cause alle men of worship hate an enuyous man / and wille shewe hym no fauour / And he that is curtois and kynde and gentil hath fauour in euery place /

Now leue we of this mater / and speke we of sir Palomydes that rode and lodged hym with the two kynges wherof the knynges were heuy / Thenne the kyng of Ir-land sent a man of his to syr Palomydes and gaf hym a grete courser / and the Kyng of Scotland gaf hym grete yestes/ 35 and fayne they wold haue had fire Palomydes to haue abyden with them / but in no wyfe he wold abyde / and foo he departed / and rode as auentures wold guyde hym / tyl it was nyȝ none / And thenne in a forest by a welle fyr Palomydes fawe 5 where lay a fayre wounded knyght and his hors bounden by hym / and that knyght made the gretteſt dole that euer he herd man make / for euer he wepte and ther with he ſyghed as though he wold dye / Thenne fyre Palomydes rode nere hym and falewed hym myldly and fayd / fayr knyghte why wayle ye 10 foo / lete me lye doune and wayle with yow / for doubte not I am moche more heuyer than ye are / for I dare fay fayd Palo-mydes that my forowe is an honderd fold more than yours is and therfor lete vs complayne eyther to other / Fyrſt faide the wounded knyghte I requyre yow telle me your name / for & 15 thow be none of the noble knyghtes of the round tabble / thou ſhalt neuer knowe my name / what ſomeuer come of me / Faire werfe wete thou wel that my name is fire Palomydes ſone & heyre vnto kynge Aſtlabor / and ſir Saſyr and ſir Segwary-20 des are my two bretheren / and wete thou wel as for my ſelf I was neuer cryſtened / but my two bretheren ar truly cryſtend O noble knyghte faid that knyghte / wel is me that I haue mette with yow / and wete ye wel my name is Epynogrys the kynges ſone of Northumberland / Now ſytte doune fayd 25 Epynogrys / and lete vs eyther complayne to other / Thenne fyre Palomydes beganne his complaynte / Now ſhalle I telle yow faid Palomydes what wo I endure I loue the faireſt Quene and lady that euer bare lyf / and wete ye wel her name is la Beale Ifoud kynge Markes wyf of Cornewaile / 30 That is grete foly faid Epynogrys for to loue Quene Ifoud For one of the beſt knyghtes of the world loueth her / that is ſir Triftram de lyones / that is trouthe faid Palomydes / for no man knoweth that mater better than I doo / for I haue ben in ſir Triftrams ſelaſhip this moneth and with la beale Ifoud 35 to gyders / and allas faid Palomydes vnhappy man that I am now haue I loſte the ſelaſhip of fyre Triftram for euer & the loue of la beale Ifoud for euer / and I am neuer lyke to ſee her more / and ſir Triftram & I ben eyther to other mortal enemies Wel said Epynogrys / fythe that ye loued la Beale Ifoud / loued she yow euer ageyne by ony thyng that ye coude thynke or wyte / or els dyd ye reioyfe her euer in ony pleasyr / Nay by my knyghthode said Palomydes I neuer afpyed that euer she loued me more than alle the world / nor neuer had I ple- 5 syr with her / But the laste daye she gaf me the gretteft rebuke that euer I had / the whiche shalle neuer goo from my herte / & yet I wel deferued that rebuke / for I dyd not knyghtely / & therfor I haue lost the loue of her and of sir Triftram for e-uer / & I haue many tymes enforced my self to doo many de- 10 des for la beale Ifoud sake / and she was the causer of my worship wynnyng / Allas said sir Palomydes now haue I lost alle the worshyp that euer I wanne / for neuer shalle me befalle suche prowesse as I had in the selschyp of sir Triftram ¶ Capitulum lxxiij

Ay nay sayde Epynogrys youre forowe is but Iapes 15 to my forowe / for I reioyced my lady and wanne her with my handes / and losfe her ageyn allas that daye / Thus fyrst I wanne her said Epynogrys My lady was an Erles doughter And as the Erle and two kny3tes cam from the turnement of Lone3ep / for her sake I sette vpon this erle 20 and on his two knyghtes my lady there beyng present / and soo by fortune there I slewe the erle and one of the knyghtes and the other knyghte fledde / and soo that nyghte I had my lady / And on the morne as she and I repofed vs atte thys welle fyde / there came there to me an erraunt knyghte his na- 25 me was syr Helyor le preuse an hardy knyght / and this sir Helyor chalengyd me to fyghte for my lady / And thenne we wente to bataille fyrst vpon hors and after on foote / But at the last sir Helyor wounded me soo that he leste me for dede / and soo he toke my lady with hym / And thus my forowe 30 is more than yours / for I haue reioyced and ye reioyced neuer That is trouthe said Palomydes / but fythe I can neuer recouer my self I shalle promyse yow yf I can mete with sir Helynor I shalle gete yow your lady ageyne or els he shalle bete me / Thenne sire Palomydes made sir Epynogrys to take his hors 35 and so they rode to an hermytage / and there sir Epynogrys rested hym / And in the meane whyle fyre Palomydes walkd pryuely oute to reste hym vnder the leues / and there befyde he sawe a knyghte come rydyng with a sheld that he had sene 5 sir Ector de marys bere afore hand / and there came after hym a ten knyghtes / and foo thefe x knyghtes houed vnder the leues for hete / And anone after there came a knyzt with a grene shelde / and there in a whyte lyon ledyng a lady vpon a palfroy / Thene this knyzt with the grene sheld that fened to be 10 maister of the ten knyghtes he rode fyersly after sire Helyor / For it was he that hurte sir Epynogrys / And whanne he cam nyghe sir Helyor / he badde hym defende his lady / I will defende her said Helyor vnto my power / and foo they ranne to gyders foo myghtely that cyther of thefe knyghtes smote other doune 15 hors and all to the erthe / and thenne they wanne vp lyghtely and drewe their swerdes and their sheldes / and lashed to gyders myghtely more than an houre / Alle this sire Palomydes sawe and behelde but euer at the last the knyghte with sir Ectors shelde was bygger / and att the laste this knyghte smote 20 sir Helyor doune / and thenne that knyghte unlaced his helme to haue stryken of his hede / And thenne he cryed mercy / and praid hym to saue his lyf and badde hym take his lady /

¶ Thenne sire Palomydes dresfid hym vp by cause he wyfte wel that that same lady was Epynogrys lady / and he pro-25 mysed hym to helpe hym / Thenne sir Palomydes wente streyghte to that lady and toke her by the hand and asked her whether she knewe a knyghte that hyghte Epynogrys / Allas she said that euer he knewe me or I hym / for I haue for his sake loste my worship / and also his lyf greueth me moost of al 30 Not so lady said Palomydes / come on with me / for here is Epynogris in this hermytage / A wel is me said the lady and he be on lyue / whether wylt thou with that lady said the knyght with syr Ectors shelde / I will doo with her what me lyst said Palomydes / wete yow wel sayd that knyghte thou spe-35 keft ouer large / though thou semest me to haue at auantage / by cause thou sawest me doo bataille but late / Thou wenest sir knyghte to haue that lady away from me so lyghtly / nay thyne hit neuer not / and thou were as good a knyghte as is fyr launcelot or as is fir Tristram or fir Palomydes / but thow shalt wyne her derer than euer dyd I / and soo they went vnto bataille vpon foote / and there they gaf many fadde strokes / and eyther wounded other passyng fore // and thus they fouzt stille more than an houre / Thenne fire Palomydes had merueil 5 what knyghte he myghte be that was soo stronge and soo wel brethed duryng / and thus said Palomydes / knyzt I requyre the telle me thy name / Wete thow wel said that knyghte I dar telle the my name / soo that thow wilt telle me thy name / I wille said palomydes / Truly said that knyghte / my name is 10 Safyr sone of kyng Aflabor and fire palomydes and fyre Segwarydes are my bretheren / Now and wete thou wel / my name is fir Palomydes / Thenne fir Safyr kneled doune vpon his knees and prayd hym of mercy / and thenne they vnaced their helmes / and eyther kyssed other wepyng / And in the 15 meane whyle fire Epynogrys arooie oute of his bedde / and herd them by the strokes / and soo he armed hym to helpe fire Palomydes yf nede were ¶ Capitulum lxxxiiij

THenne fir Palomydes tooke the lady by the hand / & broughte her to fire Epynogrys / and there was grete 20 ioye betwixe them / for eyther swounded for Ioye / whan they were mette / Fair knyght and lady said fir Safer / it were pyte to departe yow / Ihesu fend yow Ioye eyther of other / Gramercy gentyl knyghte said Epynogrys / and moche more thanke be to my lord fir Palomydes / that thus hath thurgh his 25 prowesse made me to gete my lady / ¶ Thenne fir Epynogrys requyred fire Palomydes and fire Safere his brother to ryde with them vnto his castel for the sauf gard of his person / Sire said Palomydes we will be redy to conduyte you by cause that ye are fore wounded / and soo was Epynogrys and his lady 30 horfed / and his lady behynde hym vpon a fofte ambuler / And thenne they rode vnto his castel where they had grete chere and Ioye as grete as euer fir Palomydes and fir Safere had in their lyfe dayes / Soo on the morne fir Safere and fir palo-mydes departed and rode as fortune ledde them / and soo they 35 rode alle that daye vntyl after none / And at the laft they herd a grete wepynge and a grete noyfe doun in a manoir / Syre faid thenne fir Safere lete vs wete what noyfe this is / I wil wel faid fir palomydes / and foo they rode forth tyl that they 5 came to a fayr gate of a manoir / and there fatte an old man fayenge his prayers and bedes / Thenne fire palomydes and fir Safere alyghte and lefte their horfes / and wente within the gates / and there they fawe ful many goodely men wepynge / ¶ Fair fyrs faid palomydes wherfore wepe ye / and make 10 this forowe / Anone one of the knyghtes of the caftel beheld fir palomydes / and knewe hym / and thēne wente to his felawes and faid Fair felawes wete ye wel al / we haue in this Caf-tel the fame knyght that flewe oure lord at Lonejep / for I knowe hym wel it is fyre palomydes / Thenne they wente vn-15 to harneis alle that myghte bere harneis / fome on horfbak / and fome on foote to the nombre of thre fcore / And whan they were redy / they came freffhly vpon fyr palomydes and vpon fyr Safere with a grete noyfe and fayd thus / kepe the fyre palo-mydes . for thow arte knowen / and by ryght thow muft be dede 20 for thow haft flayne oure lord / and therfore wete ye wel / we wille flee the / therfore defende the / Thenne fir palomydes & fyr Safere the one fette his bak to the other / and gaf many grete ftrokes / and took many grete ftrokes / and thus they fouzte with a twenty knyghtes and fourty gentilmen / and yomen 25 nyghe two houres / But at the laft though they were lothe fir palomydes and fyr Safere were taken and yolden and putte in a stronge pryfon / and within thre dayes twelue knyghtes paffed vpon them / and they foud fir palomydes gylty / and fyr Safyr not gylty of their lordes dethe / And whan fir Sa-30 fyr fhold be delyuerd there was grete dole betwixe fyr palomydes and hym / and many pyteous complayntys that fir Safyr made at his departyng / there is no maker can reherce the tenthe parte / Fair broder faid palomydes lete be thy dolour and thy forou / And yf I be ordeyned to dye a shameful dethe wel-35 come be it / but and I had wift of this deth that I am demed vnto I fhold neuer haue ben yolden / Soo fyr Safere departed from his broder with the gretteft dolour and forou that e-uer made knyghte / ¶ And on the morne they of the caftel ordeyned twelue knyghtes to ryde with fyre Palomydes vnto the fader of the fame knyght that fyr Palomydes flewe / and foo they bound his legges vnder an old stedes bely / And thenne they rode with fyr Palomydes vnto a Castel by the see syde that hyghte Pelownes / and there fyr Palomydes shold 5 haue Iustyce / thus was their ordenaunce / and so they rode with fyr palomydes fast by the Castel of Ioyous gard / ¶ And as they passed by that Castel / there came rydyng oute of that castel by them one that knewe fyr palomydes / And whan that knyghte sawe fyre palomydes bounden vpon a croked courser / 10 the knyght asked fyre palomydes / for what cause he was led so / A my fair felawe and knyghte sayd palomydes / I ryde toward my dethe for the sleynge of a knyght at a turnement of Loneyep / & yf I had not departed from my lord fyr Tristrā as I ouȝte not to haue done / now myȝt I haue ben sure to haue 15 had my lyf faued / But I pray yow fyr knyght recommaunde me vnto my lord sir Tristram and vnto my lady Quene I-foud / & say to them / yf euer I trespassed to them / I aske them foryeuenes / And also I biseche yow recommaunde me vnto my lord kynge Arthur and to alle the schelshipp of the round 20 table vnto my power / Thenne that knyghte wepte for pyte of fyr palomydes / and there with alle he rode vnto Ioyous gard as faste as his hors myghte renne / ande lyghtly that knyght descended doune of his hors and wente vnto sir Tristram / and there he told hym all as ye haue herd / and euer the knyghte 25 wepte as he had ben madde

¶ Capitulum lxxxv

WHen sir Tristram herd how sir palomydes went to his deth / he was heuy to here that / and said how be it that I am wroth with sir palomydes / yet wil not I suffre hym to dye so shameful a deth for he is a ful noble knyȝt / & thenne anon 30 sir Tristram was armed & toke his hors & two squyers wyth hym / & rode a grete paas towarde the castel of pelownes where sir palomydes was lugged to deth / & these twelue knyȝtes that led sir palomydes passed by a welle where as sir laūcelot was whiche was alyghte there & had teyed his hors to a tree & ta- 35 ken of his helme to drynke of that welle / & whan he saw these knyghtes / fyr launcelot putte on his helme / and suffred them to passe by hym / And thenne was he ware of fire Palomydes bounden and ledde shamefully to his dethe / O Ihesu said laun-celot What myfaenture is befallē hym that he is thus ledde to-5 ward his dethe / Forsoth said launcelot it were shame to me / to suffre this noble knyght foo to dye and I myȝte helpe hym therfor I wille helpe hym what someuer come of hit / or els I shal dye for fyr Palomydes sake / ¶ And thenne fir launcelot mounted vpon his hors and gate his spere in his hand / and 10 rode after the twelue knyghtes that ledde fir Palomydes / Fair knyghtes said fir Launcelot whyder lede ye that knyȝt/it byfemeth hym ful ylle to ryde bounden / Thenye these twelue Knyghtes sodenly torned their horses / and said to fir launcelot / fyr Knyghte we counceille the not to medle with this kn-15 yght / for he hath deserued deth / and vnto dethe he is Iuged / that me repenteth said launcelot that I may not borowe hym with sayrenesse / for he is ouer good a knyghte to dye suche a shameful dethe / And therfor fayre knyghtes said fyr launcelot kepe yow as wel as ye can / for I will rescowe that knyght or dye 20 for it / Thenne they beganne to dresse their speres / and fir laun-celot smote the foremost doune hors and man / and so he ferued thre moo with one spere / and thenne that spere braſt / and there with al fir launcelot drewe his swerd / and thenne he smote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand / thenne within a why-25 le he leste none of tho twelue knyghtes / but he had leyd them to the erthe / and the moost party of hem were fore wounded / & thenne fyr Launcelot took the best hors that he fonde and lou-fed fire Palomydes / and sette hym vpon that hors / and so they retorned ageyne vnto Ioyous gard / & thenne was fir Palo-30 mydes ware of fir Triftram how he came rydyng / And whan fir Launcelot sawe hym / he knewe hym wel / but fir Triftram knewe not hym by cause fyre Launcelot had on his sholder a golden shelde / Soo fyr launcelot made hym redy to Iuste with fyr Triftram / that fire Triftram sholde not wene that he were 35 fyre Launcelot / Thenne fir Palomydes cryed on lowde to fyr Triftram O my lorde I requyre yow Iuste not with this kny-ght / for this goode knyght hath saued me from my dethe / Whan fyre Triftram herde hym saye so / he came a softe trottyng lord fyr Triftram moche am I beholdynge vnto yow of youre grete goodenes that wold profer youre noble body to rescowe me vnderfuerd / for I haue gretely offended yow / Not with-ur name said fir Triftram / fyre at this tyme I wille not telle yow / Thenne fyre launcelot fayd vnto fir Triftram and to palomydes / now eyther of yow ar mette to gyders / I wille departe from yow / Not soo said fyr Triftram I pray yow of kny- 15 thode to ryde with me vnto my Castel / wete yow wel said fyr Launcelot I may not ryde with yow / for I haue many dedes to doo in other places / that att this tyme I maye not abyde with yow / A mercy Ihesu said fyr Triftram I requyre yow/as ye be a true knyghte to the ordre of knyghthode / playe you with me this nyghte / Thenne fyre Triftram had a graunte of 20 fyre launcelot / how be it though he had not defyred hym / he wold haue ryden with hem / outhere soone haue come after them for fyr launcelot cam for none other cause in to that Countrey but for to see fyr Triftram / And whanne they were come within Ioyous gard / they alyght / and their horses were ledde in to 25 a stable / and thenne they vnarmed them / And whanne fyre Launcelot was vnhelmed / fir Triftram and fyr Palomydes knewe hym / Thenne fyre Triftram took fyr launcelot in armes / & soo dyd la Beale Isoud / and Palomydes kneled doune vp-on his knees / and thanked fyr Launcelot / whan fyr launcelot 30 sawe fir Palomydes knele / he lyghtely toke hym vp and fayd thus / wete thou wel fir Palomydes I and ony knyght in this land of worship oughte of veray ryght focoure and rescowe foo noble a knyghte as ye are proued and renoumed thurgh oute alle this reame endlonge and ouerthwart / And thenne was there Ioye amonge them / and the oftyner that fyre Palo-mydes fawe la Beale Ifoud / the heuyer he waxed day by day 5 Thenne fir launcelot within thre or four dayes departed / and with hym rode fir Ector de marys / and Dynadan and fir Palomydes were there lefte with fire Triftram a two monethes & more / But euer fire Palomydes faded and morned that alle men had merueylle wherfore he had faded foo awaye / So vppn a 10 day in the daunynge fire Palomydes wente in to the foreste by hym self alone / and there he fond a welle / and thenne he loked in to the welle / and in the water he fawe his owne vyfage hou he was distourbled and defaded nothyng lyke that he was What may this meane said fire Palomydes / and thus he said 15 to hym self / A Palomydes / Palamydes / why arte thou dyffaded thou that was wonte to be called one of the fayrest kny3-tes of the world / I wille no more lede this lyf / for I loue that I maye neuer gete nor recouer / And there with all he le-yd hym doune by the welle / And thenne he beganne to make 20 a ryme of la Beale Ifoud and hym / ¶ And in the meane whyle fyr Triftram was that same day ryden in to the forest to chace the herte of greefe / but fire Triftram wold not ryde on huntynge neuer more vnarmed by cause of fyr Breuse faunce pyte / and foo as fir Triftram rode in to that forest vp and 25 doune / he herd one synge merueyllously lowde / and that was fyre Palomydes that lay by the welle / And thenne fyr Trif-tram rode softely thyder / for he demed / there was some knyght erraunt that was at the welle

¶ And whanne fire Triftram came nyghe hym / he descended 30 doune from his hors and teyed his hors fast tyl a tree / and thenne he came nere hym on foote / and anonc he was ware where lay fire palomydes by the welle and fange lowde and meryly / and euer the complayntes were of that noble Que-ne La Beale Ifoud / the whiche was merueyllously and 35 wonderfully wel fayd / and ful dolefully and pytously made And alle the hole fonge the noble knyghte fire Triftram herd from the begynnyng to the endynge / the whiche greued and troubled hym fore ¶ But thenne at the last whanne fir Triftram had herd all fir Palomydes complayntes he was wrothe oute of mefure & thougt for to flee hym there as he lay Thenne fyr Triftram remembryd hym felf that fir Palomydes was vnarmed and of the noble name that fir Palomydes had and the noble name that hym felf had / and thenne he made a 5 reftaynte of his anger / & fo he wente vnto fire Palomydes a foft paas and faid fir Palomydes I haue herd youre com-playnte and of thy treason that thou haft owed me fo longe And wete thou wel therfor thou fhalt dye / And yf it were 10 not for fhame of knyghthode / thou fhouldest not efcape my han-des / for now I knowe wel thou haft awayted me with trea-fon. Telle me faid fyre Triftram how thou wolt acquyte the/Sir faid Palomydes thus I wille acquyte me / as for Que-ne la beale Ifoud ye fhall wete that I loue her aboute all other ladyes in this world / and wel I wote it fhalle befall 15 me as for her loue as befelle to the noble knyghte fyre Kehydius that dyed for the loue of la Beale Ifoud / and now fir Triftram I wil that ye wete that I haue loued la Beale I-foud many a day / and fhe hath ben the caufer of my worfhyp And els I had ben the mooft fympleft knyght in the world 20 For by her / and by caufe of her / I haue wonne the worfhyp that I haue / for when I remembryd me of la Beale Ifoud I wanne the worfhyp where fomeuer I came for the moft party / and yet had I neuer reward nor bounte of her the dayes of my lyf / and yet haue I ben her knyght gwerdonles / And 25 therfor fyr Triftram as for ony deth I drede not / for I hadde as lyef dye as to lyue / And yf I were armed as thou arte / I fhould lyghtely doo batail with the / wel haue ye vttered your treason faid Triftram / I haue done to yow no treason faid Palomydes / for loue is free for alle men / and though I ha- 30 ue loued your lady / fhe is my lady as wel as yours / how be it I haue wronge yf ony wronge be / for ye reioyce her / and haue youre defyre of her / and foo had I neuer nor neuer am ly-ke to haue / and yet fhalle I loue her to the vttermoſt dayes of my lyf as wel as ye 35

¶ Capitulum lxxxviij

T Henne faid fyr Triftram I wil fyghte with yow to the vttermoſt / I graunte faide palomydes / for in a better quarel kepe I neuer to fyghte / for & I dye of your handes / of a better knyghtes handes may I not be slayne / And fythen I vnderstande that I shalle neuer reioyce la beale Ifoud / I haue as good wyll to dye as to lyue / Thenne sette ye a day said fir 5 Triftram that we shalle doo bataille / this day / xv / dayes said payd Palomydes wille I mete with yow here by / in the medowe vnder Ioyous gard / Fy for shame said fire Triftram / wille ye sette foo longe day / lete vs fyghte to morn / Not foo sayd palomydes / for I am 10 of la Beale Ifoud / and therefore I wille repose me tyl I haue my strengthe ageyne / Soo thenne fire Triftram and fyr palomydes promysed seythfully to mete at the welle that day xv dayes / I am remembryd said fir Triftram to Palomydes / that ye brake me ones a promyse whan that I 15 Breufe faunce pyte and ix knyghtes / and thēne ye promysed me to mete me at the peron and the graue besydes Camelot / where as at that tyme ye sayled of your promyse / wete you wel said Palomydes vnto fir Triftram I was at that day in pryson so that I myghte not holde my promyse / 20 So god me helpe said fir Triftram / and ye had holden your promyse this werk had not ben here now at this tyme / Ryghte foo departed fyre Triftram and fire Palomydes / And foo fire palomydes tooke his hors and his harneis / and he rode vnto Kynge Arthurs Courte / and there 25 fyr palomydes gat hym four knyghtes and four fergeaunts of armes / and foo he retornod ageynward vnto Ioyous gard / And in the meane whyle fyr Triftram chaced and hunted at alle maner of venery / and aboute thre dayes afore the bataille shold be / as fyr Triftram chaced an herte ther was an Archer shot at the herte / and by myffortune he 30 smote fyr Triftram in the thyck of the thygh / and the arowe slewe fir Triftrams hors & hurte hym / whan fir Triftram was so hurte / he was passynghe heuy / and wete ye wel he bled fore / and thenne he took another hors / and rode vnto Ioyous gard with grete heuynesse more for the promyse that he hadde made with fir 35 palomydes as to doo bataille with hym wythin thre dayes after than for ony hurte of his thygh / wherfor ther was neyther man ne woman that coude chere hym with ony thyng that they coude make to hym / neyther Quene la Beale Ifoud / for cuer he demed that fyr launcelot had fmyten hym foo / that he shold not be able to doo bataille with hym at the day fette /

¶ Capitulum lxxviii

BVt in no wyfe there was no knyghte aboute fyr Trif-tram that wold byleue that euer fyr Palomydes wold hurte sir Tristram neyther by his owne handes nor by no- 5 ne other consentynge / thenne whan the fyfteenth day was come sir Palomydes came to the welle with four knyghtes with hym of Arthurs courte and thre sergeauntes of armes / And for this ententente fyr palomydes broughte the knyghtes with hym and the sergeaunt of armes / for they shold bere record of the 10 bataille betwixe fyre Tristram and fyr Palomydes / And the one sergeaunt brought in his helme / the other his spere / the th-yrd his swerd / Soo thus Palomydes came in to the felde / & there he abode nyghe two houres / and thenne he sente a squyer vnto fyr Tristram / and desyred hym to come in to the felde / to 15 holde his promyse / whan the squyer was come to Ioyous gard Anone as sir Tristram herd of his comynge he lete commaunde that the squyer shold come to his prefence there as he lay in his bedde / My lord sir Tristram said Palomydes squyer wete yow wel my lord Palomydes abydeth yow in the felde / and 20 he wold wete whether ye wold doo bataille or not / A my fair broder said sir Tristram wete thou wel that I am ryght heuy for these tydynges / therfor telle sire Palomydes / and I were wel atte ease I wold not lye here nor he shold haue noo nede to fende for me / and I myghte outhur ryde or goo / and for 25 thow shalt faye that I am no lyer / fyre Tristram shewed hym his thye that the wounde was fixe Inches depe / and now thou haft sene my hurte / telle thy lord that this is no fayned mater and telle hym that I had leuer than all the gold of kyng Arthur that I were hole / & telle palomydes as soone as I am ho- 30 le I shal seke him endlong & ouerthwart & þⁱ I promyse you as I am true knygt / & if euer I may mete with hym / he shal haue batail of me his fylle / & with this the squyer departed / & when palomydes wist þⁱ tristrā was hurt he was glad & said now I am sure I shalle haue no shame / for I wote wel I shold haue had hard handelynge of hym / and by lykely I muste nedes haue had the werfe / For he is the hardest knyghte in bataylle that now is lyuynge excepte sir Launcelot / And thenne departed fyr Palomydes where as fortune ladde hym / & within a moneth sir Tristram was hole of his hurte / And thenne he took his hors / and rode from countray to countrey / and all straunge aduentures he acheued where someuer he rode / and alweyes he enquiryed for sire Palomydes / but of alle that quarter of somer fyr Tristram coude neuer mete with sir palomydes / But thus as sir Tristram foughte and enquiryed after sire Palomydes / sir Tristram encheued many grete bataills where thorough alle the noyfe felle to fyr Tristram / and it seaced of sir launcelot / & therfor fyre launcelots bretheren and his kynnesmen wold haue slayne sire Tristram by cause of his fame / But whanne fyre launcelot wyfte how his kynnesmen were sette / he said to them openly wete yow wel that and the enuy of yow alle be foo hardy to wayte vpon my lord sire Tristram with ony hurte / shame / or vylony / as I am true knyghte / I shalle flee the best of yow with myne owne handes / Allas fy for shame shold ye for his noble dedes awayte vpon hym to flee hym / Ihesu defende said launcelot that euer ony noble knyghte as fyre Tristram is shold be destroyed with treason / Of this noyfe and fame sprange in to Cornewaile / and amonge them of Lyonas / wherof they were passynge gladde / and made grete Ioye / And thenne they of Lyonas sente letters vnto sire Tristram of recommendacyon / and many grete yestes to mayntene sir Tristrams estate / and euer bitwene sir Tristram reformed vnto Ioyous gard where as la Beale Ifoud was that loued hym as her lyf /

¶ Capitulum primum

Ow leue we fyr Tristram de lyones / & speke we of sire launcelot du lake and of sire Gala-halt fyr launcelots sone hou he was gotten / and in what maner as the book of Frensihe reherceth Afore the tyme that fyre Galahalt was gotten 5 or borne / there came in an hermyte vnto kynge Arthur vpon whytsonday / as the knyghtes satte at the table round / And whan the heremyte sawe the syege perillous / he asked the kyng and alle the knyghtes why that sege was voyd / Sir Arthur and alle the knyghtes ansuerd / ther shalle neuer none sytte 10 in that syege / but one / but yf he be destroyed / ¶ Thenne sayd the hermyte wote ye what is he / nay said Arthur / and alle the Knyghtes / we wote not who is he / that shalle sytte therin / thenne wote I said the heremyte / for he that shal sytte there is vnborne and vngoten / and this same yere he shalle be gotten 15 that shalle sytte ther in that syege perillous / and he shall wynne the Sancgreal whan this hermyte had made this mensyon he departed from the courte of kynge Arthur / And thenne after this seeste fyr launcelot rode on his aduenture tyl on a tyme by aduenture he past ouer the pounte of Corbyn / and there 20 he sawe the fayrest toure that euer he sawe / and ther vnder was a fayre Towne ful of peple and alle the peple men and wy-mmen cryed at ones / welcome sir Launcelot du lake the flou-re of all knyghthode for by the alle we shalle be holpen oute of daunger / what mene ye said sire Launcelot that ye crye foo 25 vpon me / A fayr knyght said they alle here is within thys Toure a dolorous lady that hath ben ther in paynes many wynters and dayes / for euer she boyleth in scaldyng water / & but late said alle the peple sire Gawayne was here and he myght not helpe her / and foo he lefte her in payne / Soo may I faide 30 fyr Launcelot leue her in payne as wel as sire Gawayne dyd Nay said the peple we knowe wel that it is sir Launcelot that shalle delyuer her / wel said launcelot / thenne shewe me what I shalle doo / thenne they brought sire launcelot in to the toure And when he came to the chamber there as this lady was the 35 dores of yron vnlocked and vnbolted / And so fyr launcelot wente in to the chambre that was as hote as ony stewe / And there fyr launcelot toke the fayrest lady by the hand / that euer he sawe / and she was naked as a nedel / and by enchauntemēt Quene Morgan le fay and the Quene of Northgalys hadde 5 put her there in that paynes by cause she was called the fairest lady of that countrey / and there she had ben fyue yeres / and neuer myghte she be delyuerd oute of her grete paynes vnto the tyme the best knyghte of the world had taken her by the hand / Thenne the peple broughte her clothes / And whanne she 10 was arayed / fyre launcelot thoughte she was the fayrest lady of the word / but yf it were Quene Gueneuer / thenne this lady said to fyre Launcelot / fyre yf hit please yow wille ye goo with me here by in to a chappel that we may yeue louyng and thankynge vnto god / ¶ Madame said fir launcelot cometh on 15 with me I wille goo with yow / Soo whanne they came there and gaf thankynge to god / alle the people both lerned and lewde gaf thankynge vnto god and hym / and sayd fir knyght syn ye haue delyuerd this lady / ye shall delyuer vs from a serpent that is here in a tombe / Thenne fyr launcelot tooke his 20 shelde and said brynge me thyder / and what I may doo vnto the pleasyr of god and yow I wille doo / ¶ Soo whanne fir Laūcelot came thydder / he sawe wryten vpon the tombe letters of gold that said thus / Here shalle come a lybard of kynges blood / and he shalle flee this serpent / and this lybard shalle 25 engendre a lyon in this foreyn countrey the whiche lyon shall passe alle other knyghtes / Soo thenne fir launcelot lyste vp the tombe / and there came out an horryble & a fyendly dragon spyttyng fyre oute of his mouthe / Thenne fir launcelot drewe his swerd and fought with the dragon longe / and atte laste 30 with grete payne fir launcelot slewe that dragon / There with alle came kynge Pelles the good and noble knyght / and sawe fyr launcelot and he hym ageyne / Fair knyghte sayd the kynge / What is your name / I requyre you of your knyght-hode telle me

 wyn / he was foo aſſoted and madde that he myghte make no 15 delay / but withouten ony lette he wente to bedde / and he wende thenne I counceyle yow said the kyng to be confessed clene/As for that said sire Bors I wille be shryuen with a good wylle / Soo fyr Bors was confessed / and for al wymmen sir 30 Bors was a vyrgyne / fauf for one / that was the daughter of kyng Brangors / and on her he gat a child that hyghte Elayne / and fauf for her fyre Bors was a clene mayden / and foo sir Bors was ledde vnto bed in a fayr large chamber / and many dores were shette aboute the chamber / whan sir Bors af- 35 pyed alle tho dores / he auoyded alle the peple / for he myght haue no body with hym / but in no wyse fyr Bors wold vnarme

¶ Capitulum Quintum

THenne fir Bors thought he shold no more goo in to that chamber to reste hym / and soo fyr Bors dresfid Bors smote hym doune / and thenne that knyght yelded hym What is your name said fyr Bors / Syr said he / my name is pedyuere of the streyte marches / Soo fyre Bors made hym to swere at whytsonday next comyng to be atte court of kyng ar-25 thur / and yelde hym there as a pryfoner as an ouercome kn-yghte by the handes of fyr Bors / Soo thus departed fyr pedyuere of the straye marches / And thenne fyre Bors layd 35 sheld & with his fuerd fyr bors smote of the lyons heed /

Ryght foo fyre Bors forth with all sawe a dragon in the courte passynge horryble / and there semed letters of gold wryten in his forhede / and sir Bors thoughte that the letters made a sygnysfycacyon of kyng Arthur / Ryghte soo there came an horryble lybard and an old / and there they foughte longe / & 5 dyd grete batail to gyders / And at the laste the dragon spytte oute of his mouthe as hit had ben an honderd dragons / and lyghtely alle the smal dragons slewe the old dragon and tare hym all to pyeces / Anone with alle there came an old man in to the halle / and he satte hym doune in a fayre chayre / and 10 there semed to be two edders aboute his neck / and thenne the old man had an harp / and there he fange an old songe how Ioseph of Armathye came in to this land / thenne whanne he had songen / the old man bad sir Bors go from thens / for here shall ye haue no mo aduentures / and ful worshypfully ha- 15 ue ye done / and better shalle ye doo here after / And thenne sir Bors semed that there came the whyttest douue with a lytel golden senser in her mouthe / And anone there with alle the tē-

 Soo was alle that Courte ful of good fauours / Thenne fyre 20 Bors sawe four children berynge four fayre tapres / and an old man in the myddes of the children with a senser in his owne hand / and a spere in his other hand / and that spere was called the spere of vengeance

¶ Capitulum Sextum

Now said that old man to sire Bors goo ye to your 25 cofyn syr Launcelot / and telle hym of this aduenture the whiche had ben most conuenient for hym of al erthely kn-ystes / but synne is soo foule in hym / he may not encheue suche holy dedes / for had not ben his synne he had past al the knyghtes that euer were in his dayes / and telle thou sir launcelot of alle 30 worldly aduentures he passeth in manhode & prowesse al other But in this spyrytuel maters he shalle haue many his better / And thenne sir Bors sawe four gentylwymen come by hym pourely bifene / & he sawe where that they entrid in to a chamber where was grete lyzte as it were a fomer lyghte / & the wymen 35 kneled doune afore an aulter of syluer with foure pyllowes and as hit had ben a bisshop kneled doune afore that table of syluer / And as fire Bors loked ouer his hede / he sawe a fwerd lyke syluer naked hounge ouer his hede / and the cle-this place / and thenne he yede backward to his bedde tyl on the morne / And on the morne kynge Pelles made grete Ioye of 10 sir Bors / and thenne he departed and rode to Camelot / and there he fonde fire launcelot du lake / and told hym of the ad-uentures that he had fene with kynge Pelles at Corbyn / Soo the noyse sprange in Arthurs Courte that launcelot had geten a childe vpon Elayne the daughter of Kynge Pelles / wherfor 15 Quene Gueneuer was wrothe / and gaf many rebukes to sir launcelot / and called hym fals knyghte / & thenne fire launcelot told the quene all / & how he was made to lye by her by enchaūtement in lykenes of the Quene / Soo the quene helde sir laūcelot excused / And as the book faith kyng Arthur had ben in 20 Fraunce / and had made warre vpon the myghty kyng Claudas / and had wonne moche of his landes / And whanne the kyng was come ageyne / he lete crye a grete feest that al lordes & ladyes of al Englonde shold he there / but yf it were fuche as were rebellious ageynst hym

¶ Capitulum vij

25 ANd when dame Elayne the daughter of kyng Pelles herd of this feest / she wente to her fader and requyred hym that he wold gyue her leue to ryde to that feest / The kyng answered I will wel ye go thyder / but in ony wyse as ye loue me / and wile haue my blessing that ye be wel bifene in the 30 rycheft wyfe / and loke that ye spare not for no cost / aske and ye shalle haue alle that yow nedeth / Thenne by the aduyse of dame Bryfen her mayden alle thyng was apparaylled vnto the purpose that there was neuer no lady more rychelyer byfene / So she rode with xx knyghtes & x ladyes & gētilwymen to þ^e nombre of an honderd horses / And whanne she came to Camelot / kynge Arthur and quene Gueneuer fayd and all the knyghtes / that dame Elayne was the fayrest and the best byfene lady that euer was fene in that Courte

¶ And anone as kynge Arthur wyfte that she was come / he mette her / and falewed her / and soo dyd the moost party of al the knyghtes of the round table / bothe fyr Triftram / fir Bleoberys and fyr Gawayne and many moo that I wille not reherce / But whanne fyre Launcelot sawe her he was soo afhamed / & that by cause he drewe his swerd on the morne whan he had layne by her / that he wold not falewe her nor speke to her / & yet fyre Launcelot thought she was the fayrest woman that euer he sawe in his lyf dayes / But whanne dame Elayn sawe fyre Launcelot that wold not speke vnto her / she was so heuy that she wend her herte wold haue to braft / For wete you wel oute of mesure she loued hym / And thenne Elayne fayd vnto her woman dame Bryfen the vnkynedeneffe of fyr Launcelot fleeth me nere /

¶ A pees madame said dame Bryfen I wille vndertake that this nyghte he shalle lye with yow / and ye wold hold yow styll / that were me leuer sayd dame Elayne than alle the gold that is aboute the erthe / Lete me dele said dame Bryfen / ¶ Soo whanne Elayne was broughte vnto quene Gueneuer cyther made other good chere by countenaunce but nothyng with hertes / But alle men & wymmen spake of the beaute of dame Elayne and of her grete Rycheffes / thenne at nyghte the quene commaunded that dame Elayne shold slepe in a chamber / nyghe her chamber and alle vnder one roofe / & soo it was done as the quene commaunded

¶ Thenne the quene sent for fyre Launcelot & badde hym come to her chamber that nyghte / or els I am sure said the Quene / that ye will go to your ladyes bed dame Elayn / by whome ye gat Galahalt / A madame said fyr Launcelot neuer faye ye so For that I dyd was ageynste my wille / thenne said the quene loke that ye come to me whan I send for yow / Madame said launcelot I shall not fayle yow but I shall be redy at your commaudemēt / this bargayn was soone done & made bitwene them / but dame Bryfen knewe it by her craftes / & told hit to her lady dame Elayne /

¶ Allas said she how shall I doo / lete me dele faid dame Bryfen / for I shalle bryngc hym by the hand euen to your bedde / and he shalle wene that I am Quene Gueneuers messager ¶ Now wel is me faid dame Elayne / for alle the world I loue not foo moche as 5 I doo fyr launcelot /

¶ Capitulum viij

Soo whanne tyme came that alle folkes were a bedde / Dame Bryfen came to fyr launcelots beddes fyde and faid Syre launcelot du lake slepe yow / My lady quene gwe-neuier lyeth and awayteth vpon yow / O my fayre lady fayd 10 fyr launcelot I am redy to goo with yow where ye will haue me / Soo fyr launcelot threwe vpon hym a long gowne / and his fuerd in his hand / and thenne dame Bryfen took hym by the fynger and ledde hym to her ladyes bedde dame Elayne / And thenne she departed and leste them in bedde to gyders / 15 wete yow wel the lady was gladde and foo was fyr launcelot / for he wende that he had had another in his armes / ¶ Now leue we them kyfynge and clyppynge as was kyn-dely thyng / & now speke we of quene gueneuer that sente one of her wymen vnto fyr launcelots bed / ¶ And whan she came 20 there / she fond the bedde colde / and he was away / foo she came to the Quene and told her alle / Allas faid the Quene where is that fals knyghte become / Thenne the quene was nyghe oute of her wytte / and thenne she wrythed and weltred as a mad woman / and myght not slepe a four or fyue houres / ¶ Thenne fyre launcelot had a condycion that he vsed of customme he wolde clater in his slepe / and speke ofte of his lady Quene Gueneuer / Soo as fyr launcelot had waked as longe as hit had pleasyd hym / thenne by course of kynde he slepte / & dame Elayne bothe / And in slepe he talked and clatered 25 as a Iay of the loue that had ben betwixe Quene Gweneuer and hym /

¶ And foo as he talked foo lowde the Quene herde hym there as she laye in her chamber / & when she herde hym foo clater she was nyghe woode and out of her mynde / and for anger and payne wist not what to do / ¶ And thenne she coughed soo lowde that fyre launcelot awaked and he knewe her hemyng / ¶ And thenne he knewe well that he lay not by the Quene / and there with he lepte out of his bed as he had ben a wood man in his sherte / and the quene mett hym in the floore / and thus she said / fals traytour knyzt that thow arte / loke thow neuer abyde in my Courte and auoyde my chamber / and not soo hardy thow fals traytour knyzt that thow arte that euer thow come in my fyghte / Allas sayd fyr launcelot / and there with he tooke fuche an hertely forowe atte her wordes that he felle doune to the floore in a fwoune / And there with alle Quene Gueneuer departed / And whanne fyr Launcelot awoke of his fwoune / he lepte oute at a bay wyndowe in to a gardyne / and there with thornes he was alle to cratched in his vyfage and his body / and soo he ranne forthe he wyft not whyder / and was wylde wood as euer was man and soo he ranne two yere / and neuer man myghte haue grace to knowe hym

¶ Capitulum Nonum

Now torne we vnto Quene Gueneuer and to the fayr lady Elayne that whanne dame Elayn herd the quene soo to rebuke fyr launcelot / and also she sawe how he fwouned / and hou he lepte oute at a bay wyndowe / Thenne she said vnto quene Gueneuer Madame ye are gretely to blame for fyr launcelot / for now haue ye lost hym / for I sawe & herd by his countenance that he is mad for euer / Allas madame ye doo grete synne / and to your self grete dishonour / for ye haue a lord of your owne / and therfor it is youre parte to loue hym / for there is no quene in this world / hath fuche an other kynge as ye haue / And yf ye were not I myghte haue the loue of my lord fyr Launcelot / and cause I haue to loue hym / for he had my maydenhode / and by hym I haue borne a fayre sone / and his name is Galahalt / and he shalle be in his tyme the best knyghte of the world /

¶ Dame Elayne said the Quene whanne hit is daye lyght I charge yow and commaunde yow to auoyde my Courte

And for the loue ye owe vnto sire launcelot discouer not his counceylle / for and ye doo / it wille be his dethe / As for that faid dame Elayne I dar vndertake he is marred for euer / and that haue ye made / for ye nor I are lyke to reioyce hym / for he 5 made the moost pytous grones whanne he lepte oute at yonder bay wyndowe that euer I herd man make / Allas sayd fayre Elayne / and allas said the Quene Gueneuer / for now I wote wel / we haue losse hym for euer / So on the morne dame Elayne took her leue to departe and she wold no lenger abyde/10 Thenne kynge Arthur brought her on her waye with mo than an honderd knyghtes thurgh a foreft / ¶ And by the way she told sir Bors de ganyss alle how hit betyd that same nyghte And how sir launcelot lepte out att a wyndowe araged oute of his wytte / Allas said fyr Bors where is my lord sir laun-15 celot become / Syr said Elayne I wote nere /

Allas said fyre Bors betwixe yow bothe ye haue destroyed that good knyghte / As for me said dame Elayne I sayd neuer nor dyd neuer thyng that shold in ony wyse displease hym / but with the rebuke that Quene Gueneuer gaf hym I 20 sawe hym swoune to the erthe / And whanne he awoke he took his swerd in his hand naked sauf his sherte / and lepte oute at a wyndowe with the gryflyest grone that euer I herd man make ¶ Now fare wel dame Elayne faide fyre Bors / and hold my lord Arthur with a tale as long as 25 ye can / for I wylle torne ageyne to Quene Gueneuer / and gyue her a hete / and I requyre yow as euer ye wylle haue my feruyse make good watche and aspye yf euer ye may see my lord sire Launcelot

¶ Truly sayd fayr Elayne I shalle doo alle that I may do 30 for as fayne wold I knowe and wete where he is become as yow or ony of his kynne / or Quene Gueneuer / and cause grete ynough haue I therto as wel as ony other / And wete ye wel said fayre Elayne to sire Bors / I wold lese my lyf for hym / rather than he shold be hurte / but allas I cast me neuer 35 for to see hym / and the chyef causer of this is dame Gueneuer ¶ Madame said dame Brysen the whiche had made the enchauntement before betwix sir launcelot and her / I pray you hertely lete fyre Bors departe / and hyc hym with al his myzt as fast as he may to feke fyre Launcelot / For I warne yow he is clene out of his mynde / and yet he shall be wel holpen / & but by myracle / Thenne wepte dame Elayne / and foo dyd fyre Bors de ganys / and foo they departed / and fyre bors rode streyghte vnto Quene Gueneuer / and whanne she sawe fir 5 Bors / she wepte as she were wood / Fy on your wepyng faid fir Bors de ganys / for ye wepe neuer but whan there is no bote / Allas said fir Bors that euer fyr launcelots kynne fa-we yow / for now haue ye lost the best knyght of oure blood / and he that was alle oure leder and oure focour / and I dare 10 faye and make it good that all kynges cryften nor hethen may not fynde fuche a knyghte for to speke of his nobylnesse and curtosye with his beaute and his gentylnesse / Allas said fire Bors what shalle we doo that ben of his blood / Allas sayd Ector de marys / Allas said Lyonel 15

¶ Capitulum x

ANd whanne the Quene herd them faye foo / she felle to the erthe in a dede swoone / and thenne fyr Bors took her vp / and daved her / & whanne she was awaked she kneled afore the thre knyghtes / and helde vp bothe their handes and besoughte them to feke hym / and spare not for noo goodes 20 but that he be founden / for I wote he is oute of his mynde / & fir Bors / fyr Ector / and fyr Lyonel departed from the quene for they myght not abyde no lenger for forowe / and thenne the quene sent them trefour ynough for theyr expencys / and so they took their horses and their armour and departed / and then- 25 ne they rode from countrey to countrey in forestes and in wyldernes and in wastes / and euer they laid watche bothe att forestes and at alle maner of men as they rode to herken and spere after hym / as he that was a naked man in his sherte with a swerd in his hand / ¶ And thus they rode 30 nyghe a quarter of a yere endlonge and ouerthwarte in many places forestes and wildernes / and oftymes were euylle lodged for his sake / and yett for alle theire laboure and sekynge coude they neuer here word of hym / ¶ And wete yow well these thre knyghtes were passynge fory / Thenne at the laste sire Bors and his felawes mette with a knyghte that hyght fyr Melyon de Tartare / Now fayre knyzt faid sire Bors / whether be ye away / for they knewe cyther other afore tyme / Sir faid 5 Melyon I am in the way toward the courte of kyng Arthur Thenne we praye yow sayd sire Bors that ye wille telle my lord Arthur and my lady quene Gueneuer and alle the fe-laushyp of the round table that we can not in no wyse here telle where fyr launcelot is become / ¶ Thenne sire Melyon departed 10 from them / and sayd that he wold telle the kyng and the que-ne and alle the felauship of the round table as they had defyred hym / Soo whanne sire Melyon came to the Courte of kyng Arthur / he told the kyng and the quene and al the felauship of the round table what sire Bors had faid of fyre 15 Launcelot / Thenne sire Gawayne sire Pwayne / fyr Sagamor le desyrus / fyr Agloulale / and fyre Percyuale de galys tooke vpon them by the grete defyre of kyng Arthur / and in especyal by the quene to seke thorow out all Englonde walys & Scotland to fynde sire launcelot / and with hem rode eyghten kn-20 yghtes moo to bere them felauship / and wete ye wel / they lacked no maner of spendyng / and foo were they thre and twenty knyghtes / ¶ Now torne we to fyre Launcelot / and speke we of his care and woo / and what payne he there endured / for cold / hunger and thurst he had plente / ¶ And thus as these 25 noble knyghtes rode to gyders / they by one assente departed / & thenne they rode by two / by thre / and by foure / and by fyue / & euer they assigned where they shold mete / And foo sire Aglo-uale and fyr Percyuale rode to gyders vnto theyr moder that was a quene in tho dayes / And whanne she sawe her two so-30 nes / for Ioye she wepte tendyrly / And thenne she sayd / A my dere sones / whanne your fader was slayne / he lefte me iiij so-nes / of the whiche now be tweyn slayne / And for the dethe of my noble sone fyre Lamorak shalle my herte neuer be gladde / And thenne she kneled doune vpon her knees to fore Aglo-35 uale and sire Percyuale / and besoughte them to abyde at home with her / A swete moder faid fyr Percyuale we may not / For we be come of kynges blood of bothe partyes / and therfor moder it is our kynde to haunte armes and noble dedes / Allas my fwete fones thenne she fayd . for your fakes I shalle lefe my lykyng and lust / and thenne wynde and weder I maye not endure / what for the dethe of your fader kyng Pellenore that was shamefully slayne by the handes of syr Gawayne / and his broder fyre Gaherys / and they slewe hym not manly 5 but by treason / A my dere fones this is a pyteous complaynte for me of your faders dethe / confyderynge also the dethe of fire Lamorak that of knyȝthode had but fewe felawes / Now my dere fones haue this in your mynde / Thenne there was but wepyng and sobbyng in the Courte whanne they shold depar- 10 te / and she felle in swounyng in myddes of the Courte /

¶ Capitulum xi

ANd whanne she was awaked / she sente a squyer after them with spendyng ynough / And soo whanne the squyer had ouertake them / they wold not suffre hym to ryde with hem / but sente hym home ageyne to comferte theyr 15 moder / prayenge her mekely of her blessing / And so this squyer was benygthed / and by myffortune he happend to come to a castel where dwellid a Baroune / ¶ And so whanne the squyer was come in to the castel / the lord asked hym / from whens he came / and whome he serued / my lord fayd the squy- 20 er a serue a good knyghte that is called fire Aglouale / the squyer said it to good entente / wenyng vnto hym to haue ben more forborne for fyre Aglouals sake / than he had said he had serued the quene Aglouals moder / wel my felawe said the lord of that Castel / for fyre Aglouals sake thou shalt haue 25 euyl lodgyng / for fir Aglouale slewe my brodr / and ther-for thou shalt dye on party of payement / ¶ And thenne that lord commaunded his men to haue hym aweye and flee hym / and soo they dyd / and soo pulled hym oute of the castel / and there they slewe hym without mercy / ¶ Ryghte so on the mo- 30 rne came fire Aglouale and fire Percyuale rydyng by a chirche yerd where men and wymmen were besy / and beheld the dede squyer / and they thoughte to berye hym / what is there said fir Aglouale / that ye behold soo fast / A good man starte forthc / and said / fayre knyghte here lyeth a squyer slayne shamefully this nyght / How was he slayne fayr selawe said sir Aglouale / my fayr fyr said the man / the lord of this castel lodged this squyer this nyght / and by cause he said he was seruau^{nt} 5 vnto a good knyghte that is with kynge Arthur / his name is fyr Aglouale / therfor the lord commaunded to flee hym / & for this cause is he slayne / Gramercy said fyr Aglouale / and ye shalle see his dethe reuenged lyghtely / for I am that same knyght for whome this squyer was slayne / Thenne sir Aglouale called vnto hym fyr Percyuale / and badde hym alyghte 10 lyghtely / and foo they alyghte bothe / and betoke theire horses to their men / and foo they yede on foote in to the Castel / And also soone as they were within the castel gate / fyre Aglouale badde the porter goo thow vnto thy lord and telle hym / that I 15 am fyr Aglouale for whome this squyer was slayne this nyght Anone the porter told this to his lord whos name was Godewyn / anone he armed hym / and thenne he came in to the court and said whiche of yow is sir Aglouale / here I am said Aglouale / for what cause slewest thou this nyghte my moders 20 squyer / I flewe hym said fyr Goodewyn by cause of the / For thou slewest my broder fyr Gawdelyn / As for thy broder sayd fyr Aglouale I auowe hit / I flewe hym / for he was a fals knyghte and a bitrayer of ladyes and of good knyghtes / & for the dethe of my squyer thou shalt dye / I desye the said sir 25 Goodewyn / thenne they lashed to gyders as egerly as hit had ben two lyons / and fyr Percyuale he fought with alle the remenaunt that wold fyghte / And within a whyle fyr Percyuale had slayne alle that wold withstande hym / For fyr Percyuale delt foo his strokes that were foo rude that there durste 30 no man abyde hym / And within a whyle sir Aglouale had sir Goodewyn at the erthe / and there he vnaced his helme / & strake of his hede / and thenne they departed and took theyre horses / and thenne they lete cary the dede squyer vnto a pryory / and there they entered hym / me / as for that care thow not / for I ſhalle be thy waraunt / & ſoo fyr Percyual rode tyl it was after none / and thenne he came vpon a brydge of ſtone / and there he fond a knyght that 10 was bounden with a chayne faſte aboute the waſt vnto a pyller of ſtone / O fayre knyghte ſaid that bounden Knyghte / I requyre the loſe me of my boundes / what knyghte are ye ſayd fyr Percyuale / and for what cauſe are ye ſoo bounden / Syre I ſhalle telle yow ſaid that knyght I am a knyghte of the table 15 round / and my name is fyre Perfydes / and thus by aduentur I came this waye / and here I lodged in this caſtel atte brydge foote / and therin duelleth an vncurtois lady / and by cauſe ſhe profered me to be her peramour / and I reſufed her / ſhe ſette her men vpon me ſodenly or euer I myghte come to my wepen 20 and thus they bonde me / and here I wote wel I ſhal dye but yf ſomme man of worſhip breke my bandes / Be ye of good chere ſaid fyr Percyuale / and by cauſe ye are a knyghte of the round table as wel as I / I truſt to god to breke youre ban-des / and there with fyr Percyuale pulled out his ſwerd and 25 ſtrake at the chayne with ſuche a myght that he cutte a two the chayne / and thoru fyr Percydes hauberck and hurte hym a ly-tel / O Iheſu ſaid fir Perfides that was a myghty ſtroke as e-uer I felt one / for had not the chayne be / ye hadde ſlayn me / & there with al fire Perfydes ſawe a knyghte comyng oute of a 30 Caſtel al that euer he myghte flynge / Beware fyr ſaide fyre Percydes yonder cometh a man that wille haue adoo with you Lete hym come ſaid fyre Percyuale / and ſo he mette with that knyghte in myddes of the brydge / and fire percyuale gaf hym ſuche a buffet that he ſmote hym quyte from his hors / & ouer 35 a parte of the brydge that had not ben a lytil veſſel vnder the brydge / that knyghte had ben drowned / and thēne fire percyual tooke the knyghtes hors and made fire percydes to mounte vp hym / and foo they rode vnto the castel / and bad the lady dely-uer fyre Percydes seruaunts / or els he wold flee alle that e-uer he fonde / and foo for fere she delyuerd them alle / Thenne was fyre Percyuale ware of a lady that stode in that toure / 5 A madame fayd fyre Percyuale what vse and customme is that in a lady to destroye good knyghtes / but yf they wylle be your peramour / for sothe this is a shameful customme of a lady / And yf I had not a grete mater in my hand / I shold fordoe your cuylle custommes / and foo fyr Percydes brouȝte 10 fyr percyuale vnto his owne castel / and there he made hym grete chere alle that nyghte / And on the morne whanne fyr percyuale had herd masse / and broken his fast / he badde fyr perfydes ryde vnto kyng Arthur / and telle the kyng how that ye mette with me / and telle my broder fyre Aglouale how I re-15 scowed yow / and bydde hym seke not after me / for I am in the quest to seke sir launcelot du lake / And though he seke me he shalle not fynde me / and telle hym I wille neuer see hym nor the courte tyl I haue fond fyre Launcelot / Also telle sir kay the Seneschal and to fyr Mordred that I trust to Ihesu 20 to be of as grete worthynes as eyther of them / for telle them I shal neuer forgete theire mockes and scornes that they did to me that day that I was made knyghte / And telle them I wil neuer see the Courte tyl men speke more worship of me than euer men dyd of any of them bothe / And foo fyre Percydes de-25 parted from fyr percyuale / and thenne he rode vnto kyng Arthur / and told there of fyre percyuale / And whan fyre Aglo-uale herd hym speke of his broder fyr percyuale / he fayd / he departed from me vnkyndely /

¶ Capitulum xiii

Yr fayd fyre Percydes on my lyf he shalle preue a no-30 ble knyghte as ony now is lyuyng / And whanne he sawe fyre kay and fyr Mordred / fyr Percydes said thus / My fayre lordes bothe fyr percyuale greteth yow wel bothe / and he sente you word by me that he trusteth to god or euer he come to the courte ageyne to be of as grete nobleſſe as euer were ye 35 bothe and mo men to speke of his nobleſſe than euer they did yow / hit maye wel be fayd fyr kay and fyre Mordred / but at that tyme whanne he was made knyghte / he was ful vnlyke to preue a good knyght / As for that fayd kynge Arthur / he muft nedes preue a good knyghte / for his fader and his bretheren were noble knyghtes / And now wille we tourne vnto 5 fyr Percyuale that rode longe / and in a foreft he mette a kn-yghte with a broken shelde and a broken helme / and as foone as eyther sawe other redyly they made them redy to Iufte / and foo hurtele to gyders with alle the myghte of theyr horfes / & they to gyders foo hard that fyre Percyuale was fmyten to 10 the erthe / and thenne fyr Percyuale arofe lyghtely / and cafte his shelde on his fholder and drewe his fwerd / and badde the other knyghte alyghte and doo we bataille vnto the vttermest Wylle ye more fayd that knyghte / and there with he alyghte/and putte his hors fro hym / and thenne they came to gyders 15 an efy paas / and there they laffhed to gyder with noble fuerdes / and fomtyme they stroke / and fomtyme they foyned / and eyther gaf other many grete woundes / Thus they fought nere half a daye / and neuer refted but ryghte lytel / and there was none of them both that had laffe woundes than xv / and they 20 bledde foo moche that it was merueyl they fode on their feete/But this knyghte that foughte with fyre Percyuale was a proued knyghte and a wyfe fyghtyng knyghte / and fyre percyuale was yonge and ftronge not knowyng in fyghtyng as the other was / Thenne fir percyuale fpake fyrfte and fayd 25 fyre knyghte hold thy hand a whyle stille / for we haue fouzten for a fymple mater and quarel ouer longe / and therfor I requyre the telle me thy name / for I was neuer or this tyme matched / Soo god me help fayd that knyghte / and neuer or this tyme was there neuer knyght that wounded me foo fore/ 30 as thow haft done / and yet haue I foughten in many batails and now fhalt thow wete that I am a knyghte of the table round / and my name is fyr Ector de marys broder vnto the good knyghte fyr launcelot du lake / Allas faid fyr percyual and my name is fyre percyuale de galys that hath maade my 35 queft to feke fyr launcelot / and now I am feker that I fhall neuer fynyffe my queft / for ye haue flayne me with your han-des / It is not foo faid fire Ector / for I am flayne by youre handes / and maye n lyuote / therfor I requyre yow sayd fire Ector vnto fyr Percyuale ryde ye here by to a pryory / & bryn-ge me a preest that I may receyue my faueour / for I may not lyue / And whanne ye come to the courte of Kynge Arthur / 5 telle not my broder fire launcelot how that ye slewe me / For thenne he wold be your mortal enemy / But ye may say that I was slayne in my quest as I foughte hym / Allas said fire Percyuale ye saye that thyng that neuer wille be / for I am foo faynte for bledynge that I maye vnnethe stande / how shold 10 I thenne take my hors /

¶ Capitulum xiiii

THenne they made bothe grete dole oute of mesure / this wille not auayle said fire Percyuale / And thenne he kneled doune and made his prayer deuoutely vnto al myghty Ihesu / for he was one of the best knyghtes of the world that at 15 that tyme was / in whome the veray feythe stode moost in ¶ Ryght foo there came by / the holy vessell of the Sancgreal with alle maner of swetnes and fauour / but they coude not redyly see who that bare that vessell / but fyre Percyuale hadde a glemyng of the vessell and of the mayden that bare hit / for 20 he was a parfyte clene mayden / and forth with al they bothe were as hole of hyde and lymme as euer they were in their lyf dayes / thenne they gaf thankynges to god with grete myl-denesse / O Ihesu said fyr Percyuale what maye this meane / that we be thus heled / and ryghte now we were at the poynt 25 of dyenge / I wote ful wel said fire Ector what it is / It is an holy vessell that is borne by a mayden / and therin is parte of the hooly blood of oure lord Ihesu crist bleffid mote he be but it may not be sene said fyr Ector / but ys hit be by a parfyte man / Soo god me help said fyr Percyuale I sawe a da-30 moyfel as me thoughte alle in whyte with a vessell in both her handes / and forth with al I was hole / Soo thenne they toke their horses and their harneis and amended their harneis as wel as they myghte that was broken / and foo they mounted vpon theyr horses / and rode talkynge to gyders / And there fir 35 Ector de marys told fire Percyuale how he hadde foughte his broder fyr launcelot longe / and neuer coude here wetyng of hym / in many straunge aduentures haue I ben in this queste And foo eyther told other of their aduentures / ¶ Here endeth the enleuenth booke / ¶ And here foloweth the twelfth booke

¶ Capitulum primum /

ANd now leue we of a whyle of fyr Ector and of fyre Percyuale / and speke we of sir launce- 5 lot that suffred and endured many sharp shoures that euer ranne wylde wood from place to place and lyued by fruyt / and fuche as he my-ght gete / and dranke water two yere / and other clothyng had he but lytel / but his sherte and his breche / ¶ Thus as sir laū- 10 celot wandred here and there / he came in a fayre medowe where he fond a paulione / and there by vpon a tree there henge a whyte shelde / and two swerdes henge there by and two spe-res lened there by a tree / ¶ And whanne fyr launcelot sawe the swerdes / anone he lepte to the one swerd and tooke hit in 15 his hand and drewe hit oute / And thenne he lashed at the sheld that alle the medowe range of the dyntes / that he gaf fuche a noyse as ten knyghtes had foughten to gyders / Thenne came forthe a dwerf and lepte vnto fyr launcelot / and wold haue had the fuerd oute of his hand / and thenne fyre launce- 20 lot took hym by the bothe sholders and threwe hym to the ground vpon his neck that he had al moost broken his neck / and there with alle the dwerf cryed helpe / Thenne came forth a lykely knyghte and wel apparaylled in scarlet furred with my-neuer / And anone as he sawe fyr launcelot / he demed that he 25 shold be oute of his wytte / And thenne he said with fayre spe-che good man leye doune that swerd / for as me semeth / thou haddest more nede of slepe and of warme clothes / than to welde that swerd / As for that said fyr Launcelot come not to ny3 for and thou doo wete thou wel I will flee the / And when 30 the knyghte of the paucione sawe that he starte bakward within the paucione / And thenne the dwerf armed hym lyghtely and soo the knyghte thought by force and myghte to take the swerd from fyr launcelot / and soo he came steppyng oute / and 5 whanne fyr launcelot sawe hym come so alle armed with hys swerd in his hand / Thenne fyr launcelot flewe to hym with fuche a myghte and hytte hym vpon the helme fuche a buffet / that the stroke troubled his braynes / and there with the swerd brak in thre / And the knyght felle to the erthe as he hadde ben 10 dede / the blood brastyng oute of his mouthe / the nose / and the eres / And thenne fyr launcelot ranne in to the paucione and raffhed euen in to the warme bedde / and there was a lady in that bedde / and she gat her smock / and ranne oute of the pauc-ione / And whanne she sawe her lord lye at the ground lyke to 15 be dede / thenne she cryed and wepte as she had ben madde / Thenne with her noyse the knyghte awaked oute of his swoun and loked vp wekely with his eyen / and thenne he asked her where was that madde man that had gyuen hym fuche a buffet / for fuche a buffet had I neuer of mans hand / Sir sayd 20 the dwerf it is not worship to hurte hym for he is a man oute of his wytte / and doubte ye not he hath ben a man of grete worship / and for somme hertely sorow that he hath taken he is fallen madde / and me befemeth said the dwerf he resembleth moche vnto fir Launcelot / for hym I sawe at the grete turne-25 ment beyde Lonejep / Ihesu defende said that knyghte that e-uer that noble knyght fyre Launcelot shold be in fuche a ply-te / but what fomeuer he be said that knyghte / harme wille I none doo hym / and this knyghtes name was Blyaunt / Thenne he said vnto the dwerf / goo thow fast on horsbak vn-30 to my broder fyr Selyuaunt / that is at the Castel blank / & telle hym of myn aduenture / and bydde hym bryng with hym an hors lytter / and thenne wille we bere this knyghte vnto my Castel /

¶ Capitulum ij

35 Soo the dwerf rode fast / and he came ageyne / and bro-ughte fyr Selyuaunt with hym / and fyxe men with [leaf 297 verso]

an hors lytter / and soo they took vp the fether bedde with fyre launcelot / and soo caryed alle away with hem vnto the Castel Blank / and he neuer awaked tyl he was within the Castel / And thenne they bounde his handes & his feet / and gaf hym good metes and good drynkes / and broughte hym ageyne 5 to his strengthe and his fayrenesse / but in his wytte they coude not brynge hym ageyn / nor to knowe hym self / Thus was fyr launcelot there more than a yere and a half honestly ara-yed and fayre farne with alle / Thenne vpon a day this Lord of that Castel fyr Blyaunt took his armes on horsbak with 10 a spere to seke aduentures / And as he rode in a foreft ther met hym two knyghtes aduenturous / the one was Breuse saunce pyte / and his broder fyr Bertelot / & these two ranne both atto-nes vpon fyr Blyaunt / and brake their speres vpon his body And thenne they drewe oute swerdes & made grete bataill / & 15 fought long to gyders / But at the last fyr Blyaunt was sore wounded / and felte hym self faynte / and thenne he fled on horsbak toward his castel / And as they cam hurlyng vnder the Castel where as sir launcelot lay in a wyndowe / & sawe how two knyghtes layd vpon fyr Blyaunt with their swerdes / 20 And whanne sir launcelot sawe that yet as woode as he was he was sory for his lord fyr Blyaunt / And thenne sir laun-celot brake the chaynes fro his legges and of his armes / & in the brekyng he hurte his handes fore / & so sir launcelot ran out at a pofterne / and there he mett with the two knyghtes that 25 chaced sir Blyaunt / & there he pulled down sir Bertelot with his bare handes from his hors / & there with all he wrothe hys fuerd out of his hand / & so he lepte vnto fyr Bruse / & gaf hym fuche a buffet vpon the hede that he tumbled bakward ouer his hors croupe / And whan sir Bertolet sawe there his broder ha- 30 ue fuche a falle / he gat a spere in his hand / & wold haue ronne fyr launcelot thurgh / that sawe sir Blyaunt / and strake of the hand of fyr Bertelot / And thenne fyr bruse and sir bertelot gat theyr horses and fled away / whan fyre Selyuaunt came and sawe what fyr launcelot had done for his brother / 35 thenne he thanked god and so dyd his broder that euer they dyd hym only good

¶ But whanne fire

blyaunt sawe that fyr launcelot was hurte with the brekyng of his yrons / thēne was he heuy that euer he bound hym / bynde hym no more said fyr Selyuaunt / for he is happy & gracyous Thenne they made grete Ioye of fyr launcelot / and they bound hym no more / & foo he abode there an half yere and more / and 5 on the morne erly fyr launcelot was ware where came a grete bore with many houndes nyghe hym / But the bore was so byg ther myghte no houndes tere hym / and the hunters came after blowyng their hornes bothe vpon horfbak & some vpon foote / & thenne fir launcelot was ware where one alyght and teyed his 10 hors to a tree . and lened his spere ageynste the tree /

¶ Capitulum iij

Soo came fyr launcelot and fonde the hors bounden tyl a tree / & a spere lenyng ageynst a tree / & a swerd te-yed to the fadel bowe / & thenne fir launcelot lepte in to the fadel & gat that spere in his hand / & thenne he rode after the 15 bore / & thenne fyre laūcelot was ware where the bore fet his ars to a tree fast by an hermytage / Thenne fir launcelot ranne atte bore with his spere / & ther with the bore torned hym nemly / & rafe out the longes & the hert of the hors so that launcelot felle to the erthe / & or euer fyre launcelot myȝt gete from the hors / 20 the bore rafe hym on the brawne of the thyȝ vp to the houghbone / and thenne fir launcelot was wrothe / & vp he gat vpon his feet / & drewe his swerd / & he smote of the bores hede at one stroke / & there with all came out the heremyte / & sawe hym haue fuche a wound / thenne the heremyte came to fir launcelot and 25 bemoned hym / and wold haue had hym home vnto his hermytage / but whan fyr launcelot herd hym speke / he was so wroth with his wound that he ranne vpon the heremyte to haue flayne hym / & the heremyte ranne away / & whan fir laūcelot my-ght not ouer gete hym / he threwe his swerd after hym / for fyr 30 launcelot myght tho no farther for bledyng / thēne the heremyte torned ageyn / & asked fir launcelot how he was hurte / Fe-lawe said fir launcelot this bore hath beten me fore / Thenne come with me said the heremyte and I shalle hele yow / Goo thy wey said fir launcelot and dele not with me / Thenne the here-35 myte ranne his way / and there he mette with a good knyghte with many men / Sir said the heremyte / here is fast by my place the goodlyest man that euer I sawe / and he is fore wounded with a bore / & yet he hath slayne the bore / But wel I wote sayd the heremyte and he be not holpen that goodly man shall dye of that wounde / and that were grete pyte / Thenne that knyghte atte desyre of the heremyte gat a carte / and in that carte that knyghte putte the bore and fir launcelot / for fir launcelot was soo feble that they myghte ryght easily deale wyth hym / and soo fyr launcelot was broughte vnto the hermytage and there the heremyte heled hym of his wound / But the heremyte myghte not fynde fyr launcelots sustenance / and so he enpayred and waxed feble bothe of his body and of his wyt for the defeaute of his sustenance / he waxed more wooder than he was afore hand / And thenne vpon a day fyr launcelot ran his waye in to the forest / and by aduenture he came to the cyte of Corbyn where dame Elayne was that bare Galahalt fyr Launcelots sone / and soo whan he was entryd in to the toun he ranne thurgh the Townte to the Castel / and thenne alle the yonge men of that Cyte ranne after fir Launcelot / and there they threwe turues at hym / and gaf hym many sadde strokes / And euer as fyre launcelot myghte ouer retche ony of them / he threwe them soo that they wold neuer come in his handes no more / for of some he brake the legges & the armes / & so fledde in to the Castel / and thenne came oute knyghtes and squyers and rescowed fyr launcelot / And whan they beheld hym / & looked vpon his person / they thought they sawe neuer so goodly a man / And whan they sawe so many woundes vpon hym alle they demed that he had ben a man of worship / And thenne they ordeyned hym clothes to his body / and strawe vnderneath hym / and a lytel hous / And thēne euery day they wold throwe hym mete / and sette hym drynke / but there was but fewe wold brynge hym mete to his handes

SO it befelle that kynge Pelles had a neuewe / his name was Castor / and so he desyred of the kyng to be made knyghte / & so atte request of this Castor the kynge made hym knyghte at the feest of Candelmasse / And whanne fyr Castor was made knyghte / that same day he gaf many go-wnes / And thenne sir Castor sente for the foole that was fyr Launcelot / And when he was come afore fyr Castor / he gaf sir 5 Launcelot a Robe of scarlet and alle that longed vnto hym / And whanne fyr launcelot was soo arayed lyke a knyghte he was the semelyest man in alle the Courte / and none so wel made / Soo whanne he sawe his tyme / he went in to the gardyn And there fyre launcelot leid hym doune by a welle & slepte 10 And soo at after none dame Elayne and her maydens came in to the gardyn to playe them / and as they romed vp & doun one of dame Elayns maydens aspyed where laye a goodely man by the welle slepyng / and anone shewed hym to dame 30 Thenne the kyng called to hym suche as he most trusted a / iiij / welle and beheld fyr launcelot / anone dame Bryfen knewe with hym / for this knyghte is oute of his mynde / & yf we a-35 wake hym rudely / what he wil doo we al knowe not / But ye shal abyde / and I shalle throwe suche an enchauntement vpon hym / that he shal not awake within the space of an houre / & fo she dyd ¶ Thenne within a lytel whyle after the kyng commaunded that all peple shold auoyde that none shold be in that way there as the kyng wold come / & soo whan this was done / these four men and these ladyes layd hand on fyr launcelot / and soo they bare hym in to a Toure / and soo in to a chamber where was the holy vessel of the Sancgreal / and by force fyr launcelot was leid by that holy vessel / and there came an holy man and vnhyllid that vessel / and soo by myracle and by vertu of that holy vessel fyr launcelot was heled and recouerd / And whanne that he was awaked / he groined and syghed and complayned gretely / that he was paf-10 syng fore

¶ Capitulum v

 dyes that ben in this countrey / and they shalle alle be of the grete blood / and ye shalle haue ten knyghtes with yow / For 35 befouzt fir laūcelot of mercy / for I shal neuer vtter what ye be whyle ye be in these partyes / thenne fire launcelot pardon-x knyghtes / and dame Elayne / and twenty ladyes rode vnto the Castel of Blyaunt that stood in an Iland beclofed in y-ron with a fayr water depe and large / ¶ And whanne they were there / fyr launcelot lete calle hit the Ioyous yle / & there was he called none other wyfe / but Le cheualer malfet the 5 knyghte that hath trespaced / Thenne fire Launcelot lete make des alle of fyluer / & a knyghte clene armed knelyng afore her and euery day ones for ony myrthes that alle the ladyes myst make hym / he wold ones euery day loke toward the realme 10 of Logrys / where kynge Arthur and Quene Gueneuer was And thenne wold he falle vpon a wepyng as his hert shold to braste / Soo hit felle that tyme fyr launcelot herd of a Iustynge fast by his Castel within thre legges thenne he called vnto hym a dwerf and he badde hym goo vnto that Iustyng / and 15 or euer the knyghtes departe loke thow make there a crye in he-ryng of alle knyghtes / that there is one knyghte in the Ioyous yle that is the Castel of Blyaunt / and faye his name is le cheualer malfet that wille Iuste ageynste knyghtes that wille come / And who that putteth that knyghte to the werfe / 20 shalle haue a fayr mayde and a Ierfaucion /

Capitulum septimum /

SOo whanne this crye was made / vnto Ioyous yle dre-we knyghtes to the nomber of fyue honderd / and we-te ye wel there was neuer fene in Arthurs dayes one knyght that dyd foo moche dedes of armes as fyre launcelot dyd thre 25 dayes to gyders / For as the booke maketh truly mencyon / he had the better of all the fyue honderd knyghtes / and ther was not one slayne of them / And after that fyr launcelot maade them alle a grete feest / and in the meane whyle came fyr Per-cyual de galys & fyr Ector de marys vnder that Castel / that 30 was called the Ioyous yle / And as they beheld that gay castel / they wold haue gone to that Castel / but they myghte not for the brode water / and brydge coude they fynde none / Thenne they fawe on the other fyde a lady with a sperhawk on her hād and sir Percyual called vnto her / and asked that lady who was in that Castel / Fair knyghtes she said / here within thys castel is the fayrest lady in this land / and her name is Elayne / Also we haue in this Castel the fayrest knyghte and the 5 myghtyest man that is I dar saye lyuyng / and he called hym self le cheualer mal sett / how came he in to these marches sayd fyr Percyuale / Truly said the damoyfel / he came in to this countrey lyke a madde man with dogges and boyes chacyng hym thorou the Cyte of Corbyn / and by the holy vessel of the Sa-10 nke greal he was broughte in to his wytte ageyne / but he wil not doo batail with noo knyghte / but by vndorne or by none/And yf ye lyste to come in to the castel sayd the lady ye muste ryde vnto the ferther fyde of the castel / and there shalle ye fynde a vessel that wille bere yow and your hors / Thenne they 15 departed / and came vnto the vessel / And thenne fyre Percy-ual alyghte / and sayd to fire Ector de marys / ye shalle abyde me here vntyl that I wete what maner a knyghte he is / For it were shame vnto vs in as moche as he is but one knyghte / & we shold both doo batail with hym / doo ye as ye lyste said fire 20 Ector / and here I shalle abyde yow vntyl that I here of yow Thenne passed fire Percyuale the water / And whanne he cam to the Castel gate / he bad the porter goo thow to the good kn-yghte within the Castel / and telle hym / here is comen an erraūt knyghte to Iuste with hym / Sir said the porter ryde ye within 25 the Castel / and there is a comyn place for Iustyng that lordes and ladyes maye behold yow / So anone as fyr launcelot had warnyng / he was soone redy / and there fyr Percyual and sir launcelot encountred with fuche a myghte / and their speres were soo rude that both the horses and the knyghtes felle to the 30 erthe / Thenne they auoyded their horses / and flange oute noble swerdes / & hewe away cantels of their sheldes / & hurtled to gyder with their sheldes lyke two bores / and cyther woundded other passyng fore / At the last fyr Percyual spake fyrst whanne they had foughten there more than two houres / Fair 35 knyghte said fyre Percyuale I requyre the telle me thy name for I mette neuer with fuche a knyghte / Sir said fyr launcelot my name is le cheueler mal fet / Now telle me youre name saide fyre Launcelot I requyre yow gentyl knyghte

Truly said fyre Percyual my name is fyr Percyual de galis that was broder vnto the good knyghte fyre Lamorak de galys / and kynge Pellenore was oure fader / and fyre Agloul is my broder / Allas said fyre launcelot what haue I done to fyghte with yow that art a knyghte of the table round / that 5 somtyme was your felawe

¶ Capitulum viii

ANd there with alle fyre launcelot kneled doune vpon his knees and threwe away his sheld and his fuerd from hym / Whanne fyre Percyual sawe hym doo so / he meruey-led what he mened / And thenne thus he said / fyre knyghte 10 what someuer thou be / I requyre the vpon the hyghe ordre of knyghthode telle me thy true name / Thenne he said so god me help my name is fyre launcelot du lake kynge Bans sone of Benoy / Allas said fyr Percyual what haue I done I was sente by the Quene for to feke yow / and soo I haue foughte 15

Now for goddes sake said fyre Percyual forgyue me myn of-fencys that I haue here done / hit is soone forgyuen said fyre launcelot / Thenne fyre Percyual sente for fyr Ector de marys 20 And whanne fyr launcelot had a fyghte of hym / he ranne vnto hym and took hym in his armes / and thēne fyr Ector kne-led doune / and eyther wepte vpon other that all had pyte to beholde them / Thenne came dame Elayne / and she there maade them grete chere as myghte lye in her power / and there she told 25 fyr Ector and fyr Percyual how and in what manere fyr la-uncelot came in to that countrey / And how he was heled / and there hit was knowen how longe fyr launcelot was with fyre Blyaunt and with fyr Selyuaunt / and how he fyrste mette with them / and how he departed from them by caufe of a bore / 30 and how the heremyte heled fyre launcelot of his grete woūd and how that he came to Corbyn /

¶ Capitulum ix

Now leue we fire launcelot in the Ioyous yle with the lady dame Elayne and fyr Percyual and fir Ector playenge with hem / and torne we to fyr Bors de ganyes and fire Lyonel that had foughte fire launcelot nygh 5 by the space of two yere / and neuer coude they here of hym / & as they thus rode / by aduenture they cam to the hous of Brandegore / and there fyr Bors was wel knowen / for he had geten a child vpon the kynges doughter fyten yere to forne / & his name was Helyn le blank / And whanne fyre Bors sawe 10 that child hit lyked hym passyng wel / And so tho knyghtes had good chere of the kyng Brandegore / ¶ And on the morne fyre Bors came afore kyng Brandegore and said Here is my sone Helyn le blanck / that as it is sayd he is my sone / And fythe hit is foo / I wille that ye wete that I wil ha-15 ue hym with me vnto the Courte of kyng Arthur / Sir sayd the kyng / ye maye wel take hym with you / but he is ouer tender of age / As for that sayd fyre Bors I wille haue hym with me / and bryng hym to the hows of most worship of the world / Soo whanne fyre Bors shold departe / there was ma-20 de grete sorowe for the departyng of Helyn le blanck / and grete wepyng was there made / But fire Bors and fyre Lyonel departed / And within a whyle they came to Camelot / where was kyng Arthur / And whanne kyng Arthur vnderstood that Helyn le blank was kyng Bors sone / and neuwe vn-25 to kyng Brandegore / Thenne kyng Arthur lete hym make knyghte of the round table / and soo he preued a good kny-ght / and an aduenturous / ¶ Now wille we torne to our mater of fire launcelot / Hit befelle vpon a day fyr Ector and fyr Percyual cam to fyr Launcelot and asked hym what he wo-30 ld doo / and whether he wold goo with them vnto kyng Arthur or not / Nay sayd fyr Launcelot that may not be by no meane / for I was so venetreted at the Courte that I cast me neuer to come there more / Sir said fyr Ector I am youre broder and ye are the man in the world that I loue moost / And yf I 35 vnderstode that it were your disworship / ye may vnderstande I neuer counceyle yow ther to / but kyng Arthur and al his knyghtes / and in especial Quene Gueneuer maade suche dole and sorowe that hit was merueyle to here and see

And ye muſte remembre the grete worſhip and renoume that ye be of / how that ye haue ben more ſpoken of than any other knyghte that is now lyuyng / for there is none that bereth the name now but ye and fyr Triftram / therfore broder ſayd fyre Ector make yow redy to ryde to the Courte with vs / and I dar 5 fay / there was neuer knyghte better welcome to the court than ye / and I wote wel and can make it good ſaid fyr Ector it hath coſte my lady Quene twenty thouſand pound the ſekyng of yow / wel broder ſaid ſire launcelot I wil doo after your counceill and ryde with yow / Soo thenne they took their 10 horſes and made them redy and took their leue at kyng Pelles and at dame Elayne / And whanne fyre launcelot ſhold departe / dame Elayne made grete ſorowe / My lord fyr Launcelot ſaid dame Elayne at this fame ſceſt of Pentecoſt ſhall your ſone and myn Galahalt be made knyghte / for he is fully 15 now xv wynter old / doo as ye lyſt ſaid ſir Launcelot / god gyue hym grace to preue a good knyghte / As for that ſayd dame Elayne I doubte not he ſhal preue the beſt man of his kyn excepte one / thenne ſhalle he be a man good ynough ſaid fyre launcelot / 20

¶ Capitulum x

THenne they departed / and within fyue dayes Iourney they came to Camelot / that is called in Englyſh wynecheſter / And whanne fyre launcelot was come among them / the kyng and all the knyghtes made grete loye of hym And there fyre Percyual de galys and ſire Ector de marys 25 and there with alle the kynge fpak no more / But all fire la-5 uncelots kynne knewe for whome he wente oute of his mynde/And thenne there were grete feestes made and grete loye / & many grete lordes and ladyes whanne they herd that fir laun-celot was come to the Courte ageyne they made grete loye

¶ Capitulum xj

10 N Ow wille we leue of this mater and fpeke we of fire Tristram / and of fyr Palomydes that was the Sara-fyn vncryftened / whanne fyr Tristram was come home vnto Ioyous gard from his aduentures / Alle this why-le that fyr launcelot was thus myft two yere and more / fyre Tristram bare the renomme thurgh alle the realme of Logrys 15 and many ftraunge aduentures befelle hym and ful wel and manly and worshipfully he broughte hem to an ende/ ¶ So whanne he was come home la Beale Ifoud told hym of the grete feest that shold be at Pentecoft next folowyng / and there fhe told hym how fir launcelot had ben myft two yere / and al 20 that whyle he had ben oute of his mynde / and how he was hol-pen by the holy veffel the Sancgreal / Allas faid fyr Tristram that caufed fome debate betwixe hym and Quene Gueneuer / Syr faid dame Ifoud I knowe hit all / for quene Gweneuer fente me a letter in the whiche fhe wrote me alle how hit was 25 for to requyre yow to feke hym / and now bleffid be god faid Sir faid Ifoud and hit pleafe yow I wille not be there / for 30 thorough me ye be marked of many good knyghtes / and that caufed yow to haue moche more labour for my fake than ne-deth yow / Thenne wille I not be there faid fyr Tristram / but yf ye be there / god defende faid la beale Ifoud / for thenne fhall I be spoken of shame amonge alle Quenes and ladyes of estate / for ye that ar called one of the noblest knyghtes of the world / and ye a knyghte of the round table / how maye ye be myft at that feest / what shalle be said amonge all knyghtes See how sire Tristram hunteth and hawketh & coureth within a Castel with his lady / and forsaketh your worshyp / Al- 5 las shalle some say hit is pyte that euer he was made knyght or that euer he shold haue the loue of a lady / Also what shal Quenes and ladyes faye of me / hit is pyte that I haue my lyf that I wille holde soo noble a knyghte as ye ar from his worship / Soo god me help said fyre Tristram vnto la Beale 10 Ifoud / hit is passyng wel sayd of yow and nobly councelyled / and now I well vnderstande that ye loue me / and lyke as ye haue councyled me I wille doo a parte there after / But there shalle no man nor childe ryde with me / but my self And soo wille I ryde on teweſday next comyng and no mo- 15 re harneis of werre but my spere and my fuerd /

¶ Capitulum xij

ANd soo whanne the daye came / fyre Tristram toke his leue at la Beale Ifoud / and she sente with hym / iiij knyghtes / and within half a myle he sente them ageyne / and within a myle after sir Tristram sawe afore hym where sir pa- 20 lomydes had stryken doun a knyghte / and al moost wounded hym to the dethe / Thenne fyr Tristram repentyd hym / that he was not armed / and thenne he houed styll / with that sir palomydes knewe fyr Tristram and cryed on hygh / fyr Tristram now be we mette / for or we departe / we wille redresse our old 25 fores / As for that said sir Tristram there was yet neuer cristen man myghte make his boost that euer I fledde from hym / and wete ye wel fyr Palomydes thow that arte a faresyn shal neuer make thy boost that fyr Tristram de lyones shall flee from the / And there with fyr Tristram made his hors to renne / and 30 with all his myghte he came streyghte vpon fyr Palomydes / & brafte his spere vpon hym an honderd pyeces / And forth with alle sir Tristram drewe his swerd / And thenne he torned his hors & stroke at palomydes / vj / grete strokes vpon his helme / & thenne sir Palomydes stode styll / and beheld fyre Tristram / & 35 merueyled of his woodenes / and of his foly / And thenne fir palomydes sayd to hym self / and fir Triftram were armed / it were hard to feace hym of this bataille / and yf I torne ageyne and flee hym I am ashamed where someuer that I goo 5 Thenne fyr Triftram spake and said / ¶ Thow coward knyghte what castest thou to doo / why wolt thou not doo ba-taille with me / for haue thou noo doubte I shalle endure alle the malyce / A fyr Triftram said Palomydes ful wel thou wo-test I maye not fyghte with the for shame / for thou arte here 10 naked and I am armed / And yf I flee the / dishonour shal be myn / and wel thou wotest said fyr Palomydes to fir Trif-tram I knowe thy strengthe and thy hardynesse to endure ageynst a good knyghte / That is trouthe said fyr Triftram I vnderstande thy valyauntneffe wel / ye saye wel said fyr Palo-15 mydes / Now I requyre yow telle me a question that I shalle saye to yow / Telle me what hit is said fyr Triftram / and I shalle anfuer yow the trouthe as god me helpe / I putte caas said fir Palomydes that ye were armed at al ryȝtes as wel as I am / and I naked as ye be what wold ye doo to me now 20 by your true knyghthode / A said fyr Triftram now I vnderstande the wel fyr Palomydes / for now must I fay myn own Iugement / and as god me blyffe that I shalle say / shal not be said for no sere that I haue of the / But this is all wete fir Palomydes / as at this tyme thou sholdest departe from me / for 25 I wold not haue adoo with the / no more wil I said palomydes / & therfor ryde forth an thy way / as for that I maye chese said fir Triftram outhur to ryde or to abyde / but fir Palomydes said fir Triftram I merueille of one thyng that thou that art soo good a knyghte that thou wolt not be cryfthened / & thy 30 broder fyr Safere hath ben Cryfthened many a daye

¶ Capitulum xiii

AS for that said fire Palomydes I may not yet be crifthened / for one auowe that I haue made many yeres a-gone / how be it in my herte I bileue in Ihesu crist & his mylde moder mary / but I haue one batail to doe / & when that is do-35 ne I wil be baptysed with a good wille

¶ By my hede sayd Triftram as for one bataille thou shat not [leaf 304 verso]

seke it no lenger / For god defende said sir Tristram that thur; my defeaute thou sholdest lenger lyue thus a farafyn / for yonder is a knyghte that ye fyre Palomydes haue hurte & smyten doune / Now helpe me that I were armed in his armour / and I shalle soone fulfyll thyne auowes / As ye wille said palo- 5 mydes soo it shalle be / Soo they rode bothe vnto that knyghte that satte vpon a bank / and thenne sir Tristram fawed hym and he wekely fawed hym ageyne / Sir knyzt said sir Trif-tram I requyre yow telle me your ryghte name / Sir he sayd my name is fyr Galleron of Galway and knyghte of the ta- 10 ble round / Soo god me help said sir Tristram I am ryghte heuy of your hurtes / but this is alle I must praye yow to le-ne me alle your hole armour / for ye see I am vnarmed / and I must doo batail with this knyght / fyr said the hurte knyghte ye shalle haue hit with a good will / but ye muste beware for 15 I warne yow that knyghte is wyghte / Syr sayd Galeron I praye yow telle me your name / and what is that knyghtes name þ^t hath beten me / Sir as for my name it is sir Tristram de lyones / and as for the knyghtes name that hath hurte you is fyr Palomydes broder to the good knyghte fyre Safere / & 20 yet is fyr Palomydes vncrystened / Allas said fyr Galleron/that is pyte that soo good a knyghte and soo noble a man of armes shold be vncrystened / Soo god me help said sir Trif-tram outhur he shalle flee me or I hym / but that he shalle be crystened / or euer we departe in sonder / My lord fyr Tristram 25 said sir Galeron / your renoume and worship is wel knowen thorou many reames / and god saue yow this day from sen-hyp and shame / Thenne fyr Tristram vnarmed Galeron / the whiche was a noble knyghte / and had done many dedes of armes / and he was a large knyghte of fleshe and boone / And 30 whan he was vnarmed he stood vpon his feet / for he was bry-fed in the bak with a spere / yet soo as fyr Galleron myghte he armed fyr Tristram / And thenne fyr Tristram mounted vp-on his owne hors and in his hand he gat fyr Gallerons spere / and there with al fyr palomydes was redy / & soo they came 35 hurtlynge to gyders / and eyther smote other in myddes of the-yr sheldes / & there with al sir Palomydes spere brak / and fyre Tristram smote doune the hors / and sir Palomydes as soone as he myghte auoyde his hors / & dresseid his sheld / & pulled oute his swerd / that saue sir Tristram / & there with al he alyght and teyde his hors tyl a tree

¶ Capitulum xiiii

A Nd thenne they came to gyders as two wyld bores / 5 lassyng to gyders tracyng and trauceryng as noble men / that ofte had ben wel proued in batail / but euer fyr Palomydes dredde the myghte of fyre Tristram / and ther-for he suffred hym to brethe hym / thus they fought more than two houres / but often fyr Tristram smote suche strokes at sir 10 Palomydes that he made hym to knele / and fyre Palomydes brake and cutte away many pyeces of sir Tristrams shelde / & thenne sir Palomydes wounded sir Tristram for he was a wel fyghtyng man / Thenne fyre Tristram was woode wrothe oute of mesure and rasseid vpon fyr Palomydes with suche a my-15 ghte that fyre Palomydes selle grouelyng to the erthe / & there with alle he lepte vp lyghtely vpon his feet / and thenne fyre Tristram wounded Palomydes fore thurgh the sholder / & euer fyr Tristram foughte styll in lyke hard / and fyr Palomydes sayled not but gaf hym many sadde strokes / And atte laste 20 fyr Tristram doubled his strokes / & by fortune fyre Tristram smote fyr Palomydes swerd oute of his hand / & yf sir Palo-mydes had stouped for his swerd he had ben slayne / Thenne Palomydes stode styll and beheld his swerd with a sorouful herte / How now said fyr Tristram vnto Palomydes / now ha-25 ue I the at auauntage as thou haddest me this daye / but it shalle neuer be said in no Courte nor among good knyghtes that fyr Tristram shalle slee any knyghte that is wepenles / & therfor take thou thy swerd / & let vs make an ende of this batail / As for to doo this batail sayd Palomydes I dar ryȝt 30 wel ende hit / but I haue no grete luste to fyghte no more / and for this cause said Palomydes / Myn offence to yow is not soo grete / but that we may be frendes / Alle that I haue offended is and was for the loue of la Beale Ifoud / And as for her / I dar say she is pyerles aboute alle other ladyes / and also I proferd her neuer no dishonour / and by her I haue geten the moost parte of my worship / and sythen I offended neuer as to her owne persone / And as for the offence that I haue done/it was ageynste your owne persone / And for that offence ye ha- 5 uen yow ageyne / and now I dar say I felte neuer man of your myghte / nor soo wel brethed / but yf hit were fyr launcelot du lake / wherfor I requyre yow my lord / forgyue me alle that I haue offended vnto yow / And this same day haue me to the next chirche / and fyrst lete me be clene confessed / And 10 after see yow now that I be truly baptyfed / And thenne wil we alle ryde to gyders vnto the courte of Arthur that we be there at the hyhe feest / Now take your hors said sir Tristram And as ye say / soo hit shal be / and alle thyn euylle wil god forgyue it yow and I doo / And here within this myle is the 15 suffrecan of Carleil that shalle gyue yow the sacrament of bap-tym / Thenne they took their horses and sire Galleron rode wyth them / ¶ And whanne they cam to the suffrecan fyre Tristram told hym their desyre / Thenne the suffrecan lete sylle a grete vessel with water / And whanne he had halowed hit / he thenne 20 confessed clene fyr Palomydes / and fyr Tristram and sire gal-leron were his godfaders / And thenne foone after they departed rydyng toward Camelot / where kyng Arthur & Quene Gueneuer was / And for the moost party alle the knyghtes of the round table / And so the kyng and all the Court we- 25 re glad that fyre Palomydes was crystened / And at the same feest in came Galahad and sat in the sege perillous/¶ And soo there with alle departed and disseuered alle the knyghtes of the round table / and sire Tristram retourned ayene vnto Ioyous gard / and fyr Palomydes folowed the questy- 30 nge beest

¶ There endeth the second book of fyr Tristram that was drawen oute of Frensch in to Englyshe

But here is no rebursal of the thyrde book / ¶ And here foloweth the noble tale of the Sancgreal that called is the booly vessel and the sygnefycacyon of the blessed blood of our lord Jhesu Cryste / blessed mote it be / the whiche was brought in to this land by Ioseph of Armathye / therfor on al synful soules s bleffid lord haue thou mercy ¶ Ryght soo departed sir launcelot with the gentylwoman / & where they sawe an Abbay of nonnes / and there was a squyer redy and opened the gates / and soo they entryd and descended of their horses / and there came a fayr felausship aboute sir laūcelot / and welcomed hym / & were passyng gladde of his comy-30 nge / And thenne they ladde hym vnto the Abbeffe chamber & vnarmed hym / and ryght soo he was ware vpon a bed lyeng two of his cofyns fyr Bors & sir Lyonel / & thenne he waked them / And whanne they sawe hym / they mad grete Ioye / Syr said fyre Bors vnto fyr launcelot what aduenture hath brought yow hydder / for we wende to morne to haue fond you at Camelot

¶ As god me help said fyr launcelot a gentylwoman brought me hyther but I knowe not the caufe 5 In the meane whyle that they thus stode talkynge to gyder / therin came twelue nonnes that broughte with hem Galahad the whiche was passynge fayre and wel made that vnneth in the world men myghte not fynde his matche / and alle tho la-dyes wepte / ¶ Sire sayd they alle we brynge yow here thys 10 child / the whiche we haue nourished / and we praye yow to make hym a knyght / for of a more worthyer mans hande may he not receyue the ordre of knyghthode / Sir launcelot beheld the yonge squyer / and sawe hym femely and demure as a douue / with alle maner of good fetures / that he wende of his age ne- 15 uer to haue sene soo fayre a man of forme ¶ Thenne said sir launcelot cometh this defyre of hym self / he and alle they sayd ye / Thenne shalle he sayd sir launcelot receyue the hyghe ordre of knyghthode as to morne atte reuerence of the hyghe feeftre / That nyght fyr launcelot had passyng go- 20 od chere / And on the morne at the houre of pryme att Galahalts defyre he made hym knyzt & said / god make hym a good man / for of beaute fayleth yow not as ony that lyueth /

¶ Capitulum Secundum

Now fayre fyr said fyr launcelot wille ye come wyth me vnto the Courte of kynge Arthur / Nay sayd he / I 25 wille not goo with yow as at this tyme / Thenne he departed fro them and took his two Cofyns with hym / and so they cam vnto Camelot by the houre of vndorn on whytsonday / By that tyme the kynge and the Quene were gone to the mynster to here their feruyse / Thenne the kynge and the quene were passyng 30 gladde of sir Bors and fyr Lyonel and soo was alle the selauship / So when the kyng & all the knyztres were come from feruyse / the barons aspyed in the syeges of the round table al aboute wryten with golden letters / here ouzt to fyttre he / and he oughte to fyttre here / And thus they wente soo longe tyll 35 that they came to the sege perillous / where they fond letters newly wretton of gold whiche said / iij / C / wynters / & / liij / accomplisshed after the passion of oure lord Ihesu Criste ouzte this sege to be fulfilled / thenne alle they said / this is a merueyllous thyng and an aduenturous / In the name of god 5 said fyr launcelot / & thenne accompted the terme of the wrytyng from the byrthe of oure lord vnto that day / It semeth me faith fyr launcelot this sege oughte to be fulfilled this same day / for this is the feest of Pentecost after the four honderd

 10 and four and fyfty yere / And yf it wold please all parties I wold none of these letters were sene this daye tyl he be come that oughte to encheue this aduenture / Thenne maade they to ordeyne a clothe of sylke for to couer these letters in the sege peryllous / Thenne the kyng badde haste vnto dyner / Sire sayd 15 sir kay the steward / yf ye goo now vnto your mete / ye shalle breke your old customme of your Courte / for ye haue not vfed on this day to fyte at your mete or that ye haue sene som aduenture / ye say sothe said the kyng / but I had soo grete Ioye of sir launcelot and of his Cofyns whiche be come to the 20 Courte hole and found / so that I bethoughte me not of myne old customme / Soo as they stode spekyng / in cam a squyer / & said vnto the kyng / Sire I brynge vnto yow merueillous tydynges / what be they said the kyng / Sir there is here byneth at the Ryuer a grete stone whiche I sawe flete aboute the wa-25 ter / and therin I sawe styckyng a swerd / the kyng sayde I wille see that merueill / soo all the knyghtes went with hym / And whanne they came vnto the ryuer they fonde there a stone fletyng as hit were of reed marhel / and therin stak a fair Ryches swerd / & in the pomel therof were precyous stones wrought with subtile letters of gold / Thenne the Barons redde 30 the letters whiche said in this wyse / Neuer shalle man take me hens / but only he by whos fyde I ought to hange / and he shalle be the best knyght of the world / whanne the kyng had sene the letters / he said vnto sir launcelot / Fair sire this fuerd 35 ought to be yours / for I am sure ye be the best knyght of the world / ¶ Thenne fyr launcelot anfuerd ful soberly / Certes sir it is not my swerde /

¶ Also sir wete ye wel I haue no hardynes to sett my hande

[leaf 307* verso]

to / for hit longed not to hange by my fyde / ¶ Also who that assayeth to take the swerd and fayleth of hit / he shalle receyue a wound by that swerd that he shalle not be hole longe after / ¶ And I wille that ye wete that this same day shall the ad-uentures of the Sancgreal that is called the hooly vessel be- 5 gynne /

¶ Capitulum iij

Now fayre neuewe said the kyng vnto fyr gawayn/affaye ye for my loue / Sir he said fauf your good grace I shalle not doo that / Sir sayd the kyng affaye to take the swerd and at my commaundement / Syre sayd Ga- 10 wayne your commaundement I wille obeye / and ther with he took vp the swerd by the handels / but he myghte not stere hit/I thanke yow said the kyng to fyre Gawayne / ¶ My lord fyr Gawayne said fyr Laücelot now wete ye wel this swerd shalle touche yow soo sore / that ye shalle wylle ye 15 had neuer sette your hand therto for the best Castel of this realme / Syr he sayd I myghte not withsay myn vnkels wyll and commaundement / but whanne the kyng herd this he repented hit moche / and said vnto fyr Percyual that he shold affaye for his loue / and he said gladly for to bere fyr Gawa- 20 yn selaufhyp / and there with he sette his hand on the swerd/and drewe hit strongly / but he myghte not meue hit / Thenne were there moo that durste be soo hardy to sette theire handes therto / ¶ Now maye ye goo to your dyner said fyr kay vnto the kyng / for a merueillous aduenture haue ye sene / Soo the 25 kyng and alle wente vnto the Courte / and euery knyghte knewe his owne place / and sette hym therein / and yonge men that were knyghtes serued them / Soo whan they were serued and alle seges fulfilled fauf only the syege perillous / Anon there befelle a merueillous aduenture / that alle the dores & wyn- 30 dows of the palays shut by them self / Not for thenne the halle was not gretely darked / and there with they abasshed both one and other / ¶ Thenne kyng Arthur spak fyrst and sayd by god fayre felawes & lordes we haue sene this daye merue-yls / but or nyght I suppose we shal see gretter merueyls / In 35 the meane whyle came in a good old man and an aun-cyent clothed al in whyte / and there was no knyzt knewe from whens he came / And with hym he broughte a yong knyzt bo-the on foote in reed armes withoute fwerd or sheld / fauf a 5 scauberd hangynge by his fyde / And these wordes he said pees be with yow faire lordes / ¶ Thenne the old man sayd vnto Arthur / fyre I brynge here a yonge knyghte / the whiche is of kynges lygnage & of the kynrede of Ioseph of Abarimathye where by the merueylles of thys Courte and of straunge 10 realmes shalle be fully accomplyshed

¶ Capítulum Quartum

THe kyng was ryghte gladde of his wordes / and said vnto the good man / fyr ye be ryghte welcome / and the yonge knyzte with yow / Thenne the old man made the yong man to vnarme hym / and he was in a cote of reed fendel / & 15 bare a mantel vpon his sholder that was furred with ermyne and put that vpon hym / And the old knyghte sayd vnto the yonge knyght / fyr soloweth me / and anone he ledde hym vnto the sege peryllous / where befyde fat fyr Laücelot / and the good man lyfte vp the clothe / and fonde there letters that said thus 20 this is the sege of Galahalt the haute prynce / Sir said thold knyghte / wete ye wel that place is yours / And thenne he sett hym doune surely in that fyege / And thenne he sayd to the old man / fyr ye maye now goo your way / for wel haue ye done / that ye were commaunded to doo / & recommaunde me vnto my 25 graunt sir kyng Pelles / and vnto my lord Petchere / and say hem on my behalf I shalle come and see hem as soone as euer I may / Soo the good man departed / and there met hym xx noble squyers / and so took their horses and wente their way Thenne alle the knyghtes of the table round merueylled gre-30 tely of sir Galahalt that he durst fytt there in that fyege perillous / and was foo tendyr of age / and wist not from whens he came but al only by god / and said this he by whome the Sãc-greal shal be encheued / For there fat neuer none / but he / but he were mescheued / Thenne fyr launcelot beheld his sone and had grete Ioye of hym / Thenne Bors told his felawes vpon payne of my lyf this yonge knyghte shalle come vnto grete worship / this noyse was grete in alle the Courte / soo that it cam to the quene / thenne she had merueylle what knyght it myght be that durste auenture hym to fytt in the fyege peryllous / many faid vnto the quene / he refembled moche vnto fire Launcelot I may wel suppoſe faid the quene / that fyr Launcelot begatte hym on kynge Pelles doughter / by the whiche he was made to lye by / by enchauntement / and his name is Galahad / I wold fayne ſee hym faid the quene / for he muſt nedes be a noble man 10 for ſoo is his fader that hym begat I reporte me vnto alle the table round / So whanne the mete was done that the kynge & alle were ryfen / the kynge yede vnto the fyege Peryllous and lyfte vp the clothe / and fonde there the name of Galahad / & thenne he ſhewed hit vnto fyr Gawayne / and ſayd ſayre ne- 15 uewe now haue we amonge vs fyr Galahad the good knyght that ſhalle worſhippe vs alle / and vpon payne of my lyf he ſhal encheue the Sancgreal / ryght as ſir launcelot had done vs to vnderſtande / Thenne came kyng Arthur vnto Galahad and faid fyr ye be welcome / for ye ſhall meue many go- 20 od knyghtes to the queſt of the Sancgreal / and ye ſhal encheue that neuer knyghtes myght brynge to an ende / Thenne the kynge took hym by the hand and wente doune from the paleis to ſhewe Galahad the aduentures of the ſtone /

¶ Capitulum v

THe Quene herd therof and came after with many ladyes / and ſhewed hem the ſtone where it houed on the water / Sire faid the kyng vnto fyre Galahad here is a grete merueylle as euer I ſawe / and ryght good knyghtes haue affayed and fayled /

¶ Syre faid Galahad that is no merueil / for this aduenture 30 is not theirs / but myne / and for the ſeurete of this ſwerd I brought none with me / For here by my fyde hangeth the scauberd / And anone he layd his hand on the fwerd / and lyghtly drewe it oute of the stone / and putte it in the shethe / & faid vnto the kynge / now hit goth better than hit dyd afore hand / Sir faid the kynge / A sheld god shalle fend you now 5 haue I that fwerd that somtyme was the good knyghtes Balyn le faucage / and he was a passynge good man of his handes / And with this fuerd he flewe his broder Balan and that was grete pyte for he was a good knyghte / and eyther flewe other thorou a dolorous stroke that Balyn gaf vnto my 10 graüte fader / kynge Pelles / the whiche is not yet hole / nor not shal be tyl I hele hym / There with the kynge and all aspyed where came rydyng doune the ryuer a lady on a whyte palfroy toward them / Thenne she falewed the kynge and the que-ne / and asked yf that fyr Launcelot was there / And thenne 15 he anfuerd hym self I am here sayre lady / Thenne she fayd al with wepyng how your grete doynge is chaunged fyth this day in the morne / Damoyfel why fay ye foo sayd Launcelot / I faye yow sothe faid the damoyfel / for ye were this day the best knyghte of the world / but who shold faye foo now he shold 20 be a lyar / for there is now one better than ye / And wel hit is preued by the aduenturs of the fuerd where to ye durste not fette to your hand / and that is the chaunge and leuyng of your name / wherfore I make vnto yow a remembraunce / that ye shalle not wene from hensforth that ye be the best knyght of 25 the world / As touchynge vnto that faid launcelot / I knowe wel I was neuer the best / yes fayd the damoyfel that were ye and are yet of ony synful man of the world / And sir kyng Nacyen the heremyte sendeth the word that the shalle befall the gretteft worship that euer befelle kynge in Brytayne / and I 30 say yow wherfore / for this daye the Sancgreal appiered in thy hows and fedde the and all thy felaushyp of the round table Soo she departed and wente that same way that she came /

¶ Capitulum vi

35 Now fayd the kyng I am sure at this queft of the Sācgreal shalle alle ye of the table rounde departe / and neuer shalle I see yow ageyne hole to gyders / therfor I

[leaf 309 verso]

wille see yow alle hole to gyders in the medowe of Camelot to Iuste and to torneye / that after your dethe men maye speke of hit that fuche good knyghtes were holy to gyders fuche a day As vnto that counceyll and at the kynges request they accorded alle / and toke on their harneis that longed vnto Iustyng 5 but alle this meuyng of the kyng was for this entent for to see Galahalt preued / for the kyng demed he shold not lyghtly come ageyne vnto the Courte after his departyng / So were they assembled in the medowe bothe more and lasse / Thenne fyr Galahalt by the prayer of the kyng and the Quene 10 dyd vpon hym a noble Iefferaunce / and also he dyd on hys helme / but shelde wold he take none for no prayer of the kyng And thenne sir Gawayne and other knyghtes praid hym to take a spere / Ryghte foo he dyd / and the Quene was in a toure with alle her ladies for to behold that turnement / Thenne 15 sir Galahalt dressid hym in myddes of the medowe / and began to breke speres merueylously that all men had wonder of hym for he there surmounted alle other knyghtes / for within a why-le he had defouled many good knyghtes of the table round / sauf tweyne that was fyr launcelot and fyre Percuiale / 20

¶ Capitulum vii

THenne the kyng at the quenes request made hym to a-lyghte / and to vnlace his helme that the Quene myȝt see hym in the vyfage / whanne she beheld hym she sayd sothely I dar wel fay that sir launcelot begat hym / for neuer two men refembled more in lykenes / therfor it nys no merueyle though 25 he be of grete prowesse / So a lady that stode by the Quene said / Madame for goddes sake oughte he of ryghte to be so good a knyghte / ye forsothe said the quene / for he is of alle partyes come of the best knyghtes of the world and of the hyhest lygnage / for sir launcelot is come but of the / viij / degre from oure 30 lord Ihesu Cryst / and fyre Galahalt is of the nynthe degree from oure lord Ihesu Cryst / therfor I dar faye they be the grettest gentilmen of the world / and thenne the kyng and al estates wente home vnto Camelot / and foo wente to euenfonge to the grete mynster / And foo after vpon that to souper / and euery knyzt fette in his owne place as they were to fore hand Thenne anone they herd crakyng and cryenge of thonder that hem thought the place shold alle to dryue / In the myddes of 5 this blast entred a sonne beaume more clerer by feuen tymes than euer they sawe daye / And al they were alyghted of the grace of the holy ghooft / thenne beganne euery knyghte to behold other / & eyther sawe other by their femynge sayrer than euer they sawe afore / Not for thenne there was no knyght my-10 ghte speke one word a grete whyle / and foo they loked euery man an other as they had ben dome / Thenne ther entred in to the halle the holy graile couerd with whyte famyte / but ther was none myghte see hit / nor who bare hit / And there was al the halle fulfilled with good odoures / and euery knyzt had 15 fuche metes and drynkes as he best loued in this world / And whan the holy grayle had be borne thurgh the halle / thenne the holy vessell departed sodenly that they wyfte not where hit be-cam / thenne had they alle brethe to speke / And thenne the kynge yelded thankynges to god of his good grace that he had 20 sente them / Certes said the kynge we oughte to thanke oure lord ihesu gretely for that he hath shewed vs this daye atte re-uerence of this hyhe feest of Pentecost / Now said sir Gawayn we haue ben serued this daye of what metes and drynkes we thoughte on / but one thyng begyled vs we myght not see the 25 holy Grayle / it was foo precyously couerd / wherfor I wil make here auowe / that to morne withoute lenger abydyng I shall laboure in the quest of the Sancgreal / that I shalle hold me oute a twelue moneth and a day or more yf nede be / & neuer shalle I retorne ageyne vnto the Courte / tyl I haue sene hit 30 more openly than hit hath ben sene here / & yf I may not spede / I shall retorne ageyne as he that maye not be ageynst the wil of our lord Ihesu Cryste / whan they of the table round herde fyr Gawayne saye so / they arofe vp the most party and maade fuche auowes as sire Gawayne had made / 35 ¶ Anone as kynge Arthur herd this / he was gretely dyfpleasyd / for he wyfte wel they myghte not ageyne saye theyre auowes ¶ Allas said kynge Arthur vnto sir Gawayn ye haue nyghe slayne me with the auowe and promesse that ye haue made / For thurgh yow ye haue berafte me the fayrest felaufship and the trueft of knyghthode that euer were fene to gyders in ony realme of the world / For whanne they departe from hens I am fure / they alle fhalle neuer mete more in thys world / for they fhalle dye many in the queft / And foo it for- 5 thyneketh me a lytel / for I haue loued them as wel as my lyf wherfor hit fhall greue me ryghte fore the departycyon of this felaufship / For I haue had an old customme to haue hem in my felaufship /

Capitulum Octauum /

ANd ther with the teres fylle in his eyen / And thenne 10 he fayd Gawayne Gawayne ye haue fette me in grete forowe / For I haue grete doubte that my true felaufship fhalle neuer mete here more ageyne / A fayd fyr Launcelot com-forte your felf / for hit fhalle be vnto vs a grete honour & mo-che more than yf we dyed in ony other places / for of deth we 15 be fyker / A laūcelot faid þ^e kyng þ^e grete loue þ^e I haue had vnto you al the dayes of my lyf maketh me to fay fuche dolefull wordes / for neuer Cryften kynge had neuer foo many worthy men at this table as I haue had this daye at the round table and that is my grete forowe / ¶ Whanne the Quene ladyes & 20 gentilymmen wyft thefe tydynges / they had fuche forowe & heuyneffe that ther myght no tonge telle hit / for tho knyghtes had hold them in honour and chyerte / But amonge all other Quene Gueneuer made grete forowe / I merueylle faid she my lord wold fuffre hem to departe from hym / thus was al the 25 Courte troubled for the loue of the departycyon of tho knyghtes / And many of tho ladyes that loued knyghtes wold haue gone with her louers / and foo had they done had not an old knyghte come amonge them in Relygyous clothynge / and thenne he fpake alle on hyghe / and faid fayre Lordes which ha- 30 ue fworn in the queft of the Sancgreal / Thus fendeth you nacyen the heremyte word that none in this quefte lede lady nor gentylwoman with hym / for hit is not to doo in fo hyghe a feruyce as they labour in / for I warne yow playne he that is not clene of his fynnes / he fhalle not fee the myfteryes of our lord 35

Ihesu Cryfte / and for this cause they lefte these ladyes and gentylywymmen / ¶ After this the quene came vnto Galahad and asked hym of whens he was / and of what cuntry / he told her of whens he was / and sone vnto Launcelot / she saide he 5 was / as to that he said neyther ye nor nay / So god me helpe said the quene of your fader ye nede not to shame yow / for he is the goodlyest knyghte and of the best men of the world co-men and of the strenge of alle partyes of kynges / Wherefore ye oughte of ryghte to be of your dedes a passyng good man / & 10 certainly she said ye resemble hym moche / Thenne fyr Galahad was a lytel ashamed and said Madame sythe ye knowe in certayne wherfore doo ye aske hit me / for he that is my fader/shalle be knowen openly and al by tymes / And thenne they wente to reste them / And in the honour of the hyhenes of Ga-15 lahad he was ledde in to kyng Arthurs chamber / and there rested in his owne bedde / And as soone as hit was daye the kyng arose for he had no rest of alle that nyght for sorowe / Thenne he wente vnto Gawayne and to fyr launcelot that were aryfen for to here masse / And thenne the kyng ageyn said 20 A Gawayne Gawayne ye haue bitrayed me / For neuer shal my Courte be amended by yow / but ye wille neuer be fory for me as I am for yow / And there with the teres began to ren-ne doune by his vyfage / And there with the kyng said A kn-yghte fyr launcelot / I requyre the thow counceyle me / for I 25 wold that this quest were vndone and it myghte be / fyr sayd fyr launcelot / ye sawe yesterday soo many worthy knyghtes that thenne were sworne / that they may not leue it in no maner of wyse / That wote I wel said the kyng / but it shal so heuye me at their departyng that I wote wel there shal no manere 30 of Ioye remedye me / And thenne the kyng and the Quene wente vnto the mynster / Soo anone launcelot and Gawayne commaunded her men to bryng her armes / And whanne they alle were armed sauf her sheldes and her helmes / thenne they came to theyre selauship / whiche alle were redy in the same wy-35 se for to goo to the mynster to here their seruyse ¶ Thenne after the seruyse was done / the kyng wolde wete how many hadde vndertake the queste of the holy grayle / and to accompte them he praid them alle

Thenne fond they by the tale an honderd and fyfty / and alle were knyghtes of the table round / And thenne they putte on their helmes and departed / and recommaunded them all holy vnto the Quene / and there was wepyng and grete forowe / Thenne the Quene departed in to her chamber / and helde her / 5 that no man shold perceyue her grete forowes / Whanne fyre Launcelot myst the quene / he wente tyl her chamber / And when she sawe hym / she cryed aloude / O launcelot / launcelot ye haue bitrayed me / and putte me to the deth for to leue thus my lord A madame I praye yow be not displeased / for I shall come 10 ageyne as soone as I may with my worship / Allas sayd she that cuer I sawe yow / but he that suffred vpon the crosse for alle mankynde he be vnto yow good conduyte and faufte / and alle the hole felauship / Ryght soo departed Launcelot / & fond his felauship that abode his comyng / and so they mounted on 15 their horses / and rode thorou the strete of Camelot / and there was wepyng of ryche and poure / and the kyng tourned awey and myghte not speke for wepyng / So within a whyle they came to a Cyte and a Castel that hyzt Vagon / there they entrid in to the castel / and the lord therof was an old man / 20 that hyght Vagon / and he was a good man of his lyuynge / and sette open the gates / & made hem alle the chere that he myzt And soo on the morne they were alle accorded that they shold departe eucryche from other / And on the morne they departed with wepyng chere / and euery knyzt took the way that hym 25 lyked best

¶ Capitulum ix

Now rydeth Galahalt yet withouten shelde / and so rode four dayes without ony aduventure / And at the fourth day after euenfonge / he came to a whyte Abbay / and there was he receyued with grete reuerence / and ledde vnto a 30 chambre / and there was he vnarmed / And thenne was he ware of knyghtes of the table round / one was sir Bagdemagus and syr Vwayne / And whanne they sawe hym / they wente vnto Galahad / and made of hym grete solace / and soo they wente vnto foupper / Sirs said sire Galahalt what aduventure 35 broughte yow hyder / Sir they fayd all it is told vs that within this place is a shelde that no man may bere aboute his neck but he be mefcheued outhere dede within thre dayes or maymed for euer / A fyr said kyng Bagdemagus I shalle bere hit to 5 morne for to affay this aduenture / In the name of God fayd Galahad / Sire said Bagdemagus and I may not encheue the aduenture of this shelde ye shalle take hit vpon yow / for I am sure ye shalle not fayle / Sir said Galahad / I ryghte wel agree me therto / for I haue no shelde / Soo on the morne they 10 aroos and herd maffe / Thenne Bagdemagus asked where the aduenturous sheld was / Anone a monke ledde hym behynde an autler where the shelde henge as whyte as ony snowe / but in the myddes was a reed crosse / Sirs said the monke this sheld oughte not to be hanged aboute no knyghtes neck / but he 15 be the worthyest knyghte of the world / therfore I counceyll yow knyghtes to be wel aduyfed / Wel said Bagdemagus I wote wel I am not the left knyghte of the world / but I shal affay to bere hit / and foo bare hit oute of the mynstre / And thē he faid vnto Galahad and hit please you to abyde here stil 20 tyl that ye wete how that I spede / I shalle abyde yow fayd galahad / Thenne kynge Bagdemagus took with hym a good squyer to beynge tydynges vnto fyr Galahad how he spedde / Thenne whanne they had ryden two myle and came to a fayr valey afore an hermytage / And thenne they fawe a knyghte 25 come from that party in whyte armour hors and all / And he came as faste as his hors myghte renne / and his spere in his reste / And fyr Bagdemagus dresseid his spere ageynst hym/and brake hit vpon the whyte knyght / but the other stroke hym foo hard that he braste the mayles / and sheef hym thorou the 30 ryght sholder / for the shelde couerd hym not as at that tyme / & foo he bare hym from his hors / And there with he alyghte and took the whyte shelde from hym / sayenge knyght thow hast done thy self grete foly / for this shelde oughte not to be borne but by hym that shalle haue no pierce that lyueth / And thenne he 35 came to Bagdemagus squyer / & faide bere this shelde vnto the good knyghte sir Galahad that thow leste in the Abbay and grete hym wel by me / Sir said the squyer what is your name Take thow now hede of my name said the knyghte / for it is not for the to knowe nor for none erthely man / Now fayr fyr said the squyer at the reuerence of Ihesu Cryste / telle me for what cause this shelde may not be borne / but yf the berer therof be mefchyeued / Now fythe thou hast coniured me foo sayd the knyghte this shelde behoueth vnto no man but vnto Galahad / 5 & þe squyer wēt vnto Bagdemagus / & asked whether he were fore wounded or not / ye forsothe said he / I shalle escape hard from the dethe / Thenne he sette his hors and brought hym with grete payne vnto an Abbay / thenne was he taken doun softly and vnarmed and leid in a bedde / and there was loked to 10 his woundes / And as the booke telleth he laye there longe / & escaped hard with the lyf /

¶ Capitulum r

SYr Galahad sayd the squyer that knyghte that wounded Bagdemagus sendeth yow gretynge / and bad that ye shold bere this shelde where thurgh grete aduentu- 15 res shold befall / Now bleffid be good & fortune said Galahad / And thenne he asked his armes / and mounted vpon his hors / and henge the whyte shelde aboute his neck / & commaunded hem vnto god / and fyr Vwayne said he wold bere hym felaufship yf it pleasyd hym / ¶ Sir sayd Galahad that 20 maye ye not / for I must goo alone fauf this squyer shall bere me felaufship / and so departed Vwayne / Thenne within a why-le came Galahad there as the whyte knyght abode hym by the heremytage / and cueryche fawed other curtoisly / ¶ Sir said Galahad by this shelde ben many merucils fallen / Sir sayd 25 the knyght hit befelle after the passion of our lord Ihesu Crist xxxij yere that Ioseph of Armathe the gentyl knyghte / the whiche took doune oure lord of the hooly Crosse att that tyme he departed from Iherusalem with a grete party of his kynred with hym / and so he laboured tyl that they came to a cyte that 30 hyght Sarras / and att that same houre that Ioseph came to Sarras there was a kyng that hyghte Euclake that had greto werre ageyne the Sarafyns / and in especyal ageynste one Sarafyn / the whiche was kyng Euelaks cofyn / a ryche kyng and a myghty whiche marched nyghe this land / and his name was called Tolleme la feyntes / Soo on a day this two mette to doo bataill / Thenne Ioseph the sone of Ioseph of Armathye wente to kyng Euelake / and told hym he shold be discomfyt 5 and slayne but yf he lefte his bileue of the old lawe and byleue vpon the newe lawe / And thenne there he shewed hym the ryght bileue of the holy Trynyte / to the whiche he agreed vnto with alle his herte / and there this shelde was maade for kyng Euelake in the name of hym that dyed vpon the crosse 10 And thenne thurgh his good bileue he had the better of kyng Tolleme / For whanne Euelake was in the batail / there was a clothe sette afore the sheld / And whanne he was in the grettest perylle he lete putte away the clothe / and thenne his ene-myes sawe a fygur of a man on the Crosse where thurgh they 15 alle were discomfyt / And soo it befelle that a man of Kyng Euelaks was smyten his hand of / and bare that hand in his other hand / and Ioseph called that man vnto hym / and badde hym goo with good deuocyon touche the Crosse / And as soone as that man had touched the Crosse with his hand / it was as 20 hole as euer hit was to fore / Thenne soone after there selle a grete merueyll that the Crosse of the sheld at one tyme vanyfshed away that no man wyft where hit became / And thenne kyng Euelake was baptyfed / and for the moost party alle the peple of that Cyte / So soone after Ioseph wold departe / and 25 kyng Euelake wold goo with hym whether he wold or nold / And soo by fortune they came in to this land that at that tyme was called grete Bretayne / and there they fond a grete felon paynym / that put Ioseph in to pryson / And soo by fortune tydynges cam vnto a worthy man that hyghte Mondrames / & 30 he assembled alle his peple for the grete renomme he had herde of Ioseph / and soo he came in to the land of grete Bretayne & disherited this felon paynym and consumed hym / and ther with delyuerd Ioseph oute of pryson / and after that alle the peple were torned to the Crysten feithe ¶ Capitulum vndecimum

Not longe after that Ioseph was layd in his dedely bed And whanne kyng Euelake sawe that / he made mo-che sorowe / and sayd / for thy loue I haue lefte my countrey / And sythe ye shalle departe oute of this world / leue me somme token of yours that I may thynke on you / Ioseph 5 said that wille I doo ful gladly / Now brynge me your sheld that I toke yow whanne ye went in to bataille ageynst kyng Tolleme / Thenne Ioseph bled fore at the nose / so that he myȝt not by no meane be staunched / And therupon that sheld he made a crosse of his owne blood / Now may ye see a remembraunce 10 that I loue yow / for ye shalle neuer see this shelde but ye shal thynke on me / and it shall be alweyes as fressh as it is now And neuer shalle man bere this sheld aboute his neck but he shalle repente hit vnto the tyme that Galahad the good knyȝte bere hit / and the laste of my lygnage shal leue hit aboute his 15 neck that shall doo many merueyllous dedes / Now sayd kyng Euelake where shalle I put this shelde that this worthy kny-ght may haue hit / ye shal leue hit there as nacyen the heremyte shal be put after his dethe / For thydder shal that good knyghte come the fyfteenth day after that he shal receyue the ordre 20 of knyghthode / and soo that daye that they sette / is this tyme that he haue his shelde / And in the same abbay lyeth Nacyen the heremyte / And thenne the whyte knyghte vanysshed away Anone as the squyer had herde these wordes / he alyghte of his hakney and kneled doun at Galahads feet and prayd hym 25 that he myghte goo with hym tyll he had made hym knyghte / Yf I wold not refuse yow / thenne will ye make me a knyȝte sayd the squyer / and that ordre by the grace of god shal be wel sette in me / Soo fyr Galahad graunted hym and tourned a-geyne vnto the Abbay there they came fro / and there men made 30 grete Ioye of fyr Galahad / And anone as he was alyghte / there was a monke broughte hym vnto a Tombe in a Chirche yerd where that was suche a noyse that who that herd hit shold veryly nyghe be madde or lese his strengthe / and fyre they sayd we deme hit is a fende

¶ Capitulum xij

Now lede me thyder sayd Galahad / and soo they dyd alle armed fauf his helme / Now sayd the good man/goo to the Tombe and lyfte hit vp / Soo he dyd and herd a grete noyse / and pytously he sayd that alle men myzte 5 here hit / Syr Galahad the seruauant of Ihesu Cryste come thou not nyghe me / For thou shalt make me goo ageyne ther whicre I haue ben soo longe / But Galahad was no thyng affrayed but lyfte vp the stone / and there came out so foul a smoke / and after he sawe the fowlest figur lepe there oute that e-10 uer he sawe in the lykenes of a man / & thenne he bleffid hym/and wyfte wel hit was a fende / ¶ Thenne herd he a voyse fay / Galahad I fee there enuyronne aboute the so many angels that my power may not dere the / ¶ Ryght soo fyr Galahad sawe a body al armed lye in that tombe and besyde hym 15 a swerd / Now fayr broder sayd Galahad lete vs remeue this body for hit is not worthy to lye in this chircheyerd / for he was a fals Crysten man / And there with they alle departed and wente to the Abbay / And anone as he was vnarmed a good man cam and sette hym doune by hym / and sayd fyre I shall 20 telle yow what betokeneth alle that ye sawe in the Tombe / for that couerd body betokeneth the duresse of the world and the grete synne that oure lord fond in the world / For there was suche wretchydnesse that the fader loued not the sone / nor the sone loued not the fader / and that was one of the causes that 25 oure lord took fleshe and blood of a clene mayden / for oure synnes were so grete at that tyme that wel nyghe all was wickednes / Truly sayd Galahad I bileue yow ryghte wel / So fyre Galahad rested hym there that nyghte / And vpon the morne he made the squyer knyghte / and asked hym his name/30 and of what kynred he was come / ¶ Syre sayd he men calleth me Melyas de lyle / And I am the sone of the kynge of Denmarke / ¶ Now fayre fyre sayd Galahad fythe that ye be come of kynges and Quenes / now loketh that knyghthode be wel sette in yow / for ye oughte to be 35 a myrrour vnto all chyualry ¶ Sire sayd fyre Melyas ye faye sothe / But fyre sythen ye haue made me a knyzt ye muft of ryzt graūte me my fyrst de-fyre þ^t is resonable / ye say soth said galahad / melyas said thēne that ye wil suffre me to ryde with yow in this quest of the fane-greal tyl that fomme aduenture departe vs / I graunte yow fir Thenne men brought fyre Melyas his armoure and his spere and his hors / and foo fyr Galahad and he rode forth all that weke or they fond ony aduenture / And thenne vpon a mon- 5 day in the mornyng as they were departed fro an Abbay they cam to a Croffe whiche departed two wayes / and in that croffe were letters wryten that sayd thus Now ye knyghtes arraunt the whiche goth to seke knyghtes aduenturous / fee here / ij / wayes þ^t one way defendeth the that thow ne go þ^t way / for he 10 shalle not go oute of the way ageyne / but yf he be a good man and a worthy knyghte / And yf thow goo on the lyfte hand/thow shalt not lyghtely there wyne prowesse / for thow shalt in this way be foone assayed / Sir said Melyas to Galahad/yf hit lyke yow to suffer me to take the way on the lyft hand 15 telle me / for there I shalle wel preue my strengthe / hit were better said Galahad ye rode not that way / for I deme I shold better escape in that way than ye / nay my lord I praye yow lete me haue that aduenture / Take it in goddes name said Galahad 20

¶ Capitulum xiiij

ANd thēne rode melyas in to an old forest / and therin he rode two dayes and more / And thenne he came in to a fayr medowe / and there was a fayr lodge of bowes / And thenne he aspyed in that lodge a chayer wherin was a crown of gold subtyly wroughte / Also there were clothes couerd vp- 25 on the erthe / and many delycious metes sette thereon / Sir Me-lyadas behelde this auenture and thoughte hit merueillous/but he had no honger / but of the crowne of gold he took moch kepe / and there with he stouped doune and took hit vp / and rode his way with it / And anone he sawe a knyght came ry- 30 dyng after hym that sayd / knyghte sette doune that crowne/whiche is not yours / & therfor defendeth yow / Thenne fyre Melyas bleffid hym and said Fair lord of heuen helpe and faue thy newe made knyght / & thenne they lete their horses ren-ne as fast as they myȝt / so that the other knyȝt smote fir melias 35 thorou hauberk and thorow the lyfte fyde that he felle to the erthe nyghe dede / And thenne he took the crowne and went his way and fyr Melyas lay styll and had no power to stere / In the meane whyle by fortune ther came fyre Galahad and 5 fond hym there in perille of dethe / And thenne he said A melyas who hath wounded yow / therfor hit had ben better to haue ryden the other way / And whanne sir Melyas herd hym speke / fyre he sayd for goddes loue lete me not dye in this forest / but bere me vnto the Abbay here befyde that I may be con-10 feffyd and haue my ryghtes / It shal be done said Galahad / but where is he that hath wounded yow / with that fyr Galahad herd in the leues crye on hyghe / knyght kepe the from me A fyr said Melyas / Beware / For that is he that hath slayne me / Sir Galahad anfuerd fyr knyghte come on your perylle/15 Thenne cyther drestid to other and came to gyder as fast as their horses myghte renne / and Galahad smote hym soo that hys spere wente thorou his sholder / and smote hym dounce of his hors / and in the fallyng Galahadis spere brak / with that cam oute another knyghte of the leues / and brake a spere vp-20 on Galahad or euer he myghte torne hym / Thenne Galahad drewe oute his swerd and smote of the lyfte arme of hym soo that it felle to the erthe / And thenne he fledde / and fire Galahad fewed fast after hym / And thenne he turned ageyne vnto fyr Melyas / and there he alyghte and drestid hym softely on 25 his hors to fore hym for the truncheon of his spere was in his body / and fyr Galahad sterte vp behynde hym / and helde hym in his armes / and soo broughte hym to the Abbay / and there vnarmed hym and broughte hym to his chamber / And thenne he asked his faucour / And whanne he had receyued hym he sa-30 id vnto fyr galahad / fyr lete deth come whan it pleasyd hym And there with he drewe oute the truncheon of the spere oute of his body / And thenne he fwouned / Thenne came there an olde monke whiche somtyme had ben a knyghte & behelde fyre Melyas / And anone he ranfakyd hym / & thenne he saide vnto 35 fyr galahad I shal hele hym of this woude by the grace of god within the terme of feuen wekes / Thenne was sir galahad glad and vnarmed hym / & said he wold abyde there thre dayes And thenne he asked fyr Melyas how it stood with hym /

Thenne he fayd he was torned vnto helping god be thanked ¶ Capítulum xiiij /

Now wylle I departe fayd Galahad / for I haue mo-che on hand / for many good knyghtes be ful besy about hit / And this knyghte and I were in the same quest of the Sancgreal / Sire said a good man / for his synne 5 he was thus wounded / and I merueylle said the good man how ye durst take vpon yow soo ryche a thyng as the hyghe ordre of knyghthode withoute clene confession / & that was the cause ye were bytterly wounded / For the way on the ryght hand betokeneth the hyghe way of our lord Ihesu Cryste / and the 10 way of a good true good lyuer / And the other way betoke-neth the way of synners and of myfbyleuers / And whanne the deuylle sawe your pryde and presumpcyon for to take yow in the quest of the Sancgreal / that made you to be ouerthrowen for hit may not be encheued but by vertuous luyng / Also 15 the wrytyng on the crosse was a fygnysycacyon of heuenly dedes and of knyghtly dedes in goddes werkes and no knytly dedes in worldly werkes / and pryde is hede of alle dedely synnes that caused this knyghte to departe from Galahad / & where thow tokeft the crowne of gold / thow synnest in couety-se and in theste / Alle this were no knyghtely dedes / And this Galahad the holy knyghte / the whiche foughte with the two knyghtes / the two knyghtes fygnifyen the two dedely synnes whiche were holy in this knyghte Melyas / and they myghte not withstande yow / for ye are withoute dedely synne / Now de- 25 parted Galahad from thens and betaught hem alle vnto god Sir Melyas fayd my lord Galahad as soone as I may ry-de I shalle seke yow / god send yow helthe said Galahad / & soo toke his hors and departed / and rode many Iourneyes forward and backward as aduenture wold lede hym / 30

¶ And at the laste hit happend hym to departe from a place or a Castel the whiche was named Abblasoure / and he hadde herd no masse / the whiche he was wonte euer to here or euer he departed oute of ony Castel or place / and kepthe that for a cus-tomme /

¶ Thenne fyr Galahad came vnto a montayne 35 where he fond an old chappel / and fond there no body for all alle was defolate / and there he kneled to fore the aulter / and befought god of holfome counceil / Soo as he prayd / he herd a voys that fayd / Goo thow now thou aduenturous knyghte to 5 the Castel of maydens / and there doo thow away thy wycked custommes

¶ Capitulum xv

WHanne fyr Galahad herd this / he thanked god / & to-ke his hors / and he had not ryden but half a myle / he sawe in a valeye afore hym a stronge Castel with de-10 pe dyches / and there ranne befyde hit a fayr ryuer that hyghte Syuarne / and there he mette with a man of grete age / and ey-ther fawed other / and Galahad asked hym the Castels name / Fair fyr said he hit is the Castel of maydens / That is a curfyd Castel said Galahad / and alle they that ben conuerfa-15 unt therin / for alle pyte is oute therof and alle hardynesse and meschyef is therin / therfor I counceyle yow fir knyght to torne ageyne / Sir said Galahad wete yow wel I shalle not tourne ageyne / Thenne loked fyre Galahad on his armes that noo thyngge sayled hym / and thenne he put his sheld afore hym / & 20 anone there mette hym feuen fayr maydens / the whiche sayd vnto hym / fyr knyghte ye ryde here in a grete folly / for ye haue the water to passe ouer / why shold I not passe the water said galahad / So rode he away from them / and mette with a Squyer that said knyghte / tho knyghtes in the Castel defyen yow / & 25 defenden yow / ye go no ferther tyl that they wete what ye wo-lde / Faire fir saide Galahad I come for to destroye the wycked custome of this Castel / Sir and ye wille abyde by that ye shal haue ynough to doo / go yow now said Galahad and haft my nedes / Thenne the squyer entryd in to the castel / And anone af-30 ter there came oute of the Castel feuen knyghtes and all were bretheren / And whan they sawe Galahad / they cryed knyghte kepe the for we assure the no thyngge but dethe / why sayd galahad will ye alle haue adoo with me at ones / ye sayde they therto maist thow trust / Thenne Galahad putte forth his spere 35 and smote the formeist to the erthe that nere he brake his neck

And there with alle the other smote hym on his shelde grete strokes so that their speres brake

¶ Thenne fyr Galahad drewe oute his swerd / and fet vpon hem soo hard that it was merueylle to see hit / and soo thurgh grete force he made hem to forsake the felde / and Galahad charged hem tyl they entryd in to the Castel / and so passed thur; the Castel at another gate / And there mette fyr Galahad an old man clothed in Relygyous clothyng and sayd / sire haue here the kayes of this Castel / Thenne fyr Galahad opened the gates / and sawe soo moche peple in the stretes that he myghte not nombre them / and alle sayd fyr ye be welcome / for longe haue we abyden here our delyueraunce / Thenne came to hym a gentylwoman and sayde these knyghtes be fledde / but they wille come ageyne this nyghte / and here to begynne ageyn their euylle customme

¶ What wille ye that I shalle doo sayd Galahad / Sir said the gentylwoman that ye send after alle the knyghtes hyder that hold their landes of this Castel / and make hem to swere for to vse the custommes that were vsed here to fore of olde tyme / I wille wel said Galahad / and there she broughte hym an horne of Iuory bouiden with gold rychely / & faide sir blowe this horne whych wille be herde two myle aboute this Castel/

¶ Whanne fyr Galahad had blownen the horne / he fet hym done vpon a bedde / Thenne came a preeft to Galahad / and said fyr hit is past a feuen yere agone that these feuen bretheren cam in to this Castel and herberowed with the lord of this castell that hyght the Duke Lyanowre / and he was lord of alle thys countrye / And whanne they aspyed the dukes doughter / that was a ful faire woman / Thenne by their fals couyn they made debate betwixe them self / and the duke of his goodenes wold haue departed hem / and there they slewe hym and his eldest sone / And thenne they took the mayden and the trefour of the castel / And thenne by grete force they helde alle the knyghtes of this Castel ageynste their wyll vnder theyre obeyssaunce and in grete seruage and truage / robbynge and pyllynge the poure comyn peple of all that they had

¶ Soo hit happend on a daye the dukes doughter sayd ye haue done vnto me greete wronge to flee myn owne fader / and my broder / and thus to holde our landes / not for thenne the fa-yd / ye shalle not holde this Castel for many yeres / for by one knyghte ye shal be ouercomen / Thus the prophecyed feuen yeres agone / wel faid the feuen knyghtes / fythen ye say so / ther shal 5 neuer lady nor knyghte passe this Castel / but they shall abyde maulgre their hedes / or dye therfor / tyl that knyghte be come / by whome we shalle lese this Castel / And therfore is it called the maydens Castel / for they haue deuoured many maydens / Now faid Galahad is the here for whome this Castel was lost 10 Nay sir faid the preeft she was dede within thefe thre nyghtes after that she was thus enforced / and fythen haue they kepte their yonger fyfter which endureth grete paynes with mo other ladyes / By this were the knyghtes of the countray comen / & thenne he made hem doo homage and feaute to the kynges doug-15 ter / and fette hem in grete cace of herte / And in the morne ther came one to Galahad and told hym how that Gawayn / gareth and Vwayne had slayne the feuen bretheren / I suppose wel faid fyr Galahad and took his armour and his hors / & commaunded hem vnto god /

¶ Capitulum xvi

20 Now faith the tale after fyr Gawayne departed / he rode many Iourneyes bothe toward and froward / And att the laste he cam to the Abbaye where fyre Galahad had the whyte sheld / and there fyr Gawayne lerned the way to feue after fyr Galahad / and soo he rode to the Abbay whe-25 re Melyas lay feke / and there fyr Melyas told fyr Gawayn of the merueyllous aduentures that fyr Galahad dyd / Certes faid fyre Gawayne I am not happy / that I took not the way that he wente / for and I maye mete with hym / I wille not departe from hym lyghtely / for alle merueyllous aduentures sir 30 Galahad encheueth / Sir faid one of the monkes he wille not of your felauship / why faid fyr Gawayne / Sir faid he / for ye be wycked and synful / and he is ful bleffid / ¶ Ryght as they thus stode talkynge / there came in rydynge fyr Gareth / And thenne they made Ioye eyther of other / And 35 on the morne they herd masse / and soo departed / And by the way they met with fyr Vwayne les auoultres / and there fyre Vwayne told fyr Gawayne how he had mette with none ad-uerture fythe he departed from the Courte / Nor we / said sir ga-wayne / and eyther promysed other of tho thre knyghtes not to departe whyle they were in that quest but yf fortune caused it / 5 Soo they departed and rode by fortune tyl that they came by the Castel of maydens / and there the feuen bretheren aspyed the thre knyghtes / and said sythen we be flemyd by one knyghte from this Castel / we shalle destroye alle the knyghtes of kyng Arthurs that we maye ouercome for the loue of fyr Galahad 10 And there with the feuen knyghtes sette vpon the thre knyghtes / and by fortune fyr Gawayne slewe one of the bretheren / and echone of his felawes slewe another and soo slewe the remenaunt / And thenne they took the wey vnder the Castel / & there they losfe the way that sir Galahad rode / and there cue- 15 ryche of hem departed from other / and sir Gawayne rode tyll he came to an hermytage / and there he fond the good man sayenge his euenfonge of our lady / and there fyr Gawayne afked herberowe for charyte / and the good man graunted hit hym gladly / Thenne the good man asked hym what he was / Syre 20 he said I am a knyzt of kynge Arthurs that am in the queste of the Sancgreal / and my name is fyr Gawayne / Sire sayd the good man I wold wete how it standeth betwixe god and yow / Sir said sir Gawayne I wille with a good will slewe yow my lyf yf hit please yow / and there he tolde the heremyte / 25 how a monke of an Abbay called me wycked knyght / he my-ght wel saye hit said the heremyte / for whanne ye were fyrste made knyghte ye sholde haue taken yow to knyghtely dedes & vertuous lyuyng / and ye haue done the contrary / for ye haue lyued mescheuouusly many wynters / & sir Galahad is a mayd 30 and synned neuer / and that is the cause he shalle encheue where he goth / that ye nor none sliche shalle not atteyne nor none in your felawship / for ye haue vsed the moost vntreust lyf that euer I herd knyght lyue / For certes had ye not ben so wycked as ye ar / neuer had the feuen bretheren be slayne by yow and 35 your two felawes / For fyre Galahad hym self alone bete hem alle feuen the day to forne / but his lyuyng is sliche he shal flee no man lyghtely / Also I may fay yow the Castel of maidens betokenen the good foules that were in pryson afore the Incarnacyon of Ihesu Cryste / And the feuen knyghtes betokenen the feuen dedely fynnes that regned that tyme in the world / & I may lyken the good Galahad vnto the sone of the hyghe 5 fader / that lyghte within a mayde and bought alle the foules oute of thralle / Soo dyd fyre Galahad delyuer all the maydens oute of the woful Castel / Now fyre Gawayne said the good man / thou must doo penaunce for thy synne / fyre what penaunce shalle I do / fuche as I wille gyue sayd the good 10 man / Nay said fyre Gawayne I may doo no penaunce / For we knyghtes aduenturous ofte suffren grete woo and payne Wel sayd the good man / and thenne he held his pees / And on the morne fyre Gawayne departed from the heremyte / and betaught hym vnto god / And by aduentur he mette with fyre 15 Agloulle and fyr Gryflet two knyghtes of the table round / And they two rode four dayes withoute syndynge of ony aduenture / and at the fyfthe day they departed / And eueryche helde as felle them by aduenture

¶ Here leueth the tale of fyr Gawayne and his felawes / and 20 speke we of fyr Galahad /

Soo whanne fyr Galahad was departed from the castel of maydens / he rode tyl he came to a waste forest / & there he mette with fyre launcelot and fyr Percyuale but they knewe hym not / for he was newe desguysed / Ryghte 25 so fyr launcelot his fader dressid his spere and brake it vpon fyr Galahad / and Galahad smote hym so ageyne that he smote doune hors and man / And thenne he drewe his fuerd / and dressid hym vnto fyr Percyuale / and smote hym soo on the helme that it rose to the coyse of stele / and had not the swerd 30 swarued / fyr Percyuale had ben slayne / and with the stroke he felle oute of his fadel / This Iustes was done to fore the hermytage where a recluse dwelled / And when she sawe fyr galahad ryde / she said god be with the best knyghte of the world A certes said she alle alowde that Launcelot and Percyuale 35 myst here it / And yonder two knyghtes had knowen the as wel as I doo they wold not haue encoütrede with the / thenne fyr Galahad herd her fay so he was adrad to be knowen ther with he smote his hors with his spores / and rode a grete paas toward them / Thenne perceyued they bothe that he was Galahad / and vp they gat on their horses / and rode faste after hym but in a whyle he was out of their fyghte / And thēne they tor- 5 ned ageyne with heuy chere / lete vs spere some tydynges sayd Percyuale at yonder recluse / Do as ye lyst said fyr launcelot Whanne fyr Percyuale came to the recluse she knewe hym wel ynough and fyr launcelot bothe / but fyr launcelot rode ouerthwart and endlonge in a wyld forest and helde no pathe / but 10 as wyld aduenture led hym / And at the last he came to a stony Croffe whiche departed two wayes in waste land / and by the Croffe was a stone that was of marbel but it was so derke that fyr launcelot myghte not wete what it was / Thenne fyre Launcelot loked by hym / and sawe an old chappel / & ther he 15 wende to haue fond peple / and sir launcelot teyed his hors tyl a tree / and there he dyd of his sheld / and henge hit vpon a tree / And thenne wente to the chappel dore and fonde hit waste and broken / And within he fond a fayr autler ful rychely arayed with clothe of clene fylke / and there stode a fayre 20 clene candelstyk / whiche bare fyxe grete candels / and the candel-styk was of fyluer / And whanne fyre launcelot sawe thys lyght / he had grete wylle for to entre in to the chappel / but he coude fynde no place where he myghte entre / thenne was he pafsynge heuy and defmayed / Thenne he retorned and cam to his 25 hors and dyd of his fadel and brydel / and lete hym pasture / & vnlaced his helme / and vngyrd his swerd and laide hym doune to slepe vpon his shelde to fore the Croffe /

¶ Capitulum xviij

ANd soo he felle on slepe and half wakyng and sle-pyng he sawe come by hym two palfreyes alle fayr & 30 whyte / the whiche bare a lytter / therin lyenge a seke knyghte / And whanne he was nyghe the croffe / he there abode styll / Alle this fyr launcelot sawe / and beheld for he slepte not veryly / and he herd hym saye / O swete lord whanne shal this forowe leue me / And whanne shalle the holy vessel come by me / where thurgh I shalle be bleffid / For I haue endured thus longe / for lytyl trespase / a ful grete whyle complainyd the knyght thus / and alweyes fyr launcelot herd it / With that 5 fyr launcelot sawe the Candelftyk with the fyxe tapers come before the Croffe / and he sawe no body that brought it / ¶ Alfo there came a table of syluer and the holy vessel of the Sancgreal whiche launcelot had sene afore tyme in kynge Pefcheours hows / And there with the seke knyghte fette hym vp / & helde 10 vp bothe his handes / and said Faire swete lord whiche is here within this holy vessel / take hede vnto me that I may be hole of this maladye / And ther with on his handes and on his knees he wente soo nyghe that he touched the holy vessel / and kyfte hit / and anone he was hole / and thenne he sayd lord god 15 I thanke the / for I am helyd of this sekeneffe / So whanne the holy vessel had ben there a grete whyle hit wente vnto the Chappel with the chaundler and the lyght / soo that launcelot wyft not where it was become for he was ouertaken with synen that he had no power to ryse ageyne the holy vessel / wher-20 for after that many men said of hym shame / but he took repentaunce after that / Thenne the seke knyght dressid hym vp / & kyssed the croffe / anone his squyer brought hym his armes/and asked his lord how he dyd / Certes sayd he I thanke god ryghte wel thurgh the holy vessel I am helyd / But I haue 25 merueil of this slepyng knyghte that had no power to awake whanne this holy vessel was brought hyder / I dare ryȝt wel saye / sayd the squyer that he dwelleth in some dedely syn-ne wherof he was neuer confessid / By my seythe said the kn-yght what someuer he be / he is vnhappy / for as I deme he is 30 of the selsauship of the round table / the whiche is entryd in to the quest of the Sancgreal / Sire said the squyer here I haue brought yow alle your armes sauf your helme and your su-erd / and therfor by myn assente now maye ye take this knyȝtes helme and his suerd and so he dyd / And whan he was 35 clene armed / he took fyr laūcelots hors / for he was better than his and soo departed they from the Croffe /

¶ Capitulum xix

THenne anone fyr launcelot waked and sette hym vp and bethought hym what he had sene there / & whether it were dremes or not / Ryght so herd he a voys that said fyr launcelot more harder than is the stone / and more bytter than is the wood / and more naked and barer than is the 5 leef of the fygge tree / therfore goo thow from hens / and wyth-drawe the from this hooly place / And whanne fyre launcelot herd this / he was passyng heuy and wyft not what to do / & so departed fore wepyng / and curfed the tyme that he was borne For thenne he demed neuer to haue hadde worship more For 10 tho wordes went to his herte tyl that he knewe wherfor he was called foo / Thenne fyre Launcelot wente to the Croffe & fonde his helme / his swerd and his hors taken away / And thenne he called hym self a veray wretche and moost vnhappy of all knyghtes / and there he sayd my synne and my wyckednes ha- 15 ue brought me vnto grete dishonour / For whanne I foughte worldly aduentures for worldly desyres I euer encheued them and had the better in euery place / and neuer was I discomfyt in no quarel were it ryght or wronge / And now I take vp-on me the aduentures of holy thynges / & now I fee and vn- 20 derstande that myn old synne hyndereth me and shameth me / so that I had no power to stene nor speke whan the holy blood appiered afore me / So thus he forowed til hit was day / & herd the fowles synge / thenne somewhat he was comforted / But whan fyr Launcelot myst his hors and his harneis thenne he 25 wyste wel god was displeasyd with hym / Thenne he departed from the croffe on foote in to a foreste / and foo by pry-me he came to an hyghe hylle & fonde an hermytage and an Heremyte theryn whiche was goyng vnto masse / And thenne launcelot kneled doune / & cryed on oure lorde mercy for his 30 wycked werkes / Soo whanne masse was done launcelot called hym and prayed hym for charite for to here his lyfe / with a good will sayd the good man / Sir sayd he be ye of Kyng Arthurs Courte and of the felauship of the round table / ye forsothe and my name is sir Launcelot du lake that hath ben 35 ryght wel said of / and now my good fortune is chaunged / For I am the moost wretche of the world / The Heremyte be-helde hym & hadde merueille how he was foo abasshed / Syre said the heremyte ye oughte to thanke god more than ony knyght lyuyng / for he hath caused yow to haue more worldly worship than ony knyghte that now lyueth / And for your presumption to take vpon you in dedely synne for to be in his presence where his flefhe and his blood was / that caused you ye myghte not see hit with worldly eyen / for he wille not appiere where suche synners ben / but yf hit be vnto theire grete hurte & vnto her grete shame / & there is no knyght lyuyng now / that ought to kenne god foo grete thanke as ye / for he hath yeuen yow beaute / femelynes / and grete strengthe aboue all other knyghtes / and therfor ye are the morr beholding vnto god than ony other man to loue hym and drede hym / for your strength and manhode wille lytel auaylle yow / and god be ageynste yow /

¶ Capitulum xx /

15 T Henne sir launcelot wept with heuy chere / and sayd Now I knowe wel ye faye me sothe / Sire sayd the good man / hyde none old synne from me / Truly said fyr Launcelot that were me ful lothe to discouere / For this xiiij yere I neuer discouerd one thyng that I haue vsed / and that maye I now wyte my shame and my disauntur / And thenne he told there that good man alle his lyf / And hou he had loued a quene vnmesurably and oute of mesure longe / & alle my grete dedes of armes that I haue done I dyd for the moost party for the quenes sake / And for her sake wold I doo bataill were hit ryght or wronge / and neuer dyd I bataill alle only for goddes sake / but for to wynne worship and to cause me to be the better biloued / and lytel or noughte I thanked god of hit / Thenne fyr launcelot sayd I praye yow / counceylle me / I wille counceyle yow said the heremyte / yf ye wille ensure me that ye will neuer come in that quenes selauship as moche as ye may forbere / And thenne fyre launcelot promysed hym he nold by the feithe of his body / loke that your herte and your mouthe accorde said the good man / and I shalle ensure yow ye shalle haue more worship than euer ye had / Holy fader said fyre launcelot I merueylle of the voys

[leaf 320 verso]

that sayd to me merueillous wordes as ye haue herd to fore hand / haue ye no merueylle sayd the good man therof / for hit femeth wel god loueth yow / for men maye vnderstande a stone is hard of kynde / and namely one more than another / and that is to vnderstande by the fyr launcelot / for thou wylt not leue 5 thy synne for no goodnes that god hath sente the / therfor thou arte more than ony stone / and neuer woldest thou be maade neyffhe nor by water nor by fyre / And that is the hete of the holy ghoost maye not entre in the / Now take hede in alle the world men shal not fynde one knyghte to whome oure Lord 10 hath yeuen foo moche of grace as he hath yeuen yow / for he hath yeuen yow fayrenes with femelynes / he hath yeuen the wyt difcrecyon to knowe good from cuyll / he hath yeuen the prowesse and hardynesse and gyuen the to werke foo largely / that thou hast had at al dayes the better where someuer thou came / and 15 now our lord wille suffre the no lenger / but that thou shalte knowe hym whether thou wilt or nylt / And why the voyce called the bytter than wood / for where ouer moche synne duel-leth / there may be but lytel swetnesse / wherfor thou arte lykened to an old roten tree / Now haue I shewed the why thou 20 arte harder than the stone & bytterer than the tree / Now shall I shewe the why thou arte more naked and barer than the fygge tree / It befelle that our lord on palmfundaye preched in Iherusalem / and there he fonde in the people that alle hardnes was herberowed in them / and there he fond in alle the towne 25 not one that wold herberowe hym / And thenne he wente with-oute the Towne / and fond in myddes of the way a fygge tree the whiche was ryghte fayr and wel garnysshed of leues / but fruyte had it none / Thenne our lord curfyd the tree that bere no fruyte that betokeneth the fygge tree vnto Iherusalem that had 30 leues and no fruyte / Soo thou fyr launcelot whan the hooly Grayle was broughte afore the / he fonde in the noo fruyte / nor good thoughte nor good wille and defowled with lechery / Cer-tes said fir launcelot alle that ye haue said is true / And from hens forward I caste me by the grace of god neuer to be so wyc- 35 ked as I haue ben / but as to folowe knyghthode and to do setys of armes / Thenne the good man loyned fyr launcelot suche penaunce as he myghte doo and to fewe knyghthode / and fo affoylled hym / and praid fyre launcelot to abyde with hym alle that daye / I wyll wel faid fyr launcelot / for I haue neyther helme ne hors ne fuerd / As for that sayd the good man I shalle helpe yow or to morne at euen of an hors and al that 5 longed vnto yow / And thenne fyr launcelot repented hym gre-tely /

¶ Here leneth of the history of fyr launcelot / ¶ And here folowetb of fyr Percyual de galys whicheb the iiiiij book

¶ Capitulum primum

10 Now sayth the tale that whan fyr launcelot was ryden after fyre Galahad / the whiche had alle these aduentures aboue sayd / Sir Percyual tor-ned ageyne vnto the recluse / where he demed to haue tydynges of that knygt that Launcelot followed / And soo he kneled at her wyndow / and the recluse opened hit / and asked fyre Percyuale what he wold / Madame he sayd I am a knyghte of kyng Arthurs Courte / and my 15 name is fyr Percyual de Galys / whanne the reecluse herd his name she had grete Ioye of hym / for mykel she had loued hym to forne any other knygt / for she ouzt to do so / for she was his aunt / And thenne she commaunded the gates to be opened and there he had alle the chere that she myght make hym and 20 alle that was in her power was at his commaundement / Soo on the morne fyr Percyual wente to the recluse / and asked her yf she knewe that knyghte with the whyte shelde / Sir said she why wold ye wete / Truly madame said fyr Percyual I shalle neuer be wel at ease tyl that I knowe of that knygh-25 tes selauship / and that I may fyghte with hym / for I maye not leue hym soo lyghtely / for I haue the shame yet / A Per-cyual sayd she wold ye fyghte with hym / I fee wel ye haue grete wyll to be slayne as your fader was thorough outrageousnes / Madame sayd fyr Percyual hit semeth by your wor-des that ye knowe me / ye sayd she / I wel ought to knowe you 30 for I am your aunt / al though I be in a pryory place / For fomme called me fomytyme the quene of the waste landes / and I was called the quene of moost rycheffe in the world / and it pleasyd me neuer my rycheffe soo moche as doth my pouerte Thenne fyre Percyual wepte for veray pyte whan that he kne-we it was his aunt

¶ A fair neuewe said she whanne herd ye tydynges of your moder / Truly sayd he I herd none of her / but I dreme of her moche in my flepe / And therfore I wote not whether she be dede or on lyue / Certes fayr neuw fa-yd she / your moder is dede / for after your departynge from her/she took fuche a sorowe that anone after she was confessid she dyed / Now god haue mercy on her fowle sayd fyr Percyual hit fore forthynketh me / but alle we must chaunge the lyf / ¶ Now fayre Aunt telle me what is the knyghte / I deme hit be he that bare the reed armes on whytsonday / wete yow well said she / that this is he / for other wyse oughte he not to doo / but to goo in reed armes / and that fame knyghte hath no pie-re / for he worcheth alle by myracle / and he shalle neuer be o-uercome of none erthely mans hand

¶ Capitulum ij

Alfo Merlyn made the round table in tokenyng of roundenes of the world / for by the round table is the world fygnifyed by ryghte / For al the world crysten and hethen repayren vnto the round table / And whan they are chofen to be of the selaufship of the rouñd table / they thynke hem more bleffid & more in worship than yf they had gotten halfe the world / and ye haue sene that they haue losfe her faders & her moders and alle her kynne and her wyues and her children for to be of your selaufship / It is wel sene by yow / For fyns ye departed fro your moder / ye wold neuer see her ye fond fuche selaufship at the rouñd table / whan Merlyn had ordeyned the round table he said by them which shold be felawes of the round table / the trouthe of the Sancgreal shold be wel known and men asked hym how men myghte knowe them that sholde best do and to encheue the Sancgreal / thenne he said ther shold be thre whyte bulles that shold encheue hit / and the two sholde be maydens / and the thyrd shold be chaft / And that one of the thre shold passe his fader as moche as the lyon passeth the ly-bard bothe of strengthe and hardynes

They that herd Merlyn faye foo / fayd thus vnto Merlyn / Sythen ther shalle be fuche a knyghte thow sholdest ordeyne by thy craftes a sege that no man shold fyte in hit / but he al only that shalle passe alle other knyghtes / Thenne Merlyn an-5 fuerd that he wold doo foo / And thenne he made the sege perillous in the whiche Galahad fatte in at his mete on whytsonday last past / Now madame fayd fyr Percyual so moche haue I herd of yow that by my good wylle I wille neuer haue adoo with fyr Galahad but by waye of kyndenes / and for god-10 des loue fayr aunte / can ye teche me some way where I maye fynde hym / for moche wold I loue the felauship of hym / Fair newewe fayd she ye must ryde vnto a Castel / the whiche is called Goothe / where he hath a cofyn germayn / and ther may ye be lodged this nyghte / And as he techeth you / feweth after 15 as faste as ye can / and yf he can telle yow noo tydynges of hym / ryde streyght vnto the Castel of Carbonek where the may-med kynge is there lyenge / for there shalle ye here true tydynges of hym

¶ Capitulum Tercium

THenne departed fyr Percyuale from his aunte eyther 20 makynge grete forowe / And soo he rode tyl euenfonge tyme / And thenne he herd a klok smyte / and thēne he was ware of an hows clofed wel with walles and depe dyches / and there he knocked at the gate / and was lete in / and he alyght and was ledde vnto a chamber and soone he was vnarmed / 25 And there he had ryght good chere alle that nyghte / and on the morne he herd his masse / and in the monastery he fonde a preeft redy at the aulter / And on the ryght fyde he sawe a pe-we clofyd with yron / and behynde the aulter he sawe a ryche bedde and a fayre as of clothe of sylke and golde / Thenne fyr 30 Percyual aspyed that therin was a man or a woman / for the vyfage was couerd / thenne he left of his loking and herd his feruys / And whan hit came to the sacrynge / he that lay within that Percloos dresseid hym vp and vncouerd his heede / and thenne hym befemed a passynge old man / and he had a crowne 35 of gold vpon his hede / & his sholders were naked & vnhyllid vnto his nauel / And thenne sir Percyual aspyed his body / was ful of grete woundes bothe on the sholders armes and vyfage / And euer he held vp his handes ageynst oure lordes body / and cryed / Fair fivete fader Ihesu Cryft forgete not me and soo he laye doune / but alwayes he was in his prayers & 5 orysons / and hym semed to be of the age of thre honderd wynter / And whanne the masse was done the preest took oure lor-des body / and bare hit to the seke kyng / And whanne he had vsed hit / he dyd of his crowne / and commaunded the crowne to be fette on the aulter / Thenne syr Percyual asked one of 10 the bretheren / what he was / Sire sayd the good man ye haue herd moche of Ioseph of Armatheye how he was sente by Ihesu Cryft in to this land for to teche and preche the holy cristen feythe / and therfor he suffred many persecucyons the whiche the enemyes of Cryft dyd vnto hym / and in the Cyte of Sarras 15 he conuerted a kyng whos rame was Euelake / And so this kyng came with Ioseph in to this land / and on a tyme he nyghed it soo nyghe that oure lord was displeasyd with hym / but e-uer he folowed hit more and more / tyl god stroke hym al most 20 blynde / Thenne this kyng cryed mercy / and sayd / faire lord lete me neuer dye tyl the good knyghte of my blood of the ix degree be come that I may see hym openly that he shal encheue the Sancgreal that I may kyffe hym

¶ Capitulum Quartum

WHanne the kyng thus had made his prayers he herd 25 a voys that sayd herd ben thy prayers / for thou shalt not dye tyl he haue kyft the / And whanne that knyghte shalle come the clerenes of your eyen shalle come ageyne / and thou shalt see openly / and thy woundes shalle be heled / & erst shalle they neuer clofe / and this befelle of kyng Euelake / & 30 this fame kyng hath lyued this thre honderd wynters thys holy lyf / and men saye the knyghte is in the Courte that shall hele hym / Sir sayd the good man I praye yow telle me what knyghte that ye be / and yf ye be of kyng Arthurs courte & of the table roud / ye forsoth faid he / & my name is sir Percyual 35 de Galys / And whanne the good man vnderstood his name he made grete Ioye of hym / And thenne fyr Percyual departed and rode tyl the houre of none / and he mette in a valey about a twenty men of armes whiche bare in a bere a knyghte dedely 5 slayne / And whanne they sawe fyr Percyuale they asked hym of whens he was / and he answered of the Courte of kyng Arthur / thenne they cryed all at ones flee hym / Thenne fyr Percy-ual smote the fyrst to the erthe and his hors vpon hym / And thenne seven of the knyghtes smote vpon his shield al attones 10 and the remenaunt felle his hors so that he felle to the erthe So had they slayne hym or taken hym had not the good kn-yghte sir Galahad with þe reed armes come there by aduenture in to the parties / And whanne he sawe alle the knyghtes vp-on one knyghte / he cryed saue me that knyghtes lyf / And then-15 ne he dressed hym toward the twenty men of armes as faste as his hors myght dryue with his spere in the reyste / & smote the formeſt hors and man to the erthe / And whanne his spere was broken / he sette his hand to his suerd and smote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand / that it was merueille to 20 see / and at euery stroke he smote one doune or put hym to a rebuke / so that they wold fyghte no more but fled to a thyck forest / and fyr Galahad folowed them / And whanne sir percyuale sawe hym chafe hem so / he made grete forowe that his hors was away / And thenne he wyſt wel it was fyre Gala-25 had / And theñe he cryed alowde A fayre knyghte abyde and suffre me to doo thankynges vnto the / for moche haue ye done for me / But euer fyr Galahad rode so fast that atte laſte he paſt oute of his fyghte / And as fast as sir Percyual myght he wente after hym on foote cryenge / And thenne he mette with 30 a yoman rydyng vpon an hakney the whiche led in his hand a grete ſtede blacker than any bere / A fayr frend ſayd sir percyuale as euer as I maye doo for yow / and to be your true knyghte in the fyrſt place ye wille requyre me that ye wille le-ne me that black ſtede that I myghte ouertake a knyghte the 35 whiche rydeth afore me ¶ Syre knyghte ſayd the yoman I praye yow hold me ex-cuſed of that / for that I maye not doo / For wete ye wel the hors is ſuche a mans hors that and I lente hit yow or any man that he wold flee me / Allas fayd sir Percyual / I had neuer foo grete sorowe as I haue had for losynge of yonder knyghte Syr fayd the yoman I am ryghte heuy for yow / for a good hors wold byfeme yow wel / but I dar not delyuer you this hors but yf ye wold take hym from me / that wille I not doo 5 fayd fyre Percyual / and foo they departed / and fyre Percy-ual fette hym doune vnder a tree / and made sorowe oute of me-sure / & as he was there ther cam came a knyght rydyng on the hors that the yoman lad / and he was clene armed /

¶ Capitulum Quintum /

ANd anone the yoman came pryckynge after as fast as 10 euer he myghte / and asked fyre Percyuale yf he fa-we any knyghte rydyng on his blak stede / ye sir for soth faid he / why syr aske ye me that / A fyre that stede he hath benome me with strength / wherfor my lord wyll flee me / in what place he fyndeth me / Wel faide fyre Percyual what woldest thou 15 that I dyd thou seest wel that I am on foote / but and I had a good hors / I shold brynge hym foone ageyne / Sir faid the yoman take myn hakney and doo the best ye can / and I shall fewe yow on foote to wete how that ye shalle spede / Thenne sir Percyual alyghte vpon that hakney / and rode as faste as he 20 myghte / And at the laste he sawe that knyghte / And thenne he cryed knyghte torne ageyne / and he torned / and fet his spere ageynst syr Percyuale / and he smote the hakney in the myd-des of the brest that he felle doune dede to the erthe / and there he had a grete falle / and the other rode his waye / And thenne 25 syr Percyual was wood wrothe / and cryed abyde wycked knyghte coward and fals herted knyghte torne ageyne / and fyghte with me on foote / but he ansuerd not / but paste on hys waye / whanne syr Percyual sawe he wold not torne he caste awaye his helme and fuerd / and fayd / now am I a veray 30 wretch / cursyd / and moost vnhappy aboue all other knyghtes So in this sorowe he abode all that day tyl hit was nyghte / & thenne he was faynte & leyd hym down and slepte tyl it was mydnyghte / & thenne he awaked & sawe afore hym a woman whiche fayd vnto hym ryght fyrefly / Syre Percyuale what 35 doft thou here / he anfuerd I doo neyther good nor grete ylle/Yf thou wylt enfore me faid ſhe that thou wylt fulfyll my wyll / whanne I fomone the I ſhall lene the myn owne hors whiche ſhall be the whyder thou wylt / Syr Percyual was 5 glad of her profer and and enſured her to fulfyll alle her deſyre/thenne abydeſt me here / and I ſhall goo fetch the yow an hors / And ſo ſhe cam ſoone ageyne and broughte an hors with her that was inly blak / whan Percyual beheld that hors / he merueylled that it was ſo grete and ſo wel apparaylled / and 10 not for thenne he was ſo hardy / & he lepte vpon hym / & took none hede of hym ſelf / And ſo anon as he was vpon hym / he threſt to hym with his ſpores / and ſo rode by a foreſt / and the more ſhone clere / And within an houre and laſſe he bare hym four dayes Iourney thens vntyl he came to a rough wa-15 ter the whiche roryd / and his hors wold haue borne hym in to hit

¶ Capitulum vi

And whanne fyr Percyuale came nyghe the brymme / & ſawe the water ſo boyſtous / he doubted to ouerpaffe it And thenne he made a ſygne of the croſſe in his ſorheed / whan 20 the ſende felte hym ſo charged / he ſpoke of fyr Percyual / and he wente in to the water cryenge and roryng makyng grete ſorowe / and it ſemed vnto hym that the water brente / Thenne ſir Percyual perceyued it was a ſend the which wold haue brought hym vnto his perdycon / Thenne he commaunded hym 25 ſelf vnto god / and prayd oure lord to kepe hym from alle ſuche temptacyons / and ſo he praid alle that nyghte tyl on the morn that it was day / thenne he ſawe that he was in a wylde montayne / the whiche was cloſed with the ſee nygh al aboute that he myȝt ſee no land about hym whiche myȝte releue hym but 30 wylde beeftes / And thenne he went in to a valey / and there he ſawe a yonge ſerpent brynge a yonge lyon by the neck / and ſo he came by ſir Percyual / with that came a grete lyon cry-enge and rorynge after the ſerpent

¶ And as faſt as fyr Percyual ſawe thys / he merueylled / & 35 hyed hym thyder / but anon the lyon had ouertake the ſerpent and beganne bataille with hym / ¶ And thenne fyr Percyual thoughte to helpe the lyon for he was the more naturel beeste / of the two / and there with he drewe his fuerd / and fette hys shelde afore hym / and ther he gaf the serpent suche a buffet that he had a dedely wound / whanne the lyon sawe that / he made 5 no refemblaunt to fyghte with hym / but made hym all the chere that a beest myghte make a man / Thenne Percyuale percey-ued that and caste doune his sheld / whiche was broken / and thenne he dyd of his helme for to gadre wynde / for he was gre-tely enchafed with the serpente / and the lyon wente alwaye 10 aboute hym sawnyng as a spanyel / And thenne he stroked hym on the neck and on the sholders / And thenne he thanked god of the felauship of that beeste / And aboute none the lyon took his lytel whelp and truffed hym and bare hym there he came fro / Thenne was fyr Percyual alone / And as the tale 15 tellethe be was one of the men of the world at that tyme / whiche moost byleued in oure lord Ihesu Cryste / for in tho dayes there were but fewe folkes that byleued in god parfytely / For in tho dayes the sone spared not the fader no more than a straunger / And soo fyre Percyual comforted hymself in our 20 lord Ihesu / and befoughte god no temptacyon shold brynge hym oute of goddes seruyse / but to endure as his true champy-on / Thus whanne fyr Percyual had prayd he sawe the lyon came toward hym / and thenne he couched doune at his feete / And soo alle that nyghte the lyon and he slepte to gyders / & 25 whanne fyr Percyual slepte / he dremed a merueyllous dreme that there two ladyes mette with hym / and that one sat vpon a lyon / and that other sat vpon a serpent / and that one of hem was yonge and the other was old / and the yongest hym thought said fir Percyual my lord saleweth the / and sendeth the 30 word that thou araye the / and make the redy / for to morne thou must fyghte with the strongest champion of the world / And yf thou be ouercome / thou shalt not be quyte for losyng of any of thy membrys / but thou shalt be shamed for euer to the worldes ende / And thenne he asked her what was her lord 35 And she said the grettest lord of alle the world / and soo she departed sodenly that he wyfte not where

¶ Capitulum vii]

T Henne came forth the other lady that rode vpon the fer-pent / and she sayd fyr Percyual I complayne me of yow that ye haue done vnto me and haue not offended vnto yow / Certes madame he sayd / vnto yow nor no lady I neuer 5 offended / yes sayd she / I shalle telle yow why / I have nou-rysshed in this place a grete whyle a serpent whiche serued me a grete whyle / and yesterday ye slewe hym as he gat his pray Saye me for what cause ye slewe hym / for the lyon was not yours / Madame said fyre Percyuale I knowe wel the Lyon 10 was not myn / but I dyd hit / for the lyon is of more gentiller nature than the ferpent / and therfor I slewe hym / me semeth / I dyd not amys ageynst yow / Madame sayd he what wold ye that I dyd / I wold sayd she for the amendys of my be-ste that ye bycome my man / and thenne he answerd that wyll 15 I not graunte yow / No sayd she truly ye were neuer but my seruauant / syn ye receyued the homage of our lord Ihesu crist Therfor I ensure yow in what place I may fynde yow with-oute kepynge I shalle take yow as he that somtyme was my man / And soo she departed from fyr Percyual and leste hym 20 slepynge the whiche was fore trauaylled of his aduysyon / & on the morne he aroos and bleffid hym and he was passyng feble / Thenne was fyre Percyual ware in the sec / and sawe a ship come sayllynge toward hym / and fyr Percyual went vnto the shyp and fond hit couerd within and withoute wyth 25 whyte Samyte / And at the bord stood an old man clothed in a surples in lykenes of a preest / Syr said fyr Percyuale ye be welcome / god kepe yow sayd the good man / Sir sayd the old man of whens be ye / Syr said fir Percyual I am oi kynge Arthurs Courte / and a knyghte of the table Round / the 30 whiche am in the quest of the Sancgreal / and here I am in grete dureffe and neuer lyke to escape oute of this wyldernesse Doubte not sayd the good man and ye be foo true a knyghte/as the ordre of chyualry requyreth / and of herte as ye oughte to be / ye shold not doubt that none enemy shold slay yow / 35 What ar ye said fyr Percyuale / fyr sayd the old man I am of a straunge countrey / and hyther I come to comforte yow / Syr fayd fyr Percyuale what fygnesyeth my dreame that I dreamed this nyghte / & there he told hym alle to gyder / She whiche rode vpon the lyon betokeneth the newe lawe of holy chirche that is to vnderstande / fayth / good hope / byleue / and baptym / for she femed yonger than the other / hit is grete reason / for she was 5 borne in the refurrection and the passion of our lord Ihesu cryste And for grete loue she came to the / to warne the of thy grete ba-taille that shalle befall the / with whome fayd fyre Percyuale shalle I fyghte / with the moost champyon of the world said the old man / for as the lady fayd / but yf thou quyte the wel 10 thou shalt not be quyte by losynge of one membre / but thou shalt be shamed to the worldes ende / And she that rode on the serpent fygnesyeth the olde lawe / and that serpent betokeneth a fende / And why she blamed the that thou slewest her seruaut it betokeneth no thyng / the serpent that thou slewest betokeneth 15 the deuylle that thou rodest vp on to the roche / And whan thou madeft a fygne of the Croffe / there thou slewest hym / & putte away his power / And whanne she asked the amendys and to become her man / And thou saydest thou woldest not / that was to make the to bileue on her and leue thy baptym / Soo he com- 20 maunded fyr Percyuale to departe / and foo he lepte ouer the bord and the ship / and alle wente away he wyfte not whyder / Thenne he wente vp vnto the roche and fonde the lyon whyche alwey kepte hym selauhyt and he stryked hym vpon the bak and had grete Ioye of hym 25

¶ Capitulum viii

BY that fyr Percyuale had abyden there tyl myddaye / he sawe a shyp came rowyng in the see as all the wynd of the world had dryuen hit / And foo it droof vnder that roche / And whanne fyr Percyual sawe this / he hyhed hym thyder / and fonde the ship couerd with fylke more blacker 30 than ony beare / and therin was gentilwoman of grete beaute / and she was clothed rychely that none myghte be better / And whanne she sawe fyr Percyuale / she saide Who broughte yow in this wyldernes where ye be neuer lyke to passe hens / for ye shal dye here for hongre and meschyf / Damoyfel saide 35 fyr Percyuale I serue the best man of the world / and in his seruyse he wille not suffre me to dye / for who that knocketh shal entre / and who that asketh shalle haue / and who seketh hym/he hydeth hym not / But thenne she said fyr Percyual wote ye 5 what I am / ye sayd he / Now who taughte yow my name said she / Now sayd fyre Percyuale I knowe you better than ye wene / And I came oute of the waste forest where I found the reed knyghte with the whyte sheld sayd the damoyfel / A damoyfel said he with that knyghte wold I mete passyng fayn 10 Sir knyghte said she / and ye wille ensure me by the seyth that ye owe vnto knyghthode that ye shalle doo my wylle what tyme I somone yow / and I shalle brynge yow vnto that knyzt ye said he / I shalle promyse yow to fulfyll your desyre / well said she now shal I telle yow / I sawe hym in the foreste cha-15 cyng two knyghtes vnto a water the whiche is called mortayse and they drofe hym in to the water for drede of dethe / and the two knyghtes passed ouer / and the reed knyghte passed after / and there his hors was drenched / and he thorou grete strengthe escaped vnto the land / thus she told hym / and 20 fyr Percyuale was passyng glad therof / Thenne she asked hym yf he had ete ony mete late / Nay madame truly I ete no mete nyghe this thre dayes / but late here I spak with a good man that fedde me with his good wordes and hooly / and refreshyd me gretely / A fyr knyghte said she that fame man 25 is an enchaunter and a multiplyer of wordes / For and ye byleue hym ye shall playnly be shamed & dye in this roche for pure hongre and be eten with wylde beestes and ye be a yong man and a goodly knyghte / and I shalle helpe yow & ye wil What are ye said fyr Percyual that profered me thus grete ky-30 denes / I am said she a gentylwoman that am disherytid / whiche was somtyme the rycheft woman of the world / Damoyfel said fyr Percyual who hath disherytid yow / for I haue grete pyte of yow / Sir said she I dwellid with the gretteft man of the world and he made me so fayre and clere that ther 35 was none lyke me / and of that grete beaute I had a lytil pry-de more than I ought to haue had / Also I sayd a word that pleasyd hym not / And thenne he wold not suffre me to be ony lenger in his company / and soo drofe me from myn herytage / and soo disheryted me / and he had neuer pyte of me nor of none of my counceyll / nor of my Courte / And fythen sir kny-ght hit hath befallen me soo / and thurgh me and myn I haue benome hym many of his men / and made hem to become my men For they aske neuer no thyng of me but I gyue hit hem that 5 and moche more / Thus I and al my seruauentes were ayenst hym nyghte and daye / Therefore I knowe now no good knyzt nor noo good man but I gete hym on my fyde and I maye And for that I knowe that thow arte a good knyzt / I by-feche yow to helpe me / And for ye be a felawe of the round ta- 10 ble wherfore ye oughte not to fayle noo gentylwoman whiche is disheryted / and she befought yow of helpe

¶ Capitulum ix

THenne fyr Percyual promysed her alle the helpe that he myghte / And thenne she thanked hym / And at that tyme the wheder was hote / thenne she called vnto her a 15 gentylwoman and badde her brynge forth a paucione / And soo she dyd / and pyght hit vpon the grauel / Sire fayd she / Now maye ye reste yow in this hete of the day / Thenne he thanked her / and she put of his helme and his sheld / and there he slepte a grete whyle / And thenne he awoke / and asked her / 20 yf she had ony mete / and she fayd ye / also ye shalle haue yno-ugh / and soo there was fette ynough vpon the table / and theron soo moche þ^t he had merueil / for there was all maner of metes þ^t he coude thynke on / Also he dranke ther the strengest wyn that euer he dranke / hym thoughte / and there with he 25 was a lytel chafed more than he oughte to be / with that he beheld the gentylwoman / and hym thought / she was the fayrest creature that euer he sawe / And thenne fyre Percyual proferd her loue and prayd her that she wold be his / Thenne she refused hym in a maner whan he requyred her for the cause he shold 30 be the more ardant on her / and euer he seafed not to pray her of loue / And whanne she sawe hym wel enchauffed / thenne she fayd fyr Percyuale wete yow wel I shall not fulfille youre wylle / but yf ye swere from hensforth ye shalle be my true ser-uaunt / and to doo no thyng but that I shalle commaunde 35 yow / wyl ye enfore me this as ye be a true knyghte / ye fayd he fayr lady by the feythe of my body / wel fayd she now shal ye doo with me what foo hit please yow / and now wete ye well / ye are the knyghte in the world that I haue moost defyre to / 5 And thenne two squyers were commaunded to make a bed in myddes of the paelione / And anone she was vnclouthed & leyd therin / And thenne fyre Percyual leyd hym doune by her naked / and by aduenture and grace he fawe his fuerd lye on the ground naked / in whoos pomel was a reede croffe and 10 the fygne of the crucifyxe therin / and bethoughte hym on his knyghthode and his promyse made to fore hand vnto the good man / thenne he made a fygne of the croffe in his forhede / & there with the paelione torned vp fo doune / and thenne it chaunged vnto a fmoke / and a blak clowde / and thenne he was adradde 15 and cryed alowde /

¶ Capitulum x

FAyr fwete fader Ihesu Cryste ne lete me not be shamed / the whiche was nyghe lost had not thy good grace ben / And thenne he loked in to a shyp / and fawe her entre therin / Whiche fayd sir Percyual ye haue bitrayed me / and foo 20 she wente with the wynde rorynge and yellynge that it femed alle the water brent after her / Thenne fyr Percyual made grete sorowe / and drewe his fuerd vnto hym / sayēg fythen my flesshe will be my maister I shalle punyssh it / and there with he rose hym self thurgh the thygh that the blood starte aboute hym / & 25 said O good lord take this in recompensacion of that I haue done ageynst the my lord / Soo thenne he clothed hym and armed hym / and called hym self a wretche / sayenge how nyghe was I lost / and to haue loste that I shold neuer haue geten ageyne / that was my vyrgynyte / for that maye neuer be recouerd af-30 ter hit is ones lost / and thenne he stopped his bledyng wounde with a pyece of his sherte / Thus as he made his moue he saw the same shyp come fro Oryent that the good man was in the day afore / and the noble knygt was ashamed with hym selfe / & there with he felle in a fwoune / And whan he awoke he went 35 vnto hym wekely and there he falewed this good man / And thenne he asked fyr Percyual how haft thou done fythe I departed / Sir said he / here was a gentylwoman and ledde me in to dedely synne / And there he told hym all to gyders / Knewe ye not the mayde sayd the good man / Syr said he nay but wel I wote the fende fente her hyther to shame me / O good 5 knyghte sayd he thou arte a foole / for that gentilwoman was the maister fende of helle / the whiche hath power aboue alle deuyls / and that was the old lady that thou sawest in thyn aduysyon rydyngne on the serpent / Thenne he told fyr Percyuale how our lord Ihesu Cryst bete hym oute of heuen for his synne 10 the whiche was the moost bryghtest angel of heuen / & therfore he losse his herytage / and that was the champyon that thou foughtest with alle / the whiche had ouercome the / had not the grace of god ben / Now beware fyre Percyuale and take thys for an Enfample / and thenne the good man vanyfshed away / 15 Thenne fyre Percyual took his armes / and entryd in to the shyp / and soo departed from thens

 15 fyre / the whiche there wedded the kynges doughter of Irland and he was as worthy a man as thow art / and of hym cam kynge Ban thy fader the which was the last of the feuen kynges / And by the fir launcelot hit sygnefyeth that the Angels sayd thou were none of the feuen selauships / And the laste 20 was the ix knyght / he was sygnefyed to a lyon / for he shold passe all maner of erthely knyghtes / that is fyre Galahad / the whiche thow gate on kynge Pelles doughter / and thou ought to thanke god more than any other man lyuynge / for of a fynner erthely thow hast no piere as in knyghthode nor neuer 25 shalle be / But lytyl thanke hast thou gyuen to god for al the grete vertues that god hath lent the / ¶ Syr said Launcelot ye faye that that good knyzt is my sone That ouztest thow to knowe and no man better faid the good man / For thow knewest the doughter of kyng Pelles fles-30 shely / and on her thow begattest Galahad / And that was he that at the feest of Pentecost fatte in the sege peryllous / And therfor make thow hit knowen openly that he is one of thy begetynge on kynge Pelles doughter / for that wyl be youre worship and honour and to alle thy kynred /

35 And I couceyle yow in no place prece not vpon hym to haue adoo with hym / wel sayd launcelot / me semeth that good knyghte shold praye for me vnto the hyghe fader / that I falle not to synne ageyne / Trust thou wel sayd the good man thou faryst mykel the better for his prayer / but the sone shall not bere the wyckednes of the fader / Nor the fader shalle not bere the 5 wyckednes of the sone / but eueryche shalle bere his owne burthen / And therfor befeke thou only god / and he wylle helpe the in alle thy nedes / And thenne fyr launcelot and he wente to souper / and soo leyd hym to rest / and the hayre prycked so fyr launcelots skynne whiche greued hym ful fore / but he toke 10 hit mekely / and suffred the payne / And soo on the morne / he herd his masse and took his armes / and soo toke his leue /

¶ Capitulum Quintum

ANd thenne mounted vpon his hors / and rode in to a forest / and helde no hye waye / And as he loked afore hym / he sawe a fayre playne / and beyde that a fayre Castel / & 15 afore the Castel were many paelions of sylke & of dyuerse hewe / And hym semed that he sawe there fyue honderd knyghtes rydyng on horsbak / and there were two partyes / they that were of the Castel were all in blak horses and their trappours blak / and they that were withoute were al on whyte horses & 20 trappours / and eueryche hurteled to other that it merueylled fyr launcelot / And at the laste hym thoughte they of the castel were putte to the werse / Thenne thoughte fyr launcelot for to helpe there the weyker party in encrecyng of his chyualry And soo fyr launcelot threst in among the party of the Castel 25 and smote doune a knyghte hors and man to the erthe / And thenne he rasshed here and there and dyd merueyllous dedes of armes / And thenne he drewe oute his suerd / and strake many knyghtes to the erthe / so that alle tho that sawe hym merueylled that euer one knyghte myghte doo soo grete dedes of 30 armes / But alweyes the whyte knyghtes helde them nyghe aboute fyr launcelot for to tyere hym and wynde hym /

But att the laste as a man may not euer endure fyre Launcelot waxed so faynt of fy3tyng & trauailling & was so very of his grete dedes / but he myghte not lyfte vp his armes for to gyue one stroke so that he wende neuer to haue borne armes / & thenne they alle took and ledde hym away in to a forest / and there made hym to alyghte & to reſte hym / And thenne all the 5 ſelaufhyp of the caſtel were ouercome for the defeaute of hym / Thenne they ſayd alle vnto fyr launcelot bleſſid be god / that ye be now of oure ſelaufhyp / for we ſhalie holde yow in oure pryſon / and ſoo they leſte hym with fewe wordes / And thenne fyr launcelot made grete ſorowe / for neuer or now was I neu-10 uer at turnement nor luſtes but I had the beſt / and now I am ſhamed / and thenne he ſayd now I am ſure that I am more ſynfuller than euer I was / thus he rode ſorowyng / and half a day he was oute of deſpayre / tyl that he came in to a de-pe valey / And whanne fyr launcelot ſawe he myghte not ryde 15 vp in to the montayne / he there alyghte vnder an Appel tree / and there he leſte his helme and his ſhelde / and put his hors vnto paſture / And then he leid hym doune to ſlepe / And thenne hym thoughte there came an old man afore hym / the whiche ſayd A launcelot of cuylle ſeythe and poure byleue / 20 wherfor is thy wille tourned ſoo lyghtely toward thy dedely fynne / And whanne he had ſayd thus / he vanyſhed away / & launcelot wyſt not where he was become / Thenne he tooke his hors and armed hym / And as he rode by the way he ſawe a chappel where was a recluſe whiche hadde a wyndowe that ſhe 25 myghte ſee vp to the Aulter / And alle aloude ſhe called la-uncelot / for that he ſemed a knyghte erraunt / And thenne he came and ſhe aſked hym what he was / and of what place / & where aboute he wente to ſeke

¶ Capitulum Sextum

30 And thenne he told her alle to gyder word by word and the trouthe how it befelle hym at the turnement / And after told her his aduſfyon that he had had that ny-ghte in his ſlepe / and prayd her to telle hym what hit myght mene / for he was not wel contente with hit /

¶ A Launcelot fayd she as longe as ye were knyghte of erthely knyghthode / ye were the moost merueillous man of the world and moost aduenturous / ¶ Now said the lady sythen ye be sette amonge the knyghtes of heuenly aduentures / yf aduenture felle the contrary at that turnement / haue thou no merueille / for that turnement yesterdaye was but a tokenynge of oure lord / And not for thenne there was none enchauntement for they at the turnement were erthely knyghtes / The turnemēt was a token to see who shold haue moost knyghtes outhur Clyazar the sone of kyng Pelles or Argustus the sone of kyng Harlon / But Clyazar was alle clothed in whyte / and Argustus was couerd in blak the whiche were comen / Alle what this betokeneth I shalle telle yow / ¶ The daye of Pentecost whan kyng Arthur helde his court / it befelle that erthely knynges and knyghtes toke a turnement to gyders / that is to say the quest of the Sancgreal / The erthely knyghtes were they / the whiche were clothed al in black / and the couerynge betokeneth the synnes wherof they be not confessid / And they with the couerynge of whyte betokeneth vyrgynyte / and they that chofen chastyte / And thus was the quest begonne in them / Thenne thow behelde the synners and the good men / and when thow sawest the synners ouercomē / thow enclynest to that party for bobaunce and pryde of the world / and alle that must be leste in that quest / ¶ For in this quest thow shalte haue many felawes and thy betters / For thow arte foo feble of euylle truste and good byleue / this made hit whan thou were there where they took the / and ledde the in to the forest / And anone there appiered the Sancgreal vnto the whyte knyghtes / but thow was foo feble of good byleue and seyth that thou myghtest not abyde hit for alle the techynge of the good man / but anone thou torneest to the synners / and that caused thy mysfaunture that thow sholdest knowe good from euylle / and wayne glory of the world / the whiche is not worth a pere And for grete pryde thou madest grete sorow that thou haddest not ouercome alle the whyte knyghtes with the keueryng of whyte by whome was betokeneth vyrgynyte & chastyte / & therfor god was wroth with yow / for god loueth no suche dedes in this quest / & this aduision signefyeth þ^t thou were of euil feythe and of poure byleue / the whiche wille make the to falle in to the depe pytte of helle yf thou kepe the not ¶ Now haue I warned the of thy vavne glory / and of thy pryde / that thou hast many tymes erryd ageynst thy maker 5 beware of euerlastyng payne / for of alle erthely knyghtes I haue moost pyte of the / for I knowe wel thou hast not thy pyere of ony erthely synful man / And soo ihe commaunded fyr launcelot to dyner / And after dyner he toke his hors and commaunded her to god / and soo rode in to a depe valeye / and 10 there he sawe a ryuer and an hyhe montayn / And thorou the water he must nedes passe / the whiche was hydous / and thenne in the name of god he took hit with good herte / and when he came ouer / he sawe an armed knyghte hors and man black as ony beare without ony word he smote fyr launcelots hors 15 to the erthe / and soo he passed on he wyft not where he was become / And thenne he took his helme and his shelde / & thanked god of his aduenture

¶ There leueth of the story of fyr launcelot

¶ And speke we of sir Gawayne the whiche is the xvj book

¶ Capitulum primum

20 A Hanne fyre Gawayne was departed from his his selaushyp / he rode long withoute ony aduenture / For he fond not the tenth parte of aduenture as he was wonte to doo / For fyre Gawayn rode from whytfontyde vntyl Mychelmasse And sonde none aduenture that pleasyd hym / Soo on a daye it befelle Gawayne mette with sir Ector de marys / and eyther 25 made grete Ioye of other / that it were merueylle to telle / And soo they told eueryche other and complayned them gre-tely that they coude fynde none aduenture /

¶ Truly sayd fyre Gawayne vnto fyre Ector I am nyghe wery of this quest / and loth I am to folowe further in straunge

Countreyes / one thyng merueilled me sayd fyre Ector I haue mette with twenty knyghtes felawes of myn / and al they complayne as I doo / I haue merueille said fyr Gawayne where that fyr launcelot your broder is / Truly said fire Ector I can not here of hym nor of fyr Galahad / Percyuale 5 nor fyr Bors / lete hem be sayd fyre Gawayne / for they foure haue no pyeres / And yf one thyng were not in fyr launcelot / he had no felawe of none erthely man / but he is as we be / but yf he took more payne vpon hym / But and these four be mette to gyders / they wille be lothe that ony man mete with hem / for 10 and they fayle of the Sancgreal / hit is in waste of alle the remenaunt to recouer hit / Thus as Ector and Gawayne rode more than eyghte dayes / And on a faterday they fond an old chappel the whiche was wasted that there semed no man thyder repayred / and there they alyghte / and sette their speres att 15 the dore / and in they entryd in to the chappel / and there made their orysons a grete whyle / And thenne sette hem doune in the seges of the chappel / And as they spak of one thyng and other / for heynes they felle on slepe / and there befelle hem both merueyllous aduentures / Sir Gawayn hym semed he cam in 20 to a medowe ful of herbes and floures / And there he sawe a rake of bulles an honderd and fyfty that were prowde & blak fauf thre of hem were al whyte and one had a blak spot / and the other two were soo fayre and soo whyte that they myght be no whyter / And these thre bulles whiche were soo fayre were 25 teyed with two stronge cordes / And the remenaunt of the bulles sayd among hem goo we hens to seke better pasture / and so some wente / and some came ageyne / but they were so lene that they myghte not stande vp ryghte / and of the bulles that were soo whyte that one came ageyne and no mo / But whan this 30 whyte bulle was come ageyne amonge these other / there rose vp a grete crye for lack of wynde þ^t fayled them / And so they departed one here and another there / this aduyson befelle Gawayne that nyght

BVt to Ector de marys befelle another vyfyon the contrary / For hit femed hym that his broder fyre launcelot and he alyghte oute of a chayer and lepte vpon ij horses / and the one sayde to the other go we feke that we shal 5 not synde / and hym thoughte that a man bete fyr launcelot / and despoyled hym / and clothed hym in another aray the whiche was al ful of knottes / and sette hym vpon an affe / and so he rode tyll he cam to the fayrest welle that euer he sawe / and fyre Launcelot alyghte and wold haue dronke of that welle / And 10 whan he stouped to drynke of the water the water sanke from hym / ¶ And whanne fyre launcelot sawe that he torned and wente thyder as the hede came fro / And in the meane whyle he trowed that hym self and fyr Ector rode tyl that they cam to a ryche mans hows where there was a weddyng / And there 15 he sawe a kynge / the whiche sayd fyr knyghte here is no place for yow / and thenne he torned ageyne vnto the chayer that he came fro / Thus within a whyle bothe Gawayne and Ector awaked / and cyther told other of their aduysyon / the whiche merueylled them gretely / Truly sayd Ector I shalle neuer be 20 mery tyl I here tydynges of my broder launcelot /

¶ Now as they sat thus talkyng they sawe an hand sheuyng vnto the elbowe / and was couerd with reed Samyte / And vpon that henge a brydel not ryght ryche / and helde within the fyft a grete candel whiche brenned ryght clere / and soo passed 25 afore them / and entryd in to the chappel / and thēne vanyfshed away and they wyft not where / And anone came doune a voyfe whiche sayd knyghtes ful euylle seyth and of poure byleue these two thynges haue sayled yow / and therfor ye may not come to the aduentures of the fangreal / Thenne fyrst spak 30 Gawayne and sayd Ector haue ye herd these wordes / ye truly said sir Ector I herd alle / Now goo we sayd fyre Ector vnto some heremyte that wille telle vs of our aduysyon / for hit semeth me we labour alle in vayne / and soo they departed and rode in to a valeye and there mette with a squyer whiche 35 rode on an hakney / and they salewed hym sayre / Sire sayd Gawayne can thou teche vs to ony heremyte / Here is one in a lytel montayne / but hit is soo rough there may no hors go thyder / and therefore ye muste goo vpon foote / there shalle ye fynde a poure hows / and there is nacyen the heremyte which is the holyest man in this countrey / and so they departed eyther from other / And thenne in a valey they mette with a knyghte al armed whiche profered hem to Iuste as fer as he sawe them / In the name of god sayd fyr Gawayne / fythe I departed from camelot / there was none profered me to Iuste but ones / and now Sir said Ector lete me Iuste with hym / Nay sayd Gawayne ye shalle not / but yf I be bete / hit shalle not forthynke me thenne yf ye goo after me / And thenne eyther embraced other to Iuste and came to gyders as fast as their horses myghte renne / and braft their sheldes and the mayles / and the one more than the other / and Gawayne was wounded in the lyfte fyde / but the other knyghte was smyten thorou the brest / and the spere cam oute on the other fyde / and soo they felle bothe oute of their fadels / and in the fallynge they brak bothe their speres / Anone Gawayne aroos and sette his hand to his fuerd / and caste his sheld afore hym / But alle for nought was it / for the knyght had no power to aryse ageyne hym / Thenne said gawayne ye must yelde you as an ouercome mā / or els I may flee you / A fir knyghte sayd he I am but dede / for goddes sake and of your gentilnes lede me here vnto an Abbay that I may receyue my creatour / Syre sayd Gawayne I knowe no hows of relygyon here by / Syr sayd the knyghte sette me on an hors to fore yow / and I shalle teche yow / Gawayne sette hym vp in the fadel / and he lepte vp behynde hym for to sustene hym / and soo came to an Abbay where they were wel receyued / and anone he was vnarmed / and receyued his creatour / Thenne he prayd Gawayne to drawe out the truncheon of the spere oute of his body / Thenne Gawayne asked hym what he was that kne-we hym not / I am sayd he of kyng Arthurs courte / & was a felawe of the round table / and we were bretheren sworne to gyders / and now fyr Gawayne thow hast slayne me / and my name is Vwayne les auoultres that somtyme was sone vnto kyng Vryens / and was in the quest of the Sancgreal / & now forgyue it the god / for hit shal euer be sayd that the one sworn broder hath slayn thotherr /

¶ Capitulum Tercium

A Llas fayd Gawayne that euer this myfauenture is befallen me / No force fayd Vwayne fythe I shalle dye this deth / of a moche more worshypfuller mans hand myghte I not dye / but whanne ye come to the Court / recom-5 maunde me vnto my lord kynge Arthur and alle tho that ben leste on lyue / and for old brotherhode thynke on me / Thenne beganne Gawayne to wepe and Ector also / And thenne V-wayne hym felf and fyre Gawayne drewe oute the truncheon of the spere / and anone departed the soule from the body / Thē-10 ne sir Gawayne and sir Ector beryed hym as men oughte to berye a kynges sone / and made wryten vpon his name / & by whome he was slayne / Thenne departed Gawayne and Ector as heuy as they myghte for their myfauentur / and so rode til that they came to the rouȝ montayne / and there they teyed the-15 ir hofes and wente on foote to the heremytage / And whanne they were come vp / they sawe a poure hows / & besyde the chappel a lytyl courtelage / where Nacyen the heremyte gadred wortes as he whiche had tasted none other mete of a grete whyle And whanne he sawe the erraunt knyghtes / he came toward 20 them and falewed them / and they hym ageyne / Faire lordes said he what aduentur brought yow hyther / Syr said Gawayn to speke with yow for to be confessid / Sir said the heremyte I am redy / thenne they told hym foo moche that he wyft well what they were / And thenne he thoughte to counceyllle hem yf 25 he myght / Thenne began gawayne fyrst & told hym of his adufyon that he had in the Chappel / and Ector told hym alle as it is afore reherced / Sir said the heremyte vnto sir Ga-wayne the fayr medowe and the rak therin ought to be vnderstande the round table / and by the medowe oughte to be vnder-30 stande humylyte and pacyence / tho ben the thynges whiche ben den and the Chyualry hath ben at alle tymes / foo by the frater-nyte whiche was there that she myght not be ouercomen / For 35 men fayd she was founded in pacyence and in humylyte at the medowe / for their hertes shold be fette in humylyte and pacyence / and the bulles were prowde and blak fauf only thre By the bulles is to vnderstande the selaufhyp of the round table whiche for their fynne and their wyckednes ben black/ 5 Blaknes is to faye withoute good or vertuous werkes / and the thre bulles which were whyte fauf only one that was spotted / The two whyte bitokenen fyr Galahad and fir percyual

 And why tho thre were teyed by the neckes / they be thre knshalle be foo lene that hit shalle be merueylle to see them / And of the thre bulles withoute spotte / the one shalle come ageyne/and the other two neuer

¶ Capitulum Quartum

T Henne fpak Nacyen vnto Ector sothe lit is that la- 25 uncelot and ye came doune of one chayer / the chayer betokeneth maisterfhip and lordfhip whiche ye came doune fro / But ye two knyghtes sayd the heremyte ye goo to feke that ye shalle neuer fynde that is the Sancgreal For hit is the fecrete thyng of oure lord Ihesu Cryfte / what is to meane that fyre 30 Launcelot felle doune of his hors / he hath left pryde / and taken hym to humylyte / for he hath cryed mercy lowde for his fynne and fore repented hym / and our lorde hath clothed hym in his clothynge whiche is ful of knottes that is the hayre that he we-ryth dayly / ¶ And the affe that he rode vpon is a beeft of 35 humylyte / For god wold not ryde vpon no ftede nor vpon no palfrey / So in ensample that an affe betokeneth mekenes that thou sawest fyr Launcelot ryde on in thy slepe / and the welle where as the water fanke from hym whanne he shold haue ta-5 ken therof / And whanne he sawe he myghte not haue it / he returned thyder from whens he came / for the welle betokeneth the hyghe grace of god / the more men desyre hit to take hit / the more shalle be their desyre / Soo whanne he came nyghe the Sanc-greal / he meked hym that he held hym not a man worthy to be 10 foo nyghe the holy vessel / for he had ben foo defouled in dedely synne by the fpace of many yeres / yet whanne he kneled to drynke of the welle / there he sawe grete preuydence of the Sanc-greal / And for he had serued foo longe the deuylle / he shal haue vengeance four and twenty dayes longe / for that he hath 15 ben the deuyls seruauant four and twenty yeres / And thenne foone after he shalle retorne vnto Camelot oute of this couñtre and he shalle saye a parte of fuche thynges as he hath fonde ¶ Now wille I telle yow what betokeneth the hande with the candel and the brydel / that is to vnderstande the holy ghoſt whe-20 re charyte is euer / and the brydel fygnifyeth abſtynence / For whanne ſhe is brydeled in Cryſten mans herte / ſhe holdeth hym foo ſhorte that he falleth not in dedely synne / And the candell whiche ſheweth clerenesse and fyghte fygnifyeth the ryȝt way of Iheſu Cryſt / And whanne he wente and ſayd knyghtes 25 of poure feythe and of wycked byleue / theſe thre thynges ſayled charyte / abſtynence / and trouth / therfor ye maye not atteyne that hye aduenturr of the Sancgreall

¶ Capitulum Quintum

Ertes ſayd Gawayne / ſothely haue ye ſayd that I ſee it openly / ¶ Now I pray yow good man and holy 30 fader telle me why we mette not with foo many aduentures as we were wonte to doo / and comynly haue the better / ¶ I ſhalle telle yow gladly ſayd the good man / The aduenture of the Sancgreall whiche ye and many other haue vndertake þe queſt of it & fynde it not / the cauſe is / for it appiereth not to synners / wherfore merueylle not though ye fayle therof and many other / For ye be an vntrue knyghte / and a grete murtherer / and to good men fygnefyeth other thynges than murther / For I dar saye as synful as fyre launcelot hath ben fythe he wente in to the quest of the Sancgreal / he flewe neuer man / nor nought shalle tyll that he come vnto Camelot ageyne / for he hath taken vpon hym for to forsake synne / And nere were that he nys not stable / but by his thoughte he is lykely to torne ageyne / he shold be nexte to encheue it sauf Galahad his sone / but god knoweth his thoughte and his vnstabylneffe / and yet shalle he dye ryght an holy man / and no doubte he hath no felawe of no ertely synful man / Sir sayd Gawayne hit semeth me by your wordes that for oure synnes it wylle not auaylle vs to trauaylle in this quest / Truly sayd the good man / there ben an honderd suche as ye be / that neuer shalle preuayle / but to haue shame / And whanne they had herd these voyces they commaunded hym vnto god / ¶ Thenne the good man called Gawayne and sayd it is lon-ge tyme passed syth that ye were made knyghte / and neuer fythen thou seruedest thy maker / and now thou arte soo old a tree that in the is neyther lyf ne fruyte / wherfore bethynk the that thou yelde to oure lord the bare rynde / fythe the fende hath

 I wold speke with yow / but my felawe here syr Ector is gone and abydeeth me yonder bynethe the hylle / wel sayd the good man thou were better to be counceylled / Thenne departed Gawayne ande came to Ector / and soo took their horsfes & rode tyl they came to a fosters hows whiche herberowed them ryght wel / And on the morne they departed from theyr hooft / and rode longe or they coude fynde any aduenture

¶ Capitulum Sextum

WHanne Bors was departed from Camelot / he mette with a Relygyous man rydyng on an asse / and fyre Bors falewed hym / Anon the good man knewe hym that he was one of the knyghtes erraunt that was in the quest of the Sancgreal / what are ye sayd the good man / Sire sayd 35 he / I am a knyȝte that fayn wold be counceyllid in the quest of the Sancgreal / For he shall haue moche erthely worship that may brynge it to an ende / Certes sayd the good man that is fothe / for he shalle be the best knyghte of the world and the fai-5 reft of alle the felawship / But wete yow wel there shall none atteyne it but by clenness that is pure confession / So rode they to gyder tyl that they came to an heremytage / And there he pra-yd Bors to dwelle alle that nyghte with hym / and foo he a-lyghte and put away his armour / and prayd hym that he 10 myghte be confessid / and foo they wente in to the chappel / and there he was clene confessid / & they ete brede and drank water to gyder / Now sayd the good man I praye the that thou ete none other / tyl that thou sytte at the table where the Sanc-greal shalle be / Sir sayd he I agree me therto / but how wete 15 ye that I shall sytte there / yes sayd the good man that knowe I / but there shalle be but fewe of your felawes with yow / All is welcome sayd sir Bors that god fendeth me / Also said the good man / in stede of a sherte and in fygne of chastryfement ye shal were a garment / therfor I pray yow doo of al your clo-20 thes and your sherte / and foo he dyd / And thenne he tooke hym a scarlet cote so that shold be in stede of his sherte / tyll he had fulfilled the quest of the Sancgreal / and the good man fond hym in foo merueillous a lyfe / and foo stable / that he merueilled and felte that he was neuer corrupte in flesshely he armyd hym and took his leue and so departed / And foo a lytel from thens he loked vp in to a tree / and there he sawe a passynge grete byrde vpon an olde tree / and hit was passyng drye withoute leues / and the byrd sat aboue and had byrdes 30 the whiche were dede for honger / Soo smote he hym self with his bek the whiche was grete and sharpe / And foo the grete byrd bledde tyl that he dyed amonge his byrdes / And the yonge byrdes token the lyf by the blood of the grete byrd / whan Bors sawe this he wyft wel it was a grete tokenynge / For 35 whanne he sawe the grete byrd arofe not / thenne he tooke hys hors and yede his way / So by euenfonge by aduentur he cam to a strong toure and an hyhe / & there was he lodged gladly /

¶ Capitulum Septimum

ANd whanne he was vnarmed / they ledd hym in to an hyhe toure where was a lady yonge / lusty and fayre / And she receyued hym with grete Ioye / and made hym to fyttre doune by her / and foo was he sette to soupe with fleshe / and many deyntees / And whanne fyre Bors sawe that / he 5 bethought hym on his penaunce and badde a squyer to brynge hym water / And foo he broughte hym / and he made foppes therin / and ete them / A sayd the lady / I trowe ye lyke not my mete / yes truly sayd fyr Bors / god thanke yow madame but I may ete none other mete this daye / thenne she spak no- 10 more as at that tyme / for she was lothe to displease hym / ¶ Thenne after souper they spak of one thyng and other / With that came a squyer and sayd / Madame ye must purueye yow to morne for a champyor / for els your syfter wille haue this castel and also your landes excepte ye can fynde a knyght 15 that wille fyghte to morne in your quarel ageynst Prydam le noyre / Thenne she made sorowe and sayd / A lord god wherfor graunted ye to hold my lond wherof I shold now be disherytred withoute reafon and ryghte / And whanne fyre Bors had herd her say thus / he sayd I shalle comferte yow / Syr fa- 20 yd she I shal telle yow there was here a kyng that hyghte Anyaufe / whiche held alle this land in his kepyng / Soo hit myshapped he loued a gentilwoman a grete dele elder than I Soo tooke he her alle this land to her kepyng / and all his men to gouerne / and she brought vp many euylle custommes whe- 25 re by she putte to dethe a grete party of his kynnesmen / And whanne he sawe that / he lete charce her oute of this land / and bytoke hit me / and alle this land in my demenys / but anone as that worthy kyng was dede / this other lady beganne to werre vpon me / and hath destroyed many of my men / & tour- 30 ned hem ageynste me / that I haue wel nyghe no man leste me And I haue nought els but this hyhe toure that she leste me And yet she hath promysed me to haue this Toure withoute I can fynde a knyghte to fyghte with her Champyon / Now telle me sayd fyr Bors / what is that Prydam le noyre / fyre 35 sayd she he is the moost doubted man of thys land / ¶ Now may ye fend her word that ye haue fond a knyghte that shall fyghte with that Prydam le noyre in goddes quarel & yours / Thenne that lady was not a lytel glad / and sente word that she was purueyed / and that nyghte Bors had good chere / 5 but in no bedde he wold come / but leyd hym on the floore / nor neuer wold doo otherwyfe tyl that he had met with the quest of the Sancgreal /

¶ Capitulum Octauum

ANd anone as he was a flepe / hym befelle a vyfyon / that there came to hym two byrdes / the one as whyte 10 as a swan / and the other was merueylous blak / but it was not foo grete as the other / but in the lykenes of a Rauen / thē-ne the whyte byrd came to hym / and fayd / and thou woldest gyue me mete and ferue me / I shold gyue the alle the ryches of the world / And I shalle make the as fayre and as why-15 te as I am / Soo the whyte byrd departed / and there came the blak byrd to hym & fayd / & thou wolte ferue me to morowe & haue me in no despyte / though I be blak / for wete thou wel / that more auayleth my blaknes than the others whytnes / and thenne he departed / and he had another vyfyon / hym thoughte / 20 that he came to a grete place whiche semed a chappel / & there he fonde a chayer fette on the lyfte fyde whiche was worme eten / and feble / And on the ryghte hand were two floures lyke a lylle / and the one wold haue benome the others whytnes But a good man departed hem that touched not the other / & 25 thenne oute of eueryche floure came oute many floures and fruyte grete plente / Thenne hym thoughte the good man fayd / shold not he doo grete foly that wold lete these two floures perryshe for to focoure the rotten tree that hit felle not to the erthe Syr fayd he / it semeth me that this woode myghte not auayle 30 Now kepe the fayd the good man that thou neuer fec fuche aduenture befall the / Thenne he awaked and made a fygne of the croffe in myddes of the forhede / and foo rose / & clothed hym and there came the lady of the place / and she salewed hym / & he her ageyne / and so wente to a chappel and herd their seruyse 35 And ther came a companye of knyghtes that the lady had sent for to lede fir Bors vnto bataille / Thenne asked he his armes And whanne he was armed / she prayd hym to take a lytyl morfel to dyne / Nay madame sayd he / that shalle I not do tyll I haue done my bataille by the grace of god / And soo he lept vpon his hors / and departed alle the knyghtes and men with 5 hym / And as soone as thefe two ladyes mette to gyder / She whiche Bors shold fyghte for complayned her and sayd madame ye haue done me wronge to bireue me of my landes that kyinge Anyaus gaf me / and ful lothe I am there shold be ony bataille / ye shalle not chese sayd the other lady or els youre 10 knyghte withdrawe hym / Thenne ther was the crye made whiche party had the better of tho two knyghtes that his lady sh-old reioyse alle the lande / Now departed the one knyghte here/and the other there / Thenne they came to gyders with suche a raundon that they perced their sheldes and their hauberkes / & 15 the speres flewe in pyeces / and they wounded eyther other fore / Thenne hurteled they to gyders so that they felle both to the erthe / and their horses betwix their legges / and anone they arose and fette handes to their swardes / and smote echone other vpon the hedes that they made grete woundes and depe that the 20 blood wente oute of her bodyes / For ther fond fir Bors gret-ter defence in that knyght more than he wende / For that Pry-dam was a passynge good knyghte / and he wounded fir bors ful euyl and he hym ageyne / but euer this Prydam helde the stoure in lyke hard / That perceyued fyre Bors and suffred 25 hym tyl he was nyghe attaynte / ¶ And thenne he ranne vpon hym more and more / and the other wente bak for drede of deth Soo in his withdrawynge he felle vp ryght / and fyre Bors drewe his helme soo strongly that he rente hit fro his hede / and gafe hym grete strokes with the flatte of his sward vpon the 30 vyfage / and bad hym yelde hym or he shold flee hym / Thenne he cryed hym mercy and sayd Faire knyght for god-des loue flee me not / and I shalle ensure the neuer to werre ageynst thy lady / but be alwey toward her / Thenne Bors lete hym be / thenne the old lady fledde with alle her knyghtes 35

¶ Capitulum ix

¶ Capitulum nonum

Soo thenne came Bors to alle tho that held landes of his lady / and fayd he shold deftroie hem / but yf they dyd fuche seruyfe vnto her as longed to their landes / Soo they dyd their homage and they that wold not were chaced oute 5 of their landes / Thenne befelle that yonge lady to come to her estate ageyne by the myghty prowesse of fyr Bors de ganys Soo whan alle the countrey was wel fet in pees / thenne fyre Bors toke his leue and departed / and she thanked hym gre-tely / and wold haue gyuen hym grete rycheffe but he refused 10 hit / Thenne he rode alle that day tyl nyght / and came to an herberowe to a lady whiche knewe hym wel ynough / & maade of hym grete Ioye / Vpon the morne as soone as the day appiered / Bors departed from thens / and soo rode in to a foreste / vnto the houre of mydday / and there bifelle hym a merueyllo-15 us aduenture / So he mette at the departyng of the two wayes two knyghtes that ledde lyonel his broder al naked bounden vpon a straunge hakney / & his handes bounden to fore his breft And eueryche of hem helde in his handes thornes where with they wente betynge hym so fore that the blood trayled dounce 20 more than in an honderd places of his body / soo that he was al blood to fore and behynde / but he said neuer a word as he whiche was grete of herte / he suffred alle that euer they dyd to hym as though he had felte none anguyfhe / Anone fyre Bors dresseid hym to rescowe hym that was his broder / and 25 soo he loked vpon the other fyde of hym / and sawe a knyghte whiche brought a fair gentylwoman / and wold haue fet her in the thyckest place of the forest for to haue ben the more furer oute of the way from hem that fought hym / And she whiche was no thyng assured cryed with an hyghe voys Saynte 30 mary focoure your mayde

¶ And anone she aspyed where fyre Bors came rydyng / And whanne she came nygh hym / she demed hym a knyghte of the round table / wherof she hoped to haue some comforte / & thenne she coniured hym by the feythe that he ought vnto hym 35 in whos seruyfe thow arte entryd in / and for the feythe ye owe vnto the hyghe ordre of knyghthode / & for the noble kyng

Arthurs fake that I suppoſe that made the knyght that thou help me / and ſuffre me not to be ſhamed of this knyghte / ¶ Whanne Bors herd her ſaye thus / he had foo moche ſorowe there he nyſt not what to doo / For yf I lete my broder be in aduenture he muſt be ſlayne / and that wold I not for alle the 5 erthe And yf I help not the mayde / ſhe is ſhamed for euer / and alſo ſhe ſhall leſe her vyrgynyte / the whiche ſhe ſhal neuer gete ageyne / Thenne lyfte he vp his eyen and ſayd wepynge / Fair ſwete lord Iheſu Cryſte whoos lyege man I am kepe Lyonel my broder that theſe knyghtes ſlee hym not / and for 10 pyte of yow / and for Mary ſake I ſhall focoure this mayde /

¶ Capitulum x

THenne dreſſid he hym vnto the knyghte / the whiche had the gentylwoman / and thenne he cryed ſir knyghte lete your hand of that mayden or ye be but dede / & thenne he ſette doune the mayden / and was armed at alle pyeces ſauf 15 he lacked his ſpere / Thenne he dreſſid his ſheld / and drewe oute his ſwerd / and Bors ſmote hym foo hard that it went thurgh his ſhelde and haberion on the lyfte ſhoulder / and thowrowe grete ſtrengthe he bete hym doune to the erthe / and at the pullynge oute of Bors ſpere there he ſwouned / 20

¶ Thenne came Bors to the mayde / and ſayd how ſemeth it yow of this knyghte / ye be delyuerd at this tyme / ¶ Now ſir ſaid ſhe I praye yow lede me there as this knyghte hadde me foo ſhall I do gladly / & took the hors of the wounded knyght and ſette the gentylwoman vpon hym / and foo broughte her 25 as ſhe deſyred / Sir knyghte ſayd ſhe / ye haue better ſped than ye wend / for and I had loſt my maydenhede / fyue honderd men ſhold haue dyed for hit / what knyghte was he that had yow in the foreſt / by my ſeithe ſayd ſhe / he is my coſyn / So wote I neuer with what engyn the fende enchauffed hym / for yesterday 30 he took me from my fader pryuely / for I nor none of my faders men myſtruded hym not / And yf he hadde hadde my maydenhede / he ſhold haue dyed for the ſynne & his body ſhamed & diſhonoured for euer / Thus as ſhe ſtood talkyng with hym there came twelue knyghtes ſekyng after her / and anone ſhe 35 told hem alle how Bors had delyuerd her / thenne they maad grete Ioye and befoughte hym to come to her fader a grete lord and he shold be ryght welcome / Truly sayd Bors that may not be at this tyme / for I haue a grete aduentur to doo in this 5 countrey / Soo he commaunded hem vnto god and departed / Thenne fyr Bors rode after Lyonel his broder by the trace of their horses / thus he rode sekyng a grete whyle / Thenne he ouertoke a man clothed in a Relygyous clothynge / and rode on a stronge black hors blacker than a bery / and sayd fyre knyghte 10 what seke yow / Syre sayd he I seke my broder that I sawe within a whyle beten with two knyghtes / A Bors discom-forte yow not / ne falle in to no wanhope / for I shall telle you tydynges suche as they ben / for truly he is dede / Thenne shewed he hym a newe slayne body lyenge in a busshe / and it semed 15 hym wel that it was the body of Lyonel / and thenne he made suche a forowe that he felle to the erthe all in a swoone / and lay a grete whyle there / And whanne he came to hym selfe / he said Faire brother syth the company of yow and me is departed shall I neuer haue Ioye in my herte / and now he whiche 20 I haue take vnto my maister / he be my help / And whanne he had sayd thus / he toke his body lyghtely in his armes / and putte hit vpon the arson of his fadel / And thenne he sayd to the man canst thou telle me vnto somme chappel where that I may burye this body / Come on said he / here is one fast by / and 25 foo longe they rood tyl they sawe a fayre Toure / and afore it there semed an old feble chappel / And thenne they alyght bo-the and put hym in to a Tombe of marbel

¶ Capitulum xi

Now leue we hym here sayd the good man / and goo we to oure herberowe tyl to morowe we wille come he-30 re ageyne to doo hym feruyse / Sir sayde Bors be ye a preeft / ye forsothe sayd he / thenne I pray yow telle me a dreame that befall to me þ^e last nyȝt / Say on sayd he / thenne he began foo moche to telle hym of the grete byrd in the forest / And after told hym of his byrdes one whyte / another black / and of of the rotten tree and of the whyte floures / fyre I shalle telle yow a parte now and the other dele to morowe / The whyte foule betokeneth a gentylwoman fayre and ryche whiche loued the peramours / and hath loued the longe

¶ And yf thou warne her loue she shalle goo dye anone yf 5 thou haue no pyte on her / that fygnifyeth the grete byrd / the whiche shalle make the to warne her / ¶ Now for noo fere that thou hast ne for no drede that thou hast of god / thou shalte not warne her but thou woldest not do hit for to be holden chaffor to conquere the loos of the veyne glory of the world / for 10 that shalle befall the now and thou warne her that Launcelot the good knyghte thy cosyn shalle dye / And therfore men shalle now saye þ^t thou art a man fleer / both of thy broder fyre Lyonel and of thy cosyn fyre launcelot du lake / the whiche thow myghtest haue faued and rescowed easly / But thou 15 weneft to rescowe a mayde whiche perteyneth no thyng to the ¶ Now loke thou whether hit had ben gretter harme of thy broders deth or els to haue suffred her to haue lost her mayden-hode / ¶ Thenne asked he hym haste thow herd the tokens of thy dreame the whiche I haue told to 20 yow / Ye forsothe sayd fyre Bors / alle youre expofycyon and declarynge of my dreame I haue wel vnderstande and herd / Thenne said the man in this black clothynge / thenne is hit in thy defaute yf fyre Launcelot thy cosyn dye / ¶ Syre said bors that were me lothe / for wete ye wel there is no thyng in the 25 world but I had leuer doo hit than to see my lord fyre laun-celot du lake to dye in my defaute Chese ye now the one or the other said the good man / And thenne he led fyre Bors in to an hyghe Toure / and there he fonde knyghtes and ladyes tho ladyes sayde he was wel 30 come / and soo they vnarmed hym / ¶ And whanne he was in his dobblet / men broughte hym a mantel furred with ermyne and putte hit aboute hym / and thenne they made hym suche chere that he hadde forgotten alle his sorowe and anguyfshes / and only sette his herte in these delytes and deyntees / & tooke 35 noo thoughte more for his broder fyre Lyonel neyther of fyre Launcelot du lake his cosyn / And anone came oute of a chamber to hym the fayrest lady that euer he sawe & more rycher byfene than euer he fawe Quene Gueneuer or any other estat Lo fayd they fyre Bors here is the lady vnto whome we owe alle oure feruyle / and I trowe ſhe be the rycheſt lady and the fayreſt of alle the world / and the whiche loueth yow beſt abo-5 ue alle other knyghtes / for ſhe wille haue no knyght but yow And whanne he vnderſtood that langage he was abaffhed / Not for thenne ſhe ſalewed hym / and he her / and thenne they fatte doune to gyders and ſpak of many thynges / in ſoo moche that ſhe beſoughte hym to be her loue / for ſhe had loued hym a-10 bone alle erthely men / and ſhe ſhold make hym rycher than e-uer was man of his age / ¶ Whanne Bors vnderſtood her wordes / he was ryght euyll at eaſe / whiche in no maner wold not breke chaſtyte / ſoo wyſt not he how to anfuer her /

¶ Capitulum xij

A Llas fayd ſhe Bors ſhalle ye not doo my wylle / Ma-15 dame ſaid Bors / there is no lady in this world whos wylle I wylle fulfyll as of this thyng / for my broder lyeth dede whiche was ſlayne ryght late / A Bors fayd ſhe I haue loued yow longe for the grete beaute I haue ſene in yow / and the grete hardynes that I haue herd of yow that nedes ye muſt 20 lye by me this nyghte / & therfor I praye yow graunte it me / ¶ Truly fayd he I ſhalle not doo hit in no maner wyſe / thenne ſhe made hym fuche ſorowe as though ſhe wold haue dyed/wel Bors fayd ſhe vnto this haue ye broughte me nyghe to myn ende / And there with ſhe took hym by the hand / & badde 25 hym behold her / and ye ſhal ſee how I ſhalle dye for your loue / A fayd thenne he that ſhalle I neuer ſee / Thenne ſhe departed and wente in to an hyhe batilment / and led with her twelue gentylwymmen / and whan they were aboue one of the gentylwymmen cryed and fayd ¶ A fyr Bors gentil kny-30 ghte haue mercy on vs all / and ſuffre my lady to haue her wil And yf ye doo not we muſte ſuffre deth with oure lady for to falle doune of thys hyhe towre / And yf ye ſuffre vs thus to dye for ſoo lytel a thyng / alle ladyes and gentilwymmen wylle ſaye of you diſhonour / ¶ Thenne loked he vpward they femed alle ladyes of grete estate and rychely and well bysene / thenne had he of hem grete pyte / not for that he was vn-counceiled in hym self that leuer he had they alle had losfe their foules than he his / and with that they selle adoune alle at ones to the erthe / And whan he sawe that / he was al a- 5 baffhed / and had therof grete merueylle / with that he bleffyd his body and his vyfage / And anone he herd a grete noyse & a grete crye as though alle the fendes of helle had ben aboute hym / and there with he sawe neyther toure ne lady ne gentylwoman nor no chappel where he broughte his broder to / 10 Thenne helde he vp bothe his handes to the heuen and sayd / fayre fader god I am greuoufly escaped / and thenne he tooke his armes and his hors and rode on his way / Thenne he herde a clok fmyte on his ryght hand / and thydder he came to an Abbay on his ryght hand clofyd with hyhe walles / and there 15 was lete in / thenne they supposyd that he was one of the quest of the Sangreal / So they ledde hym in to a chamber and vn-armed hym / Syrs sayd fyr Bors yf there be ony holy man in this hows / I pray yow lete me speke with hym / Thenne one of hem ledde hym vnto the Abbot whiche was in a Chappel / 20 And thenne fyr Bors fawed hym / and he hym ageyne / fir said Bors I am a knyght erraunt / and told hym all the aduenture whiche he had fene / Sir knyght sayd the Abbot I wote not what ye be / for I wende neuer that a knyght of your age myghte haue ben soo strong in the grace of our lord Ihe- 25 fu Cryst / Not for thenne ye shall go vnto your rest / for I wyll not counceyle yow this day / hit is to late / and to morowe I shalle counceyle yow as I can

¶ Capitulum xiiij

ANd that nyghte was fyre Bors serued rychely / and on the morne erly he herd masse / and the Abbot came 30 to hym / and bad hym good morow / and Bors to hym ageyne / And thēne he told hym he was a felawe of the quest of the Sangreal / and how he had charge of the holy man to ete brede and water / ¶ Thenne oure lord Ihesus Cryste shewed hym vnto yow in the lykenes of a fowle that suffred 35 grete anguyfſhe for vs fyn he was putte vpon the croſſe / and bledde his herte blood for mankynde / there was the token and the lykenes of the Sancgreal that appiered afore yow / for the blood that the grete foule blod reuyued the chlyckens from deth 5 to lyf / And by the bare tree is betokened the world whych is naked and withoute fruyte but yf hit come of oure lord / Alſo the lady for whome ye fought for and kyng Anyaus whiche was lord there to fore betokeneth Iheſu Cryſte / whiche is kyнге of the world / and that he foughte with the champyon 10 for the lady / this hit betokeneth / for whanne he took the bata-ille for the lady / by her ſhall ye vnderſtande the newe lawe of Iheſu Cryſt and holy chirche / and by the other lady ye ſhalle vnderſtande the old lawe and the fende whiche al day werriſh ageynſt holy chirche / therfor ye dyd your bataille with ryghte 15 For ye be Iheſu Cryſtes knyghtes / therfor ye oughte to be defenders of holy chirche / And by the black byrd myghte ye vn-derſtande holy chirche whiche fayth I am blak / but he is faire And by the whyte byrd myghte men vnderſtande the fende / & I ſhalle telle yow how the ſwan is whyte withoute forth and 20 blak within / hit is ypocryfy whiche is withoute yelowre or pale / and ſemeth withoute forth the ſeruauntes of Iheſu Cryſte but they ben within ſoo horryble of fylthe and ſynne and begyle the world euylle / Alſo whanne the fende appiered to the in lykenes of a man of relygyon and blamyd the that thow 25 leſte thy broder / For a lady ſoo ledde the where thow ſemyd thy broder was ſlayne / but he is yet on lyue / and alle was for to putte the in errour and brynge the vnto wanhope and lechery / for he knewe thou were tendyr herted / & all was / for thou ſholdeſt not fynde the bleſſid aduenture of the Sancgreal / and 30 the thyrdde foule betokeneth the ſtronge bataille ageynſt the fair ladyes whiche were alle deuyls / Alſo the drye tree and the whyte lylve the drye tree bitokeneth thy broder Lyonel whiche is drye withoute vertue / and therefore many men oughte to calle hym the rotten tree and the worme eten tree / for he is a 35 murtherer and doth contrary to the ordre of knyghthode / And the two whyte floures ſygnifyen two maydens / the one is a knyght whiche was wounded the other day / and the other is the gentylwoman whiche ye reſcowed and why the other flo-ure drewe nyghe the other / that was the knyghte which wold haue defowed her and hym self bothe / and fyr Bors ye had ben a grete foole and in grete perylle for to haue fene tho two floures peryfhe for to focoure the roten tree / for and they had synned to gyder they had ben dampned / and for that ye re- 5 scowed hem bothe / men myghte calle yow a veray knyghte and seruauant of Ihesu Cryfte /

¶ Capitulum xiiii

THenne wente sir Bors from thens and commaunded the Abbot vnto god / And thenne he rode alle that day and herberowed with an old lady / And on the morne he ro- 10 de to a Castel in a vale / and there he mette with a yoman goynge a grete paas toward a foreste / Saye me fayd fyre Bors canst thou telle me of ony aduenture / Syre fayd he / here shall be vnder this Castle a grete and a merueyllous turnement / of what folkes shal hit be fayd fyr Bors / The erle of playns 15 che sat al armed at the entre of the Chappel dore for to abyde there herberowe tyl on the morn that the turnement shalle be / And whanne sir Bors sawe hym / he had grete Ioye of hym / maye not make none auaunt / but as for you I mygt haue ben slayn whan ye sawe two knyghtes ledyng me away betyng me ye leste me for to focoure a gentilwoman / and suffred me in pe- 30 rylle of deth / for neuer erst ne dyd no broder to another so grete an vntrouthe / And for that mysdede now I ensure you but ward / and that shal ye fynde as soone as I am armed / whan sir Bors vnderstood his broders wrath / he knelyd doun to 35 the erthe / and cryed hym mercy / holdyng vp both his handes and prayd hym to forgyue hym his euyl wyll / Nay sayd Lyonel that shalle neuer be and I maye haue the hyher hand that I make myn auowe to god / thow shalt haue dethe for it 5 for it were pyte ye lyued ony lenger / Ryghte foo he wente in and took his harnais and mounted vpon his hors / and cam to fore hym and fayd / Bors kepe the from me / for I shall do to the as I wold to a felon or a traytour / for ye be the vntrueft knyght that euer came oute of foo worthy an hows / as was 10 kynge Bors de ganys / whiche was oure fader / therfore starte vpon thy hors / and foo shalle ye be moost at your auantage And but yf ye wyll / I wille renne vpon yow there as ye stande vpon foote / and foo the shame shalle be myn / and the harme yours / but of that shame ne reke I noughte / whan fyr 15 Bors sawe that he must fyghte with his broder or els to dye/he nyft what to doo / thenne his herte counceyled hym not therto in as moche as Lyonel was borne or he / wherfor he ought to be-re hym reuerence / yet kneled he doune afore Lyonels hors feet/and sayd fair fwete broder haue mercy vpon me / and fle me 20 not / and haue in remembraunce the grete loue whiche oughte to be bitwene vs tweyne / what fyr Bors sayd to Lyonel he ro-ughte not / for the fende had broughte hym in fuche a wyl that he shold flee hym / Thenne whanne Lyonel sawe he wold none other / and that he wold not haue ryfen to gyue hym bataille/25 he raffhed ouer hym so that he smote Bors with his hors feete vpward to the erthe / and hurte hym so fore that he fwounded of distresse / the whiche he felte in hym self to haue dyed with-oute confession / Soo whanne Lyonel sawe this / he alyghte of his hors to haue smyten of his hede / And foo he toke hym by 30 the helme / and wold haue rente hit from his heed / ¶ Thenne came the heremyte rennyng vnto hym whiche was a good man and of grete age / and wel had herd alle the wordes that were bitwene them / and foo felle doune vpon fyre Bors

¶ Capitulum xv

35 Thenne he sayd to Lyonel A gentyl knyghte haue mercy vpon me and on thy broder / for yf thow flee hym / [leaf 342 verso]

thow shalte be dede of fynne / and that were sorouful / for he is one of the worthyest knyghtes of the world / and of the best condycyons / Soo god me help sayd Lyonel fyr preest / but yf ye flee from hym I shall flee yow / and he shalle neuer the sooner be quyte / Certes sayd the good man I haue leuer ye flee 5 me than hym / for my dethe shalle not be grete harme not halfe foo moche as of his / wel sayd Lyonel I am greed / and sette his hand to his fwerd and smote hym foo hard that his he-de yede bakward / Not for that he restrayned hym of his euyll wyll / but took his broder by the helme and vnaced hit to ha- 10 ue sryken of his hede / and had slayn hym withoute fayle but foo it happed Colgreuaunce a felawe of the round table cam at that tyme thyder as oure lordes wyll was / And whanne he sawe the good man slayne he merueylled moche what it myght be / And thenne he beheld Lyonel wold haue slayne 15 his broder / and knewe fyre Bors whiche he loued ryȝt wel Thenne starte he doune and toke Lyonel by the sholders and drewe hym strongly abak from Bors / and sayd Lyonel wyll ye flee your broder the worthyest knyghte of the world one / & that shold noo good man suffer / why sayd Lyonel / wyll ye 20 lette me / therfor yf ye entermete yow in this I shall flee you and hym after / why sayd Colgreuaunce is this sothe that ye wille flee hym / flee hym wyll I sayd he / who so faye the contrary / For he hath done so moche ageynst me / that he hath wel deserued it / and foo ranne vpon hym / and wold haue smyten 25 hym thurgh the hede / and sir Colgreuaunce ranne betwix them and sayd & ye be so hardy to do foo more we two shal medle to gyders / when Lyonel vnderstood his wordes / he took his sheld afore hym / and asked hym what that he was / and he told hym Colgreuaunce one of his felawes / Thenne Lyonel defyed 30 hym / and gaf hym a grete stroke thurgh the helme / Thenne he drewe his fuerd / for he was a passyng good knyȝte / and defended hym ryȝt manfully / foo longe dured the batail that Bors rofe vp all anguyffhly & behelde Colgreuaunce the good kny-ght fought with his broder for his quarel / thenne was he full 35 fory and heuy / and thoughte yf Colgreuaunce flee hym / that was his broder / he sholde neuer haue Ioye / And yf his broder flew Colgreuaunce the shame shold euer be myn / Thenne wolde he haue ryfen to haue departed them / but he had not foo moche myghte to stande on foote / foo he abode hym foo longe tyl Col-greuaunce had the werfe / for Lyonel was of grete chyualrye and ryghte hardy / for he had perced the hauberk and the helme 5 that he abode but dethe / For he had lost moche of his blood that it was merueylle that he myghte stande vp ryghte / Thenne beheld he fyr Bors whiche sat dresyng hym vpward and said A Bors why come ye not to caste me oute of perylle of dethe wherin I haue put me to focoure yow whiche were ryght now 10 nyghe the dethe / Certes said Lyonel that shall not auayle you for none of you shalle bere others waraunt / but that ye shalle dye bothe of my hand / when Bors herd that / he dyd foo moche he rofe and putte on his helme / Thenne perceyued he fyrste the heremyte preeft whiche was slayne / thenne made he a merueil-15 lous forowe vpon hym /

¶ Capitulum xvi

THenne ofte Colgreuaunce cryed vpon fyre Bors / Why wylle ye lete me dye here for your sake / yf it ple-se yow that I dye for yow the dethe / it wille please me the better for to faue a worthy man / with that word fyre Lyo-20 nel smote the helme from his hede / Thenne Colgreuaunce sawe that he myght not escape / thenne he sayd Fair swete Ihesu that I haue mysdoo haue mercy vpon my fowle / For fuche forowe that my herte suffreth for goodenes and for almes dede that I wold haue done here / be to me a lygement of penaunce 25 vnto my foules helthe / At these wordes Lyonel smote hym foo fore that he bare hym to the erthe / foo whanne he had slayne Colgreuaunce / he ranne vpon his broder as a fendly man / & gaf hym fuche a stroke that he made hym stoupe / and he that was ful of humylyte prayd hym for goddes loue to leue this 30 bataille / For and hit befelle fayre broder that I slewe yow or ye me / we shold be dede of that synne / ¶ Neuer god me help but yf I haue on yow mercy and I maye haue the better hand / Thenne drewe Bors his furd al wepyng and sayd / Faire brother god knoweth myn entente / A fayre broder ye 35 haue done ful cuylle this daye to flee fuche an holy preeft the whiche neuer trespast / Also ye haue slayne a gentyl knyghte and one of oure felawes / And wel wote ye that I am not a-ferd of yow gretely / but I drede the wrathe of god / and this is an vnkyndely werre / therefore god shewe myracle vpon vs bothe / Now god haue mercy vpon me / though I defende my lyf ageynst my broder / with that Bors lyfte vp his hand / & wold haue smyten his broder /

¶ Capitulum xviij

ANd thēne he herd a voyce that sayd flee bors & touche hym not / or els thou shalt flee hym / Ryght so alyst a clowde betwixe them in lykenes of a fyre and a merueyllo-us flamme that bothe her two sheldes brente / ¶ Thenne were they fore affrayed that they felle bothe to the erthe / and laye there a grete whyle in a swoone / And whanne they came to them self Bors sawe that his broder had no harme / thenne he held vp bothe his handes / for he dradde god had taken venge-aunce vpon hym / with that he herd a voyce saye Bors go hens and bere thy broder noo lenger sclaushyp / but take thy way a-none ryghte to the see / For fire Percyual abydeeth the there / Thenne he sayd to his broder fayr swete broder forgyue me for goddes loue alle that I haue trespassed vnto yow / Thenne he answered God forgyue it the and I doo gladly / So sir Bors departed from hym and rode the nexte way to the see / And at the last by fortune he came to an Abbay whiche was nygh the see / That nyght Bors rested hym there / and in his slepe there came a voice to hym & badde hym go to the see / thenne he starte vp and made a sygne of the Crosse in the myddes of his forhede and took his harneis and made redy his hors / and mouted vpon hym / And at a broken walle he rode oute / & rode soo long tyl that he came to the see / And on the strond he fond a shyp couerd all with whyte samyte / And he alyghte & bitoke hym to Ihesu Cryst / And as soone as he entryd in to the ship the shyp departed in to the see and wente so fast that hym fe-med the shyp wente fleyng / but hit was soone derke soo that he myght knowe no man / and soo he slepte tyl hit was daye Thenne he awaked and sawe in myddes of the shyp a knyȝt lye alle armed fauf his helme / Thenne knewe he that hit was fyr Percyual of walys / and thenne he made of hym ryȝt grete Ioye / but fir Percyual was abasshed of hym / and he asked 5 hym what he was / A sayr fyr sayd Bors knowe ye me not / Certes sayd he I merueylle how ye came hyther / but yf oure lord broughte yow hyder hym self / thenne fyre Bors smyled and dyd of his helme / Thenne Percyual knewe hym / & eyther made grete Ioye of other that it was merueylle to here / 10 ¶ Thenne Bors told hym how he came in to the shyp / and by whoos amonysshement / and eyther told other of theyre temptacyons / as ye haue herd to fore hand / ¶ Soo wente they douneward in the see one whyle bakward another whyle forward / and eueryche comforted other / and 15 ofte were in their prayers / thenne sayd fyre Percyual we lak no thyng but Galahad the good knyghte

¶ And thus endeth the fyrtenth book whiche is of fyre Ga-wayne / Ector de marys / and fyre Bors de ganys and fir per-cual

¶ And here foloweth the seuententh book whiche is of the noble knyghte fyre Galahad /

¶ Capitulum primum

Ow faith this story whanne Galahad had rescowed Percyual from the twenty knyghtes / he yede tho in to a waste foreste / wherin he rode many Iourneyes / and he fonde many aduentures / the whiche he brought to an ende / wherof the story maketh here no mencyon / Thenne he toke his waye to the see on a daye / & hit befelle as he passed by a Castel where was a wonder turnement / but they withoute had done soo moche / that they within were putte to the werfe / yet were they wythin good knyghtes ynouȝ / whanne Galahad sawe that tho within were at soo grete a melfhyef that men slewe hem att the entre of the Castel / thenne he thoughte to helpe hem / and putte a spere forth / and smote the fyrste that he floy to the erthe / and the spere brak to pyeces / thenne he drewe his fuerd / and smote there as they were thyckest / and so he dyd wonderful dedes of armes / that alle they merueylled / thenne hit happed that Gawayne and sir Ector de marys were with the knyghtes withoute / But whanne they aspyed the whyte shelde with the red Croffe / the one sayd to the other yonder is the good knyght sir Galahad the haute prynce / Now he shold be a grete foole / whiche shold mete with hym to fyghte / Soo by aduenture he came by sire Gawayne and he smote hym soo hard that he claf his helme and the coyfe of yron vnto his hede / so that Gawayn felle to the erthe / but the stroke was soo grete that it slented doune to the erthe and carfe the hors sholder in two / Whan Ector sawe Gawayne doune he drewe hym afyde / and thoughte it no wysedome for to abyde hym / and also for naturel loue that he was his vnkel / Thus thurgh his grete hardyneffe he bete abak alle the knyghtes withoute / And thenne they within came oute and chaced hem alle aboute / But whanne Galahad sawe ther wold none torne ageyne / he stode away pryuely so that none wist where he was bicomme / Now by my hede sayd Gawayn to Ector now are the wonders true that were sayd of Launcelot du lake / that the swerd whiche stak in the stone shold gyue me suche a buffet þat I wold not haue it for the best Castell in this world / and sothely now hit is preued trewe for neuer ere had I fuche a stroke of mans hand / Sir sayd Ector me semeth your quest is done / and yours is not done sayd Gawayn but myn is done I shalle seke noo ferther / Thenne Gawayne was borne in to a Castel and vnarmed hym / and leyd 5 hym in a ryche bedde / and a leche fonde that he myght lyue / & to be hole within a moneth / Thus Gawayne and Ector abode to gyder / For fyre Ector wold not away til Gawayne were hole / & the good knyght Galahad rode so long tyll he came that nyghte to the Castel of Carbonceck / & hit befelle hym thus / that 10 he was benyghted in an hermytage / Soo the good man was fayne whan he sawe he was a knyght erraunt / tho whan they were at rest / ther cam a gentylwoman knockyng at the dore / & called Galahad / and foo the good man cam to the dore to we-te what she wold / Thenne she called the heremyte fyre Vlsyn 15 I am a gentylwoman that wold speke with the knyght whiche is with yow / Thenne the good man awaked Galahad / & badde hym aryse and speke with a gentylwoman that semeth hath grete nede of yow / Thenne Galahad wente to her & asked her what she wold / Galahad sayd she I will that ye arme you 20 and mouthe vpon your hors and folowe me / for I shall shewe yow within these thre dayes the hiest aduenture that euer ony knyght sawe / Anone Galahad armed hym and took his hors and commaunded hym to god / and badde the gentylwoman go and he wold folowe there as she lyked /

¶ Capitulum ij

25 Soo she rode as fast as her palfrey myght bere her tyll that she came to the see / the whiche was called Collybe And at the nyghte they came vnto a Castel in a valeye clofed with a rennyng water and with stronge walles and hye / & foo she entred in to the Castel with Galahad and there had he 30 grete chere for the lady of that Castel was the damoyfels lady / foo whan he was vnarmed / thenne said the damoyfel madame shalle we abyde here all this day / Nay sayd she but tyll he hath dyned and tyl he hath slepte a lytyl / so he ete and slepte a while tyl that the mayde called hym / and armed hym by torche lyght / And whan the mayde was horfed and he bothe the lady took Galahad a fayr child and ryche / and so they departed from the Castell tyl they came to the see fyde / & there they fond the shyp where Bors and Percyual were in / the whiche cryed on the shyps bord sir Galahad ye be welcome / 5 we haue abyden yow longe / And whan he herd them / he asked them what they were / Sir faid she leue your hors here / and I shall leue myn and toke her fadels and her brydels with them and made a crosse on them / and foo entryd in to the shyp / and the two knyghtes receyued hem bothe with grete Ioye / and e- 10 ueryche knewe other / and foo the wynde aroos / and drofe hem thurgh the see in a merucyllous place / And within a whyle it dawyd / Thenne dyd Galahad of his helme & his fuerd / & asked of his felawes from whens cam that fayre shyp / Truly sayd they ye wote as wel as we but of goddes grace / and 15 thenne they told eueryche to other of alle theire hard aduentures / and of her grete temptacyons / truly sayd Galahad ye are moche bounden to god for ye haue escaped grete aduentures and had not the gentylwoman ben / I had not comen here / for as for yow I wend neuer to haue fond yow in these straun- 20 ge countreyes / A Galahad faide Bors yf launcelot your fader were here / thenne were we wel at ease / for thenne me femed we fayled no thyng / That may not be fayde Galahad / but yf it pleafyd oure lorde / By thenne the shyp wente fro the londe of Logrys / and by aduenture it arryued vp betwix two roches 25 passyng grete and merucyllous / but there they myght not lon-de / for there was a fwalowe of the see / sauf there was another ship / and vpon it they myght goo withoute daunger / Goo we thyder sayd the gentylwoman / and there shalle we see aduentures / for foo is oure lordes wyll / ¶ And whanne they came 30 thyder / they fond the ship ryche ynou5 / but they fond neyther man ne woman therin / But they fonde in the ende of the ship two fayre letters wryten whiche sayd a dredeful word and a merucyllous / Thow man whiche shalle entre in to this shyp beware thou be in stedfast bileue for I am seith & therfor beware 35 hou thou entrest / for & thou faile I shal not helpe the / thenne faide the gētilwoman Percyual wote ye what I am / Certes faid nay to my wetyng / ¶ Wete you wel sayd she that I am thy fyfter / whiche am doughter of kynge Pellenore / And therefore wete ye wel ye are the man in the world that I moost loue / And yf ye be not in parfyte byleue of Ihesu Cryst entre not in no maner of wyfe / for thenne shold ye peryfthe the shyp 5 for he is soo parfyte / he wylle suffre no synner in hym / whanne Percyual vnderstode that she was his veray fyfter / he was inwardly glad and sayd / faire fyfter I shalle entre therin / For yf I be a mys creature or an vntrue knyghte there shalle I peryfthe

¶ Capitulum Tercium

10 IN the meane whyle Galahad blessed hym / & entrid therin / and thenne next the gentylwoman / & thenne sir Bors & sir Percyual / And whan they were in / it was so merueyllous fayre and ryche that they merueylled / & in myddes of the shyp was a fayr bedde / & Galahad wente therto / & fond 15 there a crowne of fylke / And at the feet was a swerd ryche & fayre / and hit was drawn oute of the sheathe half a foot and more / and the fuerd was of dyuerse facyons / and the pomel was of stone / and there was in hym alle manere of colours that ony man myght fynde / and eueryche of the colours hadde 20 dyuerse vertues / and the skalys of the hafte were of two ryb-bes of dyuerse beestes / the one beest was a serpent whiche was conuerfaunt in Calydone / and is called the serpent of the fend And the bone of hym is of fuche a vertu that there is no hand that handeleth hym shalle neuer be very nor hurte / and the 25 other beest is a fyfthe which is not ryght grete / and haunteth the flood of Euftrate / and that fyfthe is called Ertanax / and his bones be of fuche a maner of kynde that who that handeleth hem / shalle haue soo moche wille that he shalle neuer be very and he shalle not thynke on Ioye nor sorow that he hath had 30 But only that thyng that he beholdeth before hym / And as for this fuerd there shalle neuer man begrype hym at the han-dels but one / but he shalle passe alle other / In the name of god said Percyual I shall affaye to handle hit / Soo he sette his hand to the fuerd / but he myghte not begrype hit / by my feyth 35 said he now haue I fayled / Bors fet his hand therto & fayled Thenne Galahad beheld the fuerd and sawe letters lyke blood that sayd / lete see who shall affaye to drawe me oute of my shethe / but yf he be more hardyer than any other / & who that draweth me / wete ye wel that he shalle neuer fayle of shame of his body or to be wounded to the dethe / By my feyth said galahad I wold drawe this fuerd oute of the shethe / but the offendynge is foo grete that I shalle not fette my hand therto 5 Now firs said the gentilwoman wete ye wel that the drawy-nge of this fuerd is warned to alle men fauf al only to yow Also this shyp aryued in the realme of Logrys / and that tyme was dedely werre bytwene kynge labor whiche was fader vnto the maymed kynge and kynge Hurlame whiche was a 10 Sarafyn / But thenne was he newly crystend / foo that men helde hym afterward one of the wyttiest men of the world / & foo vpon a day hit befelle that kynge Labor and kynge Hurlame had assembled their folke vpon the see where this shyp was aryued / and there kyng Hurlame was discomfyte / and 15 his men slayne / and he was aferd to be dede / and fled to his shyp and there he fond this fuerd and drewe hit / and cam oute and fond kyng Labor the man in the world of al crystendom in whome was thenne the grettest feythe / ¶ And when kynge Hurlame sawe kynge Labor he dresid this fuerd / and smote 20 hym vpon the helme foo hard that he clafe hym / and his hors to the erthe with the fyrst stroke of his fuerd / and hit was in the realme of Logrys / and foo bifelle grete pestylence & grete harme to both Realmes / for sythen encrecyd neyther corne ne graffe nor wel nyghe no fruyte / ne in the water was no fyssh 25 werfor men callen hit the landes of the two marches the waste land / for that dolorous stroke / And when kynge Hurlame sa-we this fuerd foo keruyng / he torned ageyne to fetch the scau-bard / And foo came in to this shyp and entred and putt vp the fuerd in the shethe / And as soone as he had done it / he felle 30 doune dede afore the bedde / Thus was the fwerd preued that none ne drewe it but he were dede or maymed / So laye he ther tyl a mayden cam in to the shyp / and cast hym oute / for there was no man so hardy of the world to entre in to shypthat for the defence

¶ Capitulum quartum /

And thenne beheld they the scaubard / hit femed to be of a ferpentes skynne / And theron were letters of gold and fyluer / and the gyrdel was but pourely to come to / and not able to susteyne suche a ryche fuerd / and the let-5 ters fayd / he whiche shal welde me oughte to be more harder than any other yf he bere me as truly as me oughte to be born For the body of hym whiche I oughte to hange by he shal not be shamed in no place whyle he is gyrd with this gyrdel / nor neuer none be soo hardy to doo away this gyrdel / for it oughte 10 not be done away but by the handes of a mayde / and that she be a kynges doughter and quenes / and she must be a mayde alle the dayes of her lyf / bothe in wylle and in dede / And yf she breke her vyrgynte she shalle dye the moost vylaynous dethe that euer dyd any woman / Sir said Percyual torne this fuerd 15 that we may see what is on the other fyde / & hit was reed as blood with blak letters as any cole / whiche fayd / he that shal prayse me moost / moost shalle he fynde me to blame at a grete nede and to whome I shold be moost debonair shall I be most felon / and that shalle be at one tyme / Faire broder fayd she to 20 Percyual it befelle after a fourty yere after the passion of Ihesu Cryst that Nacyen thy broder in lawe of kyng Mordrayns was boren in to a Towne more than xiiij dayes Iourneye from his countrey by the commaundement of our lord in to an yle / in to the parties of the west that men clepyd the yle of Tur-25 naunce / Soo befelle hit that he fond this shyp at the entre of a roche / and he fond the bedde and his fuerd as we haue herd now / Not for thenne he had not soo moche hardynesse to drawe hit / and there he dwellid an eyght dayes / and at the nynythe day there felle a grete wynde whiche departed hym out of the 30 yle and brought hym to another yle by a roche / and there he fond the grettest gyaunt that euer man myghte see / therwith cam that horryble gyaunt to flee hym / and thenne he loked a-boute hym aad myghde not flee / and he had no thyng to defende hym with / Soo he ranne to his fuerd / and when he sawe 35 hit naked / he prayfed it moche / and thenne he shoke it / and ther-with he brak it in the myddes A said Nacyen the thyng that I moost prayfed ought I now moost to blame / and ther with he threwe the pyeces of his fuerd ouer his bedde / And after he lepte ouer the borde to fyghte with we gyaunt / and flewe hym And anone he entryd in to the shyp ageyne / and the wynde arose / and drofe hym thurgh the see / that by aduenture he came to another shyp where kynge Mordrayns was / whiche hadde ben tempted ful euyl with a fende in the porte of peryllous ro- 5 che / And whanne that one sawe the other / they made grete Io-ye of other / and eyther told other of their aduenture / & how the swerd fayled hym at his moost nede / Whanne Mordra-yns sawe the fuerd he prayfed hit moche / but the brekyng was not to doo / but by wyckednes of thy self ward / for thow arte 10 in somme synne / and there he took the fuerd / and sette the pe-cys to gyders / and they foudered as sayr as cuer they were to fore / and there putte he the swerd in the shethe / and leyd it doune on the bedde / Thenne herd they a voyce that sayd go out of this ship a lytel whyle / and entre in to the other for drede 15 ye falle in dedely synne / for and ye be fonde in dedely synne ye maye not escape but perysshe / and soo they wente in to the other shyp / And as Nacyen wente ouer the borde he was smyten with a swerd on the ryghte foote that he selle doune nose-lyng to the shyps bord / and there withe he sayd O god how 20 am I hurte / and thenne there came a voyce and sayd / take thow that for thy forfette that thow dydest in drawynge of this fuerd / therfor thow receyuest a wounde / for thow were neuer worthy to handel it / the wrytynge maketh mencyon / In SYr sayd she there was a kynge that hyghte Pelles the reed as blood / and other aboute grene as ony emeraude / of thefe thre colours were the spyndels and of naturel coloure within 10 and withoute ony payntyng / These spyndels fayd the damoyfel were whan fynful Eue came to gadre fruyte / for whiche Adam and she were putte oute of paradyse / she tooke with her the bough on whiche the Appel henge on / Thenne perceyued she that the braunche was fayre and grene / and she remembryd her 15 the losse whiche came fro the tree / Thenne she thoughte to kepe the braunche as longe as she myghte / And for she had no cofer to kepe hit in / she put it in the erthe / Soo by the wyll of our lord the braunche grewe to a grete tree within a lytil whyle / & was as whyte as ony snowe / braüches / bowes / and leues that 20 was a token a mayden planted hit / But after god came to Adam and bad hym knowe his wyf flesshly as nature requy-red / Soo lay Adam with his wyf vnder the same tree / and a-none the tree whiche was whyte and ful grene as ony grasse and alle that came oute of hit / and in the same tyme that they 25 medled to gyders there was Abel begoten / thus was the tree longe of grene colour / And so it befelle many dayes after / vnder the same tree Caym flewe Abel / wherof befelle grete merueil For anone as Abel had receyued the dethe vnder the grene tree he lost the grene colour and becam reed and that was in toke-30 nyng of the blood / & anone alle the plantes dyed therof / but the tree grewe and waxed merucyllously fayre / & hit was the fayrest tree & the moost delectable that ony man myght beholde and see and so dyd the plantes that grewe out of it tofore that Abel was slayne vnder it / Soo longe dured the tree tyl that 35 Salamon kynge Dauids sone regned / and helde the londe after his fader / This Salamon was wyse and knewe alle the vertues of stones and trees / and soo he knewe the course of the sterres and many other dyuerse thynges

This Salamon had an euylle wyfe / where thurgh he wende that there had ben no good woman / and foo he despyfed hem in his bookes / Soo anfuerd a voyce hym ones / Salamon / yf heuynes come to a man by a woman / ne reke thow neuer / For yet shalle there come a woman wherof there shalle come gretter 5 Ioye to man an honderd tymes more than this heuynesse geueth sorowe / and that woman shalle be borne of thy lygnage / Tho whan Salamon herd these wordes / he held hym self but a foole / & the trouthe he perceyued by old bookes / Also the holy ghooft shewed hym the comynge of the glorious vyrgyne 10 maye / Thenne asked he of the voyce / yf hit shold be in the yeerde of his lygnage / Nay sayd the voyce but there shalle come a man whiche shalle be a mayde / and the last of your blood / & he shalle be as good a knyght as duke Iofue / thy broder in lawe

¶ Capitulum vj

Now haue I certefyed the of that thow stodeft in doubte / thenne was Salamon glad that there shold come any siche of his lygnage / but euer he merueylled & studyed who that shold be / And what his name myghte be/his wyf perceyued that he studyed and thoughte she wolde 20 knowe it at some season / and so she wayted her tyme / & asked of hym the cause of his studyenge / and there he told her alle to gyder how the voyce tolde hym / Wei sayd she / I shalle lete make a shyp of the best wood and moost durable that men maye fynde / Soo Salamon sente for alle the Carpenters of the lond 25 and the best / And whan they had made the shyp / the lady fa-yd to Salamon / fyr sayd she / fyn hit is foo that this knyght ouzte to passe all knyghtes of cheualry whiche haue ben to fore hym / & shall come after hym / More ouer I shalle telle yow sayd she ye shalle goo in to oure lordes temple where is kynge 30 Dauids fuerd your fader / the whiche is the merueyllouft and the sharpest that euer was taken in any knyghtes hand / therfore take that / and take of the pomel / and therto make ye a pomel of precyous stones that it be foo subtylly made that noo man perceyue it / but that they be al one / & after make there an 35 hylte foo merueyllously and wonderly that noo man maye knowe hit / And after make a merueyllous sheth / And whan ye haue made alle this / I shalle lete make a gyrdel ther to suche as shalle pleafe me / Alle this kynge Salamon dyd lete make as she deuyfed / bothe the shyp and alle the remenaunt / And 5 whan the ship was redy in the see to fayle / the lady lete make a grete bedde and merueyllous ryche / and sette her vpon the bed-des hede couerd with fylke / and leyd the fuerd at the feete / & the gyrdels were of hempe / and there with the kynge was angry / Syr wete ye wel sayd she that I haue none foo hyghe a 10 thyng whiche were worthy to fusteyne foo hyhe a fuerd / and a mayde shall brynge other knyghtes ther to / but I wote not whanne hit shalle be ne what tyme / and there she lete make a couerynge to the shyp of clothe of fylke that shold neuer rote for no maner of weder / yet went that lady and maade a Car-15 penter to come to the tree whiche Abel was slayne vnder / Now sayd she carue me oute of this tree as moche woode as wyll make me a spyndyl / A madame sayd he / this is the tree / the whiche our fyrst moder planted / Do hit sayd she or els I shall destroye the / Anone as he beganne to werke / ther cam out drop-20 pes of blood / and thenne wold he haue lefte / but she wold not suffre hym // and foo he tooke aweye as moche wood as myzte make a spyndyl / and foo she made hym to take as moche of the grene tree and of the whyte tree / And whan these thre spyndels were shapen / she made hem to be fastned vpon the selar 25 of the bedde / whanne Salamone sawe this / he sayd to his wyf ye haue done merueylloufly / for though alle the world were here ryght now / he coude not deuyse wherfor alle this was made / but oure lord hym felf / and thow that hast done hit / wotest not what it shal betoken / Now late hit be sayd she / for ye shal 30 here tydynges fooner than ye wene /

¶ Now shalle ye here a wonderful tale of kyng Sa-lamon and his wyf

¶ Capitulum vii

T

Hat nyght lay Salamon bfore the ship with lytel fe-lauship / And whan he was on slepe / hym thoughte /

[leaf 349 verso]

there come from heuen a grete company of angels and alyghte in to the ship and took water whiche was broughte by an angel in a vessel of syluer / and sprente alle the shyp / And after he came to the fuerd and drewe letters on the hylte / And after wente to the shyps borde / and wrote there other letters / 5 whiche sayd thou man that wylt entre within me / beware that thow be ful within the feythe / for I ne am but feythe & byleue / whanne Salamon aspyed these letters he was abasshed/soo that he durste not entre / and soo drewe hym abak / and the shyp was anone shouen in the fee / and he wente soo faste that 10 he lost syghte of hym within a lytyl whyle / And thenne a ly-tyl voyce said / Salamon / the last knyghte of thy lygnage sh-alle reste in this bedde / Thenne wente Salamon and awaked his wyf / and told her of the aduentures of the shyp /

¶ Now sayth thyfstory that a grete whyle the thre felawes bi- 15 held the bedde / and the thre spyndels / than they were at cer-tayne that they were of naturel colours withoute payntyng / Thenne they leste vp a clothe whiche was aboue the ground & there fond a ryche purse by femynge / and Percyuale took hit/And fonde therin a wrytte / & soo he redde hit / and deuysed the 20 maner of the spyndels and of the shyp whens hit came / and by whome it was made / Now sayd Galahad where shalle we fynde the gentylwoman / that shalle make newe gyrdels to the fuerd / Fair fyre sayd Percyuals syfter / defmaye yow not / For by the leue of god I shalle lete make a gyrdel to the fuerd 25 suche one as shalle longe therto / And thenne she opend a boxe and toke oute gyrdels which were femely wroughte with golden thredys / and vpon that were sette ful precyous stones & a ryche buckel of gold / lo lordes said she / here is a gyrdel that oughte to be sette aboute the fuerd / And wete ye wel the gret- 30 test parte of this gyrdle was made of my here whiche I loued wel whyle that I was a woman of the world / But as so-one as I wyft that this aduenture was ordeyned me I clypped of my here / and made this gyrdel in the name of god / ye be wel y fonde said sir Bors / for certes ye haue put vs out of 35 grete payne wherin we shold haue entryd ne had your tydynges ben / Thenne wente the gentylwoman and sette hit on the gyrdel of the fuerd / Now sayd the selaufship what is the name of the fuerd / and what shalle we calle hit / Truly sayd she the name of the fuerd is the fuerd with the straunge gyrdels and the shethe meuer of blood / for noo man that hath blood in hym ne shalle neuer see the one party of the shethe whiche was ma-5 de of the tree of lyf / Thenne they sayd to Galahad In the name of Ihesu Cryste / and praye yow that ye gyrd you with this fuerd whiche hath ben defyred fo moche in the Realme of Logrys / Now lete me begynne sayd Galahad to grype thys fwerd for to gyue yow courage / But wete ye wel hit longeth 10 no more to me than it doth to yow / And thenne he grypde aboute hit with his fyngers a grete dele / And thenne she gyrte hym aboute the myddel with the fwerd / Now rek I not though I dye / for now I hold me one of the bleffid maydens of 15 the world whiche hath made the worthyest knyght of the world / Damoyfel sayd Galahad ye haue done soo moche that I shalle be your knyghte alle the dayes of my lyf / Thenne they wente from that shyp / and wente to the other / And anone the wynde droofe hem in to the see a grete paas but they had no vy-taille / but hit befelle that they came on the morne to a Castell 20 that men calle Carteloyse / that was in the marches of Scotlād And whan they had passed the porte / the gentylwoman sayde lordes here be men aryuen that and they wyfte that ye were of kyng Arthurs courte / ye shold be assayled anone / Damoyfell sayd Galahad he that cast vs oute of the Roche shalle deluy-25 er vs from hem

¶ Capítulum Octauum

Soo hit befelle as they spoken thus / there cam a squyer by them / and asked what they were / and they said they were of kyng Arthurs hows / is that sothe sayd he / Now by my hede sayd he ye be ylle arayed / and thenne torned he ageyn 30 vnto the clyff fortresse / And within a whyle they herd an horne blowe / Thenne a gentylwoman came to hem and asked hem of whens they were / and they told her / Faire lordes sayd she for goddes loue torne ageyne yf ye may / for ye be come vnto youre dethe / Nay they sayd we wille not torne ageyne / for he shalle 35 helpe vs in whos seruise we ben entred in / ¶ Thenne as they flode talkynge / there came knyghtes wel armed and bad hem yelde them or els to dye / that yeldyng sayd they shal be noyous to yow / and there with they lete theyr horses renne / and sir Percyual smote the formeſt to the erthe / and took his hors / & mounted therupon / and the ſame dyd Galahad / Alfo Bors ſerued another ſoo for they had no horses in that countrey / for they leſte their horses whan they toke their ſhypp in other countrayes / ¶ And ſoo whan they were horſed / thenne beganne they to ſette vpon them / and they of the Caſtel fled in to the ſtronge fortrefſe / and the thre knyghtes after them in to the Caſtel / and ſoo alyghte on foote / and with their ſwerdes ſlewe them doune and gate in to the halle / Thenne whan they beheld the grete multytude of peple / that they had ſlayne / they held them ſelf grete ſynners / Certes ſayd Bors / I wene & god had loued hem that we ſhold not haue had power to haue ſlayne hem thus / But they haue done ſoo moche ageyn our lord that he wold not ſuffre hem to regne no lenger / Say ye not ſoo ſayd Galahad / for yf they myfdyd ageynſt god / the vengeaunce is not ours / but to hym whiche hath power therof / So came there oute of a chamber a good man whiche was a preſt and bare goddes body in a coupe / And whanne he ſawe hem whiche lay dede in the halle / he was alle abaſhed / and Galahad dyd of his helme and kneled doune / and ſoo dyd his two ſelawes / fyre ſayd they haue ye no drede of vs / For we ben of kyng Arthurs courte / ¶ Thenne asked the god man how they were ſlayn ſo ſodenly / and they told it hym Truly ſayd the good man and ye myghte lyue as longe as the world myght endure / ne myghte ye haue done ſoo grete an almeſſe dede as this / Sire ſayd Galahad I repente me moch in as moche as they were cryſtened / Nay repente yow not fa-yd he for they were not cryſtened / and I ſhalle telle you hou that I wote of this Caſtel / here was lord Erle Hernox not but one yere / and he had thre ſones good knyghtes of armes and a doughter the fayreſt gentylwoman that men knewe / ſoo tho thre knyghtes loued theyr ſyſter ſo ſore that they brente in loue / and ſo they lay by her maulgre her hede / And for ſhe cry-ed to her fader / they ſlewe her and took their fader / and putte hym in pryſon / and wouDED hym nygh to the deth / but a coſyn of hers rescowed hym / And thenne dyd they grete vntrouthe/they slewe clerkes and preestes / and made bete doune chap-pels that oure lordes seruyse myght not be serued ne fayd / and this fame day her fader sente to me for to be confessed & hou-5 feld / but fuche shame had neuer man as I had this day with the thre bretheren / but the erle badde me suffer / for he fayde they shold not longe endure / for thre seruantes of oure lord shold destroye them / and now hit is brought to an ende / And by this maye ye wete our lord is not displeasyd with your dedes 10 Certes sayd Galahad and hit had not pleasid our lord / neuer shold we haue slayne soo many men in soo lytel a whyle / & thenne they broughte the erle Hernox oute of pryson in to the myddes of the halle that knewe Galahad anone / and yet he fawe hym neuer afore but by reuelacyon of our lord

¶ Capitulum ix

15 THenne beganne he to wepe ryght tendyrly & said long haue I abyden your comynge / but for goddes loue holdeth me in your armes that my fowle may departe oute of my body in soo good a mans armes as ye be / Gladly sayd Galahad / And thenne one sayd on hyghe that alle herde / Galahad/20 wel hast thou auenged me on goddes enemyes / Now behoueth the to goo to the maymed kyng as soone as thow maist / for he shalle receyue by the helthe whiche he hath abyden soo long / and ther with the fowle departed from the body / and Galahad made hym to be buried as hym ought to be / Ryght soo departed the 25 thre knyghtes and Percyualls syfter with them / And soo they came in to a waste foreste / and there they fawe afore them a whyte herte whiche four lyons ladde / Thenne they took hem to affent for to folowe after / for to knowe whydder they repayed and soo they rode after a grete paas til that they cam to a va-30 leye / & ther by was an hermytage where a good man dwellid and the herte and the lyons entryd also / soo whanne they fa-we all this / they torned to the chappel / and fawe the good man in a relygyous wede & in the armour of our lord / for he wold syng maffe of the holy ghooft / and soo they entryd in & herde masse / And at the secretyes of the masse / they thre sawe the hert become a man / the whiche merueyled hem and sette hym vpon the aulter / in a ryche sege / and sawe the four lyons were chaunged / the one to the forme of a man / the other to the forme of a lyon / and the thyrd to an Egle / and the fourth was ch- 5 aunged vnto an oxe / thenne toke they her sege / where the herte fat / and wente oute thurgh a glas wyndowe / and there was no thyng perysshed nor broken / and they herd a voyce say in fuche a maner entred the sone of god in the wombe of a mayd mary / whos vyrgynyte ne was perysshed ne hurte / & whanne 10 they herd these wordes they felle doune to the erthe / and were astonyed / and ther with was a grete clerenes / And whanne they were come to their self ageyn they wente to the good man and prayd hym that he wold say hem trouthe / What thyng ha ue ye fene sayd he / & they told hym all that they had fene / A 15 lordes sayd he ye be welcome / now wote I wel ye be the good knyghtes / the whiche shal bryng the Sancgreal to an ende / For ye ben they vnto whome oure lord shalle shewe grete secretes / and wel oughte oure lord be sygnified to an herte / For the herte whanne he is old / he waxeth yonge ageyne in hys 20 whyte skynne / Ryght soo cometh ageyne oure lord from dethe to lyf / for he lost erthely fleshe that was the dedely fleshe / whyche he had taken in the wombe of the bleffid vyrgyn mary / & for that cause appiered oure lord as a whyte herte withoute spot / and the foure that were with hym is to vnderstande the 25 foure euuangelystes whiche sette in wrytyng a parte of Ihesu Crystes dedes that he dyd somtyme whan he was amonge yow an erthely man / for wete ye wel neuer erst ne myghte no knyghte knowe the trouthe / for oftymes or this oure lord shewed hym vnto good men and vnto good knyghtes in ly- 30 kenes of an herte But I suppoſe from hens forth ye shalle see no more / and thenne they Ioyed moche / and dwelled ther alle that day / ¶ And vpon the morowe whan they had herde masse / they departed and commaunded the good man to god and soo they came to a Castel and passed by / So there came a 35 knyghte armed after them and sayd lordes herke what I shal saye to yow

¶ Capitulum x

This gentylwoman that ye lede with yow is a mayde / Syr said she / a mayde I am / Thenne he took her by the brydel / and sayd by the holy croffe ye shalle not escape me to fore ye haue yolden the customme of this Castel / lete her go 5 yd Percyual ye be not wyfe / for a mayde in what place she cometh is free / Soo in the meane whyle there came oute a ten or twelue knyghtes armed oute of the Castel / and with hem came gentylwymmen whiche held a dyffhe of fyluer / and thenne they sayd this gentylwoman muft yelde vs the customme 10 of this Castel / fir sayd a knyghte / what mayde passeth here by shalle yeue this dyffhe ful of blood of her ryghte arme / blame haue he sayd Galahad that broughte vp fuche custommes / and foo god me faue I enfore yow of this gentylwoman ye shal fayle whyle that I lyue / Soo god me help sayd Percyual I 15 had leuer be slayne / and I also sayd fir Bors / By my tro-uthe sayd the knyght / thenne shalle ye dye / for ye maye not endure ageynste vs / though ye were the best knyghtes of the world / thenne lete they renne eche to other / and the thre felawes bete the ten knyghtes / and thenne sette theire handes to 20 their fwerdes and bete them doune and flewe them / Thenne there came oute of the Castel a thre score knyghtes armed / Faire lordes sayd the thre felawes haue mercy on youre selfe and haue not adoo with vs / Nay fayre lordes sayd the knyghtes of the Castel we counceyl yow to withdrawe yow / for ye 25 ben the best knyghtes of the world / and therfore doo no more for ye haue done ynough / We wille lete yow go with this har-me but we muft nedes haue the customme / Certes sayd Galahad for nought speke ye / wel sayd they / wille ye dye / we be not yet come therto sayd Galahad / thēne beganne they to me-30 dle to gyders / and Galahad with the straunge gyrdels dre-we his suerd / and smote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand & flewe what that euer abode hym / & dyd fuche merueils that there was none that fawe hym / they wend he had ben none erthely man but a monstre / and his two felawes halp hym 35 passyng wel / and foo they held the Iourney eueryche in lyke hard tyl it was nyȝt / thenne muft they nedes departe / So cam in a good knyghte / and sayd to the thre felawes / yf ye wyll come in to nyght / and take fuche herberowe as here is / ye shal be ryght welcome / and we shall ensure yow by the feyth of our bodyes / and as we be true knyghtes to leue yow in fuche estat to morowe as we fynde yow withoute ony falshede / And as 5 soone as ye knowe of the custome we dare say ye wyll accorde therfor for goddes loue said the gentylwoman goo thyder and spare not for me / Go we sayd Galahad / and soo they entryd in to the chappel / And when they were alyghte / they made grete Ioye of hem / Soo within a whyle the thre knyghtes asked 10 the customme of the Castel and wherefor it was / what hit is sayd they we wille saye yow sothe /

¶ Capitulum xj /

THer is in this Castel a gentylwoman whiche we and this castel is hers and many other / Soo it befelle many yeres agone there fyllle vpon her a maladye / And whanne 15 she had layne a grete whyle she felle vnto a mesel / and of no leche she coude haue no remedy / But at the last an old man sayd and she myght haue a dysse ful of blood of a mayde and a clene vyrgyn in wylle and in werke / And a kynges doughter / that blood shold be her hele / and for to anoynte her 20 with alle / & for this thyng was this customme made Now said Percyuals syster sayr knyghtes I fee wel þ^t this gentylwoman is but dede / Certes sayd Galahad and ye blede foo moche ye maye dye / Truly sayd she / and I dye for to he-le her / I shal gete me grete worship and fowles helthe / and 25 worship to my lygnage / and better is one harme than tweyn And therfor ther shall be no more batail but to morne I shall yelde yow your customme of this castel / and thenne there was grete Ioye more than there was to fore / For els had there ben mortal werre vpon the morne / not withstandyng she wold no- 30 ne other whether they wold or nold / that nyght were the thre felawes eafyd with the best / & on the morne they herd masse / and sir Percyuals syster bad brynge forth the seke lady / so she was / the whiche was euylle at ease / thenne sayd she who shall lete me blood / Soo one came forth and lete her blood / and she bled foo moche / that the dyffhe was ful / thenne she lyfte vp her hand and bleffid her / And thenne she said to the lady / Madame I am come to the dethe for to make yow hole / for god-des loue prayeth for me / with that she felle in a fwounce / Thenne Galahad and his two felawes starte vp to her and lyfte her vp and staunched her / but she had bled foo moche that she myght not lyue / Thenne she sayd whan she was awaked sayre broder Percyual I dye for the helynge of this lady / Soo 10 I requyre yow that ye berye me not in this countrey / but as foone as I am dede / put me in a bote at the next hauen / and lete me goo as aduenture will lede me / And as foone as ye thre come to the Cyte of Sarras ther to encheue the holy graile ye shalle fynde me vnder a Towre arruyed / and there bery me 15 in the spyrytual place / for I saye yow foo moche there Galahad shalle be buryed and ye also in the same place / Thenne Percyual vnderstood these wordes and graunted it her wepyng / And thenne sayd a voyce lordes and felawes to mo-rowe at the houre of pryme ye thre shalle departe eueryche from 20 other tyl the aduenture brynge yow to the maymed kyng / Thenne asked she her faueour / and as foone as she had recey-ued hit / the foule departed from the body / Soo the same daye was the lady helyd whan she was enoynted with alle / Thenne fyr Percyuale made a letter of all that she had holpen 25 hem as in straunge aduentures / and put hit in her ryght hand and foo leyd her in a barge / and couerd it with blak fylke / and so the wynde aroos / and drofe the barge from the lond & alle knyghtes beheld hit / tyl it was oute of their syghte / Thenne they drewe alle to the Castel / and foo forthe with ther 30 felle a fodeyne tempest and thonder layte and rayne as alle the erthe wold haue broken / Soo half the castel torned vp foo doune / Soo it passed euenfonge or the tempest was seaced / Thenne they fawe afore hem a knyghte armed and wounded hard in the body and in the hede that sayd O god focoure me 35 for now it is nede / After this knyght came another knyghte / & a dwerf whiche cryed to hem afer / stand ye may not escape / Thenne the wounded knyghte held vp his handes to god that he shold not dye in fuchie trybulacyon / Truly sayd Galahad

I shalle focoure hym for his fake that he calleth vpon / Sir faid Bors I shalle doo hit / for it is not for yow / for he is but one knyghte / Sir fayd he I graunte / So fir Bors toke his hors and commaunded hym to god / and rode after to rescowe the wounded knyghte

¶ Now torne we to the two felawes /

¶ Capitulum xij
Mow faith the story that al nyght Galahad and Percuyal were in a chappel in her prayers for to saue fir Bors / ¶ Soo on the morowe they drestid hem in their harneis toward the Castel to wete what was fallen of them there 10 in / And when they cam there / they fond neyther man ne woman that he ne was dede by the vengeance of oure lord / with that they herd a voyce that fayd / this vengeance is for blood shedyng of maydens / Also they fonde atte ende of the chappel a Chirche yard / and therin myght they see a thre score fair tom- 15 bes / and that place was soo fayre and soo delectable that it semed hem there had ben none tempest / For there lay the body-es of alle the good maydens whiche were martred for the feke ladyes fake / Also they fond the names of eueryche / and of what blood they were come / and alle were of kynges blood & 20 twelue of them were kynges daughters / Thenne they departed and wente in to a foreste / Now faid Percuyal vnto Galahad we must departe / soo pray we oure lord that we maye mete to gyders in short tyme / thenne they dyd of their helmes and kyssed to gyder / and wepte at their departyng

¶ Capitulum xiiij
Mow sayth the history that whan launcelot was come to the water of Mortoyse as hit is rehersed before / he was in grete perylle / and soo he leyd hym doune and slepte/and toke the aduenture that god wold sende hym /

¶ Soo whan he was a slepe / there came a vyfyon vnto hym 30 and faid Launcelot aryse vp & take thyn armour / and entre in to the first ship that thou shalt fynde / ¶ And when he herd these wordes he starte vp and sawe grete clerenes about hym / And thenne he lyfte vp his hande and bleffid hym and fo toke his armes and made hym redy / and foo by aduenture he came by a stronde / & fonde a fhypp the which was withoute fayle or ore / And as foone as he was within the fhypp there he 5 felte the moost swetnes that euer he felt / and he was fulfilled with alle thyng that he thought on or defyred / Thenne he fayd Fair swete fader Ihesu Cryft I wote not in what Ioye I am For this Ioye paffeth alle erthely Ioyes that euer I was in And foo in this ioye he leyd hym doune to the fhyps borde / & 10 flepte tyl day / And when he awoke / he fonde there a fayre bed & therin lyenge a gentylwoman dede / the whiche was fyr per-cyuals fyfter / And as launcelot deuyfed her / he afpyed in hir ryght hand a wrytte / the whiche he redde / the whiche told hym all the aduentures that ye haue herd to fore / and of what lyg-15 nage fhe was come / Soo with this gentylwoman fir launcelot was a moneth and more / yf ye wold afke how he lyued / he that fedde the peple of Ifrael with manna in deferte / foo was he fedde / For euery day when he had fayd his prayers / he was fufteyned with the grace of the holy ghooft / So on a nyghte 20 he wente to playe hym by the water fyde / for he was fomwhat wery of the fhypp / And thenne he lyftned and herd an hors come / And one rydyng vpon hym / And whanne he cam nygh he femed a knyghte / And foo he lete hym paffe / and wente there as the fhypp was / and there he alyghte / and toke the fa-25 del and the brydel and putte the hors from hym / and went in to the fhip / And thenne Launcelot drefsid vnto hym and fald ye be welcome / and he anfuerd and falded hym ageyne / & asked hym what is your name / for moche my hert gyueth vnto yow / Truly fayd he my name is launcelot du lake / fir faide 30 he / thēne be ye welcome / for ye were the begynner of me in this world / A fayd he ar ye Galahad / ye forfothe fayd he / and fo he kneled doune and asked hym his bleffynge / and after to-ke of his helme and kyffed hym / And there was grete Ioye bitwene them / for there is no tonge can telle the Ioye that they 35 made eyther of other / and many a frendely word fpooken bitwe-ne / as kynde wold / the whiche is no nede here to be reherced / And there eueryche told other of their aduentures and merucils that were befallen to them in many Iourneyes fythe that they departed from the courte / Anone as Galahad sawe the gentilwoman dede in the bed / he knewe her wel ynough / & told grete worship of her that she was the best mayde luyng and hit was grete pyte of her dethe / But whanne Launcelot herd how the merueylous swerd was gotten / and who made 5 hit / and alle the merueyls reherced afore / Thenne he prayd galahad his sone that he wold shewe hym the fuerd / and so he dyd / and anone he kyssed the pomel and the hyltes and the scaubard / Truly sayd launcelot neuer erst knewe I of so hyhe aduentures done and so merueyllous & straunge / So dwellid 10 Launcelot and Galahad within that shyp half a yere / and serued god dayly and nyghtly with alle their power / and often they aryued in yles ferre from folke / where there repayed none but wylde beestes / and ther they fond many straunge ad-uentures and peryllous whiche they broughte to an ende / but 15 for tho aduentures were with wylde beestes / and not in the quest of the Sancgreal / therfor the tale maketh here no mencyon therof / for it wolde be to longe to telle of alle tho aduentu-res that befelle them

¶ Capitulum xiiii

SOo after on a mondaye hit befelle that they aryued in 20 the edge of a foreste to fore a crosse / and thenne sawe they a knyghte armed al in whyte and was rychely horsed/and ledde in his ryght hand a whyte hors / and soo he cam to the shyp and salewed the two knyghtes on the hyghe lordes behalf / and sayd Galahad fyr ye haue ben longe ynough with 25 your fader / come oute of the ship / and starte vpon this hors / & goo where the aduentures shall lede the in the quest of the sanc-greal / thenne he wente to his fader and kyft hym swetely and sayd / Fair swete fader I wote not whan I shal see you more tyl I see the body of Ihesu Cryst / I praye yow sayd laun- 30 celot praye ye to the hyghe fader that he hold me in his seruyse & soo he took his hors / & ther they herd a voyce that sayd thyn-ke for to doo wel / for the one shal neuer see the other before the dredeful day of dome / Now sone galahad said launcelot syn we shal departe / & neuer see other / I pray to þ^e hyz fader to conserue 35 me and yow bothe / Sire said Galahad noo prayer auaylleth foo moche as yours / And there with Galahad entryd in to the foreste / And the wynde aroos and drofe Launcelot more than a moneth thurgh oute the see where he slepte but lytyl but 5 prayed to god that he myght see some tydynges of the Sanc-greal / Soo hit befelle on a nyghte at mydnyghte he aryued afore a Castel on the bak fyde whiche was ryche and fayre / & there was a posterne opened toward the see / and was open withoute ony kepyng / fauf two lyons kept the entre / and the 10 moone shone clere / Anone sir launcelot herd a voyce that sayd Launcelot goo oute of this shyp / and entre in to the Castel / where thou shalt see a grete parte of thy desyre / Thenne he ran to his armes and foo armed hym / and foo wente to the gate and sawe the lyons / Thenne sette he hand to his fuerd & dre-15 we hit / Thenne there came a dwerf sodenly and smote hym on the harme so fore that the fuerd felle oute of his hand / Thenne herd he a voyce say O man of euylle seyth and poure byleue wherfor trowest thou more on thy harneis than in thy maker/for he myghte more auayle the than thyn armour in whos fer-20 uyse that thou arte sette / Thenne said launcelot / fay u fader ihesu Cryste I thanke the of thy grete mercy that thou repreuest me of my mysdede / Now see I wel that ye hold me for youre seruauant / thenne toke he ageyne his fuerd and putte it vp in his shethe and made a crosse in his forhede / and came to the ly-25 ons / and they made semblaunt to doo hym harme / Notwithstan-dyng he passed by hem without hurte and entryd in to the castel to the chyef fortresse / and there where they al at rest / thenne Launcelot entryd in so armed / for he fond noo gate nor dore but it was open / And at the last he fond a chamber wherof 30 the dore was shytte / and he sette his hand therto to haue opened hit / but he myghte not

Capitulum xv

Thenne he enforced hym mykel to vndoo the dore / thenne he lystned and herd a voyce whiche fange so swete-ly that it semed none erthely thyng / and hym thoughte the 35 voyce said Ioye and honour be to the fader of heuen / Thenne Launcelot kneled down to fore the chamber / for wel wyft he that there was the Sancgreal within that chamber / Thenne fayd he Fair fwete fader Ihefu Cryft yf euer I dyd thyng that pleasyd the lord / for thy pyte ne haue me not in despyte for my fynnes done afore tyme / and that thou shewe me some thyng 5 of that I seke / And with that he sawe the chamber dore open and there came oute a grete clerenes / that the hows was as bryghte as all the torches of the world had ben there / So cam he to the chamber dore / and wold haue entryd / And anone a voyce said to hym / Flee launcelot / and entre not / for thou ou- 10 ghtest not to doo hit / And yf thou entre / thou shalt forthynke hit / Thenne he withdrewe hym abak ryght heuy / Thenne loked he vp in the myddes of the chamber / and sawe a table of fyluer and the holy vessel couerd with reed samyte / and many angels aboute hit / wherof one helde a candel of waxe brennyng 15 and the other held a croffe and the ornamentys of an aulter And bfore the holy vessel he sawe a good man clothed as a preest / And it semed that he was at the sacrynge of the masse And it semed to Launcelot that aboute the preestes handes were thre men wherof the two putte the yongest by lykenes bitwe- 20 ne the preestes handes / and soo he lyfte hit vp ryght hyhe / & it semed to shewe so to the peple / And thenne launcelot merueyled not a lytyl / For hym thougt the preest was so gretely charged of the fygure that hym semed that he shold falle to the erthe / And whan he sawe none aboute hym that wolde helpe 25 hym / Thenne came he to the dore a grete paas and fayd / Faire fader Ihefu Cryft ne take hit for no synne though I helpe the good man whiche hath grete nede of help / Ryghte soo entryd he in to the chamber and cam toward the table of fyluer / and whanne he came nyghe he felte a brethe that hym thoughte hit 30 was entremedled with fyre whiche smote hym so fore in the vysage that hym thoughte it brente his vyfage / and there with he felle to the erthe and had no power to aryse / as he that was soo araged that had loste the power of his body and his he-ryng and his feynge 35

¶ Thenne felte he many handes aboute hym whiche tooke hym vp / and bare hym oute of the chamber dore / withoute ony amendyng of his swoone / and lefte hym there femyng dede to of the chamber dore and lefte hym there femynge dede to al peple / Soo vpon the morowe whan it was fayre day they within were aryfen / and fonde Launcelot lyenge afore the chamber dore / Alle they merueylled how that he cam in / and so they lo-5 ked vpon hym and felte his pouste to wyte whether there were ony lyf in hym / and foo they fond lyf in hym / but he myght not stande nor stere no membre that he had / and foo they tooke hym by euery parte of the body / and bare hym in to a chamber and leyd hym in a ryche bedde ferre from alle folke / and foo he 10 lay four dayes / Thenne the one sayd he was on lyue / and the other sayd Nay / In the name of god fayd an old man / for I doo yow verily to wete / he is not dede / but he is foo fulle of lyf as the myghtyest of yow alle / and therfor I counceylle yow that he be wel kepte tyl god fend hym lyf ageyne /

¶ Capitulum xvi

15 IN fuche maner they kepte launcelot four and twenty dayes and also many nyghtes that euer he laye styll as a dede man / and at the xxv daye byfelle hym after myddaye that he opened his eyen / And whan he sawe folke he made grete forowe and sayd why haue ye awaked me / for I was mo-20 re at ease than I am now / O Ihesu Cryft who myghte be foo bleffid that myght see openly thy grete merueyls of secretenes there where no synnar may be / what haue ye sene sayd they a-boute hym / I haue sene said he so grete merueyls that no tong may telle / and more than ony herte can thynke / & had not my 25 sone ben here afore me I had sene moche more / Thenne they told hym how he had layne there four and twenty dayes and nyghtes / thenne hym thoughte hit was punysshment for the four and twenty yeres that he had ben a synner wherfore our lord put hym in penaunce four and twenty dayes and nyghtes 30 Thenne loked fyr launcelot afore hym / & sawe the hayre whiche he had borne nyghe a yere / for that he forthoughte hym ryzte moche that he had broken his promyse vnto the heremyte whiche he had auowed to doo / ¶ Thenne they asked how hit stood with hym / for sothe sayd he I am hole of body thanked be our lord / therfore fyrs for goddes loue telle me where that I am / thenne sayd they alle that he was in the Castel of Carbonek / there with came a gentylwoman / and brought hym a sherte of smal linnen clothe / but he chaunged not there / but toke the hayre to hym ageyne / Sir sayd they the quest of the Sancgreal 5 is encheued now ryght in yow / that neuer shalle ye see of the Sancgreal nomore than ye haue fene / Now I thanke god faid Launcelot of his grete mercy of that I haue fene / for it suffyfeth me / for as I suppose no man in this world hath lyued better than I haue done to enchere that I haue done / And ther 10 with he took the hayre and clothed hym in hit / and aboute that he put a linnen sherte / & after a Robe of Scarlet fresshe & ne-we / And whanne he was foo arayed / they merueylled alle / for they knewe hym that he was launcelot the good knyghte And thenne they sayd alle O my lord fir launcelot be that ye 15 and he sayd Truly I am he / Thenne came word to kyng pelles that the knyght that had layne foo longe dede was fir la-uncelot / thenne was the kyng ryght glad / and wente to see hym / And whanne launcelot sawe hym come / he drefid hym ageynste hym / and there made the kyng grete Ioye of hym / and 20 there the kyng told hym tydynges / that his fayre doughter was dede / Thenne launcelot was ryght heuy of hit / and sayd / fyre me forthynketh of the dethe of your doughter / for she was a ful fayre lady / fresshe / and yonge / and wel I wote she be-re the best knyghte that is now on erthe or that euer was sith 25 god was borne / So the kyng held hym there four dayes / and on the morowe he took his leue at kyng Pelles and at al the felauship and thanked them of the grete labour / Ryghte foo as they sat at her dyner in the chyef sale / thenne was so befall that the Sancgreal had fulfilled the tables with al maner 30 of metes that ony herte myghte thynke /

¶ Soo as they fate / they fawe alle the dores and the wyndowes of the place were shutte withoute mannys hand / wherof they were al abasshed / and none wyfte what to doo

¶ And thenne it happed sodenly a knyghte cam to the chyefe 35 dore and knocked / and cryed / vndo the dore / but they wold not / and euer he cryed vndoo / but they wold not / And atte laste it noyed hem foo moche that the kyng hym self arose and came to a wyndowe there where the knyght called / Thenne he said fyr knyght ye shall not entre at this tyme whyle the fanc-greal is here / and therfor goo in to another / For certes ye be none of the knyghtes of the queft / but one of them whiche hath 5 ferued the fende / and haft lefte the feruyfe of oure lord / and he was paffynge wrothe at the kynges wordes / Sir knyght fa-yd the kynge fyn ye wold fo fayn entre / faye me of what coutrey ye be / Sir fayd he I am of the Realme of Logrys / and my name is Ector de marys / and broder vnto my lord fir laū-10 celot / In the name of god fayd the kynge / me forthynketh of that I haue fayd for youre broder is here within / & whan Ector de marys vnderftood that his broder was there / for he was the man in the world that he moost dredde and loued / And thenne he fayd A god now doubleth my forowe and shame / 15 ful truly fayd the good man of the hylle vnto Gawayne and to me of oure dremes / Thenne wente he oute of the courte as faft as his hors myghte / and foo thurgh oute the Caftel

¶ Capitulum xviij

Thenne kynge Pelles came to fire Launcelot and told hym tydynges of his broder wherof he was fory that 20 he wyfte not what to doo / Soo fir launcelot departed and toke his armes and fayd he wold goo fee the realme of Logrys / whiche I haue not fene in twelue moneth / and there with commaunded the kynge to god / and foo rode thurgh many re-almes / And at the laft he came to a whyte Abbay / And there 25 they made hym that nyghte grete chere / And on the morne he aroos and herd maffe / and afore an aulter he fond a ryche Tombe whiche was newly made / And thenne he took hede / & fawe the fydes wryten with gold / whiche fayd ¶ Here lyeth kynge Bagdemagus of Gore whiche kynge Arthurs neuw 30 flewe and named hym fyr Gawayn / Thenne was not he a lytel fory / for launcelot loued hym moche more than any other and had it ben any other than Gawayn he shold not haue ef-cared from dethe to lyf / and fayd to hym felf A lord god this is a grete hurte vnto kynge Arthurs courte the losse of fuche a man / And thenne he departed / and came to the Abbay where Gatahad dyd the aduenture of the tombes / and wanne the whyte sheld with the reed croffe / and there had he grete chere alle that nyghte / and on the morne he torned vnto Camelot / where he fonde kyng Arthur and the quene / But many of the 5 knyghtes of the round table were slayne and destroyed more than half / and soo thre were come home / Ector Gawayne and Lyonel and many other that neden not to be rehersed / and alle the Courte was passyng gladde of syr launcelot / and the kynge asked hym many tydynges of his fone Galahad / and ther 10 Launcelot told the kyng of his aduentures that had befallen hym syn he departed / and also he told hym of the aduentures of Galahad Percyuale and Bors whiche that he knewe by the letter of the dede damoyfel / And as Galahad had told hym Now god wold sayd the kyng that they were all thre here / 15 that shalle neuer be said launcelot / for two of hem shalle ye neuer see but one of hem shalle come ageyne /

¶ Now leue we this story and speke of Galahad

¶ Capitulum xviii

Now faith the story Galahad rode many Iourneyes invayne / And at the last he cam to the Abbay where ky- 20 ng Mordrayns was / And whan he herd that he thouzte he wold abyde to see hym / And vpon the morne whanne he had herd masse Galahad came vnto kyng Mordrayns / And anon the kyng sawe hym the whiche had leyne blynd of long tyme And thenne he dresid hym ageynst hym / and said Galahad 25 the seruauant of Ihesu cryste whos comynge I haue abyden so longe / Now embrace me and lete me reste on thy brest / So that I may reste bitwene thyn armes / for thou arte a clene vyr-gyn aboue all knyghtes as the floure of the lyly / in whome vyrgynyte is fygnefyed / and thou arte the rose the whiche is 30 the floure of al good vertu / & in coloure of fyre / For the fyre of the holy ghooft is take so in the / that my fleshe which was al dede of oldenes / is become yonge ageyne / Thenne Galahad herd his wordes thenne he embraced hym & alle his body /

Thenne sayd he / Faire lord Ihesu Cryst now I haue my wil Now I requyre the in this poynt that I am in thow come and vyfyte me / And anone oure lord herd his prayer / there with the soule departed from the body / And thenne Galahad putte 5 hym in the erthe as a kynge oughte to be / and soo departede / & soo came in to a perillous foreste where he fond the welle / the whiche boyllled with grete waves as the tale telleth to fore / And as soone as Galahad fette his hand therto it seaced / so that it brente no more / and the hete departed / for that it brente 10 hit was a fygne of lechery the whiche was that tyme moche v-fed / but that hete myght not abyde his pure vyrgyntye / & this was taken in the countrey for a myrakle / And soo euer after was it called Callahadys welle / Thenne by aduenture he cam in to the countrey of Gore and in to the Abbay where launce-15 lot had ben to fore hand and fonde the tombe of kynge Bag-demagus / but he was fonder therof Ioseph of Armathyes sone and the Tombe of Symyan where launcelot had fayled Thenne he loked in to a Crofte vnder the mynster / and there he sawe a Tombe whiche brent ful merueyllously / Thenne asked 20 he the bretheren what it was / Sir said they a merueyllous ad-uentur / that may not be broughte vnto none ende / but by hym that passeth of bounte and of knyghthode al them of the round table / I wold sayd Galahad that ye wold lede me ther to / Gladly sayd they / and soo ledde hym tyl a caue / and he went 25 doune vpon grefys / and cam nyghe the tombe / and thenne the flammynge fayled and the fyre staunched the whiche many a day had ben grete / Thenne came there a voyce that sayd mo-che are ye beholde to thanke oure lord / the whiche hath gyuen yow a good houre that ye may drawe oute the fowles of er-30 thely payne / and to putte them in to the Loyes of paradys / I am of your kynred the whiche haue dwelled in this hete thys thre honderd wynter and four and fyfty to be purged of the fynne that I dyd ageynst Ioseph of Armathye / thenne Galahad toke the body in his armes and bare it in to the mynster 35 And that nyghte lay Galahad in the Abbay / and on the morne he gaf hym seruyse and putte hym in the erthe afore the hyghe Aulter

¶ Capitulum xix

Soo departed he from thens / and commaunded the bretheren to god / and soo he rode fyue dayes tyl that he came to the maymed kynge / And euer folowed Percyual the fyue dayes askynge where he had ben / and soo one told hym / how the aduentures of Logrys were encheued / So on a daye 5 it befelle that they cam oute of a grete foreste / and there they mette at trauers with sir Bors the whiche rode alone / hit is none nede to telle yf they were glad / & hem he salewed / & they yelded hym honour and good aduenture / and eueryche told other / Thenne said Bors hit is more than a yere and an half 10 that I ne lay ten tymes where men dwelled / but in wylde forestes and in montayns / but god was euer my comforte / Thenne rode they a grete whyle tyl that they came to the castel of Carbonek / And whan they were entryd within the Castel kynge Pelles knewe hem / thenne there was grete Ioye / For 15 they wyft wel by theire comynge that they had fulfylled the quest of the Sancgreal / Thenne Elyazar kynge Pelles sone broughte to fore hem the broken fuerd where with Ioseph was stryken thurgh the thygh / Thenne Bors sette his hand therto / yf that he myght haue souted hit ageyne but it wold not be / 20 Thenne he took it to Percyual but he had no more power ther-to than he / Now haue ye hit ageyne sayd Percyuall to Galahad / for and it be euer encheued by ony bodely man / ye must doo hit / and thenne he took the pyeces and sette hem to gyders and they femed that they had neuer ben broken / and as well 25 as hit had ben fyrst forged / And whanne they within aspyed that the aduenture of the fuerd was encheued / thenne they gaf the fuerd to Bors / for hit myght not be better fet / for he was a good knyghte and a worthy man / and a lytel afore euen the fuerd arose grete and merueyllous / and was ful of grete he- 30 te that many men felle for drede / And anone alyght a voys amonge them and sayd they that ought not to fyttre at the table of Ihesu Cryst / aryse / for now shalle veray knyghtes ben fedde / Soo they wente thens all fauf kynge Pelles and E-lyazar his sone / the whiche were holy men and a mayde which 35 was his nece / and soo these thre felawes and they thre were there no mo / Anone they fawe knyghtes al armed came in at the halle dore and dyd of their helmes and their armes and fayd vnto Galahad / Sire we haue hyed ryght moche for to be with yow at this table where the holy mcte shalle be departed 5 Thenne fayd he ye be welcome / but of whens be ye / So thre of them fayd they were of gaule / and other thre fayd they were of Irland / and the other thre fayd they were of Denmarke / So as they fatte thus / there came oute a bed of tree of a chamber / the whiche four gentylwymmen broughte / and in the bed lay 10 a good man feke / and a crowne of gold vpon his hede / & there in the myddes of the place they sette hym doune and wente a-geyne their waye / Thenne he lyfte vp his hede and fayd Galahad knyght ye be welcome / for moche haue I defyred your commynge / for in fuche payne and in fuche anguysshe I haue 15 ben longe / ¶ But now I truste to god the terme is come that my payn shall be alayed that I shall passe oute of this world so as it was promysed me longe ago / there with a voyce fayd ther be two amonge you that be not in the quest of the Sancgreal and therfor departe ye

¶ Capitulum xx

20 Thenne kynge Pelles and his sone departed / and there with alle befemed that there cam a man and four angels from heuen clothed in lykenes of a Bissshop / and had a croffe in his hand / and these foure angels bare hym vp in a chayer / and sette hym doune before the table of syluer where 25 vpon the Sancgreal was / and it semed that he had in myddes of his forhede letters the whiche fayd / See ye here Ioseph the fyrst Bissshop of Crystendome the same whiche our lord focou-red in the Cyte of Sarras in the spyrytuel place / Thenne the knyghtes merueylled / for that Bissshop was dede more than 30 thre honderd yere to fore / O knyghtes fayde he / merueyle not / For I was somtyme an erthely man / with that they herde the re candels of waxe / and the thyrde a towel / and the fourthe a spere whiche bled merucillously that thre droppes felle within a boxe whiche he helde with other hand / And they sette the candels vpon the table / and the thyrd the towel vpon the vesfel / and the fourth the holy spere euen vp ryghte vpon the vesfel / And thenne the Biffhop made femblaunt as thou; he wold haue gone to the sacrynge of the masse / And thenne he tooke 5 an vbblye whiche was made in lykenes of breed / And at the lyftyng vp / there came a fygur in lykenes of a chylde / and the vyfage was as reed and as bryghte as ony fyre & smote hym self in to the breed / so that they all sawe hit that the breed was formed of a flesshely man / and thenne he putte hit in to 10 the holy vessel ageyne / and thenne he dyd that longed to a preest to doo to a masse / And thenne he wente to Galahad and kyffed hym / and badde hym goo and kyffe his felawes / and foo he dyd anone / Now sayd he seruantes of Ihesu Cryste ye shall be fedde afore this table with swete metes that neuer kn- 15 ygthes tasted / And whanne he had sayd / he vanyfshed away And they sette hem at the table in grete drede and made their prayers / thenne loked they and sawe a man come oute of the holy vessel that had alle the sygnes of the passion of Ihesu Cryste bledynge alle openly / and sayd my knyghtes and my 20 servantes & my true children whiche ben come oute of dedely lyf in to spyrytual lyf I wyl now no lenger hyde me from yow / but ye shal see now a parte of my secretes & of my hydde thynges / Now holdeth and receyueth the hyghe mete whiche ye haue soo moche defyred / Thenne took he hym self the holy ves- 25 fel and came to Galahad / and he kneled doune / and there he receyued his faueour / and after hym soo receyued alle his felawes / and they thoughte it soo swete that hit was merueillous to telle / Thenne sayd he to Galahad / sone wotest thou what I hold betwixe my handes / Nay sayd he / but yf ye will 30 telle me / This is sayd he the holy dyshe wherin I ete the la-mbe on sherturfdaye / And now hast thou sene that thou most defyred to see / but yet haste thou not sene hit soo openly as thow shalt see it in the Cyte of Sarras in the spyrituel place Therefore thou must go hens and bere with the this holy vessel 35 For this nyght it shalle departe from the Realme of Logrys / that it shalle neuer be sene more here / and wotest thou wherfor for he is not serued nor worshypped to his ryghte by them of this land / for they be torned to euylle lyuynge / therfor I shall discheryte them of the honour whiche I haue done hem / And therefore goo ye thre to morowe vnto the see where ye shal fynde your shyp redy / & with you take the fuerd with the straun-5 ge gyrdels and no mo with yow but sire Percyual and fyre Bors / Also I will that ye take with you of the blood of this spere for to enoynte the maymed kynge bothe his legges and alle his body and he shalle haue his hele / Sire sayd Galahad why shalle not these other felawes goo with vs / for this cause 10 For ryght as I departed my postels one here and another there foo I wille that ye departe / and two of yow shalle dye in my feruyse / but one of yow shal come ageyne and telle tydynges / Thenne gaf he hem his blessynge and vanysshed away /

¶ Capitulum xxi

ANd Galahad wente anone to the spere whiche lay vp-15 on the table / and touched the blood with his fyngers and came after to the maymed kynge and anoynted his legges / and there with he clothed hym anone / and starte vpon his feet oute of his bedde as an hole man / and thanked oure lorde that he had helyd hym / and that was not to the world ward / 20 For anone he yelded hym to a place of Relygyon of whyte monkes and was a ful holy man / That fame nyghte aboute mydnyght came a voyce amonge hem whiche fayde my fones & not my chyef fones my frendes and not my werryours / goo ye hens where ye hope best to doo and as I bad yow / A thanked 25 be thou lord that thou wilt vouchesfaufe to calle vs thy fynners Now maye we wel preue that we haue not lost our paynes / And anone in alle haste they took their harneis and departed But the thre knyghtes of Gaule one of them hyghte Claudyne kynge Claudas fone / and the other two were grete gen-30 tylmen / thenne praid galahad to eueryche of them that yf they come to kynge Arthurs court that they sholde fawewe my lorde sir launcelot my fader and of hem of the round table / and prayed hem yf that they cam on that party that they shold not forgete it / Ryght foo departed Galahad / Percyual / and Bors with hym / and foo they rode thre dayes / and thenne they came to a Ryuage and fonde the shyp wherof the tale speketh of to fore / And whanne they cam to the borde / they fonde in the myd-des the table of syluer / whiche they had lefte with the may-med kynge and the Sancgreal whiche was couerd with rede 5 famyte / Thenne were they gladde to haue fuche thynges in the-yr felaushyp / and foo they entryd / and maade grete reuerence ther to / and Galahad felle in his prayer longe tyme to oure lord that at what tyme he asked that he shold passe out of this world / foo moche he prayd tyl a voyce sayd to hym Galahad 10 thou shalt haue thy request / And whan thow askest the dethe of thy body thou shalt haue it / & thenne shalt thou fynde the lyf of the foule / Percyual herd this / and prayd hym of felauship that was bitwene them to telle hym wherfor he asked fuche thynges / That shalle I telle yow said Galahad / thother 15 day whanne we sawe a parte of the aduentures of the Sanc-greal I was in fuche a Ioye of herte that I trowe neuer man was / that was erthely / And therfore I wote wel whan my body is dede / my fowle shalle be in grete Ioye to see the bleffid TrynYTE euery day / and the mageste of oure lord Ihesu Cryst 20 Soo longe were they in the shyp / that they sayd to Galahad syr in this bedde ought ye to lye / for foo faith the scrypture / & foo he leyd hym doune and slepte a grete whyle / And whan he awaked he loked afore hym and sawe the Cyte of Sarras And as they wold haue landed / they sawe the shyp wherein 25 Percyual had putte his syster in / Truly sayd Percyual in the name of god / wel hath my syster holden vs couenaunt / Thenne toke they out of the ship the table of syluer / and he tooke it to Percyual and to Bors to goo to fore / and Galahad came behynde / and ryght foo they went to the Cyte / and 30 at the gate of the Cyte they sawe an old man croked / Thenne Galahad called hym and bad hym helpe to bere this heuy thynge / Truly said the old man / it is ten yere ago that I myȝt not goo but with crouchys / Care thou not sayd Galahad and aryse vp and shewe thy good wille / and foo he affayed / and 35 fonde hym self as hole as euer he was / Thenne ranne he to the table / and took one parte agcynst Galahad / and anone arose there grete noyse in the Cyte that a cryppyl was maade hole by knyghtes merueyls that entryd in to the Cyte / Thenne anon after the thre knyghtes wente to the water / and brougte vp in to the paleys Percyuals syfter / and buryed her as rychely as a kynges doughter oughte to be / And whan the kyng of 5 the Cyte whiche was cleped Estoraufe sawe the felaushyp / he asked hem of whens they were / and what thyng it was that they had brougte vpon the table of syluer / & they told hym the trouthe of the Sancgreal and the power whiche that god had sette there / Thenne the kyng was a Tyraunt / and was 10 come of the lync of paynyms / and toke hem / and putte hem in pryson in a depe hole

Capitulum xxij

BVt as foone as they were there oure lord fente hem the Sancgreal / thorow whoos grace they were al waye fulfilled whyle that they were in pryson / Soo at the 15 yeres ende hit befelle that this kyng Estoraufe lay seke and felte that he shold dye / Thenne he fente for the thre knyghtes & they came afore hym / and he cryed hem mercy of that he had done to them / and they forgaf hit hym goodely and he dyed anone / Whanne the kyng was dede / alle the Cyte was defma-20 yed and wyft not who myghte be her kyng / ¶ Ryght soo as they were in counceille there came a voyce amonge them / and badde hem chese the yongest knyght of them thre to be her kyng for he shalle wel mayntene yow and all yours / Soo they made Galahad kyng by alle the assente of the hole Cyte / & els 25 they wold haue slayne hym / And whanne he was come to be-holde the land / he lete make aboute the table of syluer a cheste of gold and of precyous stones that hyllid the holy vessel / And euery day erly the thre felawes wold come afore hit / & make their prayers / Now at the yeres ende and the self daye 30 after Galahad had borne the croune of gold / he arose vp erly and his felawes / and came to the palais / and fawe to fore hem the holy vessel / and a man knelynge on his knees in lykenes of a Bissshop that had aboute hym a grete felaushyp of Angels as it had ben Ihesu Cryst hym self / & thenne he arose and beganne a masse of oure lady / And whan he cam to the sacrament of the masse / and had done / anone he called Galahad and sayd to hym come forthe the seruaunt of Ihesu cryst and thou shalt see that thou hast moche defyred to see / & thenne he beganne to tremble ryght hard / whan the dedely fleshe be- 5 ganne to beholde the spyrytuel thynges / Thenne he helde vp his handes toward heuen / and sayd lord I thanke the / for now I see that that hath ben my defyre many a daye / ¶ Now bleffyd lord wold I not lenger lyue yf it myghte please the lord / & there with the good man tooke oure lordes body betwixe hys 10 handes / and proferd it to Galahad / and he receyued hit ryghte gladly and mekely / ¶ Now woteft thou what I am sayd the good man / Nay said Galahad / I am Ioseph of Armathye the whiche oure lord hath sente here to the to bere the selaushyp / and woteft thou wherfor that he hath sente me more than 15 ony other / For thou hast refemblyd in to thynges in that thou hast sene the merueyles of the Sancgreal in that thou hast ben a clene mayden as I haue ben and am / And whanne he had said these wordes Galahad went to Percyual and kyssed hym & commaunded hym to god / and soo he wente to sire Bors / & 20 kyssed hym / and commaunded hym to god / and sayd Fayre lord farewell me to my lord syr launcelot my fader / And as soone as ye see hym / byd hym remembre of this vnstable world And there with he kneled doune tofore the table / and made his prayers / and thenne sodenly his soule departed to Ihesu Crist 25 and a grete multitude of Angels bare his soule vp to heuen / that the two felawes myghte wel behold hit / Also the two felawes sawe come from heuen an hand / but they sawe not the body / And thenne hit cam ryght to the vessel / and took it and the spere / and soo bare hit vp to heuen / Sythen was there ne- 30 uer man soo hardy to saye that he had sene the Sancgreal /

Capitulum xxiii

WHanne Percyual & Bors sawe Galahad dede / they made as moche sorowe as euer dyd two men / And yf they had not ben good men / they myght lyghtly haue fallen in despair / & the peple of the countrey & of the cyte were ryzt heuy 35

And thenne he was buryed / And as foone as he was bury-ed fir Percyual yelded hym to an hermytage oute of the cy-te / and took a relygyous clothynge / and Bors was alwaye with hym / but neuer chaunged he his feculer clothynge for that 5 he purposed hym to goo ageyne in to the Realme of Logrys / Thus a yere and two monethes lyued fir Percyual in the hermytage a ful holy lyf / and thenne passed oute of this world and Bors lete bery hym by his fyfter and by Galahad in the spyrytueltrees / whanne Bors sawe that he was in so fer coun-10 treyes as in the partyes of Babyloyn he departed from Sar-ras / and armed hym and cam to the see / and entryd in to a shyp / and foo it befelle hym in good aduenture / he cam in to the Realme of Logrys / and he rode so fast tyl he came to Camelot where the kynge was / and thenne was there grete Ioye ma-15 de of hym in the Courte / for they wend alle / he had ben dede / for as moche as he had ben foo longe oute of the countrey / and whan they had eten / the kynge made grete clerkes to come afore hym / that they shold cronycle of the hyghe aduentures of the good knyghtes / Whanne Bors had told hym of the aduentu-20 res of the Sancgreal fuche as had befall e hym / and his thre felawes that was launcelot / Percyual / Galahad / & hym self There Launcelot told the aduentures of the Sancgreal / that he had fene / Alle this was made in grete bookes / and put vp in almeryes at Salyfbury / And anone fir Bors fayd to fyre 25 Launcelot / Galahad your owne fone falewed yow by me / & after yow kynge Arthur / and alle the Courte / and foo dyd fir Percyual / for I buryed hem with myn owne handes in the Cyte of Sarras /

¶ Also fir Launcelot Galahad prayed yow to remembre of 30 this vnfyker world as ye behyght hym whan ye were to gyders more than half a yere / This is true fayd launcelot / Now I truste to god his prayer shalle auayle me / thenne Launcelot took fyr Bors in his armes / and fayd gentyl cofyn ye are ryght welcome to me / and alle that euer I maye doo for yow 35 and for yours ye shalle fynde my poure body redy atte all tymes / whyles the spyryte is in hit / and that I promyse yow feythfully / and neuer to fayle ¶ And wete ye wel gen-tyl cofyn fyre Bors that ye and I wyll neuer departe in fonder whyleft oure lyues may laste / Sir sayd he I wylle as ye wylle

¶ Thus endeth thistory of the Sancgreal that was breuely drawen oute of frensch in to Englyshe / the whiche is a story croncyed for one of the truest and the holiest that is in thys world / the whiche is the xvij book /

¶ And here foloweth the eyghtenth book

¶ Capitulum Primum

Oo after the quest of the Sancgreal was ful-fylled / and alle knyghtes that were leste on lyue were comen ageyne vnto the table round 5 as the booke of the Sancgreal maketh mencyon ¶ Thenne was there grete Ioye in the courte / and in especyal kyng Arthur and quene Gueneuer made grete Ioye of the remenaunt that were comen home / and passyng glad was the kyng and the quene of sire launcelot and of sire Bors / For 10 they had ben passyng long away in the quest of the Sancgreal / Thenne as the book faith fyr launcelot beganne to resorte vnto quene Gueneuer ageyne / and forgat the promyse and the perfectyon that he made in the quest / for as the book sayth had not sire Launcelot ben in hie preuy thouztes and in his myn- 15 des so sette inwardly to the quene as he was in femyng oute-ward to god / there had no knyghte passed hym in the queste of the Sancgreal / but euer his thoughtes were pruely on the Quene / and so they loued to gyder more hotter than they did to fore hand / and had fuche preuy draughtes to gyder that ma- 20 ny in the Courte spak of hit / and in especial sire Agrauayne/fyr Gawayns broder / for he was euer open mouthed / So bifel that sire Launcelot had many resortes of ladyes and damoy-fels that dayly resorted vnto hym / that besoughte hym to be their champion / and in alle fuche maters of ryghte sire launcelot 25 applied hym dayly to do for the pleasyr of oure lord Ihesu crist And euer as moche as he myghte he withdrewe hym from the companye and felauhypp of Quene Gueneuer for to eschewe the sklaunder and noyfe / wherfor the quene waxed wroth with sir Launcelot / and vpon a day she called sir la-uncelot vnto her chamber and faide thus / Sir launcelot I see and fele dayly that thy loue begynneth to flake / for thou hast 5 no Ioye to be in my preface / but euer thou arte oute of thys Courte / and quarels and maters thou hast now a dayes for ladyes and gentilwymmen more than euer thou were wonte to haue afore hand / A madame said launcelot / in this ye must holde me excused for dyuerse causes / one is / I was but late 10 in the quest of the Sancgreal / and I thanke god of his grete mercy and neuer of my deserte that I sawe in that my quest as moche as euer sawe ony synful man / and so was it told me / ¶ And yf I had not my pryuy thoughtes to re-torne to your loue ageyne as I doo I had fene as grete myf-15 teryes as euer sawe my sone Galahad outhur Percyual or sir Bors / & therfor madame I was but late in that quest / wete ye wel madame hit maye not be yet lyghtely forgotten the hy; feruyse in whome I dyd my dylygent laboure / Also madame wete ye wel that there be many men speken of our loue in this 20 courte / and haue yow and me gretely in a wayte / as sire Agrauayne and sire Mordred / and madame wete ye wel I dre-de them more for youre sake / than for ony fere I haue of them my self / for I maye happen to escape and ryde my self in a grete nede where ye must abyde alle that wille be said vnto yow / 25 And thenne yf that ye falle in ony distresse thurgh wyllfulle foly / thenne is there none other remedy or help but by me and my blood / And wete ye wel madame the boldenes of you and me wille brynge vs to grete shame and sklaunder / and that were me lothe to see you dishonoured / and that is the cause / I 30 take vpon me more for to do for damoyfels and maydens than euer I dyd to forne that men shold vnderstande my Ioye and my delyte is my pleasyr to haue adoo for damoifels and may-dens

¶ Capitulum ij

35 Alle this whyle the quene stood styll and lete sir laun-celot saye what he wold / And when he hadde alle said she braft oute on wepyng / and soo she sobbed and wepte a grete whyle / And whan she myght speke she sayd / launcelot now I wel vnderstande that thou arte a fals recreaūt knyghte and a comyn lecheoure / and louest and holdest other ladyes / and by me thou hast desdayne and scorne / ¶ For wete thou wel she sayd now I vnderstande thy falshede / and therfor shalle I neuer loue the no more / and neuer be thou so hardy to come in my fyghte / and ryghte here I discharge the this Courte that thou neuer come within hit / and I forfende the my selaushyp / and vpon payne of thy hede that thou see me no more / Ryght soo sire Launcelot departed with grete heuynes / 10 that vnnethe he myzt susteyne hym self for grete dole makyng Thenne he called sir Bors sir Ector de marys and syr Lyonel and told hem how the quene had forfendyd hym the Courte and soo he was in wille to departe in to his owne Countrey / Fair sir said sire Bors de ganys / ye shalle not departe oute 15 of this land by myn aduyse / ye must remembre in what honour ye are renoumed and called the noblest knyght of the world / and many grete maters ye haue in hand / and wymmen in their hastynes wille doo oftymes that fore repenteth hem / & therfor by myn aduyse ye shalle take youre hors / and ryde to 20 the good hermytage here befyde wyndfoure that somtyme was a good knyght / his name is sir Brasias / and there shalle ye abyde tyl I fende yow word of better tydynges / Broder said sir launcelot wete ye wel I am ful lothe to departe oute of this realme / but the quene hath defended me soo hyhely / that 25 me semeth she wille neuer be my good lady as she hath ben / Saye ye neuer soo sayd sir Bors / for many tymes or this tyme she hath ben wroth with yow and after it she was the first that repented it / Ye saye wel sayd launcelot / for now wille I doo by youre counceylle and take myn hors and my harneis 30 and ryde to the heremyte sir Brasias / and there will I repose me vntyl I here somme maner of tydynges fro yow / but fair broder I praye yow gete me the loue of my lady Quene Gueneuer and ye maye /

¶ Sire said sire Bors ye nede not to meue me of fuche maters 35 For wel ye wote I wille doo what I may to please yow / & thenne the noble knyghte sire Launcelot departed with ryghte heuy chere sodenly / that none erthely creature wyste of hym / nor where he was become / but fir Bors / Soo whan fir launcelot was departed / the quene outward made no maner of forowe in shewynge to none of his blood nor to none other / But we-te ye wel inwardly as the book sayth she took grete thoughte 5 but she bare it out with a proud countenance / as though she felte nothyng nor daunger

¶ Capitulum Tercium

ANd thenne the quene lete make a preuy dyner in london vnto the knyghtes of the round table / and al was for to shewe outward that she had as grete Ioye in al other 10 knyghtes of the table round as she had in fir launcelot / al only at that dyner she had fir Gawayne and his bretheren / that is for to faye fir Agrauayn / fir Gaherys / fire Gareth and fyre Mordred / Also there was fir Bors de ganys / fire Blamor de ganys / fyr Bleoberys de ganys / fire Galyhud / fir Galyhodyn 15 fyre Ector de marys / fir Lyonel / fire Palomydes / fir Safyr his broder / fir la cote male tayle / fir Perfaunt / fyr Ironfyde / fyre Brandyles / fyr kay le Seneschal / fir Mador de la porte / Syre Patryfe a knyght of Irland / Alyduk / fir Aftamore / and fir Pynel le faueage / the whiche was cofyn to fire Lamorak de 20 galy the good knyghte that fyr Gawayne and his bretheren flewe by treafon / and so thefe four and twenty knyghtes shold dyne with the quene in a preuy place by them self / and there was made a grete feest of al maner of deyntees / but fyre Gawayne had a customme that he vfed dayly at dyner and at 25 foupper that he loued wel al maner of fruyte / and in especial appels and perys / And therfore who fomerer dynded or feested fyre Gawayne wold comynly purueye for good fruyte for hym / and foo dyd the quene for to please fir Gawayne / she lete purueye for hym al maner of fruyte / for fir Gawayn was 30 a passyng hote knyght of nature / and this Pyonel hated fyre Gawayne by caufe of his kynnefman fyr Lamorak de galy & therfor for pure enuy & hate fir Pyonel enpoyfond certayn appels for to enpoyfonne fir Gawayn / & foo this was wel vnto the ende of the mete / and foo it befelle by myffortune a good 35 knyght named Patryfe cofyn vnto fire Mador de la porte to take a poyfond Appel / And whanne he had eten hit / he fwal-loo tyl he braſt / & there ſire Patryce felle down ſodenly deede amonge hem / Thenne euery knyghte lepte from the bord aſha-med and araged for wrathe nyghe oute of her wyttes / For they wyſte not what to ſaye conſyderynge Quene Gueneuer 5 made the ſeeſt and dyner / they alle had ſuſpecyon vnto her/My lady the quene ſaid Gawayne / Wete ye wel madame that this dyner was made for me / for alle folkes that knowen my condycyon vnderſtande that I loue wel fruyte / and now I ſee wel / I had nere be ſlayne / therfor madame I drede me leſt 10 ye will be ſhamed / Thenne the quene ſtood ſtylle and was ſore abaſhed / that he nyſt not what to ſaye / This ſhalle not ſo be ended ſaid ſyr Mador de la porte / for here haue I loſte a ful noble knyght of my blood / And therfore vpon this ſhame & deſpyte I wille be reuenged to the vtteraunce / and there open- 15 ly ſir Mador appeled the quene of the dethe of his coſyn ſir patryſe / thenne ſtode they all ſtylle that none wold ſpeke a word ageynſt hym / for they all had grete ſuſpecyon vnto the quene by cauſe ſhe lete make that dyner / and the quene was ſo abaſ-ſhed that ſhe coude none other wayes doo but wepte ſoo herte- 20 ly that ſhe felle in a ſwoune / with this noyſe and crye came to them kynge Arthur / And whanne he wyſt of that trouble / he was a payſſynge heuy man

Capitulum iiij

ANd euer ſir Mador ſtood ſtylle afore the kynge / and euer he appeled the quene of treaſon / for the cuſtomme 25 was ſuche that tyme that alle manere of ſhameful dethe was called treaſon / Fair lordes ſayd kynge Arthur me repenteth of this trouble / but the caas is ſo I maye not haue adoo in this mater for I muſt be a ryghtful Iuge / and that repenteth me that I maye not doo batail for my wyf / for as I deme 30 this dede came neuer by her / And therfore I ſuppoſe ſhe ſhalle not be alle diſtayned / but that ſomme good knyght ſhal putt his body in leopardy for my quene rather than ſhe ſhal be brent in a wrong quarel / And therfor ſir Mador be not ſo haſty / for hit maye happen ſhe ſhalle not be all frendeles / and therfore 35 defyre thow thy daye of bataille / and she shalle purueye her of fomme good knyghte / that shalle anfuere yow or els it were to me grete shame / and to alle my courte / My gracyous lord sayd fir Mador ye muste holde me excused / for though ye be oure 5 kyng in that degree / ye are but a knyght as we are / and ye are sworne vnto knyghthode as wel as we / and therfor I bi-feche yow that ye be not displeased / For there is none of the four and twenty knyghtes that were boden to this dyner / but alle they haue grete suspecyon vnto the quene / What say ye all 10 my lordes said fir Mador / thenne they answered by and by that they coude not excuse the quene / for why she made the dyner / & outhur hit must come by her or by her seruantes / Allas sayd the quene I made this dyner for a good entente / and neuer for none euyl soo almyghty god me help in my ryght as I 15 was neuer purposed to doo fuche euylle dedes / and that I reporte me vnto god / My lord the kyng sayd fir Mador I re-quyre yow as ye be a ryghtuous kyng gyue me a day that I may haue Iustyce / wel sayd the kyng I gyue the daye thys day xv dayes that thow be redy armed on horsbak in the me-20 dowe besyde westmynster / And yf it soo falle that there be ony knyght to encountre with yow / there mayst thow doo the best / and god speede the ryght / And yf hit so falle that there be no knyght at that day / thenne must my quene be brente / and ther she shalle be redy to haue her Iugement / I am answered sayd fir 25 Mador / and euery knyghte wente where it lyked hem / ¶ So whan the kyng and the quene were to gyders / the kyng afked the quene how this caas bifelle / the quene answered / so god me help I wote not how or in what maner / where is fir la-uncelot said kyng Arthur / and he were here he wold not grut-30 che to doo bataille for yow / Sire sayd the quene I wote not where he is / but his brother and his kynnesmen deme that he be not within this Realme / that me repenteth sayd kyng Arthur / For and he were here / he wold soone stynte this stryf / Thenne I wille counceyle yow sayd the kyng and vnto sire 35 Bors that ye wil doo bataille for her for fir launcelots sake / And vpon my lyf he wille not refuse yow / For wel I see said the kyng that none of these foure and twenty knyghtes that were with you at your dyner where fir Patryse was slayn that wille doo batail for yow nor none of hem wille faye well of yow / and that shalle be a grete sklauder for yow in thys Courte / Allas said the quene and I maye not doo with all but now I mys sir launcelot / for and he were here / he wold putte me foone to my hertes ease / ¶ what eyleth yow said the 5 kynge ye can not kepe sir launcelot vpon your fyde / for wete ye wel fayd the kynge who that hath sire Launcelot vpon his partye / hath the moost man of worship in the world vpon his fyde / Now goo your way said the kynge vnto the quene / and requyre sir Bors to doo bataille for yow for sire launcelots fa- 10

¶ Capitulum quintum /

Soo the quene departed from the kynge / and sente for sir Bors in to her chamber / And whan he was come she befought hym of focour / Madame said he / what wold ye that I dyd / for I maye not with my worshyp haue adoo in 15 this mater by cause I was at the same dyner for drede that ony of tho knyghtes wold haue me in suspecyon / Also madame said sir Bors now mys ye sir launcelot / for he wold not haue sayled yow neyther in ryght nor in wronge / as ye haue wel preued whan ye haue ben in daunger / and now ye haue 20 dryuen hym oute of this countrey / by whome ye and alle we were dayly worshypped by / therfor madame I merueylle how ye dar for shame requyre me to doo ony thyng for yow in soo moche ye haue chaced hym oute of your countrey / by whome we were borne vp and honoured / Allas fayr knyghte fayd the 25 quene I put me holy in your grace / and alle that is done amys / I will amende as ye wille counceyle me / And therwith she kneled doune vpon bothe her knees / and befought sir Bors to haue mercy vpon her / outhur I shall haue a shameful dethe and therto I neuer offended / Ryght soo cam kyng Arthur / & 30 fonde the quene knelyng afore sir Bors / thenne sir Bors pulled her vp / and said Madame ye doo me grete dishonoure / A gentil knyght said the kyng haue mercy vpon my Quene curtois knyght / for I am now in certayne she is vntuly defamed

And ther for curtois knyght sayd the kyng / promyse her to doo bataille for her / I requyre yow for the loue of fyr launcelot / My lord sayd fyr Bors ye requyre me the gretteft thyng that ony man may requyre me / And wete ye wel yf I gra-5 unte to doo bataille for the quene I shall wrathe many of my felauship of the table round / but as for that sayd Bors I wille graunte my lord / that for my lord sir launcelots sake & for your sake I wille at that daye be the quenes champyon / onles that there come by aduenture a better knyghte than I 10 am to doo batail for her / Will ye promyse me this sayd the kyng by your feythe / ye sir said sir Bors / of that I will not fa-yle yow / nor her bothe / but yf there came a better knyghte than I am / and thenne shalle he haue the bataille / Thenne was the kyng and the quene passyng gladde / and soo departed / and 15 thanked hym hertely / Soo thenne sir Bors departed secretly vpon a day / and rode vnto sire launcelot there as he was wyth the heremyte sir Braftias / & told hym of all theire aduenture A Ihesu said sir Launcelot this is come happely as I wold haue hit / and therfor I praye yow make yow redy to doo ba-20 taille / but loke that ye tary tyl ye see me come as longe as ye may / For I am sure Mador is an hote knyghte whan he is enchaufed / for the more ye suffre hym the hastyer wille he be to ba-tail / fyr said Bors lete me dele with hym / Doubte ye not ye shalle haue alle your wille / thenne departed fyre Bors from 25 hym / and came to the Courte ageyne / Thenne was hit noyed in alle the Courte that sir Bors shold doo bataill for the que-ne / wherfore many knyghtes were displeasyd with hym / that he wold take vpon hym to doo batail in the quenes quarel for there were but fewe knyghtes in all the courte but they demed 30 the quene was in the wronge / and that she had done that treason / Soo sire Bors anfuerd thus to his felawes of the table round / Wete ye wel my fayre lordes it were shame to vs alle and we suffred to see the moost noble quene of the world to be shamed openly confyderynge her lord / and our lord is the man 35 of moost worship in the world & moost crystend / and he hath euer worshipped vs alle in al places / Many anfuerd hym a-geyne / As for oure mooste noble kyng Arthur we loue hym and honour hym as wel as ye doo / but as for quene Gueneuer we loue her not by cause she is a destroyer of good knyghtes Faire lordes sayd sir Bors me semeth ye faye not as ye shold fay / for neuer yet in my dayes knewe I neuer nor herd faye/that euer she was a destroyer of ony good knyghte / But att alle tymes as ferre as euer I coude knowe / she was a mayn- 5 tenger of good knyghtes / and euer she hath ben large and free of her goodes to alle good knyghtes / and the moost bounteuous lady of her yestes and her good grace that euer I sawe or herd speke of / And there for it were shame said sir Bors to vs all to our most noble kynges wyf / & we suffred her to be sha- 10 mefully slayne / And wete ye wel sayd sir Bors I wyll not suffer it / for I dare fay foo moche the quene is not gylty of sir Patryse dethe / for she owed hym neuer none ylle wyll/nor none of the four and twenty knyghtes that were at that dyner / for I dar faye / for good loue she bad vs to dyner / and 15 not for no male engyne / and that I doubte not shalle be preued here after / for how someuer the game goth / there was tre-

¶ Capitulum vi

THe daye came on faste vntyl the euen that the bataille shold be / Thenne the quene sente for sir Bors and afked hym how he was disposed / Truly madame sayd he I am disposed in lyke wyse as I promysed yow / that is for to faye I shal not fayle yow / onles by aduenture there 25 come a better knyghte than I am to doo batail for yow / thenne madame am I discharged of my promyse / ¶ Wylle ye sayd the quene that I telle my lord Arthur thus / doth as it shal please yow madame / Thenne the quene wente vnto the kyng and told hym the answere of sir Bors / haue ye no doubte said 30 the kyng of sir Bors / for I calle hym now one of the beste knyghtes of the world and the most profytelyest man / And thus it past on vntyl the morne / and the kyng and the quene and all maner of knyghtes that were there at that tyme dre-we them vnto the medowe byfyde wynchester where the bataylle 35 shold be / And foo when the kynge was come with the Que-ne / and many knyghtes of the round table / than the quene was putte there in the Coneftables ward and a grete fyre made aboute an yron flake / that and fyr Mador de la porte hadde 5 the better / she shold be brente / fuche customme was vsed in tho dayes / that neyther for fauour neyther for loue nor assynyte / there shold be none other but ryghtuous Iugement / as wel vp-on a kynge as vpon a knyghte / and as wel vpon a Quene as vpon another poure lady / Soo in this meane whyle came 10 in sir Mador de la porte / and tooke his othe afore the kynge / that the quene dyd this treason vntyl his cosyn sir Patryse / & vnto his othe / he wold preue hit with his body hand for hand who that wold saye the contrary / Ryght so cam in sire Bors de ganyes and sayde that as for quene Gueneuer she is in the 15 ryght and that wille I make good with my handes / that she is not culpable of this treason that is putte vpon her / Thenne make the redy said sir Mador / and we shalle preue whether thow be in the ryght or I / Sir Mador said sir Bors wete thou wel I knowe yow for a good knyghte / Not for thenne I shal 20 not fere yow foo gretely / but I truste to god I shalle be able to withstande your malyce / But thus moche haue I promy-sed my lord Arthur and my lady the quene that I shalle do bataille for her in this caas to the vttermost / onles that there come a better knyghte than I am / and discharge me / Is that 25 alle said sire Mador / outhere come thou of / and doo batail with me / or els fay nay / Take your hors said sire Bors / and as I suppose ye shalle not tary longe / but ye shalle be ansuerd / thenne eyther departed to their tentys and maade hem redy to horfbak as they thoughte best / And anone sir Mador cam in to 30 the felde with his shelde on his sholder & his spere in his hand And foo rode aboute the place cryenge vnto Arthur byd your champion come forth and he dare / Thenne was sir Bors ashamed and took his hors / and came to the lyfste ende / ¶ And thenne was he ware where cam from a wood there faste by a 35 knyght all armed vpon a whyte hors with a straunge shelde of straunge armes / and he came rydyng alle that he myghte renne / and foo he came to sir Bors and sayd thus Fair kny-ght I pray yow be not displeased / for here must a better knyght than ye are haue thys bataille / therfor I praye yow withdrawe yow / For wete ye wel I haue had this day a ryght grete Iourneye / and this bataille ought to be myn / and foo I promysed yow whan I spak with yow last / and with alle my herte I thanke yow of your good wille / Thenne sire Bors rode vnto kynge Arthur and told hym how there was a knyght come that wold haue the bataille for to fyghte for the Quene ¶ what knyght is he said the kynge / I wote not sayd fyre Bors / but fuche couenaunt he made with me to be here this day Now my lord sayd fyr Bors here am I discharged /

THenne the kynge called to that knyghte / and asked hym / yf he wold fyghte for the quene / Thenne he answered to the kynge therfor cam I hydder / and therfor sir kyng he sayd tary me noo lenger for I may not tary / For anone as I haue fynysshed this bataille I must departe hens / for I haue a doo many matters els where / For wete yow wel sayd that knyght this is dishonour to yow alle knyghtes of the round table to see and knowe foo noble a lady and so curtoys a quene as quene Gueneuer is thus to be rebuked and shamed amongest yow / thenne they alle merueylled what knyght that myghte be that foo tooke the bataille vpon hym / For there was not one that knewe hym but yf it were fyre Bors / Thenne sayd sir Mador de la porte vnto the kynge / now lete me wete with whome I shalle haue adoo with alle / And thenne they rode to the lyfste ende / and there they couched their speres / & ranne to gyder with alle their myghtes / and sire Madors spere brake alle to pyeces / but the others spere held / and bare fyre Madors hors and alle bakward to the erthe a grete falle / But myghtely and fodenly he auoyded his hors / and putte his sheld afore hym / and thenne drewe his fuerd / and badde the other knyghte alyghte / and doo batail with hym on foote Thenne that knyght descended from his hors lyghtly lyke a valyaunt man / and putte his sheld afore hym and drewe his fuerd / and foo they came egerly vnto bataille / and eyther gaf other many grete strokes tracynge and trauercyng / ra-cyng and foynnyng / and hurtlyng to gyder with her fuerdes as it were wyld bores / thus were they fyghtyng nyghe an houre / For this fir Mador was a stronge knyghte / and mygh-5 tely proued in many stronge batails / But at the laste thys knyghte smote fir Madore grouelyng vpon the erthe / and the knyght stepped nere hym to haue pulled fir Mador flatlyng vpon the ground / and there with fodenly fir Mador aroos / & in his ryfynge he smote that knyght thurgh the thyek of the 10 thyzes that the blood ranne oute fyerfly / ¶ And whan he felte hym self foo wounded / and sawe his blood he lete hym aryse vpon his feet / And thenne he gaf hym fuche a buffet vp-on the helme / that he felle to the erthe flatlyng / and therwith he strode to hym to haue pulled of his helme of his hede / And 15 thenne fir Mador prayd that knyghte to faue his lyf / and so he yelded hym as ouercome and relecyd the quene of his quarel / I wille not graunte the thy lyf said that knyghte only that thou frely relece the quene for euer / and that no mencyon be made vpon fir Patryces tombe that euer Quene Gueneuer 20 confented to that treason / Alle this shalle be done said fir mador I clerely discharge my quarel for euer / Thenne the knytes parters of the lyfles toke vp fire Mador / and ledde hym to his tente / and the other knyghte wente streyghte to the steyer foote where sat kyng Arthur / and by that tyme was the que-25 ne come to the kyng / and eyther kyffed other hertely / And whan the kyng sawe that knyghte / he stouped doune to hym / and thanked hym / and in lyke wyse dyd the quene / and the kyng prayd hym to putte of his helmet / and to repose hym / & to take a sop of wyn / and thenne he putte of his helmet to dr-30 ynke / and thenne euery knyght knewe hym that it was fyre Launcelot du lake / Anone as the quene wyft that / he took the quene in his hand / and yode vnto fyr launcelot and sayd fir graunt mercy of your grete trauaille that ye haue hadde thys day for me and for my quene / My lord sayd fir launcelot wete 35 ye wel I oughte of ryghte euer to be in your quarel / and in my lady the quenes quarel to do batail / for ye ar the man that gaf me the hyghe ordre of knyghthode / and that daye my lady your quene dyd me grete worship / & els I had ben shamed for that fame day ye made me knyghte / thurgh my haftyneffe I loft my fuerd / and my lady your quene fond hit / and lapped hit in her trayne / and gafe me my fuerd when I hadde nede therto / and els had I ben fhamed emonge alle knyghtes / & therfor my lord Arthur I promysed her at that day euer to be 5 her knyghte in ryghte outhur in wronge / Graunt mercy fayd the kyng for this iourneye / & wete ye wel faid the kyng I shal acqyte youre goodenes / and euer the quene behelde fir launcelot / and wepte fo tendyrly that she fanke all moft to the ground for forowe that he had done to her foo grete goodenes where she 10 fhewed hym grete vnkyndenes / ¶ Thenne the knyghtes of his blood drewe vnto hym / and there eyther of them made grete io-ye of other / And fo came alle the knyghtes of the table round that were there at that tyme / and welcomed hym / And thenne fir Mador was had to leche crafte / and fire launcelot was 15 helyd of his woūd / And thenne there was made grete Ioye & myrthes in that courte

¶ Capitulum octauum /

ANd foo it befelle that the damoyfel of the lake / her name was Nymue / the whiche wedded the good knygt fir Pelleas / and foo she cam to the Courte / for euer she 20 dyd grete goodenes vnto kynge Arthur / and to alle his knytes thurgh her forcery and enchauntementes / And foo when she herd how the quene was an angred for the dethe of fyre Patryfe / Thenne she told it openly that she was neuer gyilty and there she difclofed by whome it was done and named hym 25 fyr Pynel / and for what caufe he dyd it / there it was openly difclofed / and foo the quene was excufed / and the knygt Pynel fled in to his countre / Thenne was it openly knowen that fyr Pynel enpoyfond the appels att the feeft to that entente to haue destroyed fire Gawayne / by caufe fyr Gawayne and his 30 bretheren destroyed fyr Lamorak de galys / to the whiche fyre Pynel was cofyn vnto / Thenne was fire Patryce buried in the chirche of Westmefre in a tombe / and there vpon was wryten / Here lyeth fyre Patryce of Irlond flayne by fyre Pynel le faueage / that enpoyfoned appels to haue flayne fyre Gawayne / and by myffortune fire Patryce etc one of tho appels / & thenne fodenly he braft / Also there was wryten vnto the tombe that Quene Gueneuer was appelyd of treafon of the deth 5 of fire Patryce by fir Mador de la porte / and there was made mencyon how fire launcelot foughte with hym for quene Gueneuer / and ouercame hym in playne bataille / Alle this was wryten vpon the tombe of fyr Patryce in excufyng of the quene / And thenne fir Mador fewed dayly and long / to haue the 10 Quenes good grace / and soo by the meanes of fyre launcelot he caufed hym to ftande in the quenes good grace / and all was forgyuen / Thus it paffed on tyl oure lady daye affūpcyon / within a xv dayes of that fecft the kyng lete crye a grette Iuftes and a turnement that fhould be at that daye att Camelot that is wyncheſter / and the kyng lete crye that he and the kyng of Scottes wold Iuſte ageynſt alle that wold come ageynſt hem / And whan this crye was made / thydder cam many knyghtes / Soo there came thyder the kyng of Northgalys and kyng Anguyſſhe of Irland / and the kyng with the 20 honderd knyghtes / and Galahaut the haute prynce / and the Kyng of Northumberland / and many other noble dukes & Erles of dyuerſe countreyes / Soo kyng Arthur made hym redy to departe to thiſe Iuſtys / and wold haue had the Quene with hym / but at that tyme ſhe wold not / ſhe ſaid / for ſhe was 25 ſeke and myghte not ryde at that tyme / That me repenteth ſayd the kyng / for this ſeuē yere ye ſawe not ſuche a noble ſelaufhyp to gyders excepte at wyſfontyde whan Galahad departed from the Courte / Truly ſayd the quene to the kyng / ye muſte holde me excuſed / I maye not be there / and that me 30 repenteth / and many demed the quene wold not be there by cauſe of fir launcelot du lake / for fire launcelot wold not ryde with the kyng / for he ſaid / that he was not hole of the wound the whiche fire Mador had gyuen hym / wherfor the kyng was heuy and paſſyng wrothe / and ſoo he departed toward 35 wyncheſtre with his ſelaufhyp / and ſoo by the way the kyng lodged in a Towne called Aſtolot / that is now in Englyſſh called Gylford / and there the kyng lay in the Caſtel / Soo whan the kyng was departed / the quene called fir launcelot to her / and said thus / Sire launcelot ye are gretely to blame thus to holde yow behynde my lord / what trowe ye what will youre enemyes and myne faye and deme / noughte els but fee how sire launcelot holdeth hym euer behynde the kyng / and foo doth the quene / for that they wold haue their pleasyr to gy- 5 ders / And thus wylle they faye sayd the Quene to fyr laun-celot haue ye noo doubte therof

¶ Capitulum ix

MS Adame said fyr Launcelot I allowe your wytte / it is of late come syn ye were wyfe / And therfor madame at this tyme I wille be rulyd by your counceylle / and thys 10 nyghte I wylle take my rest / and to morowe by tyme I wyl take my waye toward wynchestre /

¶ But wete yow wel sayd fir Launcelot to the quene / that at that Iustes I wille be ageynst the kyng and ageynste al his selaufhyp / ye maye there doo as ye lyst sayd the Quene / 15 but by my counceylle ye shalle not be ageynst youre kyng and youre selaufhyp / For therin ben ful many hard knyghtes of youre blood as ye wote wel ynough / hit nedeth not to reherce them / ¶ Madame said fyre Launcelot I praye yow that ye be not displeasyd with me / for I wille take the aduenture that 20 god wylle fende me / And foo vpon the morne erly fyre laun-celot herd masse and brake his fast / and foo toke his leue of the quene and departed / And thenne he rode foo moche vntyl he came to Aftolat that is Gylford / and there hit happed hym in the euentide he cam to an old Barons place that hyght fir 25 Bernard of Aftolat / And as fyre launcelot entryd in to his lodgyng / kyngc Arthur aspyed hym as he dyd walke in a gardyn besyde the Castel how he took his lodgyng / & knowe hym ful wel / ¶ It is wel sayd kyngc Arthur vnto the knyghtes that were with hym in that gardyn besyde the cas- 30 tel / I haue now aspyed one knyghte that wylle playe his playe at the Iustes / to the whiche we be gone toward / I vndertake he wil do merueils / Who is that we pray you telle vs fayd many knyghtes that were there at that tyme / ye shal not wete for me said the kyng as at this tyme / And soo the kyng fmyled / and wente to his lodgyng / Soo whan sire launcelot was in his lodgyng / and vnarmed hym in his chamber the 5 olde baron and heremyte came to hym makynge his reuerence and welcomed hym in the best maner / but the old knyght kne-we not sire Launcelot / Fair sir said sir launcelot to his hooft I wold praye yow to lene me a shelde that were not openly knowen for myn is wel knowen / Sir said his hooft ye shalle 10 haue your defyre / for me semeth ye be one of the lykelyest kny-ghtes of the world / and therfor I shall shewe you frendship Sire wete yow wel I haue two fones that were but late made knyghtes / and the eldest hyghte sir Tirre / and he was hurt that fame day he was made knyghte that he may not ryde / and 15 his sheld ye shalle haue / For that is not knowen I dare faye but here / and in no place els / and my yongest sone hyght La-uayne / and yf hit please yow / he shalle ryde with yow vnto that Iustes / and he is of his age x stronge and wyght / for mo-che my herte gyueth vnto yow that ye shold be a noble knyghte 20 therfor I praye yow telle me your name / said sir Bernard As for that fayd sire launcelot ye must holde me excused as at this tyme / And yf god gyue me grace to speke wel att the Iustes / I shalle come ageyne and telle yow / but I praye yow said sir Launcelot in ony wyfe lete me haue youre sone sire la-25 uayne with me / and that I maye haue your broders shelde / Alle this shalle be done said sir Bernard / ¶ This old baron had a doughter that tyme that was called that tyme the faire mayden of Astolat / And euer she beheld sir launcelot wonderfully / And as the book sayth she cast fuche a loue vnto sir la-30 uncelot that she coude neuer withdrawe her loue / wherfore she dyed / and her name was Elayne le blank / Soo thus as she cam to and fro / she was soo hote in her loue that she befoughte fyr launcelot to were vpon hym at the Iustes a token of hers ¶ Faire damoyfel said sir launcelot / and yf I graunte yow 35 that ye may faye I doo more for youre loue than euer I dyd for lady or damoyfel / ¶ Thenne he remembryd hym that he wold goo to the Iustes desguysed / And by cause he had neuer fore that tyme borne noo manere of token of noo damoyfel

¶ Thenne he bethoughte hym that he wold bere one of her that none of his blood there by myghte knowe hym / and thenne he said Faire mayden I wyll graunte yow to were a token of yours vpon myn helmet / and therfor what it is / shewe it me Sir she said it is a reed fleue of myn of scarlet wel enbrou- 5 dred with grete perlys / and soo she brought it hym / Soo fyre Launcelot receyued it / and sayd neuer dyd I erst soo moche / for no damoyfel / And thenne fir launcelot bitoke the fair mayden his shelde in kepyng / and praid her to kepe that vntyl that he came ageyne / and soo that nyghte he had mery rest & grete 10 chere / For euer the damoyfel Elayne was aboute fire Launcelot alle the whyle she myghte be suffred

Soo vpon a daye on the morne kyng Arthur and al his knyghtes departed / for their kyng had taryed thre dayes to abyde his noble knyghtes / And soo whanne the 15 kyng was ryden / fir launcelot and fire Lauayne made hem redy to ryde / and eyther of hem had whyte sheldes / and the reed fleue fir Launcelot lete cary with hym / and soo they tooke their leue at fyr Bernard the old baron / and att his daughter the faire mayden of Astolat / And thenne they rode soo long til 20 that they came to Camelot that tyme called wynchestre / and there was grete prees of kynges / dukes / Erles / and barons / and many noble knyghtes / But there fir launcelot was lodged pryuely by the meanes of fir lauayne with a ryche burgeis that no man in that toun was ware what they were / & 25 soo they reposed them there til oure lady day assumpeyon as the grete feest sholde be / Soo thenne trumpets blewe vnto the felde / and kyng Arthur was sette on hyghe vpon a skafhold to beholde who dyd best / But as the Frensshe book faith / the kyng wold not suffer fyre Gawayn to goo from hym / for ne- 30 uer had fir Gawayn the better and fire launcelot were in the felde / & many tymes was fir Gawayn rebuked whan launcelot cam in to ony Iustes desguysed / Thenne som of the kynges as kyng Anguysshe of Irland and the kyng of Scottes were that tyme torned vpon the fyde of kyng Arthur / ¶ And 35 thenne on the other party was the kynge of Northgalys / and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes / and the kynge of Northumberland / and fyre Galahad the haut prynce / But these thre kynges and this duke were passyng weyke to holde age-5 ynft kynge Arthurs party / for with hym were the noblest kn-yghtes of the world / Soo thenne they withdrewen hem eyther party from other / and euery man made hym redy in his best maner to doo what he myghte / ¶ Thenne fyre Launcelot made hym redy / and putte the reed fleue vpon his hede / and fastned 10 it fast / and soo fyre launcelot and fyre Lauayne departed out of wynchestre pryuely / and rode vntyl a lytel leuyd wood / behynde the party that held ageynft kyng Arthurs party / and there they helde them styll tyl the parties smote to gyders / & thenne cam in the kynge of Scottes and the kyng of Irland 15 on Arthurs party / and ageynft them came the kynge of Northumberland / and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes smote doun the kynge of Northumberland / and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes smote doun kyng Anguyfthe of Ir-land / Thenne fyre Palomydes that was on Arthurs party 20 encountred with fyre Galahad / and eyther of hem smote do-une other / and eyther party halpe their lordes on horsbak a-geyne / Soo there began a stronge assaile vpon bothe parties / And thenne came in fyr Brandyles / fyre Sagramor le defyrus / fyre Dodynas le faueage / fyr kay le seneschal / fyr Gryf-25 let le fyfe de dieu / fyr Mordred / fyr Melyot de logrys / fyr O-zanna le cure hardy / fyr Safyr / fyr Epynogrys / fyr Galleron of Galway / Alle these xv knyghtes were knyghtes of the table round / Soo these with moo other came in to gyders / and bete on bak the kynge of Northumberland and the kynge of 30 Northwalys / whan fyr launcelot sawe this as he houed in a lytil leued woode / thenne he sayd vnto fyre lauayn / see yonder is a company of good knyghtes / and they hold them to gyders as bores that were chauffed with dogges / that is trouthe said fyre Lauayne

Now fayd fyre Launcelot / and ye wille helpe me a ly-tel / ye shalle see yonder felauship that chafeth now these men in oure syde that they shal go as fast bakward as they wente forward / Sir spare not said fyre Lauayne / for I shall doo what I maye / Thenne fyre Launcelot and fyre Lauayne 5 cam in at the thyckest of the prees / and there fyre launcelot smote doune fyr Brandyles / fyre Sagamore / fyre Dodynas/fir Kay / fyr Gryflet / and alle this he dyd with one spere / and fyre Lauayne smote doune fyre Lucan the buttelere / and fir Bedeuere / And thenne fyre Launcelot gat another spere / & there 10 he smote doune fir Agrawayne / fyre Gaherys / and fir Mordred and fir Melyot de Logrys / and fir Lauayne smote doune O-zanna le cure hardy / and thenne fir Launcelot drewe his suerd and there he smote on the ryght hand and on the lyfte hand and by grete force he vnhorced fyr Safyr / fyre Epynogrys / & 15 fir Galleron / and thenne the knyghtes of the table round withdrewe them abak after they had goten their horses as wel as they myghte / O mercy Ihesu said fyre Gawayne what knyghte is yonder that doth soo merueyllous dedes of armes in that felde / I wote not what he is sayd kynge Arthur / But as att 20 this tyme I wille not name hym / fyre fayd fyre Gawayne I wold say it were fyr launcelot by his rydyng and his buf-fets that I see hym dele / but euer me semeth it shold not be he for that he bereth the reed fleue vpon his hede / for I wyft hym neuer bere token at no Iustes of lady nor gentilwoman / Lete 25 hym be said kynge Arthur / he wille be better knowen / and do more or euer he departe / Thenne the party that was ayenst kynge Arthur were wel comforted / and thenne they helde hem to gyders that before hand were fore rebuked / Thenne fir Bors fir Ector de marys and fir Lyonel called vnto them the kny3- 30 tes of their blood / as fir Blamor de ganyys / fyre Bleoberys fyr Alyduke / fir Galyhud / fyre Galyhodyn / fir Bellangere le beufe / soo these nyne knyghtes of fir launcelots skynne threste in myghtely / for they were al noble knyghtes / and they of grete hate and despyte that they had vnto hym thoughte to re- 35 buke that noble knyght fir launcelot & fir lauayne / for they knewe hem not / and foo they cam hurlynge to gyders / & smote doune many knyghtes of northgalys and of northumberland And whanne fire launcelot fawe them fare foo / he gat a spere in his hand / and there encountred with hym al attones fyr bors 5 fir Ector and fire Lyonel / and alle they thre smote hym atte ones with their speres / And with fors of them felf they smote fir launcelots hors to the erthe / and by myfffortune fir bors smote fyre launcelot thurgh the shelde in to the fyde / and the spere brake / and the hede lefte styлле in his fyde / whan fir La-10 uayne fawe his maister lye on the ground / he ranne to the kynge of scottes / and smote hym to the erthe / and by grete force he took his hors / and brought hym to fyr launcelot / and maul-gre of them al he made hym to mounthe vpon that hors / & thenne launcelot gat a spere in his hand / and there he smote fyre 15 Bors hors and man to the erthe / in the same wyfe he serued fyre Ector and fyre Lyonel / and fyre Lauayne smote doune fir Blamore de ganys / And thenne fir launcelot drewe his fuerd for he felte hym felf so fore y hurte that he wende there to haue had his dethe / And thenne he smote fire Bleoberys suche a 20 buffet on the helmet that he felle doune to the erthe in a fwoun And in the same wyfe he serued fir Alyduk / and fir Galyhud And fire Lauayne smote doune fyr Bellangere that was the fone of Alyfaunder le orphelyn / and by this was fire Bors horfed / and thenne he came with fire Ector and fyr Lyonel / & 25 alle they thre smote with fuerdes vpon fyre launcelots helmet / And whan he felte their buffets / and his wounde the whiche was foo greuous than he thought to doo what he myght why-le he myght endure / And thenne he gaf fyr Bors suche a buffet that he made hym bowe his heed passyng lowe / and there 30 with al he raced of his helme / and myght haue slayne hym / & foo pulled hym doune / and in the same wyfe he serued fyre Ector and fire Lyonel / For as the book saith he myghte haue slayne them / but whan he fawe their vyfages / his herte myght not serue hym therto / but lefte hem there 35 ¶ And thenne afterward he hurled in to the thyckest prees of them alle and dyd there the merucyloust dedes of armes that euer man fawe or herde speke of / And euer fire Lauayne the good knyghte with hym / and there fire Launcelot with his fuerd smote doune and pulled doune as the Frensshe book maketh mencyon moo than thyrty knyghtes / & the moost party were of the table round / and sire Lauayne dyd ful wel that day / for he smote doune ten knyghtes of the table round / Merueil 5

what knyghte that he is with the reed fleue / Syr faide kyng Arthur he wille be knowen or he departe / and thenne the kyng blewe vnto lodgyng / and the pryce was gyuen by herowdes vnto the knyghte with the whyte shelde that bare the reed fleue / Thenne came the kyng with the honderd knyghtes 10 the kyng of Northgalys / and the kyng of Northumberland and sir Galahaut the haute prynce / and sayd vnto sire laun-celot / fayre knyght god the bleffe / for moche haue ye done this day for vs / therfor we praye yow that ye wille come with vs that ye may receyue the honour and the pryce as ye haue wor- 15 shipfully deserued it / My faire lordes faide sire launcelot wete yow wel yf I haue deserued thanke / I haue fore bought hit and that me repenteth / for I am lyke neuer to escape with my lyf / therfor faire lordes I pray yow that ye wille suffer me to departe where me lyketh / for I am fore hurte / I take none force 20 of none honour / for I had leuer to repose me than to be lord of alle the world / and there with al he groned pytously and rode a grete wallop away ward fro them vntyl he came vnder a woodes fyde / And whan he sawe that he was from the felde nyghe a myle that he was sure he myghte not be sene / Thenne 25 he said with an hyȝ voys / O gentyl knyght sir Lauayne helpe me that this truncheon were oute of my fyde / for it stycketh so fore that it nyhe sleeth me / O myn owne lord said sir Lauayne I wold fayn do that myȝt please yow / but I drede me fore / & I pulle oute the truncheon that ye shalle be in perylle of dethe / I 30 charge you said sir launcelot as ye loue me drawe hit oute / & there with alle he descended from his hors / and ryght soo dyd sir Lauayn / and forth with al sir Lauayn drewe the truncheon out of his fyde / and gaf a grete shryche and a merueillous gryfely grone / and the blood brafte oute nyghe a pynt at ones that at the laft he fanke down vpon his buttocks & fo fwounded pale and dedely / Allas fayd fire Lauayne what fhalle I doo And thenne he torned fir launcelot in to the wynde / but foo he 5 laye there nyghe half an houre as he had ben dede / And fo at the lafte fyre Launcelot cafte vp his eyen / and fayd O Lauayn helpe me / that I were on my hors / for here is faft by within this two myle a gentyl heremyte that fomtyme was a fulle noble knyghte and a grete lord of poffeffions / And for grete 10 goodenes he hath taken hym to wylful pouerte / and forfaken many landes / and his name is fire Baudewyn of Bretayn and he is a ful noble furgeon and a good leche / Now lete fee / helpe me vp that I were there / for euer my herte gyueth me that I fhalle neuer dye of my cofyn germayns handes / & 15 thenne with grete payne fir Lauayne halpe hym vpon his hors And thenne they rode a grete wallop to gyders / and euer fyr Launcelot bledde / that it ranne doune to the erthe / and fo by fortune they came to that hermytage the whiche was vnder a wood / and a grete clyf on the other fyde / and a fayre water ren-20 nyng vnder it / And thenne fire Lauayn bete on the gate with the but of his fpere / and cryed faft / Lete in for Ihefus sake/and there came a fair chyld to them / and asked hem what they wold / Faire fone faid fyr Lauayne / goo and pray thy lord/the heremyte for goddes sake to lete in here a knyghte that is 25 ful fore wounded / and this day telle thy lord I fawe hym do more dedes of armes than euer I herd fay ony man dyd Soo the chyld wente in lyghtely / and thenne he brought the heremyte the whiche was a paffynge good man / Whan fyr la-uayne fawe hym he prayd hym for goddes sake of focour / what 30 knyght is he fayd the heremyte / is he of the hows of kyng arthur or not / I wote not faid fire Lauayne what is he / nor what is his name / but wel I wote I fawe hym doo meruey-loufly this daye as of dedes of armes / On whos party was he fayd the heremyte / fyre faid fyre Lauayne he was this daye 35 ageynft kyng Arthur / and there he wanne the pryce of alle the knyghtes of the round table / I haue fene the daye fayd the heremyte / I wold haue loued hym the werfe / by caufe he was ageynft my lord kyng Arthur / for fomtyme I was one of the felauship of the round table / but I thanke god now I am otherwyse disposed / But where is he / lete me see hym/Thenne sir Lauayne broughte the heremyte to hym

¶ Capitulum xiiij

ANd whan the heremyte beheld hym as he sat lenynge vpon his sadel bowe euer bledynge pytously / and e- 5 uer the knyghte heremyte thoughte that he shold knowe hym but he coude not brynge hym to knoueleche / by cause he was soo pale for bledynge / what knyghte are ye sayd the heremyte / and where were ye borne / My fayre lord sayd fyre Launcelot I am a straunger and a knyghte auenturous that laboureth thur- 10 oute many Realmes for to wyne worship / Thenne the here-myte aduysed hym better / and fawe by a wound on his cheke that he was fyr Launcelot / Allas sayd the heremyte myn owne lord why layne you your name from me / ¶ For sothe I oughte to knowe yow of ryȝt / for ye are the moost noblest kn- 15 yghte of the world / for wel I knowe yow for fire launcelot Sire said he sythe ye knowe me / helpe me and ye may for god-des sake / for I wold be oute of this payne at ones / outhur 'to dethe or to lyf / Hauē ye no doubte sayd the heremyte ye shall lyue and fare ryght wel / and soo the heremyte called to hym 20 two of his seruauytes / and so he and his seruauentes bare hym in to the hermytage / and lyghtely vnarmed hym / and leyd hym in his bedde / And thenne anone the heremyte staunched his blood and made hym to drynke good wyn so that sir la-uncelot was wel refresshed and knewe hym self / For in the- 25 fe dayes it was not the guyse of heremytes as is now a dayes For there were none heremytes in tho dayes but that they had ben men of worship and of prowesse / and tho heremytes helde grete housholde / and refresshyd peple that were in distresse /

¶ Now torne we vnto kyng Arthur and leue we sir laun- 30 celot in the hermytage / ¶ Soo whan the kynges were comen to gyders on bothe parties / and the grete feest shold be holden kyng Arthur asked the kyng of Northgalys and theyr selaushyp where was that knyghte that bare the reed fleue / brynge hym afore me that he may haue his lawde and honour & 35 the pryce as it is ryght / Thenne spake fir Galahad the haute prynce and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes / we suppoſe that knyghte is meſcheued & that he is neuer lyke to ſee yow nor none of vs alle / and that is the gretteſt pyte that euer we 5 wyſte of ony knyghte / Allas ſayd Arthur how may this be / is he foo hurte / What is his name ſayd kynge Arthur / Truly ſaid they all we knowe not his name / nor from whens he cam nor whyder he wold / Allas ſayd the kynge this be to me the werſt tydynges that came to me this ſeuen yere / For I wold 10 not for alle the londes I welde to knowe and wete it were ſo that that noble knyght were ſlayne / knowe ye hym ſayd they al / ¶ As for that ſayd Arthur / whether I knowe we hym or knowe hym not / ye ſhal not knowe for me what man he is but almyghty ihesu ſende me good good tydynges 15 of hym and ſoo ſaid they alle / By my hede ſaid ſire Gawayn yf it ſoo be that the good knyghte be ſo fore hurte / hit is grete dommage and pyte to alle this land / For he is one of the no-bleſt knyghtes that euer I ſawe in a felde handle a ſpere or a fuerd / And yf he maye be ſounde I ſhalle ſynde hym / For 20 I am ſure he nys not fer fro this towne / bere yow wel ſayd kynge Arthur / and ye may ſynde hym onles that he be in fuche a plyte that he may not welde hym ſelf / Iheſu defende ſayd fir Gawayne / but wete I ſhalle what he is and I may ſynde hym / Ryght ſoo fyre Gawayne took a ſquyer with hym vp-25 on hakneis and rode al aboute Camelot within vj or ſeuen my-le / but ſoo he came ageyne and coude here no word of hym / Thenne within two dayes kynge Arthur and alle the ſelauſhypp retorned vnto london ageyne / And ſoo as they rode by the waye / hit happed fir Gawayne at Aſtolat to lodge wyth 30 fyr Bernard / there as was fyr Launcelot lodged / and ſoo as ſire Gawayn was in his chamber to repoſe hym / fyr Barnard the old Baron came vnto hym and his doughter Elayne to chere hym and to aſke hym what tydynges and who dyd beſt at that turnement of wyncheſter / Soo god me help ſaid fyre 35 Gawayne there were two knyghtes that bare two whyte ſheldes / but the one of hem bare a reed fleuc vpon his hede and certainly he was one of the beſt knyghtes that euer I ſawe luſte in felde / For I dare ſay ſayd ſire Gawayne that one knyght with the reed fleue fmote doune fourty knyghtes of the table round / and his felawe dyd ryght wel and worshypfully / ¶ Now bleffid be god sayd the fayre mayden of Aftolat that that knyght sped soo wel / for he is the man in the world that I fyrst loued / and truly he shalle be lafte that euer I sh- 5 alle loue / / Now fayre mayde sayd fir Gawayne is that good knyght your loue / Certaynly fir sayd she / wete ye wel he is my loue / thenne knowe ye his name sayd fire gawayne / Nay truly said the damoyfel / I knowe not his name nor from whens he cometh / but to say that I loue hym I promyse you and 10 god that I loue hym / how had ye kouleche of hym fyrst faid fire Gawayne

¶ Capitulum xiiij

THenne she told hym as ye haue herd to fore / and hou her fader betoke hym her broder to doo hym seruyse / and 15 how her fader lente hym her broders fyr Tyrreis shelde / and here with me he lefte his owne sheld / For what cause dyd he so said fir Gawayne / For this cause sayd the damoyfel / for his sheld was to wel knowne amonge many noble knyghtes / A fayr damoyfel sayd fir Gawayne please hit yow lete me haue a syghte of that sheld / fyre said she it is in my chamber couerd 20 with a caas / and yf ye wille come with me / ye shalle see hit / Not soo sayd fyre Barnard tyl his daughter lete sende for it Soo whan the sheld was comen / fir Gawayne took of the ca-as / And whanne he beheld that sheld he knewe anone that hit was fir launcelots shelde / and his owne armes / A Ihesu mer- 25 cy sayd fyr Gawayne now is my herte more heuyer than euer it was tofore why sayd Elayne / for I haue grete cause sayd fire Gawayne / is that knyght that oweth this shelde your loue ye truly said she my loue he is / god wold I were his loue/Soo god me spede sayd fire Gawayne fair damoyfel ye haue 30 ryght / for and he be your loue / ye loue the moost honourable knyghte of the world and the man of moost worshyp / So me thoughte euer said the damoyfel / for neuer or that tyme for no knyghte that euer I sawe / loued I neuer none erst / ¶ God graunte sayd fire Gawayne that eyther of yow maye reioyse 35 other / but that is in a grete aduerture / But truly said sir gawayne vnto the damoyfel / ye may faye ye haue a fayre grace for why I haue knowen that noble knyght this four and twenty yere / and neuer or that day / I nor none other knyghte / I 5 dare make good / fawe / nor herd faye that euer he bare token or fygne of no lady / gentilwoman / ne mayden at no Iustes nor turnement / And therfor fayre mayden faide sire Gawayne ye ar moche beholden to hym to gyue hym thanks / But I drede me sayd sire Gawayne that ye shalle neuer see hym in this 10 world / and that is grete pyte / that euer was of erthely knyght / Allas sayd she / how may this be / is he slayne / I fay not foo said sire Gawayne / but wete ye wel / he is greuouly wounded by alle maner of fygnes and by mens fyghte more lykelyer to be dede than to be on lyue / and wete ye wel he is the 15 noble knyghte sire launcelot / for by this sheld I knowe hym Allas said the fayre mayden of Aftolat / how maye this be / and what was his hurte / Truly said sire Gawayne the man in the world that loued hym best / hurte hym foo / and I dare fay sayd sir Gawayne / and that knyghte that hurte hym kne-20 we the veray certaynte that he had hurte sire Launcelot / it wold be the moost forowe that euer came to his herte / Now fair fader said thenne Elayne I requyre yow gyue me leue to ryde and to feke hym / or els I wote wel I shalle go oute of my mynde / for I shalle neuer stynte tyl that I fynde hym / and 25 my broder fyre Lauayne / Doo as it lyketh yow sayd her fader / for me fore repenteth of the hurte of that noble knyghte

¶ Ryghte foo the mayde made her redy and before fyre Gawayne makynge grete dole / Thenne on the morne fyr Gawayne came to kynge Arthur / and told hym how he had fonde 30 sire Launcelots shelde in the kepynge of the fayre mayden of Aftolat / Alle that knewe I afore hand sayd kynge Arthur and that caused me I wold not suffer you to haue adoo atte grete Iustes / for I aspyed said kynge Arthur whan he cam in tyl his lodgyng ful late in the euenynge in Aftolat / But 35 merueille haue I said Arthur that euer he wold bere ony fygne of ony damoyfel / For or now I neuer herd fay nor knewe that euer he bare ony token of none erthely woman / By my hede said sir Gawayne the fayre mayden of Aftolat loueth hym merueylously wel / what it meaneth I can not faye / & she is ryden after to feke hym / Soo the kynge and alle cam to london / and there fire Gawayne openly disclosed to alle the Courte that it was fire Launcelot that Iusted best

¶ Capitulum xv

ANd whanne fir Bors herd that wete ye wel / he was 5 an heuy man / and foo were alle his kynnesmen / But whan quene Gueneuer wyfte that fyre Launcelot bare the reed sleue / of the fayre mayden of Astolat / she was nyghe oute of her mynde for wrathe / ¶ And thenne she sente for fyr Bors de ganyns in alle the haft that myghte be / Soo whanne 10 fire Bors was come to fore the quene / thenne she fayd / A fire Bors haue ye herd fay how falsly fir launcelot hath bytrayed me / Allas madame said fire Bors / I am aferd he hath by-trayed hym self and vs alle / No force said the quene though he be destroyed / for he is a fals traytour knyghte / Madame fa- 15 yd fir Bors I pray yow faye ye not so / for wete yow wel / I maye not here fuche langage of hym / why fire Bors fayd she / shold I not calle hym traytour whan he bare the reed sleue vpon his hede at wynchestre at the grete Iustes / Madame fayd fyre Bors that sleue beryng repenteth me fore / but I dar fay 20 he dyd it to none euille entente / but for this cause he bare the reed sleue that none yf his blood shold knowe hym / For or thenne we nor none of vs alle neuer knewe that euer he bare token or fygne of mayde / lady / ne gentylwoman / Fy on hym said the quene / yet for all his pryde and bobaunce there ye pro- 25 ued your self his better / Nay madame faye ye neuer more soo for he bete me / and my felawes / and myghte haue slayne vs and he had wold / Fy on hym fayd the quene / For I herd fir Gawayne faye bfore my lord Arthur that it were merueil to telle the grete loue that is bitwene the fayre mayden of Af- 30 tolat and hym / Madame faide fyre Bors I maye not warne fyr Gawayne to fay what it pleasyd hym / But I dare fay as for my lord fyre Launcelot that he loueth no lady gentilwoman nor mayde / but all he loueth in lyke moche / and therfor madame said fir Bors / ye may faye what ye wylle / but wete ye wel I wille hafte me to feke hym / and fynde hym where fomeuer he be / and god fende me good tydynges of hym / and foo leue we them there / and speke we of fire launcelot that lay 5 in grete perylle / Soo as fayr Elayne cam to wynchestre / she foughte there al aboute / and by fortune fyr Lauayne was ryden to playe hym to enchauffe his hors / And anone as Elayne sawe hym she knewe hym / And thenne she cryed on loude vntyl hym / And whan he herd her / anone he came to her / and 10 thenne she asked her broder how dyd my lord fire launcelot / Who told yow fyfter that my lordes name was fir Launcelot thenne she told hym how fire Gawayne by his sheld knewe hym / Soo they rode to gyders tyl that they cam to the hermytage / and anone she alyghte / So fir Lauayne broughte her in to 15 fire launcelot / And whanne she sawe hym lye so feke & pale in his bedde / she myght not speke / but fodenly she felle to the erthe doune fodenly in a fwoun / and there she lay a grete wh-yle / And whanne she was releuyd / she shryked / and saide my lord fire Launcelot Allas why be ye in this plyte / and thenne 20 she fwouned ageyne / And thenne fir Launcelot prayd fyre Lauayne to take her vp / and brynge her to me / And whan she cam to her self fire Launcelot kyft her / and said / Fair mayden why fare ye thus / ye put me to payne wherfor make ye nomo-re fuche chere / for and ye be come to comforte me / ye be ryzt wel-25 come / and of this lytel hurte that I haue I shal be ryghte hastely hole by the grace of god / But I merueylle sayd fir Launcelot / who told yow my name / thenne the fayre mayden told hym alle how fire Gawayne was lodged with her fader and there by your sheld he discouerd your name / Allas sayd 30 fir launcelot that me repenteth that my name is knowen / for I am sure it wille torne vnto angre / And thenne fir launcelot compast in his mynde that fyre Gawayne wold telle Quene Gueneuer / how he bare the reed fleue / and for whome / that he wyft wel wold torne vnto grete angre / Soo this mayden 35 Elayne neuer wente from fir launcelot / but watched hym day and nyght / and dyd fuche attendaunce to hym that the fren-sche book faith / there was neuer woman dyd more kyndelyer for man than she / Thenne fir Launcelot prayd fir Lauayne to make aspyes in wynchestre for fire Bors yf he came there / and told hym by what tokens he shold knowe hym by a wound in his forhede / for wel I am sure sayd fire launcelot / that fyre Bors wille feke me / for he is the same good knyȝt that hurte me /

¶ Capitulum xvi

Now torne we vnto fire Bors de ganyz that cam vnto wynchestre to feke after his cofyn fyre Launcelot / and foo whanne he cam to wynchestre / anone there were men that fire Lauayne had made to lye in a watche for fuche a man and anone fir Lauayne had warnynge / and thenne fire La- 10 uayne came to wynchestre / and fond fir Bors / and there he told hym what he was / and with whome he was / and what was his name / ¶ Now sayr knyghte said fire Bors I requyre yow that ye wille brynge me to my lord fir launcelot / Syre sayd fir Lauayne take your hors / & within this houre ye shall 15 see hym / and foo they departed / and came to the hermytage /

¶ And whan fir Bors sawe fir launcelot lye in his bedde pale and discoloured / anone fir Bors lost his countenance / and for kyndenes and pyte / he myghte not speke / but wepte tendirly a grete whyle / And thenne whanne he myght speke / he sa- 20 id thus / O my lord fire launcelot god yow blyffe / and send yow hasty recouer / And ful heuy am I of my myffortune & of myn vnhappyynes / for now I may calle my self unhappy / & I drede me that god is gretely displeasyd with me that he wold suffre me to haue fuche a shame for to hurte yow that ar 25 alle oure leder / and alle oure worshyp / and therfor I calle my self unhappy / Allas that euer fuche a caytyf knyghte as I am shold haue power by vnhappyynes to hurte the moost noblest knyghte of the world / where I foo shamefully fet vpon yow and ouercharged yow / and where ye myghte haue slayne me 30 ye faued me / and so dyd not I / For I and your blood did to yow our vtterance / I merueyle sayd fire Bors that my herte or my blood wold ferue me / wherfor my lord fir launcelot I aske your mercy / Fair cofyn said fire Launcelot ye be ryght welcome / & wete ye wel / ouer moche ye fay for to please 35 me / the whiche pleaseth me not / for why I haue the fame y fought / for I wold with pryde haue ouercome yow alle / and there in my pryde I was nere slayne / and that was in myn owne defaute / for I myghte haue gyue yow warnyng of my 5 beyng there / And thenne had I had noo hurte / for it is an old sayd fawe / there is hard bataille there as kynne & frendes doo bataille eyther ageynste other / there maye be no mercy but mortal warre / Therfor fair cofyn said fir launcelot / lete thys speche ouerpasse and alle shalle be welcome that god sendeth 10 and lete vs leue of this mater / and lete vs speke of somme reioycyng / for this that is done maye not be vndone / and lete vs fynde a remedy how soone that I may be hole / Thenne fire Bors lened vpon his beddes fyde / and told fire Launcelot how the quene was passyng wrothe with hym / by cause he was 15 re the reed fleue at the grete lustes / and there fir Bors told hym alle how fir Gawayne discouered hit by youre sheld that ye leste with the fayre mayden of Aftolat / Thenne is the quene wrothe said fir launcelot / and therfor am I ryght heuy / for I deserued no wrath / for alle that I dyd was by cause I 20 wold not be knowen / Ryght so excused I yow said fir Bors but alle was in vayne / for she sayd more largelyer to me thā I to yow now / But is this she said fire Bors that is so befye aboute yow / that men calle the fayre mayden of Aftolat / She it is said fire launcelot that by no meanes I can not putte her 25 from me / why shold ye putte her from you said fire Bors / she is a passyng fayre damoyfel and a wel bifene and wel taughte / and god wold fayre cofyn said fyre Bors that ye coude loue her / but as to that I may not / nor I dare not counceyle yow /

 But I see wel sayd fir Bors by her dylygence a 30 boutte you that she loueth you entierly / that me repenteth said fir Launcelot / fyr said fyr Bors / she is not the fyrst that hath loste her payn vpon yow / and that is the more pyte / and soo they talked of many moo thynges / And soo within thre dayes or four fire launcelot was bygge and stronge ageyne

¶ Capitulum xviij

¶ Capitulum xvij

THenne fire Bors told fire launcelot how there was fborne a grete turnement and Iustes betwixe kyng Arthur and the kyng of Northgalys that sholde be vpon al halowmasse day besyde wynchestre / is that trouthe faid fir launcelot / thenne shalle ye abyde with me styl a lytyll 5 whyle vntyl that I be hole / for I fele my self ryght bygge & stronge / Blessid be god said fyr Bors / thenne were they there nygh a moneth to gyders / and euer this mayden Elayn dyd euer her dylygente labour nyghte and daye vnto fyr launcelot / that ther was neuer child nor wyf more meker to her fa- 10 der and husband than was that fayre mayden of Astolat/wherfore fir Bors was gretely pleasyd with her / Soo vpon a day by the assente of fyr launcelot / fyre Bors and fyre la-uayne they made the heremyte to seke in woodes for dyuerse her-bes / and soo fir launcelot made fayre Elayne to gadre herbes 15 for hym to make hym a bayne / In the meane whyle fyr laun-celot made hym to arme hym at alle pyeces / and there he thoughte to assaye his armour and his spere for his hurte or not And soo whan he was vpon his hors / he stered hym fyersly / and the hors was passynge lusty and fresshe by cause he was 20 not laboured a moneth afore / And thenne fyr Launcelot couched that spere in the reest / that courser lepte myghtely whan he felte the spores / and he that was vpon hym the whiche was the noblest hors of the world strayned hym myghtely and sta-bly / and kepte styll the spere in the reest / and ther with fyre 25 Launcelot strayned hym self soo straytly with soo grete force to gete the hors forward that the buttom of his wound brast bothe within and withoute / and there with alle the blood cam oute so fyersly that he felte hym self soo feble that he myghte not sytte vpon his hors / And thenne fyr Launcelot cryed vnto 30 fyr Bors / A fyr Bors and fyr Lauayne helpe for I am come to myn ende / And there with he felle down on the one syde to the erthe lyke a dede corps / And thenne fyr Bors and fyr Lauayne came to hym with forowe makynge out of mesure / And soo by fortune the mayden Elayn herd their mornynge / & 35 thenne she came thyder / & whan she fond fyr Launcelot there armed in that place / she cryed & wepte as she had ben woode / & thenne she kyft hym / & dyd what she myghte to awake hym / And thenne she rebuked her broder and sir Bors / and called hem fals traytours / why they wold take hym out of his bedde / there she cryed and sayd / she wold appele them of his 5 deth / With this came the holy heremyte fyr Bawdewyn of bre-tayne / And whan he fond fyr launcelot in that plyte / he sayd but lytel / but wete ye wel he was wrothe / and thenne he bad hem / lete vs haue hym in / And so they alle bare hym vnto the hermytage / and vnarmed hym / and layd hym in his bedde / & 10 euer more his wound bledde pytously / but he stered no lymme of hym / Thenne the knyghte heremyte put a thyng in his nose and a lytel dele of water in his mouthe / And thenne sir laun-celot waked of his swoune / and thenne the heremyte staunched his bledynge / And whan he myghte speke / he asked sir laun-15 celot / why he putte his lyf in Ieopardy / Sir said fyre Launcelot by cause I wende I had ben stronge / and also fyre Bors told me / that there shold be at al halowmaffe a grete Iustes betwixe kyng Arthur and the kyng of Northgalys / and ther-for I thoughte to assaye hit my self / whether I myght be the-20 re or not / A fyr launcelot sayd the heremyte / your herte & your courage wille neuer be done vntyl your last day / but ye shal doo now by my counceylle / lete fyre Bors departe from yow / & lete hym doo at that turnement what he may / and by the grace of god sayd the knyghte heremyte by that the turnement be 25 done and ye come hydder ageyne / fyr launcelot shall be as hole as ye / foo that he wil be gouerned by me /

Capitulum xviij

THenne fyre Bors made hym redy to departe from fyre launcelot / and thenne fyre launcelot sayd / Faire cosyn fyr Bors recommaunde me vnto all them / vnto whome me 30 oughte to recommaunde me vnto / and I pray yow / enforce your self at that Iustes that ye maye be best for my loue / & here shalle I abyde yow at the mercy of god tyl ye come ageyne and so sir Bors departed & came to the courte of kyng arthur and told hem in what place he had lefte fyre launcelot / that 35 me repenteth said the kyng / but syn he shall haue his lyf we all may thanke god / and there fyre Bors told the Quene in what Ieopardy fyre Launcelot was / whanne he wold assaye his hors / and alle that he dyd madame was for the loue of yow / by caufe he wold haue ben at this turnement / Fy on hym recreaunt knyghte sayd the quene / For wete ye wel I am ryght fory and he shalle haue his lyf / his lyf shalle he haue said fyr Bors / and who that wold other wyfe excepte you mada- 5 me / we that ben of his blood shold helpe to shorte there ly-ues / but madame sayd fyr Bors ye haue ben oftymes displedyd with my lord fyr launcelot / but at all tymes at the ende ye fynde hym a true knyghte and soo he departed / And thenne euery knyghte of the round table that were there at that ty- 10 me present made them redy to be at that Iustes at all halow-masse and thyder drewe many knyghtes of dyuerse countreyes And as al halowemasse drewe nere / thydder came the kynge of Northgalys / and the kynge with the honderd knyghtes / & fyr Galahaut the haute prynce of Surluse / and thydder came 15 kynge Anguysshe of Irland / and the kynge of Scottes / soo these thre kynges came on kynge Arthurs party / and soo that daye fyre Gawayne dyd grete dedes of armes / and began fyrst And the herowdes nombred that sir Gawayne smote doune xx knyghtes / Thenne fyr Bors de ganys came in the same tyme 20 and he was nombred that he smote doune twenty knyghtes / And therfor the pryce was gyuen betwixe them bothe / for they began fyrst and lengest endured /

¶ Also fyr Gareth as the book sayth dyd that daye grete de-des of armes / for he smote doune and pulled doune thyrty 25 knyghtes / But whan he had done these dedes / he taryed not / but soo departed / and therfor he lost his pryce / & sir Palomydes did grete dedes of armes that day / for he smote down twenty knytes / but he departed fodenly / & men demed fyre Gareth & he rode to gyders to somme maner aduentures / Soo whan this turne- 30 ment was done / fyr Bors departed / & rode tyl he came to fyre launcelot his cosyn / & thenne he fonde hym walkynge on his feet / & ther eyther made grete Ioye of other / & so fyre Bors tolde fyr launcelot of all the Iustes lyke as ye haue herde / I merueille said sir launcelot that fyre Gareth whan he had done suche 35 dedes of armes that he wolde not tary / therof we merueyled al faide fyr Bors / for but yf it were yow or fyr Tristram or fyre lamorak de galys I sawe neuer knygt bere doune soo many in so lytel a whyle as dyd fyr Gareth / And anon as he was gone we wyfte not where / By my hede faid fir launcelot he is a noble knyghte / and a myghty man / and wel brethed / and yf he were wel affayed faid fir Launcelot / I wold deme he 5 were good ynough for ony knyghte that bereth the lyf / and he is a gentyl knyghte / curtois / true / and bounteuous / meke and mylde / and in hym is no maner of male engyn / but playne / feythful and trewe / Soo thenne they made hem redy to departe from the heremyte / and so vpon a morne they took their horfes 10 and Elayne le blank with them / And whan they came to Aftolat / there were they wel lodged and had grete chere of fyre Bernard the old baron / and of fir Tyrre his sone / and so vp-on the morne whan fyr Launcelot shold departe / fayre Elayne brouzt her fader with her and fir Lauayne and fir Tyrre 15 and thus she faid

Capitulum xix

 Y lord fyr Launcelot now I see ye wylle departe Now fayre knyghte and curtois knyghte haue mercy vpon me / and suffer me not to dye for thy loue / what wold ye that I dyd faid fyr launcelot / I wold haue you to 20 my hufbond fayd Elayne / Fair damoyfel I thanke yow fayd fyr Launcelot / but truly fayd he I cast me neuer to be wedded man / thenne fair knyght faid she / wylle ye be my peramo-ur / Ihesu defende me faid fyr launcelot / for thenne I rewarded your fader and your broder ful euylle for their grete goodenes 25 Allas fayd she / thenne must I dye for your loue / ye shal not so faid fyre launcelot / for wete ye wel fayr mayden I myght haue ben maryed & I had wolde / but I neuer applyed me to be maryed yet / but by cause fair damoyfel that ye loue me as ye faye ye doo / I wille for your good wylle and kyndenes she-30 we yow fomme goodenes / & that is this / that were someuer ye wille befet youre herte vpon fomme goode knyghte that wylle wedde yow / I shalle gyue yow to gyders a thousand pound yerely to yow & to your heyres / thus moche will I gyue yow faire madame for your kyndenes / & alweyes whyle I lyue to 35 be your owne knyghte

¶ Of alle this faide the may-den I wille none / for but yf ye wille wedde me or ellys be my peramour at the leest / wete yow wel fir launcelot my good dayes are done / Fair damoyfel sayd fir launcelot of these ij thynges ye must pardonne me / thenne she shryked shyrly / and felle doune in a swoune / and thenne wymmen bare her in to her chamber / and there she made ouer moche sorowe / and thenne fir launcelot wold departe / and there he asked fir Lauayn what he wold doo / what shold I doo said fyre lauayne but folowe yow / but yf ye dryue me from yow / or commaunde me to goo from yow / Thenne came fir Bernard to fir launcelot and sayd to hym / I can not see but that my doughter Elayne wille dye for your sake / I maye not doo with alle said fir launcelot / for that me fore repenteth / For I reporte me to youre self that my profer is fayre / and me repenteth said fyr launcelot that she lo-ueth me as she doth / I was neuer the causer of hit / for I reporte me to youre sone I erly ne late profered her bounte nor faire byhestes / and as for me said fir launcelot I dare do alle that a knyght shold doo that she is a clene mayden for me bo-the for dede and for wille / And I am ryght heuy of her distresse / for she is a ful fayre mayden good and gentyl and well taughte / Fader said fir Lauayne I dar make goood she is a clene mayden as for my lord fir launcelot / but she doth as I doo / For fythen I fyrst sawe my lord fir launcelot I coude neuer departe from hym nor nought I wylle and I maye folo-we hym / Thenne fir Launcelot took his leue / and soo they departed / and came vnto wynchestre / And whan Arthur wyfte that fyr launcelot was come hole and found / the kynge maade grete ioye of hym / and soo dyd fir Gawayn and all the knytes of the round table excepte fir Agrauayn and sire Mordred ¶ Alfo quene Gueneuer was woode wrothe with fir launcelot and wold by no meanes speke with hym / but enstraunged her self from hym / and fir launcelot made alle the mea-nes that he myght for to speke with the quene / but hit wolde not be / ¶ Now speke we of the fayre mayden of Astolat that made fuchie forowe daye and nyght that she neuer slepte / ete / nor drank / and euer she made her complaynt vnto fir Launcelot / so when she had thus endured a ten dayes / that she febled so that she must nedes passe out of thys world / thenne she shryued her clene / and receyued her creatoure / And euer she complayned style vpon fire launcelot / Thenne her ghooftly fader bad her le-ue fuche thoughtes / Thenne she fayd why shold I leue fuche thoughtes / am I not an erthely woman / and alle the whyle the brethe is in my body I may complayne me / for my byleue is I doo none offence / though I loue an erthely man / and I take god to my record I loued none but sir launcelot du lake nor neuer shall / and a clene mayden I am for hym and for alle other / and fythen hit is the sufferance of god / that I shalle dye for the loue of soo noble a knyghte / I byfe-che the hyghe fader of heuen to haue mercy vpon my fowle / and vpon myn innumerable paynes that I suffred may be allygeaunce of parte of my fynnes / For swete lord Ihesu fayd the fayre mayden I take the to record / on the I was neuer grete offender ageynst thy lawes / but that I loued this noble knyght sir launcelot out of mesure / and of my self good lord I myght not withstande the feruent loue wherfor I haue my dethe / And thenne she called her fader sir Bernard and her broder sir Tyrre / and hertely she praid her fader that her broder myght wryte a letter lyke as she did endyte hit / and so her fader graunted her / And whan the letter was wryten word by word lyke as she deuyfed / Thenne she prayd her fader that she myght be watched vntyl she were dede / and whyle my body is hote / lete this letter be putt in my ryght hand / and my hande boude fast with the letter vntyl that I be cold / and lete me be putte in a fayre bedde with alle the rycheft clothes that I haue aboute me / and so lete my bedde and alle my rycheft clothes be laide with me in a charyot vnto the next place where Temse is / and there lete me be putte within a barget / & but one man with me / fuche as ye trust to stere me thyder / and that my barget be couerd with blak famyte ouer and ouer / Thus fader I byfeche yow lete hit be done / soo her fader graunted hit her feythfully / alle thynges shold be done lyke as she had deuyfed / Thenne her fader and her broder made grete dole / for when this was done / anone she dyed / And soo whan she was dede / the corps and the bedde alle was ledde the next way vnto Tem-se / and there a man and the corps & alle were put in to Tem-se / and soo the man styred the barget vnto westmynster / and there he rowed a grete whyle to & fro or any aspyed hit

¶ Capitulum 11

Soo by fortune kynge Arthur and the quene Guene-uer were spekyng to gyders at a wyndowe / and foo as they loked in to Temfe / they aspyed this blak barget / and hadde merueylle what it mente / thenne the kynge called sir kay / & shewed hit hym / Sir said sir kay wete you wel there is some 5 newe tydynges / Goo thyder sayd the kynge to sir kay / & take with yow sir Brandyles and Agraauayne / and brynge me redy word what is there / Thenne these four knyghtes departed and came to the barget and wente in / and there they fond the fayrest corps lyenge in a ryche bedde and a poure man sittynge 10 in the bargets ende and no word wold he speke / Soo these foure knyghtes retourned vnto the kyng ageyne and told hym what they fond / That fayr corps wylle I see sayd the kynge And foo thenne the kyng took the quene by the hand / & went thydder / Thenne the kynge made the barget to be holden fast / & 15 thenne the kyng & þe quene entred with certayn knyghtes wyth them / and there he sawe the fayrest woman lye in a ryche bed-de couerd vnto her myddel with many ryche clothes / and alle was of clothe of gold / and she lay as though she had slyled / Thenne the quene aspyed a letter in her ryght hand / and 20 told it to the kynge / Thenne the kynge took it and sayd / now am I fure this letter wille telle what she was / and why she is come hydder / Soo thenne the kynge and the quene wente oute of the barget / and foo commaunded a certayne wayte vpon the barget / And foo whan the kynge was come within his chā- 25 ber / he called many knyghtes aboute hym / & faide that he wold wete openly what was wryten within that letter / thenne the kynge brake it / & made a clerke to rede hit / & this was the entente of the letter / Moost noble knyghte sir Launcelot / now hath dethe made vs two at debate for your loue I was your 30 louer that men called the fayre mayden of Astolat / therfor vnto alle ladyes I make my mone / yet praye for my foule & bery me atte leest / & offre ye my masse peny / this is my last request and a clene mayden I dyed I take god to wytnes / pray for my foule sir launcelot as thou art pierles / this was alle the 35 substance in the letter / And whan it was redde / the kyng / the quene and alle the knyghtes wepte for pyte of the dolful cōplayntes / Thenne was sire Launcelot sente for / And whan he was come / kyng Arthur made the letter to be redde to hym / 5 And whanne sire launcelot herd hit word by word / he sayd my lord Arthur / wete ye wel I am ryghte heuy of the dethe of this fair damoyfel / god knoweth I was neuer causer of her dethe by my wyllinge / & that wille I reporte me to her own broder / here he is sire Lauayne / I wille not faye nay sayd fyre 10 Launcelot / but that she was bothe fayre and good / and mo-che / I was beholden vnto her / but she loued me out of mesure / Ye myght haue shewed her sayd the quene somme bounte and gentilnes that myghte haue preferued her lyf / madame sayd sire launcelot / she wold none other wayes be anfuerd / but that 15 she wold be my wyf / outhir els my peramour / and of these two I wold not graunte her / but I proferd her for her good loue that she shewed me a thousand pound yerly to her / and to her heyres / and to wedde ony manere knyghte that she coude fynde best to loue in her herte / For madame said sire laun-20 celot I loue not to be constrayned to loue / For loue muste a-ryfe of the herte / and not by no constraynte / That is trouthe fa-yd the kyng / and many knyghtes loue is free in hym selfe / and neuer wille be bounden / for where he is bounden / he looseth hym self / Thenne sayd the kyng vnto sire Launcelot / hit wyl 25 be your worshyp that ye ouer see that she be entered worshyp-fully / Sire sayd sire Launcelot that shalle be done as I can best deuysen / and soo many knyghtes yede thider to behold that fayr mayden / and soo vpon the morne she was entered rychely / and sire launcelot offryd her masse peny / and all the kny-30 tes of the table round that were there at that tyme offryd with sire launcelot / And thenne the poure man wente ageyne with the barget / ¶ Thenne the quene sente for sire Launcelot / & pra-yd hym of mercy / for why that she had ben wrothe with hym causeles / this is not the fyrste tyme said sire launcelot that ye 35 haue ben displeasyd with me causeles / but madame euer I must suffre yow / but what sorowe I endure I take no force / Soo this paste on alle that wynter with alle manere of huntynge and haukyng / and Iustes and torneys were many be-twix many grete lordes / and euer in al places fir Lauayne gate grete worthyp / foo that he was nobly renommed amonge many knyghtes of the table round

Capitulum xxj

THus it pafte on tyl Cryftmasfe / And thenne euery day there was Iuftes made for a dyamond / who that Iuf- 5 ted beft fhould haue a dyamond / but fyr laūcelot would not Iufte but yf it were at a grete Iuftes cryed / but fyr la-uayne Iufted there alle that Cryftemasfe paffyngly wel / and beft was prayfed / for there were but fewe that dyd fo wel / wherfore alle manere of knyghtes demed that fir lauayne fh- 10 ould be made knyghte of the table round at the nexte feefte of Pentecoft / Soo at after Cryftmasfe kyng Arthur lete calle vnto hym many knyghtes / and there they aduysed to gyders to make a party and a grete turnement and Iuftes / and the kyng of Northgalys fayd to Arthur / he wold haue on his 15 party kyng Anguyffhe of Irland / and the kyng with the honderd knyghtes / and the kyng of Northumberland / and fyr Galahad the haute prynce / and foo thefe foure kynges & this myghty duke took party ageynft kyng Arthur and the knyghtes of the table round / and the crye was made that the 20 day of the Iuftes fhould be befyde weftmynftre vpon candylmas day wherof many knyghtes were glad / and made them redy to be at that Iuftes in the freyffheft maner / Thenne quene Gue-neuer fent for fyr launcelot / and faid thus I warne yow that ye ryde ny more in no Iuftes nor turnementys / but that youre 25 kynnesmen may knowe yow / And at thife Iuftes that fhall be ye fhalle haue of me a fleue of gold / and I pray yow for my fake enforce your felf there that men may fpeke of yow wor-fhip / but I charge yow as ye will haue my loue that ye warne youre kynnesmen / that ye wille bere that daye the fleue of 30 gold vpon your helmet / Madame faid fir launcelot it fhalle be don / and foo eyther made grete ioye of other / And whan fyre Launcelot fawe his tyme / he told fir Bors that he wold departe / & haue no more with hym but fir Lauayne vnto the good heremyte that dwellid in that foreft of Wyndfoore / his name 35 was fire Braſtias / and there he thoughte to reſoſe hym / and to take alle the reſt that he myghte by cauſe he wold be freſſhe at that daye of luſtes / Soo fire Launcelot and fire Lauayne departed that noo creature wyſt where he was become / but the no-5 ble men of his blood / And whanne he was come to the hermytage / wete yow wel he had good chere / and ſoo dayly ſyr launcelot wold goo to a welle faſt by the hermytage / & there he wold lye doun / and ſee the welle ſprynge and burbyl / & ſomtyme he ſlepte there / ¶ So at that tyme there was a lady 10 dwellid in that foreſt / and ſhe was a grete huntreſſe / & dayly ſhe uſed to hunte / and euer ſhe bare her bowe with her / and no men wente neuer with her / but alwayes wymmen / and they were ſhoters / and coude wel kyll a dere bothe at the ſtalke & at the treſt / and they dayly bare bowes and arowes / hornes & 15 wood knyues / and many good dogges they had / both for the ſtrynge and for a bate / So hit happed this lady the huntreſſe had abated her dogge for the bowe at a barayne hynde / and ſo this barayne hynde took the flyghte ouer hedges and woodes And euer this lady and parte of her wymmen coſted the hy-20 nde and chekked it by the noyſe of the houndes to haue mette with the hynde at ſomme water / and ſoo hit happed the hynde came to the welle where as fire launcelot was ſlepyng & ſlom-berynge / And ſoo whan the hynde came to the welle / for hete ſhe wente to ſoyle / and there ſhe lay a grete whyle / and the dog-25 ges came after / and vmbecaſt aboute / for ſhe had loſt the veray parfyte ſeaute of the hynde / Ryghte ſo came that lady the huntres that knewe by thy dogge that ſhe had that the hynde was at the ſoyle in that welle / and there ſhe cam ſtyfly and ſonde the hynde / and ſhe put a brode arowe in her bowe / and ſhot atte 30 hynde / and ouer ſhotte the hynde / and ſoo by myſfortune the arowe ſmote ſir Launcelot in the thyck of the buttoke ouer the barbys / whanne ſir launcelot felte hym ſelf ſo hurte / he hurled vp woodely / and ſawe the lady that had ſmyten hym / ¶ And whan he ſawe ſhe was a woman / he ſayd thus / lady / or da-35 moyſel what that thou be / in an euylle tyme bare ye a bowe / the deuylle made yow a ſhoter /

¶ Capitulum xx

Mow mercy fair fir said the lady I am a gentilwoman that vseth here in this forest huntynge / and god knoweth I fawe yow not / but as here was a barayn hynde at the foyle in this welle and I wend to haue done wel / but my hand swarued / Allas said fyre launcelot ye haue mesche- 5 ued me / and soo the lady departed / and fir launcelot as he myghte pulled oute the arowe / and lefte that hede styll in his buttok / and soo he wente weykely to the hermytage euer more bledynge as he went / And whan fir Lauayne and the here-myte aspyed that fir launcelot was hurte / wete yow wel they 10 were passynge heuy / but fire Lauayne wyft not how that he was hurte nor by whome / And thenne were they wrothe out of mesure / thenne with grete payne the heremyte gat oute the arowes hede oute of fyr launcelots buttok / and moche of his blood he shedde / and the wound was passynge fore / and vn- 15 happyly smyten / for it was in fuche a place that he myght not fytte in noo fadyl / A mercy Ihesu said fir Launcelot I may calle my self the moost vnhappiest man that lyueth for euer / whan I wold saynest haue worshyp / there befalleth me euer somme vnhappy thyng / Now soo Ihesu me helpe said fir laun- 20 celot / and yf no man wold but god / I shalle be in the felde vpon candelmasse daye at the Iustes what someuer falle of hit soo alle that myght be goten to hele fir launcelot was had / ¶ Soo whan the day was come / fir launcelot lete deuyse that he was arayed / and fir Lauayne and their horses as thou; 25 they had ben farazyns / and soo they departed and cam nygh to the felde / The kynge of Northgalys with an honderd knyghtes with hym / and the kynge of Northumberland broughte with hym an honderd good knyghtes / and kynge Anguyfhe of Irland brought with hym an honderd good knyghtes re- 30 dy to Iuste / and fir Galahalt the haute prynce broughte with hym an honderd good knyghtes / and the kynge with the hon-derd knyghtes brought with hym as many / and alle these were proued good knyghtes / Thenne cam in kyng Arthurs party / and there came in the kynge of Scottes with an honderd 35 knyghtes / and kynge Vryens of Gore brought with hym an honderd knyghtes / And kynge Howel of Bretayne brouȝte with hym an honderd knyghtes and Chalaunce of Claraun-ce broughte with hym an honderd knyghtes / and kynge Arthur hym felf came in to the felde with two honderd knyghtes 5 and the moost party were knyghtes of the table round that were proued noble knyghtes / / and there were old knyghtes fette in skaffoldes for to Iuge with the quene who dyd best /

¶ Capitulum xxii

THenne they blewe to the felde / and there the kyng of northgalys encountred with the kynge of scottes / & 10 there the kynge of Scottes had a falle / and the kyng of Ir-land fmote doune kynge Vryens / and the kyng of Northumberland fmote doune kynge Howel of Bretayne / and fir Ga-lahaut the haute prynce fmote doune Chalenge of Claraunce / And thenne kynge Arthur was woode wroth / and ranne to 15 the kynge with the honderd knyȝtes / and there kyng Arthur fmote hym doune / and after with that fame spere kynge Arthur fmote doune thre other knyghtes / And thenne whan his spere was broken / kynge Arthur dyd passyngly wel / and foo there with alle came in fyr Gawayne and fir Gaheryfe / fire A-20 grauayne and fir mordred / and there eueryche of them fmote doune a knyghte / and fir Gawayne fmote doune four knyȝtes and thenne there beganne a stronge medle / for thenne there came in the knyghtes of launcelots blood / and fir Gareth and fire Palomydes with them / and many knyghtes of the table 25 round / and they beganne to holde the foure kynges and the myghty duke soo hard that they were discomfyte / but this duke Galahad the haut prynce was a noble knyght / and by his myghty prowesse of armes / he helde the knyghtes of the table round straye ynough / Alle this doynge sawe fir launcelot / & 30 thenne he came in to the felde with fyr Lauayne as hit had ben thonder / And thenne anone fyre Bors and the knyghtes of his blood aspyed fir launcelot / and said to them alle I warne yow beware of hym with the fleue of gold vpon his hede / for he is hym felf fir launcelot du lake / and for grete goodenes fir Bors warned fyr Gareth / I am wel apayed said fir Gareth that I may knowe hym / but who is he sayd they alle that ry-deth with hym in the fame aray / That is the good and gentyl knyght fir Lauayne said fir Bors / Soo fire Launcelot encoû-tred with fir Gawayne / and there by force fyr launcelot smote 5 doune fir Gawayne and his hors to the erthe / and soo he smote doune fir Agrauayne and fire Gaherys / and also he smote doune fir Mordred / and alle this was with one spere ¶ Thenne fir Lauayne mette with fir Palomydes / and eyther mette other soo hard and so fyrfly that bothe their horses felle 10 to the erthe / And thenne were they horfed ageyne / and thenne mette fir Launcelot with fir Palomydes / and there fire Palomydes had a falle / and soo fir launcelot or euer he stynte as fast as he myghte gete speres / he smote down thyrtyt knyghtes and the moost party of them were knyghtes of the table round 15 and euer the knyghtes of his blood withdrewen them / & made hem adoo in other places where fir launcelot came not / and thenne kyng Arthur was wrothe whan he sawe fir Launcelot doo fuche dedes / and thenne the kyng called vnto hym fir gawayn fir Mordred / fir kay / fir Gryflet / fir Lucan the butteler / fyre 20 Pedueer / fir Palomydes / Sir Safyr his broder / and so the kynge with these nyne knyghtes made hem redy to sette vpon fir Launcelot / and vpon fyr Lauayne / Alle this aspyed fir bors and fir Gareth / Now I drede me fore said fir Bors that my lord fyr launcelot wylle hard be matched / By my hede sayd 25 fyr Gareth I wylle ryde vnto my lord fir launcelot for to helpe hym / falle of hym what falle may / for he is the fame man that made me knyghte / ye shalle not soo said fir Bors by my counceylle / onles that ye were desguysed / ye shalle see me dyf-guysed said fyre Gareth / and there with al he aspyed a wa- 30 lyfthe knyghte where he was to repose hym / and he was fore hurte afore hurte by fyr Gawayne / and to hym fyre Gareth rode / and praid hym of his knyghthode to lene hym his shelde for his / I wille wel said the walyfthe knyghte / And whanne fir Gareth had his shelde / the book faith / it was grene wyth 35 mayden that semed in hit / Thenne fyr Gareth came dryuynge to fir Launcelot al that he myghte / and said knyghte kepe thy self / for yonder cometh kyng Arthur with nyne noble knyghtes with hym to putte yow to a rebuke / and so I am come to bere yow felauſhypp for old loue ye haue ſhewed me / Gramercy faid fir launcelot / fyr ſayd fir Gareth / encountre ye with fir Ga-wayne / and I ſhalle encountre with fyre Palomydes / and le-5 te fir Lauayne matche with the noble kynge Arthur / ¶ And whan we haue delyuerd hem / lete vs thre hold vs ſadly to gyders / Thenne came kynge Arthur with his nyne knyȝtes with hym / and fir launcelot encountred with fir Gawayne / & gafe hym ſuche a buffet / that the arfon of his fadel braſt / and fyre 10 Gawayne felle to the erthe / Thenne fir Gareth encountred with the good knyghte fir Palomydes / and he gaf hym ſuche a buffet that bothe his hors and he daſſhed to the erthe / Thenne encountred kynge Arthr with fyre Lauayne / and there eyther of hem ſmote other to the erthe hors and alle that they lay a gre-15 te whyle / Thenne fir launcelot ſmote doune fyr Agrawayne & fyre Gaheryſe / and fyr Mordred / and fyr Gareth ſmote doune fyr kay / and fyr Saſyr and fyr Gryſlet / And thenne fyr la-uayne was horſed ageyne / and he ſmote doune fyre Lucan the butteler and fyr Bedeuer / and thenne there beganne grete th-20 range of good knyghtes / Thenne fyre Launcelot hurtlyd here and there / and racyd and pulled of helmes / ſoo that at that tyme there myght none ſytte hym a buffet with ſpere nor with ſuerd / and fyr Gareth dyd ſuche dedes of armes that all men merueylled what knyghte he was with the grene ſheld / For 25 he ſmote doune that daye and pulled doune moo than thyrty knyghtes / And as the frenſſhe book ſayth fyr Launcelot merueylled whan he beheld fyr Gareth doo ſuche dedes what knyghte he myghte be / and fyr Lauayne pulled doune and ſmo-te doune twenty knyghtes / ¶ Alſo fyr launcelot knewe not 30 fyr Gareth / for and fyr Triftram de lyones / outhur fyr lamorak de galys had ben alyue / fyr launcelot wold haue demed he had ben one of them tweyne / Soo euer as fyr launcelot / fyr Gareth / fyr lauayn faughte / and on the one fyde fyr bors fyr Ector de marys / fyr lyonel / fyr lamorak de galys / fyr ble-35 oberys / fyr Galyhud / fyr Galyhodyn / fyr Pelleas / and wyth moo other of kynge Bans blood foughte vpon another party and helde the kynge with the honderd knyghtes and the kyng of Northumberland ryght ſtrayte /

¶ Capitulum xxxij

Soo this turnement & this Iustes dured longe / tyl hit was nere nyghte / for the knyghtes of the round table releued euer vnto kyng Arthur / for the kyng was wrothe oute of mesure / that he and his knyghtes myght not preuaile that day / Thenne sire Gawayne said to the kyng I merueile 5 where alle this day fyr Bors de ganys and his selaushyp of fyre launcelots blood / I merueille all this day they be not a-boutte yow / hit is for somme cause sayd fyr Gawayne / By my hede said sire Kay fyr Bors is yonder all this day vpon the ryghte hand of this felde / and ther he and his blood done mo- 10 re worshipfully than we doo / it may wel be sayd fyr Gawayne / but I drede me euer of gyle / for on payne of my lyf said sir Gawayne this knyghte with the reed sleue of gold is hym self fyr launcelot / I see wel by his rydyng / and by his grete strokes / and the other knyghte in the same colours is the good 15 yonge knyght sir lauayne / Also that knyghte with the grene shelde is my broder fyr Gareth / and yet he hath desguysed hym self / for no man shalle neuer make hym be ageynst sir launcelot by cause he made hym knyghte / By my hede said Arthur neuewe I byleue yow / therfore telle me now what is youre 20 best counceyll / Sir said sir Gawayne ye shalle haue my counceylle / lete blowe vnto lodgyng / for and he be fyr Launcelot du lake and my broder fyr Gareth with hym with the helpe of that good yong knyghte fyr Lauayne / trust me truly it wyll be no bote to stryue with them / but yf we shold falle ten or xij 25 vpon one knyghte / and that were no worship but shame / ye faye trouthe sayd the kyng / and for to faye sothe said the kynge it were shame to vs / soo many as we be to sette vpon them ony more / for wete ye wel sayd kyng Arthur / they ben thre good knyghtes / and namely that knyght with the sleue of 30 gold / Soo thenne they blewe vnto lodgyng / but forth with all Kyng Arthur lete sende vnto the four kynges / and to the my-ghty duke / and praid hem that the knyghte with the sleue of gold departe not fro them / but that the kyng may speke with hym / Thenne fourthe with alle kyng Arthur alighte & vnar- 35 med hym / & took a litill hakney / & rode after sire Launcelot / for euer he had a spye vpon hym / and foo he fonde hym amo-nge the four kynges / and the duke / and there the kyng pra-yd hem alle vnto fouper / and they sayd they wold with good wyll / And whan they were vnarmed / thenne kyng Ar-5 thur knewe fyre launcelot / fir Lauayne and fir Gareth / A fyre Launcelot sayd kyng Arthur / this daye ye haue heted me / & my knyghtes / foo they yede vnto Arthurs lodgyng al to gy-der / and there was a grete fecst and grete reuel / and the pry-ce was gyuen vnto fyr launcelot / and by herowdes they named 10 hym / that he had smyten doune fyfty knyghtes / and fyre Gareth fyue and thyrty / and fir Lauayne four and twenty kn-yghtes / Thenne fir Launcelot told the kyng and the Quene how the lady huntresse shote hym in the foreste of wyndesfoore in the buttok with a brood arowe / & how the wound therof 15 was that tyme fyxe Inches depe / and in lyke longe / ¶ Also Arthur blamed fyr Gareth by cause he lefte his selaushyp / & helde with fir launcelot / My lord sayd fir Gareth / he maade me a knyghte / And whanne I sawe hym foo hard bestadde / me thought it was my worshyp to helpe hym / for I sawe hym do 20 foo moche / and foo many noble knyghtes ageynst hym / and whan I vnderstood that he was fir launcelot du lake / I shamed to see foo many knyghtes ageynst hym alone / Truly sayd kyng Arthur vnto fyre Gareth ye faye wel and worshyp-fully haue ye done and to your self grete worshyp / and alle 25 the dayes of my lyf sayd kyng Arthur vnto fir Gareth wete yow wel I shalle loue yow / and truste yow the more better For euer sayd Arthur hit is a worshypful knyghtes dede to helpe an other worshypful knyghte whanne he seeth hym in a grete daunger / for euer a worshipful man will be lothe to see a 30 worshipful shamed / and he that is of no worship and fareth with cowardyse / neuer shall he shewe gentilnes / nor no maner of goodnes where he seeth a man in ony daunger / for thenne euer wyll a coward shewe no mercy / and alwayes a good man wille doo euer to another man as he wold ben done to 35 hym self / Soo thenne there were grete feestes vnto kynges and dukes / and reuel / game and playe / and al maner of nobleffe was vsed / and he that was curtois / true and seythful to his frende was that tyme cheryshed

¶ Capitulum xrv

ANd thus it past on from candylmas vntyl after efter that the moneth of may was come / whan euery lusty herte begynneth to blofomme / and to brynge forth fruyte / for ly-ke as herbes and trees bryngen forth fruyte and floryssheth in may / in lyke wyfe euery lusty herte that is in ony maner a lo- 5 uer spryngeth and floryssheth in lusty dedes / For it gyueth vnto al louers courage that lusty moneth of may in some thyng to constrayne hym to some maner of thyng more in that moneth than in ony other moneth for dyuerse causes / For thenne alle herbes and trees renewen a man and woman / and lyke wy- 10 fe louers callen ageyne to their mynde old gentilnes and old feruyshe and many kynde dedes were forgotten by neclygen-ce / For lyke as wynter rasure doth alway a rafe and deface grene somer / soo fareth it by vnstable loue in man and woman / For in many persons there is no stabylte / For we may see al 15 day for a lytel blast of wynters rasure anone we shalle deface and lay a parte true loue / for lytel or noughte that cost moch thyng / this is no wysedome nor stabylte / but it is feblenes of nature and grete disworshyp who someuer vsed this / Therfore lyke as may moneth floreth and floryssheth in many gar- 20 dyns / Soo in lyke wyfe lete euery man of worship florysse his herte in this world / fyrst vnto god / and next vnto the io-ye of them that he promysed his feythe vnto / for there was neuer worshypful man or worshipfull woman / but they loued one better than another / and worshyp in armes may ne- 25 uer be soyled / but fyrst referue the honour to god / and secondly the quarel must come of thy lady / and suche loue I calle vertuous loue / but now adayes men can not loue seuen nygte but they must haue alle their desyres that loue may not endure by reason / for where they ben soone accorded and hasty hete / 30 soone it keleth / Ryghte soo fareth loue now a dayes / sone hote soone cold / this is noo stabylte / but the old loue was not fo / men and wymmen coude loue to gyders seuen yeres / and no lycours lustes were bitwene them / and thenne was loue tro-uthe and feythfulnes / and soo in lyke wyfe was vsed loue 35 in kynge Arthurs dayes / ¶ wherfor I lyken loue now adaycs vnto fomer and wynter / for lyke as the one is hote / & the other cold / so fareth loue now a dayes / therfore alle ye that be louers / calle vnto your remembraunce the moneth of may/lyke as dyd quene Gueneuer / For whome I make herc a ly-5 tel mencyon that whyle she lyued / she was a true louer / and therfor she had a good ende

¶ Explicit liber Octodecimus / And here foloweth liber xix /

¶ Capitulum primum

Soo it befelle in the moneth of May / quene Gue-neuer called vnto her knyghtes of the table round / and she gaf them warnynge that erly vp-10 on the morowe she wold ryde on mayeng in to woodes & feldes befyde westmynstre / & I warne yow that there be none of yow but that he be wel horfed / and that ye alle be clothed in grene outhur in sylke outhur in clothe and I shalle brynge with me ten ladyes / and euery knyght 15 shalle haue a lady behynde hym / and euery knyghte shal haue a fquyer and two yomen / and I wyll that ye alle be wel hor-fed / Soo they made hem redy in the fresshest maner / and these were the names of the knyghtes / sir Kay the Seneschal / sir Agrauayne / sir Brandyles / sir Sagramor le defyrus / Sir Do-20 dynas le faueage / sir Ozanna le cure hardy / sir Ladynas of the forest faueage / sir Perfaunt of Inde / fyre Ironfyde that was called the knyghte of the reed laundes / and sire Pelleas the louer / and these ten knyghtes made hem redy in the fresshest maner to ryde with the quene / And soo vpon the morne they toke 25 their horses with the quene / and rode on mayenge in woodes and medowes as hit pleasyd hem in grete Ioye and delytes / for the quene had cast to haue ben ageyne with kyng Arthur at the ferthest by ten of the klok / and soo was that tyme her purpoos / Thenne there was a knyghte that hyghte Mellya-30 graunce / and he was sone vnto kyng Bagdemagus / and this knyghte had at that tyme a castel of the yeste of kyng arthur within feuen myle of westmynstre / And this knyghte fir Mel-lyagraunce loued passyng wel Quene Gueneuer / and soo had he done longe and many yeres / ¶ And the book sayth he had layne in a wayte for to stele away the quene / but euermore he forbare for by cause of fir launcelot / for in no wyse he wo- 5 ld medle with the quene / and fir Launcelot were in her company / outhere els and he were nere hand her / and that tyme was fuche a customme / the quene rode neuer withoute a grete felaushyp of men of armes aboute her / and they were many good knyghtes / and the moost party were yong men that wo- 10 ld haue worshyp / and they were called the quenes knyghtes and neuer in no batail / turnement / nor Iustes / they bare none of hem no maner of knouelechyng of their owne armes / but playne whyte sheldes / and there by they were called the que-nes knyghtes / And thenne whan it happed ony of them to be 15 of grete worshyp by his noble dedes / thenne at the next feest of Pentecost / yf there were ony flayne or dede / as there was none yere that there fayled / but somme were dede / Thenne was there chofen in his stede that was dede the moost men of worshyp that were called the quenes knyghtes / And thus they came 20 vp alle fyrste or they were renoumed men of worshyp / both fir Launcelot and alle the remenaunt of them / But this knyghte fir Mellyagraunce had aspyed the quene well and her purpos and how fir launcelot was not with her / and how she had no man of armes with her but the ten noble knyghtes all arayed 25 in grene for mayeng / thenne he purueyed hym a xx men of armes and an honderd archers for to destroye the quene and her knyghtes / for he thoughte that tyme was best season to take the quene /

¶ Capitulum secundum

Soo as the quene had mayed and alle her knyghtes / 30 alle were bedaffhed with herbys mosses and floures in the best maner and fresshest / Ryghte so came oute of a wo-ode fyre Mellyagraunce with an eyghte score men wel harnyfed as they shold fyghte in a batail of a reeste and bad the quene and her knyghtes abyde / for maulgre theyr hedes they 35 shold abyde / Traytoure knyghte sayd quene Gueneuer what cast thou for to doo / wolte thou shame thy self / bethynke the how thou arte a kynges sone / and knyghte of the table rōud and thou to be aboute to dishonoure the noble kynge that ma-5 de the knyghte / thou shamest alle knyghthode and thy selfe / & me I lete the wete shalte thou neuer shame / for I had leuer cutte myn owne throte in tweyne rather than thou sholdest difhonoure me / As for alle this langage sayd fir Mellyagraunce be it as it be may / for wete yow wel madame I haue loued 10 yow many a yere / and neuer or now coude I gete yow at fuche an auantage as I doo now / and therfor I wylle take yow as I fynde yow / thenne spake alle the ten noble knyghtes att ones and sayd / Syr Mellyagraunce wete thou wel ye ar a-boute to Ieoparde your worshyp to dishonour / and also ye cast 15 to Ieoparde oure persons / how be it we ben vnarmed / ye haue vs at a grete auayle / for hit semeth by yow that ye haue layd watche vpon vs / but rather than ye shold putte the quene to a shame and vs alle / we had as leef to departe from oure ly-ues / for & yf we other wayes dyd / we were shamed for euer 20 Thenne sayd fir Mellyagraunce dresse yow as wel as ye can/and kepe the Quene / ¶ Thenne the ten knyghtes of the table round drewe their swerdes / and the other lete renne at them/with their speres / and the ten knyghtes manly abode them / & smote away their speres / that no spere dyd them none harme 25 Thenne they lassed to gyder with swerdes / and anone fyre Kay / fir Sagramor / fir Agrauayn / fir Dodynas / fir Ladynas and fyr Ozanna were smyten to the erthe with grymly woundes / Thenne fir Brandyles and fir Perfaunt of Ironfyde / fyre Pelleas foughte longe / and they were fore wounded / for these 30 ten knyghtes or euer they were layd to the ground slewe xl men of the boldest and the best of them / Soo whan the Quene sawe her knyghtes thus dolefully wounded / and nedes must be slayne at the last / thenne for pyte and forowe she cryed fyr Mellyagraunce flee not my noble knyghtes / and I wille go 35 with the vpon this couenaunt that thou saue hem / and suffer hem not to be no more hurte with this that they be ledde wyth me where someuer thou ledest me / for I wylle rather flee my self than I wylle goo with the / onles / that thyse my noble knyghtes maye be in my prefence / Madame said Mellyagraunce for your sake they shalle be ledde with yow in to myn owne Castel with that ye wylle be ruled & ryde with me / ¶ Thenne the quene prayd the four knyghtes to leue their fyghtyng / & she and they wold not departe / Madame sayd sir Pelleas we 5 wille doo as ye doo / for as for me I take no force of my lyfe nor deth / For as the Frenssh book sayth sir Pelleas gaf suche buffets there that none armour myghte holde hym /

¶ Capitulum Tercium

THenne by the quenes commaundement they lefte batail and drestid the wounded knyghtes on horfbak some fytyng 10 somme ouerthwarte their horses / that hit was pyte to beholde them / And thenne sir Mellyagraunce charged the quene & al her knyghtes that none of al her selaushyp shold departe from her / for ful fore he dradde sir launcelot du lake lest he shold haue any knowlechyng / Alle this aspyed the Quene / and pry- 15 uely she called vnto her a child of her chamber that was swyftly horsed to whome she sayd / Go thow whan thou seest thy tyme / and bere this ryng vnto sir launcelot du lake / and pra-ye hym as he loueth me that he wylle see me / and rescowe me yf euer he wille haue Ioye of me / and spare not thy hors said 20 the quene nouthur for water neyther for lond / Soo the chyld aspyed his tyme / and lyghtely he took his hors with the spores and departed as fast as he myghte / And whan sir Mel-lyagraunce sawe hym soo flee / he vnderstood that hit was by the quenes commaundement for to warne sir launcelot / Then- 25 ne they that werē best horsed chaced hym and shot at hym / But from hem alle the child wente sodenly / and thenne fyre Mellyagraunce sayd to the quene / Madame ye are aboute to bitraye me / but I shalle ordeyne for sir launcelot that he shall not come lyghtely at yow / And thenne he rode with her and 30 they alle to his castel in alle the haste that they myghte / And by the waye fyre Mellyagraunce layd in an enbufflement the best archers that he myghte gete in his cōtrey to the nombre of a thyrty to awayte vpon fir Launcelot charyng them that yf they fawe fuche a manere of knyghte come by the way vpon a whyte hors that in ony wyfe they flec his hors / but in no manere of wyfe haue not adoo with hym bodyly / for he is ouer 5 hardy to be ouercomen / Soo this was done / and they were commen to his castel / but in no wyfe the quene wold neuer lete none of the ten knyghtes and her ladyes oute of her fyghte / but alwayes they were in their prefence / for the book fayth fir Mel-yagraunce durste make no maystryes for drede of fir launce-10 lot in foo moche he demed that he had warnynge / Soo whan the child was departed from the felaufhip of fyr Mellyagraunce within a whyle he came to westmynstre / And anone he fonde fir launcelot / And whanne he had told his meffage / & delyuerd hym the quenes ryng / Allas fayd fyr Launcelot 15 now am I shamed for euer onles that I maye rescowe that noble lady from difhonour / thenne egerly he asked his armor-ur / and euer the child told fyr launcelot how the ten knyghtes foughte merueylloously / and how fir Pelleas and fire Ironfyde and fir Brandyles and fir Perfaunt of Inde fought 20 strongly / but namely fir Pelleas / there myghte none withftā-de hym / & how they all fouzte tyll at the laft they were layd to the erthe / and thenne the quene made apoyntement for to faue their lyues / and goo with fyr Mellyagraunce / Allas fayd fyr Launcelot / that moost noble lady that she shold be so deft-25 royd / I had leuer faid fir launcelot than alle Fraunce that I had ben there were wel armed / Soo whan fyre launcelot was armed / and vpon his hors / he prayd the chyld of the Quenes chamber to warne fyr Lauayne how fodenly he was departed / and for what caufe / and praye hym as he loueth me 30 that he wylle hyhe hym after me / and that he flynte not vntyll he come to the castel where fir Mellyagraunce abyde / or dwelleth / for there fayd fire launcelot he shalle here of me / and I am a man lyuyng / and rescowe the quene and the ten knyghtes the whiche he traitourfly hath taken / and that shalle I pre-35 ue vpon his hede and alle them that hold with hym /

T Henne sir launcelot rode as fast as he myghte / and the book faith / he took the water at westmynstre brydge / & made his hors to swimme ouer Temse vnto lambey-the / And thēne within a while he came to the same place there as the ten noble knyghtes foughte with fyre Mellyagraunce 5 And thanne sir launcelot folowed the trak vntyl that he came to a wood / and there was a straye waye / and there the xxx archers bad sir launcelot torne ageyne / and folowe noo lenger that trak / what commaundement haue ye ther to sayd sir laun-celot to cause me that am a knyghte of the round table to leue 10 my ryghte way / This way shalte thou leue / outhere els thou shalt goo it on thy foote / for wete thou wel thy hors shalle be slayne / that is lytel maystry sayd fyre launcelot to flee myn hors / but as for my self whan my hors is slayne I gyue ryght nought for yow / not and ye were fyue honderd moo / So 15 thenne they shot sir launcelots hors / and smote hym with many arowes / and thenne fyr launcelot auoyded his hors / and wente on foote / but there were soo many dyches and hedges betwixe them and hym that he myghte not medle with none of hem / ¶ Allas for shame said launcelot that euer one knyght 20 shold bitraye another knyght / but hit is an old sawe / a good man is neuer in daunger / but whan he is in the daunger of a coward / Thenne sir launcelot wente a while / and thenne he was fowle combred of his armour / his sheld and his spere & alle that longed vnto hym / wete ye wel he was ful fore an- 25 noyed / and ful loth he was for to leue ony thyng that longged vnto hym / for he drad fore the treason of sir Mellyagraunce Thenne by fortune there came by hym a charyot that cam thy-der for to fetch wood / Say me carter said fyr launcelot what shal I gyue the to suffre me to lepe in to thy charyot / & that 30 thou brynge me vnto a castel within this two myle / thou shalt not come within my charyot said the carter / for I am sente for to fetch wood for my lord sir Mellyagraunce / with hym wold I speke / thou shalt not go with me said the carter / thēne sir launcelot lept to hym / & gaf hym suche a buffet that he felle to 35 the erthe starke dede / thenne the other carter his sclawe was a-ferde & wende to haue gone the same way / & thenne he cryed fair lord faue my lyf / & I shal brynge you where ye wil / thēne

I charge the fayd fyr launcelot that thow dryue me and thys charyot euen vnto fir Melliagaunce yate / lepe vp in to the chariyot fayd the carter / and ye shalle be there anone / Soo the carter drofe on a grete wallop / and fir launcelots hors folowed 5 the charyot with more than a xl arowes brode and rough in hym / and more than an houre and an half dame Gueneuer was awaytynge in a bay wyndowe with her ladyes / & aspyed an armed knyghte standynge in a charyot / See madame fayd a lady where rydeth in a charyot a goodly armed knyghte/10 I suppose he rydeth vnto hangyng / where fayd the quene / thenne she aspyed by his shelde that he was there hym felf fir laun-celot du lake / And thenne she was ware where came his hors euer after that charyot / and euer he trade his guttes and his paunche vnder his feet / Allas fayd the quene now I fee well 15 and preue that wel is hym that hath a trusty frend / ¶ Ha a moost noble knyghte fayd quene Gueneuer I fee wel thow arte hard bestad whan thow rydest in a charyot / thenne she rebuked that lady that lykend fir launcelot to ryde in a chary-ot to hangynge / hit was fowle mouthed fayd the quene and 20 euylle lykened foo for to lyken the moost noble knyght of the world vnto fuche a shameful dethe / O Ihesu defende hym and kepe hym said the quene from alle mescheuous ende / By thys was fir Launcelot comen to the gates of that Castel / and there he descended doune and cryed that alle the Castel range of it 25 where arte thow fals traitour fir Melliagraunce and knyght of the table round / now come forth here thou traytour knyght thou and thy selaufship with the / For here I am fir launcelot du lake that shal fyghte with yow / and there with all he bare the gate wyde open vpon the porter / and fmote hym vnder 30 his 3ere with his gauntelet that his neck braft in fonder /

¶ Capitulum v

WHanne fir Mellyagraunce herd that fir Launcelot was there / he ranne vnto quene Gueneuer / and felle vpon his knee / and fayd mercy madame now I put me holy in to your grace / what eyleth yow now fayd quene Guene-uer / For sothe I myghte wel wete somme good knyȝt wold reuenge me / though my lord Arthur wyfste not of this youre werke / Madame said fir Mellyagraunce / alle this that is amys on my parte shalle be amended ryghte as your self wille deuyse / & holy I putte me in your grace / what wold ye that 5 I dyd sayd the quene / I wold no more said Mellyagraunce but that ye wold take alle in your owne handes / and that ye wille rule my lord fir launcelot / and fuche chere as maye be made hym in this poure castel ye and he shalle haue vntyl to morne / and thenne may ye and alle they retorne vnto westm- 10 ynster / and my body and all that I haue I shal putte in your rule / ye saye wel sayd the quene / and better is pees than euer werre / and the lesse noyse / the more is my worship / thenne the quene and her ladyes wente doune vnto the knyghte fyr laun-celot / that stood wrothe oute of mesure in the Inner courte to 15 abyde bataille / & euer he bad thou traytour knyghte come forth Thenne the quene came to hym and sayde fyre Launcelot why be ye soo moeued / Ha madame sayd fyre Launcelot why aske ye me that queſtion / Me ſemeth said fir launcelot ye ouȝte to be more wrothe than I am / for ye haue the hurte and the diſ- 20 honour / For wete ye wel madame my hurte is but lytel for the kyllynge of a mares ſone / but the deſpyte greueth me moch more / than alle my hurte / truly sayd the quene ye ſaye trouth but hertely I thanke yow sayd the quene / but ye muſte come in with me peafyble / for al thyng is put in my hand / and 25 alle that is euylle ſhalle be for the beſt / for the knyghte ful ſore repenteth hym of the myſaventure that is befallen hym / Madame ſaide fyre Launcelot / ſyth it is ſoo that ye ben accorded with hym / as for me I may not be ageyn it / how be it fir Mel-lyagraunce hath done ful ſhamefully to me & cowardly / ¶ A 30 madame said fir Launcelot / & I had wyſt ye wold haue ben ſoo ſoone accorded with hym / I wold not haue made fuche haſte vnto yow / why ſaye ye ſoo ſayd the quene / doo ye forthynke your ſelf of your good dedes / wete you well ſayd the Quene I accorded neuer vnto hym for fauour nor loue that I had 35 vnto hym / but for to laye doune euery ſhameful noiſe ¶ Madame ſaid fyr launcelot ye vnderſtande ful well I was neuer willynge nor gladde of ſhameful ſklaunder nor noiſe

And there is neyther kynge / quene ne knyght that bereth the lyf excepte my lord kynge Arthur and yow madame shold lette me / but I shold make fir Mellyagraunce herte ful cold/or euer I departed from hens / That wote I wel said the que-5 ne / but what wille ye more ye shall haue alle thynges rulyd as ye lyft to haue it / Madame said fyr launcelot / foo ye be pleasyd I care not / as for my parte ye shal foone please / ryghte fo the quene took fyr launcelot by the bare hand / for he had put of his gauntelet / and soo she wente with hym tyl her chamber 10 and thenne she commaunded hym to be vnarmed / and thenne fyr launcelot asked where were the ten knyghtes that were wounded fore / so she shewed them vnto fir launcelot / and ther they made grete Ioye of the comynge of hym / and fir launcelot made grete dole of their hurtes and bewayled them gretely / & 15 there fir launcelot told them how cowardly and traytourly Mellyagraunce sette archers to flee his hors / and how he was fayne to putte hym self in a charyot / thus they complayned eueryche to other / and ful fayn they wold haue ben reuengid but they peaced them self by cause of the Quene / Thenne as 20 the Frenssh book sayth / fyr launcelot was called many a day after le cheualer du charyot / and dyd many dedes and grete aduentures he had / and soo leue we of this tale le Cheualer du Charyot and torne we to this tale / ¶ Soo fyr Launcelot had grete chere with the quene / and thenne fyr launcelot ma-25 de a promys with the quene that the same nyghte fir launcelot shold come to a wyndowe outward toward a gardyn / & that wyndowe was y barryd with yron / and there fir launcelot promysed to mete her when alle folkes were on slepe / So thenne came fyr lauayne dryuynge to the gates cryeng where 30 is my lord fyr launcelot du lake / thenne was he fente for / & when fir lauayne sawe fir Launcelot / he sayd my lord I fond well how ye were hard bestad / for I haue fonde your hors that was slayne with arowes / As for that sayd fyr launcelot I praye yow fyr Lauayne speke ye of other maters / and lete ye 35 this passe / & we shalle ryghte hit another tyme when we beste may

¶ Capitulūm vj

THenne the knyghtes that were hurte were ferched / & softe salues were leyd to their woundes / and soo hyt paft on tyl fouper tyme / and alle the chere that myght be made them / there was done vnto the quene and all her knyghtes / thenne whan feafon was / they wente vnto their chambres 5 but in no wyfe the quene wold not fuffre the wounded knyghtes to be fro her / but that they were layde within draughtes by her chamber vpon beddes and pylowes that she her self myght fee to them that they wanted no thyng / Soo whan fir launcelot was in his chamber that was affygnd vnto hym / he called vnto hym fire Lauayne / and told hym that nyght he must goo fpeke with his lady dame Gueneuer / Sir faid fyr Lauayne / lete me goo with yow and hit please yow / for I drede me fore of the treason of fir Mellyagraunce / Nay fayd fir launcelot I thanke yow / but I wille haue no body with me / thenne 15 fir Launcelot took his fuerd in his hand / and pryuely went to a place where he had afpyed a ladder to fore hand / and that he took vnder his arme / and bare it thurgh the gardyn / & fette it vp to the wyndowe / and there anone the quene was redy to mete hym / and thenne they made eyther to other their complaints of many dyuerfe thynges / & thenne fir launcelot wyfshed that he myghte haue comen in to her / wete ye wel faid the quene / I wold as fayne as ye / that ye myghte come in to me wold ye madame faid fyre launcelot with youre herte that I were with yow / ye truly faid the quene / Now fhalle I proue 25 my myght faid fyr Launcelot for your loue / and thenne he fet his handes vpon the barres of yron / and he pulled at them with fuche a myghte that he braft hem clene oute of the ftone walles / and there with all one of the barres of yron kytte the braune of his handes thurgh out to the bone / & thenne he lepte 30 in to the chamber to the quene / make ye no noyfe fayd the quene / for my wounded knyghtes lye here faft by me / So to paffe vpon this tale fyr Launcelot wente vnto bed with the quene / & took no force of his hurte hand / but took his plefaunce and his lykyng vntyll it was in the daunyng of the daye / & wete ye well he flepte not but watched / and whan he fawe his tyme that he myghte tary no lenger / he took his leue and departed at the wyndowe / and putte hit to gyder as wel as he myghte ageyne and foo departed vnto his owne chamber / & there he told fir Lauayne how he was hurte / thenne fir lauayn dressed his hand and staunched it / and putte vpon it a gloue that it shold not be aspyed / and foo the quene lay long in her 5 bedde vntyl it was nyne of the klok / thēne fir Mellyagraunce wente to the quenes chamber / and fond her ladyes there redy clothed / Ihesu mercy sayd fir Mellyagraunce what eyleth you madame that ye slepe thus longe / and ryght there with alle he opened the curteyn for to beholde her / and thenne was he ware 10 where she laye & alle the shete & pylowe was bebled with the blood of fir Launcelot and of his hurte hand / Whan fir mel-lyagraunce aspyed that blood / thenne he demed in her that she was fals to the kynge / and that some of the wounded kny-ghtes had layne by her alle that nyghte / A madame said fir 15 Mellyagraunce / now I haue founden you a fals traytresse vnto my lord Arthur / For now I proue wel it was not for nought that ye layd these wounded knyghtes within the ban-des of your chamber / therfore I wille calle yow of trefon before my lord kynge Arthur / and now I haue proued yow 20 madame with a shameful dede / and that they ben all fals or fomme of them I wylle make good / for a wounded knyghte this nyght hath layne by yow / That is fals sayd the Quene and that I wyl reporte me vnto them alle / thenne whanne the ten knyghtes herd fir Mellyagraunce wordes / they spak al in 25 one voys and sayd to fire Mellyagraunce thou sayst falsly / and wrongfully puttest vpon vs fuche a dede / and that we wil make good ony of vs chiefe whiche thou lyft of vs whan we are hole of oure woundes / ye shal not said fyr Mellyagraunce away with your proud langage / for here ye may alle see sayd 30 fir Mellyagraunce that by the quene this nyghte a wounded knyghte hath layne / thenne were they al ashamed whan they fawe that blood / and wete you wel fyr Mellyagraunce was passyng glad that he had the quene at fuche an auantage / For he demed by that to hyde his trefon / foo with this rumoure 35 came in fyr launcelot and fond them al at a grete araye /

¶ Capitulum septimum

¶ Capitulum septimum /

WHat araye is this sayd fir Launcelot / thenne fyr mel-lygraunce told hem what he had sonde & shewed hem the quenes bed / Truly said fyr launcelot ye dyd not your part nor kny3tly to touche a quenes bedde whyle it was drawen / & she lyeng therin / for I dar say my lord Arthur hym self wold 5 not haue displayed her courteyns she beyng within her bed / on-les that it had pleasyd hym to haue layne doune by her / and therfor ye haue done vnworshipfully & shamefully to your selfe I wote not what ye mene sayd fyr Mellyagraunce / but well I am sure ther hath one of her wounded kny3tes layne by her 10 this ny3te / & therfor I wil proue with my handes that she is a traytreffe vnto my lord Arthur / beware what ye do said laun-celot / for & ye say so & ye wil preue it / it wil be taken at your handes / My lord fir Launcelot said fire Mellyagraunce I rede yow beware what ye do / for thou3 ye are neuer so good a kny- 15 ght as ye wote wel ye ar renommed the best kny3t of the world yet shold ye be aduysed to do batail in a wrong quarel / for god wil haue a stroke in euery batail / As for that sayd fyr launcelot god is to be drad / but as to that I saye nay playnly / that this ny3te there lay none of these ten wounded kny3tes wyth 20 my lady quene Gueneuer / & that wil I preue with my handes that ye say vntruly in that now / Hold said fir Mellyagraunce here is my gloue that she is traytreffe vnto my lord kyng Arthur / & that this nyghte one of the wounded kny3tes lay with her / & I receyue your gloue sayd fir Launcelot / & so they were 25 fealyd with their sygnettys / and delyuerd vnto the x kny3tes At what day shal we do batail to gyders said fir launcelot / this day viij dayes said fir Mellyagraunce in the felde besyde westmynstre / I am agreed said fir Launcelot / but now said fir mel-lyagraunce / fythen it is so that we must fy3te to gyders I pray 30 yow as ye be a noble kny3t awayte me with no treason / nor none vylony the meane whyle / nor none for yow / soo god me help said fir launcelot ye shal ry3te wel wete I was neuer of no fuche condycyons / for I reporte me to al kny3tes that euer haue knowen me I ferd neuer with no treason / nor I loued ne- 35 uer the selsauship of no man that ferde with trefon / Thenne lete vs go to dyner seid melliagraunce . & after dyner ye & þ^e quene and ye may ryde alle to westmester / I wylle wel fayd fir laūcelot / thenne fir Mellyagraunce fayd to fir launcelot pleafeth it yow to fee the eftures of this caſtel / with a good wylle fayd fir Launcelot / and thenne they wente to gyders from chamber 5 to chamber / for fir Launcelot drad noo peryls / for euer a man of worſhype and of prowefſe / dredeth leſt alwayes perils / For they wene euery man be as they ben / But euer he that fareth with treaſon putteth ofte a man in grete daunger / So it beſel vpon fir launcelot that no peryl dredde / as he wente with fire 10 Mellyagraunce he trade on a trap and the bord rollyd / and there fir Launcelot felle doune more than ten fadom in to a caue ful of ſtrawe / and thenne fir Mellyagraunce departed and made no fare as that he nyſt where he was / And whan fir laūcelot was thus myſſed / they merueylled where he was byco-15 men / and thenne the quene and many of them demed that he was departed as he was wonte to doo fodenly / For fyr Mel-lyagraunce made fodenly to putte awaye on fyde fir Lauayns hors that they myght alle vnderſtande that fir launcelot was departed fodenly / Soo it paſt on tyl after dynner / and thenne 20 fir Lauayne wold not ſtynte vntyl that he ordeyned lytters for the wounded knyghtes that they myghte be lad in them / and ſo with the quene and them al bothe ladyes & gentilwy-mmen and other wente vnto weſtmynſter / & there the knyghtes told kyng arthur hou Mellyagraunce had appelyd the quene of 25 hyghe treaſon / and how fir Launcelot had receyued the glo-ue of hym / and this daye eyghte dayes they ſhall doo batail afore yow / By my hede fayd kyng Arthur I am aſerd fyre Mellyagraunce has taken vpon hym a grete charge / but where is fyr Launcelot fayd the kyng / Sir fayd they alle we wote 30 not where he is / but we deme he is ryden to ſomme aduentures as he is oftymes wonte to doo / for he hath fyr Lauayns hors / lete hym be faide the kyng / he wylle be founden but yf he be trapped with ſomme treaſon ¶ Capitulū octauum

35 Soo leue we fyr Launcelot lyenge within that caue in grete payne / and euery day ther came a lady & brouzt hym his mete & his drynke / & wowed hym to haue layne by hym / and euer the noble knyghte fyre Launcelot fayd her nay / fir Launcelot sayd she ye ar not wyfe / for ye maye ne-ur lady quene Gueneuer shalle be brente in your deffaulte on-les that ye be there at the daye of bataille / God defende sayd 5 fyr Launcelot that she shold be brente in my deffaute / & yf hyt te there is somme good knyghte outhur of my blood or some other that loueth me that wylle take my quarel in hand / and therfor said fir launcelot wete ye wel ye shalle not sere me / & yf there were no more wymmen in alle this land but ye / I wil not haue adoo with yow / thenne arte thou shamed sayd 15 the lady / and destroyed for euer / As for worldes shame Ihesu defende me / and as for my dystresse it is welcome what so euer hit be that god sendeth me / soo she came to hym the same day that the batail shold be / and sayd fir launcelot / me thyn-keth ye are to hard herted / but woldest thou but kyffe me ones 20 I shold delyuer the and thyn armour / and the best hors that is within fir Mellyagraunces stable / As for to kyffe yow said fir launcelot I maye doo that and lese no worshyp / and wete ye wel and I vnderstood / there were ony disworship for to kyffe yow / I wold not doo hit / thenne he kyssed her / & then- 25 ne she gat hym and broughte hym to his armour / and whan he was armed / she broughte hym to a stable / where stood xij good courfers / and bad hym chese the best / Thenne fyr launcelot loked vpon a whyte courser the whiche lyked hym best / & anone he commaunded the keepers faste to sadle hym with the 30 best fadel of werre that there was / and soo it was done as he badde / thenne gatte he his spere in his hand and his suerd by his fyde / and commaunded the lady vnto god / and sayd lady for this good dede I shal doo yow seruyse yf euer hit be in my power /

¶ Capitulum Nonum

Howe leue we fir Launcelot wallop alle that he myghte And speke we of Quene Gueneuer / that was brou-ghte to a fyre to be brent / for fire Mellyagraunce was fure / hym thoughte that fir launcelot shold not be att that ba-5 taille / therfore he euer cryed vpon kynge Arthur to doo hym Iustyce / outhr els brynge forth fyr launcelot du lake / thenne was the kynge and al the Courte ful fore abasshed & shamed that the quene shold be brente in the defeaute of fir Launcelot My lord Arthur sayd fir Lauayne ye maye vnderstande that 10 it is not wel with my lord fyr launcelot / for and he were on lyue / foo he be not seke outhr in pryson / wete ye wel he wold ben here / for neuer herd ye that euer he failed his part for who-me he shold doo batail for / and therfor sayd fir lauayne / my lord kynge Arthur I byfeche yow gyue me the lycence to doo ba-15 tail here this day for my lord and maister / and for to faue my lady the quene / Gramercy gentil fir Lauayne sayd kyng arthur / for I dar fay alle that fir Mellyagraunce putteth vpon my lady the Quene / is wronge / for I haue spoken with al the ten wounded knyghtes / and there is not one of them and 20 he were hole and able to doo bataille / but he wold preue vpon fir Mellyagraunce body that it is fals that he putteth vpon my quene / foo thal I sayd fir lauayne in the defence of my lord fyr launcelot and ye wylle gyue me leue / Now I gyue yow leue sayd kynge Arthur and doo your best / for I dar wel fay 25 there is some treason done to fir launcelot / Thenne was fir La-uayne armed and horfed / and sodenly at the lyfste ende he rode to performe this bataille / and ryghte as the herowdes shold crye / leffes les aler / Ryghte foo came in fir launcelot dryuynge with alle the force of his hors / and thenne Arthur cry-30 ed ho / and abyde / thenne was fir launcelot called on horfbak to fore kynge Arthur / and there he told openly to fore the kynge and alle how fire Mellyagraunce had serued hym fyrste and last / And whanne the kynge and the quene and al the lordes knewe of the treason of fir Mellyagraunce / they were 35 alle ashamed on his behalfe / thenne was quene Gueneuer fente for / and sette by the kynge in grete truste of her champion And thenne there was no more els to fay / but fyr Launcelot and fire Mellyagraunce dresfid them vnto bataille / and took their speres / and foo they came to gyders as thonder / and there fir launcelot bare hym doune quyte ouer his hors croupe / And thenne fire Launcelot alyghte and dresfid his sheld on his sholder with his fuerd in his hand / and fir Mellyagraunce in the fame wyfe dresfid hym vnto hym / and there they fmote 5 many grete strokes to gyders / and at the laste fire Launcelot fmote hym fuche a buffet vpon the helmet that he felle on the one fyde to the erthe / and thenne he cryed vpon hym alowde / Moost noble knyghte fir launcelot du lake faue my lyf / for I yelde me vnto yow / and I requyre yow / as ye be a knyghte & 10 felawe of the table round flee me not / for I yelde me as ouer-comen / and whether I shalle lyue or dye I put me in the ky-nges handes and yours / thenne fir Launcelot wyfte not what to doo / for he had had leuer than all the good of the world / he myghte haue ben reuenged vpon fyr Mellyagraunce / and 15 fir Launcelot loked vp to the Quene Gueneuer / yf he myghte aspye by ony fygne or countenaunce what she wold haue done / And thenne the quene wagged her hede vpon fir Launcelot / as though she wold faye flee hym / Ful wel knewe fir la-uncelot by the waggyng of her hede that she wold haue hym 20 dede / thenne fir launcelot bad hym ryse for shame and perfor-me that bataille to the vtteraunce / nay said fir Mellyagraunce I wylle neuer aryfe vntyll ye take me as yolden & recreaunt I shalle profer yow large profers sayd fir Launcelot / that is for to say / I shall vnarme my hede & my lyfte quarter of my 25 body alle that may be vnarmed & lete bynde my lyfte hand behynde me / foo that it shalle not helpe me / and ryghte so I shall doo bataille with yow / thenne fir Mellyagraunce starte vp vp-on his legges / & sayd on hyghe My lord Arthur take hede to this profer / for I wille take hit / and lete hym be dyfarmed & 30 bounden accordynge to his profer / what faye ye sayd kyng Arthur vnto fyre launcelot / wille ye abyde by youre profer / ye my lord sayd fir launcelot / I wille neuer goo fro that I haue ones sayd / Thenne the knyghtes parters of the felde difarmed fir launcelot first his hede / & fythen his lyfte arme & his lyfte 35 fyde / & they bond his lyft arme behynd his bak without sheld or ony thyng / & thenne they were put to gyders / Wete you wel there was many a lady & knyzt merucylled that fir launcelot wold Ieopardy hym felf in fuche a wyfe / Thenne fyre Mellya-graunce came with his fuerd all on hygh / and fire launcelot fhewed him openly his bare hede and the bare lyfte fyde / and whan he wende to haue fmyten hym vpon the bare hede / thenne 5 lyghtly he auoyded the lyfte legge & the lyfte fyde / & put his ryght hand and his fuerd to that froke / and foo putte it on fyde with grete fleyghte / and thenne with grete force fyr laun-celot fmote hym on the helmet fuche a buffet that the froke kerued the hede in two partyes / thenne there was no more to doo / 10 but he was drawn oute of the felde / and at the grete Inftaun-ce of the knyghtes of the table round / the kyngge fuffred hym to be entered & the mencyon made vpon hym who flewe hym/and for what caufe he was flayne / and thenne the kyng and the Quene made more of fyr Launcelot du lake / and more he 15 was cheryffhed than euer he was afore hand

¶ Capitulum x

THenne as the Frenffh booke maketh mencyon there was a good knyghte in the land of Hongre his name was fyr Vrre and he was an aduenturous knyghte and in al places where he myghte here of ony dedes of worfhyp ther wo-20 ld he be / Soo it happend in Spayne there was an Erles fone his name was Alphegus / and at a grete turnement in spayn this fyre Vrre knyghte of Hongry and fir Alphegus of spayne encountred to gyders for veray enuy / and foo eyther vndertook other to the Vtteraunce / and by fortune fire Vrre fle-25 we fyr Alphegus the erles fone of Spayn / but this knyghte that was flayne had yeuen fyre Vrre or euer he was flayne feuen grete woundes / thre on the hede / and four on his body / & vpon his lyfte hand / and this fyr Alphegus had a moder / the whiche was a grete forcereffe / and fhe for the defpyte of her 30 fones dethe wrought by her fubtyl craftes that fyr Vrre fhold neuer be hole / but euer his woundes fhold one tyme feyfter & another tyme blede / fo that he fhold neuer be hole vntyl the beft knyghte of the world had ferched his woundes / and thus fhe made her auaunt where thurgh it was knowen that fyre Vrre shold neuer be hole / Thenne his moder lete make an hors lyt-ter / and put hym theryn vnder two palfroyes / and thenne she took fyr Vvres fyfter with hym a ful fayr damoyfel / whos name was Felelolye / and thenne she took a page with hym to ke-pe their horses / and foo they ledde fir Vvre thurgh many coun- 5 treyes / For as the Frensshe book fayth she ledde hym so feuen yere thurgh alle landes crystened / and neuer she coude fynde no knyghte that myghte ease her sone / Soo she came in to Scotland and in to the bandes of England / and by fortune she came nyghe the feest of pentecoste vntyl Arthurs Courte that 10 at that tyme was holden at Carleil / And whan she came there thenne she made it openly to be knowen how that she was come in to that land for to hele her sone ¶ Thenne kynge Arthur lete calle that lady / and asked her the cause why she broughte that hurte knyghte in to that land 15 My moost noble kynge sayd that lady / wete yow wel I bro-ughte hym hydder for to be heled of his woundes / that of alle this feuen yere he myghte not be hole / & thenne she told the kynge where he was wounded and of whome / and how his moder had discouerd in her pryde / how she had wroughte that by 20 enchauntement / foo that he shold neuer be hole vntyl the best knyghte of the world had ferched his woundes / and foo I haue passed thurgh alle the landes crystned to haue hym heled / excepte this land / And yf I fayle to hele hym here in this land I wylle neuer take more payne vpon me / and that is pyte 25 for he was a good knyghte and of grete noblenes / what is his name sayd Arthur / My good and gracyous lord she sayde / his name is fyr Vvre of the mounte / In good tyme sayd the Kynge / and sythe ye are come in to this land / ye are ryght wel come / and wete yow wel here shal your sone be helyd / and euer 30 ony crysten man may hele hym /

And for to gyue alle other men of worshyp courage / I my self wille affay to handle your sone / and foo shalle alle the ky-nges dukes and Erles that ben here presente with me at this tyme thereto wylle I commaunde them / and wel I wote they 35 shalle obeye and doo after my commaundement

And wete yow wel sayd kynge Arthur vnto Vvres fyfter I shalle begynne to handle hym and ferche vnto my power not prefumyng vpon me that I am foo worthy to hele youre fone by my dedes / but I wille courage other men of worshyp to doo as I wyll doo / And thenne the kyngge commaunded alle the kynges dukes and erles & alle noble knyghtes of the 5 Round table that were there that tyme prefente to come in to the medowe of Carleil / and fo at that tyme there were but an honderd and ten of the roūd table / for xl knyghtes were that tyme away / and foo here we muſte begynne at kyngge Arthur as is kyndely to begynne at hym / that was the mooſt man of 10 worshyp that was cryſtned at that tyme

¶ Capitulum xj

THenne kyngge Arthur loked vpon ſire Vyre . and the kyngge thoughte he was a ful lykely man whanne he was hole / and thenne kyngge Arthur made hym to be take doune of the lytter and layd hym vpon the erthe / and 15 there was layd a cuſſhyn of gold that he ſhold knele vpon/And thenne noble Arthur fayd fayr knyghte me repenteth of thy hurte / and for to courage alle other noble Knyghtes / I wille praye the ſoftly to ſuffre me to handle your woundes / Mooſt noble cryſtned kyngge fayd Vyre doo as ye lyfte / for I 20 am at the mercy of god and at your commaundement / ¶ So MErcy Ihesu sayd kyng Arthur where is fyr launcelot du lake that he is not here at this tyme / Thus as they stood and spak of many thynges / there was aspy- 25 ed fyr launcelot that came rydyng toward them / and told the doo as we haue done / and told fyr launcelot what they hadde done / and shewed hym them alle / that had ferched hym / Ihesu defende me sayd fyr Launcelot whan soo many kynges and 5 knyghtes haue affayed and sayled / that I shold prefume vp-on me to encheue that alle ye my lordes myghte not encheue / Ye shalle not chefe sayd kynge Arthur / for I will commaunde yow for to doo as we alle haue done / My most renowned lord said fir Launcelot ye knowe wel I dar not nor may not diso-10 beye your commaundement / but and I myghte or durfte / wete yow wel I wold not take vpon me to touche that wounded knyghte in that entente that I shold passe alle other knyghtes / Ihesu defende me from that shame / Ye take it wrong sayd kynge Arthur / ye shal not do it for no presumcyon / but for to 15 bere vs selauhypp in soo moche ye be a felawe of the table round / and wete yow wel sayd kynge Arthur / and ye preua-yle not and hele hym / I dare say / there is no knyghte in thys land may hele hym / and therfor I pray yow / doo as we haue done / and thenne alle the kynges and knyghtes for the 20 moost party prayd fir Launcelot to serche hym / and thenne the thur I must doo your commaundement / the whiche is fore a-30 geynst my herte / And thenne he helde vp his handes / & loked in to the east / sayenge secretly vnto hym self / thow bleffid fader / sone and holy ghooft I byseche the of thy mercy / that my fymple worshyp and honeste be faued / and thou bleffid Trynyte thow mayst yeue power to hele this seke knyghte by thy 35 grete vertu and grace of the / but good lord neuer of my self And thenne fir Launcelot prayd fir Vrre to lete hym see hys hede / and thenne deuoutely knelyng he ranfaked the thre wou-des that they bled a lytyl / and forth with alle the woundes ¶ Thenne kyng Arthur and alle the kynges and knyghtes 5 kneled doune and gaf thankynges and louynges vnto god ged vnto Iuftes I wold be foone redy /

¶ Capitulum xiiij

THenne Arthur made a party of honderd knyghtes to be ageynfte an honderd knyghtes / and foo vpon the 20 morne they Iufted for a dymond / but there Iufted none of the daungerous knyghtes / & foo for to fhorten thys tale fyr Vvre & fir Lauayn Iufted beft that day / for there was none of hem but he ouerthrewe & pulled down thyrty knyghtes/& thenne by the affente of alle the kynges & lordes fyre Vvre 25 & fir Lauayn were made knyghtes of the table round / & fir la-uayn cafte his loue vnto dame Felelolle fire Vvres fyfter / & thēne they were wedded to gyder with grete Ioye / & kyng Arthur gaf to eueryche of hem a Barony of landes / and this fire Vvre wold neuer goo from fire Launcelot / but he & fir Laua- 30 yn awayted euermore vpon hym / & they were in all the courte accounted for good knyghtes / & full defyrous in armes / & many noble dedes they dyd / for they wold haue no reſte / but euer foughte aduentures / thus they lyued in all that courte wyth grete nobleſſe & Ioye long tyme / But euery nyghte & day fire 35

Agraauayne / fyr Gawayns broder awayted Quene Gueneuer and sir Launcelot du lake to putte them to a rebuke & shame And foo I leue here of this tale and ouer hyp grete bookes of sir Launcelot du lake / what grete aduentures he dyd whan he 5 was called le cheualer du charyot / For as the Frensishe booke sayth by cause of despyte that knyghtes and ladyes called hym the knyghte that rode in the charyot lyke as he were Iuged to the galhous / Therfor in despyte of all them that named hym foo / he was caryed in a charyot a twelue moneth / for but lityl 10 after that he had slayne sir Mellyagraunce in the quenes quarrel / he neuer in a twelue moneth came on horsbak / And as the Frensishe book sayth / he dyd that twelue moneth more than xl batails / And by cause I haue lost the very mater of la cheua-ler du charyot / I departe from the tale of sir Launcelot / & here 15 I goo vnto the morte of kyng Arthur / and that caused fyre Agraauayne

¶ Explicit liber xij / the floure of chyualry of alle the world was destroyed & fla-yn / and alle was long vpon two vnhappy knyghtes the whi- 10 che were named Agrauayne and sire Mordred that were bretheren vnto sire Gawayne / for this sire Agrauayne and sire mordred had euer a preuy hate vnto the Quene dame Gueneuer and to sire launcelot / and dayly and nyghtly they euer watched vpon sire Launcelot / Soo it myfhapped sire Gawayne and 15

 Not by my councelle ſayd ſyre Gawayne / for and there ryſe warre and wrake betwyx ſyre launcelot and vs / wete you wel 35 broder there will many kynges and grete lordes hold with ſyre Launcelot / Also broder fir Agrawayne sayd fyre Gawayne ye must remembre how oftymes fyr Launcelot hath rescowed the kynge and the quene / and the best of vs all had ben ful cold at the herte rote / had not fir launcelot ben better than we / 5 And that hath he preued hym self ful ofte / And as for my parte sayd fir Gawayne I wylle neuer be ageynst fir launcelot for one dayes dede whan he rescowed me from kynge Cara-dos of the dolorous toure / and flewe hym and saued my lyf/Also broder fir Agrawayne and fir mordred in lyke wyfe fir 10 Launcelot rescowed yow bothe and thre score and two from fir Turquyn / Me thynketh broder fuche kynde dedes and kyndenes shold be remembryd / doo as ye lyft sayd fyr Agrawayne

¶ Capitulum ij

25 ANd thenne fir Arthur asked hem what noyfe they made / my lord sayd Agraawaye I shal telle yow that I may kepe noo lenger / here is I and my broder fyre Mordred brake vnto my broder fyr Gawayne / fyr Gaherys / and to fyre Gareth / how this we knowe alle that fyr Launcelot holdeth yo-30 ur quene and hath done longe / and we be your fyfter fones / & we may suffre it no lenger / and alle we wote that ye shold be aboute fyr launcelot / and ye are the kynge that made hym knyghte / and therfor we wille preue hit that he is a traytoure to your perfone / yf hit be foo sayd fyr Arthur wete yow wel he 35 is none other / but I wold be lothe to begynne fuche a thyng but I myght haue preues vpon hit / for fir launcelot is an hardy knyghte / and alle ye knowe / he is the best knyghte among vs alle // and but yf he be taken with the dede / he wylle fyghte with hym that bryngeth vp the noyfe / and I knowe no kny3t that is able to matche hym / Therefore and it be sothe as ye faye 5 I wold he were taken with the dede / For as the Frensihe booke sayth the kyng was ful lothe therto that ony noyfe shold be vpon fyr launcelot and his quene / for the kyng had a demynge / but he wold not here of hit / for fyr launcelot had done soo moche for hym and the quene soo many tymes that wete ye 10 and thenne vpon payne of deth we shalle take hym that nyght with the quene / and outhur we shal brynge hym to yow dede or quyck / I wille wel sayd the kyng / thenne I counceylle yow sayd the kyng take with yow sure selaufhip / fyre sayd Agrawayne my broder fir Mordred and I wil take with vs 20 twelue knyghtes of the round table / Beware sayd kyng arthur / for I warne yow ye shalle fynde hym wyghte / lete vs dele sayd fir Agrawayne and fir Mordred / Soo on the morn kyng Arthur rode on huntynge / and sente word to the quene that he wold be oute alle that nyghte / Thenne fir Agrawayne 25 and fire Mordred gate to them twelue knyghtes / and dyd them self in a chamber in the Castel of Carleyl / and these were their names / fyr Colgreuance / fyr Mador de la porte / fyre Gyngalyne / fyr Melyot de Logrys / fyre Petypafe of wynchelfee / fyr Galleron of Galway / fyr Melyon of the montayne / fir 30 Aftamore / fyre Gromore somyr Ioure / fyr Curselayne / fyr Florence / fyr Louel / So these twelue knyghtes were with fir mordred and fir Agrawayne / and al they were of Scotland outhur of fyr Gawayns kynne / outhur wel willers to his bretheren / Soo whan the nyghte came fir Launcelot told fyre Bors 35 how he wold goo that nyghte and speke with the quene / Sir sayd fir Bors ye shal not go this nyghte by my couceil Why sayd fir launcelot / Sir sayd fir Bors I drede me euer of fir Agrauayn that wayteth yow dayly to do yow shame and vs al / and neuer gaf my herte ageynst no goyng that euer ye wente to the Quene soo moche as now / for I mystrust that the kynge is oute this nyghte from the quene by cause perauen-5 tur he hath layne somme wathe for yow and the Quene / and therfor I drede me fore of treason / Haue ye no drede sayd fyr Launcelot / for I shalle goo and come ageyne and make noo taryenge / Sir said fir Bors that me repenteth / for I drede me fore that your goyng oute thys nyghte shalle wrathe vs alle

¶ Capitulum iiij /

15 Soo fir Launcelot departed and took his fwerd vnder his arme / and soo in his mantel that noble knyghte putte hym self in grete Jeopardy / and soo he past tyl he came to the quenes chamber / and thenne fir launcelot was ly3-tely putte in to the chamber / And thenne as the Frensch book 20 sayth the quene and Launcelot were to gyders / And whether they were a bedde or at other maner of disportes / me lyft not herof make no mencyon / for loue that tyme was not as is now adayes / ¶ But thus as they were to gyder / there came fir Agrauayne and fyre Mordred with twelue kny3tes with 25 them of the round table / and they sayd with cryenge voys / Traytour knyghte fyr launcelot du lake now arte thou taken And thus they cryed with a loude voys that alle the Courte myghte here hit / and they all xiiij were armed at al poyntes as they shold fyghte in a bataille / Allas sayd quene Guene-30 uer now are we mescheued bothe / Madame sayd fir Launcelot is there here ony armour within your chambre that I myght couer my poure body with al / And yf there be ony gyue hit me / and I shalle soone flynte their malyce by the grace of god Truly sayd the quene I haue none armour sheld fwerd nor spere / wherfore I drede me fore / our longe loue is come to a my-scheuous ende / for I here by theire noyse there ben many noble knyghtes / and wel I wote they ben surely armed / ageynste them ye may make no refystence / wherfore ye are lykely to be slayne / and thenne shalle I be brente / For and ye myghte ef- 5 cape them said the quene / I wold not doubte but that ye wold rescowe me in what daunger that euer I stoode in / Allas sayd fyr Launcelot in alle my lyf thus was I neuer bestadde that I shold be thus shamefully slayne for lack of myn armour / But euer in one sir Agrauayne and sir Mordred cry- 10 ed Traytour knyghte come oute of the Quenes chamber / for wete thou wel thou arte soo befette that thou shalte not escape / O Ihesu mercy sayd sir Launcelot this shameful crye and noyse I may not suffre / for better were deth at ones than thus to endure this payne / thenne he took the quene in his armes / 15 and kyfte her / and sayd moost noble crysten Quene I byse-che yow as ye haue ben euer my specyal good lady / and I at al tymes your true poure knyghte vnto my power / and as I neuer fayled yow in ryghte nor in wrong sythen the fyrst day kynge Arthur made me knyghte that ye wylle praye for my 20 soule / yf that I here be slayne / for wel I am assured that sir Bors myn neuewe and all the remenaunt of my kynne with fyr Lauayne and fyr Vrrre that they wylle not fayle yow to rescowe yow from the fyre / and therfor myn owne lady recom-forte your self what someuer come of me that ye go with fire 25 Bors my neuew and sir Vrrre / and they all wylle doo yow alle the pleafyr that they can or may / that ye shall lyue lyke a Quene vpon my landes / Nay launcelot sayd the Quene / we-te thou wel / I wyll neuer lyue after thy dayes / but and thou be slayne I wyl take my deth as mekely for Ihesus Crystus 30 sake / as euer dyd ony crysten Quene / wel madame sayd laūcelot / fythe hit is soo that the day is come that oure loue muste departe / wete yow wel I shalle felle my lyf as dere as I maye and a thousand fold sayd fyr Launcelot I am more heuyer for yow than for my self / And now I had leuer than to be 35 lord of al crystendome that I had sure armour vpon me / that men myghte speke of my dedes or euer I were slayne / Truly sayd the Quene I wold and it myghte please god / that they wold take me and flee me / and suffer yow to escape / That shal neuer be sayd fir launcelot / god defende me from fuche a shame / but Ihesu be thou my sheld and myn armour /

¶ Capitulum iiii

ANd there with fyr Launcelot wrapped his mantel a-5 bout his arme wel and surely / and by thenne they had geten a grete fourme oute of the halle / and there with all they raffhed at the dore / Fair lordes sayd fyre Launcelot leue your noyse and your raffyng / and I shalle sette open this dore / and thenne may ye doo with me what it lyketh yow / Come 10 of thenne sayd they alle / and do hit / for hit auayleth the not to stryue ageynst vs alle / and therfor lete vs in to this chamber / and we shalle saue thy lyf vntyl thou come to kyng Arthur / Thenne launcelot vnbarred the dore / and with his lyfte hand he held it open a lytel / so that but one man myghte co-15 me in attonnes / and soo there came strydyng a good knyghte a moche man and large / and his name was Colgreuaunce / of Gore / and he with a swerd strake at fyr launcelot myȝtely and he put asyde the stroke / and gaf hym fuche a buffett vpon the helmet / that he felle grouelynge dede within the chamber do-20 re / and thenne fyre Launcelot with grete myghte drewe that dede knyght within the chamber dore / and fyr Launcelot with helpe of the Quene and her ladyes was lyghtely armed in fyr Colgreuaunce armour / and euer stode fir Agrauiayn and fir Mordred cryenge traytoure knyghte come oute of the que-25 nes chamber / leue your noyse sayd fyr launcelot vnto fir Agra-uayne / For wete yow wel fir Agrauiayne ye shall not pryfo-ne me this nyghte and therfor and ye doo by my counceyll / goo ye alle from this chamber dore and make not fuche cryeng and fuche maner of sklauder as ye doo / for I promyse you by 30 my knyghthode and ye wil departe and make no more noyse / I shal as to morne appiere afore yow alle before the kyng / and thenne lete it be sene whiche of yow all outhel els ye all that wille accuse me of treason / and there I shal anfuere yow as a knyghte shold that hydder I cam to the quene for no maner of 35 male engyne / and that wyl I preue and make hit good vpon yow with my handes / Fy on the traytour fayd fir Agraauayn and fir Mordred / we wylle haue the maulgre thy hede / and flee the yf we lyst / for we lete the wete we haue the choyse of kynge Arthur to faue the or to flee the / A firs fayd fir laun- 5 celot / is there none other grace with you / thenne kepe your self Soo thenne fir Launcelot fet al open the chamber dore / and myghtely and knyghtely he strode in amongest them / and anone at the fyrst buffet he slewe fir Agraauayne and twelue of his felawes after within a lytel whyle after he layd hem cold to the erthe / for there was none of the twelue that myghte stan- 10 de fir launcelot one buffet / ¶ Also fyr Launcelot wounded fyr Mordred and he fledde with alle his myghte / And thenne fyre launcelot retorned ageyne vnto the Quene and fayd madame / now wete yow wel all oure true loue is brought to an ende / for now wille kynge Arthur euer be my foo / and ther- 15 fore madame and it lyke yow that I maye haue you wyth me / I shalle faue yow from alle manere aduentures daungerous / that is not best fayd the quene / me semeth now ye haue done foo moche harme / it wylle be best ye hold yow styll with this / And yf ye see that as to morne they wylle put me vnto 20 the dethe / thenne may ye rescowe me as ye thynke best / I wyll wel fayd fir launcelot / for haue ye no doubte whyle I am lyuynge / I shalle rescowe yow / and thenne he kyfte her / & eyther gaf other a rynge / and foo there he lefte the quene / and went vntyl his lodgyng ¶ Capitulum Quintum / 25

WHan fyre Bors sawe fyr launcelot / he was neuer soo gladde of his home comynge as he was thenne / Ihesu mercy fayd fyr Launcelot why be ye all armed what meaneth this / Sir fayd fir Bors after ye were departed from vs / we alle that ben of youre blood and youre wel wyllers 30 were soo dretched that somme of vs lepte oute of oure beddes naked / & some in their dremes caughte naked fwerdes in their handes / therfor said fir Bors we deme / there is some grete stryf at hand / & thēne we all demed that ye were betrapped with som treason / & therfor we made vs thus redy what nede that euer 35 ye were in / My fayre neuewe fayd fir launcelot vnto fir bors now shal ye wete al that this nyzt I was more harder bestad wan euer I was in my lyf & yet I escaped / And so he told hem alle how and in what maner as ye haue herd to fore / And therefore my felawes faid fir Launcelot I pray yow all that ye wylle be of good herte in what nede someuer I stande for now is warre come to vs alle / Sir sayd fir Bors alle is 5 welcome that god fendeth vs / and we haue had moche wele with yow and moche worfhypp / and therfor we wille take the wo with yow as we haue taken the wele / And therfore they sayd alle there were many good knyghtes / loke ye take no difcomferte / for there nys no bandys of knyghtes vnder heuen / 10 but we shalle be able to greue them as moche as they maye vs And therfor difcomferte not your self by no maner / and we shalle gadre to gyders that we loue / and that loueth vs / & what that ye wil haue done shalle be done /

And therfor fyr Launcelot sayd they we wil take the woo 15 with the wele / Graunt mercy sayd fir Launcelot of your good comferte / for in my grete distresse my fayr neuewe ye com-forte me gretely / and moche I am beholdyng vnto yow

But thys my fayre neuewe I wold that ye dyd in al haste that ye may or it be forth dayes that ye wille loke in their lod-20 gyng that ben lodged here nyghe aboute the kyng which wyll hold with me and whyche wylle not / for now I wolde knowe whiche were my frendes fro my foes

Sir faid fyr Bors I shalle doo my payne / and or it be feuen of the klok I shalle wete of fuche as ye haue sayd before who 25 wil holde with yow

¶ Thenne fire Bors called vnto hym fire Lyonel / fyr Ector de marys / fir Blamor de ganys / fir Bleoberys de ganys / fyre Gahalantync / fyr Galyhodyn / fir Galyhud / Sir menadeuke/fir Vyllyers the valyaunt / fir Hebes le renoumes / fir lauayne 30 fyr Vrrre of Hongry / fir Nerouneus / fire Plenorius / ¶ Thefe two knyghtes fire launcelot made / and the one he wanne vp-on a a brydge / and therfor they wold neuer be ageynft hym/And Harre le fyfe du lake and fyre Selyfes of the dolorous Toure / and fir Melyas de lyle / and fire Bellangere le 35 beufe that was fir Alyfanders sone le orphelyn / by cause hys moder Alys la Beale pelleryn and she was kynne vnto fir Launcelot / and he held with hym /

¶ Soo there came fyre Palomydes and fir Safyr his broder
 [leaf 402 verso]

to hold with fyr launcelot / And fyr Clegys of Sadok and fyr Dynas / fyr Claryus of Cleremont / So these two & twenty knyghtes drewe hem to gyders / and by thenne they were armed on horfbak / and promysed fir Launcelot to doo what he wold / ¶ Thenne there felle to them what of Northwalys and 5 of Cornewaile for fir Lamoraks fake and for fire Tristrams fake to the nombre of a four score knyghtes ¶ My lordes sayd fyre Launcelot wete yow wel / I haue ben euer syns I came in to this Countrey wel wyllled vnto my lord kynge Arthur / and vnto my lady Quene Gueneuer vn- 10 to my power / and this nyghte by caufe my lady the quene se-nte for me to speke with her / I suppose it was made by treason how be hit / I dare largely excufe her perfone / not withstand-ynge I was ther by a fore cast nere slayne / but as Ihesu prouoyded me I escaped alle theyir malyce and treason / 15

¶ And thenne that noble knyght fire Launcelot told hem al how he was hard bestad in the quenes chamber / and how and in what manere he escaped from them / And therfore sayd fir Launcelot wete yow wel my fayre lordes I am sure ther nys but werre vnto me and myn / And for by caufe I haue fla- 20 yn this nyghte these knyghtes I wote wel as is fire Agra-uayne fyr Gawayns broder / and at the leste twelue of his felawes / for this caufe now I am sure of mortal warre / for these knyghtes were sente and ordeyned by kynge Arthur to bitraye me / And therfore the kynge wylle in his hete & ma- 25 lyce Iuge the quene to the fyre / and that maye I not suffre that she shold be brente for my fake / for and I may be herd and sufferd and foo taken / I wyll fyghte for the Quene that she is a true lady vnto her lord / but the kynge in his hete I drede me wylle not take me as I oughte to be taken 30

¶ Capitulum vi

Y lord fyre Launcelot sayd fir Bors by myn aduys ye shalle take the wo with the wele / and take hit in pacyence / and thanke god of hit / ¶ And sythen hit is fallen as hit is / I counceylle yow to kepe youre self / for and ye wylle your self / ther is no felauſhyp of knyghtes cryſtened that ſhalle do you wrong / Alſo I wyll counceyll yow my lord fyr Launcelot / that and my lady quene Gueneuer be 5 in diſtreſſe / in foo moche as ſhe is in payne for your fake that ye knyghtly reſcowe her / and ye dyd other wayes / al the world wylle ſpeke of yow ſhame to the worldes ende / in fo moche as ye were taken with her / whether ye dyd ryghte or wrong / It is now your parte to holde with the quene that ſhe be not 10 ſlayne and put to a meſcheuous dethe / for and ſhe foo dye / the ſhame ſhalle be yours / Iheſu defende me from ſhame ſayd fyre Launcelot and kepe and ſaue my lady the quene from vylony and ſhameful deth / and that ſhe neuer be deſtroyed in my defaute / wherfore my fayre lordes my kynne and my frendes fa-15 yd fir Launcelot what wylle ye doo / Thenne they ſayd all we wille doo as ye wylle doo / I putte this to yow ſayd fir laun-celot that yf my lord Arthur by euyll counceyll wyll to morn in his hete putte my lady the Quene to the fyre there to be brente / Now I praye yow counceylle me what is beſt to doo / 20 Thenne they ſayd alle at ones with one voys / Syre vs thyn-keth beſt that ye knyghtly reſcowe the quene in foo moche as ſhe ſhal be brente / it is for youre fake / and it is to ſuppoſe and ye myghte be handelyd ye ſhold haue the ſame dethe or a more ſhamefuller dethe / and fyre we fay al that ye haue many 25 tymes reſcowed her from dethe / for other mens quarels / vs fe-meth it is more youre worſhypp that ye reſcowe the quene from this perylle / in foo moche ſhe hath it for your fake ¶ Thenne fir launcelot ſtood ſtyl and ſayd / my fayre lordes wete yow wel I wold be lothe to doo that thyng that ſhold 30 diſhonoure yow or my blood / and wete yow wel I wold be lothe that my lady the quene ſhold dye a ſhameful dethe / but and hit be foo that ye wylle counceylle me to reſcowe her / I muſte doo moche harme or I reſcowe her / and peraduen-ture I ſhal there deſtroye ſomme of my beſt frendes / that ſhold 35 moche repente me / and peradventure there be ſomme / and they coude wel brynge it aboute / or diſobeye my lord kynge Arthur they wold ſoone come to me / the whiche I were loth to hurte / & yf ſo be þ^t I reſcowe her where ſhal I kepe her / that ſhal be be the leste care of vs alle sayd fir Bors / how dyd the noble knyghte fire Tristram by your good wyll kepte not he wyth hym la beale Ifoud nere thre yere in Ioyous gard / the which was done by your elthers deuyfe / and that same place is your owne / and in lyke wyse may ye doo and ye lyst / and take the 5 Quene lyghtely away / yf it foo be the kynge wyll Iuge her to be brente / and in Ioyous gard ye may kepe her longe yno-ugh vntyl the hete of the kynge be past /

And thenne shalle ye brynge ageyne the quene to the kynge with grete worshyp / and thenne peradventure ye shalle haue 10 thanke for her bryngynge home and loue and thanke where other shalle haue maugre / That is hard to doo sayd fir launcelot / for by fir Tristram I maye haue a warnynge / for whanne by meanes of treatyce fyr Tristram brought ageyne la Beale Ifoud vnto kynge Mark from Ioyous gard loke what be- 15 felle on the ende / how shamefully that fals traitour kyng ma-rke slewe hym / as he fat harpyng afore his lady la beale I-foud / With a groundyn glayue he threst hym in behynde to the herte / hit greueth me said fir launcelot to speke of his dethe / for alle the world may not fynde fuche a knyghte / Alle thys 20 is trouthe sayd fyre Bors / but there is one thyng shalle courage yow and vs alle / ye knowe wel Kynge Arthur & kyng marke were neuer lyke of condycyons / for there was neuer yet man coude preue kynge Arthur vntrewe of his promyse / Soo to make short tale they were alle consented that for bet- 25 ter outhur for worfe / yf foo were that the quene were on that morne broughte to the fyre / shortly they al wold rescowe her / And foo by the aduysse of fyr launcelot they putte hem all in an enbusshement in a woode as nyghe Carleil as they myght And there they abode styll to wete what the Kynge wold do / 30

¶ Capitulum vii

Now torne we ageyne vnto fyre Mordred / that whan he was escaped from the noble knyghte fire Launcelot he anone gat his hors and mounted vpon hym / and rode vnto Kynge Arthur / fore wounded and smyten / and alle forbled / and there he told the kyng alle how hit was / and how they were alle slayne fauf hym self al only / Ihesu mercy how maye this be said the Kyng / toke ye hym in the quenes chamber / Ye foo god me helpe sayd sir Mordred there we fon-5 de hym vnarmed / and there he flewe Colgreuance & armed hym in his armour / and alle this he told the kyng from the begynnynge to the endynge ¶ Ihesu mercy sayd the kyng he is a merueyllous knyghte of prowesse / Allas me fore repenteth sayd the Kyng that euer 10 fyr launcelot shold be ageynst me / Now I am fure the noble felaufhyp of the round table is broken for euer / for with hym wille many a noble knyghte holde / and now it is fallen foo/sayd the Kyng / that I may not with my worshyp / but the que-ne must suffer the dethe / Soo thenne there was made grete or-15 dynaunce in this hete / that the quene must be Iuged to the deth And the lawe was fuche in tho dayes that what someuer they were / of what estate or degree / yf they were fonde gylty of treson / there shold be none other remedy but dethe / and outhere the men or the takynge with the dede shold be caufer of their hasty 20 Iugement / and ryghte foo was it ordeyned for quene guene-uer / by cause sir Mordred was escaped fore wounded / and the dethe of thyrtyten knyghtes of the round table / these preues & experyences caused kyng Arthur to commaunde the quene to the fyre there to be brente / Thenne spake sir gawayn and sayd 25 my lord Arthur I wold counceylle yow not to be ouer hasty / but that ye wold putte it in respyte this Iugement of my lady the quene for many causes / ¶ One it is though it were so that sir Launcelot were fonde in the quenes chamber / yet it myghte be foo that he came thyder for none euylle / for ye knowe 30 my lord said fyr gawayne that the quene is moche beholden vnto fyr launcelot more than vnto ony other Knyghte / for oftyme he hath faued her lyf / and done batail for her whan al the Courte refused the quene / and paraenture she sente for hym for goodenes and for none euyl to rewarde hym for his good 35 dedes that he had done to her in tymes past / And peradventure my lady the quene sente for hym to that entente that fyr Laun-celot shold come to her good grace pryuely and secretelly / wenynge to her that hit was best so to do in eschewyng & dredyng of Ilkaunder / for oftymes we doo many thynges that we we-ne it be for the best / & yet peradventure hit torneth to the werst/For I dare say sayd fyre Gawayne my lady your Quene is to yow bothe good and true / And as for sir Launcelot sayd fir Gawayne I dare saye he wylle make hit good vpon ony 5 knyghte lyuyng that wylle putte vpon hym self vylony or shame / and in lyke wyse he wylle make good for my lady dame Gueneuer / that I byleue wel said kyng Arthur / but I wil not that way with sir Launcelot for he trusteth soo moche vpon his handes and his myghte that he doubteth no man / and therefore 10 for my Quene he shalle neuer fyghte more / for she shall haue the lawe / And yf I maye gete sir Launcelot wete you well he shal haue a shameful dethe / Ihesu defende sayd fir Gawayn that I may neuer see it / why saye ye soo sayd kyng Arthur/For soth ye haue no cause to loue sir Launcelot / for this nyghte 15 last past he slewe your broder sir Agrauayne a ful good knyghte / & al moost he had slayne your other broder sir mordred And also there he slewe thyrten noble knyghtes / and also fir Gawayne remembre ye he slewe two fones of yours fire Florence and fir Louel / my lord sayd fir Gawayne of alle thys 20 I haue knouleche of whos dethes I repente me fore / but in so moche I gaf hem warnynge / and told my bretheren and my fones afore hand what wold falle in the ende / in soo moche / they wold not doo by my counceyll I wyl not medle me ther-of nor reuenge me no thyng of their dethes / for I told hem it 25 was no bote to stryue wyth fir launcelot / how be it I am fory of the deth of my bretheren & of my fones / for they are the causers of theyre owne dethe / For oftymes I warned my broder fir Agrauayne / and I told hym the peryls the which ben now fallen

30

¶ Capitulum viij

THenne sayd the noble Kyng Arthur to fyre Gawayne / dere neuwe I pray yow make yow redy in your best armoure with youre bretheren fyre Gaherys and fyre Gareth to bryng my Quene to the fyre there to haue her Iugement and receyue the dethe

¶ Nay my moost noble 35 lord sayd fir Gawayne that wyll I neuer doo / for wete yow wel / I wyll neuer be in that place where foo noble a Quene as is my lady dame Gueneur shalle take a shameful ende / For wete yow wel sayd fire Gawayne my herte wyll neuer 5 ferue me to see her dye / and it shalle neuer be sayd that euer I was of youre counceyll of her dethe / Thenne sayd the kyng to fyr Gawayne / suffer your broder fyr Gaherys and fyr Gareth to be there / my lord sayd fire Gawayne wete yow wel / they wille be lothe to be there present by cause of many aduen-10 tures the whiche ben lyke there to falle / but they are yonge & ful vnable to faye yow nay / Thenne spak fire Gaherys & the good knyghte fire Gareth vnto fyre Arthur / fyre ye may wel commaunde vs to be there / but wete yow wel it shalle be fore ageynst oure wyll / but and we be there by youre strayte com-15 maundement / ye shall playnly hold vs there excused / we wyl be there in peasfyle wyfe and bere none harneis of warre vpon vs / In the name of god sayd the kyng thenne make you redy / for she shalle soone haue her Iugement anone / Allas sayd fyr Gawayne that euer I shold endure to see this woful da-20 ye / Soo fir Gawayne torned hym / and wepte hertely / and so he wente in to his chamber and thēne the quene was led forth withoute Carleil / and there she was despoyllid in to her smok And foo thenne her ghooftly fader was broughte to her to be shryuen of her myfdedes / Thenne was there wepyng & way-25 lynge and wryngynge of handes of many lordes and ladyes / But there were but fewe in comparyson that wold bere any armour for to strengthe the dethe of the quene / Thenne was ther one that fire Launcelot had fente vnto that place for to aspye what tyme the quene shold goo vnto her dethe / And anone as 30 he sawe the quene despoyllid in to her smok / and foo shryuen / thenne he gaf fir launcelot warnynge / thenne was there but sporynge and pluckyng vp of horses / and ryghte so they cam to the fyre / And who that stood ageynste them there were they slayne / there myghte none withstāde fir Launcelot / so all that 35 bare armes and withstode hem there were they slayne ful many a noble knyghte / For there was slayne fir Bellyas le orgulous / Sir Segwarydes / Sir Gryflet / fir Brandyles / fyre Agloul / fyr Tor / fyr Gauter / fire Gyllymer / fyr Reynolds iij bretheren / fyr Damas / fyr Pyramus / fyr Kay the straunger/fir Dryaunt / fir Lambegus / fyr Hermynde / fyr Pertylope / fyre Perymones two bretheren that were called the grene knyght 5 and the reed knyghte / And foo in this raffynge and hurlyng as fyre Launcelot thrange here and there / it myhapped hym to flee Gaherys and fyr Gareth the noble knyghte / for they were vnarmed and vnware / For as the Frenshe booke fayth/fyr Launcelot smote fyr Gareth and fyr Gaherys vpon the brayne pannes where thorou they were slayne in the felde how be 10 hit in veray trouthe fyr launcelot sawe hem not / and foo were they fonde dede amonge the thyckest of the prees / ¶ Thenne whan fyr launcelot had thus done and slayne / and putte to flyghte alle that wold withstande hym / Thenne he rode streyghte vnto dame Gueneuer and maade a kyrtyl and a gowne 15 to be cast vpon her / and thenne he made her to be fette behynde hym / and prayd her to be of good chere / wete yow wel / the Quene was gladde that she was escaped from the dethe / And thenne she thanked god and fir Launcelot / and foo he rode his way with the Quene as the Frenshe book faith vnto Ioyous 20 gard / and there he kepte her as a noble knyghte shold doo / & many grete lordes and somme kynges sent fyr Launcelot many good knyghtes / and many noble knyghtes drewe vnto fir Launcelot / ¶ whan this was knowen openly that kyng Arthur and fire launcelot were at debate / many knyghtes were 25 gladde of their debate / and many were ful heuy of their debate

¶ Capitulum ix

Soo torne we ageyne vnto kyng Arthur that whan it was told hym / how and in what maner of wyse the quene was taken away from the fyre / And whan he herd of the deth of his noble knyghtes / and in especyal of fyr gaheris 30 and fir Gareths deth / thenne the kyng swowned for pure sorou And whan he awoke of his swoun / thenne he sayd ¶ Allas that euer I bare croun vpon my hede / For now haue I losse the fayrest felauhyp of noble knyghtes that euer helde crysten kyng to gyders / Allas my good knyghtes ben slayne aweye from me / now within these two dayes I haue lost xl knyghtes / & also the noble felawshyp of fyr launcelot and his blood / for now I may neuer hold hem to gyders no more with my wor-5 shyp / Allas that euer this werre beganne / Now fayr felawes sayd the kyng I charge yow that no man telle fir gawayn of the dethe of his two bretheren / for I am sure sayd the kyng whan fir Gawayne hereth telle that fir Gareth is dede he wyll goo nyghe oute of his mynde / Mercy Ihesu said the kyng why 10 slewe he fyre Gareth and fyre Gaherys / for I dar faye as for fyre Gareth he loued fir Launcelot aboue al men erthely / that is trouthe sayd some knyghtes / but they were slayne in the hurtlyng as fir launcelot thrange in the thyck of the prees / and as they were vnarmed / he smote hem and wyft not who-15 me that he smote / and soo vnhappyly they were slayne / The dethe of them sayd Arthur wyll cause the grettest mortal werre that euer was / I am sure wyfte fir Gawayne that fyr Gareth were slayne I shold neuer haue reste of hym tyl I had destroyed fyr launcelots kynne and hym self both / outhur els 20 he to destroye me / and therfor sayd the kyng wete yow well my herte was neuer soo heuy as it is now / and moche more I am foryer for my good knyghtes losse / than for the losse of my fayre quene / for quenes I myghte haue ynowe / but fuche a felawshyp of good knyghtes shalle neuer be to gyders in no 25 company / and now I dare say sayd kyng Arthur there was neuer cryften kyng helde fuche a felawshyp to gyders / & allas that euer fyr launcelot & I shold be at debate / A Agraauayn Agraauayn sayd the kyng Ihesu forgyue it thy fowle / for thyn euyl wyl that thou and thy broder fyre Mordred haddeft vn-30 to fyr launcelot hath caused al this forowe / and euer amonge these complayntes the kyng wepte and fwounde ¶ Thenne ther came one vnto fyr Gawayne and told hym / how the Quene was ladde awaye with fyr launcelot / & nygh a xxiiij knyghtes slayne / O Ihesu defende my bretheren sayd fir 35 gawayne / for ful wel wyft I that fyr launcelot wold rescowe her / outhur els he wold dye in that felde / and to faye the trouth he had not ben a man of worshyp had he not rescowed the que-ne that day / in so moche she shold haue ben brente for his sake

And as in that fayd fir Gawayne he hath done but knyȝtly/and as I wold haue done my self and I had stand in ly-ke caas / but where ar my bretheren fayd fir Gawayne / I mer-ueyll I here not of hem / Truly fayd that man fir Gareth and fyr Gaherys be flayne / Ihesu defende fayd fir Gawayne / for 5 alle the world I wold not that they were flayne / and in e-specyall my good broder fir Gareth / fyr fayd the man he is fl-ayne and that is grete pyte / who flewe hym fayd fir Gawayn Sir fayd the man Launcelot flewe hem bothe / that may I not byleue fayd fyr Gawayne that euer he flewe my broder fyre 10 Gareth / For I dar say my broder Gareth loued hym better than me and alle his bretheren / and the kynge bothe / Also I dare say and fir Launcelot had desyred my broder fyr Gareth with hym / he wolde haue ben with hym ageynst the kynge and vs al / and therfore I may neuer byleue that fyr launcelot flewe 15 my broder . Sir fayd this man it is noyfed that he flewe hym

¶ Capitulum I

ALlas fayd fire Gawayne now is my Ioye gone / and thenne he felle doune and fwouned / and long he lay there as he had ben dede / And thenne whanne he aroos of his fwoune / he cryed oute sorowfully and fayd Allas / and ryȝte 20 foo fyr Gawayne ranne to the kynge cryenge and wepynge O kynge Arthur myne vnkel my good broder fyr Gareth is flayne / foo is my broder fyr Gaherys / the whiche were / ij / noble knyghtes / Thenne the kynge wepte and he bothe / and so they felle on fwounynge / And whan they were reuyued then- 25 ne spak fir Gawayne / fyr I wyl go see my broder fyr Gareth / ye may not see hym fayd the kynge / for I caused hym to be entered and fyr gaherys bothe / For I wel vnderstood that ye wold make ouer moche sorowe / and the syghte of fir Gareth shold haue caused your double sorowe / Allas my lord fa- 30 yd fyr Gawayne how flewe he my broder fir gareth myn own good lord I praye yow telle me / Truly fayd the Kyng I shal telle yow as it is told me / fyre Launcelot flewe hym & fir Gaheris bothe / Allas fayd fire Gawayne they bare none armes ayenst hym neyther of hem both / I wote not how it was said the kyng / but as it is sayd fire launcelot slewe them bothe in the thyckest of the prees / and knewe them not / and therfor lete vs shape a remedy for to reuenge their dethes / My Kyng 5 my lord and myn vnkel sayd fire Gawayne wete yow wel now I shal make yow a promyse that I shalle holde by my knyghthode / that from this day I shalle neuer fayle fir launcelot vntyl the one of vs haue slayne the other / And therefore I requyre yow my lord and kyng dreffe yow to the werre for 10 wete yow wel I will be reuenged vpon fire launcelot / & ther-for as ye wylle haue my feruyse and my loue now hafte yow therto and affaye your frendes / For I promyse vnto god said fir Gawayne for the dethe of my broder fir gareth I shalle feke fyr launcelot thorou oute feuen kynges Realmes / but I shalle 15 flee hym or els he shalle flee me / ye shall not nede to feke hym foo ferre sayd the Kyng / for as I here faye fir Launcelot will abyde me and yow in the Ioyous gard / and moche peple draweth vnto hym as I here faye / That may I byleue sayd fir ga-wayne / but my lord he sayd affaye your frendes / and I wyll 20 affaye myn / it shalle be done sayd the kyng / and as I suppose I shal be byg ynou; to drawe hym oute of the byggest toure of his Castel / So thenne the kyng sente letters and wryttes thorou oute alle Englund bothe in the lengthe and the brede / for to affomone alle his knyghtes / And foo vnto Arthur dre-25 we many knyghtes dukes and Erles / foo that he had a grete hooft / And whan they were assemblyd the kyng enformed hem how fyr launcelot had berafte hym his quene / Thenne the kyng and all his hooft made hem redy to laye syege aboute fir Launcelot where he laye within Ioyous gard / Therof herd fir 30 Launcelot and purueyed hym of many good knyghtes / for with hym helde many knyghtes / and some for his owne sake and somme for the quenes sake / Thus they were on bothe partyes wel furnysshed and garnysshed of alle maner of thyng that longed to the werre / But kyng Arthurs hooft was foo 35 bygge that fyr launcelot wold not abyde hym in the felde / For he was ful lothe to doo batail ageynst the kyng / but fyre launcelot drewe hym to his strong castel with al maner of vytail / And as many noble men as he myghte fuffyfe within the Towne and the Castel / Thenne came kynge Arthur with fire Gawayne with an hughe hooft / and layd a fyege al aboute Ioyous gard both at the Towne and at the Castel / & there they made ftronge werre on bothe partyes / but in no wyfe fyre Launcelot wold ryde oute nor go out of his Castel of long 5 tyme / neyther he wold none of his good knyghtes to yssue oute neyther none of the Towne nor of the Castel vntyl xv / wekes were past

¶ Capitulum xi

THenne it befel vpon a daye in herueft tyme / fyr laun-celot loked ouer the walles / and fpak on hyghe vn- 10 to Kynge Arthur and fir Gawayne / my lordes bothe wete ye wel al is in vayne that ye make at this fyege / for here wyne ye no worfhypp but maulgre and difhonoure / for and it lyfte me to come my felf oute and my good knyghtes I shold ful foone make an ende of this werre / Come forth the fayd Arthur 15 vnto Launcelot and thou darft / and I promyfe the / I shalle mete the in myddes of the felde / God defende me fayd fir Laun-celot that euer I shold encountre with the mooft noble kyng that made me knyghte / Fy vpon thy fayre langage fayd the kynge / for wete yow wel and trust it I am thy mortal fo / & 20 euer wyll to my deth daye / for thou haft flayne my good kn-yghtes / and ful noble men of my blood that I shal neuer re-couer ageyne / ¶ Also thou haft layne by my Quene & holden her many wynters / and fythen lyke a traytour taken her from me by force / my mooft noble lord and kyng fayd fir la- 25 uncelot ye may fay what ye will / for ye wote wel with youre felf wil I not ftryue / but there as ye fay I haue flayn your good knyghtes I wote wel that I haue done foo / and that me fore repenteth / but I was enforced to doo batail with hem / in fauyng of my lyf or els I muſte haue fuffred hem to haue 30 flayne me / and as for my lady Quene Gueneuer except your perfone of your hyhenes / and my lord fire Gawayne there is noo knyghte vnder heuen that dar make it good vpon me / that euer I was a traytour vnto youre perfone / And where hit please yow to faye that I haue holden my lady youre Quene 35 yeres and wynters / vnto that I shal euer make a large an-fuer / and preue hit vpon any knyghte that bereth the lyf excepte youre person and sire Gawayne that my lady Quene gueneuer is a true lady vnto your persone as ony is lyuyng 5 vnto her lord / and that wyll I make good with my handes / how be it / it hath lyked her good grace to haue me in chyerte and to cheryfthe me more than any other knyghte / and vnto my power I ageyne haue deferued her loue / for oftymes my lord ye haue consented that she shold be brente and destroyed 10 in your hete / and thenne it fortunied me to doo batail for her / and or I departed from her aduersary they confessed their vn-trouthe / and she ful worshypfully excused / And at suche tymes my lord Arthur sayd sir Launcelot ye loued me / and thanked me whan I faued your quene from the fyre / & then-15 ne ye promysed me for euer to be my good lord / and now me thynketh ye rewarde me ful ylle for my good seruyfe / and my good lord me semeth I had lost a grete parte of my worshyp in my knyghthode / and I had suffred my lady youre Quene to haue ben brente / and in foo moche she shold haue ben brente 20 for my sake / For sythen I haue done batails for your Quene in other quarels than in myn owne / me semeth now I had more ryght to doo batail for her in ryghte quarel / and therfor my good and gracyous lord sayd fyr launcelot take your quene vnto your good grace / for she is bothe fayr true and good / 25 Fy on the fals recreaunt knyght sayd sire Gawayne / I lete the wete my lord myn vnkel Kynge Arthur ihalle haue his Quene and the maulgre thly vyfage / and flee yow bothe whether it please hym / It may wel be sayd sire Launcelot / but we-te ye wel my lord sire Gawayne / and me lyst to come oute 30 of this Castel ye shold wyne me and the quene more harder than euer ye wanne a stronge bataille / Fy on thy proude wor-des feyd sir Gawayne / as for my lady the Quene I wil neuer saye of her shame / but thow fals and recreaunt Knyghte / faide fyre Gawayne what cause haddest thow to flee my good 35 broder fyr Gareth that loued the more than al my kynne Allas thow madest hym knyght thyn owne handes / Why fle-we thow hym that loued the foo wel / for to excuse me sayde sir Launcelot it helpeth me not / but by Ihesu / and by the feyth that I owe to the hygh ordre of knyȝthode / I shold with as a good wyll haue slayne my neuwe sir Bors de ganys / at þ^t tyme / but allas that euer I was so vnhappy sayd laūcelot þ^t I had not fene fyr Gareth and sir Gaherys / Thow lyeft recreaunt knyght sayd sir Gawayne / thow slewest hym in despyte 5 of me / And therfore wete thou wel I shalle make warre to the / and alle the whyle that I may lyue / That me repenteth said sir Launcelot / for wel I vnderstande it helpeth not to feke none accordement whyle ye fyr Gawayne ar foo mescheuously sette / And yf ye were not / I wold not doubte to haue the go- 10 od grace of my lord Arthur / I byleue it wel fals recreant knyght sayd sir Gawayne / for thow hast many longe dayes ouer ladde me and vs alle / and destroyed many of oure good knyghtes / ye faye as it pleafeth yow sayd fyr launcelot / & yet may it neuer be sayd on me / and openly preued that euer I 15 before cast of treason slewe no good knyghte as my lord fyre Gawayne ye haue done / And foo dyd I neuer / but in my defense that I was dryuen therto in fauynge of my lyf / ¶ A fals knyghte sayd fyre Gawayne that thow menest by fyre Lamorak / wete thou wel I slewe hym / ye slewe hym not 20 youre self sayd sir launcelot / hit had ben ouer moche on hand for yow to haue slayne hym / for he was one of the best knyghtes cryftned of his age / and it was grete pyte of his dethe /

¶ Capitulum xii

WEl wel sayd sayd sir Gawayne / to Launcelot sythen thou enbraydest me of fyre Lamorak / wete thou well 25 I shalle neuer leue the tyl I haue the at suche auaille that thou shalte not escape my handes / I truste yow wel ynough sayd fyr launcelot / and ye may gete me / I gete but lytel mercy/but as the Frenshe book saith / the noble kyng Arthur wold haue taken his Quene ageyne / and haue ben accorded 30 with fyr Launcelot / but fyr Gawayne wold not suffer hym by no maner of meane / And thenne fyre Gawayne made many men to blowe vpon fyr launcelot / And all at ones they called hym fals recreant knyght / Thenne when fyr Bors de ganys fyr Ector de marys and fir lyonel herd this oute crye / they called to them fyre Palomydes fir Safyrs broder / and fir La-wayne with many moo of their blood / and alle they went vnto fir launcelot and fayd thus / My lord fir launcelot wete ye 5 wel we haue grete sorne of the grete rebukes / that we herd gawayn fayre to yow / Wherfor we pray you & charge you as ye wille haue oure feruyfe / kepe vs noo lenger within thefe walles / for wete yow wel playnly we wille ryde in to the fel-d / and doo bataille with hem / for ye fare as a man that were 10 aferd / and for alle your fayr speche it wil not auayle yow / For wete yow wel / fire Gawayne wille not suffer you to be accorded with kyng Arthur / and therfore fyghte for youre lyf and your ryghte and ye dar / Allas fayd fyre launcelot for to ryde oute of this Castel and to doo batail I am ful lothe / 15 Thenne fyre launcelot spak on hyghe vnto fyr Arthur & fyre Gawayne my lordes I requyre you and bifeche you fythen that I am thus requyred and coniuured to ryde in to the felde / that neyder you my lord kyng Arthur nor you fyre Gawayne come not in to the felde / What shal we doo thenne fayd fyr Ga-20 wayne / is this the kynges quarel with the to fyghte / and it is my quarel to fyghte with the fyr launcelot / by cause of the deth of my broder fyre Gareth / Thenne muste I nedes vnto bataill fayd fyr launcelot / now wete you wel my lord Arthur and fyre Gawayne ye wil repente it when someuer I doo bataylle 25 with you / And soo thenne they departed eyther from other / and thenne eyther party made hem redy on the morne for to doo ba-tail / and grete purueaunce was made on bothe fydes / and fyr Gawayne lete purueye many knyghtes for to wayte vpon fir launcelot for to ouerfette hym / and to flee hym / And on the 30 morne at vndorne fyre Arthur was redy in the felde with three grete hooftes / And thenne fyr launcelots felauyhyp came oute at three gates in a ful good araye / and fyre lyonel came in the formest batail / and fyr launcelot came in the myddel / and fyre Bors came oute at the thyrd gate / Thus they came in ordre & 35 rule as ful noble knyghtes / and alwayes fyr launcelot charged all his knyghtes in ony wyfe to saue Kyng Arthur & fyr Gawayne

¶ Capitulum xiii

THenne came forth fir Gawayne from the kynges host and he came before and proferd to Iuste / and fir Lyo-nel was a fyers knyghte / and lyghtely he encoütreð with fyr Gawayne / & there fir Gawayne smote fyr lyonel th-5 urgh oute the body / that he daffhed to the erthe / lyke as he had ben dede / And thenne fir Ector de marys and other more bare hym in to the Castel / thenne there beganne a grete stoure & moche peple was slayne / and euer fyr launcelot dyd what he myghte to faue the peple on kyng Arthurs party / for fyr palomydes and fyr Bors and fyr Safyr ouerthrowe many kn- 10 yghtes / for they were dedely knyghtes / and fyre Blamor de ganys / and fyr Bleoberys de ganys with fir Bellangere le bewfe / these fyxe knyghtes cyd moche harme / and euer kyng Arthur was nyghe aboute fyr launcelot to haue slayn hym / & fyr launcelot suffred hym / and wold not stryke ageyne / Soo 15 fyr Bors encountred with kyng Arthur / and there with a spere fyr Bors smote hym doun / & foo he alyghte and drewe his swerd / and sayd to fyr launcelot / shalle I make an ende of this werre / & that he mente to haue slayn Kyng Arthur Not foo hardy sayd fyr launcelot vpon payn of thy hede / that 20 thou touche hym no more / for I wille neuer see that most noble kyng that made me knyghte neyther slayn ne shamed / & there with al fyr launcelot alyght of his hors & tooke vp the kyng & horfed hym ageyn / & sayd thus / my lord Arthur for goddes loue stynte this stryf / for ye gete here no worfhypp / and 25 I wold doo myn vtterauce / but alweyes I forbere yow / & ye nor none of yours forbereth me / my lord remembre what I haue done in many places / & now I am euylle rewarded Thenne whan kyng Arthur was on horfbak / he loked vpon fyr launcelot / & thēne the teres braist out of his eyen / thynky- 30 ng on the grete curtosy that was in fyr launcelot more than in any other man / & therwith the Kyng rode his wey / & myghte no lenger beholde hym / & sayd Allas that euer this werre began / & thēne eyther partyes of the batails withdrewe them to repose them / & buryed the dede / & to the woūded men they leid fofte 35 falues / and thus they endured that nyȝt tyll on the morne / & on the morne by vndorne they made hem redy to doo bataille / And thenne fyr Bors ledde the forward / ¶ Soo vpon the morne there came fyre Gawayne as brym as ony bore with a 5 grete spere in his hand / And whan fir Bors saue hym / he thoughte to reuenge his broder fyre Lyonel of the despyte that fyr Gawayn dyd hym the other daye / ¶ And so they that knewe eyther other feutryd their speres / and with alle theire myghtes of their horses and hem self / they mette to gyder soo 10 felonfly / that eyther bare other thorowe / and soo they felle both to the erthe / and thenne the bataills ioyned / and there was moche slaughter on bothe parties / Thenne fir launcelot reco-wed fyr Bors and sente hym in to the Castel / But neyder fyr Gawayne nor fyr Bors dyed not of their woundes / For 15 they were alle holpen / Thenne fyr Lauayne and fir Vvre pra-yd fyr Launcelot to doo his payne / and fyȝte as they had done / for we see / ye forbere and spare / and that doth moche harme therfor we praye yow spare not youre enemyes noo more than they done yow / Allas sayd fire Launcelot I haue no herte to 20 fyghte ageynst my lord Arthur / For euer me semeth I doo not as I oughte to doo / My lord sayd fir Palomydes though ye spare them alle this day / they will neuer conne yow thank And yf they may gete yow at auayle / ye are but dede / ¶ So thenne fyr Launcelot vnderstood that they sayd hym trouth 25 & thenne he strayned hym self more than he dyd afore hand / and by cause his neuewe fir Bors was fore wounded / And thenne within a lytel whyle by euenfong tyme fire Launcelot and his party better stode / for their horses wente in blood past the fytloks / there was soo moche people slayne / And thenne 30 for pyte fyr launcelot withhelde his knyghtes / and suffred kynge Arthurs party for to withdrawe them on syde / And thenne fir launcelots party withdrewe hem in to his Castel / and eyther parties buryed the dede / & putte falf vnto the wounded men / Soo whan fyre Gawayne was hurte / they on kyng Ar-35 thurs party were not soo orgulous as they were to fore hand to do bataill / Of this werre was noyed thorow al crystendome & at the last it was noyed afore the pope / and he confyderyng the grete godenes of kyng Arthur / & of fir laūcelot that was called the moost nobleſt knyghtes of the world wherefore the pope called vnto hym a noble Clerke that att that tyme was there preſente / the Frenſſhe book fayth / hit was the Biſſhop of Rocheſtre / and the pope gaf hym bulles vnder lede vnto kyng Arthur of Englonde / chargynge hym vpon payne of enterdy- 5 tynge of al Englonde that he take his quene dame Gueneuer vnto hym ageyne and accorde with fyr Launcelot /

¶ Capitulum xiiii

Soo whan this Biſſhop was come to Carleyl / he ſhe-wed the kyng theſe bulles / And whan the kyng vn-derſtood theſe bulles / he nyſt what to doo / ful ſayne he wold 10 haue ben accorded with fir launcelot / but fir Gawayne wold not ſuffre hym / but as for to haue the quene / ther to he agreed But in no wyſe fyre Gawayne wold not ſuffer the kyng to accorde with fyr Launcelot / but as for the quene he conſented / And thenne the Biſſhop had of the kyng his grete ſeal / & 15 his affuraunce as he was a true ennoynted kyng / that fyre Launcelot ſhold come ſauf / and goo ſauf / and that the quene ſhold not be ſpoken vnto / of the kyng / nor of none other / for no thyng done afore tyme paſt / and of alle theſe appoyntementes / the Biſſhop broughte hym ſure affuraunce & wry- 20 tynge to ſhewe fir Launcelot / So whan the Biſſhop was come to Ioyous gard / there he ſhewed fir launcelot how the pope had wryten to Arthur and vnto hym / and there he told hym the peryls yf he withhelde the quene from the kyng / It was neuer in my thoughte faide laūcelot to withholde the quene from 25 my lord Arthur / but in ſoo moche ſhe ſhold haue ben dede for my ſake / me ſemeth it was my parte to ſaue her lyf and putte her from that daunger tyl better recouer myghte come / & now I thanke god ſayd fir Launcelot that the pope hath made her pees / for god knoweth ſayd fyr launcelot I wyll be a thou- 30 ſand ſold more gladder to brynge her ageyne than euer I was of her takynge away / With this I maye be ſure to come ſauf / and goo ſauf / and that the quene ſhal haue her lyberte as ſhe had before / and neuer for no thyng that hath ben ſurmyſed afore this tyme / the neuer fro this day stande in no peryll / for els fayd fir launcelot I dare auenture me to kepe her from an harder shoure than euer I kepte her / It shal not nede yow fa-yd the Biffhop to drede foo moche / For wete yow wel the po-5 pe muste be obeyed / and it were not the popes worshyp nor my poure honeste to wete yow distressyd neyther the quene / neyther in perylle nor shamed / And thenne he shewed fir laun-celot alle his wrytynge / bothe from the pope and from kyng Arthur / this is sure ynough / fayd fir Launcelot / for ful well 10 I dare trust my lordes owne wrytynge and his feale / for he was neuer shamed of his promesse ¶ Therefore fayd fir Launcelot vnto the Biffhop / ye shall ryde vnto the kyng afore / and recommaunde me vnto his good grace / and lete hym haue knowlechyng that this same daye 15 cyghte dayes by the grace of god / I my self shall brynge my lady Quene Gueneuer vnto hym / and thenne saye ye vnto my most redoubted kyng that I will say largely for the que-ne / that I shalle none excepte for drede nor fere / but the kyng hym self and my lord sire Gawayn / and that is more for the 20 kynges loue than for hym self / Soo the Biffhop departed and came to the kyng at Carleyl / and told hym alle how fir laūcelot anfuerd hym / and thenne the teres braft oute of the ky-nges eyen / Thenne sire Launcelot purueyed hym an hondred knyghtes / and alle were clothed in grene velowet / and theyr 25 horses trapped to their heles / and euery knyghte helde a braunche of olyue in his hande in tokenyng of pees / and the que-ne had four and twenty gentylwymmen folowyng her in the same wyfe / and fir Launcelot had twelue courfers folowyng hym / and on euery courfer sat a yonge gentylman / and alle 30 they were arayed in grene veluet with farpys of gold about their quarters / and the hors trapped in the same wyfe doune to the helys with many ouches y fette with stones and perlys in gold to the nombre of a thowfand / and she and fir Laun-celot were clothed in whyte clothe of gold tyffew / and ryght 35 foo as ye haue herd as the Frensshe book maketh mencyon / he rode with the quene from Ioyous gard to Carleyl / and so

 Y moost redoubted kynge ye shalle vnderstande by the popes commaundement and yours I haue brougt to yow my lady the quene as ryghte requyareth / And yf there 15 be ony knyghte of what fomeaer degree that he be excepte your perfone that wylle faye or dar fay but that she is true & clene to yow / I here my self fyr Launcelot du lake wylle make it good vpon his body that she is a true lady vnto yow / but ly-ars ye haue lystned / & that hath caused debate betwixt yow & me / For tyme hath ben my lord Arthur that ye haue ben gre- 20 tely pleyfyd with me whan I dyd batail for my lady youre quene / & ful wel ye knowe my moost noble kynge / that she hath ben put to grete wrong or this tyme / & fythen it pleasfd yow at many tymes that I shold fyghte for her / me semeth my 25 good lord I had more caufe to rescowe her from the fyre in soo moche she shold haue ben brente for my sake / For they that told yow tho tales were lyers / & soo it befelle vpon them / for by lykelyhode had not the myght of god ben with me / I myghte neuer haue endured fourteen knyghtes & they armed & 30 afore purposed & I vnarmed & not purposed / for I was fente for vnto my lady your quene I wote not for what caufe / but I was not so soone within the chamber dore but anon fyre Agrauayn & fyr mordred called me traytour & recreaunt kn-yghte / They called the ryght sayd fyr Gawayn 35

¶ My lord fyre Gawayn said fyr Launcelot in their quarel they preued hem felf not in the ryght / wel wel fyr launcelot sayd the kyng / I haue gyuen the no caufe to do to me as thou haft done / For I haue worfhypped the and thyn more than ony of alle my knyghtes / My good lord sayd fire launcelot foo ye be not difpleafyd / ye fhalle vnderftande / I and myn haue done yow ofte better feruife than ony other knyghtes haue done in many dyuerfe places / and where ye haue ben ful hard befladde dyuerfe tymes / I haue my felf refcowed yow from afe yow and my lord fyr Gawayne bothe in Iuftes and tur-nementes and in batails fette bothe on horfbak and on foote/I haue often refcowed yow and my lord fyr Gawayne and many moo of your knyghtes in many dyuerfe places / for now I wil make au aunt sayd fir launcelot I wyl that ye al we-te that yet I fonde neuer no maner of knyghte / but that I was ouer hard for hym and I had done my vtteraunce / thāked be god / how be it I haue ben matched with good knyghtes as fir Triftram and fyr Iamorak / but euer I had a faueour vnto them and a demyng what they were / and I take god to record sayd fyr launcelot I neuer was wrothe nor gretely heuy with no good Knyghte and I fawe hym befy aboute to wynne worfhip / and glad I was euer when I fonde ony kn-yghte that myghte endure me on horfbak and on foote / hou be it fir Carados of the dolorous toure was a ful noble knyghte & a paffynge ftronge man / & that wote ye my lorde fyr Gawayne / for he myghte wel be called a noble knyghte whan he by fyne force pulled out of youre fadel / and bonde you ouer-thwarte afore hym to his fadel bowe / and there my lorde fyre Gawayne I refcowed yow and flewe hym afore your fift Also I fonde his broder fyr Turquyn in lyke wyfe ledyng fir Gaherys youre broder bouēden afore hym / and there I refcowed your broder and flewe that Turquyn / & delyuerd thre fcore and foure of my lorde Arthurs knyghtes oute of his pryfon And now I dare fay sayd launcelot I mette neuer with fo ftronge knyghtes nor fo wel fyghtyng as was fir Carados & of ryghte to remembre this / for & I myzt haue your good wil I wolde trufte to god to haue my lorde Arthurs goode grace

THe Kyng maye doo as he wylle fayd fire Gawayne But wete thou wel fyre Launcelot thou and I shalle neuer ben accorded whyle we lyue / for thou hast flayne thre of my bretheren / and two of them ye slewe traytourly and pytously / for they bare none harneis ageynst the nor none 5

¶ And wete ye wel fyre Gawayne as for fire Gareth I loue none of my kynnesmen so moche as I dyd hym / and euer wh-not al only for the grete fere I haue of yow / but many causes

 And the thyrd is / he was passyng noble / true curteys & gen-that euer they were vnarmed that vnhappy daye / But thus moche I shalle offre me said fir launcelot yf hit may please the kynges good grace and yow my lord fire Gawayne I shalle ne me with an hole Couent to synge and rede day & nyghte in especyal for fyr Gareths sake and fir gaherys / And this shal I performe from Sandwyche vnto Carleil / And euery hows shal haue suffycient lyuelode / and this shal I performe whyle 30 I haue ony lyuelode in Crystendom / and there nys none of al these relygyous places / but they shal be performed / furnysshed and garnysshed in alle thynges as an holy place oughte to te none auayle / Thenne alle knyghtes and ladyes that were there wepte / as they were madde / and the teres felle on kyng Arthurs chekes / Sire Launcelot fayd fir Gawayne I haue 30 THenne fyr launcelot fyghed / and there with the teres felle on his chekes / and thenne he fayd thus / Allas moost noble Crysten Realme whome I haue loued aboue al other realmes / and in the I haue gotten a grete parte of my worthyp / and now I shalle departe in this wyfe / Truly me repenteth that euer I came in this realme that shold be thus 35 shamefully bannysshed vndeferued and caueles / but fortune is foo varyaunt / and the whele foo meuable / there nys none constaunte abydyng / and that may be preued by many old Cronykles of noble Ector and Troylus and Alyfander the myghty Conquerour / and many moo other / whan they were moost in their Royalte / they alyghte lowest / and foo fareth it 5 by me sayd sir Launcelot / for in this realme I had worship and by me and myn alle the whole round table hath ben encryc-cyd more in worship by me and myn blood than by any other And therfor wete thou wel sire Gawayne I may lyue vp-on my landes as wel as any knyghte that here is / And yf ye 10 moost redoubted kyng wyll come vpon my landes with sire Gawayne to werre vpon me / I must endure yow as wel as I maye / But as to yow sire Gawayne yf that ye come there I pray yow charge me not with treason nor felony / for and ye doo / I must answer yow / doo thou thy best sayd sire Gawayne / 15 therefore hye the fast that thou were gone / and wete thou wel we shalle soone come after and breke the strengest Castel that thou hast vpon thy hede / That shalle not nede sayd sire Launcelot / for and I were as orgulous sette as ye are / wete you wel I hold mete yow in myddes of the felde / Make thou no mo- 20 re langage sayd sire Gawayne / but delyuer the quene from the / and pyke the lyghtely oute of this Courte / wel sayd sire Launcelot / and I had wyft of this shorte comynge / I wolde haue aduysed me twyes or that I had comen hyder / for and the Quene had be foo dere to me as ye noyse her / I durst haue 25 kepte her from the felausshyp of the best knyghtes vnder heuen And thenne sire Launcelot sayd vnto Gueneuer in heryng of the kyng and hem all / Madame now I muste departe from you and this noble felausshyp for euer / & sythen it is foo / I byfeche yow to praye for me / and saye me wel / and yf ye be hard be- 30 stad by any fals tonges / lyghtly my lady fende me word / and yf any knyghtes handes may delyuer yow by bataill / I shall delyuer yow / and there with all sire launcelot kyft the Quene/and thenne he sayd al openly now lete see what he be in this place that dar saye the Quene is not true vnto my lord Arthur 35 lete see who will speke and he dar speke / And ther with he bro-ughte the Quene to the Kyng / and thenne sire Launcelot toke his leue and departed / and ther was neyther Kyng duke / ne erle / baron ne knyghte / lady nor gentylwoman / but alle they wepte as peple oute of their mynde / excepte fir Gawayn / and when the noble fir Launcelot took his hors to ryde oute of Car-leyl / there was fobbynge and wepynge for pure dole of his de-5 partynge / and foo he took his way vnto Ioyous gard / And thenne euer after he called it the dolorous gard / And thus departed fir Launcelot from the courte for euer / And foo when he came to Ioyous gard he called his felauhyp vnto hym / & asked them what they wold do / thēne they anfuerd all holy to 10 gyders with one voys they wold as he wold doo / my fayre felawes fayd fyr Launcelot I must departe oute of this moost noble realme / and now I shalle departe / hit greueth me fore / for I shalle departe with no worshyp / for a flemyd man departed neuer oute of a realme with noo worshyp / and that is 15 my heuynes / for euer I fere after my dayes that men shalle cronykle vpon me that I was flemed oute of this land / and els my fayre lordes be ye sure and I had not dred shame my lady Quene Gweneuer and I shold neuer haue departed / Thenne spak many noble knyghtes as fir Palomydes / fir Sa-20 fyr his broder / and fir Bellangere le bewfe / and fir Vrrre with fir Lauayne with many other / Sir and ye be so disposed to a-byde in this land / we wyll neuer fayle yow / & yf ye lyst not to abyde in this land / ther nys none of the good knyȝtes that here ben will fayle yow / for many causes / One is / All we that 25 ben not of your blood shalle neuer be welcome to the Courte / And fythen hit lyked vs to take a parte with yow in youre distresse & heuynesse in this realme / Wete yow wel it shall ly-ke vs al as wel to goo in other countreyes with yow / and there to take fuche parte as ye doo / My fayre lordes fayd fir launce-ye shalle vnderstande fuche lyuelode as I am borne vnto I shal departe with yow in this maner of wyfe / that is for to fay / I shalle departe alle my lyuelode and alle my landes frely amonge yow / and I my felf wyll haue as lytel as ony of you 35 for haue I suffycyaunt that may longe to my perfon / I wyll aske none other ryche araye / and I truste to god to mayntene yow on my landes as wel as euer were mayntened ony knyȝtes / Thenne spak all the knyghtes at ones / he haue shame that wylle leue yow / For we alle vnderstande in this realme wyl be now no quyete but euer stryf and debate / now the selaufship of the round table is broken / for by the noble selaufhyp of the round table was Kyng Arthur vp borne / and by their nobles the kyng and alle his realme was in quyete and refte/ 5 and a grete parte they fayd all was by cause of your nobleffe

¶ Capitulum xviij

TRuly fayd fir Launcelot I thanke yow alle of youre good sayenge / how be it / I wote wel / in me was not alle the stabylte of this realme / but in that I myght I dyd my deuoyr / and wel I am fure I knewe many rebel- 10 lyons in my dayes that by me were peafed / and I trowe we alle shalle here of hem in shorte space / and that me fore repenteth / For euer I drede me fayd fyr launcelot that fyr Mordred wille make trouble / for he is passyng enuyous & applyeth hym to trouble / So they were accorded to go with fir Launcelot to 15 his landes / and to make shorte tale / they truffed and payd alle that wold aske hem / and holy an honderd knyghtes departed with fir laūcelot at ones / and made their auowes / they wold neuer leue hym for wele nor for wo / & so they shypped at Cardyf / & fayled vnto Benwyk / fomme men calle it bayen 20 and fomme men calle it Beaume where the wyn of beaume is But to saye the sothe / fyre Launcelot and his neuwes were lordif of alle Fraunce and of alle the landes that longed vnto Fraunce / he and his kynred reioyced it alle thurgh fyr Laū-celots noble prowes / And thenne fir Launcelot stuffed & fur- 25 nysshed and garnysshed alle his noble townes and castels/Thenne alle the peple of tho landes came to fyr Launcelot on foote and handes / and so whan he had stabled alle these countreyes / he shortly called a parlement / and there he crowned fyr Lyonel kyng of Fraunce / and sire Bors crowned hym 30 kyng of al kyng Claudas landes and fir Ector de marys/that was fir launcelot yongest broder / he crowned hym Kyng of Benwyk and kyng of alle Gyan that was fir launcelot owne land / and he made fir Ector prynce of them alle / & thus he departed / Thenne fir Launcelot auauenced alle his noble knyghtes / and fyrste he auauenced them of his blood / that was fyr Blamor / he made hym duke of Lymofyn in gyan / and fir Bleoberys he made hym duke of poyters / and fir Gahalantyn 5 he made hym duke of Ouerne / & fir Galyhodyn he maade hym duke of Sentonge / and fir Galyhud he made hym erle of perygot / and fir Menadeuke he made hym Erle of Roerge / and fire Vyllyars the valyaunt he made hym erle of Bearne / and fyr Hebes le renoumes he made hym Erle of Comange / and 10 fyr Lauayne he made hym Erle of Armynak / and fire Vvre he made hym erle of Efrake / and fyr Neroneus he made hym Erle of pardyak / and fire Plenorius he maade Erle of foyfe and fir Selyfes of the dolorous toure he made hym erle of mafauke / and fir Melyas de lyle he made hym Erle of Turfank 15 and fir Bellangere le bewfe he made erle of the laundes / and fire Palomydes he made hym duke of the prouynce / and fyre Safyr he made hym duke of Landok / and fyr Clegys he gaf hym the erldome of Agente / and fyr Sadok he gaf the Erldom of Surlat / and fir Dynas le Senefchal he made hym duke of 20 Anioye / and fir Clarrus he made hym duke of Normandye / Thus fyr launcelot rewarded his noble knyghtes / & many mo that me femeth it were to longe to reherce

¶ Capítulum xix

SO leue we fyr Launcelot in his landes / and his noble knyghtes with hym / and retorne we ageyne vnto 25 kyng Arthur and to fyr Gawayne that made a grete hooft redy to the nombre of thre score thousand / and al thyngge was made redy for their shyppying to passe ouer the see / & fo they shypped at Cardyf / and there kyng Arthur made fir Mordred chyef ruler of alle Englund / and also he put quene 30 Gueneuer under his gouernaunce by caufe fyr Mordred was kyng Arthur's fone he gaf hym the rule of his land and of his wyf / and foo the kyngge passed the see and landed vpon fyr launcelots landes / and there he brente and waisted thurgh the vengeaunce of fyr gawayne al that they myghte ouerrenne / whan this word came to fyr Launcelot that kyng Arthur and sir Gawayne were landed vpon his landes / & made a full grete destruclyon and waste / thenne spake fyr Bors & fayd my lord sir laūcelot it is shame that we suffre hem thus to ryde ouer our landes / for wete yow wel / suffre ye hem as lo- 5 nge as ye will / they wille doo yow no fauour / and they may handle yow / Thenne said sir Lyonel that was ware and wyfe My lord fyr Launcelot I wyll gyue this counceylle / lete vs kepe oure stronge walled Townes vntyl they haue hongre & cold / and blowe on their nayles / and thenne lete vs fresshe- 10 ly fette vpon hym / and shrede hem doune as shepe in a felde / that Alyaunts may take ensample for euer how they lande vpon oure landes / Thenne spak kyng Bagdemagus to fyre Launcelot / fyre your curtosy wyll shende vs alle / and thy cur-tosy hath waked alle this forowe / for and they thus ouer our 15 landes ryde / they shalle by proceffe brynge vs alle to noughte whyles we thus in holes vs hyde / Thenne said fyre Galihud vnto sir Launcelot / fyre here ben knyghtes come of kynges blood that wyl not longe droupe / & they are within these walles / therfor gyue vs leue lyke as we ben knyghtes to me- 20 te them in the feld and we shalle flee them / that they shal curfe the tyme that euer they came in to this countrey / ¶ Thenne spak feuen bretheren of northwalys / and they were feuen noble knyghtes / a man myghte feke in feuen kynges landes or he myghte fynde fuche feuen Knyghtes / Thenne they all said at 25 ones / fyr launcelot for crystes sake lete vs oute ryde with sir Galyhud / for we be neuer wonte to coure in castels nor in noble Townes / Thenne spak sir Launcelot that was mayster & gouernour of them alle / my fayre lordes wete yow wel I am full lothe to ryde oute with my knyghtes for shedyng of cry- 30 sten blood and yet my lendes I vnderstande ben full bare / for to susteyne ony hooft a while / for the myghty warres that whylome made kyng Claudas vpon this countrey vpon my fader kyng Ban & on myn vnkell Kyng Bors / how be it we will as at this tyme kepe oure strong walles / & I shalle fende a 35 messager vnto my lord Arthur a treatyce for to take for better is pees than allwayes warre / So sir laūcelot fente forth a damoyfell & a dwerfe with her / requyrynge Kyng Arthur to leue his warrynge vpon his landes / and so she sterte vpon a palfroy / and the dwerf ranne by her fyde / And whan she cam to the paucione of kynge Arthur / there she alyghte / and ther mette her a gentyl knyghte fyr Lucan the butteler & said / fa-5 ir damoyfel come ye from fyr Launcelot du lake / ye fyr she fa-yd / therfor I come hyder to speke with my lord the kynge / Allas said fir Lucan my lord Arthur wold loue launcelot / but fir Gawayne wyl not suffer hym / And thenne he sayd I praye to god damoyfel ye may speke wel / for alle we that ben 10 aboute the kynge wold fir launcelot dyd best of ony knyght lyuyng / And so with this lucan ledde the damoyfel vnto the kynge where he sat with fir Gawayne / for to here what she wold faye / Soo whan she had told her tale / the water ranne out of the kynges eyen / and alle the lordes were ful glad for to 15 aduise the kynge as to be accorded with fyr launcelot / fauf al only fyre Gawayne / and he sayd my lord myn vnkel / What wyl ye doo / wil ye now torne ageyne now ye are past thus fer vpon this Iourney / alle the world wylle speke of yow vylo-ny / Nay sayd Arthur wete thou wel fir Gawayne I wylle 20 doo as ye wil aduise me / and yet me semeth sayd Arthur his fayre profers were not good to be refused / but fythen I am comen foo fer vpon this Iourney / I wil that ye gyue the damoyfel her anfuere / for I maye not speke to her for pyte / for her profers ben so large

25 THenne fir Gawayne sayd to the damoyfel thus / Damoyfel faye ye to fir launcelot that it is wast labour now to fewe to myn vnkel / for telle hym / and he wold haue made ony labour for pees / he shold haue made it or this tyme / for telle hym now it is to late / & faye that I fir Gawa-30 yn foo sende hym word / that I promyse hym by the feythe I owe vnto god and to knyghthode / I shal neuer leue hym / tyl he haue slayne me / or I hym / Soo the damoyfel wepte & departed / and there were many wepyng eyen / and foo fir lu-can broughte the damoyfel to her palfroy / and soo she came to 35 fyr launcelot where he was among all his Knyghtes / & whan fyr launcelot had herd this anfuer / thenne the teres ranne do-une by his chekes / And thenne his noble knyghtes strode a-boutte hym / and sayd fir launcelot / wherfor make ye fuche chere thynke what ye are / and what men we are / and lete vs noble knyghtes matche hem in myddes of the felde / that maye be ly- 5 ghtely done sayd fir Launcelot / but I was neuer foo lothe to doo batail / and therefore I praye you fayre firs as ye loue me be ruled as I wyll haue yow / for I wyll alweyes flee þ^r noble kynge / that made me knyghte / And whan I may noo ferther / I muste nedes defende me / and that wyll be more wor- 10 shyf for me and vs alle / than to compare with that noble kynge whome we haue alle serued / Thenne they helde their lan-gage / and as that nyghte they tooke their rest / And vpon the morne erly in the daunyng of the daye / as knyghtes loked oute / they sawe the Cyte of Benwyk bysegged round aboute / 15 and fast they beganne to fette vp ladders / and thenne they de-fyed hem oute of the Towne / and bete hem from the walles wyghtely / Thenne came forth sire Gawayne wel armed vpon a styf stede / and he came before the chyef gate with his spere / in his hand cryenge / fyr Launcelot where arte thou / is there 20 none of you proude knyghtes dare breke a spere with me / Thenne fir Bors made hym redy / and came forth oute of the Towne / and there fir Gawayne encountred with fyre Bors And at that tyme he smote sire Bors doune from his hors / and al moost he had slayne hym / and foo sire Bors was re- 25 scowed and borne in to the Towne / Thenne came forth fir Lyonel broder to fyr Bors / and thoughte to reuenge hym / and eyther feutryd their speres / and ranne to gyder / and there they mette spytefully / but fir Gawayn had fuche grace that he smote fir Lyonel doune / and wounded hym there passynge fore / & 30 thenne fyr Lyonel was rescowed / and borne in to the towne / And this fir Gawayne came euery day / and he fayled not / but that he smote doune one knyghte or other / Soo thus they endured half a yere / and moche slaughtre was of peple on both parties / Thenne hit befelle vpon a day / fyr Gawayne came a- 35 fore the gates armed at alle pyeces on a noble hors with a grete spere in his hand / and thenne he cryed with a lowde voys / where arte thou now thou fals traytour fyre Launcelot / why hydest thou thy self within holes and walles lyke a coward / loke oute now thou fals traytour knyghte / and here I shal reuenge vpon thy body the dethe of my thre bretheren / Alle this langage herd sir launcelot euery dele and his kyn 5 and his knyghtes drewe aboute hym / and alle they sayd at ones to sir Launcelot / ¶ Sir Launcelot now must ye defende yow lyke a knyghte / or els ye be shamed for cuer / for now ye be called vpon treason / it is tyme for yow to stere / for ye haue slepte ouer longe and suffred ouer moche / Soo god me helpe 10 lpe sayd sir Launcelot I am ryghte heuy of sir Gawayns wordes / for now he charged me with a grete charge / And therfor I wote it as wel as ye that I muste defende me / or els to be recreaunt / Thenne fyr launcelot badde fadel his strongest hors / and bad lete fetche his armes / and brynge alle vnto the 15 gate of the Toure / and thenne sir Launcelot spak on hygh vnto kynge Arthur / and sayd my lord Arthur and noble kynge that made me knyghte / wete yow wel / I am ryghte heuy for your sake / that ye thus sewe vpon me / and alweyes I forbere yow / for and I wold haue ben vengeable / I myghte 20 haue mette yow in myddes of the felde / and there to haue made your boldest knyghtes ful tame / and now I haue forborne half a yere / and suffred yow and sir Gawayne to doo what ye wold doo / and now I may endure it no lenger / for now muste I nedes defende my self / in soo moche fyr Gawayne hath 25 apeeled me of treason / the whiche is gretely ageynste my will that euer I shold fyghte ayenst ony of your blood / but now I maye not forsake hit / I am dryuen there to as a beste tyll a baye / Thenne sir Gawayne sayd sir Launcelot / and thou darst doo batail / leue thy babblyng / and come of / and lete vs 30 eafe our hertes / Thenne fyr Launcelot armed hym lyghte / & mounted vpon his hors / and eyther of the knyghtes gat grete speres in their handes / and the hooft withoute flood styll all a parte / and the noble knyghtes came oute of the Cyte by a grete nombre / in so moche that whan Arthur sawe the 35 bre of men and knyghtes / he merueylled and sayd to hym self / Allas that euer sir launcelot was ageynst me / for now I see he hath forborne me / and so the couenaunt was made / there shold no man nyghe hem / nor dele with hem / tyl the one were dede or yelden

¶ Capitulum xxi]

THan fyr Gauwayn and fyr Launcelot departed a grete waye in fonder / & than they cam to gyder with al their hors myght as they myght renne & eyther smote other in myddes of their sheldes / but the knyghtes were soo stronge 5 & theyr sperys so bygge that their horses myȝt not endure her buffettes / & so their horses fyl to therthe / & than they auoyded their horses & dresyd her sheldes afore them / Than they stode to gyders & gaf many sad strokes on dyuers places of their bodyes that the blood brafte oute on many fydes and places / 10 Thenne had Syr Gauwayn sūche a grace and gyfte that an holy man had gyuen to hym That euery day in the yere from vnderne tyl hyhe none hys myght encreaced tho thre houres as moche as thryfe hys strengthe / and that caused fyr Gauwayn to wyinne grete honour / ¶ And for hys sake kyng Arthur 15 maad an ordenaunce that al maner of bataylles for ony qua-rellys that shold be done afore kyng Arthur shold begynne at vndern / & al was done for fyr Gauwayns loue / that by lyklyhode yf Syr Gauwayn were on the one parte he shold haue the better in batayl whyle his strengthe endured thre hou- 20 res / but there were but fewe knyghtes that tyme lyuyng that knewe this aduantage that fyr Gauwayn had / but kyng Arthur all onelye / Thus fyr Launcelot faught with fyr Gauwayn / & whan fyr Launcelot felte hys myght euer more encreace fyr Launcelot wondred & dredde hym fore to be shamed 25 For as the frensche book sayth Syr Launcelot wende whan he felte fyr Gauwayn double his strengthe that he had ben a fende and none ertely man / wherfore Syr Launcelotte traced and trauerfyd and couerd hym self wyth his shelde and kepte his myght and his brayde duryng thre houres / And that 30 whyle Syr Gauwayn gaf hym many sadde brundes ¶ And many sadde strokes that al the knyghtes that behelde fyr Laun-celot meruaylled how that he myȝt endure hym / but ful lytell vnderstood they that trauaylle that Syr Launcelot had for to endure hym ¶ And thenne whan hit was paste none Syr 35 Gauwayn had noo more but hys owne myght / Thenne fyr Launcelot felte hym so come down / than he stratched hym vp & floode nere fyr Gauwayn / & sayd thus my lord fyr Gauwayn now I fele ye haue done / now my lord fyr Gauwayn I must do my parte for many grete & greuous strokes I haue endured 5 you this day with grete payne / Than sir Launcelot doubled his strokes & gaf sir Gauwayn suche a buffet on the helmet that he fyl down on his fyde / & fyr Launcelot wythdrew hym fro hym / why withdrawest thou the sayd fyr Gawayn now torne ageyn fals traytour knyght & flee me / for and thou leue me 10 thus whan I am hole I shal do batayl wyth the ageyn / I shal endure you fyr by goddes grace / but wyt thou wel fyr Gauwayn I wyl neuer fmyte a fellyd knyght / & so fyr Launcelot wente in to the cyte / & fyr Gauwayn was borne in to kyng ar-thurs pauplyllyon / & leches were brought to hym & ferched and 15 salued with softe oynementes / & than fyr Launcelot sayd now haue good day my lord the kyng for wyt you wel ye wyne no worshyp at this wallys / & yf I wold my knyghtes oute brynge ther shold many a man deye / Therefore my lord Arthur remembre you of olde kyndenes / & how euer I fare Ihesu be 20 your gyde in al places

¶ Capitulum xxij

A Las said the kyng that euer this vnhappy warre was begonne / for euer fyr Launcelot forbereth me in al places / & in lyke wyfe my kynne / & that is fene wel this day by my newew fyr Gauwayn / Than kyng Arthur fyl seek 25 for forowe of fyr Gauwayn that he was so fore hurt / and by cause of the warre betwyxt hym and fyr Launcelot / So than they on kyng arthurs partye kepte the syege wyth lytel warre withoutforth / & they withinforth kepte theyr walles / & deffended them whan nede was / Thus fyr Gauwayn laye seek thre 30 wekes in his tentes wyth al maner of leche crafte that myȝt be had . & affone as fyr Gawayn myȝt goo & ryde / he armyd hym at al poyntes & sterte vpon a courser and gate a spere in his hande / and so he came rydyng afore the chyef gate of barwyk / and there he cryed on heyght where art thou sir Launce-35 lot come forth thou fals traytour knyȝt & recreante for I am here sir Gauwayn wyl preue this that I say on the / Alle this langage sir Launcelot herde / & than he sayd thus / sir Gawayn me repentys of your sayeng that ye wyll not scafe of your langage for you wote wel Syr Gauwayn I knowe your myght and alle that ye may doo / ¶ And wel ye wote fyr Gauwayn ye may not gretelye hurte me / Come doune traytour knyght fayd he & make it good the contrarye wyth thy handes / For it myshapped me the laste bataylle to be hurte 5 of thy handes ¶ Therefore wyte thou wel I am come thys day to make amendys / For I wene thys day to laye the as lowe as thou laydest me / Ihesu deffende me fayd fyr Launcelot that euer I be so ferre in your daunger as ye haue ben in myn / for than my dayes were doon / But fyr Gauwayn fayd fyr Laun- 10 celot ye shal not thynke that I tary longe / but sythen that ye so vnknyghtelye calle me of trefon ye shalle haue bothe your handes ful of me / And than fyr Launcelot armed hym at al poyntes and mounted vpon his hors / and gate a grete spere in hys hande and rode oute at the gate / And bothe the hoof- 15 tes were affembled / of hem wythoute and of them wythin / & stode in a raye ful manlye / And bothe parties were charged to holde them styll / to see and beholde the bataylle of these ij noble knyghtes / And thenne they layed their speerys in their reyfys and they came to gyder as thondre / and fyr Gawayn 20 brake his spere vpon fyr Launcelot in an hondred pyeces vnto his hande / & fyr Launcelot smote hym wyth a gretter myght that fyr Gauwayns hors fete reyfed / and so the hors and he fyl to the erthe / ¶ Thenne fyr Gauwayn delyuerlye auoy-ded his hors and put his shelde afore hym / and eygyrlye 25 drew his swerde and bad Syr Launcelot alyghte traytoure knyght / for yf thys marys fone hath faylled me / wyt thou wel a kynges fone and a quenes fone shal not faylle the / ¶ Than fyr Launcelot auoyded his hors & dresfyd his shelde afore hym and drew his swerde and soo stode they to gyders 30 and gaf many sad strokes that all men on bothe parties had therof passyng grete wonder / ¶ But whan fyr Launcelot felte Syr Gawyns myght soo meruayllously encrees / He than wyth helde his courage and his wynde / & kepte hym self wonder couert of his myght / and vnder his shelde he trafyd 35 and trauerfyd here & there to breke fyr Gauwayns strokes & his courage / and fyr Gauwayn enforced hym self with al his myght and power to destroye fyr Launcelot for as the frenshe book fayth / Euer as Syr Gawayns myght encreafed Ryght foo encreafyd his wynde and hys euyl wyll / Thus fyr Ga-wayne dyd grete payne vnto Syr Launcelot thre houres that he had ryght grete payne for to deffende hym / And whan the 5 thre houres were paffyd that fyr Launcelot felte that fyr Ga-wayn was comen to hys owne propre strengthe / Thenne Syr Launcelot fayd vnto fyr Gawayn now haue I prouyd you twyfe . That ye are a ful daungerous knyght and a wonderful man of your myght / and many wonderful dedes haue ye 10 doon in your dayes / For by your myght encrefyng you haue dyffeyued many a ful noble and valyaunte knyght / And now I fele that ye haue doon your myghty dedes / Now wyte you wel I muft do my dedys / ¶ And thenne Syr Launcelot ftoode nerre fyr Gauwayn / and thenne fyr Launcelot doubled 15 hys strokes / And fyr Gauwayn deffended hym myghtelye But neuertheleffe fyr Launcelot fmote fuche a stroke vpon fir Gauwayns helme / and vpon the olde wounde that fyr Gauwayn fynked down vpon hys one fyde in a fwounde / And a-none as he dyd awake he wauyd and foyned at fyr Laun-20 celot as he laye / and fayd traytour knyght wyt thou wel I am not yet flayn / Come thou nere me and perfourme thys bataylle vnto the vttermyst / ¶ I wyl nomore doo than I haue doon fayd fyr Launcelot / For whan I fee you on fote I wyll doo bataylle vpon you alle the whyle I fee you ftande on your 25 feet / But for to fmyte a wounded man that may not ftonde god deffende me from fuche a shame / and thenne he tourned hym and wente his waye toward the cytee / And fyr Gauwayn euermore callyng hym traytour knyght / and fayd wyt thou wel fyr launcelot whan I am hoole I fhall doo bataylle 30 wyth the ageyn ¶ For I fhall neuer leue the tyl that one of vs be flayn / Thus as thys fyege endured & as fyr Gauwayn laye feek nere a monthe / and whan he was wel recouerd and redy wythin thre dayes to do bataylle ageyn wyth fyr Launcelot Ryght fo came tydynges vnto Arthur from Englonde that 35 made kyng Arthur and al his hooft to remeue /

¶ There foloweth the xxi book

Capitulum primo

[leaf 419 verso]

AS fyr Mordred was rular of alle englond he dyd do make letters as though that they came from beyonde the see / and the letters specefied that Kyng Arthur was slayn in bataylle wyth fyr Launcelot / ¶ Wherfore Syr Mordred made a parlemente / and called the lordes togyder / & 5 there he made them to chefe hym kyng & soo was he crowned at caunterburye and helde a seeft there xv dayes / & afterward he drewe hym vnto wyncheſter / and there he took the Quene Gueneuer and ſayd playnly that he wolde wedde hyr / whyche was his vnkyls wyf and his faders wyf / And ſoo he made 10 redy for the ſeeft / And a day preſyxt that they ſhold be wedded / wherfore quene Gweneuer was paſſyng heuy / But ſhe durſt not dyſcouer hyr herte but ſpake ſayre / & agreyd to fyr Mordredes wyll / ¶ Thenne ſhe deſyred of fyr Mordred for to goo to London to bye alle manere of thynges that lon- 15 ged vnto the wedding / And by cauſe of hyr ſayre ſpeche Syr Mordred truſted hyr wel ynough / and gaf her leue to goo / And ſoo whan ſhe came to London ſhe took the toure of London / and ſodeynlye in alle haſte poſſyble ſhe ſtuffed hyt wyth alle manere of vytaylle / & wel garnyſhed it with men 20 and ſoo kepte hyt / ¶ Than whan Syr Mordred wyſte and vnderſtode how he was begyled he was paſſyng wrothe oute of meſure / And a ſhorte tale for to make he wente and layed a myghty ſyege aboute the toure of London / and made 25 many grete affaultes therat / And threwe many grete engynes vnto theym / and ſhotte grete gonnes / But alle myght not preuaylle Syr mordred / For quene Gueneuer wolde neuer for ſayre ſpeche nor for ſoule wold neuer truſte to come in hys handes ageyn / ¶ Thenne came the byſſhop of caunterburye the whyche was a noble clerke and an holy man / and ſo 30 thus he ſayd to Syr mordred / Syr what wyl ye doo / wyl ye fyrſt dyſpleſe god and ſythen ſhame your ſelf / & al knyghthode / Is not kyng Arthur your vncle no ſerther but your moders broder / & on hir hym ſelf kyng Arthur bygate you vpon his own fyſter / therfor how may you wedde your faders wyf 35 Syr ſayd the noble clerke leue this oppynyon or I ſhal! curſe you wyth book & belle and candell / Do thou thy werſt ſaid fyr Mordred wyt thou wel I ſhal deſye the / ſir ſayd the byſſhop & wyt you wel I shal not fere me to do that me ouȝt to do / also where ye noyfe where my lord Arthur is slayne / & that is not so / & therefore ye wyl make a foule werke in this londe / Pees thou fals preest sayd fyr Mordred for & thou chauffe me ony 5 more / I shal make stryke of thy heed / So the bysshop departed and dyd the curfying in the moost orgulist wyfe that myght be doon / And than Syr mordred fought the bysshop of caunterburye for to haue slayne hym / Than the bysshop fledde and toke parte of his goodes with hym & went nygh vnto glaftyn-10 burye / & there he was as preest Eremyte in a chapel / & lyued in pouerte & in holy prayers / For wel he vnderstode that myscheuous warre was at honde / Than Syr Mordred fought on quene Gueneuer by letters & fondes & by fayr meanes & foul meanys for to haue hir to come oute of the toure of london / but 15 al this auaylled not / for she answered hym shortelye / openlye and pryuelye that she had leuer flee hyr self than to be mary-ed wyth hym / Than came worde to fyr Mordred that kyng Arthur had arayfed the syege / For Syr Launcelot & he was comying homeward wyth a grete hoost to be auenged vpon 20 fyr Mordred wherfore fyr Mordred maad wryte wryttes to al the barownry of thys londe and moche peple drewe to hym For than was the comyn voys emonge them that wyth Arthur was none other lyf but warre and stryffe / And wyth Syr Mordred was grete loye and blyffe / Thus was fyr Ar-25 thur depraued and euyl sayd of . And many ther were that kyng Arthur had made vp of nought and gyuen them landes myght not than say hym a good worde / Lo ye al englyssh men see ye not what a myschyeve here was / for he that was the moost kyng and knyght of the world and moost loued the 30 felyshyp of noble knyghtes / and by hym they were al vphol-den / Now myght not this englyssh men holde them contente wyth hym / Loo thus was the olde custome and vfage of this londe / And also men saye that we of thys londe haue not yet loste ne foryeten that custome & vfage / Alas thys is a grete 35 defaulte of vs englysshe men / For there may no thyng plese vs noo terme And soo faryd the people at that tyme they were better plesyd with sir Mordred than they were with kyng Arthur / and moche peple drewe vnto sir Mordred and sayd they wold abyde with hym for better and for werse / and foo fyr Mordred drewe with a grete hooft to Douer / for there he herd saye / that sir Arthur wold arryue / and foo he thoughte to bete his owne fader from his landes / and the moost party of alle Englund helde with sire mordred / the peple were foo 5 newe fangle

¶ Capitulum ij

ANd foo as sire mordred wat at Douer with his host there came kyng Arthur with a grete nauye of shyppes and galeyes and Carryks / & there was fyr Mordred redy awaytynge vpon his londage to lette his owne fader to lā- 10 de vp the lande that he was kyng ouer / thenne there was la-uncynge of grete botes and smal / and ful of noble men of armes / and there was moche slaughter of gentyl knyghtes and many a full bolde baron was layd ful lowe on bothe parties/But kynge Arthur was so couragious that there myght no 15 maner of knyghtes lette hym to lande / and his knyghtes fyersly folowed hym / and so they landed maulgre sir mordreds and alle his power / and put sir mordred abak that he fledde & alle his peple / Soo whan this batail was done / kyng Arthur lete burye his peple that were dede / And thenne was noble fyr 20 Gawayne fonde in a grete bote lyenge more than half dede / Whan fyr Arthur wyft that fyre Gawayne was layd so lowe he wente vnto hym / and there the kyng made sorowe oute of mesure / and took sire Gawayne in his armes / and thryes he there swouned / And thenne whan he awaked / he sayd / allas 25 sir Gawayne my fysters sone / here now thou lyggeft the man in the world that I loued moost / and now is my Ioye gone / for now my neuewe fyre Gawayne I will discouer me vnto your persone / in fyr Launcelot & you I moost had my Ioye / & myn affyaunce / & now haue I lost my Ioye of you bothe / wher- 30 for alle myn erthely Ioye is gone from me / Myn vnkel kyng Arthur said sir Gawayn wete you wel my deth day is come / & alle is thorou myn owne hastynes & wilfulnes / for I am smyten vpon thold wounde the which sir launcelot gaf me / on the whiche I fele wel I must dye / & had sir launcelot ben with you 35 as he was / this vnhappy werre had neuer begonne / & of alle this am I causer / for sir launcelot & his blood thorou their prowes helde alle your cankeryd enemyes in fubiection and daungere And now fayd fir Gawayne ye fhalle myffe fir Launcelot / But allas I wold not accorde with hym / and therfor fayd fyr Gawayne I praye yow fayre vnkyl that I may haue pa-5 per / pen / and ynke / that I may wryte to fyre Launcelot a cedle with myn owne handes / And thenne whan paper & ynke was broughte / thenne Gawayn was fet vp weykely by kynge Arthur / for he was shryuen a lytel tofore / and thenne he wrote thus as the Frensshe book maketh mencyon / Vnto fyre 10 Launcelot floure of alle noble knyghtes that euer I herd of / or sawe / by my dayes / I fyre Gawayne kynge Lottes sone of Orkeney / fyfter sone vnto the noble kyng Arthur / fende the gretynge / & lete the haue knowleche that the tenth day of may I was smyten vpon the old wound that thou gaueft me/15 afore the Cyte of Benwyck / and thorow the fame woūd that thou gaueft me / I am come to my dethe day / And I wil that alle the world wete / that I fir Gawayne knyghte of the table round / foughte my dethe / and not thorow thy deferuyng / but it was myn owne sekynge / wherfor I byseche the fir laun-20 celot / to retorne ageyne vnto this realme / and see my tombe / & praye some prayer more or lesse for my soule / And this fame day that I wrote this fedyl / I was hurte to the dethe in the fame wound / the whiche I had of thy hand fyr Launcelot / For a of a more nobler man myghte I not be slayne / Also 25 fir Launcelot for alle the loue that euer was betwyxe vs / make no tarynge / but come ouer the see in al haste / that thou mayst with thy noble knyghtes rescowe that noble kynge that made the knyghte / that is my lord Arthur / for he is ful stre-yghtly bestadde with a fals traytour / that is my half broder 30 fyr Mordred / and he hath lete croune hym kynge / and wold haue wedded my lady quene Gueneuer / and soo had he done had she not put her self in the toure of london / And soo the / x / day of May last past / my lord Arthur and we alle landed vp-on them at douer / and there we putte that fals traytour fyre 35 Mordred to flyghte / and there it myffortuned me to be sly-ken vpon thy stroke / And at the date of this letter was wryten but two houres and an half afore my dethe wryten with myn owne hand / and soo subscrybed with parte of my hertes blood / And I requyre the moost famous knyghte of the world that thou wylt fee my Tombe / and thenne fir Gawayne wept and kynge Arthur wepte / And thēne they swowned both/And whan they awaked bothe / the kynge made fyr Gawayn to receyue his saueour / And thenne fir Gawayne praid the 5 kynge for to fende for fir launcelot / and to cherysſhe hym aboue alle other knyghtes / And so at the houre of none fyr Gawayn yelded vp the ſpyryte / and thenne the kynge lete entiere hym in a chappel within douer Caſtel / and there yet alle men maye ſee the ſculle of hym / and the ſame wound is ſene that 10 fyr Launcelot gaf hym in bataill / Thenne was it told the kynge that fyr Mordred had pyghte a neue feld vpon Ba-ramdoun / And vpon the morne the kynge rode thyder to hym and there was a grete bataille betwixe them / and moche peple was ſlayne on bothe parties / but at the laſt fyr Arthurs par- 15 ty ſtode beſt / and fir Mordred and his party fledde vnto Caū-turbery

¶ Capitulum iij

ANd thenne the kyng lete ſerche all the townes for his knyghtes that were ſlayne / and enteryd them / & ſalued them with ſofte ſalues that ſo fore were wounded / Then- 20 ne moche peple drewe vnto kynge Arthur / And thenne they fayd that fir Mordred warred vpon kyng Arthur with w-ronge / and thenne kynge Arthur drewe hym with his hooft doune by the ſee ſyde weſtward toward Salyſbury / and ther was a day affygnd betwixe kyng Arthur and fire mordred 25 that they ſhold mete vpon a doune beſyde Salyſbury / and not ferre from the ſee ſyde / and this day was affygnd on a monday after Trynyte ſonday / wherof kyng Arthur was paſſyng glad that he myghte be auengyd vpon fire Mordred / Thenne fyr Mordred areyſed moche peple aboute london / for they of 30 Kente Southſex and Surrey / Eſſex and of Southfolke and of Northfolk helde the moſt party with fir Mordred / and many a ful noble knyghte drewe vnto fyr Mordred and to the kynge / but they loued fir Launcelot drewe vnto fyr Mordred Soo vpon Trynyte ſonday at nyghte kynge Arthur dremed 35 a wonderful dreame / & that was this / that hym fered / he fatte vpon a chaflet in a chayer / and the chayer was fast to a whele and therupon fatte kyng Arthur in the rycheft clothe of gold that myghte be made / and the kyng thoughte ther was vn-5 der hym fer from hym an hydous depe blak water / and there in were alle maner of serpentis and wormes and wyld beestes foule and horryble / and sodenly the kyng thoughte the whe-le turned vp foo doune / and he felle amonge the serpentys / & euery beest took hym by a lymme / and thenne the kyng cry-10 ed as he lay in his bedde and slepte / helpe / And thenne kny-ghtes squyers and yomen awaked the kyng / and thenne he was foo amafed that he wyft not where he was / & thenne he felle on flomberyng ageyn not flepyng nor thorouly wakyng / So the kyng fered verily that there came fyr Gawa-15 yne vnto hym with a nombre of fayre ladyes with hym

And whan kyng Arthur fawe hym / thenne he fayd welcome my syfters sone / I wende thou haddeft ben dede / and now I fee the on lyue / moche am I beholdyng vnto almyghty Ihe-fu / O fayre neuewe and my syfters sone / What ben thefe la-20 dyes that hydder be come with yow / Sir faid sir Gawayne / alle thefe ben ladyes for whome I haue foughten whanne I was man lyuyng / and alle thefe are tho / that I dyd batail for in ryghteous quarel / and god hath gyuen hem that grace at their grete prayer / by caufe I dyd bataille for hem / that 25 they shold bryng me hydder vnto yow / thus moche hath god gyuen me leue for to warne yow of youre dethe / for and ye fyghte as to morne with fyre Mordred / as ye bothe laue affygnd / doubte ye not / ye must be slayne / and the moost party of your peple on bothe partyes / and for the grete grace and 30 goodenes that almyghty Ihesu hath vnto yow and for pyte of yow / and many moo other good men there shalle be slayne God hath sente me to yow of his specyal grace to gyue yow warnyng / that in no wyfe ye doo bataille as to morne / but that ye take a treatyce for a moneth day and profer yow largely / 35 so as to morne to be putte in a delaye / For within a monethe shalle come fyr launcelot with alle his noble knyghtes and re-fcowe yow worshipfully / and flee sir mordred and alle that euer wyllle worsh with hym / Thenne fyr Gawayne and al the ladyes vaynquyffhed And anone the kyng callyd vpon hys knyghtes fquyers and yemen and charged them wyghtly to fetche his noble lordes and wyfe byffhoppes vnto hym / And whan they were come the kyng tolde hem his auysyon what fir Gawayn had tolde hym / and warned hym that yf he faught 5 on the morne he shold be flayn / ¶ Than the kyng comaun-ded fyr Lucan de butlere And his broder fyr Bedwere with two byffhoppes wyth hem and charged theym in ony wyfe & they myght take a traytysse for a monthe day wyth Syr mordred / And spare not proffre hym londes & goodes as moche 10 as ye thynke best / So than they departed & came to fyr Mordred where he had a grymme hooft of an hondred thousand men / And there they entreted fyr Mordred longe tyme and at the laste Syr mordred was agreyd for to haue Cornwayl and kente by Arthures dayes After alle Englonde after the 15 dayes of kyng Arthur /

¶ Capitulum iiij

THan were they condefended that Kyng Arthure and fyr mordred shold mete betwyxte bothe theyr hooftes and eueryche of them shold brynge fourtene perfoncs And they came wyth thys word vnto Arthure / Than fayd he I am 20 glad that thys is done And so he wente in to the felde / And whan Arthure shold departe he warned al hys hooft that and they see ony fwerde drawen look ye come on fyerfly and flee that traytour fyr Mordred for I in noo wyfe truste hym / In lyke wyfe fyr mordred warned his hooft that and ye see ony 25 fwerde drawen look that ye come on fyerfly & foo flee alle that cuer before you stondeth / for in no wyfe I wyl not truste for thys treatysse / For I knowe wel my fader wyl be auenged on me / And foo they mette as theyr poyntemente was & fo they were agreyd & accorded thorouly / And wyn was fette 30 they dranke / Ryght foo came an adder oute of a lytel hethe buffhe & hyt stonge a knyght on the foot / & whan the knyght felte hym stongen he looked down and sawe the adder / & than he drewe his fwerde to flee the adder / & thought of none other harme / And whan the hooft on bothe partyes saw that fwerde 35 drawen than they blewe beamous trumpettes and hornes and shouted grymly And so bothe hooftes dresfyd hem to gyders And kyng Arthur took his hors and fayd allas thys vn-happy day & so rode to his partye ¶ And fyr mordred in like 5 wyfe / And neuer was there seen a more doolfuller bataylle in no crysten londe / For there was but ruffhyng & rydyng fewnyng and ftrykyng & many a grymme worde was there spoken eyder to other & many a dedely froke But euer kyng Arthur rode thorough oute the bataylle of fyr Mordred many ty-10 mes / & dyd ful nobly as a noble Kyng shold / & at al tymes he faynted neuer & fyr Mordred that day put hym in deuoyr and in grete perylle ¶ And thus they faughte alle the longe day & neuer stynted tyl the noble knyghtes were layed to the colde erthe / & euer they faught styll tyl it was nere nyghte 15 & by that tyme was there an hondred thousand layed deed vpon the down / Thenne was Arthure wode wrothe oute of mesure whan he sawe his peple so slayn from hym / ¶ Thenne the kyng loked aboute hym / & thenne was he ware of al hys hoofst & of al his good knyghtes were leste no moo on lyue 20 but two knyghtes that one was Syr Lucan de butlere & his broder Syr Bedwere / And they were ful fore wounded / Ihesu mercy fayd the kyng where are al my noble knyghtes becomen Alas that euer I shold see thys dolefull day / for now fayd Arthur I am come to myn ende / ¶ But wolde to god 25 that I wyfte where were that traytour Syr mordred that hath caused alle thys mefchyef / Thenne was kyng arthure ware where fyr Mordred lenyd vpon his swerde emonge a grete hepe of deed men / Now gyue me my spere fayd Arthur vnto Syr Lucan / For yonder I haue espyed the traytour that alle thys 30 woo hath wrought / Syr late hym be fayd Syr Lucan for he is unhappy / And yf ye passe thys unhappy day ye shalle be ryght wel reuengyd vpon hym ¶ Good lord remembre ye of your nyghtes dreme / & what the spyryte of Syr Gauwayn tolde you this nyght / yet god of his grete goodnes hath pre-35 serued you hyderto / Therefore for goddes sake my lord leue of by thys / for bleffyd by god ye haue wonne the felde / For here we ben thre on lyue / and wyth fyr Mordred is none on lyue / And yf ye leue of now thys wycked day of desteynye is pafte / Tyde me deth betyde me lyf fayth the kyng now I fee hym yonder allone he fhall neuer efcape myn handes / For at a better auaylle fhall I neuer haue hym / ¶ God fpede you wel fayd fyr bedwere / Thenne the kyng gate hys fperre in bothe his handes & ranne toward fyr Mordred cryeng tratour now 5 is thy deth day come / And whan fyr Mordred herde fyr Arthur he ranne vntyl hym with his fwerde drawen in his hande And there kyng Arthur fmote fyr mordred vnder the fhelde wyth a foynne of his fperre thoroughoute the body more than a fa-dom / And whan fyr Mordred felte that he had hys dethes 10 wounde / He thryft hym felf wyth the myght that he had vp to the bur of kyng Arthurs fperre / And right fo he fmote his fader Arthur wyth his fwerde holden in bothe his handes on the fyde of the heed that the fwerde perfyd the helmet and the brayne panne / and therwythall fyr Mordred fyl ftarke deed 15 to the erthe / And the nobyl Arthur fyl in a fwoune to the erthe / and there he fwouned oft tymes / And fyr Lucan de butlere and fyr Bedwere oftymes heue hym vp / And foo waykely they ledde hym betwyxte them bothe to a lytel chalpel not ferre from the fee fyde / And whan the kyng was there 20 he thought hym wel eafed / Thenne herde they people crye in the felde / Now goo thou fyr Lucan fayd the kyng and do me to wyte what bytokenes that noyfe in the felde / So fyr Lu-can departed for he was greuoufly wounded in many places And fo as he yede he fawe and herkened by the mone lyght 25 how that pyllars and robbers were comen in to the felde To pylle and robbe many a ful noble knyghte of brochys and bedys of many a good ryng & of many a ryche Iewel / and who that were not deed al oute / there they flewe them for theyr harneys and theyr rycheffe / Whan fyr Lucan vnderftode 30 thys werke he came to the kyng affone as he myght and tolde hym al what he had herde & feen / Therefore be my rede fayd fyr Lucan it is befte that we brynge you to fomme towne I wolde it were foo fayd the kyng /

¶ Capitulum v

BVt I may not stonde myn hede werches foo / A Syr Launcelot sayd kyng Arthur thys day haue I fore myft the / Alas that euer I was ayenst the / for now haue I my dethe / Wherof fyr Gauwayn me warned in my 5 dreame / Than fyr lucan took vp the kyng the one parte And Syr Bedwere the other parte / & in the lystyng the kyng fowned and fyr Lucan fyl in a fowne wyth the lyfte that the parte of his guttes fyl oute of his bodye / And therwyth the noble knyghtes herte brafte / And whan the kyng awake he 10 behelde fyr Lucan how he laye foomyng at the mowth & parte of his guttes laye at his feet / ¶ Alas sayd the kyng thys is to me a ful heuy syght to see thys noble duke so deye for my sake / for he wold haue holpen me that had more nede of helpe than I / Alas he wold not complayne hym / hys herte 15 was so fette to helpe me / Now Ihesu haue mercy vpon hys soule / than fyr bedwere wepte for the deth of his brother / leue thys mornyng & wepyng sayd the kyng for al this wyl not auaylle me / for wyte thou wel and I myght lyue my self / the deth of fyr Lucan wolde greue me euer more / but my tyme hy-20 eth fast sayd the kyng / Therfore sayd Arthur vnto fyr Bed-were take thou Excalybur my good swerde and goo with it to yonder water syde / and whan thou comest there I charge the throwe my swerde in that water & come ageyn and telle me what thou there seest / My lord sad Bedwere your com-25 maundement shal be doon & lyghtly brynge you worde ageyn So fyr Bedwere departed / & by the waye he behelde that noble swerde that the pomel & the hafte was al of precyous stones / & thenne he sayd to hym self yf I throwe this ryche swerde in the water therof shal neuer come good but harme & losse / 30 And thenne fyr bedwere hydde excalybur vnder a tree / And so as sone as he myght he came ageyn vnto the kyng and sayd he had ben at the water and had throwen the swerde in to the water / ¶ What sawe thou there sayd the kyng / fyr he sayd I sawe no thyng but waves and wyndes / That is vntrew-35 ly sayd of the sayd the kynge / Therfore goo thou lyghtelye ageyn and do my commaundemente as thou arte to me leef & dere spare not but throwe it in / Than fyr bedwere retorned a-geyn & took the swerde in hys hande / and than hym thought fynne and flame to throwe awaye that nobyl fwerde / and so efte he hydde the fwerde and retorned ageyn and tolde to the kyng that he had ben at the water and done his commaundemente / what fawe thou there fayd the kyng Syr he fayd I fawe no thyng but the waters wappe and waves wanne 5 A traytour vntrewe fayd kyng Arthur now haft thou betrayed me twyfe / Who wold haue wente that thou that haft been to me so leef and dere and thou arte named a noble knyghte and wold betraye me for the richesse of the fwerde / But now goo ageyn lyghtly for thy longe taryeng putteth me in grete 10 leopardy of my lyf / For I haue taken colde / and but yf thou do now as I byd the / yf euer I may see the I shal flee the myn owne handes / for thou woldest for my ryche fwerde fee me dede ¶ Thenne Syr Bedwere departed and wente to the fwerde and lyghtly took hit vp / and wente to the water fyde and 15 there he bounde the gyrdyl aboute the hyltes / and thenne he threwe the fwerde as farre in to the water as he myght / & there cam an arme and an hande aboute the water and mette it / & caught it and so shoke it thryse and braundysfied / and than vanyfshed awaye the hande wyth the fwerde in the water / So 20 fyr Bedwere came ageyn to the kyng and tolde hym what he fawe ¶ Alas fayd the kyng helpe me hens for I drede me I haue taryed ouer longe / Than fyr Bedwere toke the kyng vpon his backe and so wente wyth hym to that water fyde / & whan they were at the water fyde / euyn fast by the banke ho- 25 ued a lytyl barge wyth many fayr ladyes in hit / & emonge hem al was a quene / and al they had blacke hoodes / and al they wepte and shryked whan they fawe Kyng Arthur / ¶ Now put me in to the barge fayd the kyng and so he dyd softelye / And there receyued hym thre quenes wyth grete mor- 30 nyng and foo they fette hem doun / and in one of their lappes kyng Arthur layed hys heed / and than that quene fayd a dere broder why haue ye taryed so longe from me / Alas this wounde on your heed hath caught ouermoch colde / And foo than they rowed from the londe / and fyr bedwere behelde all 35 tho ladyes goo from hym / ¶ Than fyr bedwere cryed a my lord Arthur what shal become of me now ye goo from me / And leue me here allone emonge myn enemyes / Comfort thy felf fayd the kyng and doo as wel as thou mayst / for in me is no truſte for to truſte in / For I wyl in to the vale of auy-lyon to hele me of my greuouſ wounde ¶ And yf thou here neuer more of me praye for my ſoule / but euer the quenes and 5 ladyes wepte and ſhryched that hit was pyte to here / And aſſone as fyr Bedwere had loſte the fyght of the baarge he wepte and waylled and ſo took the foreſte / and ſo he wente al that nyght / and in the mornynge he was ware betwyxte two holtes hore af a chapel and an ermytage /

¶ Capitulum vi

10 THan was fyr Bedwere glad and thyd̃er he wente & whan he came in to the chapel he ſawe where laye an heremyte grouelyng on al foure there faſt by a tombe was newe grauen / whan the Eremyte ſawe fyr Bedwere he knewe hym wel / for he was but lytel tofore byſſhop of caun-15 terburye that fyr Mordred flemed / Syr fayd Syr Bedwere what man is there entred that ye praye ſo faſt fore / Fayr ſone fayd the heremyte I wote not verayly but by my demyyng / But thys nyght at mydnyght here came a nombre of ladyes / and broughte hyder a deed cors / and prayed me to berye hym / and 20 here they offeryd an hondred tapers and they gaf me an hondred befauntes ¶ Alas fayd fyr bedwere that was my lord kyng Arthur that here lyeth buried in thys chapel / Than fyr bedwere ſwowned and whan he awoke he prayed the heremyte he myght abyde wyth hym ſtyle there / to lyue wyth faſtyng 25 and prayers / For from hens wyl I neuer goo fayd fyr bed-were by my wylle but al the dayes of my lyf here to praye for my lord Arthur / Ye are welcome to me fayd the heremyte for I knowe you better than ye wene that I doo / Ye are the bolde bedwere and the ful noble duke Syr Lucan de butlere was 30 your broder / Thenne fyr Bedwere tolde the heremyte alle as ye haue herde to fore / ſo there bode fyr bedwere with the hermyte that was tofore byſſhop of Caunterburye / and there fyr bed-were put vpon hym poure clothes / and ſeruyd the hermyte ful lowly in faſtyng and in prayers ¶ Thus of Arthur I fynde 35 neuer more wryton in bookes that ben auctoryſed nor more of the veray certente of his deth herde I neuer redde / but thus was he ledde awaye in a shyppe wherin were thre quenes / that one was kyng Arthurs fyfter quene Morgan le fay / the o-ther was the quene of North galys / the thyrd was the quene of the wastelondes / Also there was Nynnyue the chyef lady 5 of the lake / that had wedded Pelleas the good knyght and this lady had doon moche for kyng Arthur / for she wold neuer suffre fyr Pelleas to be in noo place where he shold be in daunger of his lyf / & so he lyued to the vttermest of his dayes wyth hyr in grete reste / More of the deth of kyng Arthur 10 coude I neuer fynde but that ladyes brought hym to his buryellys / & fuche one was buried there that the hermyte bare wytnesse that somtyme was bysshop of caunterburye / but yet the heremyte knewe not in certayn that he was verayly the body of kyng Arthur / for thys tale fyr Bedwer knyght of the table 15 rounde made it to be wryton /

¶ Capitulum vii

WEt somme men say in many partyes of Englund that kyng Arthur is not deed / But had by the wyll of our lord Ihesu in to another place / and men say that he shal come ageyn & he shal wynde the holy crosse . I wyl not 20 say that it shal be so / but rather I wyl say here in thys world he changed his lyf / but many men say that there is wryton vpon his tombe this vers ¶ Hic iacet Arthurus Rex quondam Rex que futurus / Thus leue I here fyr Bedwere with the hermyte that dwellyd that tyme in a chapel besyde glaftynburye 25 & there was his ermytage / & they lyuyd in theyr prayers & fastynges & grete abstynence / and whan quene Gueneuer vnderstood that kyng Arthur was slayn & al the noble knyghtes fyr Mordred & al the remenaunte / Than the quene stode awaye & v ladyes wyth hyr / & soo she wente to almesburye / & there 30 she let make hir self a Nonne / & ware whyte clothes & blacke & grete penaunce she toke as euer dyd synful lady in thys londe / & neuer creature coude make hyr mery / but lyued in fastyng prayers and almes dedes / that al maner of peple meruaylled how vertuously she was chaunged ¶ Now leue we 35 quene Gueneuer in Almesburye a nonne in whyte clothes & blacke and there she was abbesse and rular as reason wolde and torne we from hyr / and speke we of Syr Launcelot du lake /

¶ Capitulum viii

ANd whan he herde in his contreye that Syr Mordred was crowned kyng in Englonde and maad warre a-5 yenst kyng Arthur his owne fader / and wolde lette hym to lande in hys owne londe / ¶ Also it was tolde Syr Launcelot how that fyr Mordred had layed syege aboute the toure of london by cause the quene wold not wedde hym / Than was fyr Launcelot wroth oute of mesure and sayd to his kyn-10 nesmen alas that double traytour fyr Mordred now me repenteth that euer he escaped my handes / for moche shame hath he done vnto my lord Arthur for alle I fele by the doleful letter that My lord fyr Gauwayn sente me / on whos soule Ihu haue mercy / that my lord Arthur is ful harde bestadde / Alas sayd 15 fyr Launcelot that euer I shold lyue to here that moost noble kyng that maad me knyght thus to be oursette wyth his subiecte in his owne royaume ¶ And this doleful letter that my lord fyr Gauwayn hath sente me afore his deth / prayeng me to see his tombe / wyt you wel his doleful wordes shal neuer 20 goo from myn herte / For he was a ful noble knyght as euer was borne / and in an vnhappy houre was I borne that euer I shold haue that vnhappy to flee fyrst fyr Gauwayn fyr Gaheris the good knyght and myn owne frende fyr Gareth that ful noble knyght / Alas I may say I am vnhappy sayd Syr 25 Launcelot that euer I shold do thus vnhappyly / and alas yet myght I neuer haue hadde to flee that traytour fyr Mordred Leue your complayntes sayd fyr Bors & fyrst reuenge you of the deth of fyr Gauwayn / & hit wyl be wel done that ye see fyr Gauwayns tombe / & secondly that ye reuenge my lord Ar-30 thur and my lady quene Gueneuer / I thanke you sayd Syr Launcelot for euer ye wyl my worshyp / Than they made them redy in al the haste that myzt be with shyppes & galeyes wyth fyr Launcelot & his hooft to passe in to englonde / & so he passyd ouer the see tyl he came to douer & there he landed wyth feuen 35 kynges / & the nombre was hydous to beholde / Than fyr Launcelot spyrrd of men of douer where was kyng Arthur become Than the peple tolde hym how that he was slayn / And Syr

Mordred & an / C / thoufand deyed on a day / & how fir Mordred gaf kyng Arthur there the fyrfte bataylle at his landyng & there was good fyr Gawayn flayn / & on the morne fyr Mordred faught with the kyng vpon baram down / & there the kyng put fyr mordred to the wers / Alas faid fyr Launcelot this is 5 the heuyeft tydynges that euer cam to me / Now fayr fyrs fayd fyr Launcelot shewe me the tombe of fyr Gawayn / & than certeyn peple of the towne brouȝt hym in to the caſtel of douer & ſhewed hym the tombe / Than fyr Launcelot knelyd down and wepte & prayeed hertelye for his foule / & that nyght he made 10 a dole / & al they that wold come had as moche fleſſhe / fyſſhe wyn & aale / & euery man & woman had xii pens come who wold / Thus with his owne hande dalte he this money in a moornyng gowne / & euer he wepte / & prayed hem to praye for the fowle of fyr Gawayn / & an the morne al the preeſtys and 15 clerkys that myght be goten in the contreye were there & ſange maſſe of requyem & there offeryd fyrſt fyr Launcelot / & he of-fred an / C / pounce / & than the ſeuē kynges offeryd fourty pounce a pees / & alſo there was a / M / knyghtes / & eche of hem offred a pounce / & the offeryng dured fro morne tyl nyght / & 20 fyr Launcelot laye two nyghtes on his tombe in prayers and wepyng / Than on the thyrd day fyr Launcelot callyd the kynges / dukes / erles / barons / & knyghtes & ſayd thus / My fayr lordes I thāke you al of your comyng in to this contreye with me / but we came to late & that ſhal repente me whyle I lyue / 25 but ayenſt deth may no man rebelle / But ſythen it is ſo ſaid fir Launcelot I wyl my ſelf ryde & ſeke my lady quene gueneuer for as I here ſay ſhe hath had grete payne & moche dyſeaſe / & I herd ſay that ſhe is fledde in to the weſte / therfore ye alle ſhal abyde me here / & but yf I come ageyn wythin xv dayes / Than 30 take your ſhyppes & your ſelawſhypp & departe in to your contraye for I wyl do as I ſay to you /

¶ Capitulum ix

THan came fyr Bors de ganyſ and ſayd my lord fyr Launcelot what thynke ye for to doo / now to ryde in this royaume wyt you wel ye ſhal fynde ſewe frendes 35 be as be may ſayd Syr Launcelot kepe you ſtylle here / for I wyl forth on my Iourney / and noo man nor chyld ſhall goo with me / So it was no bote to ſtryue but he departed and rode westerly & there he fought a vij or viij dayes & atte last he cam to a nonnerye & than was quene Gueneuer ware of sir Laun-celot as he walked in the cloystre / & whan she sawe hym there she swowned thryse that al the ladyes & Ientyl wymmen had 15 werke ynough to holde the quene vp / So whan she myȝt speke she callyd ladyes & Ientyl wymmen to hir / & sayd ye meruayl fayr ladyes why I make this fare / Truly she said it is for the fyght of yonder knyght that yender standeth / Wherfore I praye you al calle hym to me / whan fyr Launcelot was brought to 10 hyr / Than she sayd to al the ladyes thorowe this man & me hath al this warre be wrought / & the deth of the moost noblest knyghtes of the world / for thorough our loue that we haue loued to gyder is my moost noble lord slayn / Therfor fyr Laun-celot wyt thou wel I am sette in fuche a plyte to gete my foule 15 hele / & yet I truste thorough goddes grace that after my deth to haue a fyght of the bleffyd face of cryst / and at domes day to fytte on his ryght fyde / for as synful as euer I was are sayn-tes in heuen / therfore fyr Launcelot I requyre the & befeche the hertelye for al the loue that euer was betwixte vs that thou 20 neuer sec me more in the vyfage / & I comande the on goddes behalf that thou forsake my companye & to thy kyngdom thou torne ageyn & kepe wel thy royaume from warre & wrake / for as wel as I haue loued the myn hert wyl not serue me to see the / for thorough the & me is the flour of kynges & knyghtes 25 destroyed / therfor sir Launcelot goo to thy royaume & there take the a wyf & lyue with hir with loye & blyffe / & I praye the hertelye praye for me to our lord that I may amende my myflyuyng / Now swete madam sayd fyr Launcelot wold ye that I shold torne ageyn vnto my cuntreie & there to wedde a lady 30 Nay Madam wyt you wel that shal I neuer do / for I shal neuer be soo fals to you of that I haue promysed / but the same deyftenye that ye haue taken you to I wyl take me vnto for to plese Ihesu / & euer for you I cast me specially to praye / Yf thou wylt do so sayd the quene holde thy promyse / but I may neuer 35 byleue but that thou wylt torne to the world ageyn / wel madam sayd he ye say as pleseth you / yet wyft you me neuer fals of my promesse / & god defende but I shold forsake the world as ye haue do / for in the quest of the sank greal I had fofaken the vanytees of the world had not your lord ben / And yf I had done so at that tyme wyth my herte wylle and thought I had passed al the knyghtes that were in the sanke greal / excepte fyr Galahad my sone / and therfore lady sythen ye haue taken you to perfeccion I must nedys take me to perfeccion of ryght / for I take recorde of god in you I haue had myn erthly loye / and yf I had founden you now so dysposed I had caste me to haue had you in to myn owne royaume /

¶ Capitulum x

BVt sythen I fynde you thus desposed I ensure you saythfully I wyl euer take me to penaunce & praye whyle 10 my lyf lasteth / yf that I may fynde ony heremyte other graye or whyte that wyl receyue me / wherfore madame I praye you kyffe me & neuer nomore / Nay sayd the quene that shal I neuer do / but absteyne you from suche werkes & they departed but there was neuer so harde an herted man but he wold haue 15 wepte to see the dolour that they made / for there was laemen-tacyon as they had be stungyn wyth sperys / and many tymes they swowned / & the ladies bare the quene to hir chambre / & fyr Launcelot awok & went & took his hors & rode al that day & al nyȝt in a forest wepyng / & atte last he was ware of an 20 Ermytage & a chappel stode betwyxte two clyffes / and than he herde a lytel belle ryng to masse / and thyder he rode & alyght & teyed his hors to the gate & herd masse / & he that sange masse was the bysshop of caunterburye / bothe the bysshop & sir Bed-wer knewe fyr Launcelot / & they spake to gyders after masse 25 but whan fyr Bedwere had tolde his tale al hole fyr Launce-lottes hert almost brasste for sorowe / & sir Launcelot threwe hys armes abrode / & sayd alas who may truste thys world / & than he knelyd down on his knee and prayed the bysshop to shryue hym and affoyle hym / and than he befought the bysshop that he 30 myght be hys brother / Than the bysshop sayd I wyl gladly and there he put an habyte vpon Syr Launcelot / and there he seruyd god day and nyȝt with prayers and fastynges / Thus the grete hooft abode at douer and than sir Lyonel toke systene lordes with hym & rode to london to seke sir Launcelot / & there 35 fyr Lyonel was slayn and many of his lordes / Thenne Syr Bors de ganyes made the grete hooft for to goo hoome ageyn

And fyr boors / fyr Ector de maris / Syr Blamour / fyr bleoboris with moo other of fyr Launcelottes kynne toke on hem to ryde al englond ouerthwart & endelonge to seek fyr Launcelot / So fyr Bors by fortune rode so longe tyl he came to the 5 fame chapel where fyr Launcelot was / & so fyr Bors herde a lytel belle knylle that range to maffe / & there he alyght & herde maffe / & whan maffe was doon the bysshop fyr Launcelot & fir Bedwere came to fyr Bors / & whan fyr bors sawe fir Laun-celot in that maner clothynge / than he preyed the bysshop that 10 he myght be in the fame fewte / and so there was an habyte put vpon hym / & there he lyued in prayers & fastyng / and wythin halfe a yere there was come fyr Galyhud / fyr Galyhodyn / fir Blamour / fyr Bleoheris / fyr wyllyars / fyr Clarras / and fir Gohaleaniyne / So al these vij noble knyghtes there abode styll 15 and whan they sawe fyr Launcelot had taken hym to fuche perfeccion they had no last to departe / but toke fuche an habyte as he had / Thus they endured in grete penaunce syx yere / and than fyr Launcelot took thabyte of preesthod of the bysshop / & a twelue monthe he sange maffe / & there was none of these 20 other knyghtes but they redde in bookes / & holpe for to synge maffe & range bellys & dyd bodoly al maner of seruyce / & soo their horses wente where they wolde / for they toke no regarde of no worldly rycheffes / for whan they sawe fyr Launcelot endure fuche penaunce in prayers & fastynges they toke no force 25 what payne they endured for to see the nobleste knyght of the world take fuche abstynauce that he waxed ful lene / & thus vpon a nyght there came a vyfyon to fyr Launcelot & charged hym in remyffyon of his synnes to haste hym vnto almyfbury & by thenne then come there thou shalt fynde quene Gueneuer 30 dede / & therfore take thy felowes with the & parcuey them of an hors bere / & fetch the cors of hir / & burye hir by her hus-

35 THan fyr Launcelot rose vp oe day & tolde the heremyte It were wel done sayd the heremyte that ye made you were wayke & feble to goo / & whan fyr Launcelot was come to almyſburye within the Nunerye quene gueneuer deyed but halfe an oure afore / and the ladyes tolde fyr Launcelot that quene Gueneuer tolde hem al or ſhe paſſyd that fyr Launce- 5 lowes wente on foot from almyſburye vnto glaſtynburye / & 20 whan they were come to the chapel & the hermytage there ſhe had a dryge wyth grete deuocyon / & on the morne the here-THeñe fyr Launcelot neuer after ete but lytel mete nor more and dryed & dwyned awaye / for the byffhop nor none of his felowes myzt not make hym to ete and lytel he dranke peple coude not knowe hym / for euermore day & nyzt he prayed but somtyme he slombred a broken slepe / euer he was lyeng gro-uelyng on the tombe of kyng Arthur & quene Gueneuer / & there was no comforte that the byffhop nor fyr Bors nor none 15 of his felowes coude make hym it auaylled not / Soo wythin fyr wekye after fyr Launcelot fyl seek and laye in his bedde & thenne he sente for the byffhop that there was heremyte and al his trewe felowes / Than Syr Launcelot sayd wyth drery steuen / fyr byffhop I praye you gyue to me al my ryghtes that 20 longeth to a chrysten man / It shal not nede you sayd the here-myte and al his felowes / It is but heuyneffe of your blood ye shal be wel mended by the grace of god to morne / My fayr lordes sayd fyr Launcelot wyt you wel my careful body wyl in to therthe I houe warnyng more than now I wyl say / ther-25 fore gyue me my ryghtes / So whan he was howfelyd and enelyd / and had al that a crysten man ought to haue he prayed the byffhop that his felowes myght bere his body to Ioyous garde / Somme men say it was anwyk / & somme may say it was hamborow how be it sayd fyr Launcelot me repenteth 30 fore but I made myn auowe somtyme that in ioyous garde I wold be buried / and by cause of brekyng of myn auowe I praye you al lede me thyder / Than there was wepyng and wryngyng of handes among his felowes / So at a feson of the nyght they al wente to theyr beddes for they alle laye in one 35 chambre / And so after mydnyght ayenst day the byffhop then was hermyte as he laye in his bedd a slepe he fyl vpon a grete laughter / and therwyth al the felyshyp awoke and came to the bysshop & asked hym what he eyled / A Ihu mercy sayd the bysshop why dyd ye awake me I was neuer in al my lyf fo mery & so wel at ease / wherfore sayd fyr bors / Truly sayd the bysshop here was fyr Launcelot with me with mo angellis than euer I fawe men in one day / & I fawe the angellys heue 5 vp fyr Launcelot vnto heuen & the yates of heuen opened a-yenft hym / It is but dretchyng of sweuens sayd fyr Bors for I doubte not fyr Launcelot ayleth no thyng but good / It may wel be sayd the bysshop goo ye to his bedde & than shall ye proue the foth / So whan fyr Bors & his felowes came to 10 his bedde they founde hym starke dede / & he laye as he had smy-led & the swetteft fauour aboute hym that euer they felte / than was there wepyng & wryngyng of handes / & the gretteft dole they made that euer made men / & on the morne the bysshop dyd his masse of requyem / & after the bysshop & al the ix knyghtes 15 put fyr Launcelot in the same hors bere that quene Gueneuere was layed in tofore that she was buried / & foo the bysshop & they al togydere wente wyth the body of fyr Launcelot day-ly tyl they came to Ioyous garde / & euer they had an / C / torches bernnyng aboute hym / & so within xv dayes they came to 20 Ioyous garde . & there they layed his corps in the body of the quere / & fange & redde many faulters & prayes ouer hym and aboute hym / & euer his vyfage was layed open & naked that al folkes myght beholde hym / for fuche was the custom in tho dayes that al men of worshyp shold so lye wyth open vyfage 25 tyl that they were buried / and ryght thus as they were at theyr seruyce there came fyr Ector de maris that had vij yere fought al Englund scotland & walys sekyng his brother fyr Launcelot /

¶ Capitulum xlii

ANd whan fyr Ector herde fuche noyse & lyghte in the 30 quyre of Ioyous garde he alyght & put his hors from hym & came in to the quyre & there he sawe men synge wepe / & al they knewe fyr Ector / but he knewe not them / than wente fyr Bors vnto fyr Ector & tolde hym how there laye his brother fyr Launcelot dede / & than Syr Ector threwe hys 35 shelde swerde & helme from hym / & whan he behelde fyr Laun-celottes vyfage he syl down in a swoun / & whan he waked it were harde ony tonge to telle the doleful complayntes that he made for his brother / A Launcelot he fayd thou were hede of al crysten knyghtes / & now I dare fay sayd fyr Ector thou sir Launcelot there thou lyeft that thou were neuer matched of erthely knyghtes hande / & thou were the curteft knyght that e-5 uer bare shelde / & thou were the trueft frende to thy louar that euer befrade hors / & thou were the trewest louer of a fynful man that euer loued woman / & thou were the kyndest man that euer ftrake wyth fwerde / & thou were the godelyest perfone 10 man & the Ientylleft that euer ete in halle emonge ladyes / & thou were the sternest knyght to thy mortal foo that euer put fpere in the breste / than there was wepyng & dolour out of mefure / Thus they kepte fyr Launcelots corps on lofte xv dayes & than they buryed it with grete deuocyon / & than at leyfer 15 they wente al with the byffhop of canterburye to his ermytage & there they were to gyder more than a monthe / Than fyr coftantyn that was fyr Cadores fone of cornwayl was chofen kyng of Englund / & he was a ful noble knyght / & worfhypp-fully he rulyd this royaume / & than thys kyng Coftantyn fent & fo he was restored vnto his byffhoppryche / & lefte that Er-to his lyues ende / Than fyr Bors de ganys / fyr Ector de ma-ris / fyr Gahalantyne / fyr Galyhud / fir Galyhodyn / fyr Bla-25 mour / fyr Bleoberys / fyr Wyllyats de balyaunt / fyr Clartus of clere mounte / al thefe knyȝtes drewe them to theyr contreyes How be it kyng Coftantyn wold haue had them wyth hym but they wold not abyde in this royaume / & there they al lyued in their cuntreys as holy men / & fomme englyfhe bookes ma-30 ken mencyon that they wente neuer oute of englund after the deth of fyr Launcelot / but that was but fauour of makers/for the frenfhe book maketh mencyon & is auctoryfed that fyr Bors / fyr Ector / fyr Blamour / & fyr Bleoberis wente in to the holy lande there as Ihesu Cryft was quycke & deed / And 35 anone as they had ftablyfhed theyr londes / for the book faith fo fyr Launcelot commaunded them for to do or euer he paffyd oute of thys world / & thefe foure knyghtes dyd many bataylles vpon the myfcreantes or turkes / and there they ded vpon a good fryday for goddes fake / Here is the end of the booke book of kyng Arthur & of his noble knyghtes of the rounde

EDITOR'S NOTE.

IN order to avoid misunderstandings I beg to state in anticipation of the second volume:

1. The present edition follows the original in every respect, word for word, line for line, and page for page, and, with a few exceptions which are accounted for and registered, letter for letter.

2. Caxton's volume commences with a blank leaf, which, as shown by the signatures, is counted. This leaf is also in the present edition, but it is not counted here, for the simple reason that the coincidence of the signatures in Caxton with the marks of the binders in the present edition should be avoided. Thus, on page 65 the fourth sheet begins, and is marked at the bottom by "E," whereas Caxton's fourth sheet only commences on page 67 (c j).

3. There occur in the impression of Caxton three kinds of "w." (Compare the photographic facsimile: firstly, line 20, in the word "was;" secondly, line 21, in the word "afterward;" and, thirdly, in the same line in the word "toward.") The first kind of "w," according to Mr. Blades, denotes in type No. 4* the capital "W." Caxton's compositors did not distinguish, as they ought, these "w" from one another, so that the one denoting "W" frequently occurs in the middle of words and in other places, where it is evidently out of place. I have, therefore, in the present edition, as Roman type does not admit of marking the three kinds, rendered it by "W" in all cases where capital "W" was to be expected, as in the beginning of a sentence and in proper names, otherwise it is rendered by "w."

4. There are, further, two styles of "I" used in Caxton's edition. (Compare the photographic facsimile, firstly, line 1, and secondly, line 5.) At first it appeared that a difference was made between "i" and "j," but such is not the case; both kinds are used indiscriminately. I have, therefore, after some consideration, always rendered it by "I." Moreover, the first kind of "I" occurs more frequently.

5. The character "ȝ" is used in Caxton to express both "z" and "gh." In words where "z" was to be expected I have rendered "ȝ" by "z," otherwise I have preserved "ȝ," e.g., "Cezar" and "knyȝt."

6. Caxton has no fixed rules for dividing words at the end of a line. A word is divided as the space in each special case permits, and as a rule there is no conjunctive hyphen put—e.g., "horfes" is not broken "hor- fes" but "ho rfes." As I found that in many cases mistakes arose from this deficiency, I have for the convenience of the modern reader always added the hyphen where it was to be expected.

7. In some cases where Caxton's compositors evidently confounded "n" with "u," or the reverse, e.g., in "but," I have not reproduced the error. I have done the same in a few cases where "f" and "þ" were confounded, e.g., in "for."

8. In a few cases where letters or parts of words were either effaced or did not come out in printing, the missing matter is supplied in italics.
